Chapter 1801: The Old Master has Recovered V

The blood stained the earth red.

The people standing in front of Suyi were also a part of the Nan family, but Suyi did not show any mercy as she looked at those robes stained red with blood.

Initially, she could still forgive them because she knew Nan Fang had deceived them. However, after her father came forward to explain the truth, they still consciously chose to trust Nan Fang.

As that was the case, they were then destined to be her enemies.

Liu Yi and other elders' faces changed dramatically. Even Little Soul's power alone had overwhelmed them, not to mention the huge pot.

If Nan Fang was not strong enough, perhaps...

They could not stop Suyi from leaving this place.

"Nan Xian..."

After Feng Ruqing handed that Nan family to the huge pot and Little Soul, she rushed to stand next to Nan Xian.

"Don't wait for them. Let's get out of here first."

It was still difficult to confront the Nan family with their current power, so it was imperative to leave as quickly as possible.

"Alright!"

Nan Xian waved his sleeve, blocking the people who were rushing toward them.

He then held Feng Ruqing's waist, moved to Suyi's side, pulled her arm, and rushed up into the sky.

Nan Xian moved so fast, leaving only a shadow.

Nan Fang's expression changed dramatically, and he was about to chase after them when the huge pot slammed down on him.

His face darkened. A strong wind surged out of his sword, sending the huge pot some distance away.

The huge pot was as hard as iron. It came again and blocked Nan Fang from leaving...

"Get out of the way!" Nan Fang growled. It was so hard to find Suyi, so he would never allow her to leave him again.

The huge pot was furious, buzzing toward Nan Fang fiercely.

Nan Fang flew to the sky not far away before the huge pot could smash his face.

Nan Fang looked in the direction where Suyi and the others had disappeared. His face darkened, and he smashed his fist against the tree angrily.

“Destroy the pot and the soul!”

Little Soul stood not far away, looking at the elders who were coming to him coldly.

He smirked, and in the blink of an eye, his body gradually turned into a gust of wind and disappeared...

He was the black sword’s soul. Therefore, he would disappear once the black sword had left. That was why Feng Ruqing left him alone in this place.

She knew Little Soul would catch up to them.

The huge pot saw that Little Soul was gone. It buzzed and flew up as fast as lightning, disappearing without a trace.

Nan Fang was stunned, and he looked so furious...

Slowly, he turned to Nan Luo. The anger in his eyes was so obvious that it was like he could incinerate her with his eyes.

Nan Luo was so shocked. Her face turned pale as she took a few steps back. “Father, I...”

Nan Fang slapped her face ruthlessly.

Tears were streaming down her face. Her cheek swelled up, and she bit her lip hard, not daring to make any sound.

Chapter 1802: The Old Master has Recovered VI

“Useless!” Nan Fang sneered. “What’s the point of following Suyi? You did not give her the drug, and now she has left you here!”

Nan Luo panicked and kowtowed. “Father, I was wrong... I know I was wrong. Please let me go...”

Nan Fang kicked her hard as if the one kowtowing before him was not his daughter.

“Let you go? You are so useless, and you want me to let you go?”

Nan Luo’s face was pale and somewhat frightened. She lowered her head and bit her lip hard.

‘Why...

‘Why did Aunt Suyi not take me when she left?

‘She knows that Father will kill me if she leaves me here alone!

‘But she still left me...’

Nan Luo clenched her fists tightly; her eyes were filled with hatred.

There was even endless anger burning in her heart.

Even when she was blamed by her mother, bullied by her brother, and beaten by her father, she had never been so heartbroken.

However, this time, when Suyi left her, she finally understood... The hatred.

'I hate you!

'Aunt Suyi, I hate you so much!'

"Nan Luo, do you see now?" Nan Fang walked toward Nan Luo and looked at her coldly. "No matter how much you help Suyi, she will never care about your life. You're not important to her."

Nan Luo lowered her eyes and did not speak.

"So, you should understand what to do next!"

Nan Luo understood what Nan Fang wanted her to do...

Her body stiffened a little, and she slowly closed her eyes.

When she opened her eyes, they no longer had the initial charm and pity but instead were cold and expressionless.

"I understand..."

She knew what she should do.

"Do you know where Suyi and the others have gone?" Nan Fang asked coldly.

Nan Luo clenched her fists tightly, clutching a handful of mud on the ground and letting her nails sink deep into the mud.

"I don't know, but I will find a way to find her."

She knew where Suyi would go.

After all... Feng Ruqing was Tianya's granddaughter.

However, even at this moment, Nan Luo could not lie about her feelings for Nan Xian.

She hated Suyi and Feng Ruqing, but... She could not feel any hatred for that man.

"I'll give you a month to bring Suyi to me." Nan Fang glanced at Nan Luo coldly. "Suyi is cold, but you've helped her. She will allow you to stay with her when she knows that you're suffering because of her..."

Nan Fang took out a long braid and brought it down hard on Nan Luo's body.

The stinging pain made Nan Luo break out in a cold sweat. Her delicate body trembled lightly, endless hatred filled her heart, and her pair of eyes could not hide it.

This was what Nan Fang wanted...

The more Nan Luo hated Suyi, the more she would help him!

Another whip came down, covering Nan Luo with blood and lashes all over her body.

Even some of the elders could not stand to watch.

However, Nan Luo was just a girl.

Girls in the Nan family had no status.

They were tools to be used!

Nan Luo remained silent.

She would remember the pain she felt today!

She was no longer the old Nan Luo...

There was nothing left in her except... Hatred!

“You can go now...”

Chapter 1803: The Old Master has Recovered VII

Nan Fang sneered. “Nan Luo, don’t let me down again. If you succeed, your status in the Nan family will be as high as your brother.”

Nan Luo might still be excited to hear these words from Nan Fang in the past.

However, now, her heart has completely frozen, expressionless.

“I know...”

Nan Luo stood up from the ground; she had long been in rags and bruises.

She smirked. “This time... I won’t let you down. ”

She staggered to the door after she said those words.

Her footsteps were a little unsteady as if she would fall to the ground at any moment.

The sunset enveloped the young girl’s thin figure. At this time, she looked lonely and... Pitiful.

Far above the sky, Feng Ruqing saw a giant dragon flying toward them.

The black dragon rushed toward her and burst into tears.

“Little Nine...”

It glared at Nan Xian fiercely and looked at Feng Ruqing again pitifully. “This bastard left me behind. Little Nine, he doesn’t allow me to get close to you!”

Feng Ruqing was a little surprised. “Really? State Preceptor said you went with a female dragon and ran away.”

Big Black was speechless.

‘This is a blatant accusation!

'This bastard framed me! He wants to own Little Nine alone!'

"Little Nine, don't listen to his nonsense. I'm not that kind of person, and I'm not interested in female dragons. The only one I like in this life is you..."

Bang!

A powerful force landed heavily on the black dragon's chest.

The black dragon's figure turned into light and disappeared in an instant...

"Let's go. He will go back on later. We should go home now."

Nan Xian looked at Feng Ruqing and smiled gently.

The smile was as warm as the sunset...

"Alright..."

The black dragon knew the way back, so he would certainly go back to General Manor by himself.

"Let's go. Grandfather must be worried about us."

General Manor.

Tang Yin put her hands on her chin, looking at Xiao Ya unblinkingly.

She sighed with a look of worry.

"When will Mother wake up..."

Xiao Ya, in snake figure, coiled up into a ball, sleeping peacefully. The sunlight poured upon it, creating a warm glow around it.

"Young Lady is back!"

A cheerful voice came from outside the door. Tang Yin got up and rushed toward the door.

When she went out, she saw a familiar face.

The woman was dressed in a blood-colored dress, stunningly beautiful. Then, a white phoenix appeared next to her.

Suyi helped the old master down. "Qing'er, I'll take Father to rest for a while."

"Alright..."

Feng Ruqing nodded smilingly and turned to Tang Yin. "Has Xiao Ya woken up yet?"

When Tang Yin heard this, the light in her eyes dimmed, and all the smiles on her face disappeared.

She shook her head. "Not yet..."

Chapter 1804: The Old Master has Recovered VIII

"Oh, then I guess we still need to wait." Feng Ruqing sighed, and her gaze was also filled with worry.

The white phoenix looked at Tang Yin in confusion. "Little girl, where is Nalan Jing?"

"Brother Nalan?"

Tang Yin was blank.

Nalan Jing followed you after he knew that you came to Land of No Return. Why didn't you see him?" The white phoenix paused and asked somewhat hesitantly, "It couldn't be that something happened, right?"

Tang Yin and Feng Ruqing's face changed dramatically.

Feng Ruqing suddenly stepped forward, dragged the white phoenix up, and said coldly, "He came here, too?"

Two years!

Even Tang Yin could find her... If Nalan Jing had come to Land of No Return, he should have come to her first...

The white phoenix panicked, subconsciously gulped. "I... I don't know..."

'Oh, no...

'It was me who told Nalan Jing about this place... If something bad happened to him, I might not have the chance to marry Suyi...'

"Tell me, is my cousin coming here?" Feng Ruqing's hands were trembling a bit as she grasped the white phoenix tightly.

The white phoenix was almost crying. "I'm not sure whether he came or not. He was aware of your whereabouts and knew that Tang Yin was coming here, so he chased after her. But I'm not sure whether he has successfully come to Land of No Return or not... I don't know."

Feng Ruqing loosened her hand. She clenched her fists tightly, her heart beating faster.

"Qing'er."

Nan Xian pulled Feng Ruqing into his arms and soothed her. "It will be fine. Don't worry. Later I will let Qing Zhu go find him."

Feng Ruqing closed her eyes.

Nalan Jing was still young when she first met him.

He was bullied many times by the old Feng Ruqing. However, when she was in danger, he still stepped in to save her.

He was disappointed with Feng Ruqing, but... He still chose to stand by her side...

"I will not let anything happen to him!" Feng Ruqing opened her eyes. "Old Housekeeper, call all the guards and ask them to go find my cousin. I will give you his portrait later! Post his portrait all over every corner of this mainland. Anyone who sees my cousin can come to General Manor to receive a high-grade spirit herb as a reward.”

The old housekeeper responded respectfully, “Yes, Young Lady.”

“Go immediately!”

If her cousin had come to Land of No Return, then she would definitely find him!

Tang Yin’s small face was pale, and she was about to cry. “Xiao Qing, I can find this place easily. If Brother Nalan is still alive, there’s no way he can’t find it.”

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

The way she said it was as if... Nalan Jing was already dead...

“Don’t worry. I will find him.” Feng Ruqing patted Tang Yin’s head.

Tang Yin’s eyes lit up. “Really? Is Brother Nalan still alive?”

“Yes... He’ll be fine.”

“Xiao Qing, I trust you...”

Tang Yin finally smiled, revealing her little tiger teeth.

That smile was as bright as sunshine...

The only person she trusted in her life was Feng Ruqing.

Since Feng Ruqing said Nalan Jing was still alive, he must be alive...

However, Feng Ruqing was quite worried, and a cold aura flashed across her eyes.

‘If...

‘If someone killed Nalan Jing... Then, I’ll send that person to a place that he can never return!’

Chapter 1805: The Old Master has Recovered IX

Since the day Nine Gate came and took Xia Xia away, all people in General Manor had watched her closely. Even Tianya did not leave the manor as his eyes were always fixed on Xia Xia...

All people in Wu Shang City knew the incident in General Manor, and with Tianya’s temper, he would not stay silent and certainly would seek revenge.

However...

Wu Shang City was as calm as nothing had happened... And this calmness made people feel more anxious, like a bad storm was coming soon.

Two guards stood in front of General Manor’s gate; they sat nearly motionless like statues.

A girl covered in blood stumbled and fell in front of the gate.

Due to what had happened back then, everyone in General Manor was very defensive. The guards became more cautious when they saw this messy girl.

“Who are you?”

He blocked the girl’s way with his sword and asked in a deep voice.

The girl ruffled her messy hair. She raised her head and said timidly, “Suyi is my aunt. Please, go and tell my aunt that... Nan Luo has come to see her.”

The Nan family?

The two guards looked at each other, and one of them went in to find Suyi.

In the backyard, Suyi was sitting on the pavilion, holding Xia Xia smilingly.

Just then, a guard hurriedly came and respectfully reported, “Lady Suyi, someone has come to see you.”

“Hmm?” Suyi raised her eyebrows and looked at the guard.

The guard continued, “That person called you ‘Aunt Suyi’ and is named Nan Luo.”

‘Nan Luo?’

Suyi paused for a moment.

‘I’ve almost forgotten about this girl...

‘We left in a hurry that day and forgot about her. Nan Fang would certainly not let this girl go...’

However, she did not like Nan Luo. Suyi took her out of Nan Manor only because Nan Luo had helped her.

She was rude to Qing’er, and that made Suyi dislike her more.

But... Nan Luo managed to escape, which was a bit surprising to her.

“I’ll go to meet her.”

No matter what, Suyi could not just leave her at the gate.

At least...

She had to ask Nan Luo to leave.

Otherwise, she might offend Qing’er again.

Even Suyi could not bear it, let alone Nan Xian...

“Grandmother, is it that bad woman?” Xia Xia bit her finger and asked.

Suyi smiled and stroked Xia Xia’s little nose. “Yes, I’ll go see what she wants from us.”

“Alright...”

Xia Xia smiled adorably and held Suyi's hand. "I'll go with you."

Suyi's heart softened as she looked at the little girl's bright smile.

'It is really great to have a daughter...'

Whether she was laughing or crying, it was like seeing a flower in bloom, making her heart feel all warm and fuzzy.

Nan Luo saw Suyi came over with a little girl. Her eyes reddened, tears fell, and she cried pitifully. "Aunt Suyi..."

Suyi frowned. She was quite uncomfortable with the way Nan Luo addressed her.

However, seeing Nan Luo's blood-soaked appearance, she could not help but freeze for a moment, shocked.

'How could Nan Fang do such a ruthless thing to his daughter. He's so cruel...'

"Aunt..."

Nan Luo tears fell like rain, kneeling in front of Suyi. "Father beat me up and kicked me out. I have nowhere to go now... Aunt Suyi, please let me stay with you."

Chapter 1806: The Old Master has Recovered X

Suyi's face sank. "First, I'm not your aunt. I don't have any relationship with Nan Fang. Secondly, this is Qing'er's home. You've offended her before, so I can't let you stay here."

Nan Luo lowered her head and clenched her fists tightly; she said pitifully, "I didn't mean it. I thought she disliked Grandfather and was against him. But now, I understand... She was trying to save Grandfather. Please, if you don't take me in, I really have nowhere to go."

Suyi looked at Nan Luo, who was kneeling in front of her.

She was covered in blood and scars, which made people feel sympathy toward her.

However, the person in front of her was Nan Luo... She was Nan Fang's daughter!

"I don't care what the reason is. It's wrong to speak ill of Qing'er! Actually, I could still find my father without your help. But you've helped, so I can only help you find somewhere else to stay, not General Manor."

Suyi's face was cold.

Nan Luo panicked and lunged forward to hug Suyi's legs.

"Aunt Suyi, I have no other relatives but you. I've betrayed my parents to help you. They will never want me again... If you kick me out, too, I will only be alone after this. Aunt Suyi, can you just sit and watch this happen?"

Suyi did not pull her leg away and stared at Nan Luo expressionlessly.

If Nan Luo had not spoken out against Feng Ruqing, perhaps she would have been soft-hearted enough to let Nan Luo stay with her.

Feng Ruqing was more important to her...

"Suyi..."

Just when Suyi wanted to refuse, a voice came from behind her, causing her to pause and turn to look at the woman walking toward her.

Feng Ruqing looked at Suyi smilingly. "If she wants to stay, then she can stay."

Suyi and Nan Luo froze for a moment.

They did not expect that Feng Ruqing would let Nan Luo stay in General Manor.

"Qing'er?" Suyi looked confused. She did not understand why Feng Ruqing decided that...

Feng Ruqing smiled faintly and said, "She has helped you. It's better to let her stay here so that others will not say that we are ungrateful."

Suyi was speechless.

'Is Qing'er the kind of person who cares about other people's gossip? Hehe...'

She knew Feng Ruqing very well.

Feng Ruqing never cared about what people said.

In any case, Feng Ruqing must have her reasons for keeping Nan Luo here. What Suyi needed to do was to go along with her plan...

Nan Luo bit her lower lip and lowered her eyes.

She did not understand why Feng Ruqing would choose to keep her...

'Did she think I will be thankful to her?'

These people had left her behind and caused her to be tortured by her father. So these people were her enemies!

The person who had made Nan Luo suffer was Nan Fang, so the one she should hate was him.

However, she had put all the blame on Suyi...

Suyi was at fault because she left her behind and made her suffer from the torture. She never even blamed Nan Fang. Instead, she blamed it all on Suyi...

Feng Ruqing turned to the servant behind her and said coldly. "Prepare a guest room for her."

Chapter 1807: The Old Master's Rage I

"Yes, Young Lady," the servant answered respectfully.

Nan Luo pursed her lips and lowered her eyes, which were filled with coldness.

These people had made her suffer a lot. They could not blame her for her choice to take revenge on people who had hurt her...

However, when Nan Luo raised her eyes, all the hatred had disappeared and was replaced by a gentle smile.

"Thank you, Maiden Feng."

Suyi looked at Feng Ruqing, wanted to say something but stopped herself.

Since Qing'er had her reasons for doing so, all she had to do was to trust her.

"Nan Luo..." Suyi paused for a moment, turned to Nan Luo, and said coldly, "This is General Manor, not your Nan Manor. If you want to stay here, you must learn to treat Qing'er with respect. If you say anything else that offends her, even if Qing'er intends to keep you, I will kick you out immediately."

Hatred filled Nan Luo's heart, and she could not help but clench her hands.

"I understand, Aunt Suyi..." Seeing Suyi's cold face, Nan Luo quickly changed her words, "Lady Suyi."

"Hmm..."

Suyi continued, "My father still needs to rest. You need not bother him during this period. I don't want him to recall any bad memories he had."

"Alright..."

Nan Luo smiled bitterly.

She tried to put on a sweet face, but Suyi was still looking at her coldly.

Suyi sighed and said indifferently, "You can follow the servant."

Nan Luo nodded and turned to Feng Ruqing, looking grateful. She then followed the servant and went inside General Manor.

Watching Nan Luo's figure disappearing into the distance, Suyi frowned and asked, "Qing'er, Nan Luo is Nan Fang's daughter. She even tried to drug me. She does not seem as simple as her appearance. Why are you allowing her to stay in General Manor?"

Feng Ruqing laughed. "Since we all know she is not simple, it is better if I keep her by my side."

"You mean..."

Feng Ruqing did not answer Suyi. She turned to look at Suyi and asked, "Suyi, what do you think of Nan Fang?"

Suyi pondered for a moment. "He is a ruthless man and does not leave any room for mistakes."

"Well, if he is a person who leaves no room for mistake, why did he release Nan Luo?" Feng Ruqing asked with a faint smile. "What Nan Luo betrayed him, and with Nan Fang's character, he would not have only beat her up and kicked her out."

Nan Fang was domineering, and he hated being betrayed. Therefore, Feng Ruqing did not believe that Nan Luo could run away from Nan Fang.

Suyi finally understood.

“So, it’s Nan Fang who asked her to come here?” Suyi was a bit shocked.

Nan Luo had suffered so much in the Nan family. Why would she still help Nan Fang?

She would not be surprised if Nan Luo did this because of her ulterior motive. However, she could not believe that Nan Luo was still willing to help Nan Fang.

“Suyi, Nan Fang will not easily leave Nan City. He must still have some scruples about coming to Wu Shang City. I’m not afraid if he sends his men here, but...

“If we drive Nan Luo away, we don’t know who Nan Fang will send next, so...” Feng Ruqing sneered. “Let’s keep Nan Luo and see what Nan Fang is planning.”

Chapter 1808: The Old Master’s Rage II

Suyi was stunned.

“Why would she help Nan Fang after what he had done to her? I don’t understand!”

She would never understand!

“She wants power and status in the Nan family unless she can find it somewhere else. Only then, she might willingly abandon the Nan family. For now, she will not completely turn her back on the Nan family.”

Hearing these words, Suyi fell silent.

She had this discussion with the white phoenix in the Nan family back then.

Nan Luo refused to leave the Nan family because she loved her status as the Nan family’s only young lady. Except for her parents and her brother, other people still respected and admired her...

She was nothing if she left the Nan family!

“Qing’er, then why did she help me before? She even betrayed Nan Fang for me.” Suyi hesitantly wondered out loud, “Can’t it be that she wants to get close to me because of Nan Fang? Impossible... If it wasn’t for your huge pot and the sword soul, we couldn’t even escape from Nan Fang. He is such a confident man. Why does he want to use Nan Luo when he still has another choice?”

‘At that time, Nan Fang never thought I could escape, so he would not have sent Nan Luo to help me...

‘Why did Nan Luo want to help me find my father?’

“Maybe she wants something from you?” Feng Ruqing shrugged. “No need to think about this. The most important thing now is to watch her at all times.

“That’s all we can do...”

Suyi sighed and said guiltily, “Qing’er, I’ve made you worry.”

"It's alright. You're... My favorite Suyi, after all." Feng Ruqing smiled.

Since she first met Suyi back then, even after she knew Suyi's background, she had decided... To protect her for the rest of her life...

Suyi's heart warmed. She held Feng Ruqing's hand and said, "Qing'er, I actually regretted marrying Mu Ling at first, then I realized that everything was destined. Because of Mu Ling, I gave birth to Nan Xian, and because of Nan Xian, there is you... So, I no longer hate him."

"Mu Ling?"

An old voice came from the back.

As Suyi turned her around, she saw the old master stepping out of the door and walking toward her.

He was still a little thin, but much better than before; even his voice was no longer weak.

"Father, why are you out?" Suyi rushed to him. "You have not yet recovered. It is better to rest more."

Old Master Nan's face sank. "Who is this Mu Ling you were talking about? How come I haven't seen my grandson's father? Where is his father? Don't tell me he's dead."

Suyi was put in a difficult position, so she looked to Feng Ruqing for help.

The old master had not yet fully recovered. If he knew what she had been through all these years, he would be angry again.

Feng Ruqing looked at Suyi, took out a bottle of spirit water from the medium, and let the old master smell it.

The aroma entered his nose, making the old master calm and refreshed.

Feng Ruqing turned to Suyi. "You can tell him now."

Suyi sighed and said, "Father, we've split up."

'Split up?'

The old master was so angry that his eyes rolled up, and he almost fainted.

If it were not for that refreshing aroma, he would have collapsed.

Chapter 1809: The Old Master's Rage III

He knew his own daughter best.

If she was not suffering, why would she split up with her husband?

"Why did you leave him? What did that brute do?" the old master asked angrily.

Suyi smiled bitterly and said, "I married him because he treated me nicely, accompanied me during my darkest time, and was the only warmth I had during that time."

During that time...

She was forced to leave the mainland. She was injured, and... She missed her father.

She felt depressed the whole day.

Upon meeting Mu Ling, he was like sunshine, warming her entire life.

She was touched by his kindness and had agreed to marry him.

Except for Old Master Mu and Xiao Qingyin, the people of the Mu family disliked her because she was an orphan, and Mu Ling was out of her league.

However, no one knew that she had lost her power to save Mu Ling.

She had endured so much pain for Mu Ling.

Until...

He no longer loved her.

"Father, it's all in the past. I no longer need him and no longer hate him. I feel better now..."

Suyi smiled gently.

She was grateful for the life she had now.

Of course, this was Suyi's opinion.

However, the old master had just met Suyi. He did not want to see her suffer, so he continued to ask, "What did that bastard do to you? Tell me!"

Suyi was stunned and laughed helplessly. "He just couldn't give me what I wanted. He doesn't love me anymore, and he has someone else now... So I left him."

The old master's face darkened with anger, and he almost fainted again.

Feng Ruqing's quickly brought the spirit water closer to his nose, and a few seconds later, his mind gradually cleared up.

He sneered.

"That's his loss. Suyi, where is that bastard? When the time comes, I'll go and kill him! How dare that scum bullied my daughter!"

Suyi paused and shook her head. "Father, he has already been punished. Old Master Mu has kicked him out. His concubine and other sons and daughters are dead. He has nothing now. I spared his life because I respect Old Master Mu."

"Grandfather..." Feng Ruqing's eyes flashed a light, smiling. "Suyi was just bullied by a mad dog. We need not bother too much with him."

The old master was silent for a few moments. "That's right, I won't find that bastard, but if he dares to appear in front of me, I will definitely make him kneel and beg for mercy. Suyi, since you have already made peace with him, I will introduce you to some other excellent men then."

“Grandfather...” Feng Ruqing smiled and turned to look at the old master. “What do you think of the white phoenix?”

“The white phoenix?”

The old master looked lost.

Even Suyi turned to Feng Ruqing, confused.

“The white phoenix....”

Before Feng Ruqing could continue, a fierce wind flashed, and the white phoenix suddenly appeared above her, swiftly grabbing Feng Ruqing into the sky with its claws.

Drops of cold sweat emerged on the white phoenix’s forehead.

‘So close...

‘She has almost let Suyi know my feelings...’

It had not yet turned into a human. The white phoenix was afraid that Suyi would reject it because of its phoenix figure...

Chapter 1810: Are You A Dog? I

Feng Ruqing’s face darkened, and her punch landed squarely on its chest.

The white phoenix flew out, and it could not help but loosen its claws, disappearing without a trace.

Feng Ruqing landed steadily on the ground and looked at Suyi smilingly.

“Suyi, it’s getting late. Go back and rest. I’ll handle Nan Luo.”

Suyi was stunned. “Qing’er, what did you just say about the white phoenix?”

“Oh, nothing. It deserved a punch...”

Suyi was speechless.

Inexplicably, she felt that Qing’er and the white phoenix was hiding something from her.

Tang Yin had just stepped into the room when she suddenly saw a handsome man standing next to the headboard, gazing at the silver snake on the bed.

She was stunned and asked in confusion, “What do you want to do to my mother?”

Qing Han had said that this man wanted to possess Xiao Qing and was eventually taken in as a sword soul by Xiao Qing.

Therefore, she looked at the man standing next to the bed suspiciously.

The man then realized that someone had walked in. He turned away and walked out of the room without looking at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin was even more confused, not understanding what this guy was doing here...

The afternoon sun was at its brightest.

Nan Luo walked out of the courtyard and saw a handsome figure.

The man was dressed in white, as handsome as immortal, holding a jade flute. The pleasant sound of the flute made Nan Luo stop in her tracks, staring at the man unblinkingly...

The man stood on the peach blossom tree with a lovely little girl sitting next to him. She put her legs into the lake, quietly listening to the pleasant sound.

Nan Luo could not control her feet, and involuntarily walked toward the man.

She was slow, and she stopped behind Nan Xian.

The two people in front might not have noticed her, or perhaps they were ignoring her, so they did not turn back.

Xia Xia put her hands on her cheeks, smiling brightly. "Father, can you teach me how to play the flute?"

"Hmm?" The man looked down at the little girl sitting next to him.

Xia Xia's clear eyes carried determination. "I want to play the flute to Big Doggie when I meet it later."

"Go and cultivate first. I'll teach you after you make a breakthrough." The man's face was expressionless.

Xia Xia pouted, looking at the man pitifully.

"Father..."

Nan Xian put the flute to his lips.

However, he suddenly paused as he heard an unpleasant sound from behind him.

"Your jade flute makes the most beautiful music I've ever heard."

The young girl chuckled.

Xia Xia glanced sideways at the young girl.

"Aren't you the bad woman? What do you want again?"

Xia Xia was a bit exasperated, glaring at Nan Luo fiercely.

Nan Luo smiled faintly. She raised her hand to try to pet Xia Xia's head.

However, Xia Xia suddenly revealed her sharp teeth and bit Nan Luo's hand...
