

Overwhelmed 191

Chapter 191 I Won't Stand Idly By

Milton realized that there were no footsteps following him.

He quickly turned his head in surprise, his striking face illuminated by the dim yellow light of the street lamps.

His bright eyes shone like stars in the sky.

"What's going on?" he asked with a hint of confusion.

Candice froze for a moment, trying to stay calm and collected. She pretended like nothing had happened and asked, "So, what happened next? Did you help her?"

"What's going on?" he asked with a hint of confusion.

Milton took a few steps back and approached Candice. "I did something, kind of," he replied.
