

Overbearing 1401

Chapter 1401: The Wedding Day IV

He would never come back!

Ye Yi's words were like a rock that struck the crowd, causing an endless stir.

An old minister in the crowd was worried as he said, "Your Majesty, what is going on here? Now is the auspicious time for the wedding. Why hasn't the state preceptor returned yet?"

The others also looked at each other.

The quiet crowd started to be noisy after hearing the old minister's words.

'The state preceptor is supposed to be here now.'

'If he has not returned by now, today's wedding ceremony might be canceled...'

"Of course, he won't be back." Ye Yi stepped forward slowly with a cold, stern face. "He's too embarrassed to come back."

Feng Ruqing remained silent. She looked calm, without any emotion, as she stared at Ye Yi.

Ye Yi continued, "This lady... Do you all know her?"

The crowd turned to Tan Shuangshuang, who was standing next to Ye Yi.

Tan Shuangshuang's face turned pale. Her body was trembling slightly as she bit her lip hard to suppress the fear within her.

"Tan Shuangshuang?"

The old minister was stunned. He looked surprised. "Isn't this girl the previous grand tutor's daughter, Tan Shuangshuang? Her father's already been deposed. What's she doing here? She has no business being here!"

Tan Shuangshuang lowered her eyes and clenched her fists tightly.

A few years ago, she and Liu Yuchen were the young talented, perfect couple in Liu Yun Kingdom.

People had always praised and admired her.

But now...

They said that she had no right to be here. That left her heart cold, dark, and lonely.

As if Ye Yi had not seen Tan Shuangshuang's expression, he smirked and said, "If Tan Shuangshuang does not have the right, then who does? The people of the Mu family should probably know who she is!"

Ye Yi's gaze fell on Suyi. His eyes were dark and cold.

Back then, he had fallen in love with a girl and wanted to bring her back as a concubine. If it were not for this nosy woman, maybe he would have been able to keep that girl.

Suyi had ruined his good fortune. He wanted to take revenge, but she ended up becoming the lady of Tian Shen Manor.

Deities Gate and Tian Shen Manor were both part of three major forces, so they could not start any fight.

Therefore, he could only swallow his anger.

Fortunately, he had a chance now!

Suyi once ruined his plan to get that girl as his concubine, so now he would not let her son have a wife!

Mu Qingyin's eyes were cold and sunken. He was about to speak, but Suyi had raised her hand, stopping him.

"Of course, I know her." Suyi's gaze fell on Tan Shuangshuang, expressionless. "She was pregnant with someone else's child, framed Mu Ling, and became Mu Ling's concubine. How could I not know her? She used to always start a fight with my Qing'er. Now what? You found out that Nan Xian will marry Qing'er, so you deliberately bring this guy as a 'gift' to Qing'er?"

Suyi paused and smiled faintly. "But there's no need for that. My Qing'er has always been good-tempered and won't be too bothered by Tan Shuangshuang. The Mu family has also returned her to Liu Fuyong so that her child can live with her real father."

The officers of Liu Yun Kingdom were all stunned by Suyi's words. They looked at Tan Shuangshuang in disbelief, somewhat speechless.

It was not strange if an old man could have a young concubine.

But this Tan Shuangshuang... Was once Liu Yuchen's woman!

The father slept with his son's woman and this woman... Had also framed the Mu family of Tian Shen Manor!

'The world is... Such a mess....'

Chapter 1402: The Wedding Day V

Tan Shuangshuang felt that all of her secrets were revealed in front of the crowd. She was so ashamed that she wanted to leave, but she did not dare take a step back as Ye Yi was still standing next to her.

"Oh..." Ye Yi sneered. "Lady Suyi, I'm afraid that Tan Shuangshuang's relationship with your Mu family is more than that. As far as I know, after she became Mu Ling's concubine, she had not only an affair with Mu Qingyin but also Mu Nan Xian!"

Tan Shuangshuang instantly lifted her head and looked at Ye Yi with a pale face.

Her body was trembling hard.

Suyi had revealed her relationship with Liu Fuyong and Mu Ling. Tan Shuangshuang could not believe that Ye Yi would still talk about this.

He had clearly said that they came here only to embarrass Nan Xian, so why did he still drag her into it?

In this case, what would the world say about her?

The once-great Maiden Tan had become a slut?

Tan Shuangshuang's face grew paler. "Lord Ye Yi, you..."

Ye Yi glared at her coldly. His gaze was like a poisonous snake, wrapping around Tan Shuangshuang's neck, choking her, and making her no longer able to say any word.

Nalan Yan stood up angrily. Her cold and stern gaze fell on the few people who were sitting in front of her. The coldness in his eyes was even more intense than before.

Suyi looked calm, and her expression had not changed much. But her clenched fists were trembling, thus showing that she was enraged.

"Suyi..." Feng Ruqing patted Su Yi's hand gently and cast a comforting glance toward Nalan Yan. She then turned to Tan Shuangshuang and smiled sweetly. "You've framed Mu Ling as your daughter's father, and now you want to drag Nan Xian and the Mu family's second uncle into this mess?"

'No, it's not like that!'

Tan Shuangshuang felt choked, and her body trembled hard. This was not even something she planned to do.

She hated Feng Ruqing, but she only harbored the hatred in her heart. At most, she could only curse her secretly, but no longer dared to stand up and make a public enemy of her.

However, Tan Shuangshuang profoundly understood that she had already offended Feng Ruqing. And if she denied everything right now, Ye Yi would definitely not let her go!

As he had said, he came today just to ruin these people's reputation; it did not matter if the woman he brought was her or not. Even without her, he could still find another one.

And she... Would definitely end up worse than dead!

Tan Shuangshuang took a deep breath, forcing herself to compose her emotions. She then looked at Feng Ruqing and smiled mockingly.

"The man you think you are deeply in love with has long been married to me. All the men in the Mu family are the same. Mu Ling can't resist my temptation, neither Mu Qingyin nor Mu Nanxian! Feng Ruqing, do you know why Nan Xian won't show up today? He's not looking for someone. He ran away from the altar today because he didn't want to break my heart!"

She did not care if Feng Ruqing believed it or not; she just needed the world to believe it!

She wanted the world to see this pair of immortal lovers was nothing to be impressed about.

As expected, the sinister gaze wrapped around her just now had disappeared when she said these words.

Ye Yi smiled with satisfaction. "Our Deities Gate has always liked to do good deeds. So when we heard about Tan Shuangshuang's matter, we brought her to Liu Yun Kingdom... Maiden Feng, my master said that you would never have someone who truly loves you in your life!"

Chapter 1403: The Wedding Day V

Feng Ruqing was dressed in a red wedding dress, looking at Ye Yi calmly, devoid of any emotion.

"Gate Master?" She walked slowly toward Ye Yi and Tan Shuangshuang. "Are you talking about Jiu Luo or Hu Qing?"

Ye Yi was stunned, he was obviously a little unresponsive and did not understand what Feng Ruqing meant by that.

But he quickly came back to his senses and spoke with a cold smile, "Great wits have short memories. It seems that Maiden Feng is so forgetful that she doesn't even remember my master's name. Nan Xian has bullied his concubine's father, and you, also not a good woman, have seduced my Deities Gate Young Master Jiu Ming. The two of you are really perfect for each other!"

Feng Ruqing slowly held out her hand, and a long sword appeared in the palm.

Her dress fluttered in the light breeze.

Her vivid red dress was as bright as blood, breathtakingly beautiful.

Tan Shuangshuang raised her eyes and met the girl's glance. She clutched her palm tightly as she took a few steps back.

Suddenly...

A sword light flashed past, and Tan Shuangshuang was so shocked that she quickly blocked it with her hand.

The sword light sliced through her arm. Blood oozed out, and the stinging turned her face pale with pain.

Her body trembled slightly.

It was unclear whether it was from pain or panic...

"This is for your son. He's young and innocent. You have used him to frame and to get close to Mu Ling. Now, when the child is useless to you, you abandon him."

Tan Shuangshuang's body trembled harder, and her eyes were filled with panic.

"No... It wasn't me. It was Liu Fuyong who threw him out. I can't even protect myself, let alone that child."

"So..." Feng Ruqing looked at Tan Shuangshuang coldly. "You allowed a foolish child to wander around alone? And you dumped him in a place like the beast forest? If it wasn't because all those beasts have stopped eating meat, do you think the boy would have lived?"

Feng Ruqing was never one to meddle in other people's business.

However...

It was Tan Shuangshuang who started it first, allowing her a reason and excuse to retaliate against Tan Shuangshuang.

“This slash is for the Mu family that you’ve made a mess of!”

Initially, Feng Ruqing did not like the Mu family! But now, all the people that she hated had left! Naturally, she was not disgusted by the current members of the Mu family.

“This slash is for Nan Xian! You almost shoved a brother with no bloodline to him into the Mu family!”

Another sword fell, and Tan Shuangshuang’s face was as bloody as it could be. Her eyes were overflowing with fear, and she actually felt so isolated for the first time in front of so many people.

“And this slash... Is for those flowers and plants that you have hurt...”

At first, those people thought that Feng Ruqing was kind and only attacked her to avenge the child that Tan Shuangshuang had abandoned back then.

It was not until this last sentence had fallen that they had finally understood...

She just needed an excuse!

An excuse to make a move on Tan Shuangshuang!

Seeing Tan Shuangshuang’s bloodied appearance, everyone’s hearts could not help but tremble in fear, but no one was sympathetic toward her.

After all, Feng Ruqing had spared her countless times, but she still came back every single time. How could Feng Ruqing tolerate her over and over again when she was also a human being who had limits to her patience?

“This last slash...” Feng Ruqing paused for a moment and continued, “You are the one who has ruined the state preceptor’s reputation!”

Chapter 1404: No One Can Ruin His Reputation

She would never allow anyone to ruin the state preceptor’s reputation.

Ye Yi stood aside calmly and did not go to stop Feng Ruqing. It seemed that he was happy to see her reaction.

Tan Shuangshuang was frightened as she looked at Feng Ruqing, who was approaching her. She wanted to speak but found that she could no longer make the slightest sound in her throat. Fear had permeated her entire heart...

“Maiden Feng is actually a jealous woman. Just because you’re not happy with your husband, who has run away from the wedding, you are trying to harm an innocent woman.”

When Feng Ruqing started to approach Tan Shuangshuang, Ye Yi finally opened his mouth and said with a cold smile on his face, "So, today, Deities Gate is here to stand up for the righteousness of this world. You are so arrogant that human life is nothing in your eyes! Deities Gate did not make any move as we did not know about this back then. But if I had known, I would never sit idly by!"

Tan Shuangshuang's body stiffened. She dropped her eyes, the pain so intense that she could not say a word.

But she was no fool.

She already understood everything after she heard Ye Yi's words.

Deities Gate was not just here to ruin the wedding.

Actually...

They wanted to make Feng Ruqing look bad in front of many people.

Deities Gate could immediately kill this annoying woman in the name of justice.

After all, in Cang Yue Mainland, men were superior to women.

Even though some women were powerful, in the hearts of all men, it was common to have many wives and concubines. And if a woman were jealous, she would be hated by everyone.

But...

Did the people of Deities Gate not make any inquiries before they came here?

Feng Ruqing's father had spoiled her for more than twenty years.

Feng Ruqing acted in an overbearing manner, but how many would dare say anything about it?

It seemed that the Deities Gate's plan... Was unattainable.

It was as if Ye Yi had already seen the eyes of those people looking at Feng Ruqing with such disdain and disgust inside the palace.

'A little girl... So what if she is powerful? Being a jealous woman, she is destined to be hated by people.'

The gate master had said that if he were to make a move against Liu Yun Kingdom, he would definitely make Feng Ruqing look bad in front of people first.

Deities Gate was righteous enough to stand up for the people!

"Of course, the wrongs you have done are not only that. You have killed countless people who were going to become Nan Xian's concubines when you were in Tian Shen Manor back then. You relied on Nan Suyi's favor. You have Gu Shi's support and ignored Nan Xian's attempts to stop you from committing this crime!

"Your future husband can't stand you anymore, and it's normal to run away from being married to you for that reason. I came here today to seek justice for those innocent women you've killed!

“Liu Yun Kingdom is genocidal, such a kingdom and such an emperor should not exist in this world! Our gate master is so kind, and he cannot see such a scourge exist, which is why he specifically sent us here!”

As soon as Ye Yi’s words fell, boundless energy came from the sky outside the palace.

The energy was extremely powerful, it was definitely above Holy Warrior tier.

“Holy Warriors?”

Those in the secular world had never seen a Holy Warrior, but those from the reclusive world had seen a lot more. Their faces turned pale when they noticed the energy...

They had only come to attend a wedding ceremony, so why would so many things happen?

Besides...

Why was there such a large number of Holy Warriors in this mainland? And they were all from Deities Gate!

Chapter 1405: Justice for Women in This World?

Feng Ruqing turned to those who had just entered from outside the palace.

Her eyes darkened a little.

As she expected, some people of Deities Gate had already entered the city, so there would not be too many people who would brazenly attack the city...

Moreover, these Holy Warriors were so strong that if they deliberately hid their whereabouts, ordinary people would not be able to detect them.

“Qing’er, Chen’er...”

Nalan Yan’s face darkened as she quickly stepped down from the phoenix chair and walked toward Feng Ruqing, before raising her eyes to look at the people in front of her.

She looked so worried.

Feng Ruqing comfortingly patted the back of her hand and looked at those people calmly.

Ye Yi smiled indifferently. “We, Deities Gate, came here today just to seek justice for those poor girls, you can rest assured that we will not hurt the innocent...”

Snap!

Gu Yiyi took off her shoes and threw it in Ye Yi’s face.

Ye Yi’s face sank as he glanced at Gu Yiyi coldly.

“Seek justice for your sh*t! Does that man, Nan Xian, have the right to make my Xiao Qing jealous of him? Do you think all women like him? Yuck! It’s that jealous man who prevents us from approaching Xiao Qing! If you’re capable of fighting, just go and settle with Nan Xian, not with my Xiao Qing!”

Ye Yi was speechless.

“Get out!”

In the crowd, another unknown person had carried the banquet table in front of them and threw it at Ye Yi.

Ye Yi reacted faster this time and dodged quickly by moving to the side.

His eyes were furious, and his gaze was filled with murderous intent.

These damn people... He only wanted to help them settle this annoying woman, but they were so ungrateful, damn it!

“Who wants to be Nan Xian’s concubine?” The girl’s face blushed red as she pointed at Ye Yi and started to curse, “Those are all things that bastard Mu Ling did on his own! How many years has it been since you’ve been to Tian Shen Manor? How come you are so behind on information? Who’s going to be Nan Xian’s concubine? Only a shameless woman like Qin Fei’er plots to steal someone else’s man! Even if we want to be the concubines, we will only be Maiden Feng’s concubine!”

Ye Yi was speechless.

He seemed to be in some discomfort.

Suyi calmly looked at the girl who spoke just now and secretly wrote her name down in her notebook.

Well, one of the concubines that Mu Ling had found for Nan Xian... It seemed like she was a girl from the Ouyang family. She met Qing’er at the Mu family’s evening feast and often came to the Mu family to visit her, but was stopped by the Mu family every time.

She thought that this girl was just curious about Qing’er, but she did not expect her to have such feelings toward Qing’er...

‘I’ve to tell Nan Xian so that he can be cautious with her!’

“You...” Ye Yi was about to say something, but he was interrupted by a voice.

“So, you are the one causing trouble in Liu Yun Kingdom. Do you think the princess has killed an innocent person? The people of Deities Gate are too nosy, aren’t you? If the princess has been ruthless with the innocent and beautiful girl, then the women in this world... Well, surely they won’t be bewitched by her, and I won’t be single until now.

“We have been waiting for the princess to marry, but now you’re here to ruin her wedding ceremony? Do you know how long we’ve been waiting for this day? Even if she is married, there are still many girls who still won’t give up on her. And if she never gets married, will there still be girls in the world left for us?”

Chapter 1406: Princess is the Enemy of All Men in the World

“Do you know that the princess is the enemy of all men in the world? Whoever destroys her marriage will take her place as the enemy of all men in the world!”

Feng Ruqing’s face darkened.

It was as if she was not allowed ever to get married...

Ye Yi was even angrier than Feng Ruqing.

‘Are these people crazy? Why are they still defending her so much when she had done such a god-awful thing?’

She was so jealous that she forbade her husband to take a concubine, so should the men of this world not sneer at her? And those girls... Perhaps one day, Feng Ruqing would set the rule that no man in Liu Yun Kingdom was allowed to have a concubine. When that time came, they would have no way to serve as concubines if they wanted to.

“Stupid! A bunch of stupid people!” Ye Yi’s eyes flashed with murderous intent. “Our Deities Gate tried to help you, but you still defend this vicious woman. Since you are so supportive of her, I’ll make all of you regret it!”

Ye Yi was clearly pissed off.

Initially, he came here to deal with Feng Ruqing, and to seek justice for the innocent.

But he had not expected... These people to be so ungrateful.

A murderous intent flashed in Ye Yi’s eyes, and in an instant, he had already leaped in front of Feng Ruqing...

Feng Ruqing looked as calm as ever. Her red dress fluttered in the wind, and her expression remained the same, even in the face of Ye Yi’s sudden attack...

Meanwhile...

Outside the imperial city.

High above the mountains, a violent sound rang out, pinning down part of a mountain on the opposite side.

Smoke and dust rose everywhere.

Hu Qing took a few steps back and laughed wildly. “Nan Changfeng, I created a group of Holy Warriors in Deities Gate, and now those warriors are all within Liu Yun Kingdom. I guess the Ninth Emperor is dead by now! Hahaha!”

Nan Xian suddenly tightened his grip on his longsword. He raised his hand, surging out a long, violent wind that rushed toward Hu Qing fiercely.

Little Qing Han’s brain buzzed and turned blank when she heard Hu Qing’s words.

‘The Ninth Emperor... Is dead?’

‘Mother... Is dead?’

Why?!

Back then, the Ninth Emperor did not wait for her to take the human form before leaving.

She never got to enjoy her warm embrace either.

It was hard...

She had a hard time looking for her mother and getting back to the Ninth Emperor, but why... Was she still killed?

"You killed Mother!"

Qing Han suddenly lifted her eyes and looked at Hu Qing coldly.

To her, the Ninth Emperor was like her mother.

She raised her well and had accompanied her through the long years...

She was able to see her again in this life and become the Ninth Emperor's child as she had wished back then.

She would not allow... Would not allow anyone to hurt her mother!

"Little kid..." Hu Qing smirked and looked at Little Qing Han in his hands. "Initially, I was just using you to lure the people around her away. That damn woman has put me in such a miserable situation. There's no way I'm going to let her go!"

Instantly, countless vines appeared from the ground, like long dragons, swiftly and powerfully headed toward Hu Qing.

Her eyes were red with anger.

Her small face was filled with rage, and her little body no longer struggled, allowing Hu Qing to hold her in his hands easily...

Hu Qing was unconcerned as he raised his hand to grab the vines that were coming at him...

Chapter 1407: He Only Wanted Her to be Happy I

Hu Qing hastily retracted his hand after touching the vines.

He raised his palm and felt that his palm was already red hot.

The burning sensation spread from his palm to his heart. He loosened his hand that was carrying Little Qing Han, letting her body fall from his grasp.

Nan Xian instantly stepped forward, grabbed Little Qing Han's lapel, and pulled her to his side.

On top of that cold expression, there was a hint of disdain.

Of course, it was only to Little Qing Han.

If Little Qing Han had not called him Father... He would not have even caught in time and would have simply let her fall to the ground.

Hu Qing's face suddenly darkened, and he laughed out coldly.

“Nan Xian, it’s too late for you to rush back now, and even if you do, I’m afraid that you might not be able to escape from me. I won’t let you do what you want...”

He grunted coldly as his body transformed into a sword and swiftly moved toward Nan Xian.

Nan Xian shielded Little Qing Han behind him and braced for the attack from Hu Qing.

However...

Before Hu Qing could reach in front of Nan Xian, a purple robe suddenly came and landed in front of him.

Boom!

Dust was stirred up from the ground and covered the sky.

The man’s purple robe flew up in the violent wind. His evil and handsome face looked cold and arrogant.

The purple lightning symbol beneath his eyes had changed a little, but it was always much smaller than when he was in the Divine Herbs Sect.

“Leave this man to me. You go find her.”

Jiu Ming smirked. His voice was firm and undeniable.

Nan Xian was silent for a moment. “Alright.”

He had more important things to do.

Just as Nan Xian turned around, that evil cold voice came from the back again, causing him to stop in his tracks.

“Nan Xian, I’ve given her to you. If you make her sad...” Jiu Ming paused. “I, Jiu Ming, will definitely not let you go. Even if you die, I will find you in hell!”

The man raised his handsome face. His voice gradually dissipated with the wind, but his words were stuck in his mind for a long time.

Nan Xian stood behind the man. His robe was as white as snow, untouched by the dust. His gaze remained cold and arrogant.

“Thank you.”

Feng Ruqing did not understand Jiu Ming’s feelings for her, but he could see it.

That kind of gaze that only a rival had... He could feel it.

He did a commendable job by letting her go.

He could actually go to the palace to find Qing’er and not come here.

But he was still here after all...

So, for the first time, Nan Xian thanked him.

Even if it was... Only for Qing'er.

"If you want to thank me, then use your life to love and protect her! Nan Xian, I hope you'll let me know that I'm making the right choice now, or I'll regret letting you go back to marry her."

Because she deserved it... Deserved to be loved by someone who cared for her with all his heart and all his soul.

He only hoped that he had made the right choice now, or else he would surely regret it for the rest of his life.

Nan Xian walked away.

He carried Little Qing Han in his hands and, like a light breeze, disappeared without a trace.

Hu Qing looked at the man in front of him angrily. "It's you again, bastard! Aren't you done yet? You love the Ninth Emperor... Why did you come and help Nan Xian? Isn't he your rival?"

Chapter 1408: He Only Wanted Her to be Happy II

A smile hung on the corners of Jiu Ming's mouth.

He recalled his first encounter with her a few years ago...

The girl was still as fat as a giant mountain, yet somehow she had managed to capture his heart so easily.

"You will never understand..." He paused and smiled warmly. "To me, I'm willing to give everything only to protect her and see her smile. If the price for me to get her is that she loses all her laughter, then that kind of life for her... It's not what I want."

He liked Feng Ruqing the way she was.

Her gestures and smiles...

Her joys and sorrows...

If the cost of getting her was so terrible that it would make her hold a grudge against him, what was the point of having her like that?

"Maybe you've never liked a girl, and you'll never understand what I'm doing."

She liked Nan Xian. So, he would let him go.

He did not want to make himself... A burden to her.

Now that he thought about it, Qing'er misunderstanding him and Nan Xian had a great benefit to him as well.

At least... She would not resent his presence.

They could always get along like this.

“What are you babbling about?” Hu Qing was furious, and his face was livid. “Who says I haven’t liked girls? My future wife, Yuan Yuan, is my next-door neighbor. Qian Qian, my youngest girl. Zhu Zhu... Oh yes, the most popular courtesan from Welcome Spring Courtyard, Xiao Xinxin. All of them are my favorite girls. How dare you say I don’t understand!”

Jiu Ming was speechless.

“If it weren’t for the Ninth Emperor, would these girls have run away from me? The courtesan I liked back then would only dance for the Ninth Emperor. Hehe... She’s a girl, but why was she visiting a brothel? She was even one step ahead of me in saving Xinxin! If it wasn’t for her, Xinxin would have fallen in love with me!”

Jiu Ming was stunned.

Why did he always have a feeling that Nan Xian’s life would not be that easy?

He could stop the men, but not the girls who were like wild bees and butterflies...

Little Qing’er was... Too gentle with girls.

Why was she saving a courtesan? And why did she visit a brothel?

Somehow, Jiu Ming had some sympathy for Hu Qing.

‘No wonder he hates Qing’er so much.’

What a crushing blow it must have been for him to discover that the girl he loved had run away with another girl! A man who had always been proud of himself, but had allowed his pride to be trampled on... No wonder he kept pestering Little Qing’er like this...

“All of this is really Little Qing’er’s fault.” Jiu Ming slowly walked toward Hu Qing.

It was only after hearing Jiu Ming’s words that Hu Qing’s face was calm again.

‘See, there’s finally someone who is on my side.’

Those people back then had mistreated him. They did not even understand the sorrow in his heart.

“It’s her fault that...” Jiu Ming smiled evilly. “She’s so charming, and you can’t do anything about that. My Qing’er didn’t ask for it... But those people prefer to chase after her. Is that wrong?”

Hu Qing’s face darkened after hearing Jiu Ming’s words.

“You’re asking for death!”

Asshole!

‘How attractive can a woman be? Is it enough to attract other women?’

Obviously, the Ninth Emperor had deliberately flirted with the girls. They did not even know her gender. She was deliberately cheating!

People should hate a liar like her. No one should love her!

Hu Qing's anger grew. A murderous intent flashed in his eyes as he rushed toward Jiu Ming.

Jiu Ming's face turned serious, no longer having an evil smile that he had just now. He looked at Hu Qing, who was rushing to him, calmly. The wind around him started to rise, making his purple robe lift in the wind...

Chapter 1409: He Only Wanted Her to be Happy III

Imperial Palace.

The palace was decorated with colorful lights.

Feng Ruqing stood among thousands of people in a red dress, enchanting the whole city.

Nalan Yan held the long sword in her hand. Her gaze was stern as she looked at the group of skilled masters in front of her.

The blood had stained the palace hall red, dyeing all the lanterns inside.

Mu Qingqin protected Gu Yiyi behind him. The man's body was like a giant mountain standing still, giving her a full sense of security.

For some reason, every time she was protected by a man like this, Gu Yiyi's heart could not help but beat faster. She felt warm and at ease.

"Xiao Qing!"

Tang Yin was anxious and hurriedly rushed toward Feng Ruqing as she saw the people from Deities Gate had already surrounded her.

Right at this moment...

Nalan Jing tightly pulled Tang Yin's hand and pushed her to Qin Yi's side. "Mother, you help me watch over her. I'll go to help my cousin."

Tang Yin was pushed hard into Qin Yi's arms.

She was stunned and wanted to rush out again, but Qin Yi had already pulled her into her arms, not giving her the chance to leave.

"Yin'er, you're a girl. What can you do there? Stay here, and don't move. Your Uncle Nalan and Jing'er will help them."

Her tightly clenched fists revealed barely controlled anger.

Seeing the empress's family under siege.. How could she, as a courtier, sit idly by and do nothing?

But she... Still had Dai'er and Yin'er to protect! She could not act recklessly.

Furthermore... These wars were no longer something she could engage in, not even Zhangqian and Jing'er could resist them...

Qin Yi's eyes were increasingly filled with determination.

‘Everyone bears responsibility for the fate of the kingdom.’

This was the choice she had made back then during the siege of the six kingdoms.

However, this time the enemy was even more powerful... Than it once was...

If Jing’er and her husband could not deal with the enemies, then, after she settled Dai’er and Yin’er, she would also fight for Liu Yun Kingdom!

The people had started to kill each other.

Those people from the reclusive world came here to participate in the wedding ceremony, but they were only acquaintances with Fengyun Manor and even Tian Shen Manor.

The relationship was not so strong that they would risk their life and death for these people...

However, these people somewhat agreed with Ye Yi’s words, and they were not foolish enough to make an enemy of the current Deities Gate.

On the contrary...

Those people in Liu Yun Kingdom were much more bloody.

They understood that if the kingdom fell, there would no longer be a home for them in this world.

With the destructive nature of Deities Gate, it would not be possible for them to destroy Liu Yun Kingdom.

Moreover, the disaster they experienced back then had taught them not to retreat in any battle quickly.

So what if they were not strong enough?

At least they were... The people of Liu Yun Kingdom!

Ye Yi’s eyes were fierce. ‘These people are willing to sacrifice their lives for Feng Ruqing...

‘Is it worth it?’

Puff!

A sword slashed his shoulder as he tried to protect Gu Yiyi. Blood flowed out across his chest, staining his robe red.

“Second Uncle!” Gu Yiyi’s eyes were red, almost tearing.

Mu Qingyin saw the worry and heartache in her eyes, but it was too late to respond because another person had already rushed in front of him...

Feng Ruqing immediately noticed it and leaped in front of Mu Qingyin. The long sword in her hand slashed at that person’s chest.

Blood burst out of that person’s chest like a demonic flower blossoming in front of them.

It was absolutely beautiful and fragrant.

“Feng Ruqing!” Ye Yi sneered. “You can’t fight against our Deities Gate. Your people are dying outside this palace... If you don’t want to stain the imperial city with blood, don’t ever think of fighting me!”

Chapter 1410: He Only Wanted Her to be Happy IV

Ye Yi thought that after he said this, all these people in Liu Yun Kingdom would be shocked.

However, what was waiting for him was still that calm.

He frowned as his voice grew colder. “Could it be that... Your Liu Yun Kingdom is also so hypocritical that it doesn’t care about the lives of the common people?”

Feng Ruqing smiled faintly. Her dark eyes were bright but contained an unreadable light.

“How many Holy Warriors has your Deities Gate trained recently? How many more besides the ones that came here?”

Her tone was calm and unruffled as if she was talking to a sword about something unimportant.

The battle suddenly stopped, but the blood inside the hall was still red and visible.

“Besides the people who came here, there are several Holy Warriors who have already gone to the city gate.” Ye Yi smiled faintly. “I knew that you’d asked Gu Shi to guard the city gate, so I’ve prepared a surprise for him. I’m not sure whether he will like it or not.”

Feng Ruqing smiled lightly. “So, apart from those who have entered the palace, it’s only a group of Holy Warriors left at the city gate, right?”

“Hmm...” Ye Yi snorted. “Isn’t that enough?”

Feng Ruqing gently rubbed her chin with her fingers. “Didn’t you notice that something is missing in my wedding ceremony?”

Before Feng Ruqing said this, Ye Yi did not find anything missing in this hall. However, as soon as she asked him that question, he suddenly seemed to notice something, and he frowned abruptly.

Other than Gu Yiyi, no one else from Tian Shen Manor participated in this wedding ceremony.

Besides Gu Shi, there were still some other skilled masters in the chief manor, and none of them were here!

And... The young lady of Fengyun Manor was getting married, but no one from Fengyun Manor attended the ceremony.

Even more so...

Jiu Ming favored Feng Ruqing more than anything, but where were the people from Paramount?

The people who were extremely important to the wedding ceremony were not here!

“You...” Ye Yi was stunned.

He never thought that Feng Ruqing would anticipate his move to such an extent, and she had even considered the safety of Liu Yun Kingdom.

Seeing the discomfort on Ye Yi's face, Feng Ruqing shrugged and smiled. "My father is the emperor of Liu Yun Kingdom, so I naturally have to protect this kingdom for him. I won't let your Deities Gate... Have any chance to harm my people. "

Moreover, there were too many lovely girls in Liu Yun Kingdom, and she could not bear to see those girls die.

"Feng Ruqing!"

Boom!

Endless anger surged through Ye Yi, causing his eyes to fill with rage.

Feng Ruqing laughed coldly. "Do you think that I have deliberately stayed in Liu Yun Kingdom to attract you here without reason?"

She did not leave Liu Yun Kingdom to protect her people.

She had patiently endured the temptation to search for Nan Xian and Qing Han!

"You have kidnapped my Qing Han, tricked my man, and ruined my wedding ceremony..."

The young girl slowly walked toward Ye Yi. Her voice was cold. "I've enough reason to destroy your Deities Gate after what you've done!"

The reason she left Deities Gate untouched was to find Hu Qing... Now that Hu Qing had appeared, Deities Gate... No longer needed to exist in this mainland...

The young girl stopped in her tracks and stood in front of Ye Yi.

The red dress and her fine hair fluttered even without the wind. Her beautiful face was expressionless, but the murderous intent in her eyes grew stronger.
