

Chapter 83

Ace

The beeping of my alarm slowly brings me to consciousness. I open my exhausted eyes and look at Ash lying beside me.

Star has been in heat for nearly three days now, and we quickly came to the conclusion that the only way we were getting through this was to take shifts.

Two hours with Star and four hours to rest. Time has literally no meaning anymore.

Mary-Beth has studied the powdery substance on Star's clothes and it appears to be magically infused with a chemical heat. It seems to be designed to increase the heat, not reduce it.

As a result, every time Star experiences a wave of heat, it will become more powerful and last longer.

They are attempting to develop an antidote, since we are unsure if the virus will resolve itself or not.

Throwing my legs over the side of the bed, groaning as my muscles protest.

Fuck, if Star is not pregnant at the end of this, then we definitely need to see a doctor.

I inhale the sandwich Ash left me at the end of his shift, use the bathroom and head to Star's room.

I walk in to see Star crying while Lex is rocking her back and forth, rubbing her back and purring at her.

He looks up at me, exhaustion written all over his face, “we ran out of ice. Can you see if anyone has delivered more?”

I nodded, sprinted down the stairs, and flung open the door. Thank fuck.

I grab the bags of ice, the extra bottle of lube, massage oil and an enormous tub of barrier cream we requested, and run back to the room.

I dump the ice in the bath and call to my wife and brother, “do we need an ice bath now?”

“Not yet. The last episode finished about half an hour ago. Did they leave the cream? Star is in a lot of pain.”

“Yes, and the massage oil. I can give her some pampering before the next wave.”

I walk over and take my wife from Lex. He kisses her tenderly. “I’ll see you in four hours baby, I love you.” He gets up and leaves the room.

Laying my beautiful wife down on her back, I brush her hair from her face, kissing away her tears, “okay Tinker Bell, let’s get your sore bits taken care of then I’m going to massage every inch of you sexy body, sound good?”

She nods and I grab the tub of cream.

“Let’s start with your pretty pussy baby, spread your legs for me, sweetheart.”

She obeys, but I can see it hurts her. Max purrs at her soothingly.

I coat my fingers in the cream and gently coat her labia and clit, before inserting my finger inside her, covering her walls with the cooling cream, once done I moved onto the friction burns on her knees and elbows, giving them a thick coating.

“Now, for the best massage of your life, roll over, honey. Let’s start on your back. Hopefully, if another wave hits, the massage will help calm the heat.”

pouring oil into my hands I begin with her feet, I softly start to sing to her, and I see her body start to relax, by the time I reach the tops of her thighs she is sighing, sounding more relaxed than she has in days.

I kneed the globes of her gorgeous ass, “oh Ace that feels so good baby,” making my way up her back, I put a little more pressure on her spine and shoulders, then I feel her stiffen as another wave of heat hits her.

I run to the bathroom and fill a bowl with ice chips, and return to my girl. I place a line of ice along her spine. She gasps and groans in pleasure.

With another ice chip in my hand, I spread her legs slightly and rub the ice along the slit of her pussy, paying close attention to her clit, she shudders and moans, I continue like this, replacing the ice as it melts, until I feel the shudder of an orgasm.

I pour more oil on her ass cheeks and rub my hand down her crack. She pushes back against my hand, as I stroke her opening, “please Ace,”

I push a finger in and she shudders, “more, please, fuck my ass, make me cum.” I add a second finger and pump her tight hole. She tries to push to her knees, but I push her back down. “rest princess, let me do all the work, okay?”

I straddle her and generously lube my sore cock, stroking my length with the cool gel. Spreading her cheeks I line the head of my cock up and slowly push into her, fucking her slowly, letting her pleasure build, holding myself on my elbows I cover her body with mine, sucking at her neck as I increase the speed of my thrusts, I let Max come forward and his fangs bite into the mark we created on her neck, she cums, screaming out her pleasure.

The wave of heat passes and I pull out of her. “Time to get my hands on your front, Tink. Flip over for me, darling.” I’m still straddling her, so when she turns, we are face to face. She smiles at me and lifts up to place a soft kiss on my lips.

“That was so amazing. Thank you, baby.” I kiss her back. “I love you so much, Star. We all do, and we will do anything for you. Now let me get my hands on your beautiful body.”

I massage her until she falls asleep, and then continue to rub her tired muscles until Ash comes to relieve me, he covers his hands with oil and takes my place, Thank the goddess there are three of us if I was here solo I would have not been able to take care of her, it’s just too much. I turn to my brother, “I’ll see you in four hours, Lex will be here in two.”

I head for a shower, the hot water easing my muscles, then once I’m dressed, I head downstairs to the kitchen. Throwing some bacon in the grill goddess, I need proper food. We have all been living on sandwiches for the last three days.

Chopping fruit, I set up a tray for Star and Ash, fruit salad, chicken and bacon sandwiches, and glasses of juice. I hope she manages to eat this time. Her energy levels are so low.

After I take the food up to them, I return to the kitchen and eat my food. I’ve just put the last bite in my mouth when I hear a soft knock on the door.

No one has bothered us since Sunday morning, a wave of excitement rushes through me, I reach the door open to find a smiling Mary-Beth, waving a bottle of liquid at me, “I’ve got the antidote, we can end the heat.”

I pick her up and twirl her around, laughing, “just get her to drink this. It probably tastes like shit, but she needs to drink it all.” I nod and kiss her on the cheek, “thank you.”

Climbing the stairs two at a time, I wake Lex first; he punches me in the face, but as soon as I tell him about the antidote he jumps from the bed, and we run to Star, banging open the door, she jumps in fright.

“Tink we have the antidote, you have to drink all of it, Mary-Beth said it will taste horrible, but you have to keep drinking ok?” She grabs the bottle and downs the entire thing, it barely touches the sides.

Gagging, she follows it down with a glass of juice, “Wow, that was fucking disgusting. How long till it takes effect?” As the words leave her mouth, she doubles over in pain, she falls to her knees, and all three of us rush to her.

After a few seconds, her body relaxes, and she looks up at us in relief. “I think it’s over. I don’t feel any heat symptoms. Thank god, I don’t think I could cope with much more.”

I pull her into my arms, kissing her head, “do you want to soak in a nice hot bath baby?” She shakes her head. “I want to go home, soak in my bath with my husbands and my bubbles, then sleep in my bed for a week.”

Lex grins and picks her up, “then that is what we will do baby, let’s get you dressed and we will find everybody and go home.” We help her get dressed and Lex carries her out of the house. None of us knows where we are, so I link Oliver and he guides us to the main part of the coven.

Liam hugs Star and claps us on the back, “We have found out a lot of information at the Ivychurch coven, your dad has tasked Blair and I with dealing with everything here, so you guys head home and get some rest, we can deal with Hollow Moon when you are ready.”

Mary-Beth opens a portal for us and we take our girl home.
