

Overbearing 1681

Chapter 1681: Who Dares To Bully My Granddaughter II

Duan Qiong's looked at Xiao Ya with eyes that carried a deep pain.

He had even forgotten about Feng Ruqing wanting to destroy the Duan family as his gaze was fixed upon the cold woman in front of him.

"Ya'er.... Can you please don't leave me?"

Xiao Ya looked at Duan Qiong coldly. She was only willing to spare his life because of his kindness back then. Moreover, she knew that it was not Duan Qiong who was hunting her.

When she decided to leave back then, she had made a promise to herself that she would never come back again!

"You don't have to beg Xiao Ya. Some things, once lost, can never be regained! Xiao Ya, you're not feeling well. I'll let Little Soul send you back first. I'll take care of the rest."

Xiao Ya nodded firmly.

She did not take a glance at the familiar courtyard behind her, much less at those familiar people...

"No!"

Duan Qiong panicked and got up, chasing after Xiao Ya. "Ya'er, you can't leave. Please don't leave me. Please!"

Tears flowed from the corners of his eyes as he was filled with grief.

This time, it was different from before.

Twenty years ago, Ya'er had left the Duan family, but he believed that he could always bring her back.

However, this time...

If Ya'er left, he might never see her again.

Xiao Ya did not stop. She was still a little weak and could not even stand properly, needing the black sword on the side to hold her.

In the end, it was Second Prince who had sent someone to help Xiao Ya. He always felt that the black sword was not very reliable. Hearing Duan Qiong's heartbreaking voice, he could not help but sneer.

'This bastard has offended Master and still wants to marry Master's girl? Hehe... Ridiculous!

'It's for the sake of that mute girl that Master didn't kill you!'

When Xiao Ya's figure had completely disappeared, Feng Ruqing turned around slowly, stared at Duan Qiong, and walked toward him.

"Just because I've promised Xiao Ya that I wouldn't kill you doesn't mean... I'll let you off easily!" Feng Ruqing stretched out her hand, and a purple fruit appeared in her hand.

She squeezed Duan Qiong's chin and forcefully fed him the fruit.

Duan Qiong's mouth was full of bitterness, but it was nothing compared to his heart, which had already ached to the point of numbness. He stared dumbly in the direction where Xiao Ya had left.

"This fruit... It will make one suffer from impotence." Feng Ruqing smirked. "And it will disrupt your cultivation! Duan Qiong, do you know why I didn't kill you? Not only because of Xiao Ya, but... I want you to live and hold this guilt for the rest of your life.

"And I'm not afraid of you coming to get back at me. If you want to get revenge, go ahead! I, Feng Ruqing, will never be afraid of you!"

Feng Ruqing glanced at Duan Qiong's pale face before turning around and walked toward Old Master Duan once again.

Old Master Duan's eyes were filled with panic. "You heard what Tian'er said just now, right? Lianyi is Tian Ya's people. I'm sure you know who he is in Land of No Return. Little girl, you've made enough mess here. If you leave now, I'll forget all about it!"

Chapter 1682: Who Dares To Bully My Granddaughter III

"Forget about it?" Feng Ruqing sneered, "Do you think I can believe that? Maybe once I leave this place, you'll order your people to get back at me! I'm not afraid of you coming for revenge. I just... Hate to see you alive."

The one who ruined Xiao Ya's face back then was Zhen Tian, but without Duan Yue backing her up, how could she dare to do it?

So, she would never let these two people go!

Duan Yue's face was pale as he trembled, and his eyes were filled with horror.

However, the moment he tried to escape...

A group of generals rushed in through the door and surrounded the Duan family.

These generals were clearly not from Yun Huan Kingdom; they were all dressed in Tianling Kingdom's uniform and could be noticed at a glance.

Duan Yue's pale face grew even more anxious, but his pride as the head of the Duan family did not allow him to plead for mercy. Therefore, he looked at the group of generals surrounding them with his determined and fearless eyes.

Feng Ruqing was also stunned, and as she looked back, she saw a red-robed old man walk in through the door.

He walked arrogantly, and his eyes were stern.

"You..." Old Master Duan's eyes were somewhat dazed, then gradually became clear, his pale face then filled with excitement. "Tian Ya?"

Tian Ya!

As he mentioned the name, it was like thunder, causing the others to look at him in shock.

Zhen Tian laughed wildly. "Hahahaha! You and that b*tch Qi Ya will die this time. My daughter, Feng Lianyi, has brought Tian Ya here. Oh, where is Lianyi? Why didn't she come back?"

Qing Zhu looked at Zhen Tian with sympathy in its eyes.

'Poor woman...

'She doesn't know that her daughter is dead. '

Tian Ya glanced at the people before him and then looked at Feng Ruqing's face.

Feng Ruqing had left without saying anything to him. He was sad, but all his sadness had disappeared as soon as he saw her face again.

"What are you doing here?" Feng Ruqing pursed her lips and asked.

Tian Ya laughed and walked toward Feng Ruqing.

"I come to see who has the gut to bully my granddaughter!"

'Granddaughter?'

Tian Ya's words were like thunder, exploding fiercely in Duan Yue's mind for a long time.

'Tian Ya has a granddaughter?

'Impossible! Lianyi has said before that Tian Ya has nobody here. He was separated from his family, and that's why she was trying to get close to Tian Ya by all means to become his disciple.

'But Lianyi has never said that he has a granddaughter!'

"Where's Lianyi?" Duan Yue's voice was laced with madness. His eyes were bloodshot. "Where did she go? I want to see her now!"

'No!'

He did not believe that Tian Ya had a granddaughter!

Duan Yue trembled on the ground. He clenched his fists tightly, and his breathing grew heavier.

He had treated Zhen Tian nicely all these years and favored her because he had placed his hope on her daughter, Feng Lianyi.

What he wanted to be was not only the head of the Duan family but also the emperor of Yun Huan Kingdom!

So, in his mind, Qi Ya and her bastard daughter were just scourges, and only Lianyi could help him and his Duan family.

However, now... Someone had told him that the woman who came for Qi Ya was Tian Ya's granddaughter?

'Hahaha!'

Duan Yue's voice became more frantic. "Where's Feng Lianyi? Call her out now!"

Chapter 1683: Who Dares To Bully My Granddaughter IV

"You don't need to shout." Tian Ya glanced at Duan Yue coldly. "Feng Lianyi is already dead."

'Feng Lianyi... She's already dead?'

Duan Qiong looked up and stared blankly at Tian Ya. His face was pale as he staggered up from the ground.

"No, Lianyi has followed you for so many years. How could she be dead?"

Tian Ya sneered. "Feng Lianyi deludedly tried to frame my granddaughter and almost harmed her, so she deserves to die!"

Like a thunderbolt from the clear sky, the one who was shocked was not only Duan Yue but also Zhen Tian, who was already convulsing in pain on the side.

After all, Feng Lianyi was her daughter.

No matter how vicious she was, she would always love her daughter and would never harm her.

Now, someone had suddenly come and told her that... Lianyi was dead?

"Ahhhh!"

Zhen Tian stood up. She looked like a crazy woman, pouncing on Feng Ruqing.

"B*tch, I'll kill you to avenge my daughter's death!"

However, before she could get close to Feng Ruqing, she saw the old man dressed in red had raised his hand. A sword light flashed, instantly slicing her neck as she fell in a pool of blood.

Duan Qiong looked at Zhen Tian indifferently. He remained expressionless even after he heard that Feng Lianyi had died...

It was as if his heart was already dead...

Tian Ya raised his eyebrows and looked at Old Master Duan. "Qing'er, what should we do with this old man?"

Feng Ruqing looked at the woman in the pool of blood, slightly regretful.

"It's a pity to let her die so soon. I have wanted to continue the torture for a while longer."

Tian Ya was speechless.

Hearing his granddaughter's words, he somehow felt as if he had done something wrong.

"What does Qing'er want to do with her?"

“Forget it. She’s dead. I hope she doesn’t hurt Xiao Ya in the next life.” Feng Ruqing sighed and turned to Duan Yue. “Don’t be harsh with this old man. After all, I respect the old and love the young.”

“Good...”

With one hand behind his back, Tian Ya ordered coldly, “Finish this old man, and then pull these corpses out. I don’t want to hurt my precious granddaughter’s eyes with their disgusting blood!”

Duan Yue had lost all of his spiritual qi, and he was like a lamb ready to be slaughtered, allowing those people to pull him out.

His face sunk, and his eyes were filled with despair. He looked back at Duan Qiong, wanting to say something but unable to do so.

He was wrong.

He was really wrong!

If he had known that Qi Ya was close to Tian Ya’s granddaughter, he would not have allowed Zhen Tian to treat Qi Ya like this even if he hated Qi Ya too...

Unfortunately, there were no regrets in the world. His thoughtlessness had dragged the entire Duan family down!

Duan Qiong closed his eyes slowly...

What the soul just said was true. He had stayed in the Duan family because of his father, even after knowing his father had brought endless harm to Ya’er.

It was all because he was his father!

Things would not have ended like this if he had remained committed from the beginning...

Now, he had lost Xiao Ya and his Duan family...

“Hahaha!”

Duan Qiong laughed wildly. He looked insane, and his hair was messy, like a beggar.

On his face, there were still unshed tears, and the smile on his lips was as crazy as could be.

Chapter 1684: Feng Lianqing’s Sadness I

Xiao Ya leaving him was a huge blow to Duan Qiong, and the death of his family had made him completely insane.

Tian Ya frowned and asked, “Should we kill this guy?”

Feng Ruqing looked at Duan Qiong, “Even if we don’t kill him, there’s no place for him in this world anymore. Grandfather, let’s go.”

“Alright...”

Tian Ya withdrew his eyes and turned to Feng Ruqing, "My dear granddaughter, we're going back. Why don't you tell me what has happened after I left back then? Did that group of old fools from Liu Yun Kingdom bully my son?"

"Father can still control those old fools. It's just the ones from Divine Herbs Sect... They have always bullied Father."

Tian Ya's eyes were cold. "How dare Divine Herbs Sect to break the promise they made back then?"

Feng Ruqing shrugged. "What wouldn't they dare to do so? The people of Divine Herbs Sect kidnapped Mother. She was seriously injured and had been taken away by a pervert, fortunately... We were able to find Mother in time; otherwise, she would have even lost her life in that place."

Tian Ya frowned. A cold light flashed in his eyes, and a bloodthirsty sneer hung from the corner of his mouth.

"When I return, I'd like to see these people who have bullied my son and daughter-in-law back then!"

Just then, Qing Zhu stretched out its head slowly. "Not only that, but that Noble Consort of Liu Yun Kingdom... What's her name? Oh, Noble Consort Rong, took advantage of the empress's disappearance and raised Princess into a two-hundred-and-fifty pounds fat girl... And that Liu Yuchen... He almost killed Princess because of Tan Shuangshuang..."

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

'How long will it take you to forget about that two-hundred-and-fifty pounds fat girl?

'And in such a public place, aren't you just deliberately embarrassing me?'

"Old Master, I can explain this in a couple of sentences. Actually back then..."

Boom!

Tian Ya swung his palm at the tree, and the tree fell and smashed to the ground.

Feng Ruqing was stunned for a moment. "Actually, it was me who divorced Liu Yuchen, not him..."

"That bastard Feng Tianwu, he has a consort?" Tian Ya was burning with rage; his eyes reddened. "When I go back, I'll beat that bastard!"

Everyone was silent.

"By the way, what did the snake just say? What? Who's two hundred and fifty pounds heavy?"

Feng Ruqing's face darkened.

Seeing that Qing Zhu was going to speak again, Feng Ruqing picked up its tail and threw it up into the sky, smiling. "Nothing... Grandfather, let's go home."

"Oh, alright."

Tian Ya looked on blankly. He felt as if he had just missed something but did not ask any more questions as he saw that Feng Ruqing did not want to talk about it.

"Let's go home!" Tian Ya patted Feng Ruqing's head. "Your husband... What's his name? Nan Xian?"

"Yes..."

"Does he have anything to do with the Nan family?" The old man frowned and asked.

Feng Ruqing was startled. "I don't think he has any relationship with them..."

"Oh, that's good. That Nan family is not good. They are all a bunch of depraved people. If this Nan family dominates the entire Land of No Return, I'm afraid that the people will not be able to survive. Therefore, if he has anything to do with the Nan family... Hehe, I'll finish him first!"

Chapter 1685: Feng Lianqing's Sadness II

Feng Ruqing was slightly stunned, her heart beating faster.

'Nan Xian and Suyi... They should have nothing to do with the Nan family, right?'

The old master of the Nan family had once also lost his daughter, but that daughter was not Suyi.

Feng Ruqing had doubted Suyi's identity when she first heard about the Nan family, and now... She just hoped that this Nan family had nothing to do with them!

However, if Nan Xian and Suyi were related to the Nan family, she had no choice... But to kill the whole Nan family and re-establish a new Nan family with them.

"Dear Granddaughter, let's go back. You're pregnant and still out and about fighting. What if you hurt my great-granddaughter? Leave these matters to me. Tell me who you want to kill, and I'll send out troops on your behalf."

Tian Ya was nervous. He was afraid she might make a mistake that might hurt her or her child.

"Master..."

Seeing that Feng Ruqing was about to leave, Second Prince quickly ran to catch up with her. "What about me?"

Feng Ruqing raised her eyebrows and looked back at Second Prince smilingly. "Stay in Yun Huan Kingdom and be a good prince. Don't let anyone from Yun Huan Kingdom take a step into Tianling Kingdom. Otherwise, I'll come and settle the score with you."

"Oh..." Second Prince stopped in his tracks, somewhat aggrieved, but he still watched her leave until her figure completely disappeared from his sight...

From Yun Huan Kingdom, they had to pass through the spirit beast mountain to reach Tianling Kingdom.

The spirit beast mountain was like a bridge between the four kingdoms.

At this moment in the spirit beast mountain, a red fox with one broken leg was running quickly. However, when it looked back, it saw that a group of people had leaped into its sight and surrounded it.

"This red fox looks like it has only lived for less than twenty years, but it has already reached King Warrior tier and can transform into a human form. Hahaha! How could the Nan family let go of such a spirit beast?"

An old man laughed arrogantly.

The red fox looked scared, staring at the group of people in front of him with a solemn gaze.

"Little Fox, it's better to surrender now. We will give great preferential treatment to surrendered spirit beasts. All the spirit beasts in Land of No Return belong to the Nan family. If you don't obey, you will be a traitor to the spirit beast clan!"

The red fox subconsciously took a few steps back. Its eyes flashed with a light, and it rushed off to the other side.

Its leg was injured, so it could not run fast. After just a few steps, those people had already caught up to it.

A light suddenly flashed, sending the red fox flying away before landing in front of a pair of feet.

Feng Ruqing stopped in her tracks and looked at the red fox that was covered with blood on the ground. She frowned as if she was considering something.

The red fox raised its head, and a familiar face was reflected in the fox's eyes...

The fox looked happy after it saw Feng Ruqing.

However, when it thought of those people behind it, it gritted its teeth and wanted to walk away from Feng Ruqing.

"Wait!" Feng Ruqing turned around and called out to the red fox. "Do you know me?"

The fox's gaze did not seem like it was looking at a stranger. They must have known each other...

Chapter 1686: Feng Lianqing's Sadness III

The red fox stepped forward and shook its head, indicating that it did not know her.

"You know me!" Feng Ruqing raised her hand and dragged the fox into her arms. "But all the spirit beasts I know are already contracted with me, and you're... Luo Li's husband?"

The red fox's eyes flashed in panic as it looked at the powerful Nan family behind it.

The look in its eyes had completely exposed it.

The Luo family of Tian Shen Manor had a red fox raised by Luo Li as her husband. The red fox had come out to save Luo Li on the day of the great disaster of Tian Shen Manor and had suffered many injuries.

However, the red fox back then was not as powerful as it was now; that was why Feng Ruqing did not recognize it in the beginning.

She was only teasing this fox just now. People said foxes were smart and cunning, but this fox was so naive.

When she was in Tian Shen Manor, she had helped Luo Li heal the red fox. However, the time they spent together was too short, so she did not correctly remember this fox's scent.

"I don't know you. You've mistaken me for another fox," the red fox said slowly.

"So you can speak like a human? Where's Luo Li? Why did you come to Land of No Return alone? And how did you become so strong?" Feng Ruqing asked, ignoring the red fox's denial.

The red fox stiffened, a little annoyed. "I told you I don't know you. If you don't want any trouble, let me go!"

"Oh..."

Feng Ruqing smiled at the group of people that walked toward her. "I've got my eye on this fox, so you all go back to your place."

A yellow-robed old man stopped in front of her. He felt a bit furious after hearing Feng Ruqing's words.

"Young Lady, all the spirit beasts in the world belong to the Nan family. Do you want to rob others of their belongings forcefully?"

Feng Ruqing laughed. "But my girl loves this male fox. She will cry if she knows you've taken her fox. So, I cannot give it to you..."

The red fox stiffened. "This woman... Do you still not understand?"

"How will I face Luo Li in the future if something happened to this woman?"

"Huh!" The old man snorted coldly. "Then, you'll become the Nan family's enemy!"

Suddenly, an old voice came from behind Feng Ruqing.

This voice was familiar to the people of the Nan family. All of them stiffened and looked in the direction of the voice...

"Since my granddaughter likes this fox, you people of the Nan family should give it to her."

The yellow-robed old man's face sank as he looked at the old man in the red-robed with hatred on his face. "Tian Ya, it's you again! Why do we meet you everywhere we go?"

Tian Ya laughed. "That's just a misfortune for your Nan family. My granddaughter wants this fox. I'll spare your life if you leave immediately. Go back and tell that bastard, Nan, he doesn't need to keep sending people to chase me. I'll go to look for him myself later! And..."

He paused and continued, "Tell him to clean his neck and wait for me!"

The others from the Nan family were filled with anger after hearing Tian Ya's words. They tried to make a move, but the yellow-robed old man brought his hand up to stop them.

"We'll let this fox go for now. Let's go!"

Chapter 1687: Feng Lianqing's Sadness IV

"But..."

"No more but's!" The yellow-robed old man glanced at Tian Ya coldly and sneered. "Tian Ya, I hope you'll always be this arrogant. You'd better not fall into the hands of our Nan family. Otherwise, you'll definitely be worse than dead!"

"I'll wait for you..."

Tian Ya laughed overbearingly.

The yellow-robed old man gritted his teeth and wanted to leave.

However, the moment he turned around...

Countless sword lights suddenly appeared and instantly slashed at his body.

He turned back, staring at the sky in shock. "You... Don't keep your word..."

"Just now, I said I'll spare your life if you leave immediately. However, you didn't listen to my advice, so you can't blame me." Tian Ya's laughter was laced with cheerfulness and pleasure as if teasing these people filled his heart with joy.

Boom!

The yellow-robed old man slumped to the ground, his eyes wide opened, dead.

Tian Ya laughed and turned to Feng Ruqing. "My dear granddaughter, did you see that? That guy is an Emperor Warrior. It might have taken hours to kill him. A surprise attack from behind would be much less troublesome."

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

'Is it really a good idea for you to say that in front of the Nan family?'

Feng Ruqing looked up and saw the people from the Nan family trembling with fear in their eyes.

Elder Wei was the most powerful one among them, and now he was dead. Did they have any chance of winning here?

"As I said before if the Nan family appears in front of me again, it's not good to let them leave without giving something to them." Tian Ya sneered. "Now you only have three seconds to get out of here. After three seconds, I'll..."

Swish!

This time, everyone disappeared before Tian Ya could finish his words.

The entire spirit beast mountain became silent again.

"You follow me back." Feng Ruqing's words were not a question but a command.

The red fox hesitated. "The Nan family wants to capture me."

“But you’re Luo Li’s husband. I have the right to watch out for you on her behalf.”

The red fox was silent for a few moments. “Then, you can’t let Luo Li know what has happened to me.”

“Alright...” Feng Ruqing smiled faintly. “Luo Li did not follow you here. She probably would not have been able to come. By the way, how did you get here?”

“I...” The red fox was startled. “I promised Luo Li that I would go back and marry her when I could transform into a human. I went out on a training trip on my own, intending to improve my strength, and I accidentally got lost in a desert and fell from a cliff.”

‘A cliff?’

‘Isn’t that the way Nan Xian and I came to Land of No Return?’

“But I was lucky... I stumbled upon a relic of my ancestor and got its power, which allowed me to make a breakthrough to Advanced King Warrior tier. I guess you already know what happened later. The Nan family found me and chased me all the way to this place...”

It had not yet transformed into human form and gone back to marry Luo Li, so it would never fall into the Nan family’s hand.

Otherwise, there was no way it could go back to Luo Li for the rest of its life.

The red fox raised its head abruptly and stared at Feng Ruqing. “What about... You start a contract with me? They will not try to capture a beast that is in a contract.”

Chapter 1688: Feng Lianqing’s Sadness V

Feng Ruqing was stunned as she shook her head. “No, you’re Luo Li’s husband. I won’t start a contract with you.”

“Why?” The red fox was a little anxious. Its eyes reddened.

“Breaking the contract is somewhat troublesome. It is inconvenient for you to get married in the future...” Feng Ruqing held her forehead. “It’s better if you follow me back. It is dangerous for you to be out alone.”

The red fox lowered its head. It was somewhat disappointed, but it did not say anything else.

It had only heard from those spirit beasts in Cang Yue Mainland that it could enjoy endless benefits if it contracted with Feng Ruqing...

Who knew it might be able to reach Emperor Warrior tier? Or transform into a human without making a breakthrough?

Luo Li had been waiting for it for a long time, and it could not bear to make her wait any longer...

“Grandfather, let’s go back.”

Feng Ruqing turned to Tian Ya and said, "Nan Xian is probably still looking for me. If he can't find me, he will definitely go back to Tianling Kingdom."

Tian Ya smiled. "My dear granddaughter, call me 'grandfather' again."

"I love to hear people call me grandfather."

Feng Ruqing smiled. "I don't know how many people in this world will love to call you that, just like... Feng Lianyi..."

"Feng Lianyi?" Tian Ya sneered. "I was kind enough to take her in back then, but as a result, she bullied my granddaughter! I won't forgive her even if she dies!"

Feng Lianyi's life was a tragedy.

She was born to the wrong family.

If she were just a girl from an ordinary family, perhaps she would not have developed such a temperament.

However, she was in the Duan family. Duan Qiong hated her, and the old master Duan only saw her as a tool. Zhen Tian loved her, but if she really cared about her daughter, she would not have let her leave her hometown and stay away from the Duan family...

She also had a daughter... She could not bear to let Qing Han out of her sight, not to mention sent her to someone else to grow up with a stranger...

However...

If Feng Lianyi was determined not to let that woman use her, perhaps... Her life would not have ended so miserably...

She was too dependent on General Manor, forgetting that only with her strength she could make others respect her for the rest of her life!

Helian Manor, Tianling Kingdom.

Helian Yue was just about to walk out when she bumped into Helian Ying.

"Yue'er, are you going out?" Helian Ying smiled gently. "I just returned from General Manor. Master Lianqing doesn't seem to be in a good mood lately. I sent him some lotus seed soup, and he said it's delicious."

"Oh..." Helian Yue responded faintly, without any emotions. "You know I'm going out but are still blocking my way. Move!"

Helian Ying stiffened as she sighed lightly. "Yue'er, you must change your temperament. You don't even know how these people in Wu Shang City are judging you."

Helian Yue frowned, looking somewhat impatient.

"I don't care. They like to judge people as if they are so perfect. But who knows what they fight about in secret. Some pretend like a good brother or a good sister. Tsk, tsk... Why should I be a two-faced person like them?"

Chapter 1689: Feng Lianqing's Sadness VI

Her words were somewhat sarcastic, making Helian Ying a little embarrassed.

"Yue'er, you..."

"I have promised my aunt that I will not argue with you again. She said I'm supposed to feel guilty about you, but why are you still bothering me? Don't think that I don't know that you were the one who pushed me and tried to harm me when we were in General Manor that day."

Helian Ying's face changed dramatically. "Yue'er, what are you talking about? We're sisters. How could I do such a thing?"

Helian Yue seemed to be getting increasingly impatient; she had already said this, and Helian Ying still had not gotten out of the way!

"Helian Ying, what exactly do you want from me?"

"Oh..." Helian Ying bit her lip. "I just envied my sister for being able to know Young Lady Feng since long ago and becoming friends with her. I haven't been as lucky as you and haven't had the chance to get close to Young Lady Feng..."

"Get out of my way!"

Helian Yue could not hold her anger anymore. "Otherwise, I'll tell Xiao Qing that you're bullying me!"

Helian Ying stiffened again. She was a little reluctant but eventually moved to the side.

"Helian Ying," Helian Yue glanced at her. "You have to please Xiao Qing first before you can marry Feng Lianqing. Trust me. If Xiao Qing doesn't like somebody, Grandfather Tian Ya will never let that person enter General Manor. Feng Lianqing still feels guilty for harming Xiao Qing, and also forbids anyone she does not like to appear in General Manor.

"And I..." Helian Yue raised her chin proudly. "Xiao Qing likes me! Do you think if I say I want to marry Feng Lianqing, he will reject me again? Do you still have a chance?"

Helian Ying's face turned pale. She understood that what Helian Yue said was the truth.

"So you better not mess with me. By the way, I don't like Feng Lianqing anymore. Now I'm going to wait for Grandfather Tian Ya and Xiao Qing at the city gate. Why don't you get out of here?"

This time, Helian Ying was not in the way of stopping Helian Yue; she was filled with anger as she looked at the young girl rushing toward the door happily.

"Ying'er..."

When Yue Qin arrived, she saw Helian Ying standing in front of the gate, staring at it dumbly. Yue Qin was quite distressed and stepped forward. "Ying'er, what's wrong? Didn't you go to find Feng Lianqing? Is someone bullying you?"

Helian Ying lowered her eyes and bit her lips. "I don't understand how Helian Yue has such great luck to be so close to Tian Ya's granddaughter. Why can't I meet her?"

If it were her, maybe... She could get along better with Young Lady Feng.

After all, she was better than Helian Yue in all aspects.

"Ying'er..." Yue Qin laughed helplessly. "How many people do you think will like Helian Yue? Back then, Young Lady Feng didn't know she's a member of General Manor. Now with Young Lady Feng's identity, would she still be friends with such an uneducated and unreasonable girl?"

Helian Ying was silent.

Yue Qin continued, "Tian Ya is nice to Helian Yue because your grandfather loves Helian Yue the most, and Tian Ya respects him. As for Young Lady Feng being friends with her... You don't have to worry about this. How many people in Wu Shang City can stand Helian Yue? She's annoying."

"Really?" Only then did Helian Ying quietly let out a sigh of relief. "Mother, just now Helian Yue said that Young Lady Feng likes her very much, and if she said she wants to marry Feng Lianqing, he would definitely accept her."

Chapter 1690: Feng Lianqing's Sadness VII

"Hehe..." Yue Qin sneered. "She can only dream that. Everyone in Wu Shang City knows Master Lianqing hates her. Marry her? Ridiculous! Moreover, you are much better than Helian Yue. You can slowly approach Young Lady Feng, and if she likes you, Master Lianqing will definitely marry you."

Helian Ying's eyes lit up. She could already imagine the moment Feng Lianqing and her getting married... She giggled.

"Oh, Mother, just now Helian Yue said that she was supposed to feel guilty about me. What was that all about? Is it because Father neglected me for her?" Helian Ying looked at Yue Qin blankly. "I guess Helian Yue is not someone who would feel guilty about this."

The emotions in Yue Qin's eyes changed slightly. She clenched her fists tightly, and her gaze was cold.

"Ying'er, I didn't want to tell you this at first, but... Your father has an affair with Tian Tian, and Helian Yue is his daughter!"

Helian Ying's face turned pale, and her breathing grew heavier. "What did you just say?"

"The two of them have long been living together. Helian Yue is just a slut like her mother. She took your father from you." Yue Qin sneered as she said.

Helian Ying stumbled back, somewhat unable to stand upright. Her eyes were filled with shock and... Pain.

“He lied to me! He said he was nice to Helian Yue because our family owed Helian Yue, and now... Hahaha! He lied to me! And beat me for Helian Yue!” Helian Ying gritted her teeth viciously. Her eyes were filled with hatred. “Helian Yue should indeed feel guilty toward me because she owes me a lot!”

Yue Qin lowered her eyes, smirking.

‘Helian Yufei, you’re the one who chose to abandon my daughter and me, so don’t blame me for making our daughter hate you!’

“Ying’er, you must never let your grandfather and your father know about this matter.” Yue Qin raised her head and held Helian Ying’s trembling hand. “Your grandfather is old. He would fall ill if he knew about it. I know your grandfather is always siding Helian Yue, but he is still your grandfather.

“As for your father... If you question him, he won’t admit it, and maybe he might get mad and leave us. You don’t want your father to be Helian Yue’s father, do you?”

Initially, Helian Ying could not control her desire to question Helian Yufei, but when she heard Yue Qin’s words, she stopped in her tracks, and she was breathing fast and heavy with rage.

Her father had not cared about her since she was young and had always favored Helian Yue. She had already been disappointed in him, and she did not expect him to go overboard and do something like this.

‘How dare you take my father away from me? I’m going to make you an orphan without a father or mother!’

“Mother, I understand. I won’t go to Father.”

Helian Ying took a deep breath, her eyes filled with resentment.

Seeing that Helian Ying had given up the urge to go to Helian Yufei, Yue Qin was also subconsciously relieved.

If Helian Ying really went and made a big scene in front of the old master Helian, her lies might be revealed...

However, this was not her fault. She had not been bad to Helian Yue all these years, so the debt had been repaid. Why should she have to repay the debt for the rest of her life just because Tian Tian and her husband lost their lives to save her and Ying’er?