Chapter 431: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family III

Qing Zhu glanced pitifully at Feng Rushuang and started to gloat over her situation.

Usually, its master did not like to talk much with people. He spoke so much to stop Feng Rushuang from explaining because... he did not want Feng Ruqing to misunderstand him. Or else, usually, when he was dealing with things, he would be too lazy to explain even if others misunderstood him.

He would simply punch them right away!

The reason why he talked so much nonsense was that he wanted to let Feng Ruqing hear about it. However, Feng Rushuang was so stupid that she thought its master would have a crush on her just because he shot her another glance?

He was only thinking about how to avenge Feng Ruqing by hurting her. What an idiot.

"Master," Qing Zhu continued, stealthily, "Feng Rushuang has already been talking in such a shameless way when we arrived. Why don't you punch her directly instead of wasting time."

Nan Xian frowned as he looked slightly confused. "Did she say something... just now?"

Qing Zhu was speechless.

It was angry. Then, it turned its snake head toward Feng Ruqing. "Princess, don't you feel angry? How dare Feng Rushuang flirt with Master in such a sick way."

Feng Ruqing seemed shocked. She paused for a while and asked in embarrassment, "What did Feng Rushuang say? I'm sorry I didn't hear that..."

Qing Zhu was speechless again.

Why did it feel like it was stuffed with dog food <sup>1</sup> ?

Both of their eyes were only filled with each other. Feng Rushuang was alive, and her voice was loud too, how could she be totally ignored...

Feng Rushuang had the same thought as the snake too. Her heart hurt as her eyes were burning with anger.

"Nan Xian, I'm not Feng Tianyu's daughter. My father is the young master from the Divine Herbs Sect. You have to marry me, or else I'll get someone to destroy Liu Yun Kingdom!"

Liu Rong heart jolted as she seemed to panic. Had Feng Rushuang not seen how Nan Xian had defeated Young Master Zhenyang with just a touch?

Of course, it was not only Liu Rong who wanted to strangle her daughter to death, even Young Master Zhenyang intended to kill her immediately.

“Feng Rushuang, keep your mouth and shut!” Gu Zhenyang crawled up from the ground and lie a hand on his chest. He coughed twice and turned to look at Nan Xian, “Young Master Nan Xian, the state preceptor of Liu Yun Kingdom... is you as well?”

He had been keeping an eye on Liu Yun Kingdom all these years, but he could only keep watch on Feng Tianyu and others. Besides, he could only watch discreetly from behind and never step inside the Southern Bamboo Forest too. So, he never got a chance to see Nan Xian.

‘Nan’ was a rare surname. It was not a surname that did not exist in the mainland.

However, the mainland was such a big land with billions of people. There were quite a number of people with the same surname and given name.

Also, adding up to the fact that Nan Xian, who was already outstanding, also came from the Mu family of Tian Shen Manor, a family that was mighty and powerful, so Gu Zhenyang would never have thought that a person as noble as Young Master Nan Xian would come to Liu Yun Kingdom just to be a little state preceptor...

Nan Xian’s looked down at Gu Zhenyang with his cold eyes condescendingly.

That force was too strong and it rendered Gu Zhenyang immobile. His body was so stiff that even lifting his head was extremely hard also.

However, he did not want to show any sign of weakness in front of Feng Tianyu. He forced himself to lift his head, gritted his teeth, and looked back arrogantly.

Feng Rushuang’s eyes widened in astonishment as if she was struck by lightning.

In her eyes, Gu Zhenyang was a noble and arrogant young master of the Divine Herbs Sect, how could he show the white feather to Nan Xian?

The Divine Herbs Sect... Which was tied up with Tian Shen Manor and Deities Gateway at the same status and position... Wasn’t that one of the most powerful places in the mainland?

But then, the arrogant young master of the Divine Herbs Sect was being suppressed by Nan Xian...

Feng Rushuang’s body turned limp as she collapsed to the ground. She glared jealously at Feng Ruqing as she felt very uncomfortable. It felt as if ants were chewing at her heart.

Chapter 432: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family IV

She could not accept it!

She could not accept the fact that she lost to Feng Ruqing!

A minx such as Feng Ruqing should not be alive!

“No!”

Seeing Nan Xian walking toward Zhenyang, Zhen Qing came to her senses and quickly rushed toward Feng Ruqing.

She knew she was no match for Nan Xian, so she had to buy some time for Gu Zhenyang to leave!

With a violent force, she fully vented her feelings with a violent outburst.

At that moment, her voice was no longer disguised. She sounded pale, husky, and low.

“Young Master Zhenyang, go, quick!”

Gu Zhenyang was stunned. He looked at Zhen Qing’s resolute face and turned away, escaping into the sky.

Nan Xian did not bother with him. He landed in front of Feng Ruqing and pulled her into his arms.

He lightly tapped Zhen Qing’s forehead with his fingers.

The self-destruction force suddenly vanished. A hole appeared, piercing right through Zhen Qing’s forehead. Her eyes widened as she collapsed to the ground, beating up dust around her.

Feng Ruqing blinked and said, “Well, I’m not afraid of other person’s self-destruction.”

If worse came to worst... she would absorb the forces into the medium.

“Yeap.” Nan Xian looked calm. “But I won’t let it happen if she wanted to kill you.”

For Gu Zhenyang...

Nan Xian coldly stared in the direction where Gu Zhenyang had left.

The monk can run away, but the temple remains . <sup>1</sup>

It seemed that he had to visit the Divine Herbs Sect...

“He owes you two lives...” Nan Xian paused and glanced at Qin Chen. “Three lives, I will get it back for you in a few days.”

“Also, Eunuch Lin and grandfather had been injured. Oh, and this battle, in Liu Yun Kingdom... a lot of people have died.”

Feng Ruqing’s heart sank slightly.

Gu Zhenyang was the one behind all these, he could not get away from this war.

Therefore, he owed not only three lives.

“Okay, I will get it all back for you.”

The man still sounded calm. However, anyone could tell from his voice that he was pampering her.

‘Whatever you want, I will give it all to you.

‘Even if it were... others’ lives!’

Nan Xian was not being anxious about Gu Zhenyang’s escape. Compared to killing Gu Zhenyang, the more important thing was Feng Ruqing and Feng Tianyu.

"I've brought you the phoenix's tears that you have requested."

He swung his hand, and a porcelain bottle dropped into his palm. He held Feng Ruqing's hand and gently put it on her hands.

Feng Ruqing's heart skipped a beat.

'We have every spirit herbs, and the phoenix's tears now. I can finally cure my father!'

She suddenly paused and turned around to look at Liu Rong and her daughter, coldly.

"Chen'er, help me to bring them... to my grandfather. The wrath of the world could not be appeased with only a Liu Yunxiao, the whole Liu family has to pay it back!"

Liu Rong's body turned limp as she fell to the ground.

She knew what her father had done. If she and her family were to be thrown to the crowd's disposal as a way to appease the world, they would be in a situation that would be worse than death!

"No, Feng Tianyu, after all, the feelings between wife and husband would last forever. Although we never had any intimate contact before, I'm still your concubine, you can't treat me this way!"

Liu Rong panicked. She crawled in front of Feng Tianyu with tears streaming down her face.

Feng Tianyu looked cold and replied fiercely, "The crime that the Liu family had committed must be paid with fresh blood. All the heroes from the world are all waiting for your family's blood to be nourished! Eunuch Lin, please announce my decree. I proclaim that every member of the Liu family who is involved in this battle must be killed!"

Eunuch Lin's chest was still aching. His face was slightly contorted as his whole body was shaking and trembling.

Chapter 433: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan at the Tang Family V

Feng Tianyu sighed and said, "Announce the decree when you've recovered, it's not urgent."

Eunuch Lin took a punch for him just now, he would not allow him to run any errands for him no matter what.

"Eunuch Lin."

Feng Ruqing slowly walked to Eunuch Lin. She looked at him sincerely and said, "I have some herbal dishes here, you can drink it to help relieve your injury. Also, thank you for... protecting my father."

Eunuch Lin lowered his head, embarrassed. "I didn't manage to protect His Majesty, it was Your Highness and the state preceptor who had saved His Majesty."

"No, it's enough that you're faithful. We of Liu Yun Kingdom, will never mistreat any loyal courtiers."

Then, she turned to look at Feng Lan.

"Thanks for your help too. I will always bear this in mind."

Feng Lan wanted to put in a good word for her house's young master, but she sighed after watching Nan Xian, who was standing next to Feng Ruqing.

'No matter what he feels for Feng Ruqing princess, he has... no chance at all.'

"Father..." Feng Ruqing held Feng Tianyu's hand and said, "I have already found a way to cure you of poison. We will go and fetch her after the poison is cured."

Feng Tianyu grasped onto Feng Ruqing's arms as his breathing became labored. "Do you really know... where she is?"

Feng Ruqing nodded.

"Is she... doing well?"

He did not ask any other questions besides Nalan Yan's situation. Also, he never asked if she was still in love with him.

All he wanted to know was if she was still doing okay?

"She's not fine, and she really wanted to come home. Therefore, Father, you have to recover in time so we can fetch her back together..."

Tang Yin mentioned before that she would never leave, not even a step, from the back hill.

However, she had walked down from the hill that day!

How much did she miss home to have made such a move?

And she... did not realize that she was Nalan Yan.

As soon as she thought of Nalan Yan staring at her and Tang Yin turning away and leaving her behind, Feng Ruqing's heart hurt as the pain spread inside her heart. She hit her chest with her palm.

"Xiao Qing." Qin Chen pulled off her fingers and said, "No matter what, you must not hurt yourself again."

Feng Ruqing slowly took a deep breath as a smile lit up her beautiful face. "I was a bit emotional just now. Did I scare you?"

Her voice was... too soft.

Not to mention the others, even Nan Xian had never seen this side of her before.

With a light that was hard to notice flashing in Nan Xian's eyes, he calmly looked at Qin Chen.

"Feng Ruqing, you're such a b*tch who can marry just any guys. You're just like your mother, you flirt and seduce others even you are attached to a guy," Feng Rushuang screeched in outrage.

Her whole face was distorted with envy.

Nan Xian's eyes flashed coldly. He swung his sleeves as an invisible force shot through Feng Rushuang's shoulders. The force nailed her body onto the trees, making her unable to move.

If Qing'er did not mention to use her to appease the wrath of the world, Feng Rushuang would have been already dead.

"Nan Xian," Feng Rushuang's eyes widened in disbelief. "Didn't you see her flirting with another man? She's just like her mother, why are you treating me this way when I'm speaking for you?"

Blood oozed from her shoulder, and her face turned pale because it was so painful. However, it hurt even more in her heart.

"Hoho!" Qing Zhu sneered. "Empress Nalan has been faithful to the emperor for her whole life. She refused to devote herself to Gu Zhenyang even under his menace. What makes you think that she was willing to marry just any guys? On the contrary, it's your mother who had cheated but still insisted on claiming herself as the emperor's concubine. Who's the b*tchy one now?"

Chapter 434: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family VI

"Oh, speaking of which, I saw that you have attempted to crawl into my master's bed. On the contrary, our princess never crawled into anyone's bed. It has always been the master crawling into her bed."

Feng Ruqing did not say anything.

She would not crawl into a bed, she would just... lunge into the bed.

Qing Zhu turned to look at Feng Ruqing expectantly, hoping for praises.

Yeap. It was hoping that the princess would not threaten it by turning it into a snake soup again after hearing its words.

It was only a little snake but to bear such a pain that it should not be taking in its age.

"Ehem!" Feng Tianyu coughed. His voice was weak yet firm. "Eunuch Lin, get the herbs out from the national treasury and announce my decree: No one is allowed to kill Feng Rushuang. If she's on the brink of death, bring her back and continue to torture her. The same applies to Liu Rong."

Feng Lang smiled and said, "Herbs are not strong enough. We, of Paramount, are willing to contribute some of the spirit herbs to cure them, only when they are about to die! Also, besides spirit herbs, Paramount has poisons too. We can contribute those as well."

The worst thing that can happen to a person is not death.

But to be brought back to life when the person is dying from pain!

Just as Feng Ruqing wanted to hold Feng Tianyu, she paused as soon as she heard Feng Lan. So, she asked, "Feng Lan, how many powerhouses do you have... in Paramount?"

Feng Lan replied, "Master, Young Master had brought with many powerhouses, and they haven't returned yet. Now we are left with three Spirit Warriors."

"What about the other places?"

“There are more than ten Spirit Warriors in other places. Also, every Paramount member is guarded by a Dark Warrior.”

“Okay,” Feng Ruqing grinned. “Gather all the powerhouses from Paramount for me! Including Dark Warriors!”

Feng Lan was stunned. “Master Feng, the Dark Warriors have the same position as a master too, I’m afraid that...”

“Then tell them I speak on behalf of Jiu Ming, I need a helping hand from Jiu Ming, they won’t decline me.” Feng Ruqing looked confident. “It’s because I’m the one who provides all of the remedies and prescriptions.”

Feng Lan looked surprised.

‘The remedies and prescriptions of Paramount... were provided by Feng Ruqing?’

‘If that’s the case, the masters of Paramount will do their best to help, for the sake of the herbal dishes.’

“Yes, Master.”

Feng Ruqing turned around said, “Father, let’s go. I will bring you to get some rest, and then I can help you in curing the poison.”

“Qing’er,” Nan Xian’s gaze swept through all the people from Paramount and continued calmly, “The people that you’re against, I can handle them on my own.”

Feng Ruqing stopped walking abruptly. “I’m going to bring my mother back. I will make everyone from the Tang family regret the things they have done!”

***

In the Liu family’s inner court.

Liu Yuchen gradually woke up and rubbed his temples. He opened his eyes to the worried look on the woman’s face next to him.

Suddenly, Liu Yuchen quivered and got up from his bed. His face was resolute. “Mother, don’t stand in my way anymore. I’m usually timid but... I can’t bear to see the kingdom fall apart.”

Lady Liu was shocked. She quickly shouted to stop Liu Yuchen. “Yuchen, why are you going there? The war has ended.”

‘The war... has ended?’

Liu Yuchen stopped walking and slowly turned his head around. His handsome face was pale as he asked, stressing on each word, “What. Did. You. Say?”

Chapter 435: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family VII

“The war has ended, you don’t have to go,” Lady Liu frowned and said.

Really... ended?

Liu Yuchen gently pursed his lips and closed his eyes, as if in agony. "Still, Father has betrayed the country."

Liu Yun Kingdom... stood no chance of winning.

Since the war had ended, the final outcome was... obvious.

But the Liu family was still fine there, did that not imply that... his father had surrendered himself to the other kingdoms?

"What nonsense are you talking about? Feng Ruqing has returned. And I have also heard that she has brought back a violent little girl who had killed all the powerhouses from the four kingdoms." Lady Liu kept going. "Think about it, if you didn't divorce Feng Ruqing back then, she wouldn't have been so heartless to us. You'll have to seize the opportunity in the future and make yourself the emperor's son-in-law!"

Liu Yuchen's ears buzzed. He could not hear any of the words.

The sentence kept on echoing in his mind—

'Feng Ruqing has returned, the war has ended!'

The girl whom he had loathed before had unknowingly grown into a person of another level.

Liu Yuchen walked out anyway.

"Yuchen, where are you going? Are you looking for that woman, Tan Shuangshuang? You are not allowed to go!" Lady Liu became anxious and ran after Liu Yuchen to stop him.

Liu Yuchen laughed out loud twice with his sleeves swaying along with the breeze. "The Liu family has still betrayed the kingdom! Hahaha, and I, Liu Yuchen, have become the son of a criminal. What qualifications do I have, and how am I qualified to marry her again?"

Regardless of the fact that if the Liu family had or had not betrayed the kingdom, his father did really possess such an intention before.

Feng Tianyu was not stupid. He could tell from that war, and the Liu family would still be a past tense eventually...

No matter how Lady Liu cried and screamed, Liu Yuchen did not stop walking.

That floating figure vanished in the dark night... completely gone...

***

General Manor was in chaos.

Nalan Hu was standing in the dark of the night. His old face was dark as his eyes were filled with unquenchable fury.

Liu Yunxiao had died!

He died in a cruel way!

His body was not left with even a piece of skin intact.

Not only did the enraged crowd cut him with swords, but they had also used hammers to hit him and even opened their mouths to bite him .<sup>1</sup>

Nalan Hu had destroyed Liu Yunxiao's ability and strength before that. Therefore, Liu Yunxiao could not fight back the crowd's anger after that.

Also, he was a man with rough and thick flesh, but then the crowd still bit a large piece of flesh off of him, it was obvious that the crowd was really mad.

However...

Liu Yunxiao's death still did not appease the anger inside his heart.

He was still angry with the four kingdoms from the mainland, and also... the powerhouse who was behind all these!

"How's the palace now?" He asked in a deep voice.

The three great families were standing behind Nalan Hu. They were quietly staring at the old man's back, which seemed like quite a lonely figure.

"The palace is safe and sound now. Also, Liu Rong and Feng Rushuang have been sent here. I plan to push them into the street right away, so they could be tortured to appease the crowds' anger," Qin Feiyang sighed and said.

Nalan Hu's face finally looked a little better. Then, he turned to look at another old man and said, "Yup, that's quite a good way. Wei Fang, Yi'er has told me what had happened before, you should really take a look and manage your family well. Don't let them... ruin your whole brilliant life!"

Wei Fang seemed to have grown a dozen years older at that moment.

His back was crooked, and he could never look glorious like a teenager again.

"Old General, I understand!" He slowly closed his eyes. Then, he suddenly opened them, flashing with a firm and resolute light.

Back then, he had suffered so many difficulties and pains, but he had never thought of betraying the kingdom.

Chapter 436: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family VIII

Because he understood that even if he died within the enemies' barracks, the old general... and other people from the Liu Yun Kingdom would avenge him.

So what was the big deal dying?

He had been faithful for his whole life. However, his son... not only did he betray the kingdom, but he also scolded his father in front of the crowd in order to survive!

Such a man was not qualified to become the Wei family's son!

"Wei Fang." Qin Feiyang frowned discontentedly. "Tell me, why did you get a concubine back then? We were charging forward, but those women were messing around in the back. It's better to have only one wife, simple and nice."

Wei Fang lowered his head in shame.

"Indeed, it's my fault regarding this matter... I shouldn't have listened to Mother in getting a concubine."

Qin Feiyang could not bear saying anything more while looking at his reaction. He tapped on his shoulder and said, "You don't need to listen to every senior. Look at that eighty-something old lady in your house, who didn't enjoy her life with her family but was making a fuss every day. Now, you should take this as a lesson and take good care of your own backyard <sup>1</sup>."

He paused for a while before continued.

"We, of three great families, follow the pace of the old general. If our family's reputation is tarnished, the old general will be disgraced with us as well.

Wei Fang could ignore all the other things, but the thing he cared for most was the old general.

The admiration he experienced for the old general during his youth was enough to influence his whole life as he had decided to follow in the old general's footsteps for the rest of his life, without any hesitation.

"Old General, don't worry. I will expel them from the family once I'm back!" Wei Fang had turned totally heartless now. "From now on, Wei Xiang and Wei Mengjie will not be members of the Wei family anymore! If the old lady wishes to live her late-life peacefully, I will take care of her until she passes away. If she doesn't, I will send her to Qiu Shan's second courtyard <sup>1</sup> and never let her return to the imperial city anymore!"

Qin Feiyang smirked. "No, your house old lady won't sit back. I think it's better off sending her away, just in case she brings more trouble to you."

Wei Fang sighed deeply. He knew that all that Qin Feiyang had mentioned was the truth.

"If that's the case, I can only send her away. Even if she was sent to Qiu Shan's second courtyard, the condition over there is only a little poorer, and she will not be badly treated. All of this is better than letting her make trouble in the imperial city."

After all those years, he should give Pinyao an explanation!

"Wei Fang, back then... I tried to stop you when you were getting a new concubine, but then your mom was crying, screaming, and threatening me with death. Also, you're a filial son, and I decided to not butt in on your private business anymore," Nalan Hu spoke up as well. He never sounded that solemn before. "However, today, you reap what you have sowed!"

Why should he suddenly take a concubine? Yes, he had a son with her then, but the son had disgraced him.

Did he not ask for it?

The Nalan family held onto the principle of getting only one wife, and Qin Feiyang was influenced by that principle too. He never had any concubine before. However, that Wei Fang... was too obedient.

If someone is over-obedient, then that makes them stupid!

“Therefore, don’t let the people of the Wei family tarnish your family’s reputation!” Nalan Hu said coldly. “Yi’er is from the Qin family, and Pinyao is her sister-in-law. Therefore, I, Nalan Hu will not stand idly by on this matter. You have to give us an explanation!”

Qin Feiyang sneered. “I don’t care how Wei Mengjie is behaving in the Wei family. Pinyao is my daughter-in-law, and I will not tolerate anyone who bullies her. Tomorrow, I will go to your Wei family and watch you expel them from your house!”

Wei Fang’s heart jolted.

They had been comrades for so many years, after all. So, to what extent were these people not trusting in him?

Chapter 437: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family IX

He would do as he had said!

“Okay, it’s getting late. You may leave first. When those vermin are out of the Wei family, we will continue being old comrades. Or else, we will be enemies no matter how loyal you, Wei Fang, are!” Nalan Hu said wryly.

Wei Fang’s lips twisted. He would never keep those people in his house since that old guy had said such things.

“Old General, Master Qin, and Master Jiang, I’ll have to excuse myself now.”

Wei Fang cupped his fist. He turned around and left.

He had to go home as soon as possible to get over those trifles.

As soon as Wei Fang thought of those people’s deeds, Wei Fang’s face sank. It was as if his face could even sink to the bottom of the sea...

“Master Qin, what do you think?”

Nalan Hu squinted and turned to look at Qin Feiyang after Wei Fang had left.

“I don’t usually care. However, my daughter has been protecting the Wei family, and they had pushed her away when they were in danger. I can’t tolerate such behaviors!” Qin Feiyang sneered. “When those people get out of the Wei family, I will make them... suffer for the rest of their lives!”

Nalan Hu smiled and nodded. "I think the same, too."

Master Jiang, who was standing nearby, remained in silence.

Why did he feel that these two old fellows were a little frightening?

Luckily, no one from his Jiang family had done such a thing before. Or else, he would beat them to death!

Nalan Hu suddenly frowned and sank into deep thought.

"Are you okay?" Qin Feiyang asked as noticed that he was acting unusual.

Nalan Hu shook his head and replied, "I'm fine. I just feel that I have forgotten something, and I can't recall what exactly..."

Who did he actually... forget?

***

The next morning.

Inside the palace, a mighty power rushed out from the chamber and shot into the sky. All the dark clouds drifted away.

Eunuch Lin stared at Feng Tianyu's chamber, surprised. He could not even talk properly.

"What... What happened? Isn't His Majesty curing himself of the poison? How could there be such an intense reaction in detoxification?"

Feng Ruqing slowly came forward and smiled gently. "Father has broken through to a new tier."

"Well..." Eunuch Lin was dumbfounded.

'His Majesty hasn't been cultivating for such a long time. How... How could he make a breakthrough so suddenly?'

And that breakthrough's force lingered in the sky, not fading even after a long time.

"I've mentioned before that Father is quite a talented person. It's because he was given too little time and was poisoned at the same time that he could not cultivate properly." Feng Ruqing gazed at the sky. "However, there was still be spiritual power seeping into his body. But then, the toxic had inhibited the spiritual power, causing his body to not be able to absorb that spiritual power well."

"So..." Feng Ruqing paused for a while. "I've made use of this opportunity to let the spiritual power smoothly reach into his abdomen when I was unclogging Father's tendons and vessels when removing the poison from his body. "

However, she did not mention that she had added a few drops of spirit water into the spirit herb dishes. By doing so, she could double the effect of the spirit herb dishes and help him break through all the barriers in one shot.

The only thing was that they did not know how far he could breakthrough.

At least... it should also be Advanced Spirit Warrior tier!

The door of the chamber opened slowly.

In the morning sunlight, an impressive, bright yellow figure came to Feng Ruqing's vision.

The man had grown from his usual weak state to his current high-spirited and powerful self, he looked as if he was the ruler of the world.

Staring at Feng Tianyu's overwhelming vigor, Feng Ruqing finally relaxed. "Congratulations, Father. One-shot to Dark Warrior tier."

Dark... Dark Warrior tier?

Eunuch Lin was shocked.

Chapter 438: Go and Fetch Nalan Yan from the Tang Family X

How could the emperor breakthrough Dark Warrior tier all of a sudden?

That was a power that... could surpass the six kingdoms.

A surge of joy came after the surprise.

The emperor had broken through Dark Warrior tier!

From that day onward... no one could take advantage of Liu Yun Kingdom anymore!

"Qing'er, let's go and bring your mother home."

Without the invasion of the poison, Feng Tianyu's body had never felt so relaxed before. He felt much lighter and could even walk in the air.

"Oh, by the way..." Feng Tianyu paused before he continued, "Should we get your grandfather here..."

Feng Ruqing shook. "We don't have to. Mother might not be in a good state, I'm afraid that grandfather would be irritated if he sees her. We will look for him after we have fetched Mother."

Tang Yin told her before that... She had no memories at all. She could not recognize anyone other than her daughter and son.

She must not let her maternal grandfather see her mother in such a condition. After she fetches her mother, she would bring her to him when she had restored her memories.

"I still have other issues to deal with with the Tang family." Feng Ruqing's face grew colder. "All the sufferings that the Tang family had imposed on Tang Zi, I want them to pay for all it too!"

Last night, Feng Ruqing told Tang Zi everything when all the people from the Iron-Blooded Troop had returned to the palace.

Therefore, the Iron-Blooded Troop had been waiting for her since early in the morning.

They were waiting to fetch the empress! Also... they were waiting for the Tang family's fate!

Tang Zi gripped onto the long sword, tightly. She was furious. "What the Tangs owes the empress and me, they should pay it back!"

Since then, she was not a member of the Tang family anymore!

Now, not only was she not a member of the Tang family, but she was also Tang family's... enemy!

"Che..." Feng Ruqing looked at Qin Chen's familiar face. Before she could say the name, she changed it immediately before she blurted it out. "Chen'er, wait for me in the princess's manor."

Qin Chen's young handsome face was bright with a smile. "I'll be with you."

He would never let go of anyone that broke her heart!

A murderous intent flashed in the young guy's bright eyes.

"Para-mour." Qing Zhu peeped with its little head and grinned. "My master will be by the princess's side, I think you should go back and wait for her."

Feng Ruqing's face darkened. "No! Nonsense! He's my brother!"

The corners of Nan Xian's lips lifted as he saw that Feng Ruqing was anxiously denying. The smile was unfathomable. "Xiao Qing likes to talk crap. Why don't we turn it into a snake soup to make it a little quieter?"

Qing Zhu was speechless.

'Master, I'm helping you, how can you bully me!

'I want to run away from home and never ever come back!'

Without responding, Qin Chen was still quietly standing beside Feng Ruqing.

He seemed to be at ease as long as she was beside him.

"Father, let's go. I've informed Xiao Yin just now. She should be waiting for us by now."

Feng Ruqing closed her eyes. There was a storm that could not be hidden in her eyes.

***

At the backhill of the Tang family, in the wooden hut.

Rong Yan lay on the wooden bed. Her eyes were blank as she stared at the ceiling, blood oozed from her chapped lips, and her face was as pale as paper. She was so skinny that her figure was out of shape.

She was not as pretty as she was in her younger days anymore.

Tang Luo could not believe that Rong Yan had turned out this way when he did not visit the back hill for only several days.

Looking at the girl he loved in such a pitiful condition, his trembling hand reached out and caressed the girl's pale face.

His eyes were filled with pain.

“Yu’er, what happened to Yan’er?”

Tang Yu was pretending not to look indifferent and said, “Father, I’ve listened to your words and have taken good care of Aunt Rong. But Aunt Rong... she doesn’t want to stay at the Tang family and has gone on a hunger strike to force me into the corner. She has not been drinking water for the past few days and has become dehydrated by doing so.”

Chapter 439: Going to the Tang Family Again I

Tang Luo’s heart suddenly sank. The force he had applied with his finger had caused his nail to accidentally make Rong Yan’s face red. He panicked and quickly said, “Yan’er, I didn’t mean it.”

Rong Yan stared at the roof blankly without even glancing at Tang Luo at all. Her eyes were hollow.

Tang Luo became more anxious. Did he do anything wrong when he just wanted to make her stay?

“Yan’er, I know you feel hate, but you would understand that I’m doing this out of love in the future.”

Tang Luo crawled up from the bed and looked resolute. “Yu’er, if she doesn’t want to eat, you force her to eat. We must not let her die!”

Tang Yu gently smiled and replied, “Father, don’t worry. I won’t let Aunt Rong die since I like her so much.”

Tang Luo sighed as soon as he heard Tang Yu’s words. In recent days, there were too many affairs to settle in the Tang family. Therefore, he could hardly come and accompany Rong Yan all the time.

Luckily Yu’er was there. At least Yan’er would not feel so lonely with Yu’er being by her side...

“Yan’er, I know you couldn’t let go of them until now. However, time will heal and you will be able to put the past behind. I’m patient enough to wait for you. If ten years is not enough, I can wait for a hundred years. If I cannot get you in this life, then I will wait until my next life. I won’t let go of you, no matter what.”

The only thing that bothered him in his life was meeting her! However, he loved her so much that he could not free himself from it.

Tang Luo took a last glance at Rong Yan and slowly walked out of the wooden hut.

Tang Yu’s smile disappeared as soon as Tang Luo left.

She raised the water glass beside her and swung it back and forth in front of Rong Yan. The corners of her lips were turned up into a contemptuous and sarcastic smile.

“Rong Yan, you want to drink? I can give you a sip, but you have to give me all of your storage bags.”

Violet-Milvus Bloom. Any taker would be dead from dehydration no matter how much water was taken to make up for the loss of water.

However, any taker would madly desire to drink when the taker was fed with the Violet-Milvus Bloom. Therefore, it was not Rong Yan who went on a hunger strike. It was Tang Yu who had intentionally refused to give her even a grain of rice or a sip of water.

Rong Yan did not respond. She stared at the ceiling blankly with her hollow eyes, as if she could hear nothing from her surroundings anymore.

“Rong Yan, I will come back to see you a few days later since you’re so stubborn. You’re going to die in the end. Soon, the storage bag will lose its owner, and I will naturally become its new owner by making it my own.”

Tang Yu sneered and smashed the glass of water onto the floor. Then, she turned around and left.

As soon as she left, Rong Yan’s eyes slowly recovered from the blankness. She looked calm, solemn, and cold.

Outside the city gate of Liu Yun Kingdom.

All the corpses were buried after the battle, leaving only the dry blood to remind the world of that battle.

Feng Lan was already standing at the city gate, waiting for Feng Ruqing.

She saw the eye-catching young girl standing among the crowd. Her eyes flashed as she paced forward. “Master Feng, I’ve brought you the people you requested.”

Feng Ruqing looked at the crowd standing behind Feng Lan.

Twenty Spirit Warriors and three Dark Warriors...

That was the ultimate power from all that the surrounding Paramounts possessed.

“Qing’er,” Nan Xian’s gentle voice chimed beside Feng Ruqing. “I might be a little late to fetch you from the Tang family.”

Feng Ruqing blinked and turned to look at that divine man.

The man was the most handsome man in the world as he looked indifferent and elegant. The corner of his lips was vaguely lifted into an arch, as his eyes reflected the figure of the young woman.

“I’m going somewhere else first.”

Chapter 440: Going to the Tang Family Again II

The Divine Herbs Sect... Gu Zhenyang...

Since they were fetching the empress back, every matter deserved an explanation!

Therefore, Nan Xian had planned early on to part with Feng Ruqing after sending her to the city gate. Then, he would bring Gu Zhenyang out of the Divine Herbs Sect and go back to the Tang family to fetch her.

Feng Ruqing paused and nodded. "Okay, I'll wait for you there, after I fetch my Mother."

"Well..." Nan Xian held Feng Ruqing's hand and put a feather into her hand. "When you reach the Tang family, do not dirty your hands by fighting on your own. Light the feather up with fire, and someone will be cleaning the rubbish for you. "

Feng Ruqing said nothing.

'Are you sure this feather has such an effect?'

No matter what, she liked it as long as it was something from Nan Xian.

"Also, take the jade pendant with you, and do not take it off, no matter what or when!" Nan Xian urged seriously.

He would only be assured to see Feng Ruqing heading alone to the Tang family, when she had not only, the white phoenix's feather, but also... that jade pendant.

"Okay." Feng Ruqing nodded.

Those were the love tokens that the state preceptor had given to her, she would never lose them.

"Wait for me to come. I'll be there for you soon." Nan Xian gently smiled and looked at Qin Chen by accident.

Qin Chen lifted his eyes and looked back at him too.

His eyes were pure with resoluteness.

Both of their eyes met and something happened. It was as if eyes were about to melt into one like there was a bolt of lightning flashing between their eyes.

Feng Ruqing's face was darkened. These two guys... one was the guy whom she wanted to sleep with, another one was her brother in her previous life, it could not be that... they have fallen for each other, could it?

"Ehem!" Feng Tianyu could not bear to look on anymore so he cleared his throat twice. He said solemnly, "State Preceptor, when will you stop holding Qing'er hands? It's time to leave, and you should loosen your hand too."

"Okay," Nan Xian softly replied, but he was still holding her hand.

But he felt he should respect Feng Tianyu.

Therefore...

He let go of Feng Ruqing's hand eventually, then he switched to another hand and held her... wrist...

Feng Ruqing remained silent.

'What's the difference?'

"Father, let's go." Feng Ruqing turned forward. Her eyes were cold. "Mother, is still waiting for us."

The Tang family...

She gently closed her eyes. When she opened it, her eyes were filled with murderous intent.

"Little Lady..." Qian Ning nudged Tang Yin and asked weakly, "I think the princess is quite scary now as the Tang family has done something to offend her. Shall we first talk to elder Tang Yi and persuade him?"

Tang Yin was not responding even though she had been nudging her for half a day.

Qian Ning turned around and was shocked to see that Tang Yin was violently biting her sleeves. She was gawking at Nan Xian's hand, the hand which was holding Feng Ruqing.

"Coquette, coquette!"

'Humph, Nan Xian is a coquette!'

Xiao Qing stopped liking her as soon as he had appeared and swept Xiao Qing off of her feet.

"Little Lady..." Qian Ning nudged Tang Yin again and stomped her feet in anger. "I'm talking about the Tang family's matters. Do you want to first persuade and talk to elder Tang Yi and Tang Er? I think they are quite nice people..."

Tang Yin was stunned and turned around to look at Qian Ning with her confused eyes. "Were you talking to me?"

Qian Ning was speechless.

Qian Ning felt pitiful, and she almost cried. How could her little lady be this kind of a little lady?

Tang Yin turned to fix her eyes on Nan Xian's hand since Qian Ning was silent. If her eyes were blades, Nan Xian's hand would have already been cut into thousands of pieces...
