Chapter 351: Direct Descendant of the Lu Family?

However, Ye Muyu did not give him the chance. She coughed lightly and felt a little guilty. "I... I think I forgot to take my medicine."

Chu Heng frowned unhappily.

Coincidentally, Madam Hu had also tidied up the bathroom. She put Ye Muyu's clothes into the wooden basin and prepared to wash them tomorrow.

Chu Heng ordered Madam Hu to send Ye Muyu to the left wing room. He went to the kitchen to heat up the medicine and brought it over.

"Madam, is Master angry?" Madam Hu had already learned to read people's eyes. This was the most crucial point in the survival rules of servants. Now that she was living well, she naturally did not want to be sold again.

"He's not angry." Ye Muyu shook her head. "Don't worry about him."

"Madam, actually this servant can see that the Master is worried about your health. This time, it's also my fault for not heating the medicine on time."

Ye Muyu thought to herself, Chu Heng is really meticulous, making the servants feel that he treats her well.

She did not deny this.

However, from the beginning to the end, she did not think about anything else.

Today...

Ye Muyu let out a deep breath and shook off the wild thoughts in her head. She quickly calmed down.

After entering the room, Ye Muyu asked Madam Hu to continue what she was doing.

Madam Hu responded and then went to the kitchen to boil hot water.

Not long after, Chu Heng came in with a bowl of medicine.

He sat straight by the bed and saw that Ye Muyu was dressed neatly and did not take off her coat because of the hot weather. He was relieved. When he handed her the bowl of medicine, he reminded her, "You are not in good health. Don't take off your clothes casually to avoid catching a cold. Remember to take your medicine."

"I saw that there's no medicine left in the kitchen cabinet. Is this the last one?" Chu Heng also paid more attention to her taking medicine. Even if he did not keep an eye on her himself, he would ask Madam Hu. He knew her body very well.

"Yeah, I'll go get the medicine tomorrow." Ye Muyu nodded.

"Speaking of which, before Physician Qi left today, he said that he would see me again soon. Could it be that he thinks that I will take the initiative to seek him out for treatment?" Ye Muyu was just trying to find a topic to talk to Chu Heng.

Of course, there was also the habit of gossiping about the village with Chu Heng. The two of them had always interacted like this.

When Chu Heng heard this, he suddenly recalled the rumors from his previous life. It seemed that this Young Master of the Lu family had a promising future in the Lu family's medical skills. If not for the fact that the entire Lu family was implicated and executed, he would have become a divine doctor in the future.

Now that this person was here, Chu Heng did not want to let go of this opportunity.

“The medical skills of the direct descendants of the Lu family have always been better than those doctors hired by the Lu family. However, Qi Sang came right after Doctor Lu left. It’s very likely that the two are related.”

“If Doctor Lu is also a direct descendant of the Lu family, then it makes sense.” Although Chu Heng said this, it was only to guide Ye Muyu to think in this direction.

Ye Muyu understood what Chu Heng meant. “What do you mean?”

Since Chu Heng had said so, he was definitely not just talking about this person. He might want to do something. It had to be said that Ye Muyu knew him very well.

Seeing that she had finished her medicine, Chu Heng opened a wooden box from the cabinet beside him. He took out a candied fruit and handed it to Ye Muyu. Then, he slowly answered, “I want to ask Qi Sang to come and take a look at your body.”

“Get Qi Sang to treat me?” Ye Muyu was slightly stunned. She subconsciously felt that it was inappropriate because her relationship with Qi Sang was already strained, even though it was for the sake of her daughter..

Chapter 352: Very Ordinary Indeed

However, she had already offended him, so she did not regret it.

Ye Muyu could not help but suspect that this person might be so narrow-minded that he deliberately gave her the wrong medicine.

Chu Heng saw her distrustful expression. It was obviously the first time he had seen it. It was a little novel. He let out a chuckle and reached out to rub the light hair in front of Ye Muyu's forehead. His fingers accidentally brushed her smooth forehead.

Ye Muyu was used to his actions, so she looked up at him calmly. "What do you think?"

Chu Heng said, "He doesn't dare to do anything to you. We're just testing his medical skills. If it's useful, he'll stay and treat your body."

"Of course, if he can't even cure your illness, he's just a quack. Don't worry about him."

"If you say that, with Qi Sang's personality, I'm afraid he'll be angered to death." Ye Muyu shook her head with a smile, but she didn't object to Chu Heng's actions. She thought to herself that it would be better to anger Qi Sang to death. That brat was really a little bastard.

Qi Sang, who was despised by the couple, sat in the room and sneezed a few times.

"By the way, did you say that the medical book Doctor Lu gave me last time was really just an ordinary medical book?" Ye Muyu was a little suspicious now. She had read the medical book before, but it was just an ordinary book about recognizing medicinal herbs. It was not very expensive. If it was an ordinary medical book, why would Qi Sang come?

"I'll study it later." Ye Muyu made up her mind.

Chu Heng agreed, he did not care about this medical book. Even if Lu Congyuan was a direct descendant of the Lu family, he had already returned, what secret manual could he give to an ordinary person?

Although he did not care about the medical books, he cared about Ye Muyu's illness.

He could find a chance to see that kid tomorrow.

Ye Muyu knew the condition of her body. The main problem was the cold air. She would recover slowly.

She did not care if Qi Sang could treat her illness or not. The main thing was, as Chu Heng had said, if his medical skills were very good, he could make friends with him. Knowing one more doctor was always good.

Of course, if she could not befriend him, she would not force him.

Ye Muyu did not feel any pressure since she wanted to make friends with him. She urged Chu Heng to take a bath while she entered the study room and took the medical book that Lu Congyuan had given her.

Back then, Doctor Lu gave her this book to benefit the villagers.

Thus, she asked the children of the Chu family to copy some manuscripts and send them to the village chief.

The village chief had also told the villagers that if they did not recognize any plants, they would take them to the village chief's house for comparison. If they could find the medicinal herbs, they could earn another sum of money.

The village chief's family also had children who could read and write, so it was not difficult for them to help the villagers identify the medicinal herbs.

Back then, she had also mentioned this idea to Doctor Lu, and the other party had not objected.

In other words, the things in this medical book were very ordinary.

Ye Muyu flipped through the medical book again, but she could not find any precious prescription. She felt that she might have thought too much. It seemed that this medical book was really just an ordinary medical book.

She rubbed her eyes and placed the medical book back in the study.

At this moment, Chu Jin had already drawn patterns on two Zhuge Locks. When he saw Ye Muyu coming over, he could still divert his attention to greet her. "Mother, come over and take a look. Is this tiger that I drew fierce?"

"Yo, not bad. My Xiao Jin can draw tigers now. It's getting more and more vivid." Ye Muyu walked over and squatted beside him, encouraging him with a smile.

Chu Jin puffed out his chest like a little adult.

"Mother, what do you mean by vivid?" he asked doubtfully..

Chapter 353: Chu Ziluo's Thoughts

"I haven't learned this word yet."

Ye Muyu saw that the child was diligent in learning and asking questions, so she patiently explained to him, "I don't know which story I read it from but the meaning is simple. It's a compliment for your tiger painting. It looks like it's alive."

"Ohh I see." Chu Jin was complimented, and his eyes curved into crescents. "It was the teacher who said that painting can't just be simple shapes, but it also needs to have the spirit."

"That's right, that's what mother meant." Ye Muyu knew that he was smart, so she only guided him from the side and left the rest to him to think about. The knowledge gained in this way would make him remember and understand more.

Chu Jin tilted his head and said to Ye Muyu, "Mother, I still need to draw one more. Go back to your room and rest. I'll take a shower and sleep after I'm done."

“Alright, then I won’t disturb you anymore.” Ye Muyu stood up and helped him cut the lamp wick short and light it up. Then, she left the study and gently closed the door for him.

“Mother.”

Ye Muyu came out of the study.

She saw Chu Ziluo quietly walking over to her side and pulling the corner of her shirt.

Chu Ziluo hugged her waist and stayed there for a while. Then, she stood up straight and smiled.
“Mother, I brought my brother to eavesdrop on your conversation this afternoon.”

“Oh, why?” Ye Muyu thought it was a small matter, but she was glad that her daughter had taken the initiative to tell her.

Her daughter was really sensible.

Ye Muyu could not help but touch the tip of her nose affectionately.

“Mother, I didn’t eavesdrop on purpose. I was afraid that Grandma Xu would say bad things about our family again, so I brought my brother to see how Father, Mother, and I dealt with those who said bad things about our family.”

Seeing that Ye Muyu was not angry, Chu Ziluo explained her thoughts clearly.

“My younger brother is still young. He probably doesn’t know how to deal with it, so he thinks that only fighting can solve it.”

“I’m older than him and know more. Of course, I know how capable Father and Mother are. Sometimes, when I encounter problems that I can’t solve, I learn from Father and Mother.”

“The facts have proven that Father and Mother are really powerful. I have never suffered a loss before,” Chu Ziluo said proudly.

“Is someone bullying you in the village?” Ye Muyu asked.

“Ah?” Before Chu Ziluo could react, she realized that her mother was concerned about her. She quickly shook her head honestly and said, “No, mother. Ever since Father moved back, no one in the village has said anything bad about me. They usually take the initiative to play with me. However, I had to learn female arts recently, so I didn’t have time.”

“When I go out now, I always hear them gossip about others.” Chu Ziluo quickly raised her hand and promised, “I’m just listening. I’ve never participated in it.”

“Mother knows that you are a good child. You did well this time.” Ye Muyu really thought that this child was smart, but she did not expect her to be so insightful.

However, she still reminded him. “You can’t eavesdrop on everything. If Mother is coughing to remind you, you can’t listen. Do you understand?”

Ye Muyu was also worried that if she were talking to the elders about adult matters, it was better for the children to not listen, lest they mature too quickly.

“Yes, Mother.”

“Mother, I’ll go back first.”

Chu Ziluo obediently returned to her room.

Ye Muyu sat by the bed and made pants for a while.

After waiting for a while, Chu Heng came in and frowned when he saw her sewing in the middle of the night..

Chapter 354: Do It Next Year

Chu Heng went up to her and took the pants from her hand. He brought them to the desk in front of the window along with the sewing basket.

“Hey, I’m making clothes for you. I promised you last time, but I’m only halfway done now.” Ye Muyu was a little embarrassed, especially since it had been almost two months since she said she wanted to make clothes. She was busy making new things during the day and only remembered that she still had clothes to make when she sat on the bed at night. As a result, she could only sew a bit every night when she thought of it.

This progress would be slow.

When Chu Heng heard that she was making clothes for him, a hint of warmth flashed in his eyes. “It’s done quite well. Take your time. Anyway, the summer clothes you made before are enough for me to wear now.”

“Besides, it’ll be autumn in a month or two. There’s no rush.”

The corner of Ye Muyu’s mouth twitched slightly, and she could not help but think, ‘Isn’t this person mocking me?’

Well, she had been making a piece of clothing for two months and there was still no sign of the finished product. No wonder this person was teasing her.

“You’re not in a hurry to wear it?” Ye Muyu raised her eyebrows and looked up at Chu Heng. Seeing him nod, she grinned. “That’s good. I’ll make it for you next year.”

The smile on Chu Heng’s face froze, and he was even more conflicted. He did not want Ah Yu to work hard at night, but he also wanted to wear the clothes that she had personally made. After weighing the two, he made a difficult choice.

Ye Muyu chuckled. “I’m just kidding. I’ll continue making them during the day.”

She was just too busy during the day and forgot to make clothes. However, she could still squeeze out some now. After all, there were servants at home and she had a lot of free time. It was just that she wanted to do things herself sometimes.

“Really?”

“Of course.”

“Alright, I’ll look forward to wearing the new clothes you made.” Chu Heng’s heart was filled with endless anticipation. He stood up and blew on the oil lamp. The two of them slept side by side.

Ye Muyu fell asleep after a while.

Chu Heng’s mind was filled with thoughts of his past life, the upcoming imperial examinations, and a stable life with Ye Muyu in the future.

As he thought about this, he fell asleep.

The weather was getting hotter.

He sat up, grabbed the blanket with his long hand, pulled it over, and covered her abdomen again.

He himself was not afraid of the cold. In the summer, he would not catch a cold even if he did not wear clothes to sleep. He only felt comfortable.

However, considering that Ah Yu's acceptance of him had not reached the point of him exposing his upper body, he never took off his clothes at night.

Since he woke up in the middle of the night and could not fall asleep...

He sat up and turned sideways to look at the sleeping Ah Yu, but his gaze met her smooth little feet. Chu Heng felt his heart flutter. His face darkened, and he tried hard to control his emotions.

Especially the uncontrollable heartbeat.

After a long time, he sighed and looked at the woman who was sleeping soundly beside him. This time, he did not restrain himself. He reached out and gently touched her soft cheek. His eyes flashed with a burning light as if he wanted to remember her in his bones.

"You're a nice accident."

Chu Heng's thin lips parted slightly, and he reached out to touch his beating heart. The corners of his mouth curled into a faint smile. He suddenly stood up and left the room, looking a little embarrassed as he fled.

Ye Muyu, who was on the bed, did not notice it at all and was sleeping soundly.

After coming here, she did not stay up overnight and would always wake up early in the morning..

Chapter 355: Crab

She never even had the insomnia from her previous life.

The next morning.

The sky had just brightened...

Smoke rose from the scattered courtyards in the village, and the early chickens began to cluck.

As usual, Madam Hu woke up early and shook Zhang Shu her to feed the mules and horses at home.

She carried the bucket and went to milk the cow.

After she was done, she carried the milk in the wooden bucket to the kitchen and took out a clean ceramic pot to cook the milk on the stove.

In the morning, they ate the steamed buns with cowpea and bacon that they had prepared yesterday.

When Ye Muyu woke up, Chu Heng was no longer by her side.

She was not surprised at all. She put on her clothes and walked out.

Sure enough, she saw Chu Heng returning from the courtyard with a wooden bucket in his hand.

‘What did you bring back?’ Ye Muyu walked over and asked in surprise.

When she walked over, she saw that Chu Heng was carrying an eel, some crabs, and a fish in the wooden bucket.

‘Where did you get it?’ Ye Muyu reached out and touched the crab’s back. Unexpectedly, the crab, which had been quiet, suddenly struggled and almost pinched her hand.

Chu Heng was also shocked by her actions. He reprimanded her. ‘Ah Yu, you’re an adult now. You can’t just reach out and touch them casually in the future.’

Use a wooden stick, understand?"

Ye Muyu glared at him. He was treating her like a child!

"I got it. Take them to the well quickly. We can make a delicious meal at noon." Ye Muyu ignored his words and spoke first.

Chu Heng's words were stuck in his mouth. Seeing her dissatisfied expression, he felt a little helpless, but he did not say anything else. It was rare for Ah Yu to have a childlike side, so there was no need for him to stop her.

"Madam, these crabs aren't delicious, but it's rare for them to grow so big." Madam Hu heard the sound and came out of the kitchen. When she saw the crab in the wooden bucket, she was a little surprised, but what surprised her was why Chu Heng would bring it back.

In the countryside, no one would eat crabs unless they were extremely hungry.

There were only river crabs here. No matter how big they were, they couldn't be that big. There was not much meat, and it would take a lot of oil to cook them.

"It's delicious. Let's try a new method."

Seeing that Ye Muyu was interested and that Chu Heng obviously respected Ye Muyu in everything, Madam Hu no longer said anything to refute.

Instead, she called Zhang Shu over and separated the crab from the eel, as well as the fish.

Zhang Shu swiftly separated the three of them.

The eels were slippery in the water, so he put them in a bamboo basket.

“Are you coming back at noon?” Ye Muyu thought of their conversation last night and asked Chu Heng.

Chu Heng nodded. “I’ll be back earlier this afternoon. As for Doctor Qi, I’ll invite him to come over to see you when I’m back.”

When Madam Hu and Zhang Shu heard that they were going to invite a doctor to examine Ye Muyu, they were a little worried.

They were valued by the Chu family, so the family could live a good life. Naturally, they did not want anything to happen to their mistress.

Ye Muyu knew that the two of them had thought so much.

When she heard Chu Heng’s words, she knew that he was also worried about Qi

Sang.

“Alright, then I’ll make this crab for lunch.” She nodded.

“Yes.”

Chu Heng washed his hands and went back to the east wing to get his clothes and shower.

Ye Muyu entered the kitchen and saw that the milk was ready. She poured the milk into their cups.

“Madam, is your body alright?” Madam Hu hesitated for a long time, but still asked the question in her heart. She thought that since Ye Muyu was always easy to talk to, she had the courage to ask..

Chapter 356: Asking For Information

If Chu Heng was here, she would definitely not dare to say a word.

“That’s good.” Madam Hu did not doubt her words and sincerely rejoiced.

Madam Hu was not stupid. After so many changes, there was no other woman who could compare to Ye Muyu. She had never thought that there would be a woman who could be better than her. She had long thought of taking care of Ye Muyu for the rest of her life.

“Do you think that I’m seeing a doctor because I’m sick?” Seeing her reaction,

Ye Muyu came back to her senses.

Madam Hu quickly bowed. “Madam, this old servant is spouting nonsense.

Your body will definitely be strong and you will live to a hundred years old.”

“Don’t be nervous. I’m just asking casually. As for whether I can live to a hundred years old, that’s not something I can decide. However, this time, it’s really not because there’s something wrong with my body.”

“Isn’t there a new doctor in the village recently? I want to test his medical skills.” Ye Muyu did not hide anything.

Madam Hu remembered that when her husband, Zhang Shu, came back yesterday, he told her that Doctor Qi had a conflict with Ye Muyu.

Thinking that Ye Muyu was going to visit his family later, Hu Shixing decided to follow Ye Muyu.

“Madam, this servant has instructed Ah Cong to inquire about the situation in the village.”

“After Madam Xu went back yesterday, there was a dispute in the Cao family.

However, they did not call a doctor. Her daughter-in-law, Madam Fang and Madam Wu went out as usual. It seems that they were not blamed. I think that Madam Xu will not cause any trouble without the support of the Cao family this time.”

“Also, because of Zhuge Lock, many of the villagers have earned money. Master Chu Xing didn’t tell the villagers that it was related to Master Chu Heng, but now, almost everyone in the village is praising him.”

“Apart from that, there’s also Physician Qi. Although Physician Qi is the nephew of the Qi family, the strange thing is that the Qi couple have never visited Physician Qi.”

“The rest is not a big deal, so this servant did not ask in detail.” Madam Hu said.

Ye Muyu did not expect Zhang Cong to be so smart and meticulous.

He knew that he could guess Madam Xu’s status in the Cao family by looking at the reactions of Madam Fang and Madam Wu.

“Ah Cong did well. Remember to give him a glass of milk every morning.” Ye Muyu thought that it was a good thing that his men were tall and strong, so they could fight with more strength.

After saying that, she added, “Nenya has to drink it too. They are all growing.

Only when you have a good body can you help me with work.”

Madam Hu's words of rejection were instantly stuck in her throat.

Seeing that Ye Muyu meant it genuinely, she agreed. She was even more touched.

As for the relationship between Qi Sang and the Qi family...

Ye Muyu thought to herself, "Perhaps Qi Sang is just making up an excuse.

Since Qi Sang is a direct descendant of the Lu family, his surname must be Lu. Qi Sang is just a pseudonym."

However, the other party did not even try to hide the relationship between the two. Did he think that there were no smart people in the village?

Thinking back to Qi Sang, whom she had met yesterday, he had acted as if he was mentally ill. He looked as if he was saying, "Don't provoke me, or you're dead if you provoke me." She did not know whether to praise him for being smart or for being too young.

Ye Muyu shook her head. He did not want to think about other people's thoughts.

After all, her personality was too different from Qi Sang's. It was normal for her to think differently.

Ye Muyu no longer let her imagination run wild and worried about nothing. She carried the buns to the dining table.

After a while, Chu Jin and Chu Ziluo woke up and sat at the dining table..

Chapter 357: Meeting

She drank a mouthful of milk to moisten her throat.

Only when Chu Heng finished cleaning up did he start eating.

The breakfast was simple. It was a glass of milk, steamed buns, and pickles.

The dishes were simple and they ate quickly.

After eating, Chu Heng carried his bookcase and got into the carriage to go to school. Since he would be back at noon, there was no need to send lunch.

Immediately after, Chu Jin went out.

Chu Ziluo and Chu Qingxiang had agreed to go to the old residence to discuss the art of tea together.

Ye Muyu thought that Ziluo did not have many friends, so she encouraged her to go out more often.

In addition, Chu Qingxiang had been looking for Ziluo many times during this period. Chu Qingxiang was a smart person, so she was not afraid that her daughter would suffer. Moreover, Madam Liu was there.

Because she had been making pickled cabbages, it had been a long time since Madam Liu had gone out to work.

Even Madam Zhang only went out when she was cutting pigweed.

Usually, those village women would often look for her to talk, but now, they did not even have to talk. However, they also knew that it was because the third branch of the Chu family was selling pickled cabbages.

All of them were very envious.

Especially the sisters-in-law of Madam Zhang's maiden family, as well as the women who were close to her.

However, no one dared to have any ideas about the Chu family's pickled cabbage recipe after seeing what happened to the Cao family.

Seeing that the Chu family was getting richer and richer, many villagers could not sit still and tried to find work.

Many people had helped Chu Xing make the Zhuge Lock.

Some people helped him repair his house. Basically, people came whenever he asked for help.

It was much more comfortable than going out to the county to find a part-time job.

As a result, everyone in the village had been working hard during this period.

There were even some quick-witted juniors who imitated Chu Xing and drove the family's ox cart to distant places to sell pickled cabbages and root powder. They sold whatever was valuable.

Some even went into the river to catch fish and sell them.

The entire village was filled with enthusiasm to earn money.

After sending Chu Ziluo off, she asked Nanya with her.

Ye Muyu did not need to clean up the dishes. She went straight back to the east wing, took the sewing basket, and continued to make Chu Heng's pants.

She had planned to make some milk tea for the children.

However, to prevent Chu Heng from laughing at her again, she felt that it was necessary to make the clothes.

Actually, she was quite good at her handiwork.

However, she did not put in much effort. Now that she sat down and started making pants, her progress sped up.

Madam Hu finished cleaning up the kitchen.

Then, she carried the milk in the food box and sent it to the old residence.

Today, the milk was not used to make other food, so the portion was a little more. Ye Muyu thought that the young children in the clan were not in good health.

She asked Madam Hu to send it to the families with two or three-year-old children.

Of course, the old mansion also had milk. Madam Liu and Chu Zhiwen were old people, so drinking milk could also help them recover.

Since the two of them were in good health, Chu Heng did not need to be distracted.

Ye Muyu spent the entire morning making clothes.

By the time Chu Heng returned, Ye Muyu had already finished making the pants, leaving only the outer shirt.

The outer garment was a little complicated, especially the embroidery on it.

A silver-gray robe, which she found boring, was embroidered with Chu Heng's favorite plum blossom at the bottom.

Of course, the plum blossoms were more stunning, but the silver-gray robe with red plum blossoms was too high-profile, so she could only embroider silver plum blossoms.

Ye Muyu also embroidered plum blossoms on his sleeves, with a little red in the middle. It was very light and not eye-catching.

Thinking of this, Ye Muyu could not help but laugh. Chu Heng's clothes were always a darker in color, and he had never worn red clothes before. This little red plum was her gift to him..

Chapter 358: Visit

"Ah Yu, I'm back." When Chu Heng passed by the east wing room, he saw her doing needlework and became interested. He turned around and walked towards her.

Lu Chuan returned to the study with the bookcase.

"You're back so early?" Ye Muyu looked at the sky. It was only a quarter to nine.

"There's nothing much to do in school. I just wanted to exchange yesterday's exam questions, so I came back early."

"Are the pants done? So fast?" Chu Heng raised his eyebrows.

"It's not that fast," Ye Muyu smiled. "It has been two months."

When he heard his wife deliberately rebuke him and throw back the words he said yesterday, Chu Heng was not angry. Instead, he laughed.

Ye Muyu saw him smile and couldn't help but think to herself, 'How thick-skinned. He can still smile like this.'

However, she had indeed been lazy before, which was why she had not made any progress. Fortunately, Madam Liu did not come to ask. Otherwise, she would have lost all her face.

Ye Muyu did not know that Madam Liu was just worried about their relationship. She wanted to use the gift of clothes to let the two of them see each other more. As for feelings, they would develop after spending more time together.

Later, because Chu Heng had moved back home, Madam Liu naturally no longer stared at Ye Muyu making clothes.

"It's very nice. I like it very much."

Ye Muyu lowered her head to think about her own matters. When she looked up again, Chu Heng had even closed the windows and the door. He had even put on his pants.

"I'll try it on when you're done with the outerwear." Chu Heng changed out of his pants with satisfaction.

He changed his pants in front of with a natural expression and smooth movements. He did not feel embarrassed at all.

"Do you have the medical books?" he asked after changing his clothes.

“It’s in the study room. I put it back last night. I’ve checked it. It’s just an ordinary medical book.” Ye Muyu put away her complicated thoughts. Seeing that Chu Heng had started to talk about serious matters, she did not hold onto his previous bold and unconstrained attitude.

“Perhaps, Qi Sang has really made a mistake.” Ye Muyu sighed.

She really did not want to cause trouble, especially with Qi Sang.

“He’ll come sooner or later. Why don’t we invite him?” Chu Heng nodded.

Ye Muyu’s eyes flashed. So this was Chu Heng’s plan. However, it made sense. Why did she wait for Qi Sang to make a move? She had to strike first.

“I’ll go and instruct Madam Hu to prepare the tea leaves.”

“Yes, I’ll go to the study to get the medical book.”

Zhang Shu had already gone to Doctor Lu’s shop to invite Qi Sang.

“What?” Qi Sang raised his eyebrows when he learned of Zhang Shu’s intention.

“Is it the Ye Muyu who invited me, or Chu Heng?”

Zhang Shu was already wary of this doctor because he had bullied Ye Muyu yesterday. Now, he naturally straightened his chest and said confidently, “It’s the Master. ”

His words implied that Chu Heng knew what he did yesterday and that he should not bully Ye Muyu because she did not have anyone backing her.

Qi Sang did not pay much attention to Chu Heng.

“Alright.” He nodded casually and picked up the first aid kit. A faint smile appeared on his face. “I’ll go with you now.” Soon, Qi Sang arrived at the Chu family.

Chu Heng and Ye Muyu sat in the central room.

Zhang Shu brought him in.

Qi Sang’s first glance fell on Chu Heng. His eyes flickered slightly, and he followed up with a salute. “Scholar Chu, Lady Ye, I’m Qi Sang. Nice to meet you.

How have you been?”

Ye Muyu laughed when he heard this..

Chapter 359: Bitter Melon Tea

This person said that it was their first meeting, but he asked them how they had been doing.

So, Qi Sang wanted to remind Chu Heng that Ye Muyu was not meeting Qi Sang for the first time.

“Are you reminding me that you bullied my wife and daughter yesterday, Doctor Qi?” Chu Heng looked at him with his deep eyes.

“I believe that Physician Qi is here to apologize.”

Qi Sang was surprised by Chu Heng’s unyielding attitude. He had wanted to smear Ye Muyu’s reputation and make her suffer a little. However, it was not Ye Muyu who was the first to get angry. Instead, it was Chu Heng, Scholar Chu, who he thought was just a superficial person.

He had heard of Chu Heng's reputation when he came to the village.

His initial impression of this man was shattered after seeing him today. This man was quite bold.

"Aren't you afraid of making me angry?" Qi Sang could not help but ask. Toward men, he could just make them kneel down and apologize if he did not like them.

"Even if you're is angry, what can you do?" Chu Heng tapped his fingers on the table.

His voice was calm, without a hint of worry, let alone fear.

Qi Sang's eyes turned sharp. "Scholar Chu is indeed as courageous as the villagers say. If I said that if you speak up for Madam Ye today, I can make you lose the opportunity to take the imperial examination this year, would you still protect her?"

Hearing this, Ye Muyu's hands in her sleeves tightened slightly. However, her expression remained unchanged. "Doctor Qi, you have to sacrifice something in order to frame others. Why do you have to bring trouble to yourself because of us, passers-by whom you might never see again?"

"Oh? You want me to lose the chance to take the imperial examination?" Chu Heng's voice even carried a hint of joy.

Ye Muyu was not sure what he was thinking and looked at him worriedly.

She knew how important the imperial examination was to Chu Heng.

It was the best path for him.

If he could not take it, the blow would be huge.

Chu Heng gently nodded at Ye Muyu, telling her not to worry.

After saying this, he looked at Qi Sang again. "I'm just an ordinary scholar now. Perhaps I don't have much power. Why don't you give it a try, Physician Qi? I would like to know how you will make me lose this opportunity."

"It would have been even better if Physician Qi had told me in advance."

Qi Sang's expression darkened slightly because Chu Heng was not afraid of him at all. His eyes even carried a cold warning.

He was actually warned!

After suffering from Ye Muyu, Qi Sang reflected on himself. He was too impulsive and was framed instead.

"I think Physician Qi has already weighed the pros and cons," Chu Heng said as he lowered his gaze and took a sip of tea.

"Why don't you let me guess your relationship with Doctor Lu?"

Qi Sang's eyes narrowed. He tried his best to control his temper. He reached out to touch the teacup and instinctively took a sip. When a bitter taste entered his mouth, his expression changed slightly. He forced out a few words. "You guys are capable, huh!"

Not only did they point out his hidden identity, but they also used this bitter tea to make him suffer.

No wonder the villagers did not dare to offend this couple. With this ability, no one in the village could compare to them.

However, he had checked before he came. The two of them had never left Nanchang County. No, perhaps Chu Heng was more knowledgeable. Even so, where did he get the confidence?

While Qi Sang was thinking...

Ye Muyu smiled faintly. "Physician Qi, I see that you're usually quite hot-tempered. I've brought you some fresh bitter gourd tea. Please don't mind."

"I knew it was you." When Qi Sang heard this, he came back to his senses and gritted his teeth. This woman was indeed evil..

Chapter 360: Return

This bitter gourd tea was clearly a deliberate revenge.

"It seems like you like it, Doctor Qi," smiled faintly.

"Hmph, I like it very much." Qi Sang gritted his teeth, wishing he could chop Ye Muyu into pieces.

He snorted arrogantly. "Since you already know that I'm a disciple of the Lu family, then return the medical book of the Lu family and we'll be even."

"Even?" Chu Heng finally spoke up slowly. He was a little annoyed that his wife had teased Qi Sang and deliberately made him drink bitter gourd tea.

In the past, Ah Yu had never thought of teasing anyone.

Even if she did not like someone in the village, she would let the other party suffer directly and never take it to heart.

On the other hand, this newcomer, Qi Sang... As expected, he should not stay here for too long.

"When Doctor Lu gave this medical book to my wife, he did not say that we should return the medical book when the disciples of the Lu family came."

“Why don’t we wait until I invite Doctor Lu back and discuss where to go with the medical book? At the same time, let the Lu family know about the existence of this medical book?” On the surface, Chu Heng said that he wanted to discuss, but he had no intention of backing down in secret. His words were clearly threatening others.

Ye Muyu looked at him in surprise.

Chu Heng reached out and grabbed her gently, his fingers drawing circles on her palm.

Ye Muyu’s fingers trembled, and her heart was filled with surprise. Chu Heng had never been like this before. Was he in a bad mood today?

She reflected on it belatedly.

Just as she was thinking, Qi Sang’s furious voice sounded.

“What did you say? Does Scholar Chu want to offend my Lu family?” Qi Sang was really angry. Having his identity exposed was enough to raise his guard. Now, the other party had even pointed out his purpose for coming. He even knew what he was guarding against.

He could not help but suspect that this scholar from a small county who did not show his talent was really just an ordinary scholar.

“If Young Master Lu can represent the Lu family, that would be great.” Chu Heng sighed, not for Qi Sang, but for the elders of the Lu family.

In his previous life, he had even been treated by the other party.

“What the hell are you doing?” Seeing Chu Heng’s changing attitude, Qi Sang felt very complicated.

He almost suspected that the other party had a powerful background. It was not easy for him to leave the family and find an identity to come to the place where his uncle used to go. Now, he had not even seen the legendary family medical book. He had already been angered twice.

First, he was slandered by that woman, Madam Ye, in front of the villagers. He was the one who took the initiative to provoke her, so he just considered himself unlucky.

However, this time, it was clearly Chu Heng and Madam Ye who invited him over!

Was this how these two treated their guests?

Chu Heng even exposed his identity.

The more Qi Sang thought about it, the more he felt that Chu Heng was not simple.

He was a little afraid and did not want to delay any longer. He would go back and investigate Chu Heng again.

“We can give you this medical book. Take it and go back to the Lu family. You don’t have to stay in the village anymore. I’m annoyed just looking at you.” Chu Heng glanced at him indifferently, but his words were very infuriating.

Qi Sang was still in disbelief. “What did you say?”

Annoyed by just looking at him?

It had been a long time since someone had despised him so much. Qi Sang was about to get angry again.

Ye Muyu also felt that there was something wrong with Qi Sang and did not want to spend more time with him.

Chu Heng's mood improved after saying this, and even the corners of his mouth curled up into a smile. Did he just want to chase Qi Sang away?

"The medical book is here. Take it. This is just an ordinary medical book to me.

I've already copied one before this. It can be considered as a promise to Doctor Lu.."
