Chapter 1611: A Breakthrough to King Warrior I

Wu Shang City.

Soldiers and horses had surrounded the entire city and even Helian Manor.

Blood flowed through the city, accompanied by those heartbreaking cries, causing Feng Lianqing's heart to ache.

His eyes reddened as he saw this city fill with blood. Endless anger surged fiercely to his heart.

In war, it was always the civilians who suffered the most!

He hated war, and he hated these people who started it.

On the street, a little girl was sitting on the ground helplessly, crying.

But the people across the street did not let her go because she was young. They raised their swords high in their hands, pointing them at the little girl.

Feng Lianqing frowned and swiftly rushed toward the little girl. In a split second, he had pulled the little girl to his side, pulling out his sword as fast as he could against the swords in front of him.

Bang!

After blocking the other man's sword, Feng Lianqing kicked the enemy in front of him fiercely and met another man with another sword.

The skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom had been brought to General Manor, and those skilled masters from the other three kingdoms had also arrived. They all headed toward Feng Lianqing as soon as they saw him.

Roar!

At this moment, a leopard growl suddenly echoed through the night sky.

Ah Hua led a group of spirit beasts rushing from beneath the night sky. Its gaze was so fierce; its eyes were cold as it looked at the soldiers of the four kingdoms.

The spirit beasts had never had a peaceful day again after the man from the Nan family had taken the throne. It was not easy for them to meet a nice person like Feng Ruqing and live in peace, but now...

It seemed that no matter where they went, they had to face the same problem.

The spirit beast mountain was their home in the first place, but they were unable to protect it. This time, they would not let these people destroy their second home!

"You..."

Looking at Ah Hua biting off a chunk from someone's neck, Feng Lianqing was a little shocked. He never thought that these spirit beasts would help him protect General Manor.

Ah Hua glanced coldly at Feng Lianqing.

“Since we have stayed here, this is our home too. It’s not easy to have a peaceful life where we can plant flowers and pick grasses when we have time. So, I won’t let anyone destroy it.”

Moreover, there were countless spirit herbs they had harvested in their manor, and they would not allow these people to touch it.

“Thank you very much, Brother Ah Hua.”

Feng Lianqing smiled. “Leave the enemies here to me. I won’t allow them to take a single step in! Can you help me get this little girl to a safe place?”

Ah Hua looked at Feng Lianqing suspiciously, “Can you do it? If you died, my master would probably throw a three-day feast in return for the day you let Feng Lianyi disturb her morning sleep.”

Feng Lianqing was stunned.

If he were really unfortunate enough to be buried here, Feng Ruqing would definitely do as Ah Hua said.

That woman... She looked very affectionate and had charmed Helian Yue and the little prince, but... She was so ruthless...

Chapter 1612: A Breakthrough to King Warrior II

If that person were not important to her, she would not care if they were dead or alive...

Moreover... Feng Ruqing had once asked the little prince to beat him up.

“Don’t worry. I won’t die so easily.” Feng Lianqing smiled. “The most important thing to me is to protect the people of Wu Shang City. This is what my master has taught me since I was a child. As a soldier, I must put the people first and the ruler second, and myself... I do not exist.

“As a soldier, I must guard the entire Wu Shang City.”

He took a few steps forward firmly. His eyes burned with justice.

He was not afraid of facing the countless skilled masters that had rushed in front of him.

Ah Hua’s gaze changed slightly, and it looked at Feng Lianqing with some admiration.

“But...” Feng Lianqing raised his sword. “If you don’t mind, can you leave a few spirit beasts behind to help me? After all... The number of enemy soldiers seems to be a bit high...”

Ah Hua was speechless.

It looked at the growing number of people, and then at Feng Lianqing, who was surrounded by a crowd of people and said helplessly, “Ah Ying, you and your other brothers will stay. I’m going to General Manor to find my master.”

As soon as it finished its words, it picked up the little girl, turned around, and rushed toward General Manor.

The longsword sliced through Feng Lianqing's arm. Blood started flowing, but his face remained expressionless.

A handsome face with a bold look on it.

'Just now...

'Ah Hua should have gone to find Maiden Feng... Oh no, Lady Nan.

'Helian Yue must be with Lady Nan now...'

With these spirit beasts, he would at least not have to worry about Helian Yue's safety.

He could also settle these enemies peacefully...

General Manor.

The young ladies and men had all curled up and hid in a corner. There was utter fear in their eyes.

The emperor had many skilled masters, but not all of them were here. The others were still in the palace, and they could not help them here.

Nan Xian looked like a mighty man, but he might not be able to deal with so many skilled masters.

These skilled masters were as powerful as a King Warrior, and some of them were even only one step away from reaching King Warrior tier...

It was obvious to see that they were determined to win against Wu Shang City!

No, not just Wu Shang City...

The fact that these people were able to enter Wu Shang City was proof that... They had conquered the other cities of Tianling Kingdom. There was no news at all; it showed what this group of people had achieved...

Their strength was shocking!

Feng Lianyi finally crawled out of the wall. She coughed out a mouthful of blood, and her whole face was a mess.

"Second Prince, your Yun Huan Kingdom is so daring to be so arrogant while General is away. When General returns, all of you... Will die!" Feng Lianyi laughed out in a low voice and looked sideways at Feng Ruqing. "Do you know who she is? General has even given his precious necklace to this woman. She is much more honorable than me in General Manor."

"Feng Lianyi!"

This time, even Qi Fang was a little angry. He looked at Feng Lianyi fiercely.

He had not expected that Feng Lianyi would use Feng Ruqing to save her own life.

Qi Fang's eyes darkened as he saw the skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom had drawn their weapons and surrounded Feng Ruqing and Nan Xian. "Maiden Feng's necklace was not given by Tian Ya. My son, Qi Yu, had stolen it from Tian Ya and given it to her. So it has nothing to do with Maiden Feng."

Chapter 1613: A Breakthrough to King Warrior III

The little fatty was speechless.

What had he got to do with it?

The empress looked at Qi Fang. She seemed to understand what he was doing...

But her face remained cold.

Even though Qi Fang was considered to have done the right thing this time, she still could not forgive him for what he had done before.

Qi Fang was not exactly too bad. He was just too protective of his kingdom and too eager to make Tian Ya stay. Feng Ruqing had saved Qin'er, so he would not forget this saving grace.

Feng Lianyi's face darkened.

'The necklace in Feng Ruqing's hand... Qi Yu stole that?'

She knew it!

If it had been in the past, she would be so glad to hear this, but now, she only hoped that the necklace was really from Tian Ya...

"B*tch, how dare you lie to me?" Second Prince was furious and ran toward Feng Lianyi. He slapped her hard. "Do you think I'm stupid enough to be fooled by you? Who doesn't know that you and Feng Lianqing are the only two who are from General Manor? Helian Yue is not even a member of General Manor. It looks like you're so desperate to stay alive, doesn't it?"

Second Prince sent her flying with another slap. Her cheeks swollen and red, and a drop of blood hung from the edge of her mouth. Her eyes flashed with resentment.

'Why?

'Why is this bad luck always happening to me?!

'Why this bastard Qi Fang has to say it now? He is obviously trying to protect Feng Ruqing!'

"These two just attacked me, so I won't let them go again. But before that, I'll pinch you to death first!" Second Prince sneered. "And this chick Helian Yue... She's quite pretty, so I'll bring her back as a dancer to my army."

Feng Ruqing's eyes widened, staring hard at Second Prince.

No one had noticed that the black sword in the depths of her dantian was emitting a faint light again, surrounding her palm...

Nan Xian lowered his eyes and saw Feng Ruqing's sunken face. He held her hand gently and smiled, "If Qing'er doesn't like him... We can settle him now..."

There was no need to wait until he had beaten Feng Lianyi half to death before making a move...

Feng Ruqing remained silent, expressionless.

If Nan Xian could let the main spirit enter Feng Ruqing's body again right now, he would surely see the little brat inside her womb had opened her eyes again.

The little brat reached out to grab the black sword, but the barrier in front of her had blocked her hand.

The little brat was in a bit of a hurry. She kept reaching for it, she opened her mouth and gulped for something, but once that spiritual qi reached the womb's wall, they were blocked by the barrier.

After a few moments, the black sword was slowly sucked into the dantian.

The little brat was a little angry, trying even harder to gobble something. Suddenly, countless spiritual energy spread in from outside, powerful enough to turn into a sea of spiritual qi...

In the banquet hall.

Endless spiritual energy was pouring into Feng Ruqing's body as if it was chasing after a soul.

Those skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom who had wanted to make a move suddenly stopped, shocked!

Everyone present, except for Nan Xian, turned to look at Feng Ruqing, confused. They did not understand what was happening to her.

Chapter 1614: A Breakthrough to King Warrior IV

How did she suddenly make a breakthrough?

The energy was as fierce as a storm and as powerful as the sea. The spiritual qi was even more like a hurricane, blowing through the girl's body.

Not to mention the others, even Feng Ruqing herself was stunned. Her eyes filled with confusion as if she could not even figure out why she had suddenly made a breakthrough.

Just like that day, she had woken up and broken through to Advanced Holy Warrior tier...

Within her body, the little brat saw that no matter how hard she tried, the spiritual qi was still unable to pass the barrier. She pursed her small lips, slightly aggravated, and simply gave up.

The glow of the black sword also gradually diminished, and there was no more movement.

The spiritual qi within the body all dispersed as if nothing had happened.

Feng Ruqing's eyes were slightly sunken, her fingers caressing her abdomen, her eyes carrying an unreadable light.

'These two breakthroughs must have something to do with this little brat...'

Initially, the little brat had absorbed enough spiritual qi and fallen into a deep sleep. But every time that black sword stirred her up, she woke up and absorbed some spiritual qi again. If Nan Xian did not stop her back then, perhaps that spiritual qi would have been absorbed by her again.

But this little brat was not a willful fellow. She simply gave up after failing twice...

"You... What did you just do?" Second Prince was filled with fear. "Wait, no... I didn't do anything just now. How did you suddenly make a breakthrough?"

He did not hit her or bully her. How could he have forced her to make a breakthrough?

Wait!

Second Prince's face darkened as he looked at the skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom who had surrounded Feng Ruqing and the others. He then turned to the people behind Qi Fang.

"I've brought ten King Warriors this time. There are four King Warriors with Qi Fang, and this man seems to be a King Warrior as well, plus the woman who just made a breakthrough..." Second Prince lowered his face and sneered. "There are still three more people on our side!"

Bang!

Without any hesitation, Feng Ruqing kicked Second Prince so fast that he did not have time to dodge at all.

After Second Prince flew away, those skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom rushed fiercely toward Feng Ruqing with swords in their hands.

But their swords could not even touch Feng Ruqing. It was as if a barrier had been set up around the young girl's body, blocking everyone from touching her.

These people were startled. Later, they saw the man in the long white robe slowly approaching Feng Ruqing, raising his hand and pulling her into his arms.

He glanced coldly at the skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom...

Boom!

At that moment, it was as if there was a heavy hammer striking their hearts...

They could feel a palpitating sensation under the man's indifferent gaze.

The man raised his hand, and a gust of fierce wind surged from his hand, instantly sending these people back a few steps. Those who were a little less strong felt a tickle in their throats before they spurted a mouthful of blood.

Second Prince was startled.

‘This fucking bastard is not a King Warrior, but... His strength is almost as powerful as a King Warrior.’

Ever since Feng Ruqing had made a breakthrough, the people of Wu Shang City remained silent. It was not until after Nan Xian had once again pushed back a group of skilled masters from Yun Huan Kingdom that they gradually came back to their senses.

They had thought that Nan Xian could easily send them flying back because these skilled masters were defenseless just now... But Nan Xian had done it the second time, and these skilled masters were still unable to resist it...

Chapter 1615: A Breakthrough to King Warrior V

They both looked so young, and they had already reached... King Warrior tier?

Howl!

Suddenly, the sound of a leopard howling echoed through the night.

It was so loud that Second Prince’s heart trembled in fear. He raised his head to look, and in an instant, a group of spirit beasts, led by a leopard, appeared in his vision. Their ferocious appearance almost made Second Prince faint.

“Why are the General Manor’s defenses so weak? How did these spirit beasts get in?” Second Prince’s voice grew hoarse.

He knew that some of the leopards were as strong as a King Warrior.

Yes! A King Warrior!

Ah Hua was once as powerful as Advanced King Warrior. The injury had made it lose its power. However, now it had recovered, and of course, it had regained its peak strength.

Second Prince was on the verge of tears. These spirit beasts looked menacing and were definitely not easy to provoke.

‘How did these spirit beasts ambush General Manor? Why is there no one guarding this place?’

The crowd turned their attention to Second Prince. ‘Have you forgotten that you’re also an intruder? Do you still have the nerve to be expecting to be protected?’

Qi Fang frowned.

‘This leopard is now an Advanced King Warrior? It was not of this rank a few days ago when it attacked the palace with Feng Ruqing...’

After Ah Hua walked into the banquet hall, it stopped in its tracks, not even looking at Second Prince. It then slowly walked toward Feng Ruqing.

“Master...”

It stopped in its tracks and then approached Feng Ruqing as it glanced at Second Prince coldly. “Is this the fool who wants to harm my master?”

Feng Ruqing did not speak. She walked toward Second Prince, who had already turned pale.

Those skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom had already surrounded Second Prince. They were protecting him with their swords and looking at Feng Ruqing fiercely.

“Get out of the way if you don’t want to end up in my spirit beasts’ belly!” Feng Ruqing shouted coldly.

The skilled masters looked at Feng Ruqing, then at Second Prince, and finally at the grinning spirit beasts and quickly took a few steps back...

‘This woman is pregnant... Of course, she doesn’t wish to see blood, so she definitely won’t go too far.’

‘If we provoke her, maybe she will order those spirit beasts to swallow Second Prince first...’

‘Therefore, it’s better if we retreat first and wait for reinforcements to arrive before taking revenge...’

“Hey! Don’t leave me!”

Second Prince’s face grew paler when he saw the skilled masters were leaving him. He was so scared that he followed after them, taking a few steps back.

But someone suddenly pushed him from behind, causing him to fall in front of Feng Ruqing helplessly.

He landed on his knees as if he was kneeling in front of the young girl.

His face turned red from embarrassment. He tried to get up from the ground, but who knew that a strong pressure would come down upon him like a giant mountain, crushing his bones, causing him to spurt out a mouthful of blood.

“Earlier you said... You want to send, who was it again, to be a dancer for your army?” Feng Ruqing was expressionless, looking down at Second Prince coldly.

Second Prince’s face was pale. “He... Helian Yue...”

“Who?”

“Feng... Feng Lianyi...”

“Good.”

Feng Ruqing smiled. “Remember, once you have said it, you have to do it.”

Second Prince was dumbfounded. ‘Will this girl let them go?’

“Who sent you to General Manor?” Feng Ruqing looked down at Second Prince and asked indifferently, “And why did you besiege General Manor?”

Chapter 1616: A Breakthrough to King Warrior VI

“No, it’s not that I want to besiege General Manor...” Second Prince sounded timid. He was no longer as arrogant as he was just now. “The four kingdoms have united to destroy Wu Shang City.”

Feng Ruqing frowned. Liu Yun Kingdom was once under siege by other kingdoms too, and the same thing was happening in Wu Shang City, too.

It seemed that the emperor of these four kingdoms liked to join forces to bully others.

Second Prince looked at Feng Ruqing cautiously. "However, I feel that the commoners are innocent, and I don't want to kill them, so I have brought my men to attack General Manor..."

Feng Ruqing's eyes were cold. "Are you trying to say that you are still a good person?"

"Of course!"

Second Prince suddenly felt the young girl's breath grow a little colder and hurriedly said, "No! I was so foolish. I didn't know there's a good maiden like you living in Wu Shang City. That's why I have dared to come rashly. Otherwise, out of respect for you, I would never have dared to come and cause trouble here."

The crowd was shocked and speechless...

'This man really knew how to save his life...'

Anger suddenly flashed in Feng Ruqing's eyes. "Maiden? Are you blind? Can't you see that I'm already pregnant? Call me Lady Nan!"

Second Prince was startled.

"Alright, Lady Nan... I understand. Lady Nan, may I go now?"

Feng Ruqing smiled. "This isn't a place where you can come and go as you wish."

"Lady Nan, I was wrong. I didn't know you were here... We're here only to kill General Manor's people... They are the cruelest genocides on this land! Especially that Tian Ya, who likes to meddle in other people's business. The other day, I had merely flirted with a beauty from Tianling Kingdom. I didn't kidnap her to be my concubine. However, that old bastard had chased after me for ten days just to beat me up!"

Second Prince did not realize that Feng Ruqing's face had turned cold and continued, "That's why... I have volunteered to come this time when I heard my father say that he was coming to Wu Shang City."

'This woman hates Feng Lianyi so much. She must also have a grudge against General...

'Moreover, somebody had smashed the banquet hall before I arrived.'

'Amongst those present, only this woman could possibly have done such a thing... So...'

Second Prince thought that Feng Ruqing also held a grudge against the people in General Manor, and now they shared the same hatred of General Manor!

Feng Ruqing did not have any more hesitation this time and picked Second Prince up with one hand.

Yes, she had grabbed him with just one hand and lifted Second Prince above her head...

And then ruthlessly brought him down onto the floor.

That heavy, muffled sound accompanied by heart-rending cries echoed through the banquet hall, causing those skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom to turn their heads, unwilling to look at this cruel scene.

This time, Second Prince felt like his bones were shattered, and he could not even cry. His face was pale, bloodless as he looked at Feng Ruqing, panicked.

“Who did you call... an old bastard?” Feng Ruqing stepped on the back of his hand, looking down at Second Prince, who was lying on the ground howling.

Second Prince did not understand what he had said wrong, but he knew that he had to please Feng Ruqing and agree with whatever she said if he wanted to live.

“My... My father... My father is an old bastard.”

Chapter 1617: Tian Ya's Rage I

“Hmm...”

Feng Ruqing raised her foot high and it down on Second Prince's chest hard.

Second Prince spurted out a mouthful of blood, his pale face filled with fear.

“Prince of Yun Huan Kingdom?” Feng Ruqing squatted down and looked at the man lying on the ground smilingly. “How powerful is your Yun Huan Kingdom?”

Second Prince curled his body up. “My Yun Huan Kingdom is the strongest among the five kingdoms, except... That pervert, Tian Ya...”

Feng Ruqing frowned.

Second Prince shivered and hurriedly corrected his words, “Excluding a strong man like Tian Ya guarding Wu Shang City.”

“Well, Little Pot...”

Feng Ruqing called out calmly.

Suddenly, a huge pot flew in from outside the door, creating a gale as it hovered above Feng Ruqing's head.

This huge pot emitted such a powerful aura that made Yun Huan Kingdom's skilled masters tremble in fear and not dare to make any movements.

The huge pot looked at Second Prince, disgusted. It somewhat hesitated to make any movement.

Feng Ruqing glanced at the huge pot. It trembled and quickly leaped toward Second Prince, who was screaming terrifyingly and swallowed him...

The banquet hall fell silent.

A few moments later, those skilled masters regained their senses and instantly drew their weapons, trembling. "Lady, Second Prince has surrendered. Why do you have to kill him? He can still be forgiven. Return him to us now!"

"And what if I don't want to return him?"

Feng Ruqing smirked. "Ah Hua!"

"Yes, Master."

"Get all of these people out of my way and leave me alone."

She still had a lot of business to take care of, and if it were not for these people disturbing her unexpectedly, she might have settled her affairs.

At the corner of the wall, Feng Lianyi was biting her lip hard. She clenched her fists tightly as she saw Feng Ruqing approaching her.

Her eyes were filled with hatred!

Right then, a group of troops rushed in through the door and instantly surrounded the entire banquet hall.

Feng Ruqing turned her head to look and found that those troops did not spare a glance at the skilled masters of Yun Huan Kingdom, but instead, looked at Feng Lianyi.

"Maiden Lianyi, just now the enemies of the four kingdoms came to attack. We were unable to come to protect Maiden Lianyi. Please forgive us."

General had said that no matter what, the commoners' safety must come first.

As a general, he could not leave the battlefields without orders. Moreover, there was still fighting in the city. But he was so worried about Maiden Lianyi that he had asked his men to stay behind as he led the army to come and protect Feng Lianyi.

Qi Fang slightly frowned. "Liu Yi, the battle in General Manor is over. You can leave now."

Liu Yi was a talented, hardworking, and honest man. Therefore, he was taken in by Tian Ya right after Tian Ya came to Wu Shang City. Liu Yi was also a vice general and had his manor.

However... Even though Liu Yi was talented, he was too young, and his strength could not even compare to Feng Lianqing. So, even if he came early, he could not be of any use.

"Who said it's already over?" Feng Lianyi sneered, blood flowing from the corner of her mouth. "Liu Yi, this woman has trespassed into General Manor without permission, and she has even attacked me so many times. Take her away now!"

Chapter 1618: Tian Ya's Rage II

"Yes, Maiden Lianyi."

Liu Yi's face darkened. 'Maiden Lianyi is considered as a goddess in General Manor, perfect and flawless. How could one treat her like this?'

"Liu Yi!" Qi Fang's voice was cold. "I command you to stay away from her!"

"I'm sorry, Your Majesty. I, Liu Yi, will only obey General's orders. Now that General and Master Lianqing are not here, I will only obey Maiden Lianyi's orders."

In the meantime, Feng Ruqing was already impatient. "It seems like it is not over yet. One has left, and here comes another one."

Nan Xian touched her head and spoke gently, "If you're tired, go sit aside and rest. I can settle these people."

"Alright..."

She was indeed a little tired. She had not even had a good rest today because of this dinner.

Ah Hua quickly pushed a chair in front of Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing brushed her sleeves and took her seat. She supported her head with her hand, smiling at Liu Yi and the others.

The man's face was cold, his eyes indifferent as he caressed his long sleeves.

A powerful momentum instantly grew, permeating the entire banquet hall, causing Liu Yi's face to change dramatically.

King Warrior!

'He is a King Warrior!'

The air was somewhat frozen, and Liu Yi even felt slightly difficult to breathe.

"Liu Yi..." Feng Lianyi took a deep breath. "Do you still remember the talisman that General gave you back then?"

Liu Yi was a little surprised, and he slowly closed his eyes...

Back then, he and Master Lianqing had followed General deep into a mausoleum and picked up this talisman with a soul hidden inside.

That soul was so powerful that even General was no match for him. Therefore, General promised that soul to find a suitable dead body for him to possess.

General, who was still a man of his word but found the job too troublesome, had passed the talisman to Liu Yi.

But General had promised... To find a dead body, not a living person!

What shocked Liu Yi was how Feng Lianyi knew about this.

"Maiden Lianyi, I can't..."

'I can't do this. General won't allow it!'

"Liu Yi!" Feng Lianyi was anxious. "These are our enemies, not innocent people. There's nothing wrong with you doing this. Besides, haven't you always liked me? How can you talk about it if you won't even do it for me?"

Liu Yi opened his eyes, and he seemed to be struggling.

General had promised to find a dead body, but these people in front of him were all living people!

But...

'What's the difference between these people and the four enemy armies out there? They have indiscriminately barged into General Manor and attacked such a gentle and kind girl, Lian Yi!'

If he was strong enough... Then, these people would already be dead.

He only had to turn them into corpses and leave the rest to the soul to settle.

Even if General knew, he would not blame him. After all, he had to protect Maiden Lianyi.

Boom!

Without waiting for Liu Yi to make a move, Nan Xian had already done so.

A powerful storm surged out around his body, sweeping away all those people of General Manor who were close by, making them fall hard to the ground, spitting blood.

As soon as Liu Yi fell to the ground, another sword light rushed toward him and pierced his heart.

Chapter 1619: Tian Ya's Rage III

There was blood left in his mouth, yet he still tried to stand up from the ground.

Feng Ruqing sat straight and looked at Liu Yi, slightly surprised.

Liu Yi was Tian Ya's people. She should not let Nan Xian make a deadly move against him. But what Feng Lianyi had said just now could put all people here in danger. So, she would never give Liu Yi a chance to fight back for everyone's safety.

Buth!

'I can't believe he didn't die from Nan Xian's sword light!'

"It's Spirit Hedgehog Armor..." Helian Yue's eyes were slightly sunken. "Grandfather Tian Ya is generous. He gave it to all his generals, including my grandfather... Spirit Hedgehog Armor is made of the thickest black iron from the spirit beast mountain, shaped like a hedgehog, and it's used for defense. It can even withstand attacks from King Warrior, but..."

Helian Yue paused. "With Spirit Hedgehog Armor, anyone at King Warrior tier needs to attack thrice to destroy it, but just now... He was clearly injured, just not fatal."

Spirit Hedgehog Armor was inconvenient to wear. Moreover, the enemies that Brother Lianqing and the others had met were not very strong, and none of them were King Warrior. Even if Grandfather Tian Ya had given them Spirit Hedgehog Armor, they would not have worn it.

But Spirit Hedgehog Armor was not invincible. It could only block three attacks from a King Warrior, but he would surely be blown up and die after three attacks.

But there were few people in this world like Nan Xian, who clearly had not reached King Warrior tier but could still make one with Spirit Hedgehog Armor injured with just one attack...

However...

But before Nan Xian could attack again, Liu Yi had already taken out the talisman paper and swiftly tore it apart.

At that moment, a powerful force like a storm overwhelmed a mountain filled the entire banquet hall...

It made the banquet hall eerie and like hell.

Outside Wu Shang City.

The old man in red was staring at the four old men in front of him arrogantly.

These four old men were no longer as clean and neat as they initially were. They looked like beggars, their clothes ragged and their faces covered in dirt and blood.

"I've told you..." Tian Ya smiled faintly. "In my eyes, you are no different from Qi Fang. All of you are trash!"

His tone was arrogant.

"You..." Maitreya looked unhappy. "When did you make a breakthrough?"

Intermediate King Warrior tier!

Tian Ya had reached Intermediate King Warrior tier!

They could not defeat him in this battle because of that!

"Just a little while ago..."

Tian Ya raised his eyebrows. "I've traded my jade necklace for a jug of wine. Yum, that wine is not only delicious but also allowed me to make a breakthrough calmly. So you guys are so unlucky today... You've become the first people to attack me after my breakthrough."

The old men's faces changed dramatically, somewhat surprised. 'What kind of wine could help a King Warrior to make a breakthrough?'

Of course, the spirit qi provided by the spirit wine had a negligible effect on a King Warrior, but it could make him calm...

Whether or not one could make a breakthrough next would depend on one's talent.

Tian Ya was already a talented man. That was why he could make a breakthrough easily. This would not happen to other ordinary people even if he drank a hundred jugs of spirit wine.

Boom!

Suddenly...

There was a loud booming sound that swirled into a powerful and eerie pressure not far away in Wu Shang City...

Chapter 1620: Tian Ya's Rage IV

This powerful energy... Instantly made Tian Ya's face darkened.

"Liu Yi, that bastard!"

At first, he had agreed to help that soul, but he was lazy by nature, and Feng Lianqing was lazier than him. They did not want to find any dead body for that soul, so in the end, Tian Ya had decided to leave this task to Liu Yi.

But he did not expect that it had been a few years, and this bastard Liu Yi still had not found a suitable body for that soul.

If Tian Ya had not promised that soul, he would have long not wanted to bother with this worrying matter.

But he had ordered Liu Yi to bring the soul far from Wu Shang City once he had found a dead body so that the soul would not injure any innocent people here.

However...

The fucking bastard dared to call that soul out when they were still in the city!

"Tian Ya..." The white-robed old man stepped in front of Tian Ya. He looked wretched but still maintained his arrogant look. "Even though you have made a breakthrough to Intermediate King Warrior tier, it's still a bit difficult to kill the four of us. But if you tell me who gave you that wine, we will..."

"Get out of my way!"

Tian Ya threw a slap at him, smacking the white-robed old man.

The other three old men were about to stop Tian Ya from leaving, but Tian Ya's slap had made them stop abruptly and turn away at the speed of lightning.

"The weather's great tonight."

The emperor of Tian Qin Kingdom looked up at the bright moon in the sky.

"Well, it's nice to come out tonight to enjoy the moonlight..."

The other emperors also looked at the bright moon and agreed.

As soon as he said this, Tian Ya had hurriedly rushed to Wu Shang City and disappeared under the moonlight in the blink of an eye.

After he left, the emperor of Tian Qin Kingdom subconsciously wiped the sweat from his forehead. "How did this Tian Ya... Become so ferocious? It's horrible..."

And with his furious appearance, he looked even scarier...

Messing with him at such a time was a death wish.

"Then, what should we do now?"

"What else can we do? Hurry up, bring our armies back. Qi Fang this trash is so lucky. He has the old emperor helping him back then, and now Tian Ya, to guard his kingdom... As long as Tian Ya is still in Tianling Kingdom, there's nothing we can do to conquer this kingdom..."

The emperor of Gu Yue Kingdom was somewhat reluctant to leave. His eyes were fixed on Wu Shang City for quite a long time before he eventually turned around and walked away.

The battle, which just started, had already ended...

Inside General Manor.

Feng Ruqing stood up from her chair and walked to Nan Xian's side.

Nan Xian's face was cold, but a few solemnities gradually appeared in his stern gaze.

The dark fog inside the banquet hall grew thicker.

A young man gradually stepped out of the dark fog...

This young man was as handsome as an immortal. His gaze was cold and stern as he looked around at the people present.

"This time, if you find me another trash for me to possess, I will kill you!"

'Possess...'

This single word made everyone tremble, and some even hid under their seats in panic, trying to hide away from this creature.

Liu Yi's forehead broke out in cold sweat. "You can take these two people in front of you."

His gaze was directed at Feng Ruqing and Nan Xian.

The young man smiled coldly as he followed Liu Yi's gaze, but stiffened when he saw Feng Ruqing's face.

Even the air in the banquet hall was a little colder than usual...
