

Overbearing 1601

Chapter 1601: Befuddled Helian Yue V

A servant entered the banquet hall with a box in her hand and slowly walked toward Feng Lianyi.

“Maiden Lianyi...”

She respectfully handed the box to Feng Lianyi.

Feng Lianyi held the box with both hands and carefully opened the lid.

The crowd was stunned, their eyes staring nervously at the box in Feng Lianyi’s hands.

Feng Ruqing touched her nose. “It’s just a necklace, why do I feel... As if what she’s holding is a Grade-9 spirit herb.”

“Xiao Qing...” this time, Helian Yue disagreed with Feng Ruqing. She looked serious. “This thing is not as valuable as a Grade-9 spirit herb, but... It is grandfather Tian Ya’s treasure, and also a spirit gathering stone.”

“Gathering stone?” Feng Ruqing was startled.

“Yes, this jade stone is a spirit gathering stone. It can help the person who carries it cultivate rapidly; even the weakest person can cultivate and become powerful. The spirit gathering stone is so precious...”

Feng Ruqing was stunned as she suddenly remembered the jade necklace given to her by the old man in the spiritual beast mountain, which was also made of a gathering of spirit stones.

Since when could the spirit gathering stone be easily found anywhere?

“My necklace!!!”

Suddenly, a sharp shout broke Feng Ruqing’s thoughts.

She turned and saw that Feng Lianyi’s face had turned pale, and she looked shocked.

“Whoever stole my jade necklace, give it to me immediately!”

Her eyes were filled with anger, and her body was trembling.

When Qi Fang saw that the box brought by Feng Lianyi was empty, he was actually relieved. But after he saw such an annoyed expression on Feng Lianyi’s face, he frowned a little...

‘It seems like she’s not faking it... Could it be that this jade necklace... Has it been stolen?’

The jade necklace was Tian Ya’s most beloved item, and the preciousness of the gathering stone was not something that could be purchased with money.

Otherwise, Tian Ya would not have regarded this jade necklace as his precious item.

“I’ve even seen this jade necklace with my own eyes before attending the dinner today, and I’m sure it’s still there before dinner!” Feng Lianyi clenched her fists tightly. Her face was filled with anger. “This jade necklace is not only an expensive item to me; it is an item gifted to me by General. I didn't dare to simply take it out for fear of breaking it, but I didn't expect that it would be stolen now."

The old housekeeper was a little unhappy hearing Feng Lianyi's words.

He had not seen the jade necklace before and could not confirm whether it was real or not, but...

Maiden Lianyi was claiming that someone dared to steal from General Manor...

Wasn't it the same as saying that the housekeeper of General Manor was useless? Was it stolen by someone?

"Maiden Lianyi, did you put it somewhere else? Should we look for it again? I'm sure no one would dare to steal from General Manor..." The old housekeeper said slowly.

Feng Lianyi's heart sank. Other people's housekeepers would only favor their masters, but this one from General Manor was embarrassing her in front of the crowd.

At a time like this, he should have immediately stepped forward to help her!

'This old housekeeper is useless!'

Feng Lianyi replied coldly, "Old Housekeeper, I know very well where my things are kept, and I'm not saying that our General Manor is not well guarded. After all, there are always some people in this world who will take advantage of General Manor's trust to get what she wants."

Chapter 1602: Befuddled Helian Yue VI

She was clearly indicating someone...

Helian Yue was the only person who could be trusted by General Manor to come and go as she wished!

Helian Yue was known as an evildoer, and people would not be surprised if it were her who stole the stone.

"Feng Lianyi, what do you mean by that?" Helian Yue pointed at Feng Lianyi's face. "Make it clear to me. Who did you just say stole the stone?"

No matter how foolish Helian Yue was, this time, she could see that Feng Lianyi was trying to accuse her.

"I wasn't talking about you, Sister Helian. I was just wondering why I still had it before I came to the banquet, but now it's lost?" Feng Lianyi sneered. "Everyone arrived early, only you came late, making me wait here for a long time. That's why I want to know why you were late."

Feng Lianyi sneered. If it were not for this fool Helian Yue who was late following Feng Ruqing, she would not have been able to find any reason to accuse her.

Initially, the one she wanted to frame in this case was Feng Ruqing, but unfortunately, Feng Ruqing and her people could not even get in without permission. So, the only person who could get close to her was this fool, Helian Yue!

"Feng Lianyi!"

Helian Yue's eyes were bloodshot, clearly enraged.

She had been accused in front of so many people like this, and anyone who was in her position would get angry.

Moreover, she was a young lady of the Helian family. Why did she have to steal something? Ridiculous!

The old housekeeper frowned. "Maiden Lianyi, could this be a misunderstanding? General will not trust people easily, and the fact that he accepted Young Lady Helian into General Manor proves that Young Lady Helian is not a bad girl."

"Old Housekeeper..."

Feng Lianyi was exasperated, but her face looked calm. "Ask the people present what kind of person Helian Yue is. I don't mean to attack her, but if Young Lady Helian is innocent, why not check inside her dress? And... Check her storage bag as well. Then, we will know the truth."

She paused for a moment and continued, "After all, I'm not the kind of person who would deliberately accuse others. She hasn't left this place. If we find nothing on her, it will prove her innocence."

Qi Fang remained silent. His face was cold and sullen, not knowing what he was thinking.

The empress had long been displeased with Feng Lianyi. She slapped the table and said sternly, "How dare you, Feng Lianyi! Who permitted you to do body search in front of me?"

"That's right, that's right..." The little fatty snorted. "This little servant is getting bolder and bolder. How dare you do the body search to your master. Helian Yue is at least a noble young lady. Where do you get the guts to treat her like this."

The word 'servant' that came out of the little fatty's mouth made Feng Lianyi's face darkened.

Just now, Helian Ying, who had been silent all this time, slowly opened her mouth.

"Sister, since Maiden Lianyi wants to prove your innocence, let her do it. I believe that you did not steal the stone."

Feng Lianyi would not dare say this in front of so many people if she did not have any evidence.

Moreover, even if Helian Yue did not steal it, she would still be embarrassed by it!

Perhaps it was the thought of this that caused Helian Ying's mouth to twitch with an imperceptible smile.

"Body search?" Helian Yue kicked the chair, put her hands on her hips, and said furiously, "I'm the young lady of the Helian family. Why should a servant do a body search on me?"

Feng Lianyi's face was cold, her voice was filled with anger. "I am not a servant!"

Chapter 1603: Befuddled Helian Yue VII

"Oh, if you're not a servant, then who are you? General's daughter? Ridiculous! If I say I didn't steal it, it means I didn't steal it. So who dares do a body search on me?"

"I have to do this for General!"

Feng Lianyi's eyes darkened, and she fiercely moved forward and pulled Helian Yue's dress...

A sudden strong wind blew fiercely from the side and at Feng Lianyi.

Feng Lianyi held Helian Yue's dress tightly and tore off her coat...

Rip!

An item fell from her waist, making a clinking sound.

Feng Ruqing heard this sound before she could strike again.

She could not help but turn her head to look, and suddenly saw a jade necklace.

Feng Ruqing looked somewhat confused. She stared blankly at the jade necklace that was lying on the ground.

'Hmm... This necklace... Seems a bit familiar...'

The entire banquet hall was silent.

Helian Yue was dumbfounded as she looked at the jade necklace on the floor. A chill filled her heart and made her body stiffen a bit.

'Why...

'Why was Grandfather Tian Ya's jade necklace on me?'

"No, it wasn't me!" Helian Yue panicked and hurriedly turned to look at Feng Ruqing. Her eyes reddened. "Xiao Qing, it wasn't me. I didn't steal it. I don't know how it came to me."

"Well, I know you didn't steal it."

Feng Ruqing raised her hand to touch Helian Yue's head, but a man blocked it.

"Xiao Qing..." Helian Yue's heart that was panicking just now suddenly eased. "Thank you..."

'Thank you for believing in me.

'Thank you for making me realize... That I am not alone at this moment.'

"Of course you will believe her..." Feng Lianyi got up from the ground, wiped the blood from the corners of her mouth, and walked toward Feng Lianqing. "It's because you were plotting with her to steal my jade necklace, which was given to me by General, and I will not... Let go of all of you..."

Bang!

As soon as Feng Lianyi said these words, another force surged toward her, sending her flying away again, crashing into the tables...

The soup on the tables fell all over her body, and she was in a mess.

Nan Xian's cold and emotionless eyes fell on Feng Lianyi's body.

“You’re too close to my Qing’er. Qing’er does not like it.”

“I...”

Feng Lianyi was about to speak, but the man raised his hand again and...

Numerous sword lights came in a surprise attack. This time even if Feng Lianyi moved fast, she still could not dodge it. These sword lights cut her arms, drawing blood and staining her whole sleeve...

“Xiao Qing, is it enough?”

“Nan Xian...” Feng Ruqing shook her head. “We must not be too violent, we must be gentle, especially with girls...”

Gentle?

Everyone was stunned.

It seemed that Feng Ruqing was not fit to use the word ‘gentle’...

Feng Ruqing ignored these people and turned to the empress, smiling. “Can you please pick it up? Otherwise, people will say I’ve switched it.”

The empress was stunned. She understood what Feng Ruqing meant and squatted down to pick up the jade necklace.

Chapter 1604: Befuddled Helian Yue VIII

“The spirit gathering stone is powerful but fragile, and the thing it fears most is flames...”

When Feng Ruqing raised her hand, flames fiercely burned the spirit gathering stone.

The flames only burned the stone, not hurting the empress’s hand.

But this scene... Caused everyone present to be scared silly.

“What are you doing?”

Qi Fang was also a bit furious. “That’s a spirit gathering stone!”

‘This woman knows that the gathering stone could not be touched by fire, but she still uses fire to burn it?’

Qi Fang hurriedly wanted to go forward. However, he had just taken two steps when the empress suddenly snapped.

“Get out of here!!!”

Qi Fang was stunned, and he subconsciously stopped moving. His eyes were filled with anxiety.

“Empress, do you know what that thing is? It’s General Tian Ya’s life!”

General Tian Ya was the only Warrior King of Tianling Kingdom.

If his most precious thing were destroyed in front of him, that old man would be sad and leave this place...

Then...

Who would protect Tianling Kingdom from the four kingdoms then!

Qi Fang was on the verge of tears. If he could, he would rather be the one who was burned on the empress's hands.

"I trust Maiden Feng. You are not allowed to come over!"

The empress was expressionless.

Qi Fang looked serious, so was Yu'er, Qin'er, and the empress.

And Feng Ruqing was also serious as she said, "I will only say this one last time, call me Lady Nan!"

The crowd was speechless.

'This doesn't seem like the right time to say that, is it?'

'This woman has destroyed General Tian Ya's jade necklace. When General returns, he'll kill her!'

However...

In the next moment, everyone's faces froze.

The spirit gathering stone gradually disappeared from the empress's hands, turning into dust as if it had never existed, leaving only a necklace braided with red rope, lying in her palm...

What about the spiritual qi?

The spirit gathering stone was so powerful because the stone was made of spiritual qi.

It would release all its spiritual qi when it was burned.

But until now, they had not felt anything.

Even Qifang was stunned.

'This necklace is fake?'

Feng Lianyi's face darkened. "No! This is absolutely impossible! I got this necklace from General. There's nothing wrong with this necklace. It was Helian Yue who stole my jade necklace!"

Helian Yue, who had just been scared silly, was now finally able to hold her small head high again.

"I'm a young lady of the Helian family. Would I steal a fake spirit gathering stone? Feng Lianyi, when Grandfather Tian Ya returns, I'll tell him all about it!"

Feng Ruqing patted Helian Yue's shoulder and smiled at Feng Lianyi, "Are you sure that the piece just now is the jade necklace you were talking about?"

Feng Lianyi bit her lip.

She only had this one chance today. She must not let these people go.

“Yes! I know how it looks like.”

“But they just said that the piece of jade stone in Tian Ya’s necklace... Is a spirit gathering stone...”

Feng Lianyi sneered. “The spirit gathering stone is rare to come across, whether it exists or not is still unclear. General told me before that he once had another jade necklace that is made of spirit gathering stone. He left it at his home before he came to Wu Shang City. The old housekeeper also knows that the necklace was made for his family, so why would he bring it here?”

The old housekeeper was silent. Indeed, the necklace was made by General for his family and not for him.

“General misses his family, so he made the same jade necklace but replaced the spirit gathering stone with an obsidian stone...”

Chapter 1605: Here Come the Troublemakers I

The old housekeeper looked on blankly.

‘Is it true?’

‘I have never heard about this from General...’

But no matter what, this was a family matter, so he must be careful with what he said. General would be home soon anyway, and he had to deal with him when he returned.

That was why the old housekeeper simply kept his mouth shut and said no more.

Feng Ruqing smiled and stroked her chin. “Not bad, you even know about the obsidian stone. It seems that what you said is true.”

“Xiao Qing?”

Helian Yue looked at Feng Ruqing blankly.

Even the empress and the others turned to her as they did not understand why she had agreed with Feng Lianyi.

Qi Fang’s eyes sank as he put one hand behind his back and looked at Helian Yue fiercely.

“But...” Feng Ruqing smiled. “Your jade necklace... I’ve seen a jade necklace similar to yours...”

Feng Lianyi was stunned. “Feng Ruqing, what do you mean? Have you seen the jade necklace General gave me?”

“Xiao Qing...”

Helian Yue was worried. She tugged at the girl’s sleeve and pursed her lips. “I’m fine. You don’t need to worry. When Grandfather Tian Ya returns, he will prove my innocence for me, so there’s no need for you...”

Feng Ruqing patted Helian Yue’s hand gently and smiled.

She then stepped forward and walked slowly toward Feng Lianyi.

The entire banquet hall went silent.

No one dared to open their mouths, and even their breathing grew shallower.

Only the sound of the young girl's footsteps could be heard...

Feng Ruqing stopped in front of Feng Lianyi. "As I said, I've seen it, and it looks very similar to yours, the only difference is... My jade necklace has a real spirit gathering stone on it!"

The young girl raised her hand, and a jade necklace dangled from her fingertips, falling into everyone's eyes.

The jade stone carried a faint glow, so dazzling that it dazzled everyone's eyes...

The old housekeeper stared at the jade stone in the young girl's hand. His heart beat faster. "Maiden Feng, can I take a look at your jade necklace?"

Feng Ruqing glanced at the old housekeeper and handed it to him.

This was the first time the old housekeeper had touched the jade necklace, and the coldness of the stone made him go stiff. He cautiously stroked the word 'Feng' on the jade.

"This is exactly the same as what I've seen back then."

His words were like a heavy rod that struck on everyone's chests.

Feng Lianyi's face darkened, and she clenched her fists tightly. Only after a long time did the corners of her mouth curl up into a sneer. "Old Housekeeper, there are too many liars in this world. Take another look, is this my jade necklace?"

"This is indeed carved by General himself. I recognize it. There's a trace mark in the upper corner of it. I noticed it back then, and General said it was the first time he carved a stone and had accidentally left a mark on it, and I even know exactly where it is."

But...

The jade stone that Feng Lianyi had just taken out the jade stone and had traces of the mistake being carved into it.

However...

He had only glanced at it just now and did not see it clearly. He thought that no one would be so free to create another jade out of it, so he did not think much about it until Feng Ruqing destroyed that jade...

Chapter 1606: Here Come the Troublemakers II

"Maiden Feng..." The empress walked toward Feng Ruqing. "Where did you get this jade necklace from?"

Feng Ruqing stroked her nose. "Well, an old man... An old master gave it to me. He traded it with me for a jar of wine. Initially, I thought this necklace was useless, but I didn't expect to watch a good show today just because of it. So, not bad..."

Fu Chen, who has been silent since the beginning, was stunned.

'In your eyes, the spirit gathering stone is only a ticket to a good show?

'Oh, you called him an old man back then, but now... you've changed it to an old master?'

Fu Chen pursed his lips. 'Mother is being obvious...

'So, the old man who had traded the jade necklace with Mother's spirit wine was Tian Ya?'

Suddenly, Feng Lianqing laughed a sardonic laugh.

"Feng Ruqing, are you still trying to say that that old man is Tian Ya?"

Feng Ruqing's face turned cold. "It should be him, but you need to respect the old man, you have to call him an old master."

The words 'old man' were... Too rude.

"Hehe..." Feng Lianyi sneered. "Who in this world doesn't know that General loves his jade like a treasure? How can he be so kind as to trade his treasure for a jar of wine? That's ridiculous! I was almost convinced that you didn't steal my jade necklace, but then you took it out yourself. Now, give it back to me!"

Nan Xian's face was cold as he glanced at Feng Lianyi.

Just this glance alone could make Feng Lianyi fall to hell, her body trembled.

But she would not give up. Her eyes were filled with pride and stubbornness as she bit her lip, refusing to retreat.

Suddenly...

The piercing cold wind came steeply as if it contained a powerful force. Feng Lianyi could feel as if her skin was being cut all over her body, but she could not see any injuries.

She was trembling with pain.

And in the entire banquet hall, no one else had this feeling except for Feng Lianyi, so they thought Feng Lianyi was shivering from anger.

"Xiao Qing said, respect the old man."

If it were not for the respect for Tian Ya, he probably would not have let Qing Zhu send the mice out and would certainly have gone to eavesdrop himself.

After all, this was General Manor.

Some etiquettes had to be respected.

"Nan Xian..." Feng Ruqing raised her hand to stop Nan Xian. She looked at Feng Lianyi and smiled, "You said this jade necklace is yours?"

Feng Lianyi looked at Nan Xian somewhat timidly; perhaps the pain from just now was too unbearable, making her a bit scared of Nan Xian.

But things had already come to this point. There was no way to turn back. She bit her lip and said, "That's right. It was General who gave it to me in the first place."

"Oh..."

Feng Ruqing pointed at the red rope in the empress's hand. "But, your necklace has been destroyed."

"You..." Feng Lianyi's face changed slightly. She was just about to point at Feng Ruqing, when she saw Nan Xian glancing at her. She withdrew her hand and clenched it. "You must have swapped it, and the one in your hand is mine."

"Hmm."

Feng Ruqing smiled faintly as she turned to the empress. "Empress, did you get it?"

The empress's face darkened, her eyes were cold and stern. "Feng Lianyi, you were the one who just admitted that the jade stone was made of obsidian and not a spirit gathering stone. Now I don't know which of your words are true and which are false!"

Chapter 1607: Here Come the Troublemakers III

The people present were not stupid... Except for Feng Lianyi, who was already overwhelmed by anger...

If Feng Lianyi had not admitted that the piece of jade was made of obsidian, Qi Fang would definitely have suspected that the jade necklace taken out by Feng Ruqing was Feng Lianyi's.

The funny thing was... Feng Lianyi had already admitted that the jade stone was not a spirit gathering stone and had given an explanation for that...

Feng Ruqing, this woman... She was so smart!

She had deliberately destroyed the spirit gathering stone, forcing Feng Lianyi to admit that it was a fake.

Scary!

This was the only feeling Qi Fang had for Feng Ruqing, and the consequences of being an enemy of this woman was Feng Lianyi.

But... Feng Ruqing's weakness was that she did not have any backup, and her strength alone was not enough to allow her to take over the Land of No Return. No matter what, Feng Lianyi still had General Manor to back her up...

Such a pity...

Qi Fang shook his head and sighed regretfully. To be honest, he did admire Feng Ruqing, not to mention that Feng Ruqing was also Qin'er's savior.

However, what she did today would offend General Manor...

Qi Fang did not know where the jade necklace in Feng Ruqing's hand had come from. It was impossible that Tian Ya had given it to her.

If she said Tian Ya was interested in her talent and intended to take her as a disciple, perhaps he would have believed her.

But she had made up such a lie...

How could Tian Ya trade the jade necklace for a pot of wine?

It must be that he had accidentally lost his necklace when he was fighting someone outside, and this girl had picked it up.

However, Qi Fang did not say his assumptions out loud. He would not speak about this at a time like this, or else Feng Ruqing might not be able to leave General Manor.

"Since there has been a misunderstanding, then this matter will end here, and there is no need to hold this banquet. Dismiss!"

He just let it go... His face was cold and stern.

"Dismiss?" Feng Ruqing laughed out loud. "If you don't want to avenge your sons and daughters, that's your problem, and I don't care about that. But I still have things to settle with her!"

Qi Fang was stunned. Before he could react, Feng Ruqing had already leaped in front of Feng Lianyi, and with a blast, she kicked her to the wall, causing her body to sink into the wall.

"Maiden Feng, you..." Qi Fang's face changed slightly.

He had deliberately tried to let Feng Ruqing go because she had saved Qin'er back then. But this girl... She was so ungrateful.

This time, he would not forgive Feng Lianyi easily, but he could not punish her as he wished because she was General's people and had to wait for Tian Ya to return to settle this.

"Guards, stop this girl!"

Qi Fang ordered coldly.

In an instant, a few people in guard uniforms appeared from the dark. But before they could step forward, a figure in a white robe was already standing in front of them.

"Do not interfere when Qing'er teaches someone a lesson."

A cold light flashed in the guards' eyes as they instantly rushed toward Nan Xian...

Feng Lianyi spurted out a mouthful of blood, staining her white dress red.

Her face was pale as she stared at Feng Ruqing with eyes filled with hatred, gritting her teeth. "Feng! Ru! Qing!"

"You don't have to shout my name like that. I'm disgusted."

Feng Lianyi was stunned.

She was almost angry enough to vomit blood again. Her eyes were red with fierceness and anger.

Chapter 1608: Here Come the Troublemakers IV

“Actually... I didn’t want to come to you this soon...”

She had been holding back all her anger because she wanted to find Xiao Ya through Feng Lianyi.

But people’s patience had a limit...

Well, she would not kill Feng Lianyi. After all, if she killed her, and it turned out that Tian Ya did not even know her background, it would probably be hard to find out about her family.

But keeping her half-alive should be fine...

‘Just don’t kill her all at once...’

“Feng Ruqing, General won’t let you go when he returns! And all of you who have helped Feng Ruqing... General won’t spare any single one of you! Hahaha!” Feng Lianyi laughed wildly, and what was hidden deep within her eyes was a monstrous, murderous intent.

All the young girls and men in the banquet hall were stunned.

‘Feng Lianyi is completely crazy...’

‘Did she just try to frame Feng Ruqing?’

‘Didn’t she come to her to apologize?’

The crowd finally realized...

It seemed that this banquet was not for an apology... Feng Lianyi was trying to frame Feng Ruqing!

And... All of them were only her tools!

“Feng Lianyi, I’ve totally misjudged you. You’re so malicious, so sinister. You don’t deserve to be a member of General Manor.”

“General is such a good man. Why did he raise someone like you? I thought Helian Yue was malicious before, but you’re no better than Helian Yue!”

Feng Lianyi trembled. There was a time when these people only had respect and love for her.

‘Why has everything changed in just a short time...’

‘It’s all because of Feng Ruqing!’

These people had mocked her so much because of Feng Ruqing!

Bang!

Feng Ruqing kicked her again as she saw Feng Lianyi trying to crawl out of the wall,

Feng Lianyi's face was bruised and swollen.

"Feng Ruqing, you..."

Bang!

The words suddenly stopped.

The crowd turned to look, and in an instant, they saw the guards fall to the ground helplessly.

They looked in the direction where the guard had fallen and saw a young man in a long green robe with a group of skilled masters headed to the banquet hall, looking so arrogant.

"It's the people from Yun Huan Kingdom!"

Qi Fang's face sank, his eyes filled with wariness and cautiousness.

'Why has no one informed me that the people of Yun Huan Kingdom are coming?

'Could it be that... The entire Wu Shang City is in trouble?'

"Where's that little b*tch, Feng Lianyi? Who is Feng Lianyi?" The young man raised his head proudly.

His face was quite handsome, and his eyes were full of arrogance.

Feng Ruqing frowned.

She thought that these people had come to cause another trouble, but it turned out that they were only looking for Feng Lianyi...

'Good!'

She took a few steps to the side and said, "The person you are looking for is in the wall."

The young man smiled with satisfaction. "Well, good! You are very upstanding. I came here today to kill everyone in General Manor. I heard that Feng Lianyi is in the same position as Feng Lianqing, so I will take her first. Since you are so upstanding, I will grant you a lifetime of glory and wealth!"

He lifted his hand and wanted to tap Feng Ruqing's shoulder...

But before he could touch it, a hand suddenly stopped him, pinching him hard.

Yes, pinch!

The young man was in pain and what made him even more furious was that the bastard had wrapped his hand with his robes when he pinched the young man!

Chapter 1609: Here Come the Troublemakers V

Without waiting for the young man to give orders, the group of skilled masters behind him instantly drew their weapons and looked at Nan Xian coldly and sternly.

"Arrest this brat as well!"

Even in the face of such a situation, the young man's tone was still arrogant. His eyes were cold as he looked at Nan Xian.

But...

The young man felt uneasy when he saw Nan Xian's hand.

There was no wind in the banquet hall, but Nan Xian's long white robe was moving. His eyes were cold as he stared at those people of Yun Huan Kingdom.

Suddenly, a punch landed on the young man's chest, sending him flying out of the hall.

The young man spurted out a mouthful of blood, his arm numb from the shock. His eyes were then filled with monstrous rage.

The group of skilled masters immediately rushed toward Nan Xian. Nan Xian raised his hand and pulled Feng Ruqing into his arms. His fine hair was moving, and his handsome face looked ruthless under the cold moonlight.

Feng Lianyi could no longer care about jealousy. She was trembling as she gazed at these people of Yun Huan Kingdom in horror.

'Why did these people have to come when General and Feng Lianqing is not here!

'Why did they come?!'

Qi Fang's face was cold as he took a few steps forward and said solemnly, "It seems like the people of Yun Huan Kingdom are going to cause trouble again..."

The young man wiped the blood from the corners of his mouth and sneered. "If it weren't for that old man Tian Ya, Tianling Kingdom would have been under our Yun Huan Kingdom! He's so meddlesome. So, he's bound to suffer!"

He slowly turned his cold eyes to Feng Lianyi.

But what made the young man somewhat puzzled was why Feng Lianyi was trapped in the wall; it would probably take some time to gouge her out.

Just as the young man was speaking, the skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom had already arrived in front of Nan Xian.

Nan Xian lifted his sleeve, and powerful energy suddenly shot out fiercely.

The skilled masters did not retreat even after sensing the man's strength. They all seemed indifferent, and in the blink of an eye, the sharp weapons in their hands were already headed toward Nan Xian.

Boom!

Endless energy surged out from Nan Xian's body, creating a barrier around him and Feng Ruqing. The skilled masters' swords bounced off an invisible barrier as soon as they came close to them. They could not help but take a few steps back.

The young man was startled. He frowned and looked at Nan Xian cautiously.

'This bastard... He does not look like an experienced master.'

Moreover, he knew all the skilled masters of the Tianling Kingdom, yet he had never seen the man in front of him...

"What is your relationship with General Manor? Why are you protecting Feng Lianyi?"

'Protecting Feng Lianyi?'

Nan Xian looked cold and expressionless. "Whether she lives or dies is none of my business, but you... You shouldn't have tried to touch my wife."

The young man was speechless.

He was a little confused. This man was attacking him because he had almost touched that woman's shoulder just now?

"Since you have nothing to do with General Manor, then I will ignore your crime of hitting me. I can let you and your wife go if you get out of the way now. But..."

He sneered. "The people of General Manor and the imperial family... None of them are allowed to leave!"

Chapter 1610:

Here Comes the Troublemaker VI

Qi Fang's face was cold.

The palace's skilled masters were already behind him, looking cautiously at the Yun Huan Kingdom people.

However, Qi Fang was still considered a responsible man as he wanted to pull the empress and his children behind him, protecting them first...

But, looking at Qi Fang's hand reaching out, the little fatty suddenly became very agile and dodged to the side, hurriedly rushing toward Feng Ruqing.

He did not trust anyone here.

The only person he trusted was Feng Ruqing.

Just like when he was in spirit beast mountain back then, he believed that following her was the only way for him to survive.

Qi Qin'er looked at Qi Fang. She then turned to the little fatty and followed him, hiding behind Feng Ruqing.

Qi Fang's hands froze in mid-air, he looked a little embarrassed, but he had no time to think about it as those of Yun Huan Kingdom were coming over.

Feng Ruqing shrugged and said, "They're here to kill Feng Lianyi."

Then, should she... Wait until Feng Lianyi and Qi Fang settled this matter first, or should she make a move now?

Feng Ruqing rubbed her nose. Well, she would save Feng Lianyi if she was almost dying. After all, Feng Ruqing still had not gotten what she wanted to know, so she could not allow Feng Lianyi to die just yet...

"Your Highness..."

An old man who was following behind Second Prince looked at Helian Yue and said in a low voice, "That girl is from the Helian family, and she's close with the people of General Manor."

Second Prince stopped in his tracks and looked at Helian Yue sideways with a cold smile on his lips.

"This little girl looks like trash, and this kind of person... I can settle her myself."

He laughed and raised his hand to grab Helian Yue.

However...

Before he could touch Helian Yue's shoulder, he was once again grabbed by someone.

This time, the one that grabbed him was a beautiful hand with fair and flawless fingers.

Crack!

The young girl twisted his hand so hard that it made him howl like a pig that was about to die.

Nan Xian had just crippled Second Prince's left hand, and Feng Ruqing had broken his right hand. His eyes were filled with rage. "I wanted to spare you guys for the sake of you being a pregnant woman. But I didn't expect you guys to be so ungrateful and provoke me over and over again!"

Feng Ruqing raised her head and stared at him.

Second Prince had never looked at Feng Ruqing's face since he came.

All he could see was her big belly.

He had no interest in a pregnant woman, so he did not even spare a glance for her...

Until the moment, Feng Ruqing stared at him... His heart skipped a beat.

'This woman... She's so beautiful...'

But no matter how beautiful she was, she was still a scourge!

A vicious pregnant woman... She would not set a good example for the child in her womb. Such a woman was not his type...

"Arrest them!"

Second Prince's eyes darkened as he raised his hand and ordered coldly.

These two did not look like people from General Manor, and he did not want to arrest the innocent. Even though Nan Xian had made a move against him initially, he still did not intend to settle the score with these two.

However... His patience had a limit and not to mention... He was the prince of Yun Huan Kingdom!