

Overbearing 1851

Chapter 1851: The Unexpected IV

"Who are you?" The man asked expressionlessly and coldly.

Nan Luo smiled. "Suyi is my aunt."

Nalan Jing looked puzzled. 'Suyi has a niece?'

'Why haven't I heard of it even after coming to General Manor for such a long time?'

"Oh..."

Nalan Jing responded indifferently, his face cold. "What do you want from me?"

"Master Nalan, I know you are not happy, but what can you do... This is all arranged by Maiden Feng."

Nalan Jing was stunned.

'It seems that Cousin has arranged Xiao Yin's marriage?'

He stared at Nan Luo in disgust. Obviously, he did not have any good feelings for this woman talking in front of him.

Nan Luo seemed to have sensed the change in Nalan Jing's expression. She laughed and said, "Master Nalan, even if you are not happy now, you can only listen to her, right? Maiden Feng is the master of General Manor. Although you are her cousin, you are only an outsider."

Nalan Jing's face was expressionless. "Just say what you want to say. No need to beat around the bush."

"Master Nalan, what I want to tell you is..." Nan Luo looked down. "Maiden Feng only wants the best for you! I hope that Master Nalan does not blame her."

A cold light flashed in Nalan Jing's eyes as he took two steps closer to Nan Luo.

"I don't know why you come and say these things to me, but... I believe in my cousin! There is no use for you to come and talk to me!"

Nan Luo's face changed slightly, and she lowered her head. "I don't mean that I just..."

"Just what?"

"I saw that Master Nalan is not in a good mood... I just want to comfort you." Nan Luo clenched her fists and raised her head slowly. "I know... You don't want to marry Young Lady Tang. You're angry with her because she has arranged everything against your will."

Nalan Jing suddenly stopped in his tracks.

His body stiffened. He raised his head and looked at Nan Luo in disbelief.

"What did you just say?"

Nan Luo looked confused. 'Perhaps... He still does not know?'

Nan Luo gritted her teeth and said, "I just heard the guests say that Maiden Feng has arranged a marriage for you and Young Lady Tang. You will get married tonight."

Nalan Jing was dumbfounded.

Immediately, an indescribable thrill of excitement surged through him; even his body began to tremble.

'The man who will marry Xiao Yin is... Me?

'So the person that Cousin arranged for Xiao Yin is also me?'

He had misunderstood Tang Yin since the beginning.

This surprise came too suddenly. He was completely dumbfounded and did not know how to react.

"Master Nalan?" Nan Luo looked at Nalan Jing, confused.

If Nan Luo had not met Nan Xian before, perhaps... She would fall in love with Nalan Jing's pure smile...

Unfortunately, having met such a perfect and stunning man... No one else could ever replace him in her heart

Chapter 1852: The Unexpected V

"Nalan Jing, why are you still standing here?"

Feng Lianqing approached from not far away. He frowned as he saw Nan Luo standing aside. It took a few seconds before he could recall the woman's name.

"What are you doing here? Why are you not staying in your room? You still want to find Nan Xian?"

Nan Luo seemed panicked, subconsciously took a few steps back. "I don't understand what you are talking about..."

"Nan Luo, do you really think that we are blind? The way you look at Nan Xian is different... The way you look at him is just like the way he looks at Sister Ruqing!"

Feng Lianqing laughed coldly.

Nan Luo took a few steps back, biting her lip hard. She never knew that something had long been shown so obviously...

She thought no one would notice her feelings for Nan Xian.

"Get lost!" Feng Lianqing was furious. "Today is a big day, so I'll let you go, but if you run out again next time to cause trouble... Do not blame me for not being nice!"

Nan Luo's face turned pale, and her eyes full of horror as she took a few steps back.

"Wait!"

Nalan Jing suddenly spoke out, causing Nan Luo to stop in her tracks.

She pursed her lips and raised her head to look at Nalan Jing.

The man looked cold and expressionless. He walked toward Nan Luo, suddenly stretched out his leg, and viciously kicked over her, sending her flying a few meters away.

“No wonder you tried to mess up my relationship with my cousin. You were spying on my cousin’s husband! Now you can get lost, and...” Nalan Jing sneered. “Who told you that I am not satisfied with this marriage?”

Nan Luo raised her eyes in shock and looked at Nalan Jing with some dismay.

‘What does he mean?’

Unfortunately, Nalan Jing did not give her another chance to speak and turned to Feng Lianqing. “Let’s go, aren’t you going to make me change into my wedding dress?”

“Uh...” Feng Lianqing was a bit dumbfounded and asked, “How do you know?”

Nalan Jing smiled. His gaze fell upon the red robe in Feng Lianqing’s hand.

However, he did not say a word as he walked toward his room...

Nan Luo lowered her eyes, hiding the cold light in her eyes.

‘Feng Ruqing does not force Nalan Jing, but she forces Tang Yin to get married for her cousin’s sake...

‘She did so and... Aunt Suyi does not say anything?’

Nan Luo stood up from the floor, wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth, and looked at the door that had been closed. She then turned around and walked toward the front hall.

There were already guests coming one after another.

Suyi stood aside, looking at those guests who entered General Manor with an elegant smile on her face.

Just at this moment...

A timid voice came from behind her.

“Aunt Suyi...”

Suyi frowned and turned to look at Nan Luo, who was standing next to her. “Why are you here?”

Nan Luo lowered her head.

The moment she first met Suyi, she truly liked her because, among that Nan family, only Suyi would speak for her.

But...

Why did she leave her behind?

She knew her father was a brutal man, and yet she still left her behind, causing her to be hurt.

If Suyi had taken Nan Luo with her, perhaps, Nan Luo would not have turned out this way.

Chapter 1853: The Unexpected VI

"Aunt Suyi..." Nan Luo smiled faintly. "I heard that someone from General Manor was getting married and came to take a look. When I was on my way here, I heard the servant say that the people who are getting married are Young Lady Tang and Master Nalan?"

"Mhmm..."

The wedding was about to start, so Suyi did not deny it.

It was good to allow Tang Yin to marry so that she would not always cling to Qing'er.

"But..." Nan Luo pursed her lips and sighed lightly, "Aunt Suyi, I also saw Young Lady Tang just now; she is completely unaware of this matter. I'm afraid it's not good to do so, right? Lying to her about her marriage?"

Suyi looked down, and her voice was cold. "Are you here to accuse Qing'er?"

"I... I didn't mean that..."

"Then, what do you mean? How many times have I said that I am not your aunt? Why won't you listen?" Suyi said indifferently. "Or do you think I have anything to do with Nan Fang?"

"No... No... I am worried that Sister Ruqing will make a faux pas and make Young Lady Tang hate her. After all, what she is doing is tantamount to tricking her into a marriage."

"Oh..." Suyi laughed. "These are not your concern. Of course, Qing'er has her reason for doing so, and you have nothing to do with it! And again, I'm not your aunt, so she's not your sister either! Qing'er doesn't like people like you."

Nan Luo's expression changed slightly, and she lowered her head.

Suyi's voice grew colder. "This matter has nothing to do with Qing'er. It was Nan Xian who framed Tang Yin. Qing'er trusts Nan Xian. Naturally, she believes whatever he says. Tang Yin clings to Qing'er every day, and Nan Xian is jealous."

Suyi's words were like needles stabbing Nan Luo's heart.

Her lips twitched and revealed a bitter smile.

"It's me being nosy. I'm sorry, Lady Suyi. I'll go back to my room now."

Her smile faded.

After dropping these words, she turned around and left.

She then saw Tang Yin, who was being pulled by Qian Ning, walking toward the hall.

Tang Yin looked confused.

"Qian Ning, why are all these guests here? Is today the wedding banquet? But Helian Yue's wedding dress is still with me, and I haven't even returned it to her..."

Suddenly, Tang Yin saw Helian Yue coming from not far away.

Ever since that day, after Helian Yue almost leaked the matter, she was locked up in the manor by the old master Helian and was only released today.

As soon as she came out, she ran to General Manor, but she was still a step too late.

She saw a beautiful young girl in a red wedding dress.

She froze for a moment and almost cried. "Tang Yin, you're getting married? Didn't we agree to follow Xiao Qing for the rest of our lives? If you're not here, the only one left to be beaten by Nan Xian is me... Alone..."

Nan Xian was a jealous man.

Every time they came to find Feng Ruqing, they would be murderously stared at by that guy.

Initially, if there was a companion, they could still bear it.

However, if Tang Yin married someone, she was the only one left to face the threat in the future...

Tang Yin was confused. "What did you just say? Are you not the one who will get married tonight?"

How did it become her?

Helian Yue wiped her tears. "Wasn't it you and Nalan Jing who are going to get married? Our family received the invitation card a long time ago, but my grandfather and uncle did not let me go out, so I could not come out to see you until today."

Chapter 1854: The Unexpected VII

Boom!

In that instant, Tang Yin's mind went blank as thunder rumbled in her head.

She stiffly turned and looked at Qian Ning. "Just now... Whom did she say was going to get married?"

Qian Ning was aggrieved. "It's you, Young Lady."

Tang Yin's mouth twitched, and her body trembled.

'I'm getting married!

'And... I'm the last to know!'

"Young Lady Tang..."

The sudden voice made Tang Yin even more annoyed. She turned around, and after seeing that it was Nan Luo approaching her, she became even more furious and punched Nan Luo's face...

Without any warning.

This punch was even more ferocious than Nalan Jing's kick.

Nan Luo instantly flew out of the courtyard and landed in the middle of the road.

She was just trying to get up when a few swords were pointed above her neck, and the cold aura made her heart tremble.

“Young Lady, you finally came out. We have been waiting for you for a long time. Master is looking for you.”

At this moment, Nan Luo felt cold all over her body.

She had never left General Manor after coming here to avoid Nan Fang.

However, in the end, she still could not hide from him...

Her lips trembled, and she slowly stood up with a look of despair on her face.

She did not finish the task that Nan Fang had ordered her to do, and she also ignored the people of the Nan family outside, so... She understood that this time, Nan Fang would not let her go again...

Inside General Manor...

Tang Yin turned to Qian Ning, gritted her teeth, and asked, “Qian Ning, did you also know about this matter long ago?”

Qian Ning’s eyes started tearing up as she nodded her head.

However, after seeing Tang Yin’s fierce eyes, she hurriedly shook her head again.

“No, I only know about it today. But think about it, Gu Yiyi chose to marry the second master of the Mu family to stay close to Princess. You can also choose Nalan Jing...”

Tang Yin was speechless.

“And, if so, Nan Xian... He has no right to drive you away. Gu Yiyi is so smart... If one day, Nan Xian can’t control his jealousy anymore, he will kick you out, and you will never find a way back.”

Tang Yin somehow felt what Qian Ning said was true!

Fortunately, she quickly came back to her senses, stomped her foot, and yelled, “But Nalan Jing is my cousin! How can I marry him?”

“Young Lady, he’s Princess’ cousin, not yours,” Qian Ning explained seriously.

Tang Yin felt a vicious stab in her heart; it hurt.

“That won’t work either. I’m too familiar with Brother Nalan... He’s like my own brother. It’s not the same as how I feel about Xiao Qing.”

“Young Lady, how do you feel about Princess?”

“I want to worship her. I’m very fond of her...” Tang Yin smiled. “I am willing to follow her for the rest of my life.”

Qian Ning was speechless.

“But Brother Nalan... I don’t have the same feelings toward him at all. I like to spend time with him, but he is not someone I would worship. So I know very well that I will not marry him.”

Listening to Tang Yin’s words, Qian Ning’s expression froze.

‘Young Lady... This is wrong!’

Chapter 1855: The Unexpected VIII

Qian Ning felt that it would be useless to explain any more. Tang Yin was too stubborn and would not listen to anything she said.

“Young Lady, you can learn from Maiden Gu Yiyi.”

Hearing this, Tang Yin fell silent.

Suyi coughed lightly and said smilingly, “Nan Xian said that you were too annoying and always clinging to Qing’er. He’s trying to get rid of you.”

Tang Yin froze.

‘This vixen really wants to drive me away!’

“Anyway, you’re not our family. If he drives you away, you’ll not have a reason to come back...” Suyi laughed lightly.

Tang Yin’s face stiffened. She clenched her small fists tightly and growled. “That vixen is so rude! I’ll marry Brother Nalan! I’ll have Grandfather Nalan to back me up! I’ll see how he can drive me away!”

Suyi subconsciously sighed with relief. Her smile grew over her lips.

When she looked up, she saw Feng Ruqing approaching her...

“Xiao Qing!”

Tang Yin, too, looked at Feng Ruqing, who was walking toward her. Her eyes were red, and she pounced toward her pitifully.

“Xiao Qing, do you not want me anymore?”

Feng Ruqing raised her hand and touched Tang Yin’s head. Seeing her like this, she understood that this girl already knew everything.

“You don’t want to marry my cousin?”

“I...” Tang Yin gritted her teeth. “I want to marry him!”

Only then Nan Xian would not have any reason to drive her away!

In the future, when he saw her, he still had to address her respectfully.

Just thinking about it made her so happy!

"That's good..." Feng Ruqing smiled. "The wedding banquet is about to start, and Cousin is probably on his way. We couldn't inform you in advance, so there are many rituals we couldn't prepare, but we will re-organize it for you after we return to Cang Yue Mainland."

"There's no need to re-organize it. One time is enough."

Tang Yin pouted. She had no interest in it anyway.

But...

When she turned sideways for a moment, a thin figure appeared in her sight.

The man was handsome, and his face filled with gentleness.

She was stunned because... She had never seen such a side of him.

He was much better looking than before.

"Xiao Yin..."

Nalan Jing approached slowly and stopped in front of Tang Yin.

He smiled gently as his eyes fell upon the young girl's pretty little face.

"You... You're so beautiful today..."

Tang Yin somehow took a few steps back; her face was a little red, like an apple.

Feng Ruqing walked up to Tang Yin and held her hand tightly.

"Cousin..." Feng Ruqing grabbed Tang Yin and put her small hand into Nalan Jing's hand. "From now on, I will give Xiao Yin to you. You must take care of her and protect her for the rest of your life!"

Nalan Jing held Tang Yin's hand with a serious expression, making his lifelong promise in front of everyone present.

"I will..."

He would not let her suffer, nor would he let her shed tears.

Chapter 1856: The Unexpected IX

Tang Yin felt that Nalan Jing's hand was a little warm and wanted to pull her hand back, but Nalan Jing held her hand firmly and was unwilling to let go of it.

"All right, everyone..." Tianya came from a short distance away, smilingly, and said, "You two prepare to go to the wedding ceremony. The guests are waiting."

At that moment, Nalan Jing's nervous heart was about to jump out. He held Tang Yin's hand tightly, turned around, and walked toward the main hall.

Many people from Land of No Return had arrived, and they stood outside the hall, waiting for the couple, who would be married tonight.

It was the first time Tang Yin faced such a grand scene. She was so flustered that she was at a loss for words.

Nalan Jing held her hand tightly, or perhaps it was Nalan Jing's strength that made her nervous heart gradually calmed down...

Just at this time, a loud laugh came from the sky and shook the entire manor.

"Tianya, someone in your manor is getting married. Why didn't you invite us?"

This voice was like thunder and instantly made Tianya's face turn cold.

Feng Ruqing seemed to have sensed the cold aura around Tianya. Her face darkened as she looked at those people in the sky...

In the sky stood countless people with powerful auras.

They looked down, smirking at Tianya, who stood below.

"Qing'er, wait for me here."

Tianya turned to look at Feng Ruqing.

"Wait!"

Seeing that Tianya was about to leave, Feng Ruqing raised her hand and grabbed his hand.

She raised her head, gazed at the people in the sky, and asked coldly, "Today is my cousin's wedding. If you are here as guests, we naturally welcome you. But if you are here to cause trouble, don't blame us for being ungracious!"

"Hahaha!"

The green-robed old man in the forefront laughed wildly; his gaze was filled with contempt. "Little girl, I am talking to Tianya. Who are you, and how dare you talk to me with that tone? You..."

Before he could finish his words, Tianya moved like a lightning bolt and punched the green-robed old man's face.

Caught off guard, the green-robed old man took a few steps back. A trace of blood trailed down the corner of his mouth as he looked at Tianya angrily.

"You..."

"She is my granddaughter. What did you just call her?" Tianya smiled coldly. "There is an auspicious occasion in my manor today. I don't want to kill anybody, so all of you get out!"

Just as he was done speaking, a slightly familiar voice came from the side and into Tianya's ears.

"Tianya, do you still remember me?"

Tianya frowned and looked sideways, and soon, a woman with a hood appeared in his eyes.

The woman was dressed in emerald green, her voice was cold, and she looked at Tianya indifferently.

“Grandfather!” Feng Ruqing looked at the woman, her face slightly sunk. “She is the person who was with Feng Lianyi back then! Nan Xian has searched for her for a long time, but I didn’t expect her to appear on her own.”

The woman in green pursed her lips and laughed coldly. “Little girl, I didn’t expect you to remember me. That woman Feng Lianyi was too stupid. That’s why she got such retribution. I no longer have any relationship with her.”

Chapter 1857: The Unexpected X

Tianya’s gaze was tightly fixed upon the woman in green.

When she took Feng Lianyi away, she did not say a word, but now hearing her voice made Tianya feel that this voice was somewhat familiar...

As if he had heard it somewhere.

“It seems you don’t remember me anymore.” The woman in green smirked. “But today, we are here for one thing only. We want that little girl.”

She pointed at Tang Yin.

Nalan Jing’s heart tightened. He hurriedly shielded Tang Yin in his arms, his gaze alertly looking at the crowd in the sky.

Tianya also froze for a moment. Initially, he thought that these people came to mess up with him. He did not expect them to ... Come for Tang Yin?

Soon he came back to his senses and sneered. “I don’t care who you are looking for. I won’t let you take her away! Qing’er, you take Tang Yin first. I will go later!”

“But Grandfather...”

“Don’t worry. I’ll stop these people. You guys get out of this place!”

Tianya stroked his red robe, blocking these people.

The green-robed old man looked down at Tianya from above. “Tianya, I have always admired you. You could reach the peak in just twenty years, but yet, you are alone now, and we... We have a lot of people.”

Tianya laughed out loud. “But you’re all alone too before coming here.”

This group of people did not belong to any forces.

But now...

They had all gathered to bully a little girl!

Tianya was angry. He did not say anymore and rushed toward the green-robed old man.

“Xia Xia, do not let go of my hand later.”

Feng Ruqing held Xia Xia's hand and then turned to Tang Yin and Nalan Jing, who were not far away. "Cousin, take Dai'er and Xiao Yin and follow me."

If it were in the past, she would not have had any worries.

However, now... She had to take care of Xia Xia!

She turned and looked at Tianya in the sky. "After I send them to a safe place, I will come back to you immediately! You must wait for me!"

Feng Ruqing's face was filled with determination, with an unwavering decision.

She turned around swiftly and pulled Xia Xia along with her, leaving the manor.

The people in the sky saw Feng Ruqing leaving with them. Their expressions changed slightly, and they were about to chase after them when a white dress flashed by, blocking them.

"Qing'er, you do not need to worry. I will stay and help your grandfather to face these people. I will not let them catch up!"

Suyi looked as elegant as an immortal in her white dress.

Her expression darkened as she looked at the group of people in front of her...

In the backyard...

The silver snake lay on the bed quietly, sleeping peacefully.

The snakeskin, which was half removed, had completely fallen off, falling to the ground, but no one noticed it...

The silver snake opened its eyes slowly, and its gaze was as cold and firm as a sword, with a cold aura, so amazing that it made people shudder...

Within a few moments, the silver snake glided toward the exit of the room.

Its body was huge, tens of meters long, and even thicker than a tree...

It then suddenly disappeared.

Chapter 1858: Tianya's Rage

The sky was so gloomy as if there was a storm coming.

Tianya held the long sword in his hand tightly as countless skilled masters stood in the sky above, surrounding them.

There was no fear in Tianya's face; he kept his face expressionless.

His body blurred like a gale of wind, and in a moment, he was standing on top of a man's head. He swung his sword, setting off a powerful storm that could blow people away.

All the guests have left, leaving only a mess behind.

The woman gazed down at Tianya with a perplexed expression.

However, Tianya did not even so much as glance at her.

The white phoenix was by Suyi's side, looking at her worriedly, afraid that she would get hurt.

"White Phoenix, you don't need to care about me. Go find Qing'er and the others."

"No!"

The white phoenix shook its head. "I won't leave you."

From the corner of its eye, the white phoenix saw a man rush toward Suyi; its face changed dramatically.

"Suyi, be careful!"

The white phoenix swiftly flew toward the man, blowing flames from its mouth.

However, the man was too powerful, and his longsword still pierced through the white phoenix's body.

Blood splashed out, staining its wings red.

"White Phoenix!!!"

Suyi gritted her teeth and said, "Leave immediately! Go find Qing'er and the others."

The white phoenix coughed out a mouthful of blood. It shook its head, determination clear on its face.

"I said I wouldn't leave you. I will never leave you."

Even if...

It would end up dying. It would not leave her!

Tianya also received a cut on his shoulder.

He was strong, but he, alone, could not withstand so many skilled masters. His robe was wet and dark with blood already; no one knew if it was his blood or his enemies' blood...

"Tianya!" The green-robed old man smirked. "Do you think that your granddaughter can leave so easily? More people are waiting for them outside the city gate. Hahaha!"

He had arranged his men to wait there.

They had united together to get the beastman. When this matter was over, they would return to their own place, and once they separated, Tianya would go to them to get revenge.

Therefore...

This time they must succeed!

Tianya's face had not changed from when he faced these people until he heard this from the green-robed old man...

He was furious, his eyes turned bloodshot, and his face darkened.

“You have a death wish, don’t you!”

He raged, “If you dare to touch my granddaughter, I will make sure you all regret it for the rest of your lives!”

“Hehe...” The green-robed old man sneered. “Your power alone is not enough to face us. How can you stand up to so many of us? Tianya, this time, none of you will be able to escape.”

In an instant, the green-robed old man moved above Tianya’s head and swung his sword ruthlessly.

Tianya clutched the longsword in his hand.

His sword burned with a blazing flame, fiercely blocking the attack.

The powerful force spread out rapidly with hot flames, destroying all the surrounding trees.

Chapter 1859: Xiao Ya Awakens

Meanwhile...

Outside Wu Shang City.

Feng Ruqing stopped in her tracks, coldly looking at the crowd that appeared out of nowhere.

She smirked. ‘It looks like these people have made preparations and will never let Tang Yin escape easily...’

“Cousin, you take the girls. I will stop these people.”

Nalan Jing was hesitant. He was not at ease leaving Feng Ruqing alone here.

“Cousin, there’s no time. Take them away quickly!”

Boom!

The gale lifted around Feng Ruqing, and a huge pot appeared above her head at the same time, setting off shocking waves in the entire street outside the city gate. The huge pot rushed forward and smashed those people violently...

Tang Yin looked at Feng Ruqing and then looked at the two little girls in front of her.

“Brother Nalan, you take Xia Xia and Dai’er away. I’ll stay with Xiao Qing.” Her gaze was filled with determination.

“Xiao Yin!”

Nalan Jing looked flustered, trembled. He pressed her shoulders tightly and said, “I won’t leave you behind! It’s even more impossible for me to leave when you’re here.”

“No, you must go!” Tang Yin pushed Nalan Jing away. “No one can leave if Xiao Qing does not stop them, and if I follow you, these people will still come after me. Their target is me!”

Tang Yin smiled.

“Brother Nalan, Dai’er, and Xia Xia’s life are in your hands now.”

‘Dai’er and Xia Xia’s life... In my hands...’

Nalan Jing trembled harder. His eyes were red, looking up at Feng Ruqing, who was blocking that group of people...

He could help Tang Yin and Feng Ruqing if he stayed with them.

But...

Xia Xia and Dai’er would be in danger!

Xia Xia suddenly cried out. “I don’t want to go! I want my mother...”

“I’m not leaving either.”

Dai’er’s eyes were red but filled with stubbornness. “Brother, I do not want to go. I want to stay.”

Nalan Jing closed his eyes slowly. He suddenly raised his hand, pulled Tang Yin into his arms, and hugged her tightly.

“Xiao Yin...”

The man murmured, but it caused Tang Yin’s body to stiffen for a moment.

He lowered his eyes. “We will live and die together, so... Trust me. No matter where you go after this, I will accompany you and will not leave you alone.”

Tang Yin lifted her head and looked at the man’s handsome face.

This face was familiar, so familiar that it was deeply etched in her mind.

“Brother Nalan...”

“Wait for me.”

Nalan Jing loosened his embrace, he pulled Nalan Dai’er with one hand, picked up Xia Xia with the other, and finally looked behind him at Tang Yin and Feng Ruqing, turned around, and walked not far away.

As expected, seeing that Tang Yin did not leave, those people did not have much desire to chase after Nalan Jing.

After all, the only one they wanted to catch was Tang Yin. It was none of their business if others ran away.

“Xiao Yin...”

Feng Ruqing descended from the sky and stood before Tang Yin. “Why aren’t you leaving?”

“It’s useless for me to go.” Tang Yin shook her head and smiled. “They’re here to catch me. So they won’t let me leave easily.”

Chapter 1860: I Will Never Let You Go

“But...”

“Xiao Qing, I’m not afraid. All these years, you and Brother Nalan have been protecting me, so much so that I relied on you guys too much, so...” Tang Yin looked down before looking back up at Feng Ruqing and smiled sadly. “That’s why I can’t even face some difficulties. In the future, I will not rely on you guys anymore.”

After she said this, she slowly turned around, looking directly at the group of skilled masters in the sky.

“If I follow you, will you let them go?”

The black-robed man sneered. “We only want you. It has nothing to do with others. If you leave with us, of course, we will not harm any people from General Manor.”

“Good...”

Tang Yin’s voice trembled.

Her delicate and pretty small face was slightly pale in the sunlight.

“I’ll go with you.”

“Xiao Yin!” Feng Ruqing took Tang Yin’s hand as she shook her head and turned her gaze to the crowd in the sky. “Do you think they’ll let us go if you follow them? These people have long wanted to make a move against Tianya, but they just never had the chance. They just want to take advantage of this matter to unite and kill Tianya.”

Feng Ruqing did not know what kind of conflict was there between Tianya and these people, but she clearly understood that these people would never let Tianya go easily.

“What’s more...” Feng Ruqing smiled. “You all probably know about Xiao Yin’s physique and have come for this reason, but Xiao Yin is only one person... All of you want her, so how do you want to divide her?”

The black-robed man sneered. “Little girl, you think you can provoke us? We have long thought of this matter. We will catch this girl first, and the strongest one will take her. Of course, others will not lose out because the one who gets her will also give out a lot of benefits to other people who contributed.”

Feng Ruqing looked down.

“Then, there is no way out.” Feng Ruqing held Tang Yin’s hand tightly. “I will not give her to you.”

“Little girl, why do you have to be like that? This girl just needs to cooperate with us, and she won’t lose her life. If you insisted on keeping her, you will lose your life.”

‘Why?’

Feng Ruqing closed her eyes.

“Because this is the promise I made back then...”

Xiao Yin had chosen her and given up the Tang family.

So... How could she bear to let her suffer in her life?

Therefore, she would never let her go.

The moment Feng Ruqing opened her eyes, a long black sword appeared before her.

At the same time, a man with a cold aura appeared in the sky.

This man looked so handsome, but his face was ghastly pale.

What was even more frightening was...

He was a soul!

The man raised his hand, took the black sword, and rushed toward those people in the sky.

He used this black sword very well because he was the black sword's soul, and soon, he was already in front of those people.

"Xiao Qing!" Tang Yin was anxious; tears flowed down her delicate face. "You let go of me! I can't drag you guys down with me."

"Shut up!" Feng Ruqing looked back at Tang Yin. "Just stay by my side and don't talk too much. I'll never let you go!"
