

Overwhelmed 108

Chapter 108 Playing Hard-to-get

Milton felt like he got a gut punch.

That was not due to Candice trying to drive him away.

Yet it was because she loved Greyson so deeply that she immediately put herself in direct danger to protect him.

Milton felt like he got a gut punch.

That was not due to Candice trying to drive him away.

Yet it was because she loved Greyson so deeply that she immediately put herself in direct danger to protect him.

Milton felt like he got a gut punch.

That was not due to Candice trying to drive him away.

Yet it was because she loved Greyson so deeply that she immediately put herself in direct danger to protect him.

Greyson pulled Candice beside him and whispered, "Go upstairs. This is between me and him."

"Not happening!" Candice pulled Greyson back to the elevator with all her might.

Almost simultaneously, she turned her attention to Milton and said, "And you, just go!"

Although the bloody taste and sting at the corner of Milton's mouth were unpleasant, the agony in his chest was far worse.

Although the bloody taste and sting at the corner of Milton's mouth were unpleasant, the agony in his chest was far worse.

Although the bloody taste and sting at the corner of Milton's mouth were unpleasant, the agony in his chest was far worse.