Chapter 1061: Enemies Approaching the City IV

Yes, the moment the eldest prince arrived, all spirit beasts had already left with the things they had acquired from the robbery.

They left the city swaggering, just like how they had arrived.

They were acting proudly as if they were the winner.

The eldest prince's face was dark and gloomy. "These damn beasts! If they come again tomorrow, I will not let them leave this city!"

The eldest prince decided not to return to the palace so that he would be able to arrive quickly when the beasts arrived. So, he lived in a courtyard nearby.

However, he waited for several days in a row, yet the spirit beasts did not come.

He thought that the spirit beasts would not come again. So, he returned to the palace unhappily. Just after he left, the newly built city gate collapsed again with a loud bang.

All the residents in the marquis city became afraid after seeing the spirit beasts at the city gate.

In particular, those stalls that had just brought out the spirit herbs, they were so anxious that they quickly hid them.

In the deserted city.

In the basement of the manor of lord mayor.

Feng Ruqing was sitting on the stone bench staring at the girl in front of her.

Since coming to this manor, she had realized the reason why the aura in the deserted city was so impure. It was because all the pure spiritual qi had flown into this place, leaving only the impurities out there.

It was just that Feng Ruqing saw a girl inside when she opened up the basement.

The girl's eyes were ignorant and she seemed innocent.

She was about thirteen to fourteen years old. Her face was still immature and young.

The girl looked at Feng Ruqing curiously. She did not understand why this human being was looking at her like this.

"Do you... want to eat?"

The girl gathered all the spiritual qi in her palm and molded it into a ball.

Indeed, it was a ball that was handed out to Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing looked at the ball in the girl's hand. She then looked at that young and innocent face. She hesitated for a moment. "Ball..."

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

The girl blinked and seemed even more dazed.

Feng Ruqing stopped. "Should I call you Lingling? But Qiuqiu sounds nicer."

Sure.

Although the girl was still young, her body had already begun to develop. She would inevitably develop into a ball in a few years.

Furthermore, she had handed a ball to Feng Ruqing. So, Feng Ruqing had given her that name.

"Delicious."

The girl smiled shyly and continued to hand over the ball that was full of spiritual qi to Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing took the ball. As soon as she put it near her mouth, the spiritual qi flowed into her body through her nose. She felt a burst of comfort all over her body.

Bang!

The spiritual qi had helped Feng Ruqing breakthrough to Immortal Warrior tier where she arrived at her bottleneck.

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

Feng Ruqing's spiritual qi was already very pure due to the black sword in her dantian. However, this little girl's spiritual qi was even purer than hers! It helped her to break through her bottleneck.

"Ahem!" Feng Ruqing coughed. "Qiuqiu, what kind of spirit herb are you?"

The girl blinked. "What is a spirit herb? Can it be eaten?"

Feng Ruqing remained silent.

Just forget it. A spirit herb that had not come into contact with a human was like a piece of paper—they knew nothing and were completely naive.

"Qiuqiu, do you know why you are here?"

The girl frowned as she chewed on her finger. "I remembered that there were a lot of bad guys that day. They were here to catch me. Then, my servants brought me to this place and hid me here. I don't know what happened after that. I haven't been out there and have been staying here obediently."

Chapter 1062: The Beggar In Front of the Marquis' Manor I

Feng Ruqing looked at the ignorant girl in front of her. She slowly stood up and put her hand in front of the girl.

"Then would you like to leave with me?"

The girl looked at Feng Ruqing hard and eventually put her hand into Feng Ruqing's hand.

She smiled brightly. Her smile was as bright as the sun and there seemed to be stars in her eyes that were like a vast sky.

"Okay."

If it were not for the bad guys outside the door, she would not have hidden in this place for so long.

"How long have you been in this place?" Feng Ruqing asked as she tilted her head.

The girl chewed on her finger. "I don't know. My servants used to give me food. Sometime later, all my servants were gone. The bad guys had brought me here. I was so hungry. I found out that the spiritual qi around could fill up my stomach. So, I fed on it."

Feng Ruqing was shocked.

So, did it mean that the city had become deserted because of Qiuqiu?

"What about your servants?"

"Didn't I already tell you? Someone wanted to catch me. My servants had hidden me here to protect me. I did not know what happened after that. I was obedient and I didn't go out."

Feng Ruqing took the girl's hand. "Do you know who wants to catch you?"

Qiuqiu stared blankly and shook her head. "I don't know. I don't know anything."

It seemed that she really did not know anything...

Feng Ruqing did not ask any more questions. She then took Qiuqiu out of the basement.

Little Qing Han was sitting in the courtyard holding a piece of ginseng in her hand. She was biting the ginseng as if she was eating radish.

Suddenly, she saw Feng Ruqing walked out with a pretty young girl. The ginseng almost fell out of her hand.

"Mother, don't you like Aunt Gu and Aunt Tang anymore?"

At the same time, Gu Yiyi came out with a bowl of herbal dish.

She was supposed to take the herbal dish to Mu Qingyin's room. However, she could not help but see the pretty girl next to Feng Ruqing.

The girl's face was delicate and her big eyes seemed to be smiling. She was so insanely pretty especially her ignorance of the world that was reflected in her eyes. It was so arousing that it made people wanted to protect her.

Gu Yiyi failed to hold the bowl of the herbal dish in her hand. The bowl fell to the ground instantly and broke into pieces.

Xiao Qing had never held her and Xiao Yin's hands!

How could this girl who came out of nowhere be so close to Feng Ruqing?

Gu Yiyi bit her lower lip. She raised her hand to her chest. She scanned the girl from top to bottom then she turned to look at Feng Ruqing. "Xiao Qing, you are still my favorite woman although I am motivated to be your aunt."

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

"I don't care if you have many wives. But why have you never held my hand? Why? You would only kick me every time we meet."

Gu Yiyi felt wronged as she continued to speak. She was sad and whimpered like an aggrieved woman.

"Do you not like me and Xiao Yin? It doesn't matter if you don't like us. After all, we will be a family soon. Then, I will always be around you. I will let you know that you are still my favorite woman even if I am married to someone else."

Gu Yiyi did not care about the bowl on the ground. After finishing her words, she turned around and strode determinedly toward the morning light.

Chapter 1063: The Beggar in front of the Marquis' Manor II

Feng Ruqing was in a daze. She slowly turned her head and looked at Little Qing Han who had walked to her side. "Is there something wrong with Gu Yiyi's mind?"

Little Qinghan blinked. She was dumbfounded. "Can the brain be eaten?"

Feng Ruqing's face darkened. She pinched Little Qing Han's pink and tender face. "You have grown fatter recently and you are still thinking about eating all day long."

This sentence of hers was like a thunder that struck at Little Qing Han. Little Qing Han's body suddenly stiffened.

The half-eaten ginseng was still in her hand. She did not know whether to throw it away or to eat it. She was stunned.

She regained her senses and looked at the ginseng in her hand after a while. She swallowed her saliva. Then, she finally decided to throw it into the stream nearby.

"I won't eat snacks anymore. Otherwise, Brother Fu Chen will see a chubby girl when he wakes up. He will surely laugh at me!"

However, her eyes were teary and she looked aggrieved as if she had been bullied.

Feng Ruqing smiled and touched Little Qing Han's head. "Qing Han, go and inform Ah Wang and the others that all spirit beasts have to follow me to the marquis city. Only the big rabbit and Qiuqiu will stay at home."

She could not bring Qiuqiu out because she did not know who was the one that wanted to catch her.

Feng Ruqing flapped her robe and walked out of the manor after saying this.

This place was the manor of the lord mayor in the deserted city.

However, the two words “You Manor” that was on Feng Ruqing’s back looked so bright and shiny when she walked out of the manor.

The silence in the streets in the marquis city was broken by the sound of howling.

Everyone turned to look at the city gate. They saw the spirit beasts that had just left, back again.

A human girl stood at the head of the group of the spirit beasts this time.

The girl was in a red robe and she was beautiful.

She had a natural dominating aura like an emperor who had devoted himself to all beings gazing at the world.

A wolfhound walked next to the girl. There was another little girl who was riding the wolfhound.

The little girl was lying on the back of the wolfhound. She was smiling and seemed very innocent just like an ordinary little girl.

It was just that...

Those imperial guards were stunned when they saw Gu Yiyi standing to the right side of the girl.

The captain of the imperial guards was a middle-aged man with a black mole under his mouth. He clutched the weapon in his hand and gasped.

“Quickly go and inform the eldest prince that those spirit beasts are back. And also, Maiden Gu!”

As the captain of the imperial guards, he must have known Gu Yiyi. But had Gu Yiyi not already escaped? Here she was, still daring to come back! Was she not walking right into the lion’s den?

“What did you say?”

In Marquis Zheng Manor.

Zheng Tianwu suddenly stood up. His face was dark and his fists tightened. “Is that bitch—Gu Yiyi, back?”

Initially, he had hurried back to the marquis’ manor because of some issues. Therefore, he had allowed Elder Gao to deal with Gu Yiyi.

But on the next day, when he sent someone to find Gu Yiyi, he found out that Elder Gao was already dead as if he had been eaten by something. His whole body was broken and torn into pieces.

Coincidentally, there were a few spirit beasts that came to attack the city in the past few days. He had always doubted the capabilities of these spirit beasts that had come to attack the city. However, they had always retreated too fast. Even the royal family could not handle them, much less him.

Unexpectedly, the spirit beasts continued to come to the city. This time, even Gu Yiyi came along with them!

Chapter 1064: The Beggar in front of the Marquis' Manor III

Zheng Tianwu was a little flustered.

If the eldest prince saw Gu Yiyi, the eldest prince would know that he had sent someone to kill Gu Yiyi that day.

Therefore, he must kill the woman before the eldest prince got here!

"Bring all the masters in the marquis' manor here. I want to execute the thugs who dare to invade the marquis city!"

He must protect the marquis city this time, even if it meant to kill Gu Yiyi. The eldest prince would not have a say about it.

He just did not want the eldest prince to know what he had done before!

"Yes, Marquis."

The guard did a fist and palm salute and then he retreated.

He then brought all the masters in the marquis' manor to Zheng Tianwu after a while.

Zheng Tianwu counted them. His eyes were dull. "There were originally a few hundreds of Dark Warriors in the marquis' manor. Why are there only two hundred of them now?"

Two hundred of the Dark Warriors was a huge number for other forces.

But this was Marquis Zheng's Manor.

When his father was still alive, there were thousands of warriors in the marquis' manor. But now, there were only two hundred people left.

"Marquis..." The guard lowered his head. "Lady Yuan has driven away a lot of warriors from the marquis' manor in recent years. So, these are the people who are left."

Zheng Tianwu was dumbfounded.

In the past five years, some of them were driven away, some were killed because of Lady Yuan. He was not concerned about this before. It was only now that he discovered that there were only a few people left.

However, it was worth it no matter how much effort he had to make for Yuan'er's sake!

"To fight the spirit beasts, two hundred people are more than enough. Let's go! I want to make those bastards know who is in charge of this world!"

Zheng Tianwu flipped his long sleeves and walked out the manor fair and square.

He did not seem to see Lady Yuan who came out from under a tree after he had led everyone away.

She stared in the direction where Zhen Tianwu had left. She was in deep thought and followed him out.

She had always been free to do what she wanted in the marquis' manor. No one could restrict her. Therefore, if she wanted to leave the marquis' manor, no one would stop her.

At the gate of the marquis' manor.

A beggar in ragged clothes was holding a broken porcelain bowl in his hand. He was trembling as he sat in the corner of the street not far away from the gate.

This beggar's face was burned beyond recognition. His face was also dirty and was unrecognizable.

Zheng Tianwu walked out of the door. He glanced at the beggar as his eyes darkened. "Where did this beggar come from? How could my place be tainted by these beggars? Drive him away and don't let him appear within 100 meters from the marquis' manor!"

He left without looking back after he was done talking. Hence, he did not see the beggar's cold eyes.

When the guard was approaching the beggar, the beggar hurriedly hid the coldness in his eyes. He raised his head tremblingly. "Sir, I am just taking a short rest here. I will leave later..."

Thud!

The guard kicked the beggar and sent the beggar flying about a few meters away. He then coughed and lifted his dark and ugly face. He looked at the guard who was standing not far away.

"Go away. If you dare to show your face here again, I will kill you immediately!"

The guard was disgusted. He spat on the ground unhappily before turning around and leaving.

The beggar lowered his head and dared not to look up again. He did not speak from the beginning to the end. He then saw the bottom of a skirt in front of him after the sounds of the guard's footsteps were gone.

Chapter 1065: The Beggar In Front of the Marquis' Manor IV

The skirt's seam was enhanced with fine, soft, and elegant blooms.

The beggar lifted his head and saw a beautiful face.

He felt in his heart just the way he did back then.

But there was clearly only bitterness left now in this situation.

Lady Yuan pulled a money bag out of her lapel and placed it in front of the beggar. Her voice was warm and soft, like a spring breeze.

"You can't stay in marquis' manor, take this money and go."

The beggar looked at the bag of money that was thrown in front of him. His eyes were red but he did not take it.

A servant behind the girl shouted at him coldly. "Beggar, why don't you accept the money given by my lady? My lady is Prince Zheng's most favored woman. If you offend my Lady, marquis will not let you go!"

“Servant!” Lady Yuan frowned and shouted coldly. “Enough.”

“Lady, I’m just...”

“Shut up!” Lady Yuan looked unhappy. There was anger in her eyes.

The servant quickly shut her mouth and she dared not say anything more.

The lady was only a concubine, but marquis always favored her. Otherwise, he would not have ordered everyone to address her as ‘Lady’.

Lady Yuan would be promoted to Manor Lady sooner or later.

So, no one in this marquis’ manor dared to offend Lady Yuan! One word from her would make the marquis kill all those who disobeyed her orders.

The beggar’s body was cold and stiff from the servant’s words. It took a long time before he bent down and picked up the money bag on the ground; his voice was somewhat choked with emotions. “Thank you, Lady...”

Lady Yuan let out a soft sigh and shook her head with a bitter smile.

Ever since the You family had been exterminated and Sir Ye had died without so much as leaving behind a body, she had never been this soft to anyone.

In her life, all that left to do was revenge!

To get revenge, she was willing to lose her conscience and even destroy everyone in the marquis’s manor!

But after seeing this lonely and helpless beggar, her heart softened.

And that was all she could do for him.

Lady Yuan turned around and walked past the beggar without so much a glance back.

The skirt’s horn that was enhanced with finely shredded petals floated passed his eyes and disappeared along with the light breeze, only a whiff of fragrance remained.

The beggar covered his eyes with his hands as tears flowed through his fingers. He stumbled to the ground and started weeping inconsolably. The tears kept flowing, but he was still unable to make even the slightest sound of grief.

No matter how warm the sunlight was, it could never warm his heart.

They did not even need to see each other again.

Five years ago, he had escaped death and cultivated for the whole five years. He then returned to Tianyue Kingdom only for revenge.

He was like an evil spirit crawling out of hell, with no other thought except revenge!

But the woman he had once loved the most had become his enemy’s woman.

How ridiculous was that?

Hahaha!

He was laughing inside, but his tears flowed uncontrollably and he seemed to be venting out all the pain he had kept in those days.

Not far away, Lady Yuan, not knowing why, turned her head to look back at the beggar behind her.

When she saw the beggar was lying on the ground and crying out as if in pain, she frowned. "What's wrong with him?"

The servant sneered disdainfully. "Maybe it's been a long time since he has seen so much money that it made him excited for a while. Lady, this kind of person shouldn't..."

Smack!

Lady Yuan raised her hand and slapped the servant's face.

In the blink of an eye, a mark of five fingers appeared on the servant girl's cheeks.

She kneeled on the ground in fear and kowtowed in front of Lady Yuan.

Chapter 1066: The Beggar in front of the Marquis' Manor V

"Lady, spare me. Please, I'm begging you to spare me."

Lady Yuan pulled her hand back. "You go back first. I'll report to the marquis and ask him to give me a new servant. How many times have I asked you to shut up, haven't you hear me?" Lady Yuan said expressionlessly.

The servant panicked.

It was the lady who had asked the question first just now and she was just answering it.

Of course, she did not dare to speak up. She just needed to know that the lady was always right, no matter what she said.

Otherwise, the marquis would never let her go!

"Lady, spare me, it was my fault. I know I was wrong..."

"I want to go for a walk alone. You head back first!"

She wanted to see if Zheng Tianwu could beat those spirit beasts or not.

It would be better if Zheng Tianwu died on the battlefield, then the You family could rest in peace.

"Lady, the marquis said that this place is not safe, Lady is not allowed to be alone here..."

"Fine, if you don't leave now, I'll ask the marquis to execute you immediately!"

The servant was dumbstruck by the lady's words.

She knew that if she did not protect the lady and that if something happened to the lady, then the marquis would never let her go.

But if she followed her, the lady would kill her too...

Just as the servant was considering her options, Lady Yuan had walked quite some distance away. When the servant turned back, the figure in the green dress had disappeared into the crowd...

The servant's heart shuddered and sank. Only one sentence came to mind.

This time, she was really in big trouble!

Outside the city.

The beasts had come in from outside the city. Those who wandered in the street were scared that the crazy spirit beasts might hurt them. They hurried off to hide in their houses, not daring to come out.

They were peeking through a small hole in the door to see the situation outside.

The sound of deliberate footsteps was heard coming from nearby.

Zheng Tianwu was the first one who had come forward.

He looked at Gu Yiyi coldly. This time, without saying any nonsense, he raised his palm and dropped it again. "Kill all the invaders of the marquis city, now!"

The skilled masters of the marquis' manor made a move.

The group of spirit beasts let out a roar and rushed into the crowd of skilled masters.

Fresh blood painted the entire city red and the whole sky was rendered red by the blood.

At one glance, Zheng Tianwu recognized these spirit beasts were all from the beast forest. His expression sank in his gloomy eyes.

"What's going on? Why did the spirit beasts of the beast forest come here?"

The spirit beasts of the beast forest were all extremely familiar to him.

Only the beast forest had the wolfhounds!

But those spirit beasts were not at the same level of strength as the ones in front him now.

Just like the wolfhound...

It turned out to be of Advance Immortal Warrior tier and was identified as a Holy Warrior tier's little friend!

Zheng Tianwu was so furious. He did not know what had happened and why the spirit beast's strength had risen so quickly.

These days, many spirit beasts would retreat once the royal army appeared. Initially, he thought that these spirit beasts would not be too strong, but he did not expect that they were so keen to this extent.

And now his rage had turned into dread.

If the spirit beasts' strength surpassed humans, then how would this piece of land still belong to the humans?

Zheng Tianwu saw Feng Ruqing with a few people standing nearby. A light flashed in his eyes. He brought over a Holy Warrior and said cautiously, "You go and settle those human girls first!"

'No matter what, the eldest prince must not be allowed to see Gu Yiyi again! Even if so, it would only be the corpse of Gu Yiyi!'

Chapter 1067: Feng Ruqing's Counterattack

The sun was shining in the sky.

The murderous tension was filling up to the brim.

The skilled master of the marquis' manor rushed in front of Gu Yiyi. His eyes were filled with murderous intent as he was slashing around with the longsword in his hand.

Feng Ruqing extended her hand and pulled Gu Yiyi into her arms. She looked coldly at the skilled master who had rushed in front of her.

The skilled master of the marquis' manor did not stop moving. His mission was to kill these girls, as for who died first, it was none of his business.

On the other hand...

The skilled master found out that when he rushed in front of Feng Ruqing, those spirit beasts did not react at all, even the closest one did not rush to help her.

Zheng Tianwu had also acknowledged this.

There was a sneer playing on his lips and his eyes were filled with disdain. 'Spirit beasts will always be spirit beasts. Expecting them to protect their lord is simply impossible. This little girl is so pitiful.'

Zheng Tianwu's smile did not last long before it froze.

That was because...

He saw Feng Ruqing's hands reaching out and firmly gripping the skilled master's longsword.

Her red dress was floating lightly as she held Gu Yiyi in her arms. Her dark eyes were cold and emotionless.

The skilled master's face changed. He vigorously tried to pull back the longsword from Feng Ruqing's hand but failed.

What made him even more frightened was that it was such a long and sharp sword, yet Feng Ruqing could hold it firmly in her palm without any injury.

At this moment, he only felt his blood was flowing backward as if it had solidified on his body.

He lifted his head stiffly and his cheeks were trembling with cold sweat. 'This... this girl...'

Puff!

A groan sounded.

The skilled master of the marquis' manor lowered his head in disbelief when he saw the sword's hilt had pierced into his body and blood was dripping from his chest.

The sharp blade of the sword did not hurt her at all.

But the hilt of the sword, which should be harmless, had managed to pierce his chest...

Boom!

Before he could even say a word, the skilled master of the marquis' manor had collapsed onto the dusty ground. His body lay straight as he met his end.

Zheng Tianwu's eyes were somewhat solemn. Initially, he had just taken these vicious spirit beasts as enemies without thinking much of these human girls.

Unexpectedly, this girl was hiding her skills so well.

To settle the fight as quickly as possible, he was forced to strikeout.

The longsword was like the wind and its power was strong.

The entire sky darkened for a few moments from this powerful aura.

Zheng Tianwu's figure was like a longsword, slicing through the sky and landing sharply on Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing quickly pushed Gu Yiyi to one side and narrowly dodged Zheng Tianwu's longsword.

The longsword split the wall behind it, causing a massive crack on the wall. All the stones had fallen to the ground.

The man stood in the great breeze. His handsome face was cold. He looked at Feng Ruqian with eyes that were filled with intense murderous intent.

"Little girl, wait until I kill Gu Yiyi first, then I'll kill you."

He did not forget that it was Gu Yiyi who should be executed first!

Zheng Tianwu turned around and suddenly a figure that seemed like a sharp sword shot toward Gu Yiyi, but he did not touch Gu Yiyi's face as numerous vines had broken out from the ground and wrapped around Zheng Tianwu like a long snake.

Chapter 1068: Fu Chen Has Grown Up I

Seeing those vines that looked like long snakes, Zheng Tianwu's face was slightly changed. He jumped up suddenly and narrowly dodged the vines.

After all the vines collided together, they quickly scattered again and pounced at Zheng Tianwu...

Gu Yiyi did not make any move. When she was staring at Zheng Tianwu, the scene of Mu Qingyin falling in front of her appeared in her mind again. The hatred in her heart was infinitely magnified. She stared deadly at his fast dodging figure with her beautiful eyes.

She was not supposed to be here, but she still insisted on coming.

She just wanted to see what would happen to those who had hurt her second uncle and were vain enough to deal with her!

Swoosh!

The gusty breeze rose steeply.

Just as Zheng Tianwu was dodging the vines awkwardly, he saw a beautiful red-robed girl standing directly in front of him.

The red robe was more voluptuous than the sunlight. The girl's eyebrows flared as she stared coldly at Zheng Tianwu, who was not far away.

Zheng Tianwu's hair was messed like a beggar and his cold gaze was tinged with arrogance and pride.

"Who are you?"

"I am your father! I came today to teach my son a lesson!"

Suddenly, Feng Ruqing was behind Zheng Tianwu's back.

Zheng Tianwu tried to turn around, but his arm had been entangled in the vines. The hand in which he was holding the longsword was hard to move.

Thud!

Feng Ruqing kicked Zheng Tianwu's chest and sent him flying backward as he crashed into the stall behind him.

The stall was smashed into two pieces. All the items on the stall fell and nearly buried him.

He coughed as he got up from the ground. He suddenly used his palms to cut off all the vines that bound him.

Just as he was about to move forward again, the sound of uniform footsteps came from behind him causing his body to shake abruptly. He turned his head around gingerly and saw the eldest prince in a brocade robe riding a fine horse leading the royal army.

The eldest prince's face stiffened, but his heart was overflowing with joy once he saw Gu Yiyi. He then quickly walked toward her.

The eldest prince was just about to grab Gu Yiyi's hand when suddenly a hand came from next to him and firmly gripped onto his wrist.

At the moment, the eldest prince's expression darkened as he felt that his wrist was almost broken. He turned his head slowly as his gaze fell on a bold and beautiful face.

The eldest prince was not a pure-hearted man. Back then, he had fallen in love with Gu Yiyi's beauty and had forcibly taken her away. Now, the girl in front of him was so beautiful, so he would definitely fall for her now.

But...

He preferred a young and weak woman, who could bring out the protective streak in men, someone who was unable to escape his control.

The young girl in front of him was not such a girl.

She was too powerful, both in strength and temperament, to be his ideal type.

A woman would always be an appendage to a man. He could not accept a woman who deluded herself into believing that she was more powerful than a man.

"Let me go!"

The eldest prince's face stiffened. He screamed harshly and sharply.

Feng Ruqing turned to look at Gu Yiyi. "Was he the one who had captured you?"

Gu Yiyi's expression was so aggrieved and pitiful. "Xiao Qing, you do not know how miserable I was when you were not here. This bastard did not let me leave the palace and he also wanted to break my legs. I thought I would never see you again."

Chapter 1069: Fu Chen Has Grown Up II

Feng Ruqing squeezed the eldest prince's wrist hard.

At this moment, the eldest prince could hear the sound of bones cracking. He gritted his teeth fiercely and his furious eyes were fixed on Feng Ruqing.

Immortal Warrior tier!

'This girl is actually an Immortal Warrior!'

And he was only an Advanced Dark Warrior.

Just with one tier of difference, the level of strength was so different!

The army was stunned. They swiftly surrounded Feng Ruqing and the beasts while all their weapons were aimed at Feng Ruqing's body.

If she tried to make any move, they would shoot her immediately!

Under the gale.

The red robe fluttered.

Seeing the eldest prince's face was almost completely distorted with anger, there was a soft smile on Feng Ruqing's face.

Her smile was almost unnoticeable.

“Did your hand ever touch her?” Feng Ruqing asked as she approached the prince.

The eldest prince laughed coldly. “So what if I have touched her?”

Crack!

With a hard twist from Feng Ruqing, the eldest prince’s arms were all twisted. His face was distorted as it turned blue. Sweat dripped down from his forehead.

He gritted his teeth and stiffly forced out a few words, “Master!”

‘Master?’

Feng Ruqing was stunned. The sky suddenly darkened a bit. When she looked up, she saw a figure that was like a flash of lightning crossing the sky coming from not far away. It was like a sharp sword rushing toward her.

“Mother, watch out!”

Qing Han’s sweet face suddenly changed.

Boom!

Unfortunately, it was too late...

A powerful force suddenly arose, causing Feng Ruqing to be forced back a few steps. She then loosened her hands. Her cold gaze turned toward the elder in a white robe who was standing in front of her.

Holy Warrior tier!

If Qing Han had not erected the vines as a barrier to shield her strength just now, she would not be able to stand steadily.

“Master, help me kill this woman!”

The eldest prince’s eyes flashed with coldness as he could not forget the humiliation he had faced just now. There was darkness in his eyes that could not cease.

Feng Ruqing stayed silent and her face turned grim.

The elder in white robe walked toward Feng Ruqing slowly.

He stopped at the gate of this crowded city. Each step he took was heavy as if he was stamping hard on Feng Ruqing’s heart.

However, Feng Ruqing’s expression was still undisturbed. Her eyes were as calm as lake water.

“Xiao Qing!”

Gu Yiyi’s heart tightened. She pulled Feng Ruqing’s hand and looked at the eldest prince with a stubborn gaze.

The hatred in her eyes had ignited the anger in the eldest prince’s heart. Her face turned slightly pale.

“Yiyi, do not rely on my affections for you when you keep trying to challenge my patience. Just because I can tolerate you for the first time, doesn’t mean that I can do it for the second and third time. Gu Yiyi! My patience has a limit!”

He had already restrained himself when Gu Yiyi once had a delusional thought of running away from him.

And now she wanted to escape again and again.

What was not right about him that made her want to escape? Now she was willing to wallow in the mire with these spirit beasts just to get revenge on him?

Ridiculous!

The eldest prince’s deep, dark eyes were shining with a wicked light.

This time, he would not indulge her anymore.

As long as Gu Yiyi became his woman, there was no way she could escape from this life!

Feng Ruqing’s hand rested on Gu Yiyi’s shoulder, she nodded and revealed a small smile. “Yiyi, just go wait by the side, no matter what happens, do not come up here!”

Chapter 1070: Fu Chen Has Grown Up III

Gu Yiyi grasped Feng Ruqing’s hand tightly. “Xiao Qing!”

“My second uncle needs your care. Remember, no matter what, do not come up here!”

Feng Ruqing shoved Gu Yiyi away and flicked her sleeves forward.

Under the light breeze, her back was as firm as the mountains and as reliable as the sea.

Somehow, it gave people a sense of calm and peace.

Perhaps it was the reason why countless girls were willing to be with her and would be willing to die for her with no regrets!

There seemed to be a faint gleam of admiration for Feng Ruqing in the eyes of the elder in the white robe. But the eldest prince was his disciple and also his grandson. He would not allow anyone to bully him.

Naturally, all humans would defend their own family whether or not they were right or wrong.

Swoosh!

Numerous vines broke out from the ground and instantly rushed toward the elder in the white robe.

The elder in white robe leaped up and lithely evaded the vines.

His was like a flash of lightning whose pace no one could ever catch.

Little Qing Han turned pale at once. Seeing that the elder in the white robe was about to rush toward Feng Ruqing, Little Qing Han quickly twisted the vines into a ball and threw it at the elder in white robe with a great force.

The elder in white robe expressionlessly moved a few steps to the side and dodged the vines.

In an instant, he was already in front of Feng Ruqing...

Boom!

His palm gathered a powerful force as a fierce storm swirled around it.

Feng Ruqing lifted her beautiful face. Her dark eyes remained calm and it seemed that there was no way to see any anxiety in her eyes.

Later...

He saw a gaping hole in the sky above her.

A tall boy appeared. He was about ten years old with a childish and delicate face, but he already had a calmness that did not reflect his age.

Brother Fu Chen!

Little Qing Han immediately recognized the boy standing above the void. A gleam of joy flashed in her eyes. She rushed toward the boy.

The boy bowed his head and caught Little Qing Han with a soft smile on his face.

"Mother."

After hugging Little Qing Han, the boy looked up at Feng Ruqing again, his voice warm and soft.

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

Her adopted son had grown up?

Why did he not look like her son?

Sure enough, everyone's eyes fell on Feng Ruqing.

Gu Yiyi blinked distractedly. "Xiao Qing, did Nan Xian force you to have a son when you were ten years old?"

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

Could she say she did not know this person?

"Brother Fu Chen..." Little Qing Han held Fu Chen's head with her hands. She felt happy and wronged at the same time. 'If I have not woken up earlier, I should have been as tall as Brother Fu Chen. A long period of starvation had made us shrink, but Brother Fu Chen has grown taller while I am still so short.'

They used to be two little melons.

Right now, only she was the little one among the two of them.

The elder in white did not make any reckless moves. He just wickedly stared at the boy who was standing in the void.

Others might be confused by the boy's childish face, but he could sense that the boy was dangerous... At least more dangerous than anyone he had ever met!
