

Overwhelmed 136

Chapter 136 It Depended On His Disposition

Candice's cheeks suddenly flushed. She was embarrassed.

In reality, they weren't having sex in the car.

"Let me out!" One word at a time, she spoke.

After a while, Milton regained his composure and let go of her.

He would probably do what the two individuals who just walked by said if he didn't allow her out of the car.

When Candice finally got out of the car, she made a beeline for the lake.

She was gasping for some fresh air. Being with this guy was too much of a risk.

Milton then got out of the car after her.
