

Peasant 16

Chapter 16

Chu Heng Is Angry

The second time was when he was nineteen years old. The day before he set off for the exam, he injured his arm and lost his qualification to take the exam.

Speaking of which, Chu Heng was really determined. This time, after two consecutive incidents, he did not even have a chance to take the exam seriously.

He could continue to persist in his examination and learn.

As Ye Muyu was thinking, she heard footsteps and the kitchen door was knocked.

She subconsciously turned her head and felt a shadow cast over her. Chu Heng's face was as dark as water as he glared at her.

"What's... the matter?" Ye Muyu hesitated.

"Why didn't you tell me that outsiders were coming?" Chu Heng's voice was as cold as steel. "You're so stupid that you don't know anything but won't ask me?"

It was the same in her previous life. She did not know anything, but she had the guts to not discuss it with him before doing things. When something happened, she felt that he did not care enough for her.

'Unreasonable!'

'Stupid as a pig!'

When Chu Heng thought of this, he became even angrier.

He reached out and grabbed Ye Muyu's wrist. "Go and chase that woman away now. She's obviously trying to scam you, and you still believe her."

Seeing that Ye Muyu did not answer, Chu Heng took a deep breath, controlled his anger, and changed his method. "This woman wants to scheme against you. Are you sure you want her to stay?"

He had already made it so obvious. If this woman still did not understand, she would really be hopeless.

Ye Muyu's gaze fell on his hand and said calmly, "Can you let go of my wrist before you talk? My wrist hurts from your grip."

It was obviously a painful thing, but Ye Muyu remained calm.

Chu Heng frowned. He was surprised by her reaction. It was completely different from what he had expected.

He loosened his grip and said coldly, "If you still had a brain, you would know what to do."

"Don't think that you're the only smart one." Ye Muyu glanced at him and said this calmly. She rubbed her wrist and walked out of the kitchen to send Tang Rou off.

After sending Tang Rou off, especially after seeing her reluctant expression, Ye Muyu regretted it. She should not have gotten involved in this matter. If Tang Rou really wanted to, she would have directly seduced Chu Heng and not affect her life.

Now, this man was angry. His face was dark as if someone owed him money. The two children were trembling and did not dare to breathe loudly. They could not even eat properly.

When Ye Muyu returned to the kitchen, Chu Heng had already returned to the study.

She continued to cook as if nothing had happened.

After finishing the dishes, she placed them on the table and called for the three of them to eat.

It was very quiet at the dining table.

Chu Heng sat at the head of the table, staring at Ye Muyu as if he wanted to see through her.

Ye Muyu acted as if he did not exist and scooped rice for the two children before serving it to Chu Heng.

Then, she was next.

The dishes that she had made for lunch were very appetizing. Ye Muyu saw that the two children did not dare to pick up any food, so she directly used a spoon to pick up the food and put it into their bowls.

“Let’s eat.”

Chu Ziluo and Chu Jin did not dare to say anything. They buried their heads in their food.

Ye Muyu’s actions made Chu Ziluo feel that her mother was very kind. She knew that Chu Ziluo did not dare to take the food, so she helped her. Chu Ziluo buried her head in her food and ate more meat. She noticed that her portion was the same as her brother’s, but her brother’s rice was lesser.

Chu Ziluo was elated.

Chu Heng was expressionless as he ate the meal, but he scoffed at Ye Muyu’s actions.

After dinner, he sat on the seat of honor without moving.

Ye Muyu noticed his mood and asked the two children to go back to their own rooms.

After the two children left, Ye Muyu said, “What do you have to say to me?”
