

Origin Powers 811

Chapter 811 Stupidity Is a Disease, and You Are Beyond Cure

The days on the warship were actually quite boring.

Automatic navigation, ample food, living inside was no different than pigs in a pigsty.

Although there were entertainment facilities, Xu Lingjun was very willing to establish a good relationship with these members of the Demon clan in advance. After all, they were powerful, and if they joined Blue Star, even if they just lived there and did not follow his orders.

But when Blue Star really encountered a life-and-death crisis, they would definitely step in.

Then the biggest flaw of Blue Star—the lack of high-end combat power—could be thoroughly resolved.

But after a few games.

Xu Lingjun wasn't too keen to play with them anymore...

They loved to play but were bad at it, lost and got mad, then regretted later.

The men would try their best to disrupt the current game situation, wanting a complete do-over, while the women would act cute and call him brother nonstop, wanting another chance... completely disregarding that their ages could make them Xu Lingjun's great-great-grandmother.

So he ended up letting them play by themselves.

Even if they fought among themselves, at least they were sensible enough to hold back, otherwise how could this little warship withstand internal destruction from these powerful Demon Beasts?

And on this day...

Xu Lingjun, as usual, took a nap in the main cabin.

At the amusement area, various fighting games, online games, and those single-player games with excellent plot and immersive experiences.

In this cosmos where all creatures worry about the future and the survival of whole civilizations.

Who else besides Blue Star from another civilization would have so much free time to develop so many fun things?

These members of the Demon clan got addicted at once.

Intense fighting games.

Xuan Gui and Red Tide were having a heated battle while several members of the Demon clan cheered loudly behind them.

The game room was chaotic.

And at this moment...

One rather ordinary-looking middle-aged man, while cheering excitedly, slowly backed away, mumbling about needing to go to the toilet, ignoring whether anyone noticed.

He turned and left.

Closed the hatch here, then quickly walked towards his destination...

During this time, he had been wandering around under the pretense of browsing, secretly memorizing every structure and formation within the entire warship.

Even examined a few vital monitoring points clearly, laying the groundwork for his final objective.

Moving quickly, he carefully avoided all the surveillance.

Headed straight towards the nuclear power room.

Upon arrival, he carefully took out a black module about the size of his arm.

It constantly flashed with strange red patterns, changing shapes over time... but it was clear that the patterns were continuously shrinking.

A bomb.

Carefully attached this bomb outside the nuclear power room.

Having scouted thoroughly, since there were no regular maintenance personnel, and most of the time Xu Lingjun stayed inside the main cabin.

This place was basically deserted; setting up the bomb was almost a surefire thing.

"This time, I want your ambition to be completely exposed to all civilizations. Trying to secretly recruit us to become Blue Star's foundation? In what world is it that simple?"

Task completed.

He looked at the black bomb, with a cold smile in his eyes.

Turned and left...

Returned to the game room at an extremely fast speed, continuing to cheer loudly for his companions.

So quick that it indeed seemed like he just went to the toilet.

Little did he know, inside the main cabin, Xu Lingjun was completely speechless.

Even Xiaoya's voice was filled with weirdness, saying, "Master... detection shows..."

"Hmm, you don't have to say it, I already know."

Even though the warship was just over a hundred meters long, why were surveillance systems only set up in the most critical areas... to be honest, those surveillance systems were merely standard features of the warship system.

Both Xiaoya's scanning ability and Xu Lingjun's spiritual sense could easily cover the entire warship, rendering the surveillance system unnecessary.

"I had previously felt that this transport operation seemed too simple... unexpectedly simple."

Xu Lingjun pondered, "Unexpectedly, they were waiting for me here, just unsure if this is a group strategy, or a private scheme... or if there might be co-conspirators involved."

From this, it's evident that while the opponent's power is extremely strong, it was clearly just physical strength, as neither Xu Lingjun's spiritual sense nor Xiaoya's scanning could detect him.

So much so that his carelessness over the past few days, and his extremely short, rapid deployment, seemed completely laughable in Xu Lingjun's eyes.

"Master..."

"I'm going to check it out."

Xu Lingjun got up and walked out.

The opponent has made their move, he naturally needed to respond appropriately.

For now, let's first see what exactly the opponent's plan is.

Afterwards...

Xu Lingjun didn't deliberately raise any alarms, continuing as usual.

The warship steadily sailed towards Blue Star.

After setting up their methods, the opponent indeed did nothing further, continuing a daily routine of eating, playing, sleeping, eating... living a remarkably regular life.

Chapter 812 Stupidity Is an Illness, and You Are Incurable (Part 2)

These members of the Demon clan are really big eaters, especially since the warship now has curvature navigation technology, otherwise, the travel time would increase significantly.

I'm afraid even Xu Lingjun's supplies aren't enough for these gluttons to squander.

In the blink of an eye, another three to four days have passed.

Now, there are only three days left until Blue Star.

What is this... is the plan to make a move after reaching Blue Star?

Xu Lingjun was somewhat surprised. You must know, once back on Blue Star, the enemy, no matter how powerful, wouldn't be able to easily leave Blue Star again.

But watching that person's calm and unhurried demeanor, it was evident they had other plans.

"I'll see what you're up to."

Xu Lingjun thought, if you're not in a hurry, then naturally, I'm not either...

And now, as they gradually approached Blue Star, it wasn't just the scheming member of the Demon clan, even the other Demon Beasts started to grow uneasy.

Although this was a journey home, the Blue Star today was vastly different from the Blue Star they remembered.

Even though Xu Lingjun spoke convincingly, none of them could be sure about what kind of life awaited them on Blue Star... This was an adventure, a decision that would determine their future prospects.

Though they still noisily played games every day, even the most playful member of the Demon clan couldn't find joy in it, and concern flickered in their eyes.

They increasingly gravitated towards Xu Lingjun's main cabin, always finding excuses to start conversations with him, and occasionally, a few kind, affirmative words from him would ease their minds for a while.

But after some time... they'd feel uneasy again.

This cycle of worry and relief repeated continuously.

That noon.

The speeding warship suddenly gave a slight tremor.

Xiaoya's warning voice sounded in the main cabin.

"Master, it appears the warship has been locked on by a hostile system, and they are requesting we stop for inspection!"

At this, unease appeared in the eyes of all the Demon clan members.

With their strength, they naturally didn't fear these mere dozens of warships.

But if their presence was exposed to these people... without a doubt, the chances of safely returning to Blue Star would become almost zero.

Everyone's eyes turned to Xu Lingjun.

Just as Xu Lingjun was about to speak,

a sinister voice suddenly rang out beside him, sneeringly saying, "Well, it's time."

When the voice fell.

Everyone was surprised, looking at the figure hidden among the crowd.

Xuan Gui frowned and asked, "Yun He, what did you just say?"

"I said, how could you foolishly think of coexisting with humans on Blue Star? This is an indescribably stupid idea. Now, it's time to shatter your naive dreams. You group of aimless fools should drown with your dream of peaceful coexistence."

The Demon clan member called Yun He laughed, "Xu Lingjun, aren't you most afraid of exposure? Once exposed, you won't be able to secretly take them back to Blue Star, right? Unfortunately, with me, you're destined to be exposed."

This Yun He had been hiding amongst the Demon Beasts all along, silent and quiet.

But now, he seemed like a different person.

His eyes gleamed with malice, he laughed, "I have already planted explosives in the engine room. Now, your warship has been locked by the enemy. As soon as there is any abnormality, it will inevitably lead to enemy attacks. How many missiles can this warship withstand? By then, all of you will be exposed under their noses."

He took out a remote control, laughing, "Let it explode."

Saying that, he pressed the remote control viciously.

All the Demon clan members turned pale with shock, some even preparing for the explosion.

Only Xu Lingjun remained still, looking at Yun He with a speechless expression.

The surroundings remained silent, there wasn't even the faintest propulsion sound, let alone explosions...

Xu Lingjun said, "Xiaoya, inform the outside that this warship belongs to Xu Lingjun, the Master of Blue Star, and they must give way unconditionally. Anyone who blocks my path home is an enemy of Blue Star."

"Yes."

Xiaoya's voice responded.

Moments later, Xiaoya said, "Master, the other party replied that the Saiyan Civilization is willing to escort the Master of Blue Star. Do you require their protection?"

"No need, just open a separate route for me."

"Understood."

Xiaoya responded once more.

The crisis that had everyone on edge was resolved with such ease.

It left Yun He dumbfounded, frantically pressing the buttons in anger, "How can this be, what on earth happened... I clearly planted the explosives, could the bombs have malfunctioned... why didn't they explode, that's impossible..."

"Fool, I didn't even deploy a detection system, it's clearly something else. Why on earth did you naively think I had no precautions whatsoever? And also..."

Xu Lingjun asked, "Who exactly are you?"

"What?"

Yun He, caught in the act of pressing the explosives, was stunned, and blankly looked up at Xu Lingjun.

"You're not Yun He. I had already communicated with Lan Ling, who said Yun He is very indifferent or a hermit... as long as he has basic sustenance, he wouldn't fight with anyone."

Xu Lingjun shook his head, "And you, clearly aren't that kind of person. So, are you Celestial Lizard or Cloud Dance?"

Upon hearing the two names Xu Lingjun mentioned.

Yun He's face immediately darkened, along with the other Demon clan members, Xuan Gui shouted angrily, "If you're not Yun He, then where's the real Yun He?"

Celestial Lizard and Cloud Dance are the only two among the entire Demon clan who possess the ability to change color and shape.

Since Xu Lingjun spoke these names... it was evident he had determined the truth.

Could it be that this Yun He, who lived with them for months, was actually a fake?

"I didn't expect to be seen through by you, instead of those compatriots whom I lived with for thousands of years."

Yun He's colors shifted around, transforming into someone covered in dark scales, looking extremely terrifying.

He said, "I'm the Celestial Lizard."

"Elder?!?"

The younger Demon Beast, Red Tide, couldn't help but exclaim, "You... you actually..."

The Celestial Lizard, shockingly, was one of the thirteen elders, the longest-lived among the entire Demon clan civilization.

She unconsciously showed a reverent expression on her face.

Xuan Gui's face turned even grimmer, his usually slow manner now carried a hint of indifference, he angrily said, "Where's Yun He?"

Though not among the thirteen elders, he had the longest lifespan, his combat power wasn't outstanding, but his defense was impressive.

Thus, even in front of an elder, he wasn't afraid. What made him angrier was...

The Yun He they lived with day and night wasn't the real Yun He, where was the real Yun He?

Was he dead?

Or was he still alive?

"Don't worry, Yun He was just captured by Sword Wind, he's not dead, we don't have the habit of harming our kin."

The Celestial Lizard said, "My task this time was actually just to disrupt your return to Blue Star. Blue Star is originally ours. When we return, we must return as kings ruling Blue Star, rather than subjects beneath others. Therefore, after Sword Wind intercepted Lan Ling's information, he realized that you aimless kin might ruin his grand plan. He immediately captured Yun He and locked him up, and I took his place among you."

Looking at everyone, he couldn't hide his disappointment, he said, "And sure enough, you... actually forgot the glory of our Demon Gods civilization for a little temptation. Do you not know that joining Blue Star not only aids the enemy but also weakens us? Moreover, should His Majesty Sword Wind return to Blue Star, whose side would you be on? Then, under pressure, you would have no choice but to side with humans, even if you didn't wish to. By that time, a conflict between our kin would be inevitable."

"His Majesty Sword Wind?!"

Xu Lingjun sharply caught a sensitive point in the conversation.

Chapter 813 I Didn't Cultivate for a Thousand Years Just to Eat Plants

In fact, not only Xu Lingjun, but even those of the Demon clan were quite taken aback.

They looked at the Celestial Lizard with some surprise.

It must be noted that the lifespan of the Celestial Lizard is considered long among the Demon clan, and his status among the Thirteen Elders is not much lower than that of Sword Wind.

Especially since he is one of the only two in the entire Demon Beast race who possesses the innate ability to transform, making him even more precious.

Yet now, such a powerful and high-status member of the Demon clan has submitted to another elder who is at most his equal...

And judging from his tone, it was clear that he had unwavering faith in him.

"That's right, did you think His Majesty Jianfeng, like you, spent all these hundreds of years wandering aimlessly through the cosmos?"

The Celestial Lizard said: "In fact, not long after Jianfeng left Blue Star, he had a mystical encounter. Relying on that event, he conquered a civilization, and over these hundreds of years, he fully claimed that civilization as his own, then invited us to co-govern it. His original intent was to create a new homeland for us Demon Gods there. Back then, we even invited you!"

Xuan Gui was thoughtful.

Indeed...

Not long after leaving Blue Star, they all received an invitation from Jianfeng, saying that he had found a new homeland suitable for Blue Star's survival, inviting them to come and build a home together with him.

But they acted as if they hadn't heard the invitation.

Firstly, Jianfeng was too overbearing; when they were of the same clan, they had no choice but to submit to him.

But now, having finally separated... with the cosmos so vast, it's merely a matter of eating well or poorly, but surely they wouldn't starve to death?

Therefore, they had no reason to endure Jianfeng's temper any longer.

One must know that creatures like Yun He and Xuan Gui are herbivores. Although they might eat meat after transformation, their main diet is still plants. Naturally, they are inherently incompatible with Jianfeng, who has been a carnivore since childhood.

But unexpectedly, Jianfeng truly gathered a group of rather powerful Demon clan members.

"Initially, we were living quite peacefully, but we suddenly received a message from Xiong Zhen saying that Blue Star still holds life. Although the Spirit Realm we have forged is not much inferior to Blue Star now, Blue Star remains our home. Since it still exists, one day, we are bound to reclaim it."

The Celestial Lizard's gaze swept over the Demon clan, with a tone filled with both disappointment and frustration at their lack of progress.

He said, "But Your Majesty had not yet made a move, and you laggards were already impatient to cling to a new master's thigh. Why... are you so eager to become enemies with His Majesty Jianfeng? Would you rather bow low to a strange race than submit to His Majesty Jianfeng?"

Xu Lingjun, pondering, asked, "So you were lurking here because you received a message from Lan Ling?"

"Exactly, although she encrypted the communication method, this method was originally created by His Majesty Jianfeng, so he could easily intercept these messages."

The Celestial Lizard sneered, "In fact, even initially, Xiong Zhen didn't intend to notify His Majesty Jianfeng. It was just that he didn't expect that when leaving Blue Star, His Majesty had already formulated another plan. All communications of the Demon Gods were being intercepted by His Majesty."

He clearly did not agree with the notion of the so-called Demon clan; in his view, they are Demon Gods!

Just from the name alone, they were already far above the Demon clan.

"I see."

Xu Lingjun realized.

If that's truly the case, then Sword Wind's mind is indeed extremely calculating... having thought of intercepting all clan communications hundreds of years ago and managed to do so without anyone noticing.

This cunning and skill are indeed top-notch.

"So even if you have decided to stand opposed to His Majesty, He still bears no killing intent against you. Even though Yun He was planning to join you, after capturing him, we merely detained him to prevent him from thwarting our plans."

The Celestial Lizard's voice softened slightly, sighing, "In fact, our initial intention was only to thwart your plan to seek refuge on Blue Star, never intending to harm you. Otherwise, I could have easily slain you all during these past few months. Given the element of surprise, the chances of success were not low."

"So, the remaining fourteen members of the Demon clan are innocent? And only you harbour malicious intent?"

Xu Lingjun's gaze swept over the remaining fourteen members of the Demon clan...

Although the Celestial Lizard said so much, Xu Lingjun didn't entirely believe him.

Xuan Gui had mentioned earlier that within the Demon clan, there are two individuals with the ability to transform.

Who knows if the other one is hiding among them... one could hardly imagine so much intrigue among the Demon clan.

"On this matter, I can assure you."

Xuan Gui smiled wryly, "In our Demon clan, there is also Cloud Dance who has the ability to transform, but her temper is mild and she shouldn't do such things... but... but over hundreds of years, who knows if she might change? Just like Jianfeng, who could have known that in just a few hundred years, his mind would deepen to such an extent."

Xu Lingjun frowned and glanced at Xiaoya.

On Xiaoya's side, she immediately made a remote contact with Lu Ye.

Chapter 814 I Didn't Cultivate for a Thousand Years Just to Eat Grass_2

Moments later...

She nodded and said, "Sister Lu Ye said Xuan Gui's words are correct, Cloud Dance shouldn't be capable of doing such a thing."

"I see."

Xu Lingjun nodded and said, "This time I'll assume you were also deceived, but I will only accept this once. Don't try any tricks on me again, got it?"

The Celestial Lizard sneered, "This human never intended to treat you as equals. He's willing to accept you on behalf of the Blue Star because he wants you to work for him. Come with me, join His Majesty Jianfeng. When His Majesty Jianfeng resolves his current troubles and fully invades the Blue Star, we will reclaim it..."

"And then await the Blue Star's destruction once again."

Xu Lingjun sneered back, "How is that different from before? You are still wanderers without a home."

"Following you, the Blue Star won't perish?"

"I have mastered a way to restore a dying planet to life. The Blue Star was revived in this manner. When you left, you should have seen the state of the Blue Star... come back with me, and you'll see for yourself whether my words are true or not."

"Don't believe him. Once you go to the Blue Star, you'll lose all ability to resist. He'll draw out your courage and peel away your skin. He won't spare you."

The Celestial Lizard shouted loudly.

"I understand you are all of the same clan and don't want internal conflict... that's fine. I can take a step back. As long as you stay neutral, I can overlook this incident as if nothing ever happened."

Xu Lingjun gave a deep look at the demon clan and said, "This request isn't excessive, right?"

Xuan Gui turned to look at his companions, nodded, and said, "We want to return to our homeland. If you can really guarantee the Blue Star's permanence, then we can agree."

"Good, it's a deal!"

Xu Lingjun nodded.

"Trying to take me down alone? Arrogant confidence. Humans, once easily wiped out by our Demon Gods, now with a little Creation, dare to dream like this?"

The Celestial Lizard sneered, "Perfect, I think the same. Old Xuan, as long as you do nothing, out of clan consideration, I won't report your hesitation and indecision to His Majesty Jianfeng. After I kill this human, we'll pilot this warship back to the Spirit Realm. With your help... we can surely... ughhhh..."

He suddenly fell to the ground, convulsing violently, uttering a series of incoherent sounds.

Moments later, his entire body emitted black smoke and he lost all consciousness.

"Thirteen Elders? Is this it?"

Xu Lingjun disdainfully put down the button in his hand and sighed, "I said this bracelet was just a positioning device, and you actually believed it? Your power is too great. Without some safety measures, how can I trust taking you back to the Blue Star?"

Celestial Lizard: "....."

He stared wide-eyed at Xu Lingjun with unwillingness, pulling out a thing and throwing it at Xu Lingjun...

It was a fanged tusk emitting a cold light.

As thick as a human arm, calling it a tooth didn't do justice compared to a normal curved blade.

Just as the tooth appeared, it immediately transformed upon facing the wind.

A massive snow-white tiger roared, charging at Xu Lingjun with a rancid wind.

"Be careful, this is Jianfeng!"

Xuan Gui couldn't help but cry out, all too familiar with this figure.

"What?"

Xu Lingjun was equally stunned. He was stunned by something else.

This thing was familiar... clearly it was...

A magical treasure!!!

So Jianfeng possessed magical treasures like those of a cultivator?

Without hesitation, he beckoned with a casual gesture...

The surrounding temperature suddenly dropped, countless silver lights interlaced, beautifully vivid light and shadow engulfing the giant tiger, as quick as a meteor, catching anyone off guard.

The white tiger was instantly torn to pieces by the countless light and shadows.

From the moment the giant tiger appeared to its disappearance at Xu Lingjun's hands, it happened so quickly, it seemed like an illusion.

Nine Heavens and Ten Earths Demon-avoiding Divine Shuttle!

It was precisely the magical treasure Xu Lingjun imbued over time because it had similar attributes to the Thousand Slaughter Blade Technique, both extremely yin and cold. Imbuing it alongside the Thousand Slaughter Blade Technique elevated Xu Lingjun's attack power by several levels.

It was intended to compensate for his lack of attack power.

In an instant, the tiger's shadow disappeared, leaving only a floating tiger head in mid-air... staring intently at Xu Lingjun, it spoke sinisterly, "Human, I will remember you. Remember, you only defeated a single tooth of mine."

"I haven't even begun to warm up."

Xu Lingjun recalled the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths Demon-avoiding Divine Shuttle.

Conveniently putting away the Heavenly Mirror in his other hand... evidently, while dealing with Jianfeng, he was still on guard against the dozens of demons secretly.

What he didn't expect was that Jianfeng wielded magical treasures.

This tooth was clearly removed by him, then refined into a magical treasure.

As the tiger head vanished, a tooth that had been severed fell to the ground... obviously, it had been completely devoid of spirit by the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths Demon-avoiding Divine Shuttle, turning into a dead object.

Facing Xu Lingjun's gaze.

The Celestial Lizard's lips quivered, seemingly wanting to curse him for not fighting with honor.

So powerful, he shattered the treasure bestowed by His Majesty Jianfeng with a single blow. This power was on par with his own, yet this cheap trick was used to electrocute him.

How can the world have such devious people?

"Lock him up, and we'll deal with him later after we return... don't worry, I won't take his life."

Xu Lingjun still had many questions for him.

For example, what secrets lie in this Spirit Realm, Jianfeng's base of operations.

"Xiaoya, keep an eye on the Celestial Lizard the whole time. If he tries anything, knock him out instantly. His skin is thick; electricity won't kill him."

"Understood, Master."

"Alright, go back and rest. In two days, we'll arrive at the Blue Star. Then you'll see that my words are not false."

Xu Lingjun looked at Xuan Gui and the others' somewhat off-kilter expressions, smiled, and said, "Don't worry, it's only a necessary precaution. In fact, once you settle on the Blue Star, these can be removed; Lan Ling used to wear this, but doesn't anymore."

"Oh, oh."

Everyone responded.

Feng Horse hesitated, wanting to ask if Xu Lingjun's strength was enough to rival the Celestial Lizard... why the need for such tactics...

But thinking about it, it's probably that he fears the battle causing damage to the warship, thoroughly exposing them, right?

Unaware, Xu Lingjun was secretly pleased...

Not only had he caught a live one.

But also obtained a fuel pack.

Locking him up, isn't that a recyclable booster?

Wonderful, wonderful, I can't wait to interrogate him.

Without the Celestial Lizard's obstruction...

The journey was smooth sailing.

Who dares to impede the Master of the Blue Star's path?

The warship proceeded unimpeded towards the Blue Star.

Two days later, the warship broke through the Blue Star's atmosphere and entered its interior...

By this time, the many demons were captivated by the Blue Star's grandeur.

Floating skyscrapers, advanced floating magnetic flying devices, and brilliant lights dazzled the demons.

"Is the Blue Star now so advanced?"

Xuan Gui couldn't help but exclaim.

"This is human territory. As for you demons, you can cohabitate with the demon beasts in the Secret Realm... it's an untouched forest; you might find it more to your liking."

"No, no, no, I actually prefer the human world!"

Thinking of the delicacies Xu Lingjun described as just the tip of the iceberg... not to mention the entertaining games...

Lately, Johnson has been utterly hooked on a game called "Infinite" OL.

An untouched forest?

What a joke... having spent millennia achieving a human form, he didn't endure that to return to eating grass in a primitive forest.

Chapter 815 Almost Blew My Cover

Finally, assurance came from Xu Lingjun.

He stated that as long as they pass a certain examination period... of course, this examination is mainly due to the previous Celestial Lizard, to prevent Sword Wind from doing something on them again.

Previously, the means of communication among the demon clan was no longer allowed by Xu Lingjun.

Although over the years, Sword Wind likely has almost gathered all the information about their kind through their conversations.

But Xu Lingjun does not wish for them to also uncover everything about Blue Star once they arrive.

Yet, even then, a second Celestial Lizard's existence must be guarded against.

Before fully draining the Celestial Lizard, he does not intend to grant these people freedom...

Fortunately, the Secret Realm is also connected to the internet.

This doesn't affect these people from playing games and enjoying delicacies... which made Johnson and similar demon clans nod contentedly, expressing that as long as there's internet, they can endure in the Secret Realm indefinitely.

When the warship stopped at the Secret Realm and the hatch opened with everyone disembarking the ship.

There were no imagined powerful enemies surrounding them, instead, countless demon beasts perched around, watching these demon clans disembark with eyes filled with curiosity and a bit of disbelief.

Without any doubt...

They are what they will become in the future.

No matter how much rejection there is, there will still be some degree of curiosity and investigation.

Standing at the forefront were Lu'Er and Lan Ling.

But now, Lan Ling was no longer in that simple and humble illusionary clothing, but fashionable blue leather pants paired with a snug vest, her waist adorned with three thick Silver Chains, and her previously rather smooth hair now completely explosive with a kaleidoscope of colors.

Instantly, Xu Lingjun felt transported back to ten years ago in terms of aesthetics.

Tacky.

Upon seeing Xuan Gui disembark, Lan Ling cheered loudly, rushing over as she shouted, "Grandpa Xuan Gui!"

She lunged into Xuan Gui's arms.

Xuan Gui's expression changed dramatically, exclaiming, "You... Xiaoling'Er, what happened to your hair? Who shocked you like this?"

"No, I'm fine, this is the latest trend of explosive hair I styled myself."

Lan Ling's gaze followed Xuan Gui, scanning behind him, laughing, "Johnson Brother, Iron Man, Old Crocodile..."

She called out to each of them, delightedly exclaiming, "You're all here, huh, where's Yun He Sister?"

Xuan Gui smiled wryly, "Yun He was captured by Sword Wind."

"First, lock up the prisoners, and we'll talk about everything later... Lu Ye, Lan Ling, you two should host them well, set up accommodation for them, they've waited for me for months, and after such a long journey, they must be worn out, right? Oh, and prepare a few immersive helmets, some of the new friends really enjoy gaming."

Johnson immediately began to smile contentedly.

The pure demon clan encountering games, there was no way they wouldn't instantly get hooked.

Xu Lingjun turned to Xuan Gui and said, "Now that you're all here, any questions or issues can be directed to Lan Ling, her words are likely trustworthy to you all. I have some matters to attend to, so I won't accompany you. If there's anything you need my assistance with, you can also approach Lu Ye."

"Lu Ye."

Xuan Gui looked at Lu Ye and couldn't help but exclaim in surprise after just one glance, "You... you're the Ancient Willow Tree?"

Lu Ye smiled, "With so many demon clans, you're the first to recognize my true form at a glance."

"You are now... the Master of the Secret Realm?"

"Indeed."

"That's good."

This way, the Secret Realm still belongs to the demon clan.

Although Lu Ye transformed after they left, he is still their kin... If the Secret Realm is still under the control of their kin, then the theory the Celestial Lizard mentioned about serving humans does not hold true.

Their last shred of worry was then gone.

After bidding farewell to Xu Lingjun, they followed Lu Ye into the depths of the Secret Realm... where their accommodations had long been arranged.

With their kin finally back, Lan Ling's mood became extraordinarily joyous, even as they walked away, the chirpy laughter was incessant.

Xu Lingjun slightly smiled, glancing at the massive iron cage being moved elsewhere, a playful smile flashed in his eyes.

Three hours later.

The Celestial Lizard finally awoke groggily...

This period, his consciousness was in a constant state of drowsiness, wavering between wakefulness and sleep, each time he had the desire to awaken, an intense numbness followed, and a strong electric current immediately sent him back into sleep.

His physique, especially remarkable, allowed him to awaken almost every one to two hours only to be shocked into unconsciousness again... How many times he endured this, even he couldn't count.

All he knew was that his body felt like it had fallen apart, every bone, every cell, was screaming in pain.

"So, have I finally returned to Blue Star?"

The Celestial Lizard smiled bitterly, unless he returned to Blue Star, that terrible human would never allow him to awaken.

So now...

"You are currently inside the Secret Realm."

Suddenly, a voice sounded beside him.

"Who?!"

The Celestial Lizard, alarmed, leapt up, and only then did he notice that right next to him... Xu Lingjun had been sitting there comfortably for a while, and he hadn't realized his presence upon awakening with his groggy mind.

Chapter 816 Almost Blew My Cover (Part 2)

"What are you doing here?"

The Celestial Lizard shouted in a deep voice.

"The Secret Realm is my territory. I managed to capture a prisoner with great difficulty, so naturally, I need to interrogate him properly."

Xu Lingjun raised his hand and said, "And you mentioned before that His Majesty Jianfeng would eventually retaliate, so it's only natural for me to gather as much intelligence on him as possible. You must have heard of the saying 'know your enemy and yourself, and you can fight a hundred battles without disaster,' right?"

"Do you think I'll tell you?"

"I am indeed prepared for your stubborn resistance. I've even prepared many methods of torture, such as lighting the Sky Lantern, mercury skinning, rats burrowing into the stomach, oral transmission, and so on..."

He merely mentioned a few terms.

Xu Lingjun didn't even explain these tortures in detail, but the Celestial Lizard's scalp went numb hearing them. Some things don't need explanation; imagining them is frightening enough.

"But..."

With Xu Lingjun's "but," the heart of the Celestial Lizard suddenly tensed up.

"But after all, you're of the same race as Xuan Gui and the others. If I go too hard on you, they might develop a grudge against me... you should be able to understand this."

The Celestial Lizard laughed awkwardly, with an undertone of tremble even he couldn't detect.

He said, "Indeed, we are of the same race, and even in the worst-case scenario, we never planned to harm their lives. Similarly, if you dare to torture me, they will never willingly submit to you."

"So, I actually have a good idea, which is a win-win situation."

Xu Lingjun smiled and asked, "Don't you think it was quite inhumane of me to use such despicable tactics to defeat you before... Do you want to reclaim your honor from that previous defeat?"

"What do you mean?"

"It means nothing. I want to interrogate the contents you know, and you want to defeat me and reclaim your honor. Why don't we come to an agreement... We'll have a fair duel. If I win, you answer one of my questions; if I lose, you can leave Blue Star, wherever you want to go, and I won't stop you."

Xu Lingjun continued, "You can challenge me over and over, with no limit to the number of times. No matter how many times I win, as long as you answer my questions honestly, but if you can defeat me even once, I'll let you go."

The Celestial Lizard asked, "Why should I believe you?"

Xu Lingjun tossed a small player to the Celestial Lizard.

The Celestial Lizard opened it, and within, Xu Lingjun's image appeared, saying, "I want to interrogate the contents you know, and you want to defeat me and reclaim your honor..."

This was precisely the recording of what he had just said.

"If I go back on my word, you can spread this video. It will become known to all your kin that I am untrustworthy. By then, gathering them back would be far more difficult. This sincerity should be enough, right?"

Xu Lingjun asked, "I've stepped back this far, and you still don't dare to agree?"

"Of course not. I just want to ask... when do we start?"

The Celestial Lizard's face showed a sly grin.

This Human kid... does he really think that breaking Jianfeng's tooth means he is invincible?

In truth, although his strength was not equal to Jianfeng, he was still one of the Thirteen Elders. His might far surpassed that singular tooth of Jianfeng's, only then he had no power to use, and he could only temporarily use the token His Majesty Jianfeng bestowed as a weapon.

Unexpectedly, that made him think it was his ace treasure.

I've been completely underestimated.

The Celestial Lizard twisted his neck, sneering, "I can't wait to fight you."

"Right now."

Xu Lingjun spoke, and directly pressed the unlock button, releasing the layers of shackles wrapped around the Celestial Lizard, which immediately fell to the ground.

"Good!"

As soon as the word 'good' fell, the Celestial Lizard's figure suddenly disappeared without a trace... Clearly, he had blended completely with the surrounding environment.

"What?!"

Xu Lingjun was alarmed, exclaiming, "There's not even a trace of temperature, that's impressive... Ah..."

He screamed, as a punch landed on his back.

Propelled forward several steps... his face flushed red for a moment, appearing as though he was on the verge of spitting blood.

"Where are you, where are you."

Xu Lingjun remained alert, frequently striking. With his Spiritual Power extending, the surrounding temperature suddenly dropped significantly.

"No wonder this kid dared to make this agreement with me, his abilities are quite decent too. Being able to destroy His Majesty's Magical Treasure, it was indeed not by mere chance."

The Celestial Lizard sneered, but lamented that this fellow had overlooked his innate supernatural ability... to freely transform, and this was not a mere color change like the lower levels. He could transform his body into the exact state of the transformed object!

For example, transforming into water, and becoming flexible and unbreakable, transforming into stone, becoming firm and immovable. Transforming into metal... that wouldn't do, he'd be melted down.

But this supernatural ability had allowed him to face many strong enemies without fear, always able to advance and retreat freely.

"Hahaha, prepare to die."

The Celestial Lizard laughed triumphantly, his figure constantly transforming, landing hit after hit on Xu Lingjun.

Yet this fellow's skin and flesh were so tough, it was not inferior to Xuan Gui, rendering all the Celestial Lizard's assaults mere nuisances, only eliciting a few pained cries from Xu Lingjun but causing no real injury.

One attacked fiercely without breaking the defense; the other had a remarkable defense but couldn't grasp the enemy.

Though the exchange seemed fierce, in reality, both were fighting their own fight.

The Celestial Lizard began feeling restless. How to break through such thick skin and flesh of the enemy?

If this dragged on... his Demonic Power was depleting faster than in any other battle.

As exhaustion weighed upon him, fearing the outcome...

What he feared most naturally came to pass.

A momentary lapse during battle... a punch landed on Xu Lingjun, but before he could retract, Xu Lingjun had already seized his arm and smashed it to the ground fiercely.

With a loud bang.

Xu Lingjun grabbed the Celestial Lizard by the throat, and he couldn't help but exhale a long breath, his complexion showing an almost unbearable redness, clearly nearing his own limits.

"Damn it... I almost won."

The Celestial Lizard furiously punched the ground, shouting.

"But you lost, answer my question."

Xu Lingjun exhaled more Demonic Power, quickly shutting his mouth.

He asked, "Answer me, in that Spirit Realm you inhabit, how many Demons are there in total? How many elders like you are subservient to Jianfeng? Answer truthfully, I can tell if you lie or tell the truth. If you lie to me even once, I'll confine you here forever, never letting you out."

"A total of fifty-three Demons, but as for the number of elders, sorry... that's not a single question, it's two."

"Fine, I'll come back next time."

Xu Lingjun deftly put the shackles back on the Celestial Lizard and walked out briskly.

"Damn it, he couldn't hold on either, I was so close to winning!"

The Celestial Lizard pounded the ground in anger, seeing Xu Lingjun's staggering silhouette. Evidently... not yet at his limit, but he, the Celestial Lizard, was.

His loss was entirely due to carelessness, a brief lapse that allowed his foe to capitalize.

Additionally, he was still not fully recovered from a previous electric shock, which paralyzed his entire body.

Next time... if there was a next time, provided he was in peak condition, he was certain he could win.

With this thought, the Celestial Lizard sat cross-legged without hesitation, earnestly starting his cultivation.

Meanwhile, staggering out of the prison cell, Xu Lingjun couldn't help but burp... revealing an expression of amazement and unease, mumbling, "I miscalculated; I didn't expect the Celestial Lizard to be this formidable. Compared to him, Xiong Zhen seems so immature. Next time, I can't drag it out this long, or else I'll really expose myself... hic... hic hic... if..."

During this period, Xu Lingjun had made rapid progress.

Otherwise, if it had been the Celestial Lizard instead of Xiong Zhen initially, he might have had to endure a stalemate, barely managing to defeat him.

And there were at least thirteen more formidable enemies like him.

He let out a couple more burps.

Promptly, Xu Lingjun turned swiftly towards the prepared Secret Realm, intending to seclude himself.

Chapter 817 You Deserve Half the Credit for My Breakthrough

This trial took a full month in seclusion.

The Thirteen Elders... Their strength indeed far surpasses that of ordinary members of the Demon clan.

The benefits Xu Lingjun gained from battling the Celestial Lizard were in no way inferior to those gained from the previous battle with the Earth Bear.

It's worth noting, after fighting with Xu Lingjun, the Earth Bear was nearly exhausted to death, seemingly seeking death with a mutual destruction strike...

However, the losses were too great; he would have collapsed from exhaustion even without fighting, hence he had to resort to the all-burn-together attack.

This suggests that in fact, he was forced into it.

But after the battle with the Celestial Lizard, it was clear there was still a considerable amount of strength left, and the gains were no less at all.

From this perspective...

"It seems, I can still win."

A dozen days later, Xu Lingjun still hadn't shown up. The Celestial Lizard, fully recovered and restored to peak condition, self-assuredly thought to himself, "His defense power is indeed still a realm apart from Xuan Gui. He took so long to recover from his injuries afterward. It seems if he still agrees to fight me again, I will surely win!"

My biggest concern now is that he might realize the significant power disparity between us and suddenly back out... then, no matter how right I am, there would be no way to address it.

In other words, next time I might need to hold back a bit, making him think the power gap between us isn't that large so I can lure him into continuing this wager, and then seize a strong opportunity to win decisively?

The Celestial Lizard nodded with satisfaction, thinking it was a good idea.

Little did it know that Xu Lingjun, while in seclusion, was also contemplating...

The Celestial Lizard was far stronger than he had imagined, and if it weren't for him using the power of the bracelet to stun it directly, it wouldn't have been so easy to catch.

But such a strong enemy...

If I engage in this level of combat a few more times, the late stage of the Divine Soul could be within reach.

"It seems, in the future, I need to hold back a bit, not letting him discover the significant power gap between us, lest he gives up and refuses to fight me. Also, fighting more could reveal more problems from him."

Xu Lingjun sat cross-legged, pondering silently.

And so...

After absorbing and transforming all the power.

A significantly stronger Xu Lingjun entered the dungeon once more.

"Come, if you still dare to continue fighting me."

"Hahaha, I already know your secrets clearly. Challenging me now, it's impossible for you to win again!"

The two clashed together once more.

Xu Lingjun was still the one getting beaten... but the Celestial Lizard was shocked to find that the opponent's body had a few more degrees of resilience than before; each punch landing on him shook his own arm with a faint pain.

Not only was I not in full condition before, but this guy also wasn't going all out previously.

But I'm still stronger.

The Celestial Lizard let out a long roar, no longer holding back... unleashing blows like a storm upon Xu Lingjun, leaving him only able to defend, unable to retaliate.

Half an hour later.

The Celestial Lizard's legs inexplicably weakened, feeling somewhat exhausted.

He was startled, silently wondering why he was getting tired so quickly.

Taking advantage of the moment, Xu Lingjun rose and punched him to the ground...

Securing victory once more between them.

"Damn, it must be because I'm not accustomed to the Spiritual Qi of Blue Star, leading to a body weakness I wasn't even aware of. Next time, I will definitely win."

Xu Lingjun then asked the question he had long wanted to inquire about.

"Among over fifty members of the Demon clan, how many elders are under His Majesty Jianfeng's command?"

"Not counting His Majesty Jianfeng, there are seven people, but His Majesty Jianfeng is urgently contacting other elders, with two already close to being persuaded. After all, His Majesty Jianfeng values his compatriots greatly, willing to co-govern the Spirit Realm with them as long as he establishes his leadership, which fundamentally isn't much different from the earlier Blue Star, so the other elders do not reject it."

So, with Jianfeng included, eight of the Thirteen Elders have already gathered?

And likely, more might join in the future...

Xu Lingjun turned and left, his steps slightly unsteady, just like last time.

But the Celestial Lizard angrily shouted, "Remember, Xu Lingjun, next time... next time, I won't lose again."

"I'll be back in a month."

Xu Lingjun gritted his teeth strongly, speaking... with a somewhat strained tone.

And all these details convinced the Celestial Lizard even more that Xu Lingjun was really reaching his limit... although, in fact, Xu Lingjun truly was reaching his limit.

A month later.

"Why can Jianfeng transform his teeth like that?"

"His Majesty Jianfeng stumbled into the Spirit Realm by a rare chance back then and was taken as a mount by a certain human there... Later on, he took advantage of his master's inattentiveness and devoured him, gaining numerous inheritances from him. Then he contacted many of our kin, and together we managed to take over the Spirit Realm, and as for transforming his teeth into weapons, that was also one of the inheritances from his former master. In fact, His Majesty Jianfeng's power wasn't that much stronger than ours initially, but it was because of this coincidental inheritance that his strength soared, surpassing all elders and becoming the true leader of the Demon Gods."

Another half month later.

"Have you accessed those so-called inheritances?"

Chapter 818 Half of My Breakthrough Is Thanks to You (Part 2)

"There is, but the cultivation technique His Majesty Jianfeng has encountered is the most advanced method. As for us, we have access to these techniques too, though they're a bit inferior."

"I want those cultivation techniques."

"Sure, next time you beat me... although, it's a pity, you won't beat me next time. You only won those previous times because I was careless. Once I get serious, you won't stand a chance."

Then, the next time.

Celestial Lizard obediently recited the cultivation techniques.

Which left Xu Lingjun stunned by this method.

In this cosmos, cultivation systems are diverse, such as the Fighting Qi of the Saiyan Civilization, Ice Power of the Bingshuang Civilization, Telekinesis of the Elemental Spirit Civilization, and so on.

Xu Lingjun had thought before, does true Immortal Tao exist within this cosmos?

Unexpectedly, cultivation civilization truly exists, and now it has already fallen into Jianfeng's hands.

But it's occupied by a few dozen demons... It seems this cultivation civilization might just be starting out, otherwise, it wouldn't have fallen to this state.

Afterwards, there were several more duels with Celestial Lizard.

He asked several questions that he was extremely concerned about.

And based on these questions, he quickly organized some extremely reliable information.

Though not fearful, knowing oneself and the enemy leads to victory in a hundred battles.

After numerous fierce battles...

Xu Lingjun's acting was amazing, he defeated Celestial Lizard each time by various coincidences.

Celestial Lizard never doubted, merely thought he wasn't performing well: uneven ground causing mistakes, cold weather making his body shiver, hot weather throwing off his body temperature, even lack of sunlight making his body vitamin-deficient, causing a critical shiver and ultimate defeat.

Thanks to Celestial Lizard's generosity.

After a significant defeat of Celestial Lizard, Xu Lingjun retreated in solitude for a full three months.

Numerous fierce battles, absorbing over seventy percent of a long-lived elder's demonic power.

Nearly a thousand years of power... thoroughly supplementing Xu Lingjun's own foundations.

Through three months.

Retreat and transformation.

When Xu Lingjun emerged from retreat, facing Li Jingjun who came to greet him, his gaze seemed to contain two swirling vortices, capturing her heart and spirit, almost as if they were about to break free from her.

Ultimately, Xu Lingjun was the one to shift his gaze.

But such divine might...

Li Jingjun couldn't help but exclaim joyfully, "You... you broke through?"

"Yes, I broke through."

Xu Lingjun smiled, gently hugging Li Jingjun, and said, "Late stage Divine Soul, now the Divine Soul fully unified, allowing me to grasp further realms with borrowed strength."

"Any leads?"

"Originally none, but now I have."

Xu Lingjun raised his hand, holding the cultivation technique secret manual, said, "Celestial Lizard truly is a good person, not only providing me with plenty of demonic power and clues, but even offering me a way of thinking... borrowing strength to polish jade, these cultivation techniques have been immensely helpful to me."

This was indeed no lie.

The cultivation technique conjured by Xu Lingjun's talent source, in terms of power, is actually far above the techniques acquired from Celestial Lizard.

But since this technique was imagined by him, it's functionally singular.

These techniques however, contain much more detailed nuances.

Making Xu Lingjun's realization considerably more profound than before, at least not confused about the path forward... and recently, the entire civilization's new rumors have spread throughout the Blue Star.

Their Master of the Blue Star, Xu Lingjun, is comprehending a whole new cultivation technique, complementary to their Immortal Tao yet entirely different cultivation system!

Or it can be said as the completion of Immortal Tao.

But Xu Lingjun does not plan to undertake talent source now...

After all, the upper limit of talent source is determined firstly by the imagination of Xu Lingjun, and secondly by the quality of the technique itself.

Xu Lingjun's imagination already applied in his own technique.

If he could acquire that true peak cultivation technique of the cultivation civilization, using that technique as the basis for talent source, what he would obtain would be truly perfect and flawless method, then integrate it into Blue Star techniques internally.

If previously the appearance of demons greatly accelerated Blue Star's breakthrough into a Level 3 Civilization speed, even feasible within ten years,

Then the appearance of this technique could boost Blue Star's elite prowess another two levels...

Such great merit.

"I'm going to visit our big contributor first."

Xu Lingjun said with a smile.

After three months, returning to the dungeon once more.

At this time, within the dungeon...

Celestial Lizard's form and appearance had changed completely from the ambitious demeanor he had when he first entered.

Hollow cheeks, heavy eye bags, lifeless eyes... His figure had become emaciated as if he hadn't had a full meal in months.

In fact, during this period.

Xuan Gui and others frequently visited Celestial Lizard, regularly bringing him supplements of considerable grade, with Xu Lingjun's tacit approval, since while they supplements support him, ultimately the demonic power transformed into nutrients that enabled his breakthrough.

Xu Lingjun naturally wouldn't be stingy toward him.

And this time...

Upon seeing Xu Lingjun arriving, if it were before, he might have been sarcastic, mocking that Xu Lingjun took three months to recuperate, proving last time I hit you hard.

This time, Celestial Lizard said nothing, only tremblingly got up.

Raised a hand to battle Xu Lingjun...

Then helplessly knocked down, differing entirely from his initial confidence, after being defeated, he couldn't even manage to get back up.

Regarding Xu Lingjun's drastically increased strength, he had no surprise.

Even less intelligent could now sense something unusual has transpired.

Only struggled a little, now he was already panting heavily, asking, "You were deliberately letting me all along, weren't you? Able to extract my demonic power during our fights..."

Xu Lingjun nodded, replied, "That's correct."

"You certainly hid well, now my demonic power is less than twenty percent of its peak, this drain wasn't natural loss, but forcibly extracted, no amount of cultivating will restore this demonic power."

Celestial Lizard said bitterly, "Now my strength, even compared to the weakest demon clan, may pale in comparison... One of the Thirteen Elders, I was simply destroyed by you."

Xu Lingjun consoled, "You can actually think positively, for instance, although you're now wasted, your demise achieved my breakthrough. My current strength, while not doubled since you arrived, has increased at least fifty percent, breaking through the current realm, one-third of my strength owes to you!"

Celestial Lizard tugged his mouth, asking, "I lost, what do you want to know?"

Xu Lingjun asked the most concerning question, "Where is the Spirit Realm...?"

Celestial Lizard closed his eyes and said, "Kill me, I won't tell."

"Why, afraid I'll harm your compatriots?"

Xu Lingjun shook his head, said, "I thought you would consider me absolutely not a match for your His Majesty Jianfeng, thus deliberately leak the Spirit Realm's whereabouts to me, letting me go to my death."

"I considered that before and still do, but I don't know why, just don't want to tell you."

Celestial Lizard chuckled bitterly, "Maybe you're right, though I'm filled with confidence in His Majesty, yet constantly worry you'll outsmart him, you're just... too cunning..."

Xu Lingjun asked, "So, are you planning to break your promise?"

"Kill me."

"I won't kill you, after all, living demons are extraordinarily rare, your blood, flesh for our research are exceedingly valuable. If you comply obediently, I'll arrange for you to peacefully live out your days in this Secret Realm. But if you refuse to speak, your remaining days will be spent on the test bench."

"I'm not afraid of death."

"But you've inevitably become a traitor, you told everything you should and shouldn't before."

Xu Lingjun turned to depart, saying, "I'll wait for the day you change your mind."

"If you have any gratitude for my contribution during this time, just give me a quick end!"

Celestial Lizard angrily shouted.

"But killing you would put other demons off; I'm not that foolish, rest assured, I won't slice you up, just moving to different confinement."

Xu Lingjun waved, leaving the dungeon.

Chapter 819 Hikaru

The Celestial Lizard no longer has any value for use.

All the information that should be known is already known... What shouldn't be known, he absolutely won't say anymore, but Xu Lingjun is not in a hurry.

After all, if he doesn't go, the enemy will come sooner or later.

Over fifty members of the Demon clan? Seven or eight elders?

Plus the power of a civilization... truly formidable.

If it were just the Blue Star, facing this force would indeed be quite challenging, but unfortunately... if they want to enter the Blue Star, they must first pass through layers of traps created by me.

Under Xu Lingjun's operations, these demons have all turned into Tang Monk's Flesh, waiting to be devoured.

Considering the entire galaxy's power, if it still cannot match the Demon clan... Xu Lingjun would just accept it. Therefore, even if the Celestial Lizard doesn't speak, it's just a matter of time.

Absorption is no longer possible.

What Xu Lingjun took was not recoverable demonic power, but the true limit of demonic power... Xu Lingjun takes a share, and he becomes weaker by a share.

At this point, after being bullied for several months, although the Celestial Lizard can't be called a cripple, if he were to measure the true strength of his demonic power, he might only bully Pang Hu in this Secret Realm, uh... might even have Daxiong come back to settle the score.

If they continue, someone will lose their life.

Xu Lingjun has figured it out: although the Celestial Lizard is despicable and shameless, he indeed has significant ties with the Demon clan... Now that he has taken in Xuan Gui and others, naturally, he can't take the Celestial Lizard's life.

For a cripple, offending a dozen demons is extremely unwise.

As for what the Celestial Lizard claimed he owed... a joke, wasn't it happy when we fought back then? saying he owed me now? The one who was beaten was me, damn it.

Just let him collaborate on research and be done with it.

During the following time, Xu Lingjun couldn't bother with the Secret Realm.

The entire Blue Star is celebrating.

Various civilizations came to congratulate...

The Master of the Blue Star, Xu Lingjun, married the former Great Xia Empire Imperial Family Princess, Han Qingyue, the wedding date has arrived.

It truly was like watching one's own wife grow up.

Although by now, Xu Lingjun's mind is already far from enthralled by beauty. Even daily interactions with his confidantes leave him feeling insufficiently spirited... Of course, it's not that he lacks the strength, but rather time is insufficient.

The idea that they put all their devotion into him, yet he can't fully reciprocate is always on his mind.

Fortunately, they each have their own matters to attend to... it doesn't mean they entirely depend on Xu Lingjun, which slightly eases Xu Lingjun's sense of guilt.

Wang Qingya spends her days immersed in Zhanzheng College, researching those high-tech weapons provided by Xu Lingjun.

Each enemy Xu Lingjun kills has a share of her credit in it.

Su Huanqing, as the chief professor of the Department of History, has officially begun writing the history of the Blue Star.

Ji Roufeng is busy with the operations of the Immortal Martial Alliance.

Sun Lingli leads the Wind Fist Style, working hard for the dissemination of martial arts fundamentals.

Li Jingjun is in the military, with Han Yun City beside her, they are like Xu Lingjun's right-hand men, public is public, and personal is personal... who is dominant in private doesn't matter, but in business, she is very useful.

Among the women, Li Pingting, who is the most at leisure, is also diligently helping Xu Lingjun take care of his and Li Jingjun's daughter, and protecting the Li Family, ensuring its legacy in Yuzhang City remains intact.

She recently had quite a muddle.

Her belly became slightly larger lately... leading her to mistakenly think she was pregnant, she happily summoned Xu Lingjun back, as the Li Family spreading branches further would be a great joy. Though Li Jingjun and his children would definitely take Xu's surname, Li Pingting hadn't married Xu Lingjun, theoretically her child only had the legal mother.

So why not take any surname she wishes?

Only to realize in the end that it was merely some bloating along with eating the leftovers of the child's meal recently, causing her to gain weight.

Angry, Li Pingting decided to follow through with the mistake, forcibly pulling Xu Lingjun into the room.

Then a night of replenishment...

This time the belly became even larger.

A few months later, she was indeed pregnant.

She happily went to the ancestral shrine at once, to tell Li Fufeng the good news.

Han Qingxue remained in the rear, handling the affairs of Blue Star for Xu Lingjun, having been raised as a potential Empress of the Great Xia Empire since childhood, she was adept at such tasks.

The credit for Xu Lingjun's ability to roam freely can hardly be overstated.

Although Blue Star has grown much larger, now her help has arrived.

With Han Qingyue marrying Xu Lingjun, the two sisters serve one husband... when Han Xu Yang forcibly betrothed both sisters to Xu Lingjun, indeed many civil and military officials were puzzled.

After all, such an emperor's dignity, why lower oneself in such a way?

But now... everyone claims Han Xu Yang's insight was remarkable, with a talent for discerning people, it's clear now it's not Han Xu Yang lowering his status, but rather the Han sisters raising theirs.

And among everyone, probably the most excited is Han Yun City.

Constantly calling "brother-in-law", consistently toasting with Xu Lingjun... evidently wanting to fight Xu Lingjun to the death on the wine table.

Tairuo and Ace from the Province of Light also personally arrived.

He has now thoroughly given up on the idea of restoring his nation, after all, Blue Star is now united as one, its strength has greatly improved, and is even about to break through to Level 3 Civilization.

Chapter 820 Hikaru Genji (Part 2)

Though it's said that it's better to be the head of a chicken than the tail of a cow, what if you're the tail of a phoenix? Especially one that's about to soar to the heavens as a Divine Fire Phoenix... He's not stupid, and naturally knows what to do.

The entire Blue Star, a picture of harmony, caused Crowley and others who came to congratulate to feel heavy-hearted.

They originally hoped that Xu Lingjun would rise halfway, making his position unstable, leading to some internal strife. But now, seeing their unity... this is truly not good news for them.

At that moment, they silently made a decision in their hearts.

Expecting internal conflict within Blue Star is impossible, and initially Blue Star really snatched too much technology from them. Now, it seems, they've thoroughly digested all this technology.

Their only hope for leapfrogging is through these Demons.

We must capture as many Demons as possible... though they are extremely powerful, they're ultimately fighting solo.

Giving it our all, and surrounding them with a full assault, the possibility of capturing them alive isn't out of the question.

We must increase troops.

The entire Blue Star celebrates, with toasters appearing one after another... Yun Yi, Zhou Tong, and other seasoned masters of the Creation Realm.

Including now, Sun Bumie who has also become a master of the Creation Realm and Tomorrow, they, although not completely stepping back yet, have gradually delegated matters to their disciples.

They're naturally very grateful to Xu Lingjun, knowing full well that if they truly broke through to the Old Creation Realm, their future prospects would be completely ruined.

They were on the brink of self-destruction, saved by Xu Lingjun, how could this gratitude be expressed in words?

Just after a few drinks, Tomorrow couldn't help but sigh and regret... looking at Xu Lingjun's current achievements, if he had been a bit more determined back then, if he had been a bit more persistent, wouldn't he have been a disciple of the Sun and Moon Bright Sect?

At that time, all this glory would belong to the Sun and Moon Bright Sect.

And the commanders of the Nine Major Military Regions at the Polar Star Battlefield, the warriors of the Qisha Legion... Xu Lingjun knows too many people.

As a result, when he was finally sent into the bridal chamber.

He couldn't help but feel a bit dizzy.

Looking at the girl sitting on the red bed... sixteen or seventeen years old, at the age of budding.

Xu Lingjun truly watched this little girl grow up from the cradle, until now becoming this delicate and lovely appearance. Initially, he didn't have the thought of marrying her, although Han Xu Yang said so, she was just a little girl after all.

He thought once she grew up, she'd naturally change her mind.

But who knew her admiration and worship for him never wavered, although if it were love... there might not be much, yet she always dreamed of marrying Xu Lingjun.

For Xu Lingjun, marrying Han Qingyue's greatest benefit is stabilizing Blue Star's rear, destined to be a political marriage... but that's okay, feelings can be developed through deep interaction, can't they?

Xu Lingjun sat beside her.

Watching the shy young Qing Yue nervously clenching her fingers, not daring to look up at him, asked, "Little girl, no regrets?"

Han Qingyue nodded vigorously, lightly said, "I've been dreaming of this day, every time I see you with Sister, I actually want to join in, but knowing you think I'm too young. But now, I'm not little anymore."

"I know."

Xu Lingjun's gaze was gentle; although it was the wedding night, he wasn't careless.

Gently pushing her back onto the bed, he softly said, "Leave the rest to me."

"Okay, I'll endure."

"Alright..."

The light wasn't extinguished; after all, they were married, so naturally he wanted to properly admire the exquisite beauty that now belonged exclusively to him.

As the candle flickered.

A moment later, the sound of biting teeth echoed urgently, "That... that... I... I can't help it... I want to shout."

"It's okay, shout as you wish, rest assured, no one around will hear."

"Okay."

Han Qingyue proactively hugged Xu Lingjun, quietly and timidly starting to make sounds.

While outside the window, Xiaoya's eyes flickered like two high-definition cameras, recording everything that happened.

She planned to use this to please her true mistress...

Well, others might not know, but could she be unclear? Just looking at her own face, knowing Sister Qingya is the most important person in the master's heart.

So even if Sister Qingya didn't command, I wanted her to know, I stood on her side, maybe by then, the body's proportion would be there.

Thinking, Xiaoya couldn't help but quietly chuckle.

That night, a~ sleepless night.

Though already quite experienced, a youthful girl naturally has a distinctive flavor.

Xu Lingjun truly indulged himself...

After the wedding, Xu Lingjun didn't immediately throw himself into busy work, but stayed with Han Qingyue for another month, which was considered their honeymoon.

Though Jiuxin repeatedly invited Xu Lingjun to spend their honeymoon in the Elemental Spirit Civilization, Xu Lingjun understood what different thoughts she might have... given her special status, ensuring utmost safety, he naturally couldn't accede to her request.

Time passed day by day.

On this particular day.

In Zhanzheng College.

Handling affairs, Wang Qingya suddenly heard a knock on the door.

The devoted assistant knocked and entered, saying, "Dean Wang, there's a guest who wants to see you!"

Wang Qingya raised her head, gently pushing up the glasses on her nose, her already exquisite face paired with those round black-rimmed glasses added a touch of cuteness and intelligence.

She asked, "Who?"

"The person claims to come from the Secret Realm, surname Xuan."

"Demon clan?"

Wang Qingya's heart stirred slightly, already guessing the visitor's intention.

She nodded and said: "Please let him in."

Didn't take any guard measures... Xu Lingjun was her biggest reliance, with him here, she believed, as long as those Demons weren't foolish, they'd dare not harm a hair on her head.

Moments later.

A tall, seemingly rough-hewn, somewhat nervous middle-aged man entered, seeming like he'd spent years farming, awkwardly spoke: "Sorry, Madam Xu, even when you're so busy, we're still here to trouble you..."

Wang Qingya smiled and said: "It's alright, you were once distinguished guests, now integrated into Blue Star. Since Xiaojun has removed your wristbands, clearly you're trustworthy. If there's anything you need help with, feel free to ask. We're all Blue Star people, if we can help, we won't refuse."

"There's nothing I need, Blue Star now has everything, food and entertainment are more comfortable than Blue Star once was... besides, we can freely enter and exit the Secret Realm, His Majesty fulfilled his promises, he didn't eat his words, he achieved everything he promised."

Xuan Gui sighed and smiled bitterly: "But today, I've come representing all our clan, asking Dean Wang for convenience, to see the Celestial Lizard."

"Why see him?"

"After all, he's a fellow clan member and not an outright villain. We want to persuade him, Sword Wind's nature is domineering, never a good person, why die for him? At least if we, fellow clansmen try persuading, he may listen."

Wang Qingya thought for a moment, then said: "As long as Mr. Xuan Gui promises not to rescue him, I can let you see him."

"If you don't trust me, put on that wristband, if I have other intentions, you can immediately subdue me!"

Wang Qingya smiled and replied: "If I didn't trust Mr. Xuan Gui, I wouldn't ask for this promise. I only need you to agree because I trust you, the wristband is used for those still under observation, you're beyond observation, there's no point using it on you."

"Thank you, I promise. I'll strictly speak and do nothing more."

"Good."

Wang Qingya smiled and said: "Mr. Xuan Gui, come with me... rest assured, that Celestial Lizard, Xiaojun personally instructed us to ensure he doesn't suffer. In fact, he's well-fed, having gained a few pounds."

Xuan Gui chuckled, he came to see the Celestial Lizard mainly worried he'd receive unfair treatment here?