Chapter 1781: The Old Master is Dying IV

When Nan Fang said this, energy also gradually surged from him.

Suyi sneered. "You know the truth better than anyone else!"

"I do know better than anyone else, but I still respect you, Suyi. After all, everyone here already knows all that happened back then."

Hearing these words, those elders all snorted as they regained their senses from the shock they had just felt.

The old master wanted to marry his daughter to Nan Fang back then. However, his daughter was too rebellious and got together with a servant boy, making the old master so angry that he took ill in bed for years.

Not only that, his daughter was so rude to the old master that he had disowned her.

All people in Nan City knew about this matter. Her reputation was ruined, so she left Nan City and had never returned since.

"And what would happen if I insist on going in?" Suyi did not bother to argue.

Perhaps she had long understood that it was useless to argue with this man.

Nan Fang frowned and replied gently, "Suyi, stop it."

Wei Rong's face darkened as she heard Nan Fang's voice.

"My dear husband, what are you waiting for? Suyi will not stop until she gets what she wants. If you still care about the old master, you should throw Suyi out! Don't let her cause any more trouble in the Nan family."

Nan Fang was silent as his eyes were still fixed upon Suyi's face.

Suddenly, the white phoenix waved its wings, sending a violent gust of wind at Nan Fang.

Nan Fang sneered. He raised his hand, and in an instant, the gust of wind changed direction and flew back at the white phoenix.

"White Phoenix!"

Suyi's face changed dramatically.

Fortunately, the white phoenix moved fast enough and dodged the attack. However, the wind hit the wall behind it, destroying everything...

Suyi's face turned cold. 'It seems like Nan Fang has become stronger...

'But no matter how strong Nan Fang is, I must meet Father for the last time!'

Suyi gripped the long sword in her hand tightly, and in a flash, she was already in front of Nan Fang...

The sky in the entire Nan City was covered with dark clouds.

When Feng Ruqing and Nan Xian walked into Nan City, they found that the city was unusually quiet...

"Stop!"

The guard at the city gate stopped Feng Ruqing and asked expressionlessly. "Which family are you from in Nan City? Do you have a token?"

"A token?" Feng Ruqing looked at the guard coldly.

"Yes, you must have a token to enter Nan City."

"Oh..."

Feng Ruqing answered faintly. Suddenly, she raised her fist and slammed it down upon the guard's chest, sending him flying away with a single punch.

"Is this enough?"

She smirked as she slowly passed the city gate.

The guard got up from the ground and wanted to say something. However, Feng Ruqing simply walked over him and stepped on him, almost making him vomit a mouthful of blood.

The guard's face darkened.

"You..."

He turned back angrily and was about to curse, but a powerful burst of force came fiercely at him and spread in his body. He then spurted a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground.

Chapter 1782: The Old Master is Dying V

The moment he fell down, he saw a handsome man in a white dress slowly withdrawing his hand.

He acted like nothing happened as he calmly walked past him. His face was cold and expressionless.

"Mother..." Xia Xia turned to Feng Ruqing; her eyes seemed to shine like there were stars in them. She smiled brightly as she asked, "Will we see Grandmother soon?"

"Yes..."

Feng Ruqing smiled gently as Suyi's face appeared in her mind.

'It's been two years...'

In the blink of an eye, she had left Cang Yue Mainland and had not seen them for two years.

She did not expect Suyi to come to Land of No Return.

Xia Xia smiled and lowered her head. "But, I have not prepared any gifts for Grandmother..."

"It's alright..." Feng Ruqing touched Xia Xia's cute little nose. "You'll get a gift from her."

"Great!" Xia Xia giggled. "Will it be food?"

"Hmm... It might be some phoenix soup..."

Feng Ruqing smiled. 'That white phoenix can't leave Suyi alone. So, no matter where Suyi goes, it will definitely follow her...'

Nan Suyi took a few steps back, blood dripping from the corner of her mouth...

The white phoenix looked down at Suyi, surrounded by the people from the Nan family. She looked so lonely as if everyone was against her, and she had always been alone...

At that moment, the white phoenix's heart ached a little more for her.

'Suyi is a good woman. Why is there always someone bullying her?

'Mu Ling bullied her, and now the Nan family...

'She doesn't deserve to be treated like this!'

Blood spurted from Suyi's arm, staining the white phoenix's eyelids red.

Its eyes gradually turned red, and a loud phoenix's caw, carrying sorrow and anger, echoed in the sky.

Nan Xian suddenly stopped in his tracks and looked in the direction where the phoenix's caw was coming from. His handsome face changed dramatically.

"Is that... The white phoenix?" Feng Ruqing panicked. "Suyi and the white phoenix must be in danger. Let's go!"

She picked up Xia Xia, and in the blink of an eye, she was already in the sky not far away...

The white phoenix rushed toward the crowd with deep anger and hatred, wanting to burn all these people.

Nan Fang raised his eyes and saw a sizzling fireball rushing toward him. His face changed dramatically, and he quickly took a few steps back.

He then took out his long sword to block the flying white phoenix.

The white phoenix's energy grew a little too much, causing Nan Fang's face to darken.

"White Phoenix?" Suyi was stunned as she looked at the angry white phoenix.

White Phoenix turned to Suyi and said, "Go to Old Master Nan. Quickly! I'll hold everyone off for you."

"But, you..."

“Suyi, from the day we met, I swore that I would never let anyone bully you again, be it Mu Ling or anyone else. Do whatever you want to do. I can block them for you.”

‘If there is a violent storm, then I will use my body to block it for you. I only wish to give you a clear sky...

Chapter 1783: The Old Master is Dying VI

“Go!!!”

The white phoenix swung its claw at Nan Fang. Its eyes were now filled with murderous intent, and it was no longer as innocent as before.

Suyi looked at the white phoenix again before quickly running toward the courtyard.

Nan Luo hurriedly chased after her. “Aunt Suyi, I know where Grandfather is. I’ll take you there.”

“Nan Luo!”

Wei Rong’s face changed dramatically as she snapped, “What are you doing there? Get out of here!”

However...

Nan Luo ignored Wei Rong and ran in, bringing Suyi to Old Master Nan.

Nan Fang did not say anything as he thought what Nan Luo had done was not totally bad. At least, her daughter would gain Suyi’s trust...

Then, everything would be worth it.

He never felt that Nan Luo would betray him because, after all, Nan Luo was his daughter; she would always listen to him. Moreover, Nan Luo was not very important in the Nan family; nothing would change whether she was there or not...

Nan Luo quickly stood in front of Suyi. Seeing Suyi accepting her help to lead the way, Nan Luo let out a soft sigh in relief and smiled.

‘This time, Aunt Suyi will definitely forgive and accept me again.’

She had betrayed her parents for Suyi.

Suyi indeed did not refuse Nan Luo’s help as she desperately wanted to meet her father. She only hoped to see him as soon as possible and no longer cared about anything else.

However...

The moment Suyi pushed open the door, her heart ached, and her tears almost fell.

She suddenly remembered twenty years ago when her long-lost father walked up to her and asked her if she would like to go home with him.

The man’s tall and strong figure was imprinted in her mind and never forgotten.

However, only after twenty years, he had become so old... So old that she was a little afraid to face him...

"Father..."

Suyi stroked the old man's head that was full of white hair, gently. Tears fell; even her hands were trembling.

Hearing her voice, the old master opened his eyes and saw Suyi in front of him. His eyes lit up.

'Suyi... My daughter...'

"Father, your daughter has been unfilial. I got here too late... Please forgive me."

Suyi's voice cracked. Her hand trembled hard as she held the old master's dry, old hand, trying to help him up from the bed.

"I'll take you away. I'll take you to Qing'er. She must have a way to save you."

The old master stretched out his hand, trying to wipe away the tears on his daughter's face. His lips trembled, and tears slid down his cheeks.

'It's too late...

'Too late!'

He was dying now, and no one could save him.

However, he was so grateful to see his daughter for the last time before he died.

The Nan family was not safe anymore. She should not come back...

The old master grabbed Suyi's hand and slowly wrote a word on her palm.

Run.

'Run as far away as possible and never come back!'

Suyi held the old master's hand tightly. "Father, why are you writing to me? Why aren't you saying anything?"

The old master opened his mouth, but his throat, except for coughing, could not make any other sound.

"Nan Fang did this... It's his doing, isn't it?" Suyi's eyes were filled with anger as if they could burn everything down. "This ungrateful beast, did he already forget where he came from? If you hadn't adopted him back then, he would not have survived until today, but... He has treated you like this and gone against you!"

Chapter 1784: The Old Master is Dying VII

Suyi's voice was a little hoarse, and she could not stop sobbing.

'If I had not left back then, would all things have been different?

'Father would not have had to suffer like this...'

It was her selfishness back then that harmed the only person who loved her in the Nan family.

“Father, you don’t have to worry. I came here to take you away!” Suyi forced the old master up from the bed. “It doesn’t matter if you can’t speak. Qing’er is very powerful, and she knows everything. She will have a way to save you!”

Cough!

Old Master Nan coughed violently again.

Every time he coughed, he would spit a mouthful of blood. Suyi was shocked; her eyes reddened.

Old Master Nan slowly raised his hand, wanting to push Suyi away...

Because he knew that he had no chance at living anymore.

Even if he left, he would not be able to live long, so why drag his daughter down with him?

“Father!” Suyi gritted her teeth and said forcefully. “I’ll tell you the truth! Your grandson and granddaughter-in-law are still waiting for you. You have to hang in there! Otherwise, I will not leave the Nan family today!”

Though the old master was seriously ill, she still had a way to take him away.

However, her greatest fear was that the old master was unwilling to hold on. If that were the case, even if she safely brought him out, it would be useless.

The old master’s eyes lit up again.

‘Grandson?’

‘And... Granddaughter-in-law?’

“Your granddaughter-in-law has given birth to a child. Don’t you want to meet them? If you give up like this, won’t you regret it?”

Hearing Suyi’s words, the old master’s lips moved slightly, and he slowly closed his eyes.

If he could not see his grandson and granddaughter-in-law, how could he have no regrets?

His most beloved daughter was married, and he wanted to see whom she was married to so that he could die in peace...

Suyi saw that the death wish on the old master’s face had disappeared. She slowly let out a sigh of relief. She then helped him up and walked out of the room.

“Aunt Suyi...”

Nan Luo followed her, biting her lip pitifully.

Suyi stopped in her tracks and said, “You don’t have to follow me. After all, you are Nan Fang’s daughter. He harmed my father... I have an unforgivable hatred toward him.”

Nan Luo panicked, and tears slowly flowed down her face.

"Aunt Suyi, it's indeed my father's fault. But I'm different from him. I like you, Aunt Suyi. Otherwise, I would not tell you all these things and bring you here. Father was trying to hide it from you."

Nan Luo pursed her lips and lowered her head. "But it's fine if Aunt leaves me behind. I've already betrayed my father. Aunt, don't worry, Father will only punish me, he won't kill me. I'm still his daughter."

She raised her head and smiled bitterly.

Suyi stopped in her tracks.

What Nan Luo said was right; she did come to inform her. Nan Luo had betrayed Nan Fang, and Nan Fang would certainly punish her severely.

"Alright, then you can come with me. However, you have to go your way after I bring you out of here."

Since Nan Luo had helped her, she could not be a heartless person to leave her here alone. Moreover, there was no harm if she brought her out of the Nan family.

However, somehow, Suyi could only feel sympathy for Nan Luo; she still did not like her...

Chapter 1785: The Old Master is Dying VIII

Nan Luo smiled faintly, "Thank you, Aunt Suyi. I feel that what you said back then is true. I thought that I must be filial to them because they are my parents. Then, I realized that I'm so dumb. I have had enough, and I don't want to be the young lady of the Nan family... I want to leave this place. "

Suyi looked at Nan Luo, confused.

'What made her change this fast?'

However, she did not have too much time to pay attention to Nan Luo, and after carrying the old master on her back, she walked toward the door again.

The sky outside the room was clear, and the sun was also shining brightly.

Old Master Nan had not seen the sunlight for more than twenty years since he had been seriously ill, and now when the sunlight shone upon his body, it actually felt extremely surreal...

"Cough!"

Old Master Nan coughed again.

The sound of his cough was like a hand gripping Suyi's heart fiercely, making her uncomfortable and somewhat breathless.

The battle at the courtyard door still had not stopped.

The white phoenix blocked everyone from coming forward with its huge body.

It was stained with blood, even some of its feathers had fallen to the ground, but it did not want to retreat.

Because...

The woman it loved most was in this courtyard.

The woman that it would use its life to protect!

An elder looked at the white phoenix whose feathers were all red and frowned.

"Master, it is a spirit beast. We can use the Nan family's beast taming technique to domesticate it!"

Nan Fang did not answer him. 'This phoenix is somewhat strong. It's not easy to control...'

However, he would do it for Suyi!

Nan Fang pulled out a packet of powder from his lapel and sprinkled it in front of the white phoenix.

The white phoenix inhaled the powder. It felt so cold but comfortable...

Buzz!

Suddenly, a powerful force violently rushed into the white phoenix's head, waiting for an opportunity to take over its mind!

However, the white phoenix quickly regained its senses and tried its best to regain its consciousness.

It understood that if Nan Fang controlled it, it would not only completely forget Suyi, but it also might do something to harm her.

It had promised that... It would protect her with its life and never help others to hurt her at all!

Poof!

The white phoenix spurted a mouthful of blood. It held its head tightly, desperately resisting, not allowing these people to control its mind.

"Master, what's wrong with this phoenix? Why is its willpower so strong?"

One of the Nan family elders was shocked. He wondered why the white phoenix could resist the Nan family's beast-taming technique?

Nan Fang remained silent, and his face and his lips were a little pale. Perhaps he had used too much power that drained his energy, making him look exhausted...

"Get out of my way!" the white phoenix shouted angrily, shaking the entire city.

"This is not a beast-taming but demonic technique to forcefully control the spirit beasts' mind. No wonder the spirit beasts in the Nan Family are like puppets. I finally understand now.

"But these methods are useless to me. I will never be bewitched by you. In this life, the only one I trust is always Suyi!"

Chapter 1786: The Old Master is Dying IX

The white phoenix's caw echoed in the sky.

Nan Fang gritted his teeth and once again tried to control the white phoenix's mind using his spiritual energy.

The power rampaged through the white phoenix's mind, causing it some pain. It clutched its head tightly, blood flowing out of its ears as it stared at Nan Fang with eyes filled with murderous intent.

"It's useless! All methods are useless to me. I've said that I would protect Suyi, and I will never betray her in this life!"

Suyi had suffered too much. How could it hurt her again...

Blood flowed from the white phoenix's nostrils and eyes, and it looked so miserable.

"Stop it!" An angry shout came from inside the courtyard.

Nan Fang turned and saw Suyi carrying the old master on her back and walking out.

Her pace was quite fast, and each step was like a heavy sound that struck the white phoenix's heart hard.

"Suyi, take him away. Go!" the white phoenix's voice was hoarse and trembling.

Suyi continued walking out of the courtyard, staring at Nan Fang calmly.

"Nan Fang..."

She looked so calm as if she had nothing to fear...

"God is watching you. Have you ever thought about what will come to you later when you do all these bad things?"

Nan Fang laughed coldly. "What? I'm just taming the beast. I did not hurt this phoenix because I know it's yours. But your phoenix has blocked our way. So we have to teach it a lesson."

Suyi clenched her fists tightly. She took a deep breath and forced herself to continue to stay calm.

"Let us go."

Now was not the time to take revenge as the old master was dying. They could only return after the old master recovered.

"You can go, but you must put my father down." Nan Fang flung his long sleeves and blocked Suyi's way.

"The old master is dying. Suyi, as his daughter, can you at least let him die in peace?"

Wei Rong looked at Suyi before turning to Nan Fang.

"Can't you see what's on her mind right now? She thinks that as long as the old master is in her hands, she can use him to threaten you to give her the Nan family. The greatest tragedy in Old Master Nan's life is to have such a selfish daughter!"

Suyi clenched her fists tightly. She could feel the old master's breathing getting weaker...

"Let us go! I'll only say this one last time!"

Suyi raised her face and looked at Nan Fang calmly.

Nan Fang said coldly, "Put my father down, and you can leave anytime."

Suyi's face darkened as if keeping calm had taken all her strength.

"Suyi..." The white phoenix coughed a mouthful of blood. "Take the old master out of this place. I can hold them off."

'Just like earlier...'

Suyi turned to look at the weakening white phoenix. "We will leave together. Father is important to me, and so are you. I won't leave you behind."

Chapter 1787: The Old Master is Dying X

The white phoenix froze. It felt warmed as it looked at Suyi's gentle face.

It turned out that... It was also important to Suyi.

Then, its efforts all along had not been in vain...

"Alright..."

The white phoenix smiled. "We will leave together. If we have to die here, I will definitely die first in front of Suyi."

However, as long as it was still alive, it would not allow Suyi to be injured.

Nan Fang's face darkened. 'Suyi is so gentle even to a phoenix, but why does she never smile at me?'

"Master, we can't let her leave with Old Master Nan. Who knows where she is going to dump the old master's body."

"Master should not be kind with this disobedient and unfilial woman. Look, now she has caused trouble again."

"And Young Lady Nan is such an ungrateful child! How dare she help Nan Suyi and this phoenix. She has forgotten who gave her a luxurious life."

Nan Luo's face changed slightly, and she lowered her head; no one could see her expression clearly at this moment.

Of course, no one had time to pay attention to her...

"Father..." Suyi looked at the old man lying on her back gently. "Don't fall asleep yet. Don't sleep at all. We will be able to leave soon. If you fall asleep... You might not be able to see them..."

Perhaps Suyi's words had an effect, the old man on her back moved, but he still did not have much strength to open his eyes, and his coughing sounded somewhat exhausting.

After feeling some old man's movements, Suyi carried the old man on her back and walked out again.

"I came back to take my father away. Whether you try to stop me or not, I will still leave this place with him!"

The white phoenix's head felt better now and was not as painful as earlier since Suyi appeared.

It came down from the sky and landed on Suyi's back. It gritted its teeth and said, "Suyi, come up."

Suyi was silent for a moment. "Can you do it?"

"Suyi, I am a male. Of course, I can do it!"

'For Suyi, even if I can't, I have to do it.'

Suyi leaped onto the white phoenix's back.

Nan Luo panicked. She rushed to Suyi's side pitifully. "Aunt Suyi..."

Suyi pondered for a moment. "Bring her out of here and find a place to put her down. She has helped me, after all."

"Alright..."

Even though the white phoenix disliked Nan Luo, he would not go against Suyi.

However, it would not allow Nan Luo to sit on its back.

It stretched its claws and grabbed Nan Luo by her collar.

Nan Fang knew what they were going to do. His face changed dramatically, and he shouted sternly, "Surround all of them. No one is allowed to escape today!"

"Yes, Master!"

The elders swiftly rushed toward the white phoenix.

The white phoenix flew into the sky. It flapped its wings, forming a fierce wind around it...

Nan Luo was so scared that her face turned pale. She had never been in such a high place. Moreover, the white phoenix was only grabbing her collar. If she were not careful, she would fall to the ground and die. She closed her eyes and did not dare to look down...

All the elders swiftly rushed to the sky and surrounded the white phoenix.

However, the white phoenix ignored the people blocking it and continued to fly higher into the sky.

Chapter 1788: We've Finally Meet I

The white phoenix flew higher up to the sky, and it was getting faster.

Only in this way could it bring Suyi away.

A few moments later, the white phoenix looked down and heaved a sigh of relief as it saw those elders could not fly higher and were no longer chasing them.

However...

A burst of powerful energy violently exploded in its mind, hurting its body.

It seemed like... Nan Fang was still trying to control its mind...

It took Suyi away, so Nan Fang used this method to force it to come down.

"White Phoenix, are you alright?"

Suyi seemed to notice something strange about the white phoenix. She panicked and asked, "White Phoenix, are you alright?"

The white phoenix shook its head, gritted its teeth, and said, "I'm fine. Suyi, you don't have to worry. I will bring you home. Little Qingqing and Nan Xian are waiting for us..."

"Really?"

Suyi was a little suspicious of it; her heart was still full of worry, afraid that bad things would happen to the white phoenix.

"We're safe now. Why don't we go down first? I'm afraid your body can't hold it."

"It's alright..." The white phoenix shook its head and smiled gently. "I will take you with me. As long as I am here, no one can hurt you and your father."

It would protect Suyi with its life. No matter what, it must take her to a safe place.

Nan Luo looked at the white phoenix and already knew what Nan Fang had done to it.

However, this time, she would stand on her aunt's side, and if she was caught and brought back to the Nan family, her life there might be worse than death, and she could never leave the Nan family again.

Therefore, she wanted to be selfish for once!

Besides, the white phoenix's condition was not too serious, and it could be treated later. For now, they must leave this place first because if they were caught, all of them would die in Nan Fang's hand...

Nan Luo lowered her head, hiding the guilt in her eyes.

She did all these for the white phoenix and her aunt, not just for herself...

"White Phoenix, tell me if you have any discomfort." Suyi caressed the white phoenix's head. "You and my father are equally important to me."

The white phoenix felt warmed as it heard Suyi's words.

Boom!

Suddenly, the powerful energy exploded in its mind again. It was afraid that Suyi would notice something, so it tried to resist hard.

Blood had almost spurted out its mouth, but it held back...

It trembled harder as that energy kept attacking its mind as if the power wanted to force it to come down.

Even so, the white phoenix held back hard. It could not let Suyi worry and would never allow her to be in danger again...

Not far away...

A group of people, led by Nan Fang, swiftly ran over. He had attacked the white phoenix so many times, but it was still flying high in the sky.

“Master!”

An elder said coldly, “If this continues, I’m afraid Old Master Nan will die up there. We don’t know where these bastards are going to take the old master... Hurry up and think of something!”

To Nan Fang, whether the old master was dead or alive had nothing to do with him.

However, it would be difficult for him to meet Suyi again; he must not let her go.

Chapter 1789: We’ve Finally Met II

Nan Fang closed his eyes, gathered up all his power, and used all his strength to attack the white phoenix’s mind.

Initially, he wanted to keep the white phoenix in the Nan family because it was so strong and useful to the Nan family. However, now, he did not care about it anymore...

Suyi would not come down if he did not kill the white phoenix!

The white phoenix suddenly spurted a mouthful of blood and fell from the sky...

“White Phoenix!”

Suyi was shocked, and her expression changed dramatically. She could do nothing to stop them from falling because the white phoenix was too huge to handle...

Nan City.

The residents were aware of the fight that was happening in the Nan family right now. The streets were empty as they all hid in their homes and did not dare to go out.

Only three figures were running swiftly toward Nan Manor...

Suddenly...

A black shadow covered the sky. Feng Ruqing stopped in her tracks, looked up, and saw a huge figure was falling from the sky toward them.

“Qing’er...”

Nan Xian rushed to Feng Ruqing and pulled her into his arms.

Xia Xia froze. She stared at Nan Xian and Feng Ruqing and then looked at the black shadow overhead with teary eyes...

Bang!

The white phoenix fell on these three people, soft and comfortable...

Nan Luo had long been thrown away by it, landing in a nearby tree. She felt dizzy, and her vision became blurry.

“White Phoenix!”

Suyi jumped down from the white phoenix’s back. Her eyes were full of worry when she saw the white phoenix lying unconscious.

“White Phoenix, are you alright? What happened just now?”

The white phoenix did not answer her.

Suyi looked under the white phoenix’s body and saw a small hand sticking out from under it.

‘That must be a child...’

Boom!

Suddenly, a powerful force came from underneath its body.

The white phoenix, which had just been seriously injured, was struck by this blow and flew a few meters away.

“Xia Xia!”

Feng Ruqing’s face was pale. Fortunately, she had reacted fast and pulled Xia Xia into her arms before the white phoenix fell on them.

However, despite being safe under her protection, Xia Xia was still foaming at the mouth and lying motionless on the ground.

Feng Ruqing hurriedly fed her the herbal soup, and Xia Xia’s eyelids started to move. She gradually opened her eyes and smiled. “Mother, I’m fine.”

Feng Ruqing heaved a sigh of relief. She then turned to look at Nan Xian. “I can protect myself. In the future, no matter what happens, you must protect Xia Xia first.”

Nan Xian looked at Xia Xia’s pale face. “Sorry, I forgot we brought her with us...”

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

At this moment, Feng Ruqing secretly made a decision.

In the future, she would never let Nan Xian bring Xia Xia out again. Otherwise, he might lose his daughter and not even realize it.

Since the appearance of Feng Ruqing and others, Suyi remained silent. She turned to look at the white phoenix lying half-dead on the ground and felt pity for it...

Chapter 1790: We've Finally Met III

It had accidentally landed on Qing'er and hurt Xia Xia. Qing'er would never let it go...

Feng Ruqing turned and saw Suyi standing in front of her, shocked. "Suyi?"

So the thing that landed on them just now was...

Feng Ruqing turned her head slowly, and her eyes fell upon the white phoenix lying on the ground. Her face darkened.

"White Phoenix!"

This phoenix had almost crushed her beloved daughter. If this white phoenix had not fallen unconscious, she would have picked it up and beat it.

However...

Her expression changed slightly when she noticed that the white phoenix still wasn't moving. "Suyi, what's wrong with this white phoenix?"

Suyi shook her head. "I'm not sure. Just now, it was flying fine. Then, it had suddenly become unconscious."

Feng Ruqing frowned. She walked up to the white phoenix and touched the white phoenix's head.

Her fingertips tingle and she quickly withdrew her hand...

"There is another spiritual energy inside the white phoenix's head. Suyi, if it continues, I'm afraid the white phoenix will either become a fool or be controlled by someone. I will treat him first."

"Alright..."

Suyi nodded and looked at the white phoenix worriedly.

As Suyi's eyes were still fixed upon the white phoenix, someone suddenly tugged at her dress.

Suyi lowered her eyes and saw a lovely little girl looking at her. Her expression softened a bit, and she slowly squatted down.

"Your name is Xia Xia, right?"

The little girl blinked and nodded. "Yes, Xia Xia is a nickname. My name is Nan Chiyou."

Suyi's heart softened.

She liked little girls, and this little one was so adorable that no one could resist her cuteness.

“Xia Xia, it’s the first we met. I’ll find you a gift later.”

“Alright...”

Xia Xia smiled sweetly. Suddenly, she paused, biting her lip. “Will Grandmother forget me as Father did just now?”

“You’re not a boy. I won’t ever forget you!” Suyi raised her hand and caressed Xia Xia’s small head.

Her eyes were filled with this cute little girl, and she even forgot that the white phoenix was still unconscious.

Xia Xia exhaled heavily. “That’s good. Otherwise, Xia Xia would not dare to go out with Grandmother in the future. If Xia Xia is goes missing, Xia Xia will never see Mother again...”

“Oh!” Xia Xia suddenly remembered something and looked at Suyi blankly, “If I were a boy, will Grandmother forget me?”

Suyi’s face stiffened and coughed awkwardly. “No... It doesn’t matter if Xia Xia is a boy or a girl, I will never forget you.”

Xia Xia smiled brightly, her eyes shining like stars.

“Wait...” Suyi stiffened, her face turned pale. “Where is my father?”

Nan Xin looked at Suyi indifferently.

He had forgotten his daughter, and Suyi had lost her father...

So, in the end, they were no different...
