

Overbearing 1571

Chapter 1571: Keep Waiting I

Feng Ruqing walked toward the minister expressionlessly. "You cursed my daughter? And how dare you curse twice?"

The minister was stunned.

'Isn't that what you asked me to say?

'I've said it, and now you are treating me like this...'

'You're a bully!'

Feng Ruqing turned sideways to look at the ministers who spoke just now. "All of you have also cursed me back then... I recognize all of your voices. Now, I want you to say again what you've said about me..."

The ministers were speechless.

'This woman will beat us to death if we say it again, but she will still beat us if we don't... What should we do?'

All the ministers were shivering as they quickly turned to Qi Fang, pleading for help. But they suddenly found that Qi Fang was staring at the doorway happily.

The ministers were slightly startled. They, too, turned to look at what Qi Fang was looking at and saw the cute little girl.

The little girl's eyes were slightly timid, wanting to come out, but also a little afraid, standing restlessly at the door.

"Qin'er..."

Tears flowed down from the empress's eyes. She rushed forward and pulled Qi Qin'er into her embrace.

Her body trembled a bit, but the weight on her heart was finally lifted.

Noble Consort Lin froze, and her breath grew heavier. She clenched her fists tightly, and her face was slightly livid.

'That person said that the poison could kill Qi Qin'er, but why is she still alive?

Third Prince looked surprised as he turned to Feng Ruqing. His eyes sunk, wondering what he was thinking about...

"She's fine..." Feng Ruqing calmly looked back at the empress. "I need to go now."

She had been gone for quite some time, and Nan Xian must have been worried about her...

"Thank you, thank you..." The empress was so grateful that she no longer knew what to say. "Maiden Feng, I've treated you badly back then..."

"I did not save her because of you."

Feng Ruqing's tone was calm. She did not save people because of other people. She only saved the people she wanted to save.

Every time she saw Qi Qin'er, she would always think that little girl Dai'er... And even her heart softened a little.

"Oh, one more thing..." She paused, "Qi Qin'er was poisoned... It was snake venom."

She glanced at the ministers coldly and walked away.

Those old ministers did not dare to speak again, shrinking their necks, wishing to find a hole in the ground to hide in.

Fortunately, Feng Ruqing did not stay any longer. She left after giving them one last glance.

The empress's face instantly turned cold. She released the little girl in her arms and turned to Ah Nan. "Tell me, what's going on? How did the princess get poisoned?"

Ah Nan panicked and kneeled on the ground. Her face was as pale as paper. "I don't know. Noble Consort Lin came just now, and then that happened to the princess after she left..."

'Noble Consort Lin!'

The empress's eyes snapped open, and she stared at Noble Consort Lin angrily.

"Your Majesty..." Noble Consort Lin hurriedly turned to Qi Fang. "Your Majesty, I'm innocent. I was afraid that the empress would accuse me of wanting to harm the princess, so I didn't dare to get too close to her. But I didn't expect that she would still blame me."

Qi Fang lightly frowned, lowering his eyes to look at Ah Nan, who was kneeling on the ground. "Did Noble Consort Lin come to Qin'er? I want to know the truth."

Chapter 1572: Keep Waiting II

Ah Nan trembled and bit her lip. "No, but... Today, Noble Consort Lin's body smells of perfumed powder..."

"I only used a fragrant powder, not poison... Your Majesty, you have to do justice on my behalf."

Noble Consort Lin kneeled in panic. Her beautiful face looked miserable and pitiful.

Qi Fang sighed and turned to the empress. "Empress, there must be a misunderstanding. Noble Consort Lin didn't go near Qin'er. It was not her..."

The empress did not speak.

Qi Fang continued, "Don't worry, I will investigate this matter thoroughly and..."

Before he could finish his sentences, the empress had already pulled Qi Qin'er's hand and walked to the room, slamming it shut.

This matter was definitely related to Noble Consort Lin, but the emperor had made it clear that he would not do justice for the empress. Although she was the empress, she did not have much power and could only rely on the emperor's favor to support her in the palace.

"Mother..." Qi Qin'er pulled the empress's sleeve. "I'm fine. Don't worry, Mother."

She pursed her pink lips and thought for a moment before saying, "Noble Consort Lin is not a good person, and Third Prince is also a bully. He's not like what people think of him."

Sister Xiao Qing said that she had to learn to complain and not be bullied like before.

The empress pulled Qi Qin'er into her arms and smiled bitterly.

"I envy Maiden Feng. She has a husband, but she still can live freely and can rely on herself. Unlike us... Who rely on the emperor's favor... Rely on a man..."

"Qin'er..." The empress bowed her head and looked at the little girl in her arms. "You can go to Maiden Feng later... She's a great person."

"Alright..." Qi Qin'er nodded. "Although I was unconscious, I could still hear everything. I also knew that it was Mother who fed me Divine Spirit Fluid. I became worse after Noble Consort Lin visited me, and then Sister Xiao Qing fed me some soup, which tasted better than Divine Spirit Fluid. It was so delicious and made me feel much better."

The little girl had an innocent smile on her face with a pair of large, bright eyes.

The empress was stunned. "It looks like Maiden Feng knows how to make Divine Spirit Fluid... And it's the as pure as the Divine Spirit Fluid from back then! Qin'er, you mustn't let anyone know about this. If your father asks, you say that Maiden Feng is a skilled physician."

"Why?"

Qi Qin'er asked blankly.

The empress sneered. "Isn't the emperor going to protect Feng Lianyi? And he helps her in every way that he can... He didn't even drive her away after she had made such a big mistake... I'd like to see how far he can go for Feng Lianyi! I'll make him lose all his chances!"

Qi Qin'er was a little confused. Her mother was really angry this time...

"Alright, Mother. I'll listen to you, and I won't let anyone know about this."

Qi Qin'er smiled as bright as sunshine, sweeping away the rage inside the empress's heart...

***

As soon as Feng Ruqing returned to her manor, she immediately saw a man standing in the doorway.

The man was so dazzling under the setting sun.

"State Preceptor..."

Feng Ruqing smiled widely and pounced onto him.

Nan Xian stretched out his arms to catch the young girl who had jumped into his arms. He was cautious, afraid that he would hurt the child in her belly.

Chapter 1573: Keep Waiting III

“You’re back...”

Nan Xian smiled. His voice was as gentle as the spring breeze.

“Yes!” Feng Ruqing smiled as she hugged Nan Xian’s waist. Her eyes were fixed upon the man in front of her. “Your smile is so pretty.”

“In this life, I’ll only smile for you...”

The man stroked the hair on the girl’s forehead. His cold gaze turned gentle only when facing this young girl.

“Did you get any news? Did you find out anything weird about Feng Lianyi?” Feng Ruqing frowned.

She always felt that Feng Lianyi had something to do with what had happened to the little fatty and Xiao Ya...

Therefore, she immediately agreed to stay in Wu Shang City to investigate Feng Lianyi.

“We got some news...” Nan Xian smiled. “Feng Lianyi intentionally approached Tian Ya... But we failed to find out why she did that because Qing Zhu is useless...”

Qing Zhu had just woken up. It opened its eyes in a daze when it heard Nan Xian’s words. Qing Zhu was so frightened that its neck shrank and was about to cry.

“Master, how was that my fault? It was obviously that mouse’s...”

Nan Xian glanced at the snake coldly.

Qing Zhu stopped abruptly, faking a smile. “Master is right; I’m useless. I can’t even find out more information... Still, Master is awesome... Super awesome! He asked me to threaten those little mice to help us find out about Feng Lianyi...”

Nan Xian was speechless.

‘This flattery is a bit too much.’

He cleared his throat and turned to Feng Ruqing. “Her mother is a concubine... Her father brought back a woman some time ago and said that she was his real wife. She then disappeared for many years because she was forbidden to come back. I wonder if she is the person you are looking for.”

Feng Ruqing’s eyes were cold. Whether it was really Xiao Ya or not, she must find out about this.

“Do you know where Feng Lianyi’s family is from?”

She had asked Feng Lianqing this question before.

But Feng Lianqing did not know anything about it and said that Feng Lianyi was an orphan.

So, only Feng Lianyi knew about this... Or maybe Tian Ya?

Feng Ruring had a bit of a headache. Tian Ya had left before she came to Wu Shang City. Moreover, this Land of No Return was so big. She could not possibly cover the whole area and ask everyone, 'Have you seen Tian Ya?'

Therefore, she could only stay in Wu Shang City and wait until he returned!

"I don't know. They didn't mention it." Nan Xian remained calm.

Feng Ruqing's frowned harder.

'Feng Lianyi didn't mention it... So, how am I supposed to find Xiao Ya?'

Suddenly, a cold light flashed on her eyes.

"Keep waiting! Qing Zhu, find some birds and deal with them. Ask them to keep an eye on Feng Lianyi at all times. I don't believe that I can't find even a piece of small information about her family background!"

"Princess..." Qing Zhu pouted. "Why don't we find someone to catch Feng Lianyi and torture her to make her confess?"

Feng Ruqing was stunned.

'Since when did this snake become so stupid?'

"You think that with the hatred that Feng Lianyi has for us, you'll be able to force her to confess with just severe torture?"

"What about... Finding some random person to force her? We won't allow her to know that it was us."

"No..." Nan Xian glanced at Qing Zhu again. "She won't tell."

"Why?"

"Because... The one behind her won't let her talk. She won't dare!"

That person dared to provoke Tian Ya, so she must be quite strong... It seemed like she needed a pawn... And that pawn was not only Feng Lianyi...

Chapter 1574: Keep Waiting IV

She was worried that if Feng Lianyi revealed it, it would cause trouble and implicate her as well. Therefore, that woman would never let Feng Lianyi say anything about it.

So, even if she was harshly tortured, there was no way that Feng Lianyi would say it.

Feng Ruqing nodded. "Xiao Zhu, your brain is not even half as good as my state preceptor's."

Qing Zhu was speechless.

It wished it could destroy this lovebird!

“State Preceptor, I’m tired...” Feng Ruqing stretched her waist and leaned on the man’s chest. “Let’s go back to our room and rest first.”

Ever since she was pregnant, all the spiritual qi she cultivated was absorbed by that little thing in her belly. Not only that, she would always feel tired, as if she had not gotten enough sleep...

At night.

The moonlight streamed in through the window over the two people who were sleeping in each other’s arms.

A dark glow appeared at the young girl’s abdomen. That glow was not noticeable and could not be detected if one was not paying attention to it.

Subsequently, the spiritual qi in the room gathered toward her abdomen as if there was a mouth that swallowed all the spiritual qi in this world...

But the young girl was still sleeping soundly, even if the heavens and earth were falling apart at the moment, it would not be able to wake her up.

The man lying next to her opened his eyes slowly. He stared at the spiritual qi, which had been absorbed by the one in Feng Ruqing’s belly. His eyes gradually narrowed, and a glint of light flashed from his cold eyes.

“Master...”

Qing Zhu came from under the bed. It was a little sleepy as if it had not woken up yet. The snake was a bit confused. “What happened?”

Nan Xian did not answer it, and his expression was unreadable.

“I feel like Princess has been acting a bit strange since a month ago. Princess isn’t a lazy person, but she has passed all the herbal garden work to those spirit beasts since she came to Wu Shang City. When she was in Liu Yun Kingdom back then, she would still do it herself... But now she did not even pick and plant the spirit herbs...”

Spirit herbs were so important to her. Therefore, she had recruited many spirit beasts and even asked the little fatty and the others to take care of the herbs garden for her.

“And... She’s always grumpy in the morning, forbidding others to disturb her sleep, even the movements in her belly can’t wake her up...” Qing Zhu frowned as it stared at the young girl’s belly that was already five months old. “Could it be that Princess is pregnant with a little demon?”

Nan Xian glanced at Qing Zhu coldly, scaring Qing Zhu into shutting its mouth. It then laughed awkwardly and said, “I’m just kidding... Just kidding...”

Nan Xian caressed the young girl’s abdomen. His handsome face looked more gentle under the cold moonlight.

He smiled faintly.

“Master, what are you doing?” Qing Zhu’s body shivered after seeing Nan Xian’s smile. It could feel that... Its master was a little scary these few days...

Nan Xian withdrew his hand and slowly closed his eyes.

Qing Zhu was stunned and shocked, “Master, are you taking out your main soul again? Last time you did it to save Princess, this time you...”

Qing Zhu could not say anything more because Nan Xian was no longer able to answer it...

Chapter 1575: Keep Waiting V

In the dantian.

The black sword emitted a faint black light as if it was echoing something.

Not far away, a small hand reached out, and that small hand was able to touch the odd black sword directly through the dantian.

But at this moment...

A figure suddenly appeared.

A man with white hair and dressed in white looked as stunning as an immortal.

His face was identical to the state preceptor’s, but he had a bit of devilish charm.

That little hand seemed to be frightened by something. It panicked and withdrew its hand. But its mouth did not stop moving as it gulped down the spiritual qi that was absorbed into his body...

‘Such a greedy little thing...’

This was the man’s first impression of the little beggar.

He frowned and raised his hand. A light breeze passed, and a transparent barrier was formed inside the young girl’s body.

‘This barrier cannot stop the light of the black sword, but... I can block all the spiritual qi from entering it.’

The little beggar panicked and could not open his eyes. He could not even make a sound, so he could only wave his arms in protest.

The man ignored him, looking sideways at the spiritual qi that had become hexagonal and gently pointed his finger at the dantian, “That’s the place you should go.”

He was unsure whether it was because of this little beggar or something else, but those spiritual qi were still continuously entering Feng Ruqing’s body.

This spiritual qi obediently entered Feng Ruqing’s dantian...

The man's face eased up quite a bit. He put one hand behind his back and looked at the little beggar behind him before turning around and left.

The world would never have imagined that a genius who should have shocked the world with his talent from birth would completely disappear because of what Nan Xian had done to him.

He even needed to start cultivating from scratch, just like normal people.

Initially, if this little beggar were born in a random family, he would be an amazingly strong kid. But unfortunately, the little beggar had met a man like Nan Xian who loved his wife more than his life!

This little beggar had absorbed all the spiritual qi cultivated by Feng Ruqing, and Nan Xian could not hold back anymore. He had endured it for quite a long time until today; he finally made a move...

His wife would always be his top priority.

As Feng Ruqing and Nan Xian's child, his strength naturally would not have been too bad. It was just that the development of his power would start later than now.

One had martial strength since birth, while another one had to wait until he could crawl and walk before he could start cultivating... Of course, the former was more powerful...

Inside the room.

Nan Xian slowly opened his eyes and smiled.

"Master..." Qing Zhu looked at Nan Xian tensely. "Are you all right?"

"I'm fine."

Nan Xian's voice remained calm.

Only then did Qing Zhu let out a sigh of relief, "Back then, you were badly injured after you took out your main soul and had to hide from Princess to heal your injury. But this time, I feel like you don't seem to have any serious problems with that..."

Perhaps, his master's strength was not what it used to be nowadays...

"By the way, what did you do just now?" Qing Zhu asked after a moment of silence.

Chapter 1576:

Keep Waiting VI

Suddenly, a booming sound rang out; frightening Qing Zhu so much it almost rolled out of the room.

It turned back and looked at Feng Ruqing, who was still sleeping. "Princess... She... Broke through?"

'Impossible! Since becoming pregnant, all her spiritual qi has been absorbed by her child. How could she make a breakthrough?'

"Yes..." Nan Xian responded faintly. "I went to put a seal on that little thing from touching the spiritual qi, so Qing'er will be able to make a breakthrough, and... She can use some ability from this little thing to make the cultivation faster."

Initially, the baby could only absorb the spiritual qi that Feng Ruqing had cultivated, but now somehow, it could absorb it on its own. This could be considered as compensation to Feng Ruqing. After all, this little thing had taken a lot of spiritual qi from Feng Ruqing, so it must all be returned!

Qing Zhu was speechless.

‘Master, is it really a good idea to trick your own child like this?’

‘Aren’t you afraid your child won’t accept you as his father when he’s born?’

“Master, this little thing has already behaved like a demon even before he is born. If you treat him like this, he might hate you when he’s born.”

“He won’t...” Nan Xian said with certainty.

Qing Zhu was dumbfounded. “Why?”

“Xiao Qing will not allow him to hate me.”

Qing Zhu was speechless.

‘Annoying lovebirds!’

Qing Zhu simply ignored Nan Xian and slid under the bed, hugging its small pillow to go back to sleep.

***

The next morning.

Feng Ruqing woke up with a shock. She noticed something was not quite right...

It seemed like... She had made a breakthrough.

And achieved two ranks in a row? Directly from Lower to Advanced Holy Warrior tier...

“Nan Xian! It seems like I’ve made a breakthrough...”

Nan Xian smiled faintly and pulled her into his arms, “I know...”

Feng Ruqing was stunned.

“I talked to our child yesterday, and he was very reasonable. He has stopped absorbing your spiritual qi and returned what he has taken from you.”

“Really?” Feng Ruqing asked in disbelief.

“Yes, it’s true.”

“Oh...” Feng Ruqing nodded. “Looks like this little thing isn’t as greedy as I thought, and he even knows how to return the spiritual qi to me. Nan Xian, how did you communicate with him? Is he a boy or a girl?”

Nan Xian was startled. He was silent for a moment before he said, “It was Qing Zhu that communicated with him, as for how... Qing Zhu has thick skin, no matter how I whip it, it won’t tell me what method it has used.”

Qing Zhu had just crawled out from under the bed and heard this. It was so scared that it immediately shrank back, refusing to come out again!

"Qing Zhu forgot to ask about its gender."

Feng Ruqing frowned. 'How dare it forget to ask the child's gender?

'How could it forget something so important?'

"Qing Zhu..."

Suddenly, Feng Ruqing smiled. "Come out. We need to talk."

"No, I'm not coming out, not even if you threatened me with death. That bastard master framed me!"

"You're not coming out?" Feng Ruqing smiled, but her expression turned even more gloomy. "Nan Xian, find some female snakes to go in and drag it out."

Qing Zhu was shocked.

It pondered for a long time before silently coming out from under the bed and asked pitifully, "Princess, is something wrong?"

"I will not ask about how you can communicate with the child. But now, help me ask if she's a cute, pretty, and obedient little girl or a boy."

Chapter 1577: Feng Lianyi's Hidden Agenda I

Qing Zhu trembled. It already knew the answer that she wanted to hear without even thinking about it...

And... Even if it said that it had not communicated with the child, and it was its master who had used his soul to go inside her body... She still would not believe it.

Qing Zhu would still have to be blamed for this.

"Actually, I already knew..." Qing Zhu laughed awkwardly, "She's a girl. She's really a girl."

If it dared to say the word 'boy', the princess might just be the first to slaughter it.

"Really?" Feng Ruqing smiled happily. "Then, I'll forgive her for what she had done to me before. It's not a problem if she doesn't return her spiritual qi to me."

Nan Xian lowered his eyes and stared at the woman beside him, smirking.

***

Spirit Beast Mountain.

An old man in the red robe stood on top of the mountain. He frowned with his back facing the strong wind behind him.

Feng Lianqing rushed over and finally saw his master. He stopped and thought for a moment before walking toward the old man.

"Master, I've finally found you."

This old man ran so fast. He was the one who had asked Feng Lianqing to come to him, and after a long search, he had finally found his master.

Of course, this was something that Feng Lianqing did not dare to say. His handsome face was filled with a smile as gentle as the spring breeze.

“Lianqing, how has Master treated you all these years?” Tian Ya stood firmly with one hand on his back. His face remained calm.

Feng Lianqing was somewhat confused with what Tian Ya was going to say, and hesitantly asked, “Master, just say what you want me to do. I will always listen to Master.”

“Oh...” The old man laughed, “I was chasing a black dragon just now, but it ran in, and I’ve lost track of it. You go and help me draw him out. The place inside is too small. I can’t fight there.”

Feng Lianqing’s handsome face twitched slightly as he looked at the wanton smile on Tian Ya’s face. He then turned around and walked toward the cave that Tian Ya was pointing at.

The cave was dark and damp, and it also emitted a foul stench. No wonder Tian Ya refused to take a step inside and wait for him to come.

A few moments later, Feng Lianqing walked out of it, carrying a big black snake in his hand.

“Master, is this the black dragon that you’re talking about?”

Feng Lianqing was on the verge of tears. How could his master mistake a snake for a black dragon...

Tian Ya frowned as he stared at the snake in Feng Lianqing’s hand. He shook his head and sighed. “Just now it ran away when it saw me. My old eyes aren’t too good, I thought it was a dragon, so I have chased after it, but I didn’t expect to chase after it for nothing.”

‘I don’t know exactly where that black dragon ran off to.’

“Master, with your status and position, why didn’t you order the four kingdoms to search for that dragon?” Feng Lianqing looked a little bewildered. “You looking for the black dragon like this is like searching for a needle in a haystack. Oh, what have that black dragon done to you? Did it take away your cat? Why do you want him so bad?”

“It might know how to leave Land of No Return.”

Twenty-five years...

Unknowingly, it had been nearly twenty-five years since he came to Land of No Return.

He did not know whether his family in Cang Yue Mainland could still remember him or not.

“But you’re right. Perhaps this black dragon has left the spirit beast mountain. It’s pointless for me to keep looking for it. Lianqing, let’s go...” Tian Ya raised his eyebrow and asked, “Did something happen in General Manor when I was away?”

Chapter 1578: Feng Lianyi’s Hidden Agenda II

Feng Lianqing paused. He couldn't help but think of Feng Lianyi's behavior some time ago. He pursed his lips and answered honestly.

"Master, Feng Lianyi... She had caused trouble some time ago."

Tian Ya stopped in his tracks and frowned. His smile slowly disappeared.

"What happened?"

"Actually..."

After a moment of silence, Feng Lianqing finally told Tian Ya everything that Feng Lianyi had done.

When he surreptitiously raised his eyes, he saw that Tian Ya's old face had suddenly turned cold.

"Master..." Feng Lianqing felt uneasy. "That was Lianyi's first mistake, so can we give her another chance? I have asked her to apologize, and she listened to me, so I guess she's already changed. After all, everyone makes mistakes, and the most important thing is that you learn from it and are willing to change."

He would not deceive his master, so he could not lie just for Feng Lianyi's sake.

But, Feng Lianyi was his childhood friend, and they had grown up together. So he would naturally speak up for her.

Since Feng Lianyi was willing to change, what was the harm in giving her one more chance? The most detestable kind of person was one who knew his mistakes but refused to change.

Tian Ya's face remained cold as he looked at Feng Lianqing. "You know... Nothing can be accomplished without norms."

Feng Lianqing understood what Tian Ya was trying to say. He trembled and bit his lips. "But Master, Lianyi didn't mean it this time, she did it because of me... If Master wants to punish, then just punish me."

Tian Ya sneered. "Lianqing, I know you don't like to lie, so you told me the truth. Do you think I'm a fool? If she did it for you, she could have taken all the blame on herself; maybe I could still believe that she really wanted the best for you. But now, why did she let an innocent man take the blame?"

He was the emperor in Liu Yun Kingdom, and the rules there were strict, especially to those courtiers who were not allowed to make any mistakes.

Now he was General Tian Ya of Wu Shang City.

The rules for the army were more strict. Otherwise, how could he control so many people?

If it was someone else who had made such a mistake... He might still forgive that person.

But this time, that person was Feng Lianyi. If he did not strictly punish his men, how can the people respect him as a general?

“Lianqing, I have no children here...” Tianya’s gaze was stern. “So, I am raising you as an heir, and sooner or later, I will have to leave this place and go home. But you... You are too soft and too easy to forgive people. A soft heart man is not suitable for the position that I hold today.”

A person who was too soft was easily pinned down by those around him. As a general, he needed to be thick-faced and selfless.

This was what he had taught the people of the Nalan family back then.

Now Feng Lianqing wanted him to defend somebody who had violated the law?

Ridiculous! How could he do such a thing!

“Lianyi has to be punished...” Tian Ya sighed. “Do you know why I’m strict with Lianyi but soft with that girl, Yue’er?”

Feng Lianqing looked up in surprise, “Because of love and responsibility?”

After all, Lianyi was from General Manor, and Helian Yue was the Helian family’s young lady, so naturally, Master would not be too strict with Helian Yue.

“What love and responsibility, that’s all bullshit!” Tian Ya smiled coldly. “Feng Lianyi seems like a straightforward and harmless girl, but in reality, she must be strictly disciplined. She was quite innocent when she was young, but we can see her real character as she grows up. So, if she is not strictly disciplined, she will start acting recklessly.”

Chapter 1579: Feng Lianyi’s Hidden Agenda III

But Tian Ya had forgotten that there was something deeply rooted, and that was genetics.

No matter how strict the discipline was, it could not resist the inherited nature.

“As for Helian Yue...” Tian Ya’s face softened a bit. “This girl may look arrogant and wild, like a bully. However, people like her are simple. It is obvious when she likes or dislikes something. She knows right and wrong, and even if she causes a problem, it is still harmless, and nothing bad will happen.”

But Feng Lianyi was different...

If he had known that this girl was this manipulative, he would not take her in on a whim back then.

Feng Lianqing spoke no further and lowered his eyes as if he was quietly pondering Tian Ya’s words.

He would not overthink if it were someone else who spoke these words to him, but it was his master who told him so...

‘Feng Lianyi... Is she not as simple as I thought?’

“Lianqing...” Tian Ya smiled and turned to look at Feng Lianqing. “That little girl Helian Yue is not bad. You can think about it, or maybe I’ll introduce my granddaughter to you later? At least you’re better than the jerks out there...”

Feng Lianqing grew up in front of his eyes, so he knew him well. However... He did not know what type of man that his precious granddaughter looked for... What if she met a bad man?

No way!

'Whoever bullies my granddaughter, I'll kill his whole family!'

Feng Lianqing was stunned.

He cleared his throat and laughed awkwardly, "Your granddaughter? How can you be sure your grandchild is a granddaughter, perhaps..."

"Bullshit!"

Tian Ya smashed his fist down angrily. "I'm sure that my stupid son gave birth to a beautiful, lovely, and well-behaved granddaughter. If you speak nonsense again, don't ever dream to go back to General Manor, just get out of there!"

Feng Lianqing touched his head. He looked at Tian Ya's angry face blankly.

Tian Ya was respectable and would not be rude and overprotective.

But now... He suddenly felt that if Tian Ya really had a granddaughter, perhaps... He would be just like that old master of the Helian family, rude and protective, and unable to distinguish between right and wrong.

However...

He was kind of looking forward to that scenario though...

"Let's go," Tian Ya frowned. "I have to go back and see what kind of trouble Feng Lianyi has gotten into this time!"

He somehow felt uneasy, especially since Feng Lianqing said this. He was panicking a little and needed to rush back to Wu Shang City.

***

Since that day, when Feng Ruqing had somehow made a breakthrough, she felt that the little one in her belly had also calmed down a lot and was not making as much noise as it used to be.

She even felt the sun in the sky was a little brighter than usual.

"Xiao Qing..."

Helian Yue stood next to Feng Ruqing and turned her head to look at the young girl beside her. "What had happened to the little fatty back then... Was it really related to Feng Lianyi?"

Feng Ruqing stroked her chin. "I guess so."

Helian Yue pursed her lips. "I didn't think that Feng Lianyi was so bad back then. All the people in Wu Shang City thought that I was the only one who was bad. But what happened recently has really made me shocked, and only Brother Lianqing would defend her so much."

In the past, when mentioning Feng Lianqing, Helian Yue would still turn red. But now, she was calm and felt nothing toward him.

Chapter 1580: Feng Lianyi's Hidden Agenda IV

Even her heart did not hurt as much as before.

And all of this was because of Feng Ruqing...

The cultivation she had taught her was really useful, or at least, made her understand that there were more meaningful things in her life than just men...

"Well..." Feng Ruqing stood up from inside the pavilion. "Let's go."

Helian Yue obediently followed Feng Ruqing as she stood up, silently following behind her.

***

General Manor.

Feng Lianyi's face darkened, her hand tightly squeezing the teacup in her hand.

'That little girl, Qi Qin'er, is still alive.

'And the person who had saved her was... Feng Ruqing?

'If I continue like this, I will lose all the respect in Wu Shang City in the future.'

She took a deep breath and stood up from her chair.

Since Feng Lianqing and that woman would not help her... She would find a way to do it herself.

It was Feng Ruqing who had offended her first anyway. She was just treating her the way she deserved.

Thinking of this, Feng Lianyi headed out the door.

From afar, she could see the old housekeeper arranging the flowers and plants in the back garden. She smiled and walked toward the old housekeeper. "Old Housekeeper, when will General and Big Brother Feng return?"

When the old housekeeper turned back, he saw Feng Lianyi standing behind him.

He smiled. "I don't know. Does Maiden Lianyi have something to discuss with General?"

"No, I'm just asking because I haven't seen General for a long time." Feng Lianyi smiled faintly. "Do you know where General went?"

The old housekeeper smiled. "Maiden Lianyi should not ask me because I don't know anything about it."

Feng Lianyi's face stiffened. She also understood that asking him was useless. As long as Tian Ya would not return in these few days, it was enough.

If Tian Ya returned, many things would be revealed, so it would be hard for her to make any move.

"I got it, thank you."

Feng Lianyi smiled brightly, she stopped talking and walked away.

She clenched her fists tightly as she walked past the old housekeeper. Her face turned cold as if there was a monstrous storm coming to her.

“Feng Ruqing, you have forced me to do this!”

There were two things that one should never mess with in Wu Shang City, and both had to do with Tian Ya!

First, no one could mess with Tian Ya’s cats, and if anyone dares to touch his cats, it would be like pulling the hair out of a tiger’s head.

The second one was...

Tian Ya owned a jade necklace with the word ‘Feng’ engraved on it. Everyone knew about it, but no one dared to touch it.

Every time Tianya showed off, he would take out this jade necklace, claiming that it was personally created for his granddaughter. If he did not have a granddaughter, this jade necklace... He would not give it to anyone...

‘Everyone said that Tian Ya would always bring that jade necklace with him, but... Does he really bring that with him?’

Feng Lianyi smirked.

The sunset in Wu Shang City glowed warmly.

Feng Ruqing suddenly stopped in her tracks. She raised her eyes and stared at the woman approaching her from not far away.

Helian Yue quickly followed her eyes and saw a girl in a long green dress heading toward them. Her sweet face changed dramatically, and she subconsciously took a few steps forward, trying to protect Feng Ruqing who was behind her.

“Feng Lianyi, what are you doing here?”
