Chapter 1271: What sort of person did you offend?

Platinum VIP room.

Most people could not believe their eyes.

Senior Zhou stood and walked away after putting down his cards and chips.

Dong Xuebing did not care about everyone's gaze and counted his chips. 120 million USD. It was still far from his target. He said to everyone. Anyone else wants to play cards?

Everyone cursed in their hearts.

Even the God of Cards lost to you. Do you think others will play with you?

Your skills are unbelievable.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing warily.

Zhang Longjuan did not expect Dong Xuebing to beat the legendary Zhou Hu in a few rounds.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were dumbfounded.

Dong Xuebing did not show any expression. He kept his chips in the box. 120 million USD. He got to force the chips into the full box. He saw no one wanted to play and stood up. He turned to Zhang Longjuan and said. Sis Zhang, let's play in the main lobby.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. What else do you want to play?

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and said. The roulette tables were closed. But we can play other games.

Shen Xiaomei paused for a second. You can win at other games?

I think so. Dong Xuebing replied. I got to try. No one wants to play with us in the VIP room now. We can only play in the main lobby.

Zhang Longjuan wrapped her arms around his arm and said. Ok. Haha Let's go.

Dong Xuebing nodded. You can tell me about the Baccarat rules on the way.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. Baccarat is easy. You can place your bets on

They collected their chips and walked out of the Platinum VIP room.

Everyone was shocked when they heard Dong Xuebing wanted to play Baccarat without knowing the rules. But none of them dares to laugh at him. They might think he is a fool if it was someone else. Someone who does not know the rules will surely lose to the casino. However, this person had won the God of Cards, won Mahjong with four Heavenly Wins, and bet on the winning number thrice at Roulette. They felt he could win at any game.

Dong Xuebing had left a deep impression on others in the last hour.

Please wait a minute, young man. Senior Zhou called Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing turned and smiled. Do you want to continue playing? What are we playing?

Senior Zhou smiled. Can we step aside and talk for a minute?

Dong Xuebing looked at Zhang Longjuan. She did not say anything, and he nodded. Sure.

Not far away.

Inside a private room.

A few people entered the room, and Senior Zhou asked everyone to sit. Please have a seat. Song Yuhu did not enter. Senior Zhou ordered him to wait outside.

Zhang Longjuan sat on a seat, and Dong Xuebing sat beside her.

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing and said. This is my first time seeing someone with your skills at your age. You are impressive.

Dong Xuebing replied. Please stop praising me. What do you want to talk about?

Senior Zhou nodded. I hope you can give me face. You said you wanted to win over a hundred million USD, and you had done it. Xiao Song might have offended you all previously, and I apologize. Lets put a stop to it. I will walk you all off the ship when we dock. He wants Dong Xuebing to stop playing and wait for the ship to dock.

Dong Xuebing shook his head. Your subordinate had offended us greatly. We were almost killed. Do you think this is over with an apology?

Senior Zhou looked at Dong Xuebing. Be forgiving, young man. One should let others off where it is possible.

I know this saying. Dong Xuebing said. But that guy had never thought about letting us off.

Senior Zhou said. All right. I will give you 10 million USD worth of chips. I hope you will stop playing.

Dong Xuebing laughed. I am not a beggar. I can win it myself.

Dong Xuebing and Senior Zhou chatted for a while, and he left the room with Zhang Longjuan.

Outside.

Zhang Longjuan asked. Are you going to continue?

Dong Xuebing nodded. Your company needs over 200 million USD. Lets play a while more. We got time.

Shen Xiaoyan asked. Are you sure you can win 200 million USD?

Dong Xuebing did not give a firm answer. I think so.

The private room.

Song Yuhu entered the room after they left. Senior Zhou.

Senior Zhou did not say anything. He held his walking stick and let out a loud sigh.

Senior Zhou, how did you lose to him with your skills? Song Yuhu still could not believe Senior Zhou had lost. This

I am old now. Senior Zhou sighed. I knew I could not win that young man before the game started.

Song Yuhu paused for a second. Why?

Senior Zhou continued. I know he cheated. But cheating in Mahjong is different from cards. He could switch so many tiles in an instant. Even I cannot tell how or when he did it. This skill is peerless. Cards are easier than Mahjong. If he can get Heavenly Wins every round at Mahjong, he can win easily with cards. I played with him because I want to know how he did it.

Song Yuhu took a deep breath. Did you find out?

Senior Zhou shook his head. No. There were no traces.

How is this possible? There will be clues or traces if someone cheats. Song Yuhu refused to believe it.

That's why this young man is special. Even those masters in my generation are not his match.

What about Roulette?

I suspect he used some tricks to win. There's no other explanation other than this.

I did not know there were tricks to win so easily. They are going to the Baccarat tables now. What if Song Yuhu was worried.

Senior Zhou looked at Song Yuhu and got mad. What did you do? Can't you think before you do anything? Is that guy someone you can offend? If he wants, he might even win this ship from us. What sort of person did you offend?

Song Yuhu kept quiet. He regretted his actions now.

He wanted revenge on an old enemy but offended someone who can get Heavenly Wins every round. This was not his intent.

Chapter 1272: Legends about Dong Xuebing

6 am.

The sun is up.

The people in the casino lobby were not tired. They continued to play at the Baccarat and dice tables.

Why is it small again?

Black Jack! Black Jack!

Ah! What a shitty hand!

Haha this is a good sign!

The guests were playing excitedly. But a few guests stopped when they saw Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, and the twins. Many saw Dong Xuebing exchanging a One-thousand USD casino chip with coins and crumpled notes earlier. After that, they saw him win big at the Roulette table.

Eh, is he that guy?

Ah, he is the one who won at the Roulette table.

Yes. He forced the casino to close the tables.

Why did he come out so fast? Its only around an hour.

I think he went to the Platinum VIP room. The bets are high there. Did he win or lose?

Many guests looked at Dong Xuebing and the rest, but they could not tell from their expressions. They looked at them for a while and continued gambling.

Main lobby.

Dong Xuebing stood there and looked around.

Zhang Longjuan had told him the Baccarat and dice rules.

Can you remember it? Zhang Longjuan asked.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Yes. I remembered almost everything.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. That means you still do not understand.

Its fine. I got a rough idea. Dong Xuebing was too lazy to use his brain.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. You are too daring, brat. You dare to play without understanding the rules. Haha go ahead. You will know after a few hands.

Suddenly, there was a commotion.

What happened?

What is the meaning of this?

You cannot do this!

We are about to place our bets.

Dong Xuebing looked over. Over a dozen casino staff rushed out of their staff room and shut down a Baccarat table. The staff said something to the dealer, and she covered the machine with a cloth. She also cut off the electricity. Many guests were unhappy. Two roulette tables were sealed, and they are sealing the baccarat tables now.

One table

Three tables

Five tables

All the baccarat tables were covered with cloth by the dealers.

The guests protested loudly, and some even started cursing.

This was not the end. After closing the baccarat tables, the dealers and staff went to the dice and blackjack tables to close them.

Dong Xuebing narrowed his eyes.

Zhang Longjuan looked at them coldly.

All the tables were closed in the main lobby within a few minutes.

Song Yuhu, Senior Zhou, and his men entered the lobby.

All the dealers and casino staff went over to them and waited for further instructions.

The guests were furious.

What is the meaning of this?

We were playing happily. Why did you stop it?

I want an explanation. How can you all do this?

A few seconds later, a female person in charge stepped forward. She took a microphone from a dealer and said. I am sorry, everyone. Many of our machines have broken down and need to be maintained. Sorry for the inconvenience caused.

What can an apology do?

We are here to gamble. What are we going to do when you stop all the games?

The female person in charge replied. The ship will be docking in around an hour. You all can rest in your rooms. We apologize again.

Apology is useless!

You all cannot be trusted.

What casino is this? How can all the machines break down?

Thats right. Fk! I am not coming back!

The person in charge tried her best to soothe the guests. But the casino is not giving in despite everyones protests.

The machines must undergo maintenance. Theres no room for negotiations.

All the guests were furious at the casinos action.

The female person in charge could not control the situation. All the guests were prominent figures, and she could not do anything. She looked at Senior Zhou beside her.

Senior Zhou stepped forward and said. Sorry, everyone. Thats an error with our system, and the main lobby will be closed. The ship will be leaving the international waters earlier. Please be ready to disembark. I hope you can understand this is our casinos fault. He explained for a while. At the end, he said. Theres still some time until we leave international waters. We will add a few more jackpot machines for everyone.

The two rows of jackpot machines were the only place with electricity in the lobby.

Increasing the number of machines might ease the tension.

But not all guests like to play jackpot machines. They disagreed and continued to complain.

Senior Zhou had no choice. Dong Xuebing was too skillful. He was so skilled that Senior Zhou could not see through his tricks. He tried negotiating with Dong Xuebing but failed. He could only stop the casino operation and risk getting a bad reputation. If not, Dong Xuebing might bankrupt the casino. No one can stop him.

Its true casinos value their reputation.

But who cares about reputation if the casino could not even win?

The guests argued for a while, but the casino was firmed. They were frustrated and did not carry on.

I am not coming back to this shithole casino!

Thats right. This is the last time I come!

Eh, why did they close the main lobby?

Who knows? Maybe they have gone mad.

Mad? Shutting down the main lobby is mad. Everyone knows casino is a sure-win business. Every minute counts. Why did they choose not to make money?

Yes. You are right.

Then why did they do this?

Most guests were puzzled by the casinos decision. What were they thinking?

But the guests who were in the Platinum VIP room knew what happened.

Let me share with you. A guest who watched Dong Xuebing play in the VIP room said. Have you heard about what happened in the Platinum VIP room?

Ah?

What happened?

That guest said. Do you remember that young man who won at the Roulette tables?

Yes. He went to the Platinum VIP room.

Thats him. Sigh The guest organized his words and said. You will not believe it. That young man played Mahjong with Mr. Song and two others after he went in. He lost at first, but when it was his turn to be the Banker, he

He won?

Its fine if he won.

Thats right. Whats the big deal?

The guest replied. It is not about him winning. He consecutively got four Heavenly Wins after becoming the Banker.

What?

Are you kidding me?

Four Heavenly Wins? Bullshit!

The guest shrugged his shoulders. I said you will not believe me.

Another guest from the Platinum VIP room added. Old Han was telling the truth. We saw it. Four consecutive Heavenly Wins. The first was a Heavenly Win. Second was a Big Three Dragons Heavenly Win. His third hand was a Big Four Blessings Heavenly Win, and the fourth was a Pure Suit Hand, Seven Doubles, Heavenly Win!

All the guests were dumbfounded.

That's not the end. Do you know the God of Cards, Zhou Hu? He is the old man earlier. No one dares to play against that young man, and he played a few rounds. In the end no words can describe that game. They played 3-Cards brag, and guess what their cards were. Three-of-a-kind won against Queen, King, Ace, royal flush Three-of-a-kind won against Three-of-a-kind A Five won against a Three-of-a-kind. Three-of-a-kind Ace The guest glanced at Senior Zhou. The God of Cards admitted defeat in the end.

He is Zhou Hu?

Ah, I thought he looked familiar.

Yes. That old man is the God of Cards.

How is this possible? How can the God of Cards lose?

Everyone took a deep breath. Many could not accept what happened.

That guest looked at them. Do you know why the casino closed its main lobby now? They fear that young man will continue winning and bankrupt the casino.

Someone asked. Is he that good?

That guest said. You will understand if you saw what happened. After winning, that young man challenged everyone in the room. No one dares to take up the challenge. Who dares to play against him?

Fk!

Are you saying he did not win at the Roulette table because of his luck?

There are ways to guess the winning number at Roulette? That's why the casino closed to stop him from playing?

That guest shook his head. I don't know if it was luck. I guess only he knows the answer.

Wow I did not know such a person existed.

If this is true, it will be

Words spread quickly. Many guests in the casino were shocked and understood why the casino closed earlier.

Almost a hundred pairs of eyes turned and looked at Dong Xuebing.

Many who heard of Dong Xuebing's skills got excited.

Who is this guy?

He is amazing.

One person

One chip

When everyone thought this young man was a joke, he won 120 million USD from a one thousand USD chip. He also forced Hong Kong's biggest casino ship to stop operations.

This guy is ruthless.

He is a legend!

Chapter 1273: I got a solution

Casino main lobby.

In a corner.

Zhang Longjuan saw everyone looking at Dong Xuebing, and she smiled. She held his arm and said. You are famous now. People will hear about what happened tonight. Haha Shen Xiaomei said. It is useless to be famous.

Shen Xiaoyan nodded. We cannot get 200 million USD. Sigh

Shen Xiaomei frowned. They are too much. How can they risk their reputation by stopping the casino? They are targeting us.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. They are not stupid. At least they did not attack us directly.

Shen Xiaoyan looked at Dong Xuebing. Song Yuhu knows about Mr. Dongs combat power. He will not attack us directly. Their reputation will be ruined if they do that, and the casino might have to close down. It is different from shutting down the tables and machines.

Shen Xiaomei looked at Zhang Longjuan. What should we do about that 200 million USD?

Dong Xuebing said. We won around 120 million USD. It is not enough.

Zhang Longjuan replied. I am content with how much you won for me today. We will split the money later. Xiao Dong, you will get the bigger share, and the rest is enough for my company to tide a few days. I will think of other solutions.

Dong Xuebing interrupted. I said I was not taking anything earlier. We must get 200 million USD. Whats the point of dragging a few more days? It cannot solve the problem.

Shen Xiaoyan said. But the main lobby had stopped operating. How are you going to win?

Shen Xiaomei added. We could play in the VIP rooms. But who dares to play against you after knowing your skills? The ship is leaving international waters. We dont have time to win 70 to 80 million USD even if others are willing to play with you.

Zhang Longjuan nodded. Haha we can only play the jackpot machines.

Dong Xuebing was curious. Why didnt they stop the jackpot machines?

Zhang Longjuan replied. They stopped the main lobby because they dont know how skilled you are. They dont know if you can repeat what happened at the Roulette tables at other tables. Thats why they closed all tables. But jackpot machines are different. It is a money-eating machine. The odds of a Single-number bet at the Roulette table is about 1 out of 38. The odds of winning are higher if you bet on big or small. But slot machines odds are too low. Another thing is that no one can cheat at slot machines.

Dong Xuebing asked. Are you sure?

Zhang Longjuan explained. Even if the machines can be tempered, it will be the casino who can do it. There was an incident in which the wins were controlled by a PC previously. But the casino will not do this. She paused for a second and said. Players could not cheat as the numbers were random.

All the parts were mechanical, and it was impossible for the player or anybody to control it. I don't know much about cheating, but the casino knew. That's why they allowed the slot machines to continue.

It is purely based on luck?

Yes. This is the only game in the casino that is based purely on luck. Anyone who gambles will not play slots.

Is it because there's no skill involved?

Yes. Haha it is based on luck.

Dong Xuebing looked at the slot machines and thought for a while. He asked. Can the strength used when pulling the lever affect the numbers?

Their machines accept chips only. I am not sure, as I never played with their machines before. I don't think it can affect the numbers.

Isn't the strength used to push will affect the position of the symbols?

That's what was shown in the movies. It should be random, and the strength will not make any difference.

Many casino staff carried seven to eight new slot machines into the lobby. Many were dusty. They should be stored in the store for a while and used as replacement machines. A few dealers started putting casino chips into the machines.

Many guests had no choice but to play the slot machines.

However, Dong Xuebing noticed many guests waiting in line before the new machines were switched on.

Shen Xiaoyan said. Is there a need to do that?

Shen Xiaomei looked and asked. What are they doing?

Dong Xuebing was puzzled, too. He walked over to look.

A few guests saw Dong Xuebing and greeted him politely.

Dong Xuebing asked. Why are you all queuing up here? There's an empty machine there.

A young man replied. You should know that someone won the jackpot last month.

Yes. I heard about it.

It happened on the third of last month. That guy who won the jackpot was playing at another machine. But he did not win. After that, the machine broke down, and the staff brought a new one. He puts in a 10,000 USD chip and wins the jackpot.

He won on his first try?

Yes. That's why new machines are popular. Many people felt the chances of winning are higher. Haha but I think it's all the same.

Dong Xuebing asked. Oh, are the machines here different from other casinos?

A young woman replied. Its about the same except that one accepts chips and others accept coins. What about the strength used when pulling the lever? Dong Xuebing was concerned as he did not get an answer from Zhang Longjuan.

The woman seemed to know a lot about slot machines. Strength does not matter. Although you can feel the resistance when pulling or pushing the lever, it was designed to let players think it would affect the results. Electronic circuits controlled everything inside. Once the circuit is closed, the machine will start moving. It has nothing to do with the strength. It is all about luck.

Oh, I see. Thank you.

Dont mention it. Teach me how to play Mahjong next time. Haha

3rd of last month?

It was a new machine that struck the jackpot.

The strength used when pulling the lever will not affect the result.

The results will be the same as long as a chip is inserted. Dong Xuebing organized the information he got and nodded.

He found a solution.

Chapter 1274: Shocking the Casino

Casino main lobby.

Many guests queued to exchange casino chips for cash, and some returned to their rooms. A few went to play slots.

The lobby was noisy.

Many guests were still grumbling about the casino closing early.

The casino activated all its staff to maintain order.

Senior Zhou. A few people in charge came to the casino. Did you lose?

Senior Zhou nodded and looked at Dong Xuebing. Yes. I lost.

Song Yuhu thought to himself. Why are you bringing this up? He said. Senior Zhou did not go out and lose by a fraction.

Another person in charge said. That means he might still win.

Another woman said. Thats right. Why did you close the casino? The losses

Senior Zhou slowly replied. Ignore Xiao Song. He was trying to make me feel better. I lost more than a fraction.

Song Yuhu replied. Both of you had won and lost a few games. We dont know who will emerge the winner in the end.

Senior Zhou shook his head and looked at Dong Xuebings back. Look at his exposed arm. I noticed it earlier and during the Mahjong game. His left arm is fractured, and he can hardly move. I think he cannot use any strength. He was limping, too. His leg should be injured. He is not in his best condition, and he managed to win me in this condition. Do you still think I stand a chance?

Song Yuhu inhaled deeply.

Everyone looked towards Dong Xuebing.

Senior Zhou continued. That's why we don't need to inform the higher-ups. Before informing you all, I asked Xiao Song to shut down the main lobby. None of us are his match. He could win easily at Roulette, and I don't know if he got other tricks up his sleeves.

He is good at Baccarat?

Let's not talk about Blackjack. But dice

Senior Zhou interrupted them. It's better to be safe.

Song Yuhu said. They mentioned they were going to play Baccarat and other games. Maybe they have techniques or tricks we don't know.

The woman's eyes turned cold. Should we

Song Yuhu was shocked and said. No. My men had encountered him before. Even a truck cannot kill him, and he wiped out over twenty men.

The woman was shocked. He can fight so well?

Senior Zhou was surprised and looked at Song Yuhu.

Song Yuhu sighed. I am not undermining us, but that was the truth. My men did not cause his injuries. He was injured with fractures all over when my men met him. I don't know where he is from. But I know all the bodyguards on the ship are not his match. I don't suggest this method.

We cannot win him in a fight?

We cannot beat him at gambling.

The few in-charges did not say anything. Shutting down the casino is the safest move against that hooligan. They agreed with Senior Zhou's decision.

As for the slot machines

They thought nothing about it.

They had not heard of anyone cheating at slot machines.

The slot machine is controlled by software, and the results were random. The alarm will sound if anyone tries to tamper with it.

Eh, what is that guy doing? Song Yuhu looked at Dong Xuebing.

A person in charge frowned. Why is he standing still in front of the slot machine?

Is he going to play slots? Senior Zhou was curious and not anxious. Let's go and see.

A corner in the lobby.

Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, and the twins walked to a quiet corner.

All the slot machines were occupied because this was the only game they could play. However, only one machine was free. It was the machine Dong Xuebing played when he entered the lobby earlier. More than ten minutes passed, but no one played at that machine. They would rather wait for a free machine.

Shen Xiaomei was curious. Why no one is playing with this machine?

Shen Xiaoyan replied. I heard someone struck a 100 million USD jackpot with this machine last month. They felt this machine would not win again.

Shen Xiaomei nodded. I see.

Dong Xuebing laughed. Lets play with this machine.

Zhang Longjuan looked at her watch. All right. We got nothing to do also.

I think we should give up. Shen Xiaomei lifted the chips box and said. Although playing a few games costs little, it is still money. We should keep it for Ms. Zhangs company. She does not want to waste money. The smallest chip in the box was more than her one month's salary. She cannot bear to see them go to waste. We are leaving soon. Lets not give them money.

Shen Xiaoyan nodded. I agree.

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing and laughed. I think Xiao Dong is itching to go. Haha lets play a few games. Its not a lot.

Dong Xuebing laughed. I dont want to give them money. It is not easy to win some money. However, we dont know what will happen.

Zhang Longjuan looked at him. You are saying

Shen Xiaomei was surprised. Are you saying you might win?

I am not sure. Let me try. Dong Xuebing was not confident.

Not sure? This was enough to shock Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei. Are you going to play? But these machines cannot be tampered with. Mr. Dong, dont be rash. I heard alarms would sound if anyone tried to mess with the machine. If they discover we have done something to the machine, they might use it as an excuse to take back our chips.

Dong Xuebing nodded. Dont worry. I know what to do.

Zhang Longjuan said. Then go ahead and try.

I might not win, Sis Zhang. Dont blame me if I fail.

Haha everyone knows the probability of slot machines. I did not have any hopes in the first place. Just try. We will not lose much, too. Zhang Longjuan replied.

Dong Xuebing relaxed. All right.

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan do not know what they meant by hope. Arent the results random?

Can he cheat with a slot machine?

How is he going to cheat?

Senior Zhou, Song Yuhu, and other top executives of the ship walked over.

Dong Xuebing turned. Haha I was thinking about you, and you appeared. Dont you think what you all did today is too much?

Song Yuhu retorted. You are the one who is too much.

Dong Xuebing replied. I won money. Whats wrong with that?

Song Yuhu said. We overlooked today. But remember this. You will not get this chance again.

Again? It is not over between us today. My Sis Zhang still needs 80 million USD. We are not leaving until we win 200 million USD. Dong Xuebing laughed.

Song Yuhu paused for a second and said. All the tables are closed. You Need 100 million USD more?

Where are you going to win it?

Are you kidding with me?

Dong Xuebing looked at the slot machine. Theres still slot machines available.

Slot machine? Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing. They almost burst out laughing.

Eh, dont look at me like this. I know this is a game of luck. I forgot to tell you all that my luck has always been good. Dong Xuebing replied.

Song Yuhu and the few top executives laughed. You are too boastful. All right. We shall see how lucky you are.

Dong Xuebing turned and sat at the empty slot machine.

The commotion had attracted other guests in the lobby. After all, Dong Xuebing had won a lot earlier. A crowd formed after they saw the casinos people clash with him again.

Quick, lets go and see.

That guy is going to gamble again.

Interesting. But he is playing slots.

I overheard him saying he will not leave until he wins another 80 million USD.

Damn! Does he want to win at slots? How is this possible?

Yes. Its impossible, thats why I want to see it. Did you forget he used one casino chip to win over a hundred million USD? We also think it was impossible.

But you cannot cheat with slot machines.

You are right. One can cheat at Roulette, dice, Mahjong, and cards, are possible. But slot machines are random. I have never heard people cheating with slot machines.

Also, the machine he is playing had just won a jackpot last month. Thats impossible. Its unheard of a machine giving out more than one jackpot yearly.

The crowd grew. Many people were attracted.

Zhang Longjuan and the twins were pushed behind Dong Xuebings chair.

Senior Zhou frowned as he looked at Dong Xuebing. Song Yuhu and the rest stood beside him, waiting to mock Dong Xuebing. He was too boastful.

Dong Xuebing laughed, and he turned to Shen Xiaomei. Pass me the chips.

Shen Xiaomei opened the box and took out ten thousand USD chips.

To everyones surprise, Dong Xuebing picks up a ten thousand USD chip with his fingers.

Shen Xiaomei was surprised. Only one? You

Dong Xuebing smiled and turned towards the machine. He covered the panel, showing the pictures, with his hand. He did not let anyone see it, and he closed his eyes for a while before inserting the chip into the machine. He pulled the lever quickly and removed his hand from the panel.

The wheels in the machine started spinning.

Everyone was staring at the pictures spinning.

Dong Xuebing replied to Shen Xiaomei. One is enough.

To everybodys horror, the wheels in the slot machine stopped.

7!

7!

7!

The machines alarm went off!

Countless ten thousand USD chips gushed out of the machine.

Everyone was stunned.

Chapter 1275: Got over two hundred million USD

Casino lobby.

It felt like a bomb had exploded. The crowd almost cursed out loud when they saw the numbers in the machine.

777!

Its triple 7!

Its the jackpot!

That guy won the jackpot!

This is unbelievable. It was more unbelievable than that young man getting Heavenly Wins! This is slots. No one can cheat at slots. It is also the machine that had given out a jackpot last month. The probability of it giving out another jackpot one month later is almost zero! It might be 0.000000000 How is it possible? And that guy used only one chip. What did he do in his previous life to get such luck?

Damn!

My god!

WTF!

How the fk did this happen?

The crowd gasped in shock.

Senior Zhou stared at the slot machine, and his face was twitching.

Song Yuhu and his staff turned pale.

Dong Xuebing turned and smiled at Song Yuhu. Haha I said my luck has always been good.

Is this good luck?

Bullshit!

Everybody knows this cannot be luck.

Everybody thinks like this because of Dong Xuebing's confident expression earlier. He announced he would win over 80 million USD and took one chip from Shen Xiaomei. He even told her that one chip was enough. Who would believe he won because of his luck? He knew he would get a 777. If not, he would take more than one chip.

Something is wrong.

Did he tamper with the machine?

Impossible. This is a slot machine.

The machine is sealed, and there's an alarm inside. How can anyone cheat?

It might be possible if Dong Xuebing is the casino staff. Maybe he is hired by the casino to show the other guests how easy it is to win at slots, and his winnings will be returned. But Dong Xuebing is not working for the casino. Everybody saw him clashed with the casino's bosses. Everyone could not believe their eyes when they saw him winning the jackpot with one chip.

Who is this guy?

Where did he come from?

All the chips were stored at the bottom of the machine. When the 777 appeared, 100 million USD of chips fell from the machine.

Swash

The floor was covered with casino chips.

Dong Xuebing stood up and stepped away from the chair. He laughed. Sis Yan, Sis Mei. My back is injured, and I cannot bend. The chips

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan were still in shock.

Dong Xuebing called them again. Sis Yan, Sis Mei?

Ah? Yes We will pick them up. You don't need to move. Shen Xiaoyan inhaled deeply and looked at Dong Xuebing before picking up the chips.

Shen Xiaomei did not say anything and went to collect the chips.

They could not say or ask anything as many people were around them.

Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing. You had surprised me again and again today.

Dong Xuebing laughed. I cannot help it either. My luck has always been good. There's nothing I can do about it. He said and noticed the lobby was quiet. Other than Zhang Longjuan and Dong Xuebing, no one said a word. They were looking at Dong Xuebing. Dong Xuebing looked at the casino staff and the person in charge. Are you all going to refill the machine with chips?

A staff asked. Huh? What chips?

Dong Xuebing pointed to the machine. Put 100 million USD chips in it. It's still early. I can play a few more rounds.

All the casino staff and the person in charge were stunned when they heard him.

Song Yuhu quickly shouted to his men. Shut down all the slot machines! All machines!

Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan were amused.

The casino staff feared Dong Xuebing would insert his chips into the next machine. They must cut off the power supply to all machines quickly. The lobby has over twenty machines, and the dealers and staff rushed to shut down the machines. It was chaotic. Some unplugged the machines, and some covered them with cloth.

When a staff was about to cut off the machine Dong Xuebing played on, an old man stopped him. This machine can wait.

The staff was confused.

That man said. Check the machine.

He suspects Dong Xuebing cheated and wants to check the machine.

The jackpot is 100 million USD. Dong Xuebing had won the casino's one-month profits! No wonder the casino bosses were upset.

One person

Three people

Ten people

Even the technicians and maintenance staff came to check the machine.

They meddled and dismantled the machine to check.

No problems.

There's no problem with the machine.

The casino's people in charge were looking terrible. Why? Why is this happening? How did he cheat?

Was it luck?

Bullshit!

Something must be wrong!

Song Yuhu shouted. Check the circuits!

Dong Xuebing sat beside and smoked with Zhang Longjuan. Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan had picked up all the chips. One suitcase was not enough to hold the chips. They had to get another suitcase from the casino staff. They sat with Dong Xuebing and looked at the staff working on the machine.

Five minutes

Ten minutes

The staff could not find anything wrong with the machine.

The guests started talking.

Theres no problem with the machine.

This guy is amazing.

Was it luck? How is this possible?

Wow this is an eye-opener.

Thats right. I did not expect to meet the God of Gamblers here.

Everyone looked at Dong Xuebing in awe.

It was getting late, and Dong Xuebing stood up. He walked towards Song Yuhu, Senior Zhou, and the rest. Are the checks done?

Song Yuhu refused to answer Dong Xuebing.

Senior Zhou sighed. Yes. Its done. The machine is fine.

Dong Xuebing laughed. Good to hear that. Can we leave now? I feel intimidated with so many security guards surrounding us. When the staff checked the machines, over twenty security guards and bodyguards surrounded Dong Xuebing. They were afraid he might escape because everyone thought he cheated. However, they were not Dong Xuebing's match, even if they were armed. Of course, Dong Xuebing could not do anything to them as he had used up almost all his remaining time earlier. He was not afraid of them as he had scared them. They should have heard of the incident with Song Yuhu's men a few days ago, and he is sure they would not dare to attack him.

Senior Zhou waved his hand. Move aside.

The guards stepped aside.

Dong Xuebing smiled and turned. Lets go, Sis Zhang.

Zhang Longjuan smiled and nodded. Lets go and cash out the chips.

Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, and the twins walked to the counter and placed the two heavy suitcases on it. The chips were heavy. Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei were trained, and they were strong. If not, they would not be able to lift the suitcases.

The female staff behind the counter looked at the chips and swallowed her saliva.

She and the other staff behind other counters had never seen anyone win so many chips. This was their first time.

Dong Xuebing looked at her and asked. Were you the one who exchanged the chip for me?

The female staff remembers how Dong Xuebing tried to exchange a 1,000 USD chip with small change and different currencies. She paused for a second and nodded. Its me.

Haha we are fated.

Huh?

Count the chips.

All right you Please wait.

The other counter staff went over to help.

Everyone was looking, and the casino would not dare to deny their winnings.

10 million USD

20 million USD

30 million USD

They finished counting the chips.

The female staff took a deep breath and looked at Dong Xuebing. The total is 219 million USD.

Dong Xuebing replied. Cash out everything.

The female staff wiped her sweat. You want cash? We we can wire your money to your bank account.

Dong Xuebing looked at Zhang Longjuan. I want cash. She does not trust their money transfer services.

Dong Xuebing said. We will take cash.

The staff were busy again.

Over two hundred million USD. Even a big casino like this needs a long time to prepare the money. They packed them into big digital lock suitcases. The suitcases they used were much bigger than Zhang Longjuans and needed eight of them to hold the money.

It was enough to fit the back of an armored truck.

Chapter 1276: Xiao Dong becomes a shareholder

On board the gambling ship.

Inside the VIP cabin.

The door opened. Zhang Longjuan dragged a big suitcase in. Dong Xuebing followed behind. He was dragging a suitcase, too. Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei dragged two suitcases each into the room. They went out again to bring all the suitcases into the cabin.

Over two hundred million USD.

The cabins living room was filled with suitcases.

Dong Xuebing had a sense of satisfaction when he saw the suitcases. This was not a wasted trip, as he had done what he came for.

The door closed. Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan were sweating and exhausted.

Zhang Longjuan was tired, too. She sat on the couch and laughed. Its so heavy.

Shen Xiaoyan smiled. Yes. It is over two hundred million USD. I have never seen so much money in my life.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. I have not seen it.

Dong Xuebing replied. Your asset is over a few hundred million USD. How can you not see it before?

Zhang Longjuan laughed and asked. Will you withdraw two hundred million USD in cash for no reason? This is my first time seeing so much cash.

Dong Xuebing thought about it and laughed.

Shen Xiaomei was not concerned about money. She looked at Dong Xuebing. Mr. Dong. Theres no one around now. Tell us what happened.

Dong Xuebing feigned ignorance. What? What happened?

Shen Xiaomei said. The slot machine. How did you hit the jackpot?

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. I said before. I got good luck.

Who are you trying to fool? Shen Xiaomei stared at Dong Xuebing. Tell us how you did it.

Dong Xuebing smiled. Its luck. I won 100 bets of the lottery jackpot before. The slot machine is nothing.

Shen Xiaomei:

Shen Xiaoyan:

The twins did not ask after seeing Dong Xuebing did not want to tell them.

Dong Xuebing could not tell them the truth.

How did he hit the jackpot at the slot machine? Its not luck. Who can be so lucky? Dong Xuebing started planning after he heard someone won the jackpot on the 3rd of last month. He asked others and found out the strength used to pull the level would not affect the machine. Thats when he knew he could hit the jackpot. He covered the panels showing the three pictures because he did not want others to see the picture changed. When using REVERSE, the pictures will change to the pictures on that day. He calculated the days from the 3rd until now and returned the machine to that day. Someone said the machine was new and was brought out to replace a faulty one. The person who hit the jackpot also used one chip to win it.

How can he tell this to the rest?

Dong Xuebing could only say it was luck, and whether they believed him was up to them. He will not reveal anything.

The ship broadcasted an announcement.

The ship will be docking in forty minutes. The guests can get ready to disembark. They also invited everyone to come again.

Dong Xuebing stretched. We are finally going back.

Shen Xiaoyan looked at the boxes. The four of us could not bring back these suitcases. Ms. Zhang, I will call someone to fetch us.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. Let me do it.

She made a call to arrange for a bigger car to fetch them.

After Zhang Longjuan ended her call, she looked at the three of them. I want to thank you all for today.

Shen Xiaoyan waved her hand. You dont need to thank us both.

Shen Xiaomei added. We did not do anything.

Zhang Longjuan said. Lets discuss the money. How are we

I said earlier that my sister and I will not take the money. Mr. Dong won the money. You should discuss it with him. Shen Xiaoyan said. My sister and I are going back to pack.

Shen Xiaomei followed her sister out of the room.

Only Dong Xuebing and Zhang Longjuan remained in the room.

Dong Xuebing said to Zhang Longjuan after the door was closed. Sis Zhang, I am not taking anything. I dont need so much money, and discussing it is unnecessary. You can use it for your company. You said you needed two hundred million USD to tide your company over. We have over two hundred million USD now, which should not be a problem. You helped me a lot when I went to the US. Lets not talk about this again.

Zhang Longjuan laughed. This is not a small amount. Over two hundred million USD is equivalent to around fourteen hundred million RMB. It is much more than your lottery winnings.

Dong Xuebing refused. I dont need it. Sister Yan and Sister Mei might not know, but you know I work in the government. One hundred million RMB worth of assets had gotten me into trouble. I had been investigated by the Commission for Discipline Inspection countless times. I will be in deep trouble if I bring back a few more hundred million RMB. Even if the State Security helped me, it would still affect me.

Furthermore, how am I going to spend this much money? I spent over ten thousand RMB this month. When can I finish spending a few hundred million RMB? You should keep it.

Zhang Longjuan beckoned him over. I will not reject your goodwill, but I did not help anyway. I cannot accept the money.

Dong Xuebing replied. I cannot take it, and I cannot bring it back.

All right. Zhang Longjuan patted the back of Dong Xuebings hand. I will bring back the money to clear my companys debts. Two hundred million USD might not be enough, but over two hundred million is enough to tide my company over. She paused and said. But I will not accept the money from you. These are your money. I will treat it like you had bought a stake in my company. You will be my companys shareholder.

Dong Xuebing shook his head. I worked for the government. Even my family members, let alone me, are not advisable to do business.

Zhang Longjuan said. I know I cannot transfer the shares to you. If you trust me, we can have a verbal agreement. I will give you dividends every year. You can let me know when you need money. What do you think?

Ah, you should just keep it.

This is a big amount. I cannot accept it.

Dong Xuebing was helpless. Xu Yan told him Zhang Longjuan would not accept his money when he said he wanted to help her settle her companys financial issues. She understands her former classmate well. We are life-and-death friends. Stop rejecting it.

Zhang Longjuan was amused. Other matters are delicate, but I am firm about this.

Dong Xuebing looked at her. Didnt you say you will not sell your companys shares?

I do not want to sell my shares to my family members. They wanted 51% of the company, and they will take over my company. I will not sell it to them. I did not consider selling my shares to others because I feel uncomfortable with outsiders around. Haha Zhang Longjuan looked at Dong Xuebing with her sexy eyes. But I dont mind if it is you. Haha.

Why are you fine with me?

Because you are handsome. I like handsome boys. Haha.

You are teasing me again.

All right. I will stop joking. Just listen to me. As for how much shares hmm let me calculate. Zhang Longjuan took a pen and paper and started scribbling on them. She put down the pen. I calculated. It is easy to calculate because I own 100% of the company. I will give you 20% shares for the money.

Dong Xuebing paused for a second. 20%?

Zhang Longjuan laughed. Do you think it is too little?

No. Its too much. Dong Xuebing replied. Your company is doing well in the US. I think it is worth over a billion RMB. It will be worth more if it is listed. The money is not enough to get 20%.

Zhang Longjuan replied. This is not the way to calculate. Its hard to explain. But even if you are correct, I need this amount to save my company. My family demanded 51% of my company for investing 400 million USD.

But it is still a lot.

Its not a lot. Its settled.

1 to 2% is enough.

Just listen to me. Enough talk. Haha This will be our company from now onwards. I will call you to update you and seek your opinions on company matters.

Are you joking with me? I dont know anything about business, and I dont understand the jargon you use. You should decide about the company matters, and I will not get involved. I know my standards. Dong Xuebing is still feeling his way around in the government sector. He had no time to learn about business.

Haha ok. I will decide everything. But I will still inform you if there are any major decisions. In other companies, 20% shareholder is considered a major shareholder.

Do what you like.

Ok. You are a shareholder of my company now. Lets have a toast. Heres to my business partner!

Chapter 1277: Kissed by Sis Zhang

Morning.

After 8 am.

The ship docked by the beach.

Shen Xiaomei and Shen Xiaoyan finished packing and returned to Ms. Zhangs room. They saw Dong Xuebing drinking wine with her and knew they agreed on how to split the money. They did not ask about the money and prepared to disembark.

How are we going to move the money?

The people I called are waiting at the bar.

We will ask the casino staff to carry them off the ship.

We also need them to send us and the money to the bar.

Although it was only eight suitcases, the suitcases were almost as tall as an adult. It looked like a large crate with wheels. One might be able to drag it, but it is impossible to carry it. The suitcases were full of money.

Shen Xiaomei went out of the room.

She returned with over a dozen casino staff a while later.

Dong Xuebing said to them. Please help to carry our suitcases.

The staff said nothing and went to move the suitcases after looking at Dong Xuebing. Two staff handled a suitcase. One dragged it, and the other pushed it from the back. Dong Xuebing, the twins, and Zhang Longjuan helped. The floor was leveled until they needed to go out of the cabin. There was a small step at the door, and three to four staff carried a suitcase over that step. They carried the suitcases out of the cabin slowly.

Over two hundred million USD.

It was over 2,000 kg.

Each suitcase weighs over 250 kg.

All the guests except Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, and the twins had left the ship. They were still moving the suitcases off the ship.

One suitcase

Five suitcases

Eight suitcases

Thump thump thump

The suitcases were placed by the dock.

Many guests gasped when they saw the suitcases of money.

That's over two hundred million USD of cash! This was the first time they saw anyone winning so much money from a casino.

One chip

That young man won these suitcases of money from a casino chip!

Everybody was looking at Dong Xuebing and the suitcases.

The casino staff were professional. They looked unwilling but still helped to carry the suitcases off the ship. A truck came, and they carried the suitcases up. The suitcases were big and heavy. The minivan could not carry them.

Other guests thought to themselves.

How is this winning money?

This is a robbery!

They had robbed the casino of over two hundred million USD in around two hours.

This sounds like a scene from the movie. No, this is more outrageous than the movies.

What happened today was too shocking. The casino had shut down most of its facilities and machines earlier, but the guests did not regret coming. Such exciting gambling matches were too rare. They saw that young man exchanging crumpled notes and coins for a casino chip. Many casino staff and guests laughed at him then. None of them expected him to win so much money.

On the gambling ship.

The casino higher-ups looked at the staff loading the suitcases onto the truck. They looked terrible.

Senior Zhou, are we going to let them leave? Someone asked. They had suffered heavy losses today.

Senior Zhou looked at the quiet Song Yuhu and sighed. He is special. We should try not to offend him.

Sigh

Our losses today

Why are we so unlucky to meet someone like this?

The people in charge started cursing and swearing. Even the God of Gamblers could not win so much if he came. This guy came here for a while and won over two hundred million USD. If they had not shut down the casino in time, he might have won away the ship.

Many luxurious cars arrived to pick up the guests.

But the guests did not board. They stood there and looked at that truck.

Dong Xuebing spoke with Zhang Longjuan before getting into the truck. Shen Xiaoyan also got in. They will escort their money back. Zhang Longjuan and Shen Xiaomei got into a car. Both vehicles drove off.

The other guests looked at the truck left and did not say anything.

Needless to say, stories about tonight will spread in their circles.

A few hours later.

Noon. Airport.

The departure hall was crowded.

Dong Xuebing, Zhang Longjuan, and the twins stood in a secluded corner to bid farewell.

Shen Xiaoyan said. Ms. Zhang, Mr. Dong. Your tickets are ready. Have a pleasant flight.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei had gotten their people to ship the suitcases away. Zhang Longjuan cannot bring it to the US. The State Security agreed to help her legalize her winnings, and she does not need to care. They will have a way to wire the money into her account a few days later. They returned early because they did not want unnecessary trouble in Hong Kong. Zhang Longjuan was worried about her company and needed to return early.

Zhang Longjuan looked at the sisters. What about you two?

Shen Xiaoyan smiled. We completed our mission and got to report back to our unit. Ms. Zhang, I represent the State Security to thank you for your assistance.

Zhang Longjuan patted the back of her hand. I should be thanking you two. Although its only a few days, I greatly like you and your sister. We might not get to work together again, but we should keep in touch. Haha Call me if you are coming to the US for a holiday. I will bring you around.

Shen Xiaoyan smiled. Sure. We will go when we get the chance.

Zhang Longjuan replied. All right. I am looking forward to it.

Shen Xiaomei, who had been keeping quiet, turned to Dong Xuebing. Thank you for teaching us in the past few days, Mr. Dong.

Dong Xuebing waved. Its nothing. I only gave you some pointers and taught a few moves. I did not teach you much.

Shen Xiaoyan said. You taught us a lot.

Dong Xuebing replied. Oh, I will give my number to you. You can call me if you need help in China. Dont do any dangerous missions next time. He treated the twins as friends after these few days. I can help you all speak to the State Security. Although I do not know your leaders, they should agree to my requests.

They exchanged phone numbers.

Zhang Longjuan said. Xiao Yan, Xiao Mei. Sending me here will do. You should go back.

Shen Xiaoyan and Shen Xiaomei said goodbyes and left the departure hall.

Lets go, Xiao Dong. We should check in for our flights. Zhang Longjuan laughed and hooked her arms around Dong Xuebing's arm.

Zhang Longjuan was still wearing that red dress. She did not have time to change. Many travelers at the airport kept looking at her and Dong Xuebing. However, no one thinks they are a couple because of their age difference. They also did not think they were mother and son because how could such a pretty mother have a son with average looks?

They checked into their respective flights.

Its time for them to go on their ways.

Dong Xuebing cant bear to leave. He looked at Sis Zhang and said. Go in first. I will leave after I see you enter.

Zhang Longjuan smiled. You cant bear to see me leave?

Dong Xuebing blushed. No I er we are on different flights. My flight is an hour later.

Are you sure? Huh?

Err no

Haha I dont want to leave my handsome boy. But we will meet again. Our company is an investment company. We will invest in anything profitable. Although I focus on the US, I will return to China to look for potential investments. We will see each other again. I will visit you again.

Sure. Call me when you come.

Of course. Its time for me to leave.

Ok. Be careful and have a safe flight.

Dong Xuebing waved goodbye.

Zhang Longjuan did not wave. She smiled and dropped her luggage. She stepped forward, closing the distance. Their bodies were almost touching. She pinched Dong Xuebings chin and kissed him. Slurp Her tongue slipped into his mouth.

Dong Xuebing was stunned.

WTH is going on?

Dong Xuebing blushed until his neck turned red.

They kissed for around five to six seconds. Zhang Longjuan laughed. Look, you are blushing. Haha This is your reward.

Dong Xuebing replied. Why are you always surprising me?

Zhang Longjuan pursed her lips and carried her luggage. She turned and said. Bye.

Zhang Longjuan disappeared into the departure hall. Dong Xuebing could still taste her on his lips and mouth.

Chapter 1278: Chance encounter on the plane

Noon.

The weather is scorching.

Although its Spring, Hong Kong is nearer to the equator. It is warmer than the mainland.

Dong Xuebing boarded the plane and felt the cool air from the air conditioner. He found his seat and sat down. He sat by the windows and looked at the clear skies. Sis Zhangs flight departed, and he was exhausted. After all, he did not sleep last night. But he was satisfied and not very sleepy. He had solved Zhang Longjuans companys financial issues and got a French kiss from her.

Sis Zhang

She is open and almost scared Dong Xuebing to death.

Dong Xuebing benefited but pretended otherwise.

The passengers were still boarding, and Dong Xuebing took out his phone to call home.

Ring ring ring

Hello, Xiao Bing. Dong Xuebing's mother answered.

Dong Xuebing smiled. What are you doing, mum?

Luan Xiaoping replied. I just finished lunch. Wait I will switch to hands-free.

Dong Xuebing asked. Why are you switching to hands-free? Is someone else at home?

Huilan and Yunxuan are here. Its Saturday, and we just ate lunch. How are you? I am thinking of visiting you.

No need. I am fine.

Xie Huilan asked. Haha Are you outside having fun? Why is your background so noisy?

Dong Xuebing cleared his throat. I am walking along the streets. Its noisy.

You are so free. You made appointments to meet others and disappeared. They could not get you on your mobile, and I must answer your calls.

Huh? I forgot to charge my phone.

Qu Yunxuan said. When are you coming back, Xiao Bing?

My checks are almost done. I should be coming back soon. Where is Qianqian? Is she sleeping?

No. I am carrying her. Here, listen. Qu Yunxuan laughed.

Little Qianqian said some gibberish happily into the phone.

Dong Xuebing felt warm as he chatted with his family. He chatted with them for a while before hanging up. He finished his tasks here, and its time to return. He promised to meet his friends in Fen Zhou City. Its not easy for him to have a long break, and he wants to spend time with his family.

I will go back two days later.

Dong Xuebing decided to rest in Beijing for two days before going back.

Dong Xuebing thought for a while and called Yu Meixia. He met Xie Huilan, Qu Yunxuan, and Xu Yan in Fen Zhou City these days and met Geng Yuehua a while ago in Beijing. Its been a while since he met Sis Yu. He misses her as she is most submissive to him among his women.

Ring ring ring

The phone rang for a while before Yu Meixia answered.

Hello? Xiao Bing? Yu Meixia was panting, and her background was noisy. She seemed to be running.

Its me. Where are you?

I am preparing to go back after my holiday.

You went for a long holiday. How was it?

Not bad. Huff Qianqian is happy.

Are you running? What happened? Why are you in a rush?

I am rushing for my flight. Our cab broke down on the way to the airport. I just arrived at the departure hall with my parents.

Oh, then go and check in quickly. Dont be late for your flight. I will call you later.

All right. I I will call you when I return to Beijing. We will rest in Beijing for a day and return to Fen Zhou City tomorrow.

Ok. Go and check in now. You will miss your flight if you are late.

Dong Xuebing did not bother her and hung up. He leaned back to take a nap.

One minute

Five minutes

Ten minutes

Suddenly, someone was talking from the door.

The air stewardess said. Please keep your luggage in the overhead compartment. We will be closing the doors now.

Ok. Ah we almost missed the flight.

Its hard to get tickets for Beijing. We have to wait for another day if we miss this flight.

Lets go to our seats. Meixia and Qianqian are tired from the running.

Haha just treat it as exercise. You have been working from morning until night. You should start exercising.

It was a middle-aged couple talking. Dong Xuebing listened to their conversation and felt their voices were familiar. He closed his eyes until he heard Meixia and Qianqian names. He quickly opened his eyes and looked towards them.

A few familiar faces walked along the aisle.

Liu Chenlong and Qian Lihua walked in front with their luggage.

Behind them were a mother and daughter. They looked alike, and the mother was in her thirties. She looks mature and curvy. She wore a long dress, beige stockings, and white heels. Her hair was pinned up in a bun. This is an old hairstyle, but she is beautiful. Her daughter wore a flowery dress and held her mothers hand.

Thats Yu Meixia and Yu Qianqian!

Dong Xuebing was surprised and stood up and waved at them. Uncle Liu! Aunt Qian! Sis Yu! Qianqian! Over here.

They were surprised and looked over.

Xuebing?

Eh? Xiao Bing?

Ah! Uncle Dong!

Dong Xuebing smiled. What a coincidence. I called Sister Yu earlier and knew you were rushing for your flight. We are on the same flight!

Liu Chenlong laughed. Coincident.

Qian Lihua smiled. Why are you here?

I came for some work and looked for a friend. Dong Xuebing replied.

Yu Meixia was anxious. You I heard you are injured. Why are you running around? What if your injuries got worse?

Dong Xuebing laughed. I am fine. Oh, why are you all in Hong Kong?

We came for a stopover. Liu Chenlong said. Its not easy to go on a trip. We want to visit more places. I had used up all my leaves and had to go back.

They walked to Dong Xuebing.

Dong Xuebing quickly went over to help them with their luggage. Let me help.

Stop stop You are still in bandages. Yu Meixia stopped him. She does not want him to get injured.

They were seated not far away from Dong Xuebing.

When Liao Chenlong, Qian Lihua, and Yu Meixia kept their luggage, Dong Xuebing chatted with Yu Qianqian. Did you have fun?

Yu Qianqian smiled shyly. Yes. Its so interesting.

Haha you enjoyed yourself. I will bring you for holidays when I am free.

Yu Qianqian was overjoyed. Really?

Dong Xuebing laughed. When have I lied to you?

Yu Qianqian nodded shyly.

Dong Xuebing turned and said to the passengers beside him. Hi, I met a few friends. Can I trouble you all to switch seats with my friends? Its fine if you are unwilling.

The man asked. Over there?

Its three rows behind.

All right.

Thank you. Sorry to trouble you.

Yu Meixia came over and thanked them. Thank you.

The man and woman smiled and changed seats with them.

After the passengers left their seats, Dong Xuebing returned to his seat. Yu Meixia sat in the middle, and Yu Qianqian sat next to the aisle. The plane was taking off, and the stewardess came to ask them to be seated. Liu Chenlong and Qian Lihua could not chat with Dong Xuebing. They returned to their seats.

The plane started to move towards the runway.

Dong Xuebing looked at Yu Meixia. He knows her parents could not hear them if he spoke softly. I thought about you earlier, and you appeared a few minutes later. Haha I thought you would be tan. Why are you still so fair, and you become prettier.

Yu Meixia blushed. No, I did not.

Dong Xuebing likes to tease her. Its true. You are prettier than before.

Yu Meixia blushed and said. No I did not. She suddenly remembered something and looked at Dong Xuebing's body. How are your injuries?

Dong Xuebing moved his arm. Look. I am fine.

I am talking about your other hand. Yu Meixia pulled up his sleeves carefully. Her eyes turned red when she saw the bloody bandages underneath. Why are you hurt so seriously?

Dong Xuebing felt her concern and laughed. Its not serious.

Yu Meixia looked as if she got hurt. She rolled down his sleeves carefully and pulled his collar to look inside. She bit her lips.

Dong Xuebing held her hand and did not let her see. Stop. It will scare Qianqian. You should know I recover fast. These minor injuries are nothing. Look at you. Why are you going to cry again? You are a grown-up.

Yu Qianqian was tired. She held her mother's arm and fell asleep.

Dong Xuebing bent forward slightly to look at Qianqian. Liu Chenlong could not see them because they were a few rows behind. He reached out and held her hand.

Yu Meixia blushed and tried to pull away.

Dong Xuebing did not let go and held her tightly.

Yu Meixia lowered her head and dared not to say anything.

Chapter 1279: Skirt

Afternoon, 2 pm.

The plane took off.

The plane shook when taking off. Yu Qianqian seemed to be waking up. Her eyelids moved, and Yu Meixia was scared she might see them. She quickly took out a jacket from her bag to cover her legs. She pretended to be cold, but it was to cover Dong Xuebing's hand. She also turned and checked if her parents could see her.

Sister Yu

She is too shy.

Dong Xuebing was amused to see Sister Yu nervous. Qianqian knew about them, and Liu Chenlong could not see them.

Where did you all go, Sister Yu?

A lot of places. We stayed in Sanya the longest.

Sanya? I have not been there. How was it?

Not bad. The scenery is pretty, especially the beach.

Oh, I must go when I am free. Do you have pictures?

Yes. Its in the camera. Wait, let me show you.

Yu Meixia let go of Dong Xuebing's hand and took a digital camera from her bag. She gave it to him. Here.

I cannot move my hand. Show it to me.

Yu Qianqian was holding Yu Meixia's left arm, and she had to hold the camera with her right hand. She showed the pictures to Dong Xuebing. This is taken when we boarded the plane. This is taken from the plane. This is the sky after we got off the plane. The air is fresh there. Yu Meixia looks stiff and unnatural in the pictures. She should be nervous in an unfamiliar environment. It's hard to change her character after decades of poverty and hardships.

Dong Xuebing looked at the pictures, and Yu Meixia continued to tell him about her trip.

Suddenly, Yu Meixia's jacket covering her legs moved. Dong Xuebing had sneaked his hand under the jacket.

Yu Meixia blushed, and her neck turned red.

Dong Xuebing caressed Sister Yu's thighs. So soft.

Yu Meixia quickly pressed down with her camera and used her wrist to stop Dong Xuebing's hand.

Dong Xuebing ignored her as no one could see his hand.

Show me the next photo.

Yes Ah

Where did you take this picture?

Its by the beach. We swam here.

Show me the next few pics. Why are you not in the photos?

My Mum wants to take my pic. But I am embarrassed.

Sister Yu is conservative and will not dare to let others take pictures of her in a swimsuit.

Dong Xuebing's hand did not stop moving as they looked at the photographs. He started pulling her skirt higher with his fingers. The hem of her skirt moved up slowly until her knees.

Yu Meixia quickly adjusts her jacket to cover her legs. She covered herself from her waist to her calves. She looked around nervously and bit her lips. It was hard for others to notice, and Dong

Xuebing pulled her skirt up slowly. Her skirt was long and bunched up around her lower tummy now. Her thighs were exposed under the jacket.

Yu Meixia said softly. Dont

Dong Xuebing whispered into her ears. No one can see it.

Yu Meixia adjusted her jacket to make sure it covered her legs.

Dong Xuebing let go of her skirt and lowered his hand to touch her stockings.

Its smooth and soft.

So warm and tender

This feels so good

Dong Xuebing pulled her stocking with his fingers and let go. Piak! it made a soft sound under the jacket.

Yu Meixia quickly looked at her daughter. She feared her daughter might hear it.

Dong Xuebing knew Sister Yu was timid and did not tease her again. He continued to stroke and feel her legs. She went for a trip, and her complexion seemed to be better. It felt nicer to touch than before. Maybe he had not met her for a while and missed her.

They had not met for more than two months.

The last time they slept together was more than three months. It was that time when they got drunk with Xu Yan. Dong Xuebing recalled that wild night and wondered if he could do it with them again. Since he met Sister Yu today, he will not let her off tonight.

Are you all leaving tomorrow? Dong Xuebing asked.

Yu Meixia looked at the moving jacket covering her legs and whispered. Yes We booked the hotel rooms. My Mum got it from a group buy, and we will return tomorrow morning.

Dong Xuebing asked. Which hotel are you staying at? I will stay there, too.

Dont you have an apartment in Beijing? We booked with a small hotel.

Its not about my apartment. I want to be with you at night.

No we booked a suite. My parents are around.

Then find an excuse or sneak out at night to meet me. I will wait for you in my room.

Err Err Let me think about it. I dont know if I can sneak out without my parents knowing. I will try Yu Meixias voice got softer.

Ok. We will go to that hotel after we land.

I will tell my parents later.

Dong Xuebing did not say anything else after she agreed. She continued showing him her photos while he touched her legs.

One hour

Two hours

Three hours

Dong Xuebing touched her legs throughout the flight.

Sister Yu also blushed throughout the flight.

Dong Xuebing took out his hand when the plane was about to land.

Yu Meixia relaxed and quickly pulled her skirt down without anyone noticing.

Chapter 1280: Night Attack on Sister Yu

The plane landed.

Everyone got off the plane slowly.

Liu Chenlong and Qian Lihua took their luggage from the overhead compartments. Yu Meixia quickly stood up and straightened her dress.

Mum, have we reached? Yu Qianqian yawned.

Yu Meixia let go of her dress and said. You woke up. We landed and got to get off the plane.

Yu Qianqian nodded and said. I will go and help Grandpa and Grandma with the luggage.

Dong Xuebing smiled and patted Qianqians head. You are so thoughtful.

No Yu Qianqian replied modestly and went to Qian Lihua to help her with the luggage.

However, Qian Lihua did not let Qianqian carry the luggage. They praised her and did not let her help. Dong Xuebing walked over to help. But Qian Lihua did not let him help. He was limping and could not move an arm. Who would let him help with the luggage? Yu Meixia stopped him and helped carry a few small bags.

Outside of the airport.

They walked out to wait for a cab.

Dad, Mum. Xuebing says he is coming with us to the hotel. Yu Meixia said.

Qian Lihua asked curiously. Eh? Arent you from Beijing? Why are you going to stay in a hotel?

Dong Xuebing lied. I came out alone and forgot to bring my keys.

Liu Chenlong laughed. All right. We will go there in two cabs. Its almost dinner time. We can have dinner together. Its been a while since we drank.

Yu Meixia interrupted. Xuebing cannot drink.

Liu Chenlong remembered. Oh, you are injured. Lets have a simple dinner then.

Okay. Dong Xuebing wanted to drink but saw Sister Yu's firm attitude. He knew she would not let him drink.

Night. After 10 pm.

It was a starry night.

Inside a small hotel in the eastern district. Dong Xuebing watched TV on the bed. He is naked and is waiting for Sister Yu.

Over twenty minutes passed. No one knocked on the door.

Dong Xuebing had been horny since the flight and couldn't wait for Yu Meixia to come.

Wait wait

Why is she not here yet?

Dong Xuebing sent Yu Meixia a text. Are you sleeping?

After sending the text, Dong Xuebing remembered Sister Yu had not been to school and did not recognize many words. She does not know how to reply to his text. He waited for a while and thought of calling her. But he was afraid he might disturb others, making it harder for her to sneak out.

It's so late

Ring ring ring Yu Meixia finally called.

Dong Xuebing answered. Hello, Sister Yu? Why are you not here yet?

Yu Meixia spoke softly. My parents are still awake, and Qianqian is chatting with them.

Why are they not sleeping? It's after 10 pm.

We bought some clothes earlier, and Qianqian is very excited.

Huh? Then what time are you free?

I don't know. I have to wait until they go to bed. But I think they will not sleep before midnight. My parents sleep late.

Then what should we do?

How about I try to sneak out later tonight?

Can you find an excuse to leave the room?

It's too late. My parents will worry for my safety and want to accompany me.

Huh? Just try to sneak out when you get a chance.

Okay. I know you are staying upstairs. I will try.

Dong Xuebing smoked a few cigarettes after hanging up. He missed Yu Meixia's body badly and could not wait anymore. He dressed up and looked at the door and windows. He opened the windows and felt the breeze. Many hotels windows cannot be opened, but this is a small hotel. The windows can be opened.

Dong Xuebing looked out of the window. He was staying in the hotel's best room, and the suite rooms were on the level beneath him. Yu Meixia's parents' room is under his room. He looked at the windows and knew which was Yu Meixia and Yu Qianqian's room. He made sure no one was around before onto the windowsill.

Swoosh!

Dong Xuebing jumped out of the window!

He could only use one arm and grabbed the windowsill one level beneath him. Although it was only a few meters, his body weight and the fall affected him greatly. He felt the pain in his left arm and hung there panting. He felt the cool breeze against his body and looked at the cars and passersby beneath him. He thought to himself. He was risking his life to meet Sister Yu. He dares to do this because he knows he will not die even if he falls.

Dong Xuebing pulled himself up and climbed onto the windowsill outside.

Dong Xuebing could not see inside before the reflections, and he had to press his face against the window to see inside. The curtains were drawn in the room, but he could see Yu Meixia through a slit between the curtains. He could not see if she was sleeping as he could only see her legs.

She is alone.

Dong Xuebing knocked on the windows lightly.

Yu Meixia jumped up from the bed, and she saw Dong Xuebing outside of the windows.

Yu Meixia almost died from the shock. She rushed to the windows and opened the windows for Dong Xuebing to enter.

What are you doing?

Shh lower your voice.

You are you trying to scare me to death?

Haha I came to meet you.

But this is the fourth story. What if you fall I

Ah you should know my skills. This is nothing to me.

Yu Meixia was still in shock. She was still breathing fast after closing the windows.

Dong Xuebing knew he had scared her and went over to cheer her up.

Outside of the room.

Liu Chenlong and Yu Qianqian were still chatting.

This dress is pretty. Can I try it on again?

Haha go ahead. I will bring you to buy if you like it.

No it It is costly.

Its fine. Your grandparents do not need to spend much. Our money is for you. You got to tell us what you like, okay?

Yes. Thank you, grandma and grandpa.

Good girl. Here, let me help you try on your new clothes.

They sounded very excited.

Liu Chenlong and Qian Lihua were divorced for many years. But they were no longer giving each other cold shoulders after reuniting with their daughter and granddaughter. Their relationship improved.

Inside the room.

Dong Xuebing listened outside and pulled Yu Meixia to the bed. He leaned and whispered into her ears. They are not going to sleep soon. Shall we

Yu Meixia panicked. No! What if they come in suddenly? We

Dong Xuebing suggested. We can lock the room, and we will know when they are coming in.

No. Qianqian is outside. How can I lock the door? Yu Meixia replied.

Just say you pressed the lock accidentally when you closed the door. You can pretend you dont know how to operate the lock. Dong Xuebing insisted. Just do it.

Then what if they want to enter?

I will hide under the bed and leave after they sleep.

Jumping from the fifth story to the fourth story? Dong Xuebing is too daring. However, he could not climb back to his room.

Yu Meixia was convinced after some persuasion. She bit her lips and pretended to go out to get water.

Dong Xuebing hid behind the door.

Mum, look. What do you think of this dress?

Yes. Its pretty.

Hehe I want to try another one.

Go ahead. I am thirsty and tired. I am going to bed after getting water.

Didnt you sleep on the plane?

No. Thats why I feel sleepy now.

Go and rest. Qianqian and we slept a few hours on the plane and are not sleepy yet.

Yu Meixia returned to her room and closed the door. She locked it from inside.

Dong Xuebing smiled and walked over to hug her.

Yu Meixia was shy, and her body was shaking. Maybe she was nervous because her parents and daughter were outside.

Did you miss me?

Hmmm

What is hmmm?

Yes.

How much do you miss me?

Hmmm

Answer me.

Yu Meixia was very shy. She felt Dong Xuebing's hand sliding up her pajama skirt. She lowered her head and stuttered. You stop bullying me.

Haha I risked my life to be here. Let's get to the main business.
