

Overbearing 1761

Chapter 1761: The Silver Snake Queen

"Ninth Emperor, who is she?"

Little Soul frowned. He stared at the woman lying on the ground, and somehow... There was a familiar feeling...

A bright silver light surrounded Xiao Ya, wrapped around her body.

Suddenly, the woman lying in Tang Yin's arms disappeared and was replaced by a silver snake...

Little Soul's eyes were wide open. His breathing grew heavy.

'A silver snake? Wait a minute, how many silver snakes were there around the Ninth Emperor back then?'

"So it's Silver Snake Queen?" The woman in green was shocked to see Xiao Ya on the ground and sneered. "The beastman's mother is the Queen of Silver Snakes. It seems that you are destined to have such a body."

"Shut up!"

Tian Ya shouted furiously and rushed toward her again.

Little Soul clenched his fists tightly. His handsome face became even paler.

However, at this time, no one knew what he was thinking about...

"Qing Han, is there any way to save her?" Feng Ruqing's voice was trembling as if she had an overflow of uncontrollable sadness.

She seemed to recall that day, in the back mountain of Gu Manor... They had met for the first time, but it was as if they had known each other for a long time...

Xiao Ya had stayed by her side since that day...

"Qing Han!" Feng Ruqing shouted again.

"Mother..." Qing Han's eyes were red as she lowered her head. "I was too stupid to understand these things. I'm useless... I can't help Mother."

Feng Ruqing closed her eyes slowly...

A familiar voice that sounded like it was thousands of years old rushed into her mind and echoed for a long time...

"Little Silver Snake, today you are lucky to meet me. In the future, you will just follow me."

"No, my father is sick, and I have come to find medicine to go back and cure him."

“Then, will you take me to see him? When your father is cured, you will come with me. I have many spirit beasts under my command, but only one pet snake is missing ...”

“Little Silver Snake, you’re so naughty. You went out alone when you’re still weak, and they had almost killed you. Fortunately, when I went to Tianling Clan some time ago, they gave me the clan’s most precious treasure. Eat this Holy Spirit Flower, and from then on, you will become immortal and stay young forever. When you get better, I will bring you along to kill those people...”

‘Immortal?’

Feng Ruqing regained her senses. “Xiao Ya won’t die... She can’t die.”

Xiao Ya...

A monster that had lived for a thousand years.

She was an immortal creature...

Qing Han looked at Feng Ruqing pitifully.

‘Mother must be so sad... Xiao Ya was stabbed in the heart, and she is not breathing anymore. How could she... Not die?’

‘It’s all because I’m useless.’

Qing Han’s eyes were filled with guilt, and she looked at the silver snake in the pool of blood with grief.

Chapter 1762: Big Doggie? I

The silver snake was lying quietly in Tang Yin’s arms.

Feng Ruqing touched its body and closed her eyes.

Only after a few moments later did she open them.

“Xiao Ya is still alive!”

Tang Yin turned to Feng Ruqing, shocked. “Then, my mother... She...”

“She recalls that she had taken something back then that had made her immortal... Something that only works on spirit beasts...”

Feng Ruqing remembered that the Tianling Clan’s treasure that the Ninth Emperor took out was for spirit beasts, not humans.

And...

There was no guarantee for its effectiveness.

Fortunately, it worked on the silver snake!

"Perhaps, she's resting now to heal her wounds. Don't worry. She's not going to die. You have to wait for some time for her to wake up. Everything will be fine once she has woken up."

That was the only thing she could remember...

Feng Ruqing frowned and caressed her temples.

Tang Yin trembled; there was a hint of hope in her eyes.

"Xiao Qing, what you've just said just now... Is it true?"

"Xiao Yin, if you trust me, then you have to take care of her... Body."

Tang Yin dropped her eyes and pursed her lips. "I trust you because you are Xiao Qing, and... I want her to live."

Even if there was only a glimmer of hope...

No one knew that she had lived without a mother since she was a child, and even if the old master Tang was nice to her, what she missed the most was a mother's love that she never had.

She had just met her mother and did not want to lose the love she had never gotten to enjoy for years...

Feng Ruqing raised her eyes and looked at the woman in green in the sky coldly, endless anger swarming out. "Little Soul! Kill her!"

Little Soul withdrew his gaze from the silver snake, his heart beating fast.

Then, he looked up to the sky, and in a flash, he was already in front of the woman in green.

She was arrogant just now, but her face changed dramatically as she felt the energy coming from Little Soul.

"Who are you?"

Little Soul sneered. His energy was as dark as darkness itself. It was as if he was coming from hell.

Tian Ya looked at Little Soul and frowned, but he did not say much.

The woman panicked.

All her confidence was gone when she faced these two men simultaneously, and now she was filled with fear.

Boom!

Taking advantage of the woman's panic, Little Soul moved behind her and smashed her back hard.

She had already been injured when dealing with Tian Ya, but after receiving this blow, she fell from the sky and landed on the ground, spurting blood and staining the ground red.

A pair of feet appeared in front of her.

Her face was pale, she raised her head stiffly, and her eyes fell upon Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing stared at her and asked coldly, "Who sent you?"

The woman bit her lip hard, refusing to say a word.

She would rather die than say anything about Nine Gate!

Chapter 1763: Big Doggie? II

"You don't want to say, right?" Feng Ruqing turned to the huge pot floating in the sky and sneered.

"Little Pot, can you control this woman?"

Buzz!

The huge pot spun excitedly.

The woman had done evil things, but she was not completely bad...

Such people still could be controlled by it.

"Good. Then, I'll ask you again... After controlling her, can you turn her back to normal?" Feng Ruqing remained expressionless.

The huge pot buzzed.

It was not difficult for it to turn her back to normal...

"That's great. If she becomes my slave, she will only obey me. No matter how much I torture her, she won't feel any pain. Therefore, I want her to stay alive and suffer all the pain!"

Hearing the young girl's words, the woman panicked and trembled harder.

Her eyes were overflowing with fear.

The huge pot no longer gave her time. It threw the lid away and swallowed the woman whole.

The woman did not even have a chance to shout, and all sounds disappeared.

The courtyard went silent.

However, this silence lasted no more than three seconds before the huge pot lifted its lid and spat the woman out again.

This time, the woman was not as arrogant as before. Her eyes were dull and lifeless, and her expression was respectful. "Master..."

Nine Gate's men were all dumbfounded, not knowing exactly what Feng Ruqing had done to her to make her so submissive.

Feng Ruqing walked toward the woman and sneered. "Tell me, what is your name."

"My name is Zhang Qinle."

Zhang Qinle!

The name made Rong Qi stunned. He then looked at her in shock. "Impossible! I've seen Zhang Qinle before. She doesn't look like this. Does she have the same name?"

He could not believe that this woman was from Nine Gate.

Nine Gate had no grudge against Tian Ya!

Zhang Qinle replied respectfully, "I've consumed some medicine to change my face."

Feng Ruqing's eyes were filled with murderous intent. "Which force do you come from? Why did you kidnap my daughter?"

Zhang Qinle raised her head and said, "I'm a member of Nine Gate. I've received an order from Master Yan Luo to bring that little girl to Nine Gate so she can cultivate and become stronger."

Nine Gate!

Endless anger surged into her heart, making Feng Ruqing even more furious.

'How dare Nine Gate comes to General Manor and kidnap my daughter!'

"So killing Tang Yin and Xiao Ya was also a task from Nine Gate?"

"No, Master told me not to harm General Tian Ya's people. But that woman is a beastman, and I was trying to..."

Bang!

Feng Ruqing did not bother to listen to her any longer and kicked her, sending her flying out and falling into the crowd.

"Little Pot, released her."

The little pot buzzed and flew to Zhang Qinle, swallowing her whole before spitting her out again after half a moment.

Zhang Qinle looked confused, and it took a long time for her to regain her clarity gradually.

Although Zhang Qinle was under control just now, she still knew what had happened before. Her face was pale with fear, and she looked frightened.

'I've told her everything just now?'

Feng Ruqing walked up to Zhang Qinle. She held a sword in her hand, the sword light flashed, slicing Zhang Qinle's arm.

Chapter 1764: Big Doggie? III

The blood flowed out and stained the ground red.

"My sword is poisonous, and when the poison has entered your bones, you will feel great pain, and you will only die after forty-nine days. Grandfather, watch her. I'm going to find Xia Xia."

When he heard that the person who came was from Nine Gate, Tian Ya never said another word.

His face darkened, and no one could see what he was thinking about...

It was not until Feng Ruqing's voice sounded that he gradually regained his senses, "Alright. After you bring Xia Xia back, we'll go to Nine Gate together! And this woman, when the time comes, take her to Nine Gate! Let them see what will happen to her."

Xia Xia was like a precious treasure in General Manor.

Everyone loved her so much.

But now, someone dared to barge into General Manor and took that little treasure away.

No one could accept it!

Feng Ruqing spoke no more, turned around, and headed out of General Manor.

In a deep forest on a silent mountain...

A beautiful silver wolf lay in a pond, it kept its eyes closed, and there was a faint light lingering around it.

Perhaps it was sleeping so soundly, but suddenly a piercing cry came. It opened its eyes slowly, somewhat annoyed...

It shook its body, climbed out of the pool, and walked to the place where the cry came from.

In a deep forest, Mo Shuang held a little girl in her hands, her eyes full of impatience and puzzlement.

"Why must Master ask us to take this little girl? It looks like this little girl is useless. She is only a spoiled girl with a pretty face but so annoying."

This little girl was indeed beautiful. Her eyes were filled with tears, which made people feel a little pity for her.

"Master has his reason for doing so, but this is the first time I've done this kind of thing." Mo Xia sighed helplessly.

The little girl in her arms pouted pitifully and said, "It's wrong to kidnap a child..."

Mo Xia laughed. "This little girl is only two years old, but she already knew to say such words. She's not as simple as we thought. Let's go. We have to rush back. Otherwise, Tian Ya and his men might catch us."

"Alright..."

Mo Shuang pursed her lips and said no more, turned around, and wanted to leave.

However...

The little girl bit Mo Shuang's hand, and she accidentally let go of her hand because of the pain.

Xia Xia fell to the ground.

Xia Xia pulled a funny face at Mo Shuang and ran, but she accidentally tripped and fell to the ground. She hurt her knees and suddenly started to cry.

Mo Shuang's expression darkened. If it were not for her master, who asked her to take care of this little girl, she probably would have beaten her hard...

"Be careful next time. This girl's teeth are a bit powerful, unlike a two-year-old girl... Don't put your hand near her mouth."

Mo Xia smiled and walked toward Xia Xia.

Chapter 1765: Big Doggie? IV

Perhaps because she was worried that she would never be able to go back, Xia Xia immediately stood up and ran forward, shouting and crying...

Her steps were unsteady, so she lost her balance and fell. Her face turned pale.

However... She did not feel any pain...

The little girl opened her eyes and felt something soft and comfortable beneath her.

She looked down, and their eyes met.

It had such beautiful eyes, shining like stars, so beautiful that they were hard to ignore.

"Get down!"

The silver wolf stared at her coldly.

The little girl, however, was not afraid at all. She caressed its soft fur with both hands smilingly, completely forgetting the fear and panic she had felt just now.

"Big Doggie!"

The silver wolf's face darkened. "I am a wolf."

"Big Doggie, catch them! They want to kidnap me!"

'Kidnap?'

The silver wolf frowned and turned to the women coldly.

Mo Shuang sneered. "Hand over the child."

The silver wolf was stunned.

He looked down at the little girl lying in its embrace. It hesitated.

All these years in this place, it had never been in contact with outsiders, nor did he like to meddle in others' business...

But...

The little girl's bright smile somehow softened its heart...

It turned to look at the Mo sisters.

"Go away. I want this child."

Mo Xia panicked. Tian Ya might have returned by now, and he would catch up with them soon, so they could not stay longer here...

"Mo Shuang, we must settle this wolf as soon as possible. I have a feeling that Tian Ya and his men are on their way here."

Mo Shuang did not say a word, and in just a split second, she was already pouncing onto the silver wolf's head.

The silver wolf could easily dodge this attack with its big paw, but the moment it wanted to make a move, it suddenly glanced at the little girl sitting on its back.

In that one moment of hesitation, Mo Shuang was already in front of it, so it did not even have the time to dodge. It hurriedly pulled the little girl off its back, protecting her under his big body.

Bang!

A punch landed on the silver wolf's back, and he spurted out a mouthful of blood that stained the ground where he was born.

"Big Doggie?"

Looking at the mouthful of blood spat by the silver wolf, the little girl's mouth fell open, and tears rolled down.

The silver wolf was speechless. It was the one who was injured, why was the girl crying? Did it hurt her just now?

"Big Doggie..." The little girl raised her hand, touched the silver wolf's head, and asked gently, "Does it hurt?"

The silver wolf was startled. Its heart ached as it looked into the little girl's eyes...

'Such eyes should be for laughing, not crying!'

"Sit still." The silver wolf placed the little girl on its back.

"Alright..." The little girl smiled, but tears were still in her eyes.

After it made sure that Xia Xia was sitting firmly on its back, it roared and rushed toward Mo Shuang...

Chapter 1766: Big Doggie? V

This time, it did not even dodge Mo Shuang's attack. It bit Mo Shuang's arm with its sharp teeth.

"Ahhh!"

The pain made Mo Shuang scream shrilly; her face turned pale.

Mo Xia was so shocked that she hurriedly drew her longsword and rushed toward the silver wolf.

The silver wolf had sharp eyes and was even faster. It took a few steps back to avoid this attack.

Mo Xia did not stop moving and continued attacking the silver wolf, each time faster than the last, and the attack became fiercer.

“Go, Big Doggie!”

Xia Xia lay on the silver wolf’s back smilingly. She lowered her head and kissed the silver wolf’s head.

Her mother usually kissed her like that to encourage her. She thought that if she kissed the silver wolf, it would make it more powerful...

However, the kiss was like an electric shock to the silver wolf. It stiffened for a moment and was unable to react...

Until it saw Mo Xia rushing toward it, that was when the silver wolf regained its senses and fought back.

The silver wolf was strong and fast. However, it was alone after all, and it had to face two skilled masters.

Therefore, when it pushed the Mo sisters back a few steps, it backed up, too.

A wolf’s howl shook the forest and the entire mountain as it echoed for a long time.

Mo Shuang’s face changed dramatically. “It is the king, and it is calling the other wolves!”

Wolves were the worst of all the spirit beasts because wolves were always in packs, and if one were to provoke one, they would be attacked by a pack of them.

Mo Xia had already intended to retreat, but thinking that Nine Gate would undoubtedly punish them for losing this little girl, she held back for a while, panicking.

Suddenly, wolf howls rang out as if responding to the wolf king, and a moment later, wolves emerged from all directions and surrounded the Mo sisters.

“Kill them!” the silver wolf spat coldly.

However, just after it said these words, it subconsciously looked at the little girl sitting on its back, afraid that it would scare her.

Fortunately, the little girl played with its fur and did not seem to notice what it said. It sighed relief and walked, stumbling, into the forest.

“Big Doggie, my mother has a spirit herb that can cure your wound.”

“I’m fine.”

“Really?”

“Yes...”

The silver wolf responded softly, “And... I’m not a dog. You have to leave some respect for me.”

“Big Doggie...”

The little girl smiled, her voice was so pleasant...

The night had come alive, spreading darkness across the mountain.

When it reached a pond, it put the little girl down and whispered, “You can sleep here tonight while waiting for your family to come and take you back.”

“Alright...”

The little girl smiled brightly and grabbed its fur. “Big Doggie, sleep with me...”

The silver wolf frowned. It wanted to leave, but it felt uneasy about leaving the little girl here alone, so it lay down.

“Sleep...”

“Mmm...”

The little girl used the silver wolf as a pillow. She leaned back, facing the cold moonlight.

“Big Doggie, I miss my mother.” The little girl’s mouth was slightly parted, and she was on the verge of crying again.

Chapter 1767: Big Doggie? VI

Her big eyes were watery.

“Big Doggie, why don’t you tell me a story? Mother always tells me a story before I sleep.”

‘Tell a story?’

The silver wolf was a bit embarrassed, but when it saw the little girl’s big, watery eyes, its heart softened. “Alright... Once upon a time, there was a mountain, and... There was a silver wolf living in the mountain...”

“No, it’s a big dog.”

The silver wolf was speechless.

“Fine... There was a big dog living in the mountain...”

The moonlight was clear and cold.

It enveloped the whole mountain, poured, falling upon the little girl’s fair and soft skin.

The silver wolf finally stopped the story. It lowered its eyes, looking at the little girl’s teary eyes. It then stretched out its tongue gently and wiped her tears.

“Little human girl is troublesome...”

The silver wolf sighed lightly and pulled the little girl into its arms, warming her with its embrace, afraid that the wind would make her catch a cold...

This night, the silver wolf could not sleep well.

The little girl kept rolling here and there and almost rolled off to the ground, so it could only watch the little girl unblinkingly.

Fortunately, the day came quickly. Soon, dawn came, and the sunlight slowly lit up the whole mountain...

A few days had passed, the little girl followed the silver wolf, eating and drinking well, and even sleeping was very comfortable.

However, she did not know that people were frantically searching for her out there.

At the foot of the mountain, Feng Ruqing rushed forward, panicking. She looked at Fu Chen and Nan Xian, asking anxiously, "Have you found Xia Xia?"

A few days ago, Fu Chen followed the Mo sister to this mountain, but he had lost their tracks.

Nan Xian and Feng Ruqing chased after them, but this place was so huge and dark, it was not easy to find them.

However...

This was not the way to Nine Gate...

Perhaps, those people were afraid of exposing Nine Gate, so they went here to trick Fu Chen...

There was no road at the end of the valley, and they had to go down the mountain if they wanted to go to Nine Gate.

Fu Chen pursed his lips. "We found two dead bodies on the mountain, but Little Sister is not there."

'Dead bodies?'

Feng Ruqing was stunned. "The two people who took Xia Xia away are dead?"

"Yes, dead... They seemed to have been bitten by a spirit beast. I guess... Little Sister has been taken away by a spirit beast."

Feng Ruqing suddenly felt weak and almost stumbled to the ground. Her face was pale as she said, "Since they are dead, there's no use to look around here. I will go with you to search in the mountains. I must find her!"

Fu Chen lowered his eyes and did not speak.

He tried to search with his spiritual power but still could not find his little sister. He did not know where she was taken to...

Or perhaps, when the spirit beast fought with those two, she snuck away?

Feng Ruqing did not say anymore and rushed up to the mountain with Nan Xian behind her.

Chapter 1768: Big Doggie? VII

In the deep valley...

It was silent, as usual.

The scenery was so beautiful.

A wolf king walked with its pack arrogantly, and there was a cute and pretty little girl with fair and soft skin next to it, following it with a smile.

"Cough!" the wolf king coughed lowly. It wanted to cough more but endured it as it did not want the little girl to notice it.

However, the little girl was quite sensitive. She turned to look at the wolf king. "Big Doggie, is the injury still not healed?"

"I'm not a big dog."

The little girl pursed her lips, and her eyes were filled with tears; she looked like she would cry in the next moment. "Big Doggie?"

The wolf king looked at the little girl, who was about to cry. Its heart somehow ached. "Woof..."

The little girl laughed out loud. She hugged the wolf king's head and kissed it.

"I like you, Big Doggie!"

In that instant, the wolf king's heart softened, and it stared at the little girl gently.

A few days might mean nothing to other people.

However, to the wolf king, these few days... Meant so much to it...

Perhaps from the moment they met, they were destined to have unbreakable ties in the future, a lifetime of destiny.

"Big Doggie, if I go back, will you miss me?" The little girl bit her finger and looked at the wolf king pitifully.

The wolf king pondered for a moment. "I guess I will..."

"Then, you must come to me." The little girl pulled the wolf king's paws, pouted.

The wolf king squatted down and licked the little girl's brow.

Xia Xia rubbed her brow and looked at the wolf king with a puzzled face.

"In the future, no matter where you are, I will always go to you."

This was the agreement between the wolf king and her.

"Yes..."

The little girl smiled as brightly as the sun in the sky, which instantly shone into the wolf king's heart.

At that moment, it felt its heart warming up, just like spring.

Looking at the little girl's smile, the wolf king gradually lowered its head, afraid that if it looked at her again, it would only be more reluctant to let her go.

'It's alright... When I've recovered, I'll go to her...'

However, the wolf king probably never thought that after this separation, the next time it would meet that little girl again would be ten years later...

It engraved her firmly in its memory and would never forget her.

Her smile was the only light in its dark days.

She was the light of its life...

Xia Xia smiled brightly. She let go of the wolf king's head and ran happily, bouncing and jumping.

The wolf king followed behind her, looking at her with a gentle gaze that it had never had before.

It seemed that its heart softened just by looking at this adorable little girl.

"Xia Xia!"

A familiar voice made Xia Xia stop. She raised her head and saw Feng Ruqing's anxious face.

A figure in red dress rushed toward her quickly. She was like the wind; in a moment, she was already in front of Xia Xia, pulling Xia Xia firmly into her arms.

"Mother!" Xia Xia smiled brightly.

Chapter 1769: Big Doggie? VIII

Feng Ruqing trembled as she hugged the little girl in her arms tightly. She was afraid that once she let her go, her daughter would be snatched away again.

"Xia Xia... I have finally found you."

No one knew that when Xia Xia was gone during these few days, she had spent days like years. The whole thing felt like a nightmare.

Only the moment she saw her daughter, her heart was finally relieved...

Nan Xian walked forward and pulled the mother and daughter into his arms, hugging them gently but not saying a word.

He never liked to say much and would only use his strength to give them a good life.

"Little Sister..."

Fu Chen's tears were falling like rain.

'It's been a few days, and it's so great that we finally found you...'

He wiped the tears from the corner of his eyes, walked to Feng Ruqing's side, raised his hand, and placed it on the woman's back. "It's alright. We've found Little Sister."

Feng Ruqing did not let go of the little girl in her arms for a long time.

Xia Xia felt a little suffocated, but she understood how panicked her mother was, so she did not push Feng Ruqing and let her hug her tightly in the arms.

"Xia Xia, were you scared? Did those people bully you?"

"No. It was Big Doggie who saved me."

Xia Xia smiled a bright, innocent smile. She turned back, smiling, and her smile suddenly disappeared.

"Huh? Where's Big Doggie?"

"What's wrong?" Nan Xin frowned, but his voice was gentle.

Xia Xia bit her lips as tears started flowing down.

'Big Doggie doesn't want me?

'Liar! It said it would come to me!'

"Xia Xia!" Feng Ruqing panicked and quickly checked Xia Xia's body. "Are you injured? Tell me where it hurts."

Xia Xia had cried only a few times since she was a child, and now seeing her crying like this, Feng Ruqing was panicked and scared.

Xia Xia wiped the tears on her face with the back of her hand and brought her head closer to Feng Ruqing.

"Mother, I missed you."

Feng Ruqing's heart melted at that moment. She raised her hand to hold the little girl's and turned to Nan Xian. "Nan Xian, let's go back first. I still have to check Xia Xia again."

"Alright..."

Nan Xian nodded. He turned to look behind him before he left.

His gaze fell upon the patch of grass not far away. Feng Ruqing still worried about Xia Xia and did not notice anything there.

Only a few moments later did Nan Xian turn around and walk away, following Feng Ruqing.

After they left, a figure came out of the grass.

The wolf king stood at the spot where Xia Xia stood earlier; its eyes fixed upon the back of the little girl leaving the mountain.

When the figure had completely disappeared, it fell to the ground, collapsing under the setting sun...

All these years, it had hidden in the pond to heal its body, and a few days ago, to protect the little girl, it was severely injured by Mo Shuang.

Therefore...

Due to the injury, it could not deal with the Mo sisters alone. It had to call the wolf pack to kill them. The wolf king was already seriously injured, and it did not have enough strength to fight with humans.

Chapter 1770: Big Doggie? IX

These days, it tried to hide its pain while accompanying the little girl, and after the little girl left, it could not hold on anymore and fell to the ground.

However, even as it fell to the ground, it was still looking closely in the direction where Xia Xia had left.

Time seemed to stop at this moment. The light of the setting sun enveloped the silver wolf's body...

This place suddenly went silent after the little left.

The wolf king... It looked so lonely...

After Feng Ruqing had found Xia Xia, she did not stay on any longer and quickly took Xia Xia back to General Manor.

Zhang Qinle had a horrible time these days; her life was worse than death.

Initially, she thought she had given so much to get Xia Xia back for Nine Gate, but after looking at Feng Ruqing, who appeared with Xia Xia in her arms, her face changed dramatically, and her gaze was full of panic.

"You..."

"Bad woman!" Xia Xia raised her small fist angrily. "Mother, this is that bad woman who wanted to take me away!"

Feng Ruqing's face was cold when she walked in with Xia Xia in her arms, heading toward Zhang Qinle. "You still haven't told me why Nine Gate wants to take Xia Xia? What do you want from her?"

Zhang Qinle sneered. "Maiden Feng, you are surrounded by a lot of people. There's a beastman here and... The Holy Maiden of Tianling Clan..."

'Tianling Clan?'

Feng Ruqing frowned.

"You know Tianling Clan?"

Zhang Qinle smirked. "It seems that you also know about Tianling Clan."

Feng Ruqing's face darkened. She walked up to Zhang Qinle and kicked her viciously.

Zhang Qinle crashed onto the dungeon wall before falling to the ground and spurring a mouthful of blood.

These pains were nothing to her compared to the pain in her broken arm.

All she wanted now was to die, not to live like this!

“There’s no way for you to live peacefully if your daughter is related to Tianling Clan. Hahaha! Others will come to you if they know about your daughter. Feng Ruqing, if you had known that she would bring so many disasters, would you still have given birth to her?”

Feng Ruqing stepped forward, picked Zhang Qinle with one hand, and slammed her down hard.

“Are you trying to provoke me so that I will kill you?” Feng Ruqing sneered as she looked down at Zhang Qinle on the ground. “Never. If I am angry, I will only make you suffer more and will never let you die!”

Zhang Qinle panicked and shouted horrifyingly, “You’re a demon! A demon! Why won’t you kill me? Kill me! Please... Kill me!”

Such a life was worse than death. She no longer wanted to live; she only wanted to die.

In the next life, she won’t work for Nine Gate again. She would never provoke such a devil again!

Zhang Qinle still did not know what she had done wrong. Nine Gate asked her to bring Xia Xia to them without hurting anyone. However, she had hurt Tang Yin and almost killed Xiao Ya.

Of course, just by the fact that she wanted to steal Xia Xia, Feng Ruqing would not even let her die quickly.

“I beg you to kill me, please...”

Zhang Qinle trembled, and her face showed fear.

She looked at Feng Ruqing like she was looking at the devil...

“I’ve said that... I will make your life worse than death, and I won’t let you die so easily.”