

Overbearing 571

Chapter 571: Bide Time for Revenge VII

Tan Shuangshuang had lost everything.

Liu Fuyong felt a throbbing pain in his temples. He quickly grabbed Lady Liu's hand and removed Tan Shuangshuang's head out from Lady Liu's grip.

"What are you doing? If anyone else knows this, how would I be able to make a living in the imperial city anymore? Do you truly think we don't have enough trouble already?" Liu Fuyong said as he frowned.

"I... If not for this slut—Tan Shuangshuang, Feng Ruqing would still be my daughter-in-law." Lady Liu's face was drained of color.

"Enough! Stop dreaming! Both His Majesty and Her Majesty hate the Liu family."

Previously, Liu Fuyong was still a chancellor. Naturally, Lady Liu could still live in her own fantasy. Now, Liu Fuyong was nothing. Why would the princess want to be her daughter-in-law?

"When you have time, go and look for Yuchen. He has not been home for a while." Liu Fuyong's brows were knitted together.

Even since Liu Fuyong had stopped Liu Yuchen from going to the battle of the four kingdoms, Liu Yuchen and the chancellor were no longer on talking terms. Liu Yuchen had even left the chancellor's manor.

Now, the chancellor regretted the things that he had done. If he knew that the four kingdoms would lose the battle, he would never have stopped Liu Yuchen.

Liu Fuyong's words brought a lump to Lady Liu's throat. She quickly stopped and rushed out the door.

Tan Shuangshuang did not say anything and only lowered her head. Her face was swollen and red. Blood could be seen oozing out from the wound on her forehead.

"Don't bother about this psycho. Go and treat the wound or it would leave a scar on your face," Liu Fuyong said as he could not bear to see her sad.

Liu Fuyong looked in the direction where Tan Shuangshuang had left and heaved a soft sigh.

"Tan Shuangshuang was the prettiest lady of Liu Yun Kingdom, but has fallen into such a sorry state now. I did hate her...but seeing her current situation, I can no longer do that..."

Moreover, Tan Shuangshuang was still stunning as she was. Simply no one could get mad at her.

***

The voice sounded like a yellow warbler's chirp. It was elegant, graceful, and extremely pleasant to the ears.

“How can I get to the palace?”

In fact, Suyi was truly fortunate. Ziyan was the first person she had asked for direction while the last person she asked was Lady Liu. Both of them were associated with Feng Ruqing but were in a bad mood when Suyi approached them.

Originally, Lady Liu did not pay attention to Suyi. When she heard Suyi’s voice, she could not help raising her head to look at Suyi.

Soon after Empress Nalan had gone missing, Tan Shuangshuang had become the prettiest lady of Liu Yun Kingdom. Then, when Feng Ruqing had successfully lost weight, she had turned into a devastatingly gorgeous lady. Now, the lady who stood before Lady Liu too was exquisitely stunning and even Tan Shuangshuang was no match for her.

‘Since when were there so many beauties in Liu Yun Kingdom?’

Lady Liu had always hated beautiful ladies. Moreover, this beautiful lady wanted to go to the palace. Simply no one knew what she was up to.

“You slut! You are so disgusting! You truly think that you could win His Majesty’s heart with your beauty? His Majesty is so in love with Her Majesty. Who do you think you are to be his concubine? The people I hate the most are those who ruin relationships and break up families!” Lady Liu vented all her anger on a stranger.

Moreover, they were on the bustling street. If Feng Ruqing had heard of Lady Liu’s words, perhaps, she would look differently at the Liu family and give Yuchen a chance.

Beaming in pride, Lady Liu was proud of her smart move.

Chapter 572: Suyi Was Stunned I

Hearing this, Suyi was stunned.

She had met countless people in her life. However, she had never met such a miserable shrew, like the one in front of her.

Although Suyi had a good upbringing, she could not stand Lady Liu’s madness. If Lady Liu were not just an ordinary human, Suyi would have hurt Lady Liu.

“I don’t want to waste my time on a psycho.”

Suyi swung her hand and turned to leave.

At this moment, there was an uproar on the street ahead of them. Lady Liu turned her head around only to see Feng Ruqing leading a herd of spirit beasts on the street. Seeing this, her eyes lit up and she quickly rushed toward Feng Ruqing.

***

The people stood by the side of the street and watched in awe at the stunning lady who was riding the snow wolf. That lady was their princess.

Feng Ruqing was nothing but a notorious lady back then. Now, she was much beloved by the people of Liu Yun Kingdom. When these people knew that the things that Feng Ruqing had done previously were all because of Liu Rong and Feng Rushuang, they were bursting with rage.

Empress Nalan had poured her blood, sweat, and tears into this kingdom. She was such a great hero. Naturally, her daughter was not inferior to her. It was all because of Liu Rong!

As Liu Rong could not stand being left in the cold, she had an affair with another man. She had even led Feng Ruqing astray, made her lose her integrity, and cut Feng Ruqing off from her family. Liu Rong should die a million deaths for her sins!

The people of Liu Yun Kingdom respected Feng Ruqing as much as they hated Liu Rong.

At this time, a silhouette rushed toward her from the street ahead of them and spoiled the vibe. Suddenly, the person was already standing in front of Feng Ruqing.

The snow wolf quickly raised his paw and gave her a good kick. A loud cry sounded.

Hearing this, Suyi who was standing not far away turned her head around.

“Your Highness, I have something to tell you.” Lady Liu bit back the pain, the color drained from her face. She forced a smile as she spoke.

“Madam, do I know you?” With a smile on her face, Feng Ruqing stroked her chin and lowered her head to look at Lady Liu who was kneeling on the ground.

“Your Highness, I am your ex-mother-in-law. We haven’t met only for a few months and you have forgotten about me?” Lady Liu’s face stiffened and coughed bashfully.

Ex mother-in-law...

As soon as Lady Liu finished her words, Feng Ruqing did not say anything but the people around her broke into laughter.

“Lady Liu, you are truly shameless to say this. Your son is not faithful to Her Highness. He had an affair with Tan Shuangshuang. Her Highness had nearly taken her own life in the chancellor’s manor because of this. Moreover, Her Highness has divorced your son.”

“Fortunately, Liu Yuchen did not sleep with Her Highness as she was a two hundred and fifty-pound fatty back then. Her Highness was such a great lady but Liu Yuchen is so shallow and always judges others by their appearances. He must not ruin Her Highness’s life!”

In this world, when one was not liked, everything he or she said was wrong. Previously, these people had always said that Feng Ruqing was a toad lusting after a swan’s flesh (aspiring after something one is not worthy of). Only Tan Shuangshuang— a beautiful and highly gifted lady was Liu Yuchen’s perfect match.

Back then, no one called Tan Shuangshuang a homewrecker and simply no one felt sympathy for Feng Ruqing. Everyone hated her and could not wait to see her vanish from this world.

As the saying goes, every dog has its day. Currently, it turned out that Liu Yuchen was not good enough for Feng Ruqing. It was natural that Feng Ruqing would dump him.

However, could they stop saying those words— two hundred and fifty pounds?

Chapter 573: Suyi Was Stunned II

‘Can you wipe it from your memory?’

Lady Liu’s face darkened a few shades as she glared at the people who were talking. She then turned to look at Feng Ruqing.

“No, Your Highness... I want to tell you that a lady...”

“Who are you?” Feng Ruqing asked with a smile playing on her lips.

“Didn’t I tell you? I am...” Lady Liu’s face stiffened again.

“Ah, I don’t have an ex-mother-in-law. Naturally, I don’t know you.

“Snow Wolf, send her off!”

Howl!

Without the slightest hesitation, the snow wolf raised its paw once again, slapping Lady Liu across her face and sending her flying through the air. Lady Liu landed, rolling, on the ground.

“Your Highness is so charming, I want to marry you and have your baby...” A lady with freckles on her face held her hands to her heart as she said bashfully.

The snow wolf was dumbfounded. It was he who had done that. His master merely gave a command while riding on his back. How could this lady say that its master was charming?

Feng Ruqing looked down at the lady with freckles on her face. Thrilled with joy, the lady wanted to cover the freckles with her hands but had put her hands down after hearing Feng Ruqing’s words.

“You look cute with freckles on your face. I remember that you are the daughter of the deputy finance minister. Your father and brothers are very brave. They are severely hurt in this battle. We have always respected those who defend our kingdom!”

Feng Ruqing’s smile was as bright as the brilliant sunlight and dazzling like a rainbow.

All the ladies looked cute Feng Ruqing’s eyes, so long as they did not act like Tan Shuangshuang and Feng Rushuang.

The heart of the lady with freckles pounded violently.

‘Her Highness still remembers me. That’s so great...’

The guard of Fengyun clan who followed Feng Ruqing secretly jotted down Feng Ruqing words in a tiny notebook—the manor lady likes ladies with freckles on her face. He must inform the elders and draw freckles on the face of all servants to be sent to the princess manor.

The ladies surrounded Feng Ruqing took a glance at the overjoyed lady with freckles and then dropped their eyes as if planning for something. 1

***

Even since Suyi heard how the people of Liu Yun Kingdom greeted Feng Ruqing, she could not take her eyes off Feng Ruqing.

Suyi's gaze was so piercing that Feng Ruqing could hardly ignore it. Hence, she turned her head slowly and looked at Suyi's face.

She did not know why the lady in front of her looked very familiar as if she had met this lady before. However, Feng Ruqing was sure that she had never met Suyi.

"Hey beautiful, have we met before?" A hint of hesitation flashed in Feng Ruqing's eyes.

Suyi was rendered speechless. She felt as if she had bumped into a tyrant.

However, seeing the ladies around her staring affectionately at Feng Ruqing, Suyi's brows knitted slightly. Her cold eyes cast a warning gaze at the crowd as if signaling them to behave as Feng Ruqing was her daughter-in-law.

'Why are they staring at me?'

"I am a friend of the white phoenix. It wanted me to look for you," said Suyi.

"Ah. Where is the white phoenix? I want to thank it. If not for the white phoenix, my father would have been in danger." Feng Ruqing suddenly had an epiphany.

"There is no need. That was what it had to do."

There was no need to thank the white phoenix. As Feng Ruqing would be Nan Xian's wife, it was natural that the white phoenix protected her.

Chapter 574: Suyi Was Stunned III

"Since you know the white phoenix, do you know Nan Xian?" Feng Ruqing broke into a bright smile.

As Feng Ruqing knew nothing about Nan Xian except that he had an azure snake that followed him around, she wanted to know more about him. However, Qing Zhu had never told her much.

"Nan Xian? Who is that?" Suyi's looked at her in wonder.

Feng Ruqing was slightly startled. It was a pity that Suyi only knew the white phoenix but not Nan Xian.

Seeing that Feng Ruqing had trusted her words, Suyi heaved a sigh of relief. She thought that Feng Ruqing knew that she was Nan Xian's mother. She was not ready yet...

Only when Suyi had settled the things in the Mu family would she meet Feng Ruqing again and let her know that she was actually Nan Xian's mother.

Suyi did not want her daughter-in-law to know anything about the Mu family. She did not want her to deal with that toxic place.

If Feng Ruqing knew that Suyi was Nan Xian's mother, she might ask Suyi about Nan Xian's father. Then, Feng Ruqing might get involved with the Mu family.

As a mother, Suyi did not protect her son properly back then. Now, she wanted both her son and daughter-in-law to live in a world that was full of sunshine and to never allow anything from that dark place to stain their souls.

That was something that she insisted on and that was the reason why she had kicked the white phoenix out of there.

"You slut! Your Highness! This is the slut that I mentioned just now. She wants to seduce His Majesty! Your Highness, this lady..." Lady Liu saw the lady in front of Feng Ruqing and quickly got up from the ground as she snarled.

"Snow wolf, you did not send her far enough." Feng Ruqing raised her brow.

The snow wolf burst with rage as he howled. Once again, he gave Lady Liu a hard slap. This time, Lady Liu vanished from everyone's sight after rolling for quite a while.

"Do you believe what she said?" Stunned, Suyi stared at Feng Ruqing.

"Only a fool would listen to what others say. I only believe in my own intuition. Somehow, I cannot even believe the things that I see..." Feng Ruqing smiled.

Previously, Feng Ruqing knew that Tang Yin had approached her with a motive but she knew that Tang Yin was too gullible. Hence, she did not chase Tang Yin away as she believed in her own intuition. She could tell good from evil at first sight.

"That's right. Only a fool would believe in what others say." Suyi stared at Feng Ruqing in agreement.

Chen Qingyan had always wronged Suyi in the Mu family back then. The person who promised to protect her had never believed in her. No matter what Qingyan said, even without evidence, he trusted her. He only trusted Qingyan.

It was apparent that Mu Ling was such a fool. He was no match for Feng Ruqing, not even the slightest bit.

Although Suyi had let go of Mu Ling, she still held grudges against him for not trusting her. However, after listening to Feng Ruqing, all the grudges vanished without a trace.

Mu Ling was a fool. Why would Suyi hold grudges against a fool? She only felt sympathy for him when someone had made a fool out of him but he, himself, did not know.

“White phoenix said that you were in danger. Hence, I am here to protect you. By the way, I have seen a man watching you. Perhaps, he is planning for something evil,” Suyi’s said nonchalantly—her expression calm and tranquil.

Chapter 575: Suyi Was Stunned IV

Feng Ruqing followed Suyi’s glance. It was Liu Yuchen who was hiding in the corner of the street.

With a drunken look and a flushed face, Liu Yuchen seemed to have drunk plenty of wine. He was like a lingering soul that keeps haunting Feng Ruqing. His eyes were still fixed on her.

“It’s him again! Is he planning to ruin my princess manor because Nan Xian had tasked Xiao Qing to set fire to the chancellor manor?” Feng Ruqing frowned slightly.

Hearing this, Suyi’s body stiffened.

‘Nan Xian tasked Xiao Qing to set fire to a manor? Xiao Qing is capable of setting a fire? Wait... Nan Xian has actually done this?’

“Or would it be that Nan Xian spiked the Liu family’s food with laxatives? Xiao Qing told me that Nan Xian spiked everyone in the Divine Herbs Sect by putting laxatives into their food before. Perhaps, he did the same thing to the Liu family?” Feng Ruqing frowned even harder.

‘Nan Xian spiked food with laxatives?’

Suyi’s face was stiffened. Her son who had always been holding himself with a noble bearing had actually resorted to such a despicable mean—spiking food with laxatives?

“Qing’er. That man... is your ex-husband?”

“Um... I dumped him. After that my friend set fire to his manor. My mother dismissed his father from the chancellor post. Not long after the chancellor’s manor was fixed, Xiao Qing had once again set fire to the manor. Hence, he hates me so much and has been stalking me since. His eyes are truly vicious and cunning. I don’t know what he is after.”

Suyi glanced at Liu Yuchen.

‘Eyes filled with viciousness and cunning?’

Suyi felt that Feng Ruqing had gotten the wrong message. The man’s eyes were full of affection. Apparently, he still loved Feng Ruqing.

“Qing’er, you don’t like him?” Suyi smiled lightly. Her smile was so beautiful that it could bring everyone to their knees.

“I only like the state preceptor— Nan Xian.” Apparently, Feng Ruqing did not notice the way Suyi had addressed her.

Hearing this, Suyi broke into a smile—warm and heart-melting.

Feng Ruqing jumped down from the wolf’s back with a smile in her eyes.

"You are the same like the state preceptor. Both of you don't like smiling. In fact, both of you look stunning when you smile. You don't need to hold yourself back on purpose."

"I have gotten used to this." The corner of Suyi's lips curved into a faint smile.

Ever since Suyi left the Mu family, she had gotten used to hiding all her feelings. She could never change it after so many years...

Feng Ruqing raised her arm to stroke Suyi's face.

"There must be a reason behind this for both you and the state preceptor. I won't ask the state preceptor. I am waiting for him to tell me on his own. As for you... I won't ask either. You should not wait for the person who has made you who you are today. He is not worthy of your effort."

Suyi's body stiffened. Previously, if she had heard Feng Ruqing's words, she would have felt touched. However, she felt that if Feng Ruqing were a man, she would be the master of flirting. 1

***

Knowing that Feng Ruqing had returned to Liu Yun Kingdom, Tang Yin was thrilled and rushed out the manor together with Nalan Jing only to see Feng Ruqing stroking another lady's face.

Although Nan Xian had grown up and Suyi was no longer young, time did not leave its traces on Suyi's face. Simply no one would know that Nan Xian was her son if she did not tell.

Seeing Feng Ruqing was so close to Suyi, poor Tang Yin's eyes reddened, her heart was filled with grievance.

"Xiao Qing, you don't love me anymore?"

"Have we ever been in love before?" Feng Ruqing was startled as she stared at Tang Yin for a while before she asked.

Chapter 576: Su Yi was Stunned V

Tang Yin could not hold back her tears anymore, she finally cried out loud.

Xiao Qing treated every other woman well, too. But she was the only person whom Feng Ruqing had not allowed to enter the princess's manor when she was there the first day.

She was fine with losing to Nan Xian. After all, her opponent was strong. But now...

Tang Yin stopped crying and looked at Suyi. Then her face stiffened.

She was prettier than her...

Boobs...

She looked down and her gaze fell on Suyi's chest.

They were also bigger than hers...

No wonder Xiao Qing liked her...

"Xiao Qing." Tang Yin turned to Feng Ruqing with her red eyes. "Is there any medication that can enlarge the breasts and grow them as big as watermelons?"

"..." Feng Ruqing was silent for a while. She turned her head to look at Suyi. "Just ignore her. She can be weird at times."

Suyi doubtfully looked at Tang Yin.

"She is..."

"Oh, her name is Tang Yin."

Tang Yin...

Suyi seemed to be familiar with these two words—Tang Yin.

Even though she did not leave the hill, she had always paid attention to the Mu family's movements. She wanted to know what they were planning.

She understood that Mu Ling had found a fiancée for Nan Xian, which was Tang Yin...

Now it seemed...

Did this so-called fiancée like Qing'er? If Mu Ling knew about it, she bet he would be so mad!

Thinking about that, Suyi could not help but sneer. "Qing'er, the white phoenix asked me to protect you. Do you mind me staying in your manor during this period?"

"You are welcome at any time."

Tang Yin was speechless.

She felt aggrieved and self-pity. "Xiao Qing, why have you been unwilling to let me enter your manor?"

"Your purpose is too obvious. I am stupid if I let you in."

"But... but you want to drive me away now. Huhu, I want to go back to the princess's manor."

Feng Ruqing was distracted. She looked at Tang Yin hesitantly and then looked at Nalan Jing. "If you come here, what about you and my cousin?"

Tang Yin was startled. "What is up with your cousin and me?"

"Oh, I heard from Qing Ling that your relationship with my cousin is extremely good. The state preceptor also thinks that you must be in love and need time to get along. Therefore, he let me send you to General Manor..."

Tang Yin was dumbfounded.

That seductress—Nan Xian's tricks were very remarkable. He deliberately drove her away to completely possess Xiao Qing.

“Cousin, did you bully Xiao Yin?” Feng Ruqing looked at Nalan Jing. “Why does Xiao Yin keep mentioning that she wants to come back?”

Nalan Jing shook his head. “No, Yin’er is the little devil of General Manor.”

‘She is indeed a little devil. She is being spoiled by Mother and Grandfather. Dai’er also always follows her.

‘Father resents her but still, treats her like she is precious .’

So, what he said was not wrong...

“Oh, that’s good.” Feng Ruqing was relieved. She patted Tang Yin’s shoulder. “Get along well with my cousin. Just inform me when you want to get married. I will support you.”

“No, Xiao Qing. I have been wronged. It was Nan Xian...”

“The state preceptor’s words will not be wrong. You shall settle down in General Manor. My grandfather, my aunt, and my uncle are very nice. No one will bully you once you are married into General Manor.”

Tang Yin almost cried. “Xiao Qing, I really don’t...”

“The state preceptor said that you love each other.” Feng Ruqing looked serious. “You can rest assured that I will protect you. If my cousin bullies you, you may return to the princess’s manor. My manor is your parental house. If you are going to marry, you must be married from here.”

Chapter 577: Qin Chen’s Family Members I

Tang Yin’s face stiffened.

Nalan Jing had already moved forward before she finished her words.

The teenager smiled a little.

“Cousin, I will help you look after her...” He paused and hesitated. “I heard that Liu Yuchen had been wandering outside your manor recently?”

Feng Ruqing did not say anything.

Even her cousin knew that Liu Yuchen wanted to set her manor on fire?

“If...” Nalan Jing’s eyes were ice cold and murderous. “You don’t want to see him, I can make him disappear from Liu Yun Kingdom.”

Feng Ruqing smiled. “He is still twenty feet away from the princess’s manor. If he dares to come ten feet closer, I will break his legs!”

“Alright.”

Nalan Jing slowly sighed in relief.

It seemed that his cousin did not have any good feelings for Liu Yuchen anymore.

He was also reassured...

Liu Yuchen was a person who judged people solely by their appearance and her cousin deserved better.

"Xiao Yin, let's go. Didn't you want to cook fish soup for my cousin? Father has just bought some new fish today..."

Tang Yin's face, which was initially sad, suddenly lit up after hearing Nalan Jing's words.

"Good. Let's go home and cook fish soup."

Feng Ruqing stared blankly at Tang Yin's disappearing figure. A smile played on her lips. "It seems that Xiao Yin and my cousin get along with each other. I am relieved."

"Qing'er, you like her this much?"

Suyi was silent for a while. Qing'er liked her so much now. Was she aware that the Mu family wanted this little girl to be Nan Xian's fiancée?

Even if she and Nan Xian disagreed on this matter, most people would bear no grudge against it.

"In the beginning, Xiao Yin did approach me with a purpose. It was only later that I realized what her purpose was from her so-called family. Nevertheless, she can be trusted since I choose to believe her."

If she did not believe in a person, she would keep a distance instantly.

If she did, then she would be confident in her judgment of people.

Suyi could not refrain from laughing.

'An ordinary woman will surely be mad at her future husband for having a fiancée.

'However, Qing'er is extraordinary.'

"You are an excellent judge of character..."

For instance, Nan Xian.

Feng Ruqing's eyes were filled with joy.

Suyi's original owner was not that wise.

But Qing'er's intellect had always been good.

Among all people, she had picked Nan Xian at a glance.

A glance that was for a lifetime!

***

Blood as red and as bright as the sunset was horrifying.

There were obvious bloodstains on the corners of the boy's mouth. His black robe was ragged, and there was obvious blood oozing down his cold face.

He had been hiding for so long, hiding for so long, these people... they still found him in the end!

They still did not want to let him go!

"Qin Chen!"

A middle-aged man walked out slowly from the crowd. His eyes were flashing angrily. "How can you keep on cultivating?"

The boy stabbed his long sword into the ground. He was expressionless, and he did not even have a sneer.

"It is the Qin family's fault that I have been unable to cultivate for many years. Now, finally, it is time!"

He was used to suffering extreme pain when he cultivated over the years.

Every breakthrough was a disaster.

But Feng Ruqing...

Qin Chen's eyes softened while thinking of the girl's smile.

It was Feng Ruqing who gave him hope!

She also gave him the greatest warmth in this life.

Chapter 578: Qin Chen's Family Members II

"Qin Chen, you are my son. So, you must have some considerations for the Qin family. We have been feeding you medicine since you were young because your health was very poor! Now that you have been hiding for so many years, it's time to go back."

If he did not go back, what about his daughter...

What about his precious daughter?

A fortune-teller foretold his daughter's fortune sixteen years ago.

If he wanted to save his daughter's life, he could only find the savior in the east.

The said savior was, in fact... just a pill-popper.

Later, the people he sent had stolen Qin Chen from other people's homes!

In these years, he had fed Qin Chen various medicines just to make him more suitable as a drug primer.

1

Sure enough, with his blood, his daughter's condition was almost recovered in the early years...

Hence, he did not waste energy to find him when Qin Chen had escaped. He let him self-destruct as well.

If it was not for the recurrence of his daughter's sickness, he would not have been able to come to him

"Life didn't matter to me before. I had left the Qin family because I was tired of that place." Qin Chen slowly got up and gently wiped away the blood from the corner of his mouth with his fingertips. "But now, I don't want to die."

He met someone, one... one person who had given him hope to live.

He would cherish his life for her sake and be reluctant to die easily.

Qin Li's eyes were cold. "Qin Chen, you are so ungrateful. All these years, if it was not for the Qin family, how could you have survived? Let me tell you. Fei'er's condition is not so good. You have to go back! She is my daughter and also your sister!"

Qin Chen did not speak, and he held the sword in his hand tightly.

He had never rejected Qin Fei'er being addressed as his sister in the past.

Qin Fei'er had never been harsh on him regardless of how the Qin family had treated him.

Now he was extremely resistant to this form of address...

"She is not my sister."

This feeling was like something that belonged to only one person had been taken by others.

He felt disgusted and irritated!

"Presumptuous!" Qin Li yelled. "Back then, your biological parents did not want you and had even wanted to kill you. It was the Qin family who had saved you and provided you a home. You have become the young master of the Qin family with supreme glory. What about letting you be a tester for Fei'er? This is what you should do!"

Qin Chen remained expressionless, but he gradually lowered his shady eyes.

Being abandoned by his biological parents. It was abominable!

However, Qin Li brought up the old stories again and again.

Really...

Hateful and ridiculous!

"Qin Chen." Qin Li's tone softened. "Your existence was a misery. Otherwise, your biological parents would not have wanted to kill you. Only the Qin family will disregard your past and take care of you. It is important to repay the kindness to those who have helped you. If it was not for Fei'er, do you think you could have entered the Qin family? Is this how you thank Fei'er?"

Qin Chen's eyes were cold as if he was not moved by those words.

“Moreover, that person from the Mu family said that he would give Fei’er to Nan Xian as his concubine after he gets married. With Fei’er’s kind nature and her condition, she would be bullied by the first wife after she enters the Mu family. You are still alive because of Fei’er. Shouldn’t you save her?”

Young Master Nan Xian...

These four words caused Qin Chen to suddenly look up. His eyes flashed angrily.

“Who did you just mention?”

“Nan Xian from the Mu family. When the old master of the Mu family was healthy, even the manor master of the Tian Shen Manor had given the Mu family some credits. Although the old master is senile now, who knows that maybe he might become better someday. Even if some clans wanted to take some action, they will not be too daring to go over the line because the old master is still watching them closely.”

Chapter 579: Qin Chen’s Family Members III

Qin Li’s slightly smirked. “So, there is nothing wrong with marrying Fei’er to Nan Xian. Young Master Nan Xian has been outstanding since childhood. He has not returned for many years, but he should be stronger than before. Qin Chen, think it over for yourself.”

“The Mu family... Nan Xian...” Qin Chen grew colder. “Well, I am going back to the Qin family.”

Nan Xian...

He should have recognized Nan Xian when he first saw him.

No one would be as strong as him, except for Nan Xian of the Mu family at Tian Shen Manor.

Yes, although Nan Xian was always following Feng Ruqing around, he had to admit that he was really strong.

“I will return to the Qin family two days later!”

“Okay. I will give you two days.” Qin Li sneered.

Sure enough, the title of the Mu family was indeed useful...

Even the righteous Qin Chen could become excited when he could be acquainted with the Mu family.

Qin Li did not see that Qin Chen’s eyes had grown colder and that his eyes were filled with hatred that seemed to swallow everything.

***

The night crept in quietly.

A gentle breeze flowed.

The candles were flickering in the house, and it was misty.

The young man stood up straight next to the bed. His face looked warm under the moonlight. His eyes rested on the girl on the bed. He gently stroked her forehead and combed her hair with his slender fingers.

Suddenly, a lily-white hand stretched out and held the young man's hand tightly.

"Chen'er?"

Not knowing when Feng Ruqing had opened her eyes, she then looked at the young man standing next to the bed. "What happened?"

The young man lowered his gloomy eyes. He smiled, a smile so pure.

"I am going home."

'Going home...'

Feng Ruqing trembled a little.

She had forgotten that the current Qin Chen was not her close childhood friend—Che'er anymore.

In this life, she had her family, and Qin Chen also had his own family.

She had simply ignored it since she had never heard him bring up his family.

"Your family..." Feng Ruqing was silent for a while. "Do they treat you well?"

The young man smiled lightly. His smile was as bright as the morning sun, no longer as cold as he usually was he dealt with other people.

"Pretty well."

"Then I am relieved. If... if your family doesn't treat you well... you can come back here at any time. This is also your home."

'I could not be your family member in this life.

'But you will always be my loved one in this world.'

"Don't worry, Xiao Qing. I used to have nothing, so I don't care about anything. Now... I have you. I will cherish myself."

"Chen'er, your family..." Feng Ruqing was still confused. "Do they really treat you well? Then why have you been wandering around for years; why have you been suffering so much? Tell me where is your home. If I miss you, I can always go to you."

"I left home due to my waywardness. Xiao Qing, you don't have to worry too much. I will just go back for a while and will return soon." Qin Chen gently caressed Feng Ruqing's head. "Furthermore, the place where my home is located... is hard to get in."

Feng Ruqing furrowed her brows for a moment before speaking calmly.

"Chen'er, I respect your willingness to go home. But you must tell me everything no matter what happens. Do not bear it alone."

“Good. I will come back and tell you everything no matter what happens. Xiao Qing, believe me, I will become stronger the next time you see me. I will not let anyone hurt you.”

Chapter 580: Qin Chen’s Family Members IV

Feng Ruqing looked at the young man’s clear eyes. She finally smiled. “Just go home, but you must remember that the princess’s manor will always be your home.”

‘My manor is forever your home...’

The word ‘home’ was once a thing that he had never dared to hope for, but it warmed his heart today.

The warmth made him reluctant to let go.

“Xiao Qing, thank you...”

‘Thank you for appearing in my life in this life.’

‘Thank you for giving me a home.’

Qin Chen did not bother Feng Ruqing. He turned and walked into the night.

At that moment, his face was stoic and his eyes were looked ahead firmly.

‘Since you like him...’

‘Then I will not allow anyone to ruin your happiness!’

‘Anyone!’

‘This is all that I can do for you!’

Feng Ruqing stared blankly at Qin Chen as he simply disappeared.

The young man’s back gave off a sense of loneliness.

It seemed that he was the only one left in this world...

***

A sick and beautiful lady was holding onto her servant as she carefully sat down in the arbor.

Her face was pale and lack of any color of life. She pursed her lips gently as her delicate figure seemed to look like she might fall down at any given time.

“My daughter, how come you are out again?” A gorgeous woman quickly walked toward Fei’er. The woman felt distressed looking at her pale face. “You are so weak. Who has let you out? Liu Xia!”

She screamed and the servant standing next to her immediately kneeled down. The servant was stunned and panicked.

“Mother.” Qin Fei’er signaled her servant to leave. She then turned to look at the woman. “Don’t blame my servant. I planned... Cough cough, to come out and have some fresh air because I was too bored.”

“You have been a lot better in the past few years. However, your condition has worsened recently. I have already said that we should not have let Qin Chen go. Your father has not gone to him because he thought you have completely recovered.”

The woman frowned and sighed helplessly.

Qin Fei’er pursed her pale lips together. “Mother... Brother... will he come back?”

“You have been so good to him since he was a child. If he doesn’t come back, isn’t he an ungrateful person like a white-eyed wolf?” The lady snorted coldly. “He must have suffered a lot outside. Now he must know that the Qin family has treated him so well. We had only fed him some medicine from time to time and provided you with his blood as a drug primer in the past few years. What else did we ask him to do? In fact, we even addressed him as the young master of the Qin family. What else does he want?”

Qin Fei’er felt aggrieved listening to the woman’s words. She frowned. “Mother, we—the Qin family, owe him a lot and that cannot be repaid with fame and fortune. Moreover, he never knew that the Qin family’s identity is fake. If he knew that he stole him away, the Qin family...”

The fortune-teller said that she was born to be weak years ago. If she wanted to survive, she could only find her savior in the eastern part of the secular world.

Then suddenly... the Qin family discovered Qin Chen!

That family seemed to have a pair of twins—a boy and a girl. Moreover, Qin Chen’s physique was special and was suitable to be a pill-popper. So, Qin Chen was brought back to the Qin family.

The Qin family had fabricated stories, again and again, to make him the so-called savior just so he would cooperate willingly.

But...

Qin Fei’er had always been dissatisfied with the measure that the Qin family had taken. Nonetheless, she could not do anything since her parents insisted on their way of doing it.
