Chapter 151: Responsibility

“Mother, I’m already very happy now. I don’t need protection.” Chu Ziluo could not help but grin when she heard Ye Muyu’s words.

Chu Jin was a little confused. “Mother, so I’m still the younger brother, but I can do the things of the older brother?”

“Yes.” Ye Muyu smiled when she heard him say that.

For a sensible child-like Ziluo, it was most appropriate to care for and educate her.

However, Lil’ Jin was more sturdy, and Ye Muyu hoped that he could grow up to be a responsible man.

Chu Jin’s eyes lit up. “Mother, I understand.”

“Sis, Mother, hurry up and eat.” Chu Jin urged.

Ye Muyu was a little surprised to see that he was not aggrieved at all and was even enjoying himself. Then, she was a little satisfied and started eating.

Seeing this, Chu Ziluo also picked up some food. Chu Jin then began to eat. He still remembered that he could not waste food, so he ate slower than before.

After lunch, the three of them were full.

Ye Muyu cleaned up the dishes and started her afternoon nap.

The two children were the same.

Two hours later, Ye Muyu got up and saw that the sky was a little dark outside. It looked like it was going to rain.

Thinking about how many villagers had harvested wheat recently, she was afraid that they would rush to harvest it when the thunderstorm came.

Ye Muyu immediately covered the well to prevent the rain from spoiling the milk in the bucket.

Rumble! It started to rain.

Sure enough, the people next door were talking. They were all rushing to collect food.

However, before the thunderstorm came, there were dark clouds all over the sky. The villagers who knew how to read the weather had already rushed to harvest the wheat when the sky was a little dark.

Therefore, by the time it rained, the villagers had already harvested the wheat.

Ye Muyu looked at the rain and the dark sky. It was a little scary.

However, the air suddenly turned cold.

Ye Muyu looked at the rain and sat under the eaves with a needle and thread in her hand. She suddenly remembered that the weather was similar to when she first transmigrated.

She did not expect a month to pass so quickly.

She was actually slowly getting used to life here. As expected, people were the most adaptable. When she thought of the people she knew, she actually felt a little reluctant to part with them.

The two children were the ones she had spent the longest with. On the contrary, the memories of her previous life seemed to have become a thing of the past.

Ye Muyu sighed and shook her head. It seemed like she did not want to go back.

“Mother, will the village school not be able to teach? The rain is so heavy.” Chu Ziluo was also sewing a handkerchief. The handkerchief already had half the shape of a lotus flower on it, just a little bit more to finish it.

“Let’s see first. If it’s still raining after 15 minutes, I’m afraid the village school won’t have classes. At that time, someone will definitely send a letter.”

“Alright.” Chu Ziluo sat obediently at the side and did not have any objections. She only looked up at the courtyard from time to time.

Because of the previous thieves, the courtyard door was usually closed.

However, this time, when it rained, he had to let the rainwater flow out along the stone slabs and open the door upside down.

“The rain is getting heavier.”

With a few more thunderclaps, the heavy rain poured down.

Ye Muvu stood uD and checked the house. She onlv st0DDed after making sure there was no leak.

The rain lasted for an hour before it stopped.

When the rain was almost drizzling, Ye Muyu opened the umbrella and went out. "Ziluo, wait at home. I'll go pick up your brother."

"Mother, go ahead. I'll make some ginger soup." Chu Ziluo had been cooking since she was five years old. When Ye Muyu came, she was not allowed to enter the kitchen. However, there was a competition for female skills, and cooking was one of them. Thus, she would usually cook..

Chapter 152: Fell Into The River

Ye Muyu nodded and went out with an umbrella.

Ye Muyu wanted to wear rain boots, but she could not find them after searching around. She thought that the best rain boots were made of sheepskin and cowhide, or other animal skins. Anyway, it was not something that an ordinary village woman like Ye Muyu could wear.

A pair of sheepskin boots cost at least four or five taels of silver, and they were the thinnest.

A piece of land that could be bought for four to five taels of silver, so sheepskin boots were definitely a luxury.

The villagers also wore straw sandals.

Unfortunately, she did not have straw sandals or sheepskin boots, so she could only wear cloth shoes.

Ye Muyu sighed. Luckily, she had a lot of shoes. Otherwise, she would not even be able to change her shoes.

As soon as Ye Muyu went out, she met many villagers who were carrying their crops out of the fields.

The ground was wet and they could not dig, but it did not stop them from pulling weeds or picking mushrooms in the mountains.

Ye Muyu walked straight to the school.

The school was on the street on the other side of the bridge. Ye Muyu had just walked onto the main road and was still a hundred meters away from the bridge.

A scream was heard.

“Something happened. He fell into the river!”

She raised her head and looked in the direction of the voice. She saw many students running towards the river. Not only that, but some villagers also rushed over anxiously.

Ye Muyu frowned and walked over quickly. She seemed to hear someone shouting that someone had fallen into the river.

If it was a student, it would probably be a disaster.

Ye Muyu had just walked over when she heard the noise.

“Chu Jin and Tang Bao were washed into the river... Hurry up and save him. He’s over there.”

“Teacher! Chu Jin and Tang Bao fell into the river.”

Ye Muyu almost thought that she was hallucinating. She quickly approached the river and looked into the river. She saw Chu Jin struggling in the river.

Her body trembled, and she threw away the umbrella and jumped into the river.

“Madam Ye!”

Madam Liu and the others had just arrived when they saw Ye Muyu jump into the water to save Chu Jin.

“Ah!” she cried out. The other villagers also saw her and gasped.

“Ah Lin, hurry up and save them!” Madam Liu quickly patted her son’s shoulder.

“Mother, I understand. Wait a moment.” Chu Lin hurriedly took off his shoes and socks before entering the water.

Madam Zhang looked on with fear and trepidation. Her reaction was also very fast. She quickly went to find someone to get the rope.

At the same time, Chu Xing and the others also arrived. When Chu Xing saw that Ye Muyu went to save Chu Jin in the water, he was so scared that he did not know what to say. He did not expect Ye Muyu to be so bold. A weak woman actually dared to jump into the river.

The river was not narrow. Moreover, it had just rained, so the river was a little turbulent.

Chu Xing did not even remember to take off his shoes and quickly went into the water to help. At the same time, Chu An and the others followed suit. Madam Liu stomped her feet on the shore. “What on Earth happened?” Half an hour later...

Chu Lin carried the unconscious Chu Jin to the shore. Ye Muyu was also rescued. When Madam Zhang left, she bumped into Madam Wang. The two sisters-in-law went to get the rope.

Once they were rescued, Madam Liu wanted to carry the unconscious Ye Muyu back.

Chu Lin pushed Madam Zhang over. "Go help Mother. It's not convenient for us. I'm afraid sister-in-law doesn't look good."

"I'll go and get Doctor Lu now."

Madam Zhang saw Ye Muyu's pale face and was also frightened. She could not react to this series of events, but she remembered to carry her back with Chu Liushi.

On Tang Bao's side, the situation was not good either. Because he had fallen for a long time, he had drunk a lot of water before he was rescued..

Chapter 153: Saving People Is More Important

However, Tang Bao was heavy and a landlubber. When he was picked up, he was unconscious.

The Tang family cried.

Naturally, the Chu family did not care about this.

After the Chu family sent Ye Muyu and Chu Jin home, Chu Ziluo, who was at home, was shocked by what had happened. She quickly ran out to open the door. "Grandma, what's going on?"

"Your brother fell into the river. Your mother went to save him and is unconscious now. Ziluo, be good. Don't make a fuss."

"Have you called the doctor?" Madam Liu turned around and looked for Chu Xing, but she did not see him return.

Madam Wang and Madam Zhang were also shocked. They were supporting Ye

Muyu.

“Mother, let’s help Third Sister-in-law into the room first. She needs to change her clothes and wait for Doctor Lu to come over to treat her.”

“Yes, go in quickly.” Madam Liu did not delay. Madam Zhang and Madam Wang also helped Ye Muyu.

Chu Ziluo was outside, running to her mother’s room and her brother’s room.

After Madam Liu helped Ye Muyu change her clothes, she looked her lying on the bed with a pale face. She frowned and said, “What happened?”

“Eldest Daughter-in-law, come with me to boil ginger soup and hot water.” Madam Liu swiftly made the arrangements.

Madam Zhang quickly followed.

Chu Ziluo squeezed into the room and looked at the unconscious Ye Muyu with tears in her eyes. “Second Aunt, my mother will be fine, right?”

Even though Madam Wang had some animosity toward Ye Muyu, she did not dare to say anything when they heard Chu Ziluo’s sobbing tone. After a long time, she managed to squeeze out a sentence, “Well, Second Aunt doesn’t know either. We’ll have to wait for Doctor Lu to come and take a look.”

“But it should be fine.” Madam Wang thought that she would only fall into the water and catch a cold at most. However, Ye Muyu’s pale face was too scary. She did not dare to imagine what would happen if something happened.

Chu Ziluo sat at the side and wiped her tears.

In the west wing...

Chu Lin and Chu Cai helped Chu Jin change his clothes. Then, they picked him up and patted him, trying their best to make the child cough out water.

“Big brother, I’ll carry him.” Chu Cai had great strength, so it was not difficult for him to carry a young boy.

Chu Lin agreed and held Chu Jin’s arm, patting it continuously.

After an unknown period of time...

“Cough, cough, cough...”

“Alright.” A smile appeared on Chu Lin’s cautious face.

Chu Cai also heaved a sigh of relief. “This child is lucky. It’s good that nothing happened to him.”

After letting Chu Jin sit down, he coughed for a while before he burst into tears.

Chu Cai was obviously frightened. He was not good with words and did not know how to coax Chu Jin. He only said dryly, “It’s alright, Lil’ Jin.”

Chu Jin sobbed continuously.

Madam Zhang heard the crying and walked in. When she saw that Chu Jin had woken up, a smile appeared on her face. “It’s good that you’re awake. Child, why did you fall into the water? Don’t be naughty next time. Your mother hasn’t woken up yet.”

Under Chu Lin’s glare, she hurriedly lowered her voice, so Chu Jin did not hear her.

“Alright, it’s fine. I’ll cook some sugar water for you later.” Chu Lin was obviously better at coaxing people. Chu Jin had been frightened by the river water, but now he was slowly recovering.

He burped. "Uncle, it's all Tang Bao's fault. He snatched my Zhuge Lock and pushed me into the river. Hmph, I'm not stupid. I grabbed him and we fell into the river together."

"He's too much."

Chu Jin's words made Chu Lin and Chu Cai frown..

Chapter 154: Unconvinced

Chu Lin reached out and held Chu Jin's shoulder. He looked at him and asked seriously, "Lil' Jin, did Tang Bao really push you?"

"He pushed me. Not only did he push me, but he also snatched my Zhuge Lock. My Zhuge Lock is the most unique in the world. How could I be willing to give it to that idiot? It's all my fault for being too thin. I fell into the river after being pushed twice. "Chu Jin was still a little angry.

Chu Lin felt relieved when he saw the indignant look on his face. As for what the child had said, he would probably have to tell Chu Heng.

He was an uncle after all. He could not help this child seek justice.

Of course, this was also the reason why Chu Heng was not far from home.

Moreover, it was perfectly justifiable for Chu Heng to go and settle scores with the Tang family.

Chu Lin knew that children did not need to know these things, so he naturally would not say it.

He comforted him a little longer before coming out of the room.

“Mother, should we inform Third Brother about this?” Chu Lin walked to the kitchen door and asked.

Considering Ye Muyu’s condition, Madam Liu was also worried. She did not want to disturb her son’s study, but she could not hide such a big matter from him. “Of course, we have to inform him.”

“Drive the ox cart to the county.” Madam Liu finally decided.

When Madam Zhang heard that Madam Chu had asked her husband to go, she was initially not very willing. However, when she saw the joy on her husband’s face and followed Chu Lin to the entrance of the courtyard, she asked in a low voice, “Be careful. Don’t delay and come back early.”

“Got it.” Chu Lin did not have a mule cart at home, so he always wanted to buy a means of transportation back home. Unfortunately, he did not have any extra silver in his hands.

Now that he finally had an ox cart, it was enough for him to be happy for a long time. As for Madam Zhang’s consideration of benefits, he didn’t care at all.

After sending Chu Lin off, Madam Zhang became even more enthusiastic.

Her thoughts were very simple. This time, whether it was Ye Muyu or Chu Jin, it was her husband who took the lead to save them. Now, she was still taking the lead to take care of them.

At that time, with Third Brother’s temper, he would definitely give her a gift of thanks.

After receiving the gift, she could sell it for money to save for Qingxiang’s dowry.

Doctor Lu arrived shortly after.

After Doctor Lu examined Ye Muyu, his expression turned serious. “Lady Ye’s body is not good to begin with, and now she has suffered from a severe cold. I’ll prescribe a few medicines first. If she can wake up, she’ll be fine.”

Madam Liu's brows furrowed slightly. She could hear the meaning behind Doctor Lu's words, and her mood became somewhat heavy.

Madam Zhang and Madam Wang were country bumpkins. Hearing that Ye Muyu would be fine after waking up, they were relieved. Who would have thought that Doctor Lu himself was not sure if Ye Muyu would wake up?

In the county...

Chu Lin arrived at the county an hour later.

He rushed to the school gate. "Uncle Liu, help me call Chu Heng. There's an emergency at home. I'm sorry."

As Chu Lin spoke, he took out a few copper coins from his waist and handed them to Uncle Liu.

It was the first time Uncle Liu had seen the Chu family so anxious. The Chu family often came to look for Chu Heng, so he was already used to it.

Without delay, he went straight to the school and called Chu Heng out.

Chu Lin saw Chu Heng and pulled him away. "Third Brother, something happened at home. Lil' Jin was pushed into the river after school today. Third Sister-in-law is also unconscious now because she saved Lil' Jin. When I left, Lil' Jin woke up."

"What did you say? Something happened to Madam Ye?" Chu Heng was stunned for a moment. He had never thought of this possibility.

"Take me back. Tell me the details on the way.."

Chapter 155: Good Feelings

Chu Heng strode onto the ox cart. Chu Lin naturally would not waste any time. "Third Brother, put on your bamboo hat."

Chu Heng frowned. He could not figure it out. This had never happened in his previous life, and Madam Ye was living well. How could something suddenly happen?

Thinking of Ye Muyu, Chu Heng unexpectedly did not want anything to happen to her.

Chu Heng pursed his lips tightly as this thought popped up in his mind.

Why would he have a good impression of Madam Ye?

Chu Heng was not a fool. Because of this, when he realized that he had a good impression of Ye Muyu, he felt even more incredulous. Instead, he felt it seriously. When he thought that Ye Muyu would never wake up again, he actually felt a strong reluctance in his heart.

He could not help but recall the short month they spent together.

In fact, he had not met Ye Muyu many times, but he knew what she had done through letters.

No matter which one it was, it was different from the Madam Ye in his memory.

She was indeed different...Chu Heng's eyes shone with determination as he muttered, "It doesn't matter who you are, but since you have come to my side..."

The unfinished words disappeared in the air.

An hour later.

“Chu Heng, you’re back?” At this moment, there was only Madam Liu in the Chu residence. Madam Zhang and Madam Wang had gone back to their own homes to do their work.

Madam Liu looked at the unconscious Ye Muyu and was extremely worried.

Ye Muyu could barely drink the medicine that Madam Liu fed her.

Now that she saw Chu Heng walk in, she felt relieved. “Chu Heng, go in and take a look. I’ll go heat up the medicine and ginger soup.”

Chu Heng nodded and strode into the east wing.

Seeing Chu Heng enter, Chu Lin quickly walked to Madam Liu’s side. At the same time, he glanced at the east wing and asked worriedly, “Mother, is Third Sister-in-law alright?”

“She hasn’t woken up yet. We can only let her drink the medicine first and then see what happens.”

“You go back first, I’ll stay here and help take care of him. Li’ Jin is quite strong, he’s already asleep after taking his medicine,” Madam Liu said to her son.

Chu Lin looked around and knew that he did not need his help at the moment. He still had work to do at home, so he did not force himself to help.

“Oh right, Mother, do you want me to bring you some clothes to change into?”

Madam Liu’s clothes were half wet when she helped Ye Muyu back, but because she was in the kitchen, they were dry again.

“I know, Mother. You don’t have to worry about the family.”

Seeing this, Chu Lin did not stay any longer.

Chu Heng entered the room and saw the pale and unconscious Ye Muyu. He frowned and walked over to touch her forehead. "It's so cold."

He touched her hand again. It was also cold.

Chu Heng then realized that even though Ye Muyu was covered with a blanket, her body was still extremely cold, like an ice cellar.

Chu Heng turned around and went into the kitchen. "Mother, what did Doctor Lu say? Why is Madam Ye so cold?"

"Doctor Lu said that Madam Ye suffered from a serious cold and her body was not in good condition to begin with. She would be fine if she could wake up, but if she can't wake up..." Madam Liu had not finished speaking.

"Impossible!" Chu Heng shouted angrily.

"Mother, where is the medicine? I'll boil it." Chu Heng's face was as dark as water. He even brought out the pressure of a superior in his previous life. Madam Liu was shocked by Chu Heng's appearance and felt that it was extremely unfamiliar.

"Old Third, are you alright?" She asked after a while.

"Mother, I'm fine." Chu Heng pursed his lips tightly. There was a voice in his heart that kept saying that it was impossible. It was impossible that something would happen to Madam Ye..

Chapter 156: Pretending?

He would never let anything happen to Ye Muyu.

“Here, take the medicine. I was just worried that Madam Ye could not take the medicine.” Although Madam Liu felt that Chu Heng’s aura was a little strong and his emotions were fluctuating, she could not help but sigh when she thought of Ye Muyu’s current appearance. Naturally, she would not mind.

Chu Heng carried the medicine and entered the room.

He sat by the bed and blew on the medicine to cool it down before feeding Ye Muyu with a spoon. At the same time, he said in a low voice, “Madam Ye, as long as you drink the medicine and wake up, I’ll give you a chance to slowly understand you.”

“I know you’re different. I like this change.” Chu Heng pursed his lips.

It was the first time he had spoken his mind, and he was not used to it. The spoon was also on Ye Muyu’s lips.

Chu Heng’s expression was serious, and his movements were very standard as he fed her the medicine.

However, the medicine flowed down Ye Muyu’s lips and she could not drink it.

Chu Heng remembered his mother’s words and said angrily, “Madam Ye, if you don’t drink it, then I’ll have to force you.”

The person in front of him still had no reaction.

Chu Heng frowned and finally looked at the medicine in the spoon in his hand.

He put it into his mouth and fed it to Ye Muyu personally.

When their lips touched, Chu Heng’s body trembled. He opened his eyes and looked at the woman in front of him. She was both unfamiliar and familiar to him at the same time.

Chu Heng's ears turned dark red when he felt her warm breath on his nose. A hint of surprise flashed in his eyes. He seemed to have breathed a little harder just now.

What was going on?

Chu Heng took a sip of the medicine and raised his head, his eyes scrutinizing the woman on the bed.

Could it be... She was awake?

Chu Heng's face instantly darkened. Could it be that Madam Ye was lying to him?

Pretending to be unconscious?

With this thought in mind, Chu Heng immediately made a move to verify it. He leaned closer to Ye Muyu's face, but this time, there was no medicine in his mouth.

When he got closer, he realized that the other party's breathing was very light, so light that it was almost non-existent.

Chu Heng's face darkened. He maintained this position. He did not believe that this woman could continue to pretend.

In the kitchen...

Seeing that Chu Heng had not come out for a long time, Madam Liu thought for a while and then carried the ginger soup to the east wing.

She pushed the door open and went in. "Old Third, you've finished this medicine. Drink some ginger soup. Go..."

Madam Ye's voice was instantly stuck in her throat as she stared wide-eyed at Chu Heng's beastly act.

"Old Third, are you the reincarnation of a hungry ghost? Your wife is already unconscious, and you still have the mood to do it... Cough cough, get up quickly."

Madam Liu did not finish her sentence because it was too awkward. She rushed over and pulled Chu Heng up.

Chu Heng stood up and frowned. He had just tested her for at least the time it takes for an incense stick to burn, but Madam Ye's breathing was still very light. Could she hold her breath forever?

"Mother, where is Doctor Lu?" Chu Heng stood up straight.

"Doctor Lu was taken away by the Tang family after he looked at Madam Ye." Madam Liu did not understand why.

"Mother, help me take care of her. I'll call Doctor Lu over." Chu Heng turned around and left the courtyard.

Chu Liushi frowned. "What's wrong with this child?"

"I haven't finished feeding her the medicine. Forget it, I'll feed her again." Madam Liu tried her best to feed the medicine to Ye Muyu. Perhaps it was because Ye Muyu was unconscious, so it took her a lot of effort to feed her.

At least half of the spoonful of medicine she gave Madam Ye would just flow down her lips.

Madam Liu could not care less about whether it was a waste or not.

She took out a soft cloth and placed it around Ye Muyu's neck to prevent the soup from flowing onto the bed. Then, she fed her spoonful after spoonful..

Chapter 157: Old Madam Ye Came to the Door

After feeding Ye Muyu a bowl of medicine, she saw that most of the white cloth was stained with the medicine. Madam Liu was worried and took the white cloth away. She wiped the medicine from Ye Muyu's mouth.

"Child, you must get better." Madam Liu stood up, but she did not dare to leave. She was afraid that Ye Muyu would not have anyone guarding her. It would not be good if something happened.

Not long after, there was a violent knock on the door.

Madam Li stood up and walked to the courtyard. She casually replied, "Who is

"It's me... In-law, please open the door."

When Madam Ye heard this, she realized it was Old Madam Ye's voice. Why was she here?

She did not stop and quickly walked to the door. She opened the courtyard door and saw that not only was Old Woman Ye there, but her son, Ye Zhao, was also beside her.

"In-law, come in quickly. Third Daughter-in-law is lying on the bed. The doctor came to see her. Old Third was worried and went to call the doctor again."

"Lilt Jin is fine. He has already finished drinking the medicine and fallen asleep."

Madam Liu saw that Old Woman Ye's expression was not good. Although she was not afraid of Old Woman Ye, she did not want to argue with her at this time, so she naturally quickly explained the situation.

"Brother-in-law went to find a doctor? I'll go too." Ye Zhao stopped in his tracks, turned around, and left the courtyard.

Madam Liu opened her mouth, but before she could say anything, she could only see Ye Zhao's back. He had already left the courtyard.

'This child is really impatient,' Madam Liu thought to herself. However, she did not pay any more attention to him.

Instead, he followed Old Woman Ye into the east wing to look after Ye Muyu.

Old Madam Ye entered the room and saw her daughter lying on the bed. She sat beside her and held Ye Muyu's hand to wipe her tears. "Why aren't you awake yet? How is she? What did the doctor say?"

Seeing that she was not faking her sadness, Madam Liu felt a little better and her impression of Old Woman Ye changed a little.

She was really surprised that Old Woman Ye really had Ye Muyu in her heart. She thought that she only had money in her heart.

Madam Liu thought about this in her heart, but her expression did not change at all.

Hearing this, she replied gently, "Doctor Lu has come to take a look and prescribed medicine. He said that she will be fine after she wakes up on her own."

"It's just that she can't take the medicine now. I just fed the child some medicine and she only drank some."

"I was just about to feed the child more ginger soup when you came over."

"I'll bring the ginger soup over now and feed the child some cold water." Madam Liu got up and quickly walked into the kitchen.

Not long after, she came back with ginger soup.

When she entered and saw Old Woman Ye wiping her tears, her heart softened. She comforted her, "Don't worry, in-law. Third Daughter-in-law is a lucky person. She will definitely wake up."

"I brought you a bowl too. You should drink it too."

Old Woman Ye had never seen Madam Liu being so gentle to her, but when she thought of Ye Muyu lying unconscious on the bed, she felt sad. She drank a mouthful of ginger soup and said angrily, "In-law, tell me, how did she get into the water?"

"I asked Lil' Jin. He said that he made a toy that was very novel and brought it to school in the afternoon."

"There was a classmate in the school called Tang Bao, a child of the Tang family in the village. He fought with him for the toy and pushed him into the water. Lil' Jin reacted quickly and grabbed Tang Bao."

"Tang Bao might look strong, but he didn't have much strength, so he was pulled down."

"Coincidentally, Third Daughter-in-law went to pick up the child. She saw Lil' Jin fall into the river and jumped into the river to save him."

"When we heard the news, we rushed over quickly, but it was too late. By the time we saved the mother and son, Madam Ye was unconscious. Doctor Lu also prescribed medicine and injected her with an injection, but who knew that she still hadn't woken up."

Chapter 158: What Tang Rou Did Behind Her Back

"As expected, I knew it was someone from the Tang family." Old Woman Ye's angry look made Madam Liu somewhat confused.

“In-law, do you still know the secret information?” Madam Liu subconsciously felt that she did not know what Old Woman Ye knew.

Sure enough, Old Woman Ye’s words shocked everyone, “Does the Tang Family have a girl called Tang Rou?”

“Yeah, why?” At the mention of Tang Rou, Madam Liu instinctively furrowed her brows. She thought back to the time when Madam Ye had brought Tang Rou into their house, and the subsequent times when the villagers had seen Tang Rou come to see Madam Ye many times.

She had only heard about it and did not ask Ye Muyu about it. After all, nothing had happened at that time, and she was busy with farming. She treated it as a trivial matter and did not care.

Old Woman Ye angrily snorted. “That Tang Rou is planning to marry my son-in-law. Last time, she stopped me and said a bunch of things about how my son-in-law treats my daughter badly. If it wasn’t for my daughter saying otherwise, I would have believed her.”

In fact, Old Woman Ye already believed it. Ever since she left the Chu family last time, she had been inquiring about some good families.

Of course, because the eldest granddaughter, Ye Mengjie, was already ten years old, she could try to look at other people. Although it was early, there were people who looked at each other early in order to marry a good husband. They would not decide the marriage yet, but they would look around to choose the best.

Therefore, she took this opportunity to find out who could marry her daughter. Of course, she did not mention this matter instinctively.

“Tang Rou likes Old Third?” Madam Liu was extremely shocked.

She had not thought of this possibility at all. After all, Tang Rou was already an ‘old lady’ in the village.

Everyone in the village knew what the Tang Family was thinking. They wanted Tang Rou to marry into a wealthy family.

Naturally, Madam Liu did not like the Tang family's personality, and she did not expect the Tang family to be willing to marry Tang Rou into a family in the village.

However, she felt that many of the younger generations in the village were worthy of Tang Rou.

"In-law, you can't joke about this." Although Madam Liu said so, she believed most of it in her heart, and her expression turned ugly.

When Old Madam Ye said this, she was full of confidence. How could she give up? "I'm not joking. We can just confront her."

"Besides, listen to what she said."

"She said that my son-in-law didn't come back from school not to rush for the exam, but to avoid my daughter."

"She even said that none of you like my daughter. At the last banquet, my daughter was scolded by her sister-in-law, and those nasty words were spread, which is why my son-in-law wanted to divorce her."

The more Old Woman Ye spoke, the angrier she became. She looked at Madam Liu with anger, as if she wanted to start a fight.

Madam Liu was also angry, but she was still rational. "In-law, did Tang Rou tell you all this?"

She had not expected that there would be an outsider here who was trying to break up Chu Heng and his wife. Madam Liu wished she could grab Tang Rou and beat her up.

Why was this girl so shameless? She really regretted speaking to her too gently when she met her before.

“Of course, Tang Rou specifically came to find me and said all of this word by word. I’m furious. In-law, just say what kind of attitude do you have towards my daughter? Although I’m not educated, my daughter is not someone to be bullied.” Old Woman Ye deliberately snorted angrily.

“It was indeed Lil’ Yun’s fault at the banquet. I’ve already spoken to Chu heng about this matter. I’ll let Lil’ Yun apologize to Third Daughter-in-law in person when she returns home.”

“The rest are definitely fabricated.”

“Really?” Old Madam Ye deliberately put on a disbelieving attitude, but in fact, she was testing Madam Liu..

Chapter 159: Looking for Her

Madam Liu was smarter than her. She knew that Old Madam Ye was taking the opportunity to make the Chu family apologize to Ye Muyu for what happened before.

She had already discussed this matter with Ye Muyu, so she did not care about what Old Woman Ye had just said.

Seeing that Madam Liu had already said so, Old Woman Ye naturally would not hold on to this matter any longer.

Although she did not like Madam Liu and did not dare to face Chu Heng, she still believed her words.

“We can’t let Tang Rou go, right? And what was the relationship between Tang Bao and Tang Rou?” Old Woman Ye looked like she wanted to settle the score with the Tang family. Madam Liu heaved a sigh of relief. She did not want to quarrel with Old Woman Ye. However, on second thought, the Tang family was indeed a little greedy.

They even dared to frame and scheme against Chu Heng. She had to teach him a lesson.

She did not like the Tang Family's behavior, but this time, Tang Rou, an unmarried girl, wanted to force Madam Ye to leave and make Chu Heng marry her. With her personality, it would be a pity if she did not try scheming against those rich families.

If this person dared to be so bold, they would break her courage and see if she still dared to ruin Chu Heng's marriage.

"Tang Bao is Tang Rou's half-brother."

Since Madam Liu was planning to settle the score with the Tang family, she saw Old Woman Ye's attitude of wanting to make a scene and had the idea of cooperating with her.

"In-law, this Tang family is indeed rat sh*t. It's obvious that they're here to destroy the relationship between our two families."

"Since you came over after hearing the news, why don't we take advantage of the situation and directly confront the Tang family?" Madam Liu did not want to let this matter go. Otherwise, with the Tang family's greedy thoughts and Tang Rou's scheming mind, there might be another hidden danger for the Chu family.

"You don't object?" Old Madam Ye was a little surprised.

She had already thought of it. She definitely had to use her strongest ability to cause a scene.

"They all came to bully us. Lil' Jin is fine this time, but Third Daughter-in-law is in trouble. Whether it's Tang Rou or Tang Bao, one is secretly plotting against us, while the other is openly harming us." Madam Liu snorted lightly, completely disgusted by the Tang family.

Old Woman Ye also said, "And my Ye family is not easy to bully."

Madam Liu looked at the 'thick-skinned' Old Woman Ye with a strange expression. Seeing how confident she was, she did not say the words in her heart that the Ye family was indeed easy to bully.

However, Madam Liu did not expect that she would personally witness Old Woman Ye's ability to throw a tantrum. She was shocked and did not want to provoke Old Woman Ye again.

"Mother, Mother-in-law."

The two of them had just finished talking and were planning how to make the Tang family suffer the greatest loss.

Chu Heng brought Doctor Lu back, followed by Ye Zhao.

Madam Liu looked at Old Woman Ye.

Old Woman Ye nodded, stood up, and greeted Chu Heng, "Ah Heng, we plan to settle the score with the Tang family. You stay at home and take care of my daughter."

Old Woman Ye and Madam Liu did not plan to let Chu Heng follow.

Scholars had to be clean. As for the other things, it was up to these 'ignorant' village women to do them.

Chu Heng glanced at his mother and Old Woman Ye. Seeing that the two of them obviously had the same opinion, the corners of his mouth curled into a cold smile. "Mother-in-law, do whatever you want. Don't worry about anything."

This meant that he wanted to support Old Woman Ye.

Old Madam Ye was instantly full of confidence. She smiled and said, "Don't worry, I'll definitely make the Tang family regret bullying my daughter."

“Ye Zhao, let’s go.”

When Madam Liu saw this, she also followed. Seeing her son’s attitude, how could she not know that he was angry? She only reminded him, “Take good care of Madam Ye..”

Chapter 160: Chu Heng Thought About It and Found Something

“Yes.” Chu Heng nodded.

Madam Liu, Old Woman Ye, and Ye Zhao left. They first went to the Chu family to call their clansmen, then went straight to the Tang family.

Chu Heng was not worried that his family would be at a disadvantage. He stood to the side and made way for Doctor Lu. “Doctor Lu, give her another... look.”

“Yes.” Chu Heng nodded.

Madam Liu, Old Woman Ye, and Ye Zhao left. They first went to the Chu family to call their clansmen, then went straight to the Tang family.

He then checked Ye Muyu’s pulse.

Chu Heng no longer doubted it. Even if Madam Ye was pretending, it was impossible for her to have such good composure. However, what was the reason for the change in breathing earlier...?

Chu Heng’s heart was in a mess. He looked at the unconscious Ye Muyu and frowned. He did not notice that his fists were slowly tightening.

Lu Congyuan checked Ye Muyu’s pulse again and shook his head, “Scholar Chu, Lady Ye’s body hasn’t gotten better. Instead, the cold air is still entering her body. I can only say that if she can wake up and slowly get rid of the cold air, she can recover.”

“But looking at Lady Ye’s current condition, I’m worried that she won’t wake up.”

“How about this? I’ll perform acupuncture on her again.” Lu Congyuan was already prepared. He took out a silver needle and aimed it at Ye Muyu’s acupuncture points, starting to treat her.

Chu Heng’s hands were trembling. After Doctor Lu finished inserting the needles, he asked anxiously, “Doctor Lu, why isn’t she awake yet?”

Lu Congyuan frowned, “This... Scholar Chu, you said before that Lady Ye’s breathing was a little deeper. What was the situation? Why don’t you talk to Lady Ye more?”

“Oh right, there’s also Ziluo. She has a deep relationship with Lady Ye, so she should be talking at the side too.”

“This requires Lady Ye to hold on by herself. I’ve already pricked all the acupoints, but she still doesn’t wake up. I’m afraid that if Lady Ye continues to be unconscious, she won’t wake up.”

“Scholar Chu, you can try.”

“Alright.” If Chu Heng was suspicious before, then now he was nervous and regretful. Why did he not continue before? Perhaps Madam Ye would wake up?

Doctor Lu saw Chu Heng’s trembling body and sighed slightly. He walked out, not wanting to disturb him.

Chu Heng sat by the bed, holding Ye Muyu’s hand tightly, shouting over and over again, “Madam Ye...”

Ye Muyu still did not respond. She had fallen into a deep sleep and her consciousness was in a mess. She could not wake up at all.

Chu Heng leaned over and looked at the thin and pale face in front of him. He felt that Madam Ye’s appearance was more and more different from the one in his memories from his previous life.

In fact, ever since the current Ye Muyu came over, her appearance has changed more and more like her previous life.

Chu Heng reached out and gently touched Ye Muyu's lips. He stubbornly said, "When you wake up, I will never bully you again."

"How is it?"

"I know you're not the Madam Ye I know. No matter who you are, I don't want you to leave."

If Chu Heng was still blinded by the anger of his previous life and suspected that Ye Muyu was pretending, then looking at the unconscious Ye Muyu lying on the bed, the memories in his mind became clearer.

The details that he had not noticed before were all repeated in his mind.

He suddenly realized that before he was reborn, Madam Ye's personality seemed to be exactly the same as the one he knew in his previous life. However, after he was reborn, Madam Ye's personality changed.

It became very thorough.

She suddenly had good culinary skills, making soft fragrant cakes, pickled vegetables, knowing how to write in the Pavilion Style, knowing how to read... How was this the Madam Ye he knew?

Even the Madam Ye his previous life could not read for their entire life, so how could she suddenly recognize words?

Although Ye Muyu had concealed it very well with Lil' Jin's help, coupled with the fact that she did not have much contact with outsiders, Chu Heng did not think much about it before and was deceived by her disguise.

Even Madam Liu and the other members of the Chu clan probably did not notice..
