

Overwhelmed 180

Chapter 180 Seventy Percent Capacity

Lambert took a good look around and finally noticed the tension between Milton and Greyson. It took him long enough!!

Their gazes into each other were icy and vicious as if they were nearly ready to devour one another.

Lambert was understandably on edge.

To hell with it! Did he just start a fire that wouldn't go off easily?

What stood out the most to him was that Milton's eyes were fixed on Candy the whole time.

As Milton had previously brought Candy to a business party, he assumed she had some significance in Milton's life.
