

PEERLESS DIVINE DOCTOR

Chapter 2 Sister Flowers_1

No wonder everyone was shocked.

Seeing such a beautiful woman appear here was already unbelievable, but a beautiful woman kneeling? That simply overturned everyone's understanding!

The beautiful woman's sister, Liu Xiner, was staring dumbfounded at the scene, unable to react for a moment.

"Sis!"

Ye Luo, upon seeing the newcomer, immediately showed surprise, "Sis, what are you doing? Get up quickly. Men kneel on gold, women kneel on men, by kneeling, you're selling a man away!"

"Pfft! What kind of twisted logic is that?"

Liu Shiyun's laughter painted the carriage with a hue of joyous pink. At that moment, her beauty shone so brilliantly, captivating everyone's gaze.

Sister is actually laughing... Liu Xiner's lips part slightly, her pretty face full of disbelief. She couldn't believe that all of this was real!

But it was true...

"I am not spouting twisted logic. Anyway, I won't allow Sis to kneel to anyone so casually!" Ye Luo said, pulling on Liu Shiyun's hands with a rather unreasonable tone.

Liu Shiyun's smile grew even wider, far from being upset.

"Sis owes you her life. Whatever you say, Sis will just do," Liu Shiyun calmly said, looking at the figure before her as if to deeply imprint him in her heart.

Initially, she was suffering from a terminal illness and wanted to travel in her last days. While passing through a remote town, she was harassed by a thug and was luckily saved in time by the passing Ye Luo. That's how Liu Shiyun came out unscathed.

Thus, the two of them traveled together, and Ye Luo took care of her when she was gravely ill.

When she thought she was about to die, this brother, who always called himself the "Divine Doctor," miraculously produced a pill and claimed that taking it would restore her to full health.

Such a claim would be hard for any sensible person to believe.

Liu Shiyun was no exception.

But to avoid hurting her "brother's" feelings, she chose to believe him and even left her brother a bank card with a balance of 100,000 yuan, but he only wanted cash.

With no other choice, Liu Shiyun gave him the only bit of cash she had left, which was a little over thirty yuan.

After taking the pill, she fell into a deep sleep.

When she awoke, Ye Luo was no longer by her side. Yet, she suddenly felt an unprecedented lightness as if she had suddenly exchanged her body for a new one!

Then she went to the hospital for a checkup.

And the result came back as...

Everything normal!

Yes!

Everything normal!

The incurable disease diagnosed by multiple hospitals had mysteriously vanished!

"Sis, who is he?" Liu Xiner's voice interrupted Liu Shiyun's reverie.

"Little bro, let me introduce you." After regaining her composure, Liu Shiyun tugged on Liu Xiner and said, "She's my sister, Liu Xiner."

Then she introduced him to her sister: "Xin'er, this is Divine Doctor Ye Luo, whom I've often mentioned to you, and also the brother I've recognized."

"Sis, it's the 'Peerless Divine Doctor,'" Ye Luo interjected with a reminder.

"Right, right, the 'Peerless Divine Doctor,'" Liu Shiyun indulgently agreed.

Liu Xiner, however, stared with her beautiful big eyes, full of disbelief, "Him? A 'Peerless Divine Doctor'? Sis, are you sure you didn't run into a charlatan?"

Before Liu Shiyun could speak, Ye Luo picked up the dirty piece of rag from the ground, unfolded it, and said, "Genuine 'Peerless Divine Doctor,' purchase my Spirit Pills and you're guaranteed a cure for all ailments, plus for men, it's a perfect gift for mistresses, nourishing the Yin; for women, a perfect gift for sugar daddies, replenishing the kidney; stocks are limited, first come first served!"

Ye Luo naturally started advertising.

Seizing the opportunity while Ye Luo was advertising, Liu Xiner quickly went to her sister to tattle: "Sis, he's bullying me!"

"Oh?" Liu Shiyun's face showed a peculiar expression, but there wasn't a hint of anger.

"He not only disturbed my sleep, but he also took my seat!" Liu Xiner huffed.

She was completely playing the victim first.

However, what disappointed Liu Xiner was that after telling on him, her sister didn't even show a flicker of anger!

"I was just about to tell you about this. We've been scammed. That guy sold us two scalped tickets, and what's more, they're both fake, unregistered tickets." Liu Shiyun said as she took out two tickets from her pocket, "I just went to get substitute tickets. Let's look for our seats, they seem to be in this car too."

Upon hearing her sister say this, Liu Xiner immediately lost her temper.

It looked like it was indeed her own fault.

But this trickster didn't have the slightest notion of pitying a flower or cherishing jade. Usually, everyone made way for her, yet this guy actually contested "her" seat!

It was infuriating!

Upon receiving the tickets, the sisters prepared to look for their seats. Just as they raised their heads to look around, Liu Shiyun's face instantly revealed a look of surprise.

Because her seat number turned out to be right next to Ye Luo!

"Sister, this is my seat." Liu Xiner also found her seat, but at that moment, someone was sitting in it.

And that person looked quite familiar!

It was indeed the handsome man who had helped Liu Xiner before!

"Miss, is this... your seat?" The handsome man looked astonished.

"Yes, it's on the ticket here." Liu Xiner showed her ticket to him.

The handsome man looked left and right, then became puzzled, "Wait, how come it's exactly the same as my ticket?"

"Your ticket is fake." Liu Xiner said confidently.

"Impossible! I had someone at the station buy this for me, how could it be fake?!" The handsome man exclaimed reflexively, a stark contrast to his previous gentlemanly demeanor.

Liu Xiner was taken aback by his reaction.

Liu Shiyun was about to say something when Ye Luo cut in first, "Why are you, a grown man, bullying this girl? And what evidence do you have to prove that the ticket in your hand isn't fake?"

The retort was exactly what had initially been directed at him.

The handsome man's face immediately turned red with embarrassment. This was so humiliating!

Ye Luo didn't give him the chance to explain, snatched the ticket from his hand, and handed it to Liu Xiner, saying, "You prove to him that the ticket is fake."

"I, I... how do I prove it?" Liu Xiner hadn't even recovered yet.

"Just scratch it with your finger." Ye Luo instructed.

Liu Xiner took the handsome man's ticket and rigorously scratched it with her slender index finger...

Then just like in the earlier scene, the color on the man's ticket immediately faded!

"It really is a fake ticket!"

"There's been a lot of fake tickets around lately!"

"Quick, give the young lady her seat. So it turns out it was you who was occupying someone else's seat from the start!"

Hearing the voices of the people around him, the handsome man was both angry and furious, and after glaring at Ye Luo and the two sisters, he left the train car with a disgraced face.

"Xin'er, aren't you going to thank Ye Luo?" Liu Shiyun reminded from the side.

Although she was reluctant, Ye Luo's recent actions were clearly in her favor, which slightly improved her perception of him.

But just as Liu Xiner was about to say "thank you," her complexion suddenly turned pale...
