Chapter 481: Their Sorrow III

To shift all the pain in her fingers into her heart!

But that was only the beginning.

Feng Ruqing slowly moved her legs around her hand and stomped on it little by little. Tang Yu felt her bones being crushed into pieces every time when Feng Ruqing moved her legs a little. It was so painful that she could hardly speak.

“Qing’er.”

A gentle voice came from behind the young girl and stopped her from trampling on Tang Yu.

Rong Yan had already gotten out of the bed with the help of Feng Tianyu’s power. Her pace was gentle as she was walking toward Tang Yu.

She had that aura of resoluteness even though her body was very skinny and weak. With a pair of pretty eyes, she looked coldly at Tang Yu, who was lying on the floor.

“To feed me for ten years, not being grateful, and also a white-eyed wolf?” The corners of her lips lifted as she stared at her condescendingly. “Are you talking about me?”

Tang Yu’s body went stiff. She lifted her head as her eyes were filled with terror.

Rong Yan smiled lightly and said, “Back then, I had been poisoned and I had lost all of my memories. So I got trapped in the back hills of the Tang family. It was you who had always been cheating many of my spirit herbs away when I was not in a sober state. Even the Violet-Milvus Bloom that you had used to poison me was stolen from Fengyun Manor.”

Lei Yun suddenly turned to look at Tang Yu. His face was pale and angry, just like a volcano at the brink of eruption.

Tang Yu had forcibly tapped into all the resources of Fengyun Manor. She took away the house lady’s courtyard and simply gave commands to the powerhouses of Fengyun Manor. Not only had she poisoned the Manor Master using Fengyun Manor’s medicine, but she also made use of the powerhouses to kill the Lady of their house!

There should be a bottom line for being so shameless.

He had only started to understand how shameless could a person be after he had met Tang Yu!

“Tang Yu.” Rong Yan smiled coldly and looked down at Tang Yu. “That’s the ten years of caring that you’ve mentioned? Your caring was to recklessly steal all the things that I’ve left for my daughter? Your caring was to force me to stay inside the Tang family so I would be separated from my husband and daughter?”

Tang Yu clenched her fists tightly. She could not even retort a word.

Was she doing anything wrong?

No, she was not!

All she wanted was only a higher power and a higher position.

She stole the Fengyun Manor's token with her own capability. Also, she had taken spirit herbs from Rong Yan with her own capability too! She had put so much effort and hard work into it, so how was she wrong?

The only mistake she had done was that she did not finish off Rong Yan in time. Otherwise, there would not have been so many troubles!

It would not matter if it were the Fengyun Manor's people or Yue City's crowds, everyone was reduced to silence under such circumstances.

However, they were so flustered. Then, they looked at Tang Yu as their eyes burned in anger.

"Tang Yu, how dare you lie to us!" A wave of anger surged up inside Yue Buxiong as he was trying to repress it. "I think the Tang family doesn't want to live in Yue City anymore!"

"Kill Tang Yu, kill the Tang family! They have lied to us. Do they really think we are some good fellows?"

"Master Lei Yun, Manor Master, and Miss Feng, we were all cheated by this little bastard. It's all her fault! Please let us go..."

That was the well-known Fengyun Manor.

Fengyun Manor prevailed over Yue City even though they both came from the reclusive world.

However, they had injured Fengyun Manor's Master's husband just because of the fake Lady of the house! Also, they were thinking of killing her daughter too.

Yue Buxiong and the others cried as soon as they thought of these. They vented all of their anger on Tang Yu.

Chapter 482: Their Sorrow IV

Besides Yue Buxiong and the others, Wen Feng's legs were already trembling as his eyes were filled with terror.

It was because that was not the first time he had tried to attack Feng Ruqing!

Last time, he even ordered many of Fengyun Manor's people to self destruct! If Lei Yun and the Manor Master found out about this, he would be in a state that was crueller than death.

Since the beginning, Feng Ruqing did not say anything or moved when the crowds were regretful and in despair.

Tang Yin felt that something was wrong. She looked at Feng Ruqing confusedly and noticed that the young girl's face had turned pale. Cold sweats were rolling down her forehead as if she was enduring a great deal of pain.

The corners of Feng Ruqing's lips seemed to show that she was in pain.

She had endured for three days. The post-effects of the green fruit had finally come...

"Xiao Qing!" Tang Yin rushed forward to hold Feng Ruqing up since her body almost collapsed. Her eyes were filled with terror as she cried, "Xiao Qing, what happened to you?"

Her voice had made all the eyes in the crowd to be focused on Feng Ruqing.

Feng Tianyu's handsome face had lost all color at that moment. He did not turn joyful even though he had reunited with Rong Yan as he was shocked to see her lovely daughter falling into Tang Yin's arms.

"Qing'er!!!" His tone was anxious and furious.

He hurriedly pulled Feng Ruqing from Tang Yin's arms. Sadness dawned in his eyes and brows.

All of them were finally reunited since Yan'er had returned. Why did this have to happen to Qing'er?

What exactly had he done? Why would heaven want to punish him in such a way? To stop him from reuniting with his family?

Standing nearby, Fu Chen clenched his little fists as he felt a fluttering pulse in his chests.

"Don't worry, Mother won't die."

When Rong Yan had rushed to Feng Tianyu and his daughter, she felt relieved as soon as she heard that sentence. Her eyes were still filled with agony since she did not know what had happened. She asked for nothing more as long as Feng Ruqing was fine.

Fu Chen lowered his head and said, "The only thing was that she could not cultivate anymore."

Before Feng Tianyu could inhale again, Fu Chen's grievous words had paralyzed his body.

Even the arms that were holding Feng Ruqing... trembled.

'Not being able to cultivate anymore...

'Qing'er cannot cultivate anymore...

'Why...

'Why would this happen?'

As Qing'er's father, nobody knew better than him how much she wanted to grow stronger! For her, if she could not cultivate anymore, that was something worse than death!

"I've never killed anyone in my whole life. Back then, the only mistake that I had made was that I had been too tolerant of her. I have covered up all her mistakes no matter what she had done. However, I've never let her committed any murder!"

Back then, Feng Ruqing was a villain who had robbed and set fire on anyone. All the people of all ages were afraid of her because there was nothing evil she could not commit!

The only crime that she did not commit was murder!

That was because it had something to do with the previous owner's guts too. If you asked the previous owner to bully someone, she would do it. However, if you asked her to kill someone, she would never do that!

It was not the same concept in killing someone as in bullying someone. She had never killed anyone even though she could do anything she wanted with Feng Tianyu's power. The worst thing she had done before was to beat someone until the person could not get off his bed.

"Why would heaven treat our family like that? First, heaven stopped us from reuniting. Then, heaven turned my daughter this way! If heaven wishes to punish us, please just put it on me. It's all my fault being her father, it has nothing to do with my wife and my daughter!"

Chapter 483: Their Sorrow V

Tears ran down the man's cheeks. His voice was filled with grief and his eyes were filled with great sadness.

Rong Yan's trembling hand reached out to caress the young girl's painful face. She tightly bit on her lip and turned to look at Fu Chen. Also, she did not notice how had Fu Chen addressed Feng Ruqing.

All she cared about at the moment was to save her. She must not leave her daughter in a state where she would be unable to cultivate in the future!

"Why is this happening? Is there any way to save her?"

Fu Chen lifted his eyes and looked at Rong Yan. "You were poisoned by the Violet-Milvus Bloom. In order to save you, Mother took the banned drugs and forced herself to breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier. I had warned her about the effects of taking the banned drug; the eventual degeneration of her muscles and veins. However, she still wanted to save you without hesitation."

It was a fact that the banned drug's effect lasts for a certain period.

The green fruit's effect only lasted for three days.

After three days, she would be back to her previous state followed by the side effects!

Fu Chen turned to look at Feng Ruqing. He looked guilty and felt bad for her.

'Sorry, Mother. I know you didn't want the empress to know what you had done for her to prevent her from feeling guilty.

'But I couldn't bear it!

'I couldn't bear to see your efforts go unnoticed!

'You have sacrificed yourself for her to such an extent, and I will let the world know it.

'I'll also... make the person who has hurt you regret his whole life!'

Rong Yan's face was pale.

She did not ask why Feng Ruqing must breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier to save her.

Also, she did not ask where the banned drugs came from.

She only knew that it was she and Tang Yu who had made Qing'er suffer.

Qing'er would not be in such agony if she had not been poisoned!

She would not be poisoned if it were not because of Tang Yu!

Damn it!

Damn Tang Yu!!!

Rong Yan's whole body was trembling.

She was calm at first. She was not feeling that spiteful just now.

At the moment, however, her eyes were filled with a hatred that Tang Yu had never seen before. That look was terrifying enough to drag half of Tang Yu's leg into the hell.

Everyone's eyes had landed on Tang Yu at the moment.

Master Lei Yun and the other people, all their eyes were as sharp as a knife that could pierce through someone's back.

Except for the white phoenix!

The white phoenix looked at her dumbfoundedly. It could not come to its senses for quite a while when it found out that Feng Ruqing was in such a serious condition.

Before that, the white phoenix had protected Feng Ruqing because of her relation with Su Yi and Nan Xian.

But now, its eyes were filled with sadness and agony when it looked at Feng Ruqing.

It felt bad for this mortal girl where she feared no death and was not afraid to turn into a vegetative state.

She knew it well that her muscles and veins would all be broken if she took the banned drugs. However, she took it without any hesitation just because she wanted to save her family.

No wonder Nan Xian fell for her. Such a girl, even if she did not possess stunning physical features, she was already worthy enough for someone to go crazy for her!

How many people from the Tian Shen Manor would make the same choice as her?

If the Mu family wanted to stop Nan Xian and Feng Ruqing from being in a relationship, then it, the white phoenix would be the first to rebel!

"I know there's no way to cure the broken muscles and veins, and also that the Violet-Milvus Bloom's poison is hard to cure. I didn't know how she has made through it, but this little girl...

She deserves respect."

The white phoenix turned to look at Tang Yu. Its eyes were burning with anger.

Luckily!

Luckily it had not burned this b*tchy woman to death yet!

Such a person should not die so easily! She must suffer the pain that she had done to Feng Ruqing and Rong Yan; she had to pay them back by a hundredfold!

Chapter 484: Their Sorrow VI

"Tianyu." Rong Yan's voice was so cold it could send a chill down one's spine. "Bring Qing'er to rest since she's suffering. I'll handle the rest!"

If it were in the past, Feng Tianyu would feel worried to leave Rong Yan there alone.

However, the white phoenix was here!

Feng Tianyu somehow trusted the white phoenix. Perhaps it was because the white phoenix knew Nan Xian.

"Okay." Feng Tianyu stopped as he stomped on his feet. "I'll be back soon."

It was his responsibility to protect his wife and daughter!

He would not let go of anyone who had hurt them!

Rong Yan kicked Tang Yu's waist.

That kick made her dizzy and spit out a mouthful of fresh blood.

Suddenly, Tang Yu laughed as she wiped away the blood from the corners of her lips.

It was a crazy and sarcastic laugh.

"Hahaha, heaven has eyes, heaven really has eyes! Even heaven doesn't want to let go of her since she has done so many evil things and has stolen things from others. From now on, her muscles and veins are damaged, and she will become a useless person who cannot use her spiritual power, hahaha!"

Rong Yan's eyes turned malicious as she picked Tang Yu up.

She choked her with her palm so tightly that her nails dug into her flesh.

"My daughter will get the best thing in the world! So what if she can't cultivate? So what if she can't use her spiritual power? No one can hurt her as long as I, Rong Yan, lives!"

"I will give her everything she wants! I will help her finish off all the people she dislikes! From now on, I'm her knife, her sword, and she does not need any ability! Everything will be done by me, her mother!"

She would protect her daughter!

Even if her muscles and veins were damaged and she was powerless, she would be her shield and protect her for the rest of her life!

Maybe it was because Tang Yu was being strangled, or that she felt jealous, her face had turned pale!

Back then, it was true that she really wanted Rong Yan to be her mother! Not only because of the spirit herbs that she had in her hands, and also the fact that she would still fully love and care for her daughter even though she had lost all of her memories.

Therefore, she had already hated Feng Ruqing's guts before she had even met her.

And now, just like a knife, she felt as if Rong Yan's words were scraping her heart! Her face twisted in jealousy.

Why...

Why was Rong Yan not her mother?

If she were Rong Yan's daughter, there would not be so many troubles happening now!

Master Lei Yun panicked as he saw that Rong Yan was about to strangle Tang Yu to death. "Calm down, Manor Master, please calm down. Don't fall into this little bastard's trap! You must not kill her. You will be regretful if you kill her because you will find out that you haven't fully vented your anger before she dies. Who do you find to vent your anger later? We should slowly torture our enemy. Calm down first..."

Tang Yu's face turned white suddenly.

She said those words because she wanted to lure Rong Yan in killing her just now.

It was because she knew it well that she would be more miserable to live than to die!

"Manor Master, Great Elder's right." Feng Ying had not been talking for quite a while. He would not dare to speak without the Great Elder's command, but he could not bear to keep silent anymore. "For many days in the past, she had been using your token and had done all sorts of evils in Fengyun Manor. She tortured Hong Yu and also had deforced the courtyard you have made for our manor lady. Then, she had also changed the courtyard's name into Feng Yu Court. So... death is something too good for her."

He could never have imagined for Tang Yu to go so far as he thought that Tang Yu was only faking her identity.

The manor master was safe and sound at the moment. However, she had damaged the real lady of Fengyun Manor's muscles and veins! 1

Chapter 485: Their Sorrow VII

Rong Yan seemed indifferent as her eyes were filled with pride.

"Tang Yu, it doesn't matter if my daughter is fine or not. Don't you ever think you can die easily!"

The white phoenix wanted to come forward at first. However, a beam of white light was gleaming around her body.

It realized that its time to be in two places was up, so it had to leave that place.

“Little girl.” The white phoenix scanned around before its eyes landed on Tang Yin. “Remember, keep her corpse for me when she’s dead. When a person is dead, the soul will not leave the body within three days. I would like to imprison its soul inside its body forever, to make her suffer and never get a chance to be reincarnated!”

“You must bear in mind that I’ll be back!”

Dumbfoundedly, Tang Yin turned and looked at the white phoenix. The figure of the white phoenix gradually vanished and finally disappeared before her eyes.

At the same time, far away, on a mountain...

The white phoenix suddenly opened its eyes.

Just at that moment, a calm and divine face appeared before it.

Suyi gently stared at the white phoenix. “Are you awake? Have you seen that little girl?”

The white phoenix’s eyes turned red. Then, it cried and rushed into Suyi’s arms. It was crying hysterically as it used its feathers to cover the woman up as if it was being abused by some demon.

“What happened?” Suyi frowned.

It was obvious that the girl was in danger since she had lit the phoenix’s feathers up. Did something... really happen to her?

Her heart jolted. Where was Nan Xian? She would not be in trouble if Nan Xian were around.

“Suyi.” The white phoenix let out a sob. “All the people out there are so bad. If I hadn’t reached there in time, Xiao Qingqing and her parents would have been killed by the people.”

What a pitiful and terrified look. All its arrogance and aggressiveness while facing Tang Yu and the others were now gone. The white phoenix looked just like a pitiful young married woman.

“If everything’s fine, why are you crying then?”

Suyi sighed in relief as she raised an eyebrow and asked.

“But...” The white phoenix felt so unjust for her situation. “There’s a bad old guy from the Tang family who has fallen for Nan Xian’s future mother-in-law. He caused their family to be separated and he even poisoned her. Xiao Qingqing’s muscles and veins were torn from trying to save her mother, and she can’t cultivate any more.”

Crap. That was the word that the white phoenix would never use on Feng Ruqing nor would it allow that word to leave its mouth.

It felt awful for Feng Ruqing, and it finally understood why Nan Xian would fall for her.

Suyi suddenly stood up and glared at the white Phoenix coldly. "What have you been doing? Why would her muscles and veins be damaged when you were there?"

The white phoenix did not say anything.

It was true that Suyi only needed her son and her daughter-in-law. She did not need that little phoenix.

The white phoenix felt even more helpless now. "There was nothing I could do. That had already happened when I arrived. Her muscles and veins were already damaged because she wanted to save her mother by improving her power in a short time. Suyi, I must also share with you that Nan Xian's father-in-law and mother-in-law are deeply in love. If a girl were to marry, she should marry a guy like..."

It wanted to recommend itself to Suyi at the same time. However, Suyi had already drifted some distance away in her white clothes.

"Suyi, where are you going?" The white phoenix asked—shocked.

Suyi did not stop drifting. Her cloth fluttered along with the wind.

She looked calm and gentle—just like a celestial being.

"I've never left the hill for the past twenty years. The world outside the hill is not the world that I am familiar with anymore! White Phoenix, pack up, and get yourself ready. I want to leave the hill. I will let the whole reclusive world know that she is Nan Xian's wife, and also Nan Suyi's—my daughter-in-law. Even if she doesn't get any support from the reclusive world, there would still be Nan Xian and me with her!"

The white phoenix's eyes brightened. "Okay! But Suyi, don't you want to leave only after you've broken through another tier?"

Chapter 486: Their Sorrow VIII

The white phoenix received a peaceful and silent reply since that celestial being had drifted away and vanished in the clouds.

Within Yue City's Emperor Courtyard.

Feng Ruqing was lying on the bed as she huddled up. Her body was in so much pain that her face had turned pale, and her eyes were filled with agony.

Inside her body, a strong force that was violently striking her veins and wanting to tear her veins. Soon, the force would turn her completely into a useless person!

This was the side effects of taking banned drugs.

She thought the sufferings would be over in no time, however, she could not imagine that the effects would last that long.

However, she would still make the same choice even if she was given a second chance again.

“Brother Fu Chen, Mother seems to be in a lot of pain...” Qing Han’s petite face was scrunched up. “But I’ve eaten the green fruit before too. I did not end up like Mother. What happened to Mother...”

Fu Chen shot a glance at the silly girl beside.

‘What harm can come to you when you eat them for you bear the green fruit? That’s toxic for Mother!’

“I would never have given it to Mother if I had known that she would be in so much pain.” Qing Han squatted in grief as she rubbed her head against Feng Ruqing’s hands.

She was just like a gentle and docile kitten.

Fu Chen lowered his eyes and said, “If you didn’t give her the green fruit, perhaps she would be in greater sufferings compare to her situation right now...”

She could bear the pain of breaking her muscles and veins!

But she could not bear the pain of losing her family!

Fu Chen tightly bit his lips as he felt his heartstrings being tugged. It was painful.

Qing Han lifted her big eyes. All that she wanted to say was cut off as she saw the person at the door.

The man was celestially charming in his fluttering white dress. However, his handsome face looked a bit anxious.

Maybe it was because he had come in a rush. Therefore, his hair was messy, and he did not look as divine as before.

“Father!” Just like a star, Qing Han’s eyes brightened. “Brother Fu Chen, quick, look. Father has brought along a big doggie. But this big doggie... why does it look like a man?” Qing Han paused as her big eyes slowly looked around. “Yes, it looks like the big meanie that wanted to harm Mother back then!”

Fu Chen was speechless.

“It’s such a pity that it’s only a big doggie, which reminds me of Big Black that the Ninth Emperor had in the past. I really love Big Black. I would never eat a big doggie. If it were little wolfie or little snakie, I would cook them into soups and drink them tonight...”

Fu Chen shot another glance at Qing Han again, disdainfully.

‘Big Black is not a big doggie, it’s not a big doggie! That was a black dragon that the Ninth Emperor had adopted back then! How could you mix up a dragon and a dog?’

Nan Xian remained silent.

His pace was not as steady as before as he staggered toward Feng Ruqing.

He stopped as soon as he reached the young girl’s bed. Then, he gently caressed her frowning forehead with his fingertips. His eyes seemed distressed.

“Qing’er...”

‘I shouldn’t... I shouldn’t have left you alone.

'I thought you wouldn't be hurt if the white phoenix was around. However... it did not keep you safe.'

Fu Chen pursed his lips and said, "It's not your fault, Father. Mother wasn't hurt by others. She chose to save her mother by taking banned drugs. Therefore, even if you were around, she would still end up like this. You don't need to blame yourself."

This was the man... whom their mother liked.

Fu Chen did not want him to feel guilty.

Nan Xian's hands slowly caressed the young girl's face. His voice was low and deep. "All of you get out first!"

"But, Mother..." Qing Han sadly looked at Feng Ruqing. She was reluctant to leave.

She did not want to go. She wanted to stay and be by her mother's side!

Chapter 487: Nan Xian, Is That You? I

Fu Chen held Qing Han's little hand and said, "Qing Han, Father is here. Maybe he knows how to save Mother. We will take the big doggie out and play together, okay? Don't you like the big doggie?"

Even if Nan Xian could not save her, it would be great if he could ease her pain.

Qing Han turned to look at Gu Zhenyang, who was chained with a dog chain. Then, her big eyes brightened up and said, "Sure."

Gu Zhenyang had nothing to say.

Who was he?

Where was he?

What was he doing?

Qing Han got closer to Gu Zhenyang as she pulled the dog chain with her petite hand. Suddenly, she tugged the chain hard causing Gu Zhenyang to suffocate for a moment. His face turned red.

He did not dare to use his spiritual power when Nan Xian was around. Since Nan Xian was focused only on Feng Ruqing at the moment, he wanted to use the spiritual power to break himself free.

However...

His eyes were wild with terror when he tried to make a move.

"Nan Xian, what have you done to me?"

Gu Zhenyang sounded panicked. Why was his spiritual power... gone?

Nan Xian paid no attention to the ruckus he was causing. All his vision was focused on the young girl who was lying on the bed.

Bang! The door was closed shut as Gu Zhenyang's terrified voice was shut off by the closed door—

All Feng Ruqing felt in her whole body was pain at the moment!

The kind of pain that felt like a soul was being torn apart. It was worse than dying.

She huddled up as her face was scrunched up in agony.

Feng Ruqing had finally understood why the green fruit could cause tragic consequences when the side effects started to dawn.

It was because the green fruit contained a great force. The force was strong enough to let Feng Ruqing breakthrough to Dark Warrior tier for the time being. However, when the period was over, the force would be trapped in her body.

Without the bondage like before, the force would randomly move inside her body and hit her muscles and veins. It was painful enough to make her shiver.

However, when Feng Ruqing had understood how the green fruit would tear her muscles and veins, she came up with a way to deal with it!

She tightly gritted her teeth and gathered all the spiritual qi within her dantian. Then, she used the spiritual qi to fight against that force inside her body.

Such a big crash inside her body had already caused a lot of damage. However, Feng Ruqing did not flinch as she continued to gather the spiritual qi inside her body to strongly counter the force!

Luckily, that dark sword in her dantian was continuously supplying spiritual power to her, which prevented her from running out of spiritual power. So, she had enough power to fight against the green fruit's force...

But somehow, the green fruit's force grew stronger. Her spiritual power already had a tendency to wear off.

The muscles and veins inside her whole body would be completely damaged if that continued. She would really be in a vegetative state soon!

"Nope, I don't want to be in a vegetative state. I still need to protect my family, and I still have children to foster!"

"I, Feng Ruqing, do not believe that I would lose to a spirit herb!"

Bang!

The infinite spiritual power came when the green fruit's force reached her muscles and veins. Both of the forces were battling inside Feng Ruqing's body. The immediate aftermath had hurt Feng Ruqing's vital organs and made her spit out a mouthful of fresh blood.

Just as her spiritual power was losing control over the green fruit's force, Feng Ruqing saw a figure suddenly appeared before her dantian...

That was right!

A figure had appeared inside her body!

Feng Ruqing's heart trembled as she panicked when she saw this.

Chapter 488: Nan Xian, Is That You? II

But soon she realized that figure... was quite familiar...

It looked like the state preceptor, but maybe not.

Usually, the state preceptor's hair was as black as ink, which was darker than the dark night.

The man within her body... who was dressed all in white with a head of white hair, there was a silver wrinkle in between his eyes. He looked like a fairy but also the devil at the same time, he was handsome enough to bring anyone to their knees as his beauty was indescribable.

He gently lifted his hand—

At first, Feng Ruqing was watching the spiritual power battling with the green fruit's force. But then, the green fruit's force that was randomly striking inside her body seemed terrified, it was as if it had run into a ghost. Feng Ruqing could feel that the green fruit's force was trembling...

Yes. A force would be frightened as well!

When Feng Ruqing was still in shock, the violent green fruit's force disappeared as if it had never existed before.

Her body was restored to its peaceful state too.

The man turned around and looked at Feng Ruqing's spiritual sense.

He seemed sad. He wanted to caress Feng Ruqing's spiritual sense with his long fingers, he even wished he could tell her how he had missed her...

However, he had no chance to do so.

His body started to fade away little by little starting from his fingertips. He turned into a spot of light and gradually evaporated.

In front of the wood-carved bed.

Nan Xian spat out a mouthful of fresh blood. He could not stand on his feet as he held onto the bedpost nearby to forcibly steady himself.

"Master!" Xiao Qing's heart trembled as it looked nervous.

"I'm fine."

Nan Xian wiped away the blood from the corners of his lips as his lips lifted gently. "She will wake up soon."

"How could you be fine?" Xiao Qing cried. "That's your main soul! To save the princess, you took out your main soul by force and stuffed it into her body. Although you have retrieved it, your main soul has left your body before and that would cause great harm to your main soul. Even if it left for only a second!"

A man has seven souls.

The main soul is the most vital among all the other souls. When a man is reincarnated, the main soul also controls a man's life and death too.

Xiao Qing could not quite believe that Nan Xian could go so far just to save Feng Ruqing!

To take out a man's main soul. Only a really strong person could do that. Also, no one would want to bear the sufferings as well!

Besides, the damage could not be recovered in the future even if the main soul was slightly damaged, no matter how much spirit herbs a person took!

Also, the main soul possessed one-tenth of the power of the actual body. If the main soul was gone, the master's life would end immediately!

"It was I who didn't protect her well. So, I should be responsible for her."

Xiao Qing had nothing to say.

Xiao Qing wanted to cry.

This time, it cried not because it was worried about Nan Xian. It cried because it was stuffed with a mouthful of dog food, and that made it feel distressed.

'Is it really hard for you to admit that you like the princess? Why are you always making an excuse for yourself?'

"Little Snake?"

Feng Ruqing gradually woke up as her whole body was still in great pain. Then, she immediately noticed Xiao Qing looking like she was grieving.

'What happened to this little snake again?'

Nan Xian's eyes were calm. He grabbed Xiao Qing's neck and suddenly threw it out the window. He calmly said, "I don't have a snake here."

"Oh... I was about to say I'm hungry, so I wanted to..."

"You have misheard it just now. I have raised a little snake. It's just that it's not that obedient and I have thrown it out. If you wish so, I shall get it back and make some snake soup for you."

Chapter 489: Nan Xian, Is That You? III

Xiao Qing came back after it was thrown away by Nan Xian. Suddenly, it heard Nan Xian's ruthless words. It was so scared that it went away to keep itself out of their sight.

The snake was completely out of sight!

Nan Xian calmly looked outside the window as he could feel Xiao Qing's aura getting weaker. He started to look relaxed this time.

'Yeap, this time, it's really gone...'

"State Preceptor..." Feng Ruqing lifted her eyes and met the man's eyes.

Suddenly, the figure that she had seen in her spiritual sense emerged in her mind again. Her heart jolted.

"State Preceptor, it was you who had saved me?"

Like a sword, the man's sad eyes pierced through her heart.

She wanted to comfort him by caressing his knotted eyebrows. She did not want him to be sad again.

However... she could not even walk to him.

Nan Xian stretched out his hand and pulled Feng Ruqing into his arms. He used his hand to press her head against his chest tightly.

"Sorry. I didn't protect you well."

Feng Ruqing's head was close to Nan Xian's chest. She could hear the robust heartbeat inside the man's chest.

Suddenly, the room quieted down.

It was so quiet that... they could only hear each other's heartbeat.

"Nan Xian, how did you find me?"

This place was Tang Yin's courtyard. Nan Xian would not have known.

"Well." Nan Xian loosened his grip on the young girl as he gently smiled.

"There's no place in the world where I can't find you."

"What if someday I don't exist in this world anymore, how could you find me then?"

She was not from Cang Yue Mainland. She came from a place called Hua Xia.

How could Nan Xian find her if she left the mainland someday?

"I'll look everywhere in the sky if you're in the Ninth Heaven 1. I'll look in the whole Yellow Spring 1 if you're in the Yellow Spring. I told you, there's no place in the world where I won't be able to find you."

Even though it would take him a hundred years or a thousand years to find her, he would still look for her.

Feng Ruqing suddenly smiled. Her laughter spread across the whole room.

"I was just pulling your leg, State Preceptor. I'll never leave Cang Yue Mainland for the rest of my life."

Actually, she was only an outsider who does not belong in this world. However, she had already felt attached to this world.

A sense of attachment where she felt that this place was her real home.

"But then..." Feng Ruqing stood up and pressed herself against Nan Xian. She smiled widely. "State Preceptor in such a serious manner, it really turns me on... makes me want to sleep with you."

Nan Xian looked calm and gently smiled.

"I've told you before. If you can win a fight against me, I'll listen to you for the rest of my life."

Feng Ruqing's face darkened. "Why are you so obsessed with fighting with me?"

"It's because... I want you to punch me."

Feng Ruqing was speechless.

"I have forgotten a lot of things, but I have always had this feeling of you beating me. Perhaps I could remember something if you could beat me."

Feng Ruqing had nothing to say.

For goodness sake! How could she lay a finger upon such a handsome face?

She would never be the person to do that!

"State Preceptor, have you sought for the wrong person for revenge?"

Feng Ruqing looked at Nan Xian skeptically. "Do you think I'm the kind of person who could bear to beat you?"

Nan Xian said nothing as he looked at Feng Ruqing.

Feng Ruqing became anxious. "I've never punched you before!"

Even if she did, it would be the previous owner. She would never be that kind of person!

"If Qing'er said she didn't do it before, then she didn't do it."

Nan Xian gently rubbed Feng Ruqing's head with his hand. His voice was so gentle that anyone could immerse themselves in it.

Feng Ruqing's heart skipped a beat. She pounced on Nan Xian and pressed her lips against his.

"I can't defeat you but I can bite you!"

She said that she wanted to bite him, but she kissed him tenderly on his lips.

It was jerky, yet sweet.

After a while, she pulled away, licked her red lips seductively and laughed wickedly.

"State Preceptor, does it remind you of anything?"

Nan Xian's eyes fell on Feng Ruqing's red lips. He was still calm and composed like a drifting cloud.

"No, perhaps... we can try again? 1"

Simply no one knew if Nan Xian had said that on purpose. However, Feng Ruqing could not care less. She pinned him against the wall and pressed her lips against his once again.

His hand fell gently on the back of her head. The aloofness in his eyes vanished as a hint of a smile crept in.

At this time, a loud bang sounded. The door creaked open.

Feng Tianyu walked into the room only to see his daughter pinning a young master against the wall and doing something that could not be described with words.

Like thunder from a clear sky, Feng Tianyu's face darkened a few shades. With a dull feeling at his heart, he looked as if there was a storm brewing above his head.

Since the beginning, Nan Xian could feel that the Feng Ruqing was transferring her spiritual qi into his body to heal his wounded main soul through her kiss. He knew that Feng Ruqing was aware and she knew that Nan Xian did not want to tell her about this. Hence, she was using her own way to help him.

Nan Xian's eyes grew increasingly tender. He stared at the dazzlingly beautiful lady with a faint smile on his lips.

Suddenly, Nan Xian could feel the atmosphere turn tense. He turned his head in time to see a dark face come into his vision.

Feng Ruqing too could feel that something was wrong. She licked her lower lip lightly as she turned her head reluctantly.

In an instant, her body stiffened.

Originally, Feng Ruqing thought that Fu Chen and Qing Han had returned. As she was too obsessed in kissing the state preceptor, she did not notice the familiar aura of the person standing next to them. It turned out that Feng Tianyu had stepped into the room.

"Nan Xian! I have always been treating you respectfully as you are the state preceptor and a rare talent. I have never thought that you would do this to my daughter! You have kidnapped her! What kind of a monster are you?" Feng Tian flew into a furious rage.

“Father, let me explain...” Seeing Feng Tianyu exploding with anger and wanting hurt Nan Xian, she quickly stood before Nan Xian.

Feng Tianyu’s chest was heaving violently. Suppressing his anger, he turned his head to look at Feng Ruqing with a gentle smile on his face.

“Qing’er, don’t worry. Has this monster kidnapped you? Tell me! No one can bully you!”

‘Father, don’t you see that I am the one who has pounced on him?’ Feng Ruqing’s face darkened.

“Father, what do you think of the state preceptor?”

“Um... he is far better than the bastard—Liu Yuchen.”

“What about making him your son-in-law?”

‘This rascal has truly taken away my daughter!’ Feng Tianyu’s face was even darker.

“No way! You have been hurt once. I won’t let anyone hurt you again!”
