Chapter 521: The Four Kingdoms' Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants IV

If Feng Ruqing's mother had not shown up earlier, perhaps a few years later... Ziyang's presence would have really turned the situation in Fengyun Manor disastrous.

Therefore, no matter what decision Qing Yuan would make in the future, he was no longer fit to stay in Fengyun Manor anymore.

Feng Ruqing had been really kind to help him recognize a person's true color. Therefore, they would not need to keep in touch anymore.

"Okay."

As for this matter, Nalan Yan had already known what she should do without Feng Ruqing reminding her.

A person who could leave Fengyun Manor anytime... It was true that he did not deserve to be kept in the manor anymore.

They had already given their best to him.

"Mother..." Feng Ruqing squinted and said, "Since fetching you back home, there's still a lot of other things that I haven't dealt with yet."

The four kingdoms that had allied to invade Liu Yun Kingdom, she must get even with them.

"Father, Big Brother..." Nalan Yan muttered and paused for a while before she continued, "You guys may go back to Liu Yun Kingdom and wait for me first. Tianyu, you have been away from the palace for quite a while, there's still a lot of government affairs to deal with. It will be fine for me and Qing'er to deal with the four kingdoms."

Feng Tianyu nodded and said, "I really have a lot of things to deal with."

This time, he left without saying anything more.

There was still a lot of mess for him to clean up and also thousands of people for him to pacify and take care of.

Therefore, he must first go back and sort it all out.

"Xiao Qing." Tang Yin looked at Feng Ruqing, pitifully.

Feng Ruqing raised her hand and patted her little head.

"My cousin is hurt, and you're the one whom I trust the most here. Would you please help me take care of him?"

All of Tang Yin's grievances completely vanished as her face blossomed with a joyful smile.

"Okay, Xiao Qing."

Xiao Qing said the person whom she trusted the most was only her.

That implied that she had occupied quite some space in Xiao Qing's heart.

Master Nalan and Nalan Zhangqian who were nearby were speechless.

So that was what it was. They were no match for a little girl in Qing'er's heart...

Only Nalan Jing turned to look at Tang Yin as soon as he heard Feng Ruqing's words.

The corners of his cold lips lifted into a vague smile that was hardly noticeable.

"You, little girl, you seem a bit familiar...?" Nalan Zhangqian frowned as he shot a suspicious glance at Tang Yin. "Oh, now I remember. Some time ago, it was you who had... broken our General Manor's door?"

Tang Ying's body suddenly went stiff.

Feng Ruqing looked at Tang Yin hesitantly. "General Manor's big door... you did it? Didn't you say that it was Qian Ning who broke it?"

Master Qin had also recognized Tang Yin and surprisingly said, "Now I remember too, you've pulled up the ancient tree that was located in front of our Qin family's door and mentioned that you wanted to make it a gift to someone."

Tang Yin almost cried and denied, "No, I didn't. Qian Ning who did all of that, it wasn't me! Xiao Qing, you must believe me, I'm not that kind of person!"

What should she do? If Xiao Qing found out that she was the one behind it all, would she feel sick of her crude manners and never like her anymore?

She had been behaving herself for quite a long time, why would the people suddenly think of and remember her past?

Could they not just treat her like she was invisible?

"I admit that I've hurt a pig by accident but I did not do any other things. It's all Qian Ning." Tang Ying abruptly dragged Qian Ning and pushed her in front of Feng Ruqing. "Qian Ning did it all. I don't lie."

Feng Ruqing said nothing.

'Are you sure you've only hurt a pig? Didn't you sit on that pig until it died?'

Qian Ning was dumbfounded as she got dragged and was pushed in front of Feng Ruqing by Tang Yin.

Chapter 522: The Four Kingdoms' Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants V

Qian Ning came back to her senses after quite a while. "Our little lady is elegant and she's not that kind of person. That pig rushed under our little lady's butt on its own, our little lady didn't mean to do that."

Tang Yin nodded. "That's right. Xiao Qing, I'm elegant, I really am! I didn't break people's house's walls nor bombed their houses. Also, I didn't destroy grandfather Tangyi's storage room. It's all Qian Ning who had done it, not me!"

Feng Ruqing said nothing as she slowly turned her head and looked at Qian Ning sympathetically. "To be made a scapegoat for your little lady for so many years, it's really tough for you."

Qian Ning's face was filled with annoyance.

'Little Lady, don't you think your words are an unsought confession?

'How could you make the princess believe you're an elegant woman?'

Feng Ruqing glanced at Nalan Jing and started to feel worried. "I want you to take care of my cousin, you wouldn't bomb him as well, would you?"

"I won't, and I never will!" Tang Yin was anxious. "Am I not your most trusted person? Why would I bomb Cousin? If I really want to bomb someone, I would only bomb that Liu family. Besides, isn't Qian Ning around me? I have so many people to bomb, and why would I bomb Cousin?"

Feng Ruqing was still a bit worried. "Uncle, keep an eye on this little girl and just tell me if she ever breaks anything. Oh, and don't let her get into the palace! And also, never let her enter the princess's manor again!"

Back then, Tang Yin had been behaving herself since Feng Ruqing was staying inside the princess manor. She had just found out Tang Yin had caused all those accidents just now.

Now, she and her mother were going for a tea break in the four kingdoms, it was hard to say that Tang Yin would not destroy the princess's manor...

"Don't worry, I will help you take good care of her," Nalan Zhangqian smiled and said.

'This little girl... she's a bit strong, but she looks docile. Everything should be okay.'

"Chen'er." Feng Ruqing turned to look at Qin Chen. Her eyes were soft and gentle. "Go back and wait for me. I'll be back soon."

The young lad's eyes were bright, and his smile was genuine and pure, just like a white paper. All the coldness he had before had disappeared, leaving behind only a sense of warmth.

"Okay."

Feng Ruqing gently turned around after she had given all her orders. "Mother, let's go."

It was just time for them to get even with them!

If they were looking for someone, nobody could run away from them!

***

Since the powerhouses of four kingdoms had fallen apart, all the people living inside the four kingdoms were jittery.

Especially when they heard Feng Ruqing had left Liu Yun Kingdom in a rage and bringing along a troop of people with her. Just like a tortoise, they were so terrified that they wish they could hide inside a tortoise's shell.

Fortunately, several days had passed, and they still have not heard from Liu Yun Kingdom. The crowd started to feel relieved and relaxed.

Within Zi Yun Kingdom.

Emperor Ouyang Wen was in the court and listening to his courtiers' reports, bored.

Suddenly...

"To report to Your Majesty!"

An anxious voice came from outside the palace's court.

Then, a courtier hurried in as he seemed worried.

"This is your courtier to report to Your Majesty. Liu Yun Kingdom's princess... Feng... Feng Ruqing has arrived to visit Your Majesty. She's waiting outside the palace now."

At first, Ouyang Wen was supporting his head with his palm, looking lazy and sloppy. However, the courtier's words were frightening enough to make him fall from his throne and roll onto the ground.

He quickly stood up and adjusted his crown. He could not care much of the royal manners as his voice and body were trembling.

"Who... who did you say have arrived here?"

"Liu Yun Kingdom's princess, Feng Ruqing."

Chapter 523: The Four Kingdoms' Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants VI

Bang!

Ouyang Wen trembled and sat his butt, on the floor. He seemed panicked as he swallowed his saliva hard.

"How many people has she brought along?"

"Only two."

"Two?" Ouyang Wen was dumbfounded.

Zi Yun Kingdom had thousands of powerful armies and masters, how daring was she to come with only two people?

"Another one is..."

'It won't be... Nalan Hu that old fellow?

'It's said that the old fellow is still alive. I don't know who else she would have brought along besides him.'

"Your Majesty." The courtier's voice was trembling as his body was covered with a smell of urine. It was apparent that he had already been scared off of his pants. "Another one, they say it's... Nalan Yan..."

Just like a massive strike, the sentence had violently struck Ouyang Wen's head.

He was really shocked. Then, he asked in a trembling voice, "Who's the other person that you've mentioned just now?"

"She said she's Liu Yun Kingdom's empress, Nalan Yan..."

So far, there was only an empress in Liu Yun Kingdom.

And the name, Nalan Yan, had always been a nightmare to the four kingdoms...

Ouyang Wen panicked. He tried to stand up from the grounds several times, but failed.

By rights, all the courtiers, eunuchs, and maidservants in the palace should step forward to hold him up. However, because of the name Nalan Yan, everyone was feeling terrified that no one even bothered to take care of Ouyang Wen, who was still sitting on the floor.

'Nalan Yan!

'Is she not dead?

'Why did she show up again?'

"Your Majesty." A civilian courtier cried out. "I've given the warning before to not lay finger on Liu Yun Kingdom. Even if Nalan Yan is already dead, Liu Yun Kingdom is not a kingdom that we should provoke. We can learn from Long Ao Kingdom as the best example of this. Now, look, Nalan Yan's so angry that she has crawled out of her grave. We, Zi Yun Kingdom... will be next, right after Long Ao Kingdom!"

All the courtiers who had supported Ouyang Wen before were very regretful at the moment.

Why did they go against Liu Yun Kingdom when they could have lived a good life?

Great. Now, Feng Ruqing was here, and Nalan Yan was also here too!

One was an old nightmare.

Another one... was why the people were frightened!

"Your Majesty." Another courtier cried out as he wiped away the tears from his eyes. "It was Feng Ruqing who ended Long Ao Kingdom. I've told you earlier that the Nalan family's women are way more terrifying than their men. However, you didn't listen and insisted on attacking Liu Yun Kingdom. Great, what should we do now?"

The corners of Ouyang Wen's lips twisted. Before he could say anything, two figures were already approaching the palace's entrance before finally coming into his vision.

At that very moment, Ouyang Wen's pupils shrank as he started to have difficulty breathing. His heart was suffused with great panic as his legs went limp. He could not even run for his life then.

"Ouyang Wen, it's been a while." Nalan Yan was laughing hysterically. "I didn't expect you to have bigger guts now. Back then, you would run away as soon as you see me, but now you're bold enough to invade my Liu Yun Kingdom? Yeah?"

Just like the last straw, her last word was capable of crushing him. Finally, Ouyang Wen could not stand facing them and blacked out as soon as he closed his eyes.

Feng Ruqing was stunned for quite a while.

This fellow was too frightened and had fainted immediately.

With such extends of bravery... how dare he invaded Liu Yun Kingdom?

"Mother, let's bring Ouyang Wen back and hand it to Father." The corners of Feng Ruqing's lips gently lifted as she turned and looked at the courtiers behind. "From now on, this Zi Yun Kingdom will be my Liu Yun Kingdom's subject. Liu Yun Kingdom will choose Zi Yun Kingdom's emperor. As for you all..."

Chapter 524: The Four Kingdoms' Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants VII

She looked fierce.

"Those who were on Ouyang Wen's side will naturally become my Liu Yun Kingdom's captive and be punished according to his wrongdoings. And for those who are innocent, we will not treat you heartlessly."

Feng Ruqing never liked war.

If war ever happened, the people and soldiers who rushed to the front were the ones who got hurt the most.

Some of the kingdoms were too fond of killing as they did not care about common people's lives. Just like a bandit who rushed into the village, they robbed, tortured, and killed anyone they encountered recklessly.

Therefore, she would try her best to avoid unnecessary killing.

But also, she would not let go of anyone who was guilty!

All the courtiers had become despondent. They knew it well that it was all Ouyang Wen's mistake, but eventually, they had to bear the consequences.

The winner took it all!

In fact, Liu Yun Kingdom was capable of unifying all the countries!

"Mother, let's go. I've already informed all the spirit beasts nearby, and they will come and sort out the rest." Feng Ruqing paused a while before she continued to speak in front of the crowd. "There will be some spirit beasts coming to the imperial city after an hour, all of you must let them enter."

The crowds were trembling with their pale faces.

Spirit beasts coming to the imperial city?

Would the imperial city not be covered in a river of blood? Would they not become food in the spirit beasts' stomachs?

Feng Ruqing was able to read their minds and gently smiled. "Compared to some of the human, the spirit beasts are not that fond of killing as you think! If you don't provoke them and not enter their domain, they would not simply kill a person."

The crowd felt relieved as soon as they heard that.

However, Feng Ruqing's calm voice rang out again just as they started to feel relaxed.

"Of course, provided that they are full."

The crowd paled in terror and almost cried.

Would the spirit beasts eat them if they came in hunger?

"Mother, let's go. We have to head to the next kingdom and have a chitchat about life with their emperor."

Let's hope that the next emperor would not blackout that fast.

This emperor had fainted before she could even start speaking...

***

Within Tian Xuan Kingdom.

This time, both Feng Ruqing and Nalan Yan did not get inside the palace as easy as they could the last time. A lot of soldiers rushed out and besieged them as soon as they reached the city gate.

It was a coincidence that Zhang Yun, the leader of that troop of soldiers, was the one who had met with Nalan Yan before.

However, they only met once before.

Nalan Yan was a little skinny right now. Nobody could recognize her immediately unless it was a person who was very familiar with her. Therefore, Zhang Yun could not recognize Nalan Yan with his one-time-meeting experience with her.

However, Feng Ruqing had a very similar look to Nalan Yan. Therefore, Zhang Yun recognized Feng Ruqing as soon as he saw her.

"Your Highness, this is Tian Xuan Kingdom, and you came without informing us in advance, is that not a little inappropriate?" In a suit of armor, Zhang Yun stepped forward and asked, expressionlessly.

Feng Ruqing gently smiled. "Then, why didn't you inform Tian Xuan Kingdom's emperor that today, I, Feng Ruqing, am here to take his dog life away!"

Zhang Yun was stunned.

He knew that the four kingdoms had sent their powerhouses to Liu Yun Kingdom, but he did not know that they had fallen apart.

Such a piece of disgraceful news, the emperor would never tell a general, who guarded the city gate, like him.

Therefore, he did not know that the powerhouses of the four kingdoms had fallen apart. He thought they had taken Liu Yun Kingdom down, and Feng Ruqing had come to seek revenge for her kingdom, alone.

“Your Highness, our emperor does not welcome any guests at the moment, please return!”

Zhang Yun’s eyes sank. He would never let Feng Ruqing enter the city no matter what.

That was his responsibility and duty!

Chapter 525: The Four Kingdoms’ Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants VIII

Feng Ruqing squinted and said, “Are you sure you want to stand in our way?”

She respected every soldier.

Normally, besides the inevitable killing on the battlefield between two armies, she would not simply kill the opponent if they did not commit any heinous crime.

However... that would be another way round if the opponent insisted on standing in her way.

Suddenly, the air around Feng Ruqing sank as the surrounding aura turned gloomy. Just like an overwhelming waterfall, she looked overbearing with her cold eyes, as if she was the one who ruled the world.

She looked just like Nalan Yan, who led the army and battled in the past.

Zhang Yun was holding a long sword with his trembling hand. “Your Highness...”

The corners of Feng Ruqing’s lips gently lifted. “Has Tian Xuan Kingdom’s emperor not told you guys that the powerhouses sent by the four kingdoms to my Liu Yun Kingdom have all fallen apart?”

Suddenly, Zhang Yun lifted his head. He asked timidly with his pale face. “What did you say?”

“The four kingdoms’ powerhouses have fallen apart, what are you holding on to?” Feng Ruqing slowly stepped forward.

Zhang Yun’s heart sank deeper along with her steps. It was as if something was pressing down his back to prevent him from straightening himself up.

“If Tian Xuan Kingdom’s soldiers surrender now, I will spare you life. However, if you insist on protecting him... I really esteem your loyalty, but do you really think that... he, such a person, deserves your sacrifices to protect him?”

Feng Ruqing would not talk that much to them if she were facing a family or clan.

However, everyone in front of her was a soldier!

Liu Yun Kingdom would never force anyone to join their army. If someone were to join them, they joined it voluntarily. However, a lot of soldiers in the armies of the other kingdoms were coerced to join them, and they could never go back to their homes no matter they were alive or dead!

There were a lot of things that they did not do with their own intentions, they were all forced and were even forced to leave their homes.

Therefore, she was willing to give them another chance!

A second chance to choose again!

No matter what it was, it was all the useless emperor's fault. The inferiors always did the most dangerous thing, but they always benefit the least.

Zhang Yun did not say anything. He was blue in his face as he held the sword in his hand, tightly.

All the soldiers standing behind him remained in silence as well. Nobody could tell what was running in their minds.

"For my Liu Yun Kingdom's army, we don't simply accept anyone who asks to join. Any villain who bullies, robs, or kills the commoners, Liu Yun Kingdom will never accept them!"

"However..." Feng Ruqing paused. "My Liu Yun Kingdom's army enjoys the ultimate freedom. As long as they never back off on the battlefield, they can leave the army whenever they wish to!"

"I, of Liu Yun Kingdom, will never simply invade another kingdom or kill the people. We will not attack unless we are attacked!"

"Also, we will never instigate you to rob or kill or do anything that goes against your conscience! On top of that... we will never treat a soldier like an object!"

The sword in Zhang Yun's hand slid off his palm and fell to the ground.

He kneeled down. As the tears ran down his cheeks, he cried hysterically with his hands covering his face.

Sadness, agony.

Back then, he was talented enough to be the general of a general manor. However, just because he had violated the military orders of not killing the ordinary person without any reason, he was demoted and expelled to a porter here!

Also...

None of them liked war!

Who does not cherish their own lives?

Does anyone in the world never care for their lives?

Back when he was serving in the barracks, besides him, who was the one who rushed to the front to protect the country every single time? He contributed the most, but he enjoyed the least. However, he was demoted into a porter just because he refused to go against his own conscience!

Chapter 526: The Four Kingdoms' Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants IX

"We can't, we really can't fight against..."

They had surrendered before they even started to fight Feng Ruqing.

They had lost the battle, thoroughly.

Zhang Yun slowly stood up after he finished crying. He swung his hand and said through his gritted teeth. "Open the gate!"

"Yes."

The crowd standing behind him had already opened the door, Zhang Yun's voice spoke when Feng Ruqing was about to enter.

"Your Highness, I have some old comrades in the barracks who didn't join the army on their own, they were all forced to be in here. Could you... let them return to their homes?"

Feng Ruqing stopped and nodded.

"I've said that all the soldiers in Liu Yun Kingdom joined us voluntarily. We don't force."

Zhang Yun slowly exhaled.

Those who were forced to leave their homes... Finally, they could go back to their homes now.

Perhaps, Tian Xuan Kingdom being annexed by Liu Yun Kingdom, was actually a good thing to the world...

"Qing'er." Nalan Yan gently held Feng Ruqing's hand and smiled. "You did a really great job here."

Feng Ruqing smiled and said, "Perhaps, I have always had a good impression for soldiers."

"Why?" Nalan Yan asked, surprised.

Feng Ruqing lowered her eyes and stayed quiet.

Why?

It was because she was a citizen of Hua Xia—members of Hua Xia have always had a good feeling toward the military.

Now, she would definitely give them another chance since her grandfather was a soldier too.

She might not be capable of doing that if they were not soldiers...

***

Tian Xuan Kingdom's emperor was considered far better than Zi Yun Kingdom's emperor, at least he did not get frightened by Feng Ruqing and Nalan Yan to the point of fainting. However, his pale face revealed his despair.

After they took a tour in Tian Xuan Kingdom, Feng Ruqing and Nalan headed to the other two kingdoms. Both of the two kingdom's emperors had already known that they would come. However, they were still scared off of their pants even though they were mentally prepared.

After this chaos, the world had come to know that the world did not need to be in any fight anymore... It was because Liu Yun Kingdom had already unified all the kingdoms.

***

In front of the graves of martyrs within Liu Yun Kingdom.

Nalan Hu raised his hand and poured a glass of spirit wine onto the grave.

"Dear fellows, Liu Yun Kingdom is in peace now, and those people who had invaded us have paid their price too. For this toast, I would like to express my gratitude to all the heroes who had protected our land."

'First, let's give a toast to the heroes.'

"From now on, war will never happen again. All of you can rest in peace now. We... did not let your blood be bled in vain!"

'Second toast, let's wish you're still a member of Liu Yun in your next life.'

'And for the third toast, since we couldn't spend more time to drink good wines together, I hope many years later, we will be reunited in somewhere else, with the Nalan family.'

'And then, everyone would toast for each other.'

"Father."

Nalan Zhangqian had appeared behind Nalan Hu before anyone noticed.

He knew his father was in deep grief.

Nalan Zhangqian looked at the spirit wine that Nalan Hu had poured on the ground. His lips twitched but he remained in silence.

The heroes of Liu Yun Kingdom, they deserved the best!

"Your sister and your cousin should have returned by now." Nalan Hu sighed deeply. "Let's go. I won't let go of any of the doggie emperors who brought up the battle. I will use their blood to pray for these souls!"

"And also Liu Rong and the people from the reclusive world..."

Their fresh blood were needed to pour on the heroes' souls.

That was what they had owed them!

“Liu Rong and her daughter haven’t died yet?” Nalan Hu was a bit surprised.

They had been tortured for so many days, how could they be still alive?

Chapter 527: The Four Kingdoms’ Emperors Who Were Scared Off of Their Pants X

“I guess they have tenacious vitality. Father, haven’t you heard of the sentence saying that the good one lives a short life, but the bad one lives for a thousand years? Liu Rong may not live till the thousands, but she’s more tenacious than the other, I guess it will take her several more days to die.”

Nalan Zhangqian lowered his eyes and continued, “She was to be paraded through the streets 1 every day and tortured by so many people, how lucky that they managed to survive through that and not die yet! Paramount has provided some spirit herbs to prevent them from dying and to live a little longer, just in case the people have no place to vent their anger off, but they have really lived a bit longer than expected.”

Was the military the only one who wanted to vent their frustration off?

There were still a lot of people who had lost their families who would like to do that as well.

Someone had to pay for their agony!

Nalan Zhangqian only realized what had happened in Liu Yun Kingdom after he came back. However, the anger in his heart was too strong to suppress even by only hearing those descriptions.

If Qing’er had not returned in time, Liu Yun Kingdom must have already been destroyed.

If it were not because of the help from that little girl Tang Yin, his wife, and daughter... would almost have left him alone in the world.

He would never be capable of bearing such a pain. Therefore, he could not express his gratitude toward Tang Yin with words. He was so grateful to the extent that he already cared no more for General Manor’s main door that the little girl had destroyed back then.

“It’s actually good that they’re alive.” Nalan Hu laughed twice, coldly. “Hasn’t she been hating Yan’er since she was deliberately leading Qing’er astray? She had been abetting Qing’er to the point where Qing’er didn’t listen to us anymore. Because of that, you bring them to see Yan’er when she’s back.”

He paused for a while before he continued. “When she meets Yan’er, there’s no more reason for them to be alive.”

There was some hatred where the old general could never let go for the rest of his life!

He could not forgive Liu Rong for tricking his son-in-law. Also, he could never forgive her... for everything she had done to Qing’er!

If she had thought Yan’er was already dead, then he would let Yan’er appear alive in front of her again.

To let her die in nightmare and in terror!

To let her heart tremble whenever she heard of the name, Nalan Yan, in her next life!

No matter how many afterlives she was going to live, she would never show up in front of them again!

“Okay.”

Nalan Zhangqian replied as his eyes sank.

He seemed to think of something and asked hesitantly. “Oh, by the way, Father, why is Feng Rushuang not His Majesty’s daughter? How do you know it? Why am I not aware of it?”

Nalan Hu’s face went stiff, and he coughed twice, awkwardly. “I’ve only found that out a few days before. Back then, you were still in the frontier, so it’s normal that you don’t know.”

He would never tell his son that because Feng Ruqing had painted him black by telling him that Nalan Hu was a person who could not keep a secret. Therefore, he did not tell him about that.

“Oh, I’ve always wanted to ask you about an important matter too. Isn’t the spirit wine very precious stuff? Why do I always feel that your spirit wine is inexhaustible?” Nalan Zhangqian frowned as he asked, hesitantly.

Nalan Hu’s body became stiff this time. He laughed out loud, and replied, grinning. “Oh, this... I’m just a little luckier because I’ve always bumped into that spirit wine hawker. Therefore, I’ve bought a lot back home.

Nalan Zhangqian replied admiringly. “You and Qing’er often meet the spirit wine hawker, Dai’er also meets the spirit fruit hawker, why am I the only who couldn’t meet any of them? Father, where did you meet them? I think I might try my luck at the place too!”

“Hehe.” Nalan Hu forced out a laugh and patted Nalan Zhangqian’s shoulders. “The hawker goes to different places every time so you can’t find him. Also, luck is something that you can never be envious of.”

Even if you punched him to death, he would never tell him that it was her granddaughter who had given him the spirit wine!

Just in case this little fellow would bother Qing’er and trick all of the spirit wine from her.

Chapter 528: He is Here for Revenge? I

Nalan Zhangqian’s face turned stiff. However, all he could do was to sigh as he knew his father was telling him the truth.

“Father, please tell me if you ever meet the hawker again next time. I’d like to know him too.”

But then, Nalan Hu was already headed toward the city without giving him any reply...

***

It was dark and wet inside the prison.

Liu Rong huddled on the floor. Her hair was messy as her face was still covered in dry brownish bloodstain. It seemed like she had not been cleaning herself for quite a while.

Feng Rushuang was barely conscious next to her, but her eyes were still filled with evil intent.

“Mother, it’s all because of you.” Feng Rushuang gritted her teeth tightly. “It’s all your fault. If it weren’t because of you, I wouldn’t be in such a situation either. Why did you lie to me?”

The corners of Liu Rong’s lips lifted into a bitter smile.

She was wrong. She was really wrong...

Back then, she should not have colluded with Gu Zhenyang, so she would not have been in such a situation and also... she would not have given birth to this daughter!

“Both of you are women, but why do you always lose to Nalan Yan? Why?” Feng Rushuang sounded hateful.

She would not have become a captive if Liu Rong was not that useless!

It was all because of Liu Rong, it was all her fault!

Liu Rong’s throat was a bit dry as something bitter spread in her mouth too. She wrapped her hands around her knees and sneered. “I’m not as good as Nalan Yan in every way, but so what? Didn’t you lose to Feng Ruqing too?”

“Mother!” Feng Rushuang’s face turned pale. She lifted her head and looked at Liu Rong in disbelief. She could not believe that even when her mother knew well that losing to Feng Ruqing was always her insecurity, yet her mother still purposely mentioned it!

Creak.

The prison’s door was pushed open.

A guard walked through the door and said coldly, “Liu Rong, Feng Rushuang, both of you can get out now.”

Liu Rong’s body went stiff. Fear and sorrow filled her eyes.

This was something she had to endure every day.

Each day, this group of people would bring them out from the cell and go for a parade in the streets. Then, both of them would be insulted and hurt by the peasants.

She had suffered enough!

Really enough!

The only mistake she had made in her whole life was to have Feng Rushuang with Gu Zhenyang. However, she had never regretted being Feng Tianyu’s concubine.

Liu Rong did not go against the heartless guards while facing them, she straightened herself and walked out of the cell just like a robot.

Feng Rushuang fell to her knees in front of the guards. Her voice trembled as her eyes were filled with hope.

“Has my father returned? Has he returned yet? I want to see him, I want to see him!!!”

After all these years, even a man would at least grow some affection to a dog he had been raising.

She could not believe that her father would really be that cruel to her since she was his daughter for more than ten years!

The guard looked at Feng Rushuang’s face with a sneer. “Our emperor is not someone you can simply meet. You’ve betrayed Liu Yun Kingdom. Therefore, you have to bear the punishment for what you’ve done. However, someone wants to see you guys today, it’s better if you guys follow me to see that person.”

Liu Rong was shocked.

Did somebody want to see them?

In Liu Yun Kingdom, who else... would still want to see them now?

***

Within the Supreme Princess Manor.

Two little girls hurried toward Feng Ruqing when she had just entered the manor.

At that moment...

When Liu Li noticed the girl next to Feng Ruqing, she was stunned as her eyes flashed with surprise, astonishment, and disbelief.

Chapter 529: He Is Here for Revenge? II

“Your... Your Majesty, Empress Nalan?”

‘Her Majesty is still alive? Why is she here?’

Liu Li’s body shook violently. Her eyes were flooded with tears. She was afraid that the person who stood before her eyes was merely an illusion and would vanish in the next second.

“You are Liu Li, aren’t you? Qing’er told me before that you are still by her side. I haven’t seen you for years. You have grown up now.” Nalan Yan smiled.

“Your Majesty, Empress Nalan!”

It was true that Her Majesty, Empress Nalan was here!

Liu Li was shedding tears of joy. She did not know why Nalan Yan was still alive and who was actually buried in the mausoleum. However, she knew that the empress of Liu Yun Kingdom was still alive! That was enough!

“Your Majesty, Empress Nalan?” Qing Ling lost in wonder.

Simply no one ever thought that the empress of Liu Yun Kingdom would return to the kingdom.

As the news that Nalan Yan was still alive was too crucial, Feng Tianyu did not make an announcement. He had decided to do that when Nalan Yan had returned to Liu Yun Kingdom.

"Liu Li and Qing Ling, did anything happen in the princess manor when I was not around?" Feng Ruqing asked with smiling eyes.

"Your Highness, nothing has happened when you were away from the manor. However, I heard that Liu Yuchen had a quarrel with the people of the Liu family and has moved out of the chancellor manor together with Tan Shuangshuang." After pondering for a while, Liu Li answered respectfully.

Feng Ruqing was rendered speechless. She did not want to know anything about Liu Yuchen. Liu Yuchen was nothing but a stranger. There was no hatred and simply nothing between them.

"However, there were a few times when I saw Liu Yuchen outside the princess manor. He does not walk near the manor. He just stands there for the whole day and only leaves when the sky is dark. I am telling you as I am thinking that he might be plotting something evil." Liu Li blinked.

Feng Ruqing cocked her brow. Even though she did not know what was in Liu Yuchen's mind, it must be something evil. No matter what, Feng Ruqing will never meet him again.

"Liu Yuchen? The Liu family that has forced you to take your own life?" Nalan Yan frowned, her face darkened.

'Mother, could you please stop talking about this for the sake of my reputation?'

"Your Majesty, Empress Nalan, that bastard Liu Yuchen had divorced Her Highness and had almost taken Her Highness's life." Hearing this, Qing Ling flew into anger and gritted her teeth hard

"Qing'er, you have gotten married and he has divorced you?" Nalan Yan's face grew even darker.

"Well... I can explain this..." Feng Ruqing turned her head and shot Qing Ling a warning glance.

"Your Majesty, Empress Nalan, that is not all. Tan Shuangshuang has always gone to the chancellor manor even though she knew that Liu Yuchen had married Her Highness. The two of them are truly shameless..." Seeing Feng Ruqing's eyes, Qing Ling did not stop talking but took a step forward and continued.

"Qing Ling! Keep your mouth shut!" Qing Ling had completely ruined Feng Ruqing's reputation.

"Your Highness, aren't you the one who want me to say this? I have seen the signal in your eyes." Qing Ling pouted in grievance.

'What can I do to this empty-headed servant?' Feng Ruqing was dumbfounded.

"Mother, I did something wrong back then and I don't blame them. We don't belong together. I have straightened those things out. Moreover, I am the one who has divorced him, not the other way round." Feng Ruqing turned her head only to see Nalan Yan's gloomy face. She held onto Nalan Yan's hand gently.

Chapter 530: He Is Here for Revenge? III

Hearing this, Nalan Yan felt slightly relieved.

“Since Liu Yuchen is not a good match for you, don’t meet with the people from the Liu family in the future. They are unworthy of such honor.”

Although Nalan Yan did not know what had actually happened back then, it was human nature to protect her own family. She knew that her daughter had suffered a great deal of pain. Since her daughter had decided to let it go, naturally, Nalan Yan would not hold onto it. However, she would never let Feng Ruqing associate herself with the Liu family.

“Certainly! I have someone on my mind and that’s absolutely not Liu Yuchen!” Feng Ruqing said with a bright smile on her face.

In fact, Feng Ruqing could tell from the old princess’s memories that the old princess was not truly in love with Liu Yuchen. It was Feng Rushuang who had made the old princess feel well-disposed toward Liu Yuchen and want to marry him. It was all because of Liu Rong and Feng Rushuang.

As Feng Ruqing did not like splitting the loving couple apart, as long as both Liu Yuchen and Tan Shuangshuang did not mess with her, she would never hurt them.

However, if they dared to mess around as they did before, they must pay for the things that they have done. Naturally, she would never let them off easily.

***

Outside the princess manor, Liu Rong was standing at the door, staring at Nalan Yan and Feng Ruqing who were talking animatedly. Burning with jealousy, she clenched her fists tightly.

Bang!

The guard gave her a kick. Liu Rong lost her balance and fell on her knees. Liu Rong could feel the pain in her knees, but what hurt her most was the humiliation.

Hearing the commotion behind her, Nalan Yan turned her head only to see Liu Rong and Feng Rushuang.

At this time, Liu Rong raised her head. Her eyes met Nalan Yan’s.

Seeing Nalan Yan’s face, Liu Rong was slightly startled and furious jealousy crept into her eyes.

It had been more than ten years since the last time Liu Rong had met Nalan Yan. It seemed as if time did not leave its traces on Nalan Yan’s face. Although she was skinny, she still looked young and stunning.

Liu Rong reached out to the wrinkles at the corner of her eye, her heart was full of sorrow and grief. She was old! She had lost her beauty but Nalan Yan was still gorgeous. It was natural that Gu Zhenyang and Feng Tianyu could not let go of her.

At this time, Liu Rong started to regret the things that she had done. She regretted that she went against Nalan Yan. Not only had she ruined her own life, but she had also even put the entire Liu family into trouble.

“Nalan Yan, I have totally lost to you...” Liu Rong laughed softly as tears broke free from her eyes. Her heart was overflowing with bitterness.

Nalan Yan did not utter a word and merely stared at Liu Rong quietly.

"If there is an afterlife, I will never fight with you again. I am completely worn out." Fatigue was etched onto Liu Rong's worn face.

Nalan Yan walked up to Liu Rong slowly and looked down at her with a pair of calm and bright eyes.

"Liu Rong, you are wrong. I have never fought with you. You are not worth my time and effort."

Liu Rong's lips slightly trembled and she was lost for words.

That was ridiculous...

Liu Rong had regarded Nalan Yan as her lifetime's opponent, but Nalan Yan claimed that she had never fought with Liu Rong... that it was all her wishful thinking.

"Liu Rong, I can forgive you for all the things you have done to get into the palace and the way you have insulted me, but I can never forgive you for laying your hands on my husband, daughter, and many other innocent people."
