Chapter 521: So, He Still Choices to Leave...

After asking for a while, she saw that Chu Heng did not answer and was staring at her without blinking. Ye Muyu was a little confused and waved her hand in front of him to wake him up.

Chu Heng came back to his senses. Because of his stubborn thoughts, his eyes were a little dark. He stared at Ye Muyu's lips for a while before slowly saying, "He's already back. He came back with me. He went home first. We'll go to mother-in-law's house tomorrow."

"How did you find him? He must have suffered a lot these years, right?" Ye Muyu could not help but sigh.

Ordinary people joined the army because of corvee. They would only be promoted if they performed well on the battlefield. Most of these country bumpkins who only knew how to carry hoes lost their lives the most.

"Your big brother has already become a Yihui Commandant, a seventh rank official." Chu Heng's words shocked her.

Ye Muyu was shocked. "Seventh rank?"

She was a little surprised. The county magistrate was only at the eighth rank. In fact, Ye Hao's official position was half a rank higher than the county magistrate. In Great Chu, civil officials and military officers were in a state of mutual prosperity, so the status of military officers was not lower than that of civil officials. It was only based on official positions and connections.

Ye Hao was just a small country bumpkin, but he managed to rise to the seventh rank in six years. Ye Muyu could easily imagine how difficult it was. Compared to the civil service exam, the military officer exam was a meritorious service that was earned with his life.

"Not bad. Didn't you say before that you would give me time to consider whether or not we should get a divorce?" Chu Heng looked at her fixedly and suddenly asked.

“Now that the time is up, I’ve already thought about it, but I want to tell you the answer now.”

Ye Muyu did not expect Chu Heng to suddenly bring this up. Although she remembered it, she already vaguely knew Chu Heng’s answer, so she did not ask.

“I know. You’re different from before. You’re the Ah Yu that I know, not the previous Madam Ye,” Chu Heng said word by word.

“Ye Hao has always had a good relationship with you. In addition, you have taken care of his wife and children all these years. With this kindness, he will treat you very well. Even if you divorce me...” At this point, Chu Heng’s voice was a little hoarse, and his eyes were red. “Even if you divorce me, he will definitely take good care of you. He will definitely not let anyone bully you.”

Ye Muyu’s mind went blank as she watched Chu Heng open and close his eyes.

For some reason, she felt like crying. Her mind was filled with the days she had spent in ancient times.

She had thought that she would not be able to adapt to it, and even if she did, she would be lonely. After all, it was a completely unfamiliar environment.

However, because of Chu Heng, Ziluo, and Lil’ Jin, she did not have the time to experience this loneliness and slowly integrated into the life of this dynasty.

In the past, she had not noticed this.

However, after hearing what Chu Heng said, she thought about how her relationship with them might gradually drift apart in the future and that they would no longer be a family. Her body trembled slightly. She asked in a hoarse voice, "This... Is this your choice?"

It turned out that he still chose to leave...

Ye Muyu did not know that she could be so sad. Her eyes were so sore that she wanted to cry, but she didn't dare to say anything to make him stay, because this was her promise to him.

Yes, she was not the previous Madam Ye at all, so she was not Chu Heng's wife.

It was already very kind of him not to care about her, a lonely ghost, occupying the body of Madam Ye. He waited for her brother, Ye Hao, to come back and let her have someone to rely on before saying this..

It could be seen that he was already very considerate of her.

When Chu Heng heard this, he felt a dull pain in his heart. It was as if someone was gouging out his heart. His lips turned pale, but he still spoke in a trembling voice. "I know you don't like me."

"Even if I'm your husband, you're only staying because of the two children."

Ye Muyu raised her head abruptly. There was a voice in her heart that was saying "no", but for some reason, her throat seemed to be blocked by something, and she could not say a word.

Looking at Chu Heng, whose eyes were bloodshot and filled with sorrow, her heart ached slightly. This kind of heartache and desire to comfort him was so unfamiliar that Ye Muyu's eyes were a little confused.

"I hope that you will follow your heart and make a choice. I won't force you to stay. As long as you are happy, I will agree to any choice you make." Chu Heng gritted his teeth and said these words. He had already used up all his strength. Suddenly, his body tilted and he coughed twice before falling into her arms.

"Chu Heng?" Ye Muyu was shocked. She grabbed his shoulder. Her confused eyes became clearer. She asked worriedly, "Chu Heng, how are you?"

"Cough, cough." Chu Heng coughed lightly, and his warm breath sprayed on her neck. Ye Muyu felt her entire skin tremble. Her hand that was holding his arm tightened slightly, and her heart unconsciously became anxious. "Are you okay? Did you catch a cold?"

"I'm fine." After a while, Chu Heng finally spoke. He hugged her tightly with both arms. This time, he used more strength than ever. He stroked Ye Muyu's hair with one hand. His eyes were full of longing. Hidden in the depths of his eyes was a strong reluctance to part. It was as if sadness was about to attack his entire body from the bottom of his eyes.

Ye Muyu had not come back to her senses after that topic.

However, she couldn't help but worry about him. "That's impossible. Let me take a look. You must have caught a cold. You're going to take the exam. What should you do if you catch a cold? Let me see..."

Chu Heng hugged her even tighter. His voice was full of pleading. "Ah Yu, let me hug you for a while, okay?"

"But your body..." Ye Muyu was extremely worried.

“If it’s a cold, how can it be cured like this?” Ye Muyu’s voice was low, but for some reason, she did not want to push him away this time. She lowered her eyes slightly, and a wave of fatigue swept over her, making her not want to resist and let him hug her.

The two of them quietly hugged each other for some time.

Chu Heng gently let go of her. His gaze fell on Ye Muyu’s face, but he saw that the girl’s eyes were tightly shut and her breathing was light. She had actually fallen asleep.

Chu Heng’s eyes were filled with warmth. Just looking at her quietly was enough to satisfy him.

He looked at Ye Muyu silently for a while, then his gaze fell on Ye Muyu’s lips.

Chu Heng’s heart was suddenly filled with a desire to kiss her and feel her breath. He even wished that he could rub her entire body into his so that they could never be separated.

Perhaps it was because the girl had not woken up for a long time, but Chu Heng’s restrained heart began to beat violently. He suddenly became bolder.

He leaned over and gently kissed Ye Muyu’s soft lips. The warm touch made his body tremble. The trembling from the depths of his soul spread from his spine to his entire body..

Chapter 523: Warm Her Feet

If he did not have the chance to kiss her before, he could still restrain himself. However, Chu Heng's eyes were bloodshot, and his self-control was on the verge of collapse. Like a thief, he was lovingly sucking on her gently.

His breathing gradually became heavier.

He held Ye Muyu's waist with one hand and wanted to hold her head with the other.

However, at that moment, he felt the burning skin under his palm. He seemed to have thought of something and suddenly reacted. He released his lips and took out his palm to touch Ye Muyu's forehead.

As expected, it was burning.

"Ah Yu." Chu Heng anxiously called out to her, worried that she would be uncomfortable, but he did not dare to shake her hard. He only gently held her face, wanting her to wake up.

"Ah Yu, wake up.

Ye Muyu woke up in a daze and felt a stinging pain on her lips. She did not think much about it and only looked at Chu Heng in front of her. She suddenly remembered what happened before she fell asleep. The topic of divorce made her move a little carefully, afraid that she had no right to care about him. "Did you catch a cold? I'll get Maddam Hu to call a doctor."

Seeing Ye Muyu worrying about him as soon as she woke up, Chu Heng was both happy and worried.

He was happy because he might be in Ye Muyu's heart, but he was worried about her health.

Chu Heng put Ye Muyu's safety first. He quickly reached out and hugged her. "Ah Yu, I'm fine. My throat is just a little uncomfortable. I'll be fine after drinking some ginger soup, but you're having a fever."

“What? I caught a cold too?” Ye Muyu was a little confused. She remembered that the wind had been blowing all night last night. She was worried about Chu Heng, so she did not pay much attention to it. She lifted the blanket in the middle of the night and went out to wait for him many times in the morning.

She did feel a little uncomfortable. So she had caught a cold. Ye Muyu suddenly realized and touched her forehead. She felt a little hot, but it was not serious. She shook her head to wake herself up. She looked at Chu Heng and said, “I’m fine. I’ll be fine after eating and resting for a while.”

“But you should drink the ginger soup and let the doctor take a look at you.”

As Ye Muyu spoke, she was about to push open the door and call for Madam Hu to bring the ginger soup to Chu Heng.

Chu Heng quickly walked to her side and carried her by the waist. Ye Muyu cried out in surprise and subconsciously hugged his neck.

“You’re the one who caught a cold now. Be good and don’t worry about these chores. I’ll send you back to your room to rest.”

Without waiting for Ye Muyu’s reply, Chu Heng had already carried her out of the study with a frown and quickly entered the east wing.

He bent down to put Ye Muyu on the bed and personally took off her shoes.

Feeling her cold feet, he frowned even more. He pulled off her socks and used his large hands to warm her up.

Ye Muyu’s face instantly turned hot. She subconsciously tried to pull her leg away, but she could not break free. Chu Heng obviously used a lot of strength to stop her from struggling.

“Ah Yu, don’t mess around. Be good. I’ll warm them up for you. It’ll be fine in a while.” Chu Heng’s expression was very serious. His handsome face was well-defined, and his lips were tightly pursed at this moment. He looked as serious as if he was facing a great enemy.

She had seen this appearance when she had just transmigrated. At that time, Chu Heng still hated her.

Ye Muyu subconsciously bit her lip. She did not know if it was because she had caught a cold, but she felt a little sad when she thought about how they would become strangers and have nothing to do with each other in the future.

“Ouch...” Ye Muyu groaned and touched her lips. For some reason, her lips hurt, as if they were swollen..

Chapter 524: Unknowingly Relying on Him

Chu Heng heard her soft voice and quickly looked up. He grabbed her wrist and asked nervously, “What’s wrong?”

“No... It’s fine...” Ye Muyu could not bring herself to say that her mouth was swollen.

However, Chu Heng had already noticed it. He looked at her red lips. They were slightly swollen, but they were even more alluring. She unconsciously curled her lips up as if she was begging him for a kiss...

His eyes instantly darkened, and at the same time, he felt a little guilty. If Ah Yu knew what he had just done, would she be angry?

Chu Heng was very uncertain, so he glanced at her from time to time.

Ye Muyu watched as he carefully warmed her feet and tucked them under the blanket. He helped her lie down and touched her face. “I’ll bring the ginger soup in first. The doctor will be here soon.”

Ye Muyu nodded and watched him leave.

For some reason, Ye Muyu was feeling a little down. She slowly turned around, her back facing the door.

Her mind was filled with Chu Heng's words about divorce...

She did not care, right? Why was she so sad now?

In fact, she had never been very close to her parents since she was young. When she was young, her parents were only at home for less than three days a

As an only child, although she knew that her parents had their own relationships outside, she had never cared about it because she knew that her parents had raised her up and did not quarrel in front of her. At most, they did not give her love.

She had no right to be angry at them. Compared to most children, she was already considered lucky.

At least she had never suffered.

When she graduated and went to work, everything developed in an orderly manner without any ups and downs.

After living for more than twenty years, independence had been carved into her bones. She had never thought of relying on others because no one was obligated to take care of her.

However, Chu Heng was different. Ever since she had transmigrated into this body, everyone could see how well Chu Heng had treated her.

Whenever she needed help, Chu Heng never declined.

For example, now, she would feel so uncomfortable if she were to be completely separated from Chu Heng in the future.

She had never thought that he would care about her like this.

Ye Muyu thought that when she was not paying attention, Chu Heng had unknowingly entered her safe zone and became a very important person in her heart.

However, this very important person was about to leave...

Ye Muyu reached out and gently wiped the tears from the corner of her eyes. She felt that she should not force it. Chu Heng already treated her good enough. Even if she really divorced him now, as he said, she definitely would not have to worry about being bullied.

He had already considered this for her, so what reason did she have to stop Chu Heng from making his own choice?

“Ah Yu, the ginger soup is here...” At this moment, the door was suddenly pushed open. Chu Heng came in with a bowl of ginger soup. His body was still slightly cold. He stood there for a while before striding in.

Ye Muyu quickly wiped her eyes and sat up.

“Ah Yu, don’t move. I’ll feed you.” Chu Heng sat down by the bed, blew on the ginger soup gently, and fed it to her with a spoon.

Ye Muyu lowered her eyes slightly, not wanting him to notice that she had cried.

“Thank you,” Ye Muyu said gently.

“Geez, I am your husband. Why are you thanking me?” Chu Heng’s voice was gentle and his movements were even gentler..

Chapter 525: Force Her

Ye Muyu’s heart skipped a beat. She lowered her eyes and pursed her lips. “I’m not a child. I’m a mother now.”

“In my heart, you are a child.” Chu Heng’s tone was firm and he spoke from the bottom of his heart. His gaze was fixed on Ye Muyu.

He wanted to hug her, but he was afraid that he would scare her.

Especially now that he had to force her to admit her true feelings.

Ye Muyu stopped talking and slowly finished the bowl of ginger soup. Perhaps it was because she had caught a cold, but she had no appetite at all. She pushed the bowl he was holding and said softly, “I don’t want to eat lunch. I want to rest for a while.”

Chu Heng frowned. “No, you have to eat at least a little. Otherwise, you won’t have the strength to recover.”

“I’ve already asked Madam Hu to make some of your favorite soup. We were lucky this time and bought some seafood. There’s a kind of seaweed that can be used to make soup.”

“Don’t worry, it won’t be too oily. I’ll only drip two or three drops.” Chu Heng guessed that Ye Muyu probably had no appetite. People who caught a cold were all like this. He did not find it strange. Instead, he thought of ways to make Ah

Yu feel better.

“No need...” Before Ye Muyu could finish speaking, Chu Heng covered her mouth with his hand. His eyes were full of disapproval. “No, Ah Yu, you have to be obedient. Otherwise, how are you going to see your brother tomorrow?”

Ye Muyu’s voice went hoarse. She looked up at him and could not help but ask in her heart, ‘Do you really want to divorce me?’

However, she could not ask out loud. She had always been sensible, so she could not take that step from the bottom of her heart. How could she make things difficult for Chu Heng?

She lowered her eyes again. “I understand. I’ll have a good meal. Tomorrow...”

“When I see Big Brother tomorrow, I will tell him about the divorce.”

Chu Heng held the bowl of ginger soup and trembled slightly. He almost knocked over the bowl. It was only with the last bit of rationality that he controlled himself and did not say that he would never let her go.

“I’ll get you lunch.” Chu Heng fled in panic. He staggered out of the door and almost fell to the ground.

Ye Muyu did not dare to look at him, so she did not notice.

After confirming that there was only one person left in the room, she leaned against the headboard dejectedly and tugged at the clothes in front of her, trying hard to suppress the reluctance in her heart.

She kept persuading herself that Chu Heng wanted to separate because he had met the girl he liked. She could not delay him, nor did she have the right to delay him.

He had treated her well, so she had to repay him.

The only thing she could do for him now was to agree to his divorce request. Even if she was reluctant, she had to agree.

She believed that when she was far away from him in the future, she would be able to forget him and return to the way things were in the past. She would live a good life peacefully. Therefore, she could endure all the sudden reluctance, grievances, and sadness that appeared now. She had to endure them all. She could not even let Chu Heng detect it at all.

It was just two children...

The thousand taels of silver that Chu Heng had given her, as well as the title deed, were all placed in a small box by her. She then placed the money box in Chu Heng's clothes box.

As for the remaining silver, 110 taels were from Lil' Jin selling Zhuge Locks. Ye Muyu put it into a separate money bag. She did not have much left, only 200 taels. All of it came from selling honey grapefruit tea and the bookstore.

She could give each child 100 taels..

Chapter 526: Restraining Herself

With Chu Heng's character, the two children would not suffer. Even if they did, she could secretly give the two children money to ensure that they lived well.

As soon as she put the money box back into the clothes box, Ye Muyu heard footsteps. She hurriedly stuffed the two money bags under her pillow.

“Ah Yu, let me feed you lunch.” The gentleness in Chu Heng’s eyes seemed to be overflowing. He slowly sat down beside Ye Muyu, scooped a spoonful, and gently blew until it was just right for Ye Muyu to eat before feeding it.

“I can do it myself...” Ye Muyu said.

Being coaxed like a child for the first time, Ye Muyu’s ears instantly turned red. Her cheeks, which were already red from the high fever, also slowly turned red.

“You... I...’

Ye Muyu felt her whole body burning up, especially when Chu Heng looked at her with a burning gaze. It was like a fire that wanted to ignite her whole body.

“Ah Yu, be good. Open your mouth and eat it.” Chu Heng’s voice suddenly became low and hoarse. Before Ye Muyu could react, he had already placed the spoon by her mouth.

Ye Muyu’s face flushed red. It would be little too much to not eat the food that was about to reach her mouth.

She suddenly closed her eyes and slowly accepted Chu Heng’s feeding.

Perhaps because Ye Muyu chose to cooperate, Chu Heng’s movements became gentler. However, his gaze was still fixed on Ye Muyu’s face.

Ye Muyu closed her eyes, causing Chu Heng’s gaze to become even more unrestrained as if he could not get tired of looking at her.

Chu Heng felt his heart soften just by looking at her. He could not help but ask, "Ah Yu, what kind of man would you like?"

Ye Muyu's eyelashes trembled, but she did not say anything.

Although Chu Heng was disappointed, he was not surprised. He asked calmly, "Ah Yu, how tall do you prefer a man to be?"

"I don't know..." Ye Muyu opened her eyes and looked at him. She didn't know what this man wanted to do.

"Am I tall enough?" Chu Heng continued to feed her as if he had not noticed her gaze.

Ye Muyu was speechless.

Although she had no experience in relationships, she instinctively went against

Chu Heng's expectations. "No."

Chu Heng's eyes were filled with pain. He did not expect Ah Yu to reply like this. He seemed to have suffered a heavy blow. What should he do if he was so sad?

"Then whose height are you satisfied with?" Chu Heng asked stubbornly. A dark light flashed in his eyes that he did not even notice. He wished he could cut the person Ah Yu liked into a thousand pieces and throw her as far away as possible, never to appear in front of Ah Yu again!

Ye Muyu did not answer.

Chu Heng closed his eyes and restrained the jealousy that was about to overflow from his eyes. He tried his best to restrain his urge to pounce on Ah

“What about his appearance?”

“Anything is fine.”

“Is someone like me okay?” Chu Heng was delighted.

Ye Muyu was speechless. “... No.”

Chu Heng was speechless.

“What about his identity? Do you want him to know how to read or not?”

“Hmm... Do you want him to know how to cook?”

“If he’ll wash your feet, wash your clothes, and teach you how to read. Will you like him

No matter what Chu Heng said, Ye Muyu did not answer him and just ate her lunch quietly.

Even so, she only ate half a bowl and stopped eating..

Chapter 527: Confession

Chu Heng persuaded her to eat a few more mouthfuls, but Ye Muyu really did not want to eat anymore, so he had no choice but to give up.

“I’m fine. Go have your lunch.” Ye Muyu saw him sitting on the bed and not leaving. Madam Hu’s voice could already be heard from outside. Ye Muyu thought that Chu Heng did not even have time to study, so how could he waste time on her? She hurriedly chased him away.

She did not know why, but Chu Heng, who had never cared that much about her, looked at her differently this time. It was even more... It was invasive.

Realizing this, Ye Muyu was shocked.

“You...”

Chu Heng thought that she was going to chase him away, so he quickly picked up the spoon and slowly ate the remaining soup in the bowl.

“This is my leftovers...” Ye Muyu was shocked. She even ignored the strange feeling in her head and quickly reminded him.

However, Chu Heng did not seem to care at all. “We can’t waste food. If you can’t finish it, I’ll help you finish it.”

As he said that, he licked the spoon in front of Ye Muyu. His action was very natural, but Ye Muyu could sense the ambiguous atmosphere.

Her face instantly turned red.

Because of the cold, her head was a little dizzy. At this moment, she felt that the person in front of her was a little blurry. Vaguely, she seemed to see the smile on Chu Heng’s lips.

Ye Muyu had never reacted so quickly. She turned around and lay down with her back facing Chu Heng. “I’m going to rest. You can go out now,” she said in a low voice.

“Cough, cough...” Chu Heng did not reply. Instead, he coughed a few times.

Although he restrained himself, Ye Muyu still heard him.

She tightened her grip on the hem of her clothes and furrowed her brows. Thinking about Chu Heng’s exam, she did not want to ruin his path to fame. To a man, this was a way to change his fate.

She already owed him enough.

“You can stay,” she said softly. “But remember to take some medicine.”

“Alright... I knew you wouldn’t leave me alone, Ah Yu. We’ve been together for so long.” Chu Heng’s voice was extremely sentimental and gentle.

He did not care whether Ye Muyu listened or not, he just said slowly. “When you first came, I knew you were different from the previous Madam Ye.”

“I just thought that Madam Ye had thought it through, but I felt that it was hard to change a person’s nature, so I asked Ah Xing to send me some news about you in two or three days.”

Ye Muyu was shocked. She did not know what Chu Heng meant by saying these words. The most important thing was that he had noticed the difference between the two from the beginning.

However, thinking about Chu Heng’s personality, it would be strange if he did not notice.

She was relieved.

She wanted to hear what Chu Heng had to say.

However, even she did not realize that she had become nervous.

Chu Heng's gaze fell on Ye Muyu. He had already placed the bowl and chopsticks on the table by the window.

He leaned against the bed and looked at Ye Muyu gently. There was a hint of stubbornness in his eyes.

He reached out his fingers and gently wrapped a strand of Ye Muyu's hair around his fingers. "Then, through Ah Xing's letter, I learned everything about you in the village."

"First, it was how you got along well with my mother..."

Chapter 528: Past Life

"I'm afraid you don't know that the rationality and calmness you reveal will never appear in Madam Ye."

"Then there was how you treated my mother-in-law."

"I expected you to give her all the valuables in the house as usual."

"Actually, I'm not angry that Madam Ye helped her family, but the two children are innocent." Chu Heng lowered his eyes. In his previous life, when he was this age, he had wholeheartedly wanted to take the imperial examinations. His two children were left to Madam Ye and his mother to take care of.

In addition, Ziluo was very sensible and never expressed herself in front of him.

It was not until later, when he went to Jing City, that he found out that Ziluo had never been liked by Madam Ye.

At that time, the last bit of responsibility he had for Madam Ye as a husband was also worn away. After that, he was like a stranger to Madam Ye. Later on, he devoted himself to the officialdom and did not care about the matters at home.

The last time he saw Madam Ye was when she passed away due to illness. It had been twenty years since then.

In other words, it had been twenty years since he had truly gotten along with Madam Ye.

Later on, after Madam Ye passed away, he never married again in his life. There was no woman by his side either. He was famous in the imperial court and even in Jing City for his pure heart and few desires.

He had lived like this for his entire life. He had never thought that he would fall for a woman because he had seen too many women in his previous life. None of them could make him want to look at them again.

After that, he died of old age, closed his eyes, and opened them again. He realized that he had returned to his youth. Although he did not believe in ghosts and gods, he was not a paranoid person.

After confirming it, he could continue to live his life in peace.

It was not until he met the Madam Ye whose personality had changed!

To be precise, he met Ye Muyu who had become the Madam Ye.

His gaze could not help but fall on her, wanting to dig out her secrets. Even the curiosity hidden in the depths of his heart made him involuntarily pay more attention to her.

Thinking of this, Chu Heng's heart was filled with joy. He was not an ignorant brat. On the contrary, after experiencing a lifetime, he had long realized that his feelings for Ah Yu were different.

Ye Muyu did not hear Chu Heng's reply for a long time and could not help but turn around to look at him.

Who knew that when she looked, she would meet Chu Heng's gentle and drowning gaze?

She opened her mouth but did not know what to say. She also felt embarrassed that she had been caught.

Chu Heng, however, did not seem to notice her awkward expression. He leaned over worriedly and reached out to gently touch her forehead. "Where are you feeling unwell?"

"No, no." Ye Muyu stuttered as she lowered her eyes, her eyes avoiding his awkwardly.

"Are you sure? Let me see." Chu Heng said as he pulled Ye Muyu into his arms.

Ye Muyu was shocked. Before she could scream, he put her on his lap. The other party was too unexpected. Ye Muyu was not prepared. After sitting down, she instinctively hugged his neck to stabilize her body.

When she realized the situation she was in, she tried her best to control her nervousness and shyness. The skin below her neck was red. She tried her best to keep her voice steady. "Let go of me."

As she spoke, she struggled gently.

How could Chu Heng let go of such a good opportunity?

She tightened her grip, but she looked worried. "Ah Yu, don't move. I... Don't fall. I just want to see if you're feeling uncomfortable anywhere." "No, I'm not feeling unwell anywhere," Ye Muyu quickly said..

Chapter 529: Did a Stupid Thing

Chu Heng's face was full of disbelief. His voice was deep as he frowned. "Impossible. You were clearly feeling a little uncomfortable just now. Look, your face is red."

As he spoke, he got closer and closer.

Ye Muyu's nose was filled with his scent. Seeing his handsome face getting closer and closer, she suddenly closed her eyes tightly and said rationally, "Didn't you say that you wanted to leave me alone?"

Chu Heng was stunned for a moment and did not say anything. Only his deep eyes were filled with emotions. It was obvious that he was trying hard to restrain himself.

In the past, he had always wanted to take it slow. Anyway, Ah Yu was already married to him and had two children.

She would eventually fall in love with him. At the very least, he did not have to worry about her leaving him. He could wait patiently.

However, after he returned, he did something stupid to separate from Madam

He wanted to find Ye Hao. He was well aware of Ye Hao's future achievements and knew that this person must have an official position now.

Once Ye Hao came back, with Madam Ye's personality, she would definitely be willing to divorce.

He had already calculated that Madam Ye would also be able to live a good life after the divorce.

However, when he slowly confirmed that Madam Ye was not the Madam Ye he knew, but Ah Yu, another woman, Ye Hao had already received his letter.

Actually, he could have stopped the other party from coming back.

Chu Heng found that Ye Hao had lost his memory at this time, it was not difficult for him to stop the other party from finding out his true identity.

However, in this way, Ye Hao would develop in the same way as in his previous life. He would be involved with other women and even fall out with the Ye family. This was why Madam Ye was so angry in his previous life and was unwilling to divorce him.

Without him, Madam Ye would not be able to survive. The rest of the Ye family would also have a difficult time.

He had never thought about how miserable Madam Ye would be without help. At that time, he was not even willing to enter the backyard, so how could he care about his wife-in-name's feelings?

However, when he thought about how Ah Yu would be ridiculed by the rich ladies in Jing City because she did not have a family to rely on, he could not tolerate it at all. There was even a hint of coldness in his eyes.

Although he would do his best to protect Ah Yu and not give outsiders a chance to take advantage of her.

However, rumors were like flies. Since Ye Hao's existence could give Ah Yu confidence, he naturally could not interfere because of his own selfishness.

Therefore, he allowed the other party to investigate his background and help him come back.

However, this made him feel even more uneasy.

Uneasiness... When Ye Hao came back, Ye Muyu would choose to separate from him. These days, Ye Muyu had always been very clear about him and was very rational. Because there was no love, she could be rational and calm...

Every time he thought of this, Chu Heng found that his rationality was broken. He was not sure what he would do if Ye Muyu really insisted on separating from him.

Taking a deep breath, Chu Heng slowly opened his tightly shut eyes and regained his composure. “Ah Yu, I didn’t touch you. You can’t accuse me.”

“Look, I just wanted to check on your cold. You know that you’re not in good health.”

Ye Muyu looked at Chu Heng’s clear eyes. There was no other emotion in them. They were extremely clean. She instantly felt embarrassed. She inexplicably felt that her words just now seemed to be a little too confident.

If Chu Heng really wanted to touch her, he would have done it long ago. There was no need to endure it.

Besides, they were about to get a divorce now... Why would Chu Heng touch her? He was probably really worried about her physical condition. After all, Chu Heng was a very loyal person..

Chapter 530: Asking

Ye Muyu was really embarrassed and even hid the ripple in her heart. She was a person who did not easily get emotional, so she naturally would not pay much attention to that trace of strangeness. In order to resolve the awkwardness, she analyzed the situation and chose to sit in Chu Heng’s arms obediently, allowing his palm to touch her forehead.

After Chu Heng checked, she asked, “How is it? I said I’m fine.”

“Yes, it doesn’t feel very hot. We’ll take a look when the doctor comes later.”

“Can I go down now?” When Ye Muyu said this, her eyes were very calm. Only the flushed skin under her clothes revealed her true emotions.

Disappointment flashed across Chu Heng’s eyes, but he did not want to let go. This was a rare opportunity, and he felt satisfied just by hugging Ah Yu.

However, when Ye Muyu’s clean eyes looked at him, he instantly felt a little guilty. He was worried that the other party would notice his little trick.

Ye Muyu’s worried heart finally relaxed. She quickly sat on the bed.

Chu Heng noticed her actions and his eyes darkened. He could not help but ask the question that he had asked countless times in his heart, “Ah Yu, how do you feel about me?”

“Why do you ask?” Ye Muyu lowered her head and touched the patterns on the thin blanket. Because of his question, her heart was in a mess.

“Because Ah Yu is the most important person in my life.” Chu Heng reached out and stroked her hair.

Chu Heng looked into her eyes and could not help but want to hug her and give her a fierce kiss, but he kept telling himself that he could not. He could not scare her, but he had to let her see his heart clearly.

“So, I also hope that in Ah Yu’s heart, I can also be that very important person.”

“The most important... person?” Ye Muyu was really confused now. Chu Heng was going to divorce her, so why did he feel that she was important to him?

Even if she did not get involved in relationships, she knew that these words should not be said easily.

“What about Ziluo and Lilt Jin? Are they important to you?”

Ye Muyu asked nervously. Seeing Chu Heng like this, her mind was filled with thoughts of Chu Heng getting married in the future. What if he did not treat the two children well?

She had already experienced this kind of thing from her parents in her previous life.

“Not as important as you.” Chu Heng grabbed her shoulders with both hands and looked at her with a serious expression. His eyes were full of restrained affection.

Ye Muyu was worried about the two children, so she frowned and did not think about that at all.

Hearing this answer, she was instantly enraged. She pushed Chu Heng away, her eyes filled with anger. She restrained her voice and asked him, “Ziluo and Li’ Jin are your children. How can you ignore them?!”

“Hmm...?” Chu Heng was puzzled. He did not understand why Ye Muyu was suddenly angry. He quickly reached out and grabbed her hand. “Ah Yu, don’t hurt your hand even if you’re angry. Let’s talk about it slowly.”

“Are you a man who would abandon a child for a woman?” Ye Muyu looked at him disapprovingly.

“No.” Chu Heng did not even think about it, directly shaking his head and denying this.

What a joke. In his heart, the only person who could spend the rest of his life with him was Ye Muyu, his wife. Therefore, the most important thing was to protect Ye Muyu. However, his children and family were also his responsibilities.. How could he abandon his children for another woman?
