

Overwhelmed 126

Chapter 126 Trade My Body For A Property

Candice so badly wanted to hurl the keys at Milton's repulsive good looks.

She wanted nothing more than to let go of the keys she was holding.

Yet she resisted the urge to do so. It had been three years since she was in such close proximity to home the last time.

She was very interested in going home to have a simple look.

She just wanted to buy her home back. She had a golden opportunity, but the guy in front of her jumped in.

She had to either give in to him or give up on the house.
