

Peerless 2211

Chapter 2211: Blackwater Black Snake Tribe

Her eyes were dark and she looked lovely.

At this moment, she bit her finger and giggled at the woman, her smile was full of comfort.

Seeing her like this, the woman felt tenderness in her heart, rubbing her face against her white tender face.

It turned out that this woman was actually the widow of Heishuihou, who was killed by Chen Feng, in that small tribe: Yuechan.

The baby in her arms is her daughter, Ning'er.

Heishuihou was killed. After she learned the news, she took Ning'er all the way to the east, hoping to go to the Heishui Profound Snake Tribe and find someone to avenge Heishuihou.

The two had a good time.

Soon, a few days are in the past.

With the little baby girl's ability to predict danger in advance, the two did not encounter any danger along the way, and they traveled hundreds of miles in a few days.

The trees in front of them became sparser and thinner, and soon turned into a huge grassland.

Going further, the grassland gradually disappeared, and there was only a thin layer of weeds on the ground.

In addition, as far as I can see, there are huge black rocks everywhere, and huge rocks towering into the sky everywhere.

As far as the gaze ahead, there is a huge unspeakable mountain range.

Seeing this scene, the woman showed a touch of ecstasy on her face, "Ning'er, here we are, we have finally reached our destination."

And at this moment, suddenly, there was a popping hoof sound in front of him.

Then, seven or eight knights appeared, came to them in no time, and surrounded them.

These seven or eight knights were all wearing black armors. These armors looked rather crude and simple, but they were extremely heavy, as if they were inlaid with large pieces of iron.

The thickness is amazing, and the defense is amazing enough.

On the armor of their chests, there was embroidered with a huge black water mysterious snake. This black water mysterious snake rose up in an ocean, and its body was even bigger than the vast ocean.

It looked up to the sky, opened its mouth, and howled, revealing its sharp teeth and its huge mouth, as if it could swallow the sky.

And the mounts under them were black leopards.

This black leopard is not very huge, but it is only ten meters long, which fits their three-meter tall figure.

The leopard is extremely agile, with thick pads under his feet, and falling silently. The black fur is an excellent cover color among the black mountains. It approaches silently, making it impossible to find it.

Moreover, keenness to the extreme, coming and going like wind.

The woman looked at them and said in surprise: "Is this the Black Water Profound Snake Club? I have something to do. If I am going to the Black Water Profound Snake Club, I hope you can get along."

"Oh? What's important? What's important?"

The leading man looked at her, a sudden smile appeared on his face, and then winked at the other men.

All those big guys understood each other, and laughed, and the woman's face showed a panic.

She has been on this journey for more than a year, and she has been through all kinds of hardships, and how she can't see it. At this time, they are afraid that they have some unruly plans.

She stepped back and hugged the child in her arms.

The leader of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe warrior said coldly: "You, a raw face, suddenly appeared on the periphery of our tribe. You are definitely a spy of another tribe."

He sneered and said: "Come on, catch her, don't have to take it back, just in the col next to us, we will interrogate him, let her know the power of our Black Water Profound Snake Club."

When he was talking about the two words for interrogation, he emphasized his tone, and his face was extremely evil.

Everyone understood, laughed for a while, and then forced the woman over.

There was a look of despair on this woman's face. She was not mediocre, so how could she be the opponent of these wolves and tigers in the Black Water Profound Snake Division?

At this time, the clear eyes of the baby girl in his arms turned blood red in an instant.

And in this blood red, two shallow black lines appeared, as disgusting as a parasite in the eyes.

But if you look closely, you will find what kind of parasites are here. These are clearly two small black snakes!

Rolling in this sea of blood, showing the posture of the supreme powerhouse.

Then the next moment, facing the Black Water Profound Snake Warriors who had been killed, she suddenly opened her mouth and screamed, and then let out a series of piercing and screams, like the hiss of a snake.

In the next moment, the warriors of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe who had killed them let out screams.

They clutched their heads, the pain was extreme, and they shouted loudly, "Ah, what's going on? My head hurts?"

However, no one answered them.

In the next moment, their heads are like watermelons that have been trampled on, bang bang bang, all exploded!

And this kind of movement also attracted more Blackwater Profound Snake Tribe powerhouses patrolling nearby.

In a blink of an eye, a team of hundreds of cavalymen appeared here, and each of them was no longer riding a black panther, but a black rhino, which was several times larger than the black panther, and much more powerful.

Obviously, their level is stronger than those Black Water Black Snake Warriors just now.

Seeing the miserable corpses of the soldiers of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe on the ground, the leader of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe commander showed a furious expression on his face, and shouted sharply:

"Catch up this sneaky demon girl and take it back. I will strictly interrogate to see what demon method she used, which has harmed so many of our brothers!"

With that, these hundreds of people flew towards the woman at the same time.

There was a sorrowful laugh on Yuechan's face, and she shouted with extreme sorrow: "I trek through the mountains and rivers. I don't know how much I have suffered to come here, just to get you to give me justice!"

"Unexpectedly, this is the justice you give me, isn't it?"

As if affected by her emotions, Ning'er in her arms immediately became tyrannical, with a look on her face a bit hideous.

She let out a stern roar again, and the invisible sound wave struck away again.

So, in an instant, these hundreds of Blackwater Black Snake Warriors, who had reached the Martial King Realm or above, were just like a few of them. They also had their heads shattered and died directly. No one was spared.

At this time, in the distance, in the deepest part of the Black Water Profound Snake, in that very tall building, an old man meditating in a secret room suddenly opened his eyes.

There was a look of horror on his face, shocked, as if he was greatly frightened, and said with a trembling:

Chapter 2212: Snake Emperor Bloodline!

"This, this, this is the bloodline of the highest Snake Emperor, and the Snake Emperor's sound can only be possessed!"

"This is the top-notch black water mysterious snake bloodline, which can only possess the talent skills. It is born with it. It only needs to be awakened and does not need to be practiced. No one can obtain this powerful and incomparable talent skill through practice!"

"Could it be that someone who has awakened the blood of the black water black snake appeared near the tribe?"

There was still a trace of unbearable ecstasy in the shock on his face. Suddenly, he raised his hands and laughed up to the sky, tears criss-crossing: "God open your eyes, it's really an eye open!"

"My Black Water Black Snake Bone has been around for seventy-nine thousand years. No one has awakened the Black Water Black Snake Bloodline, and if it is the Black Water Black Snake Bloodline this time, it means that my Black Water Black Snake Branch The opportunity to rise again has arrived!"

As he said, his figure flashed quickly, and in a blink of an eye he had come hundreds of miles away.

At this time, he had already seen the woman and the little baby girl in her arms.

Therefore, his eyes shrank suddenly, and his eyes showed extreme excitement and fanaticism: "Yes, it is her, it is her!"

At this moment, in his eyes, where is the baby girl in this woman's arms, it is clearly a golden light!

From time to time, there was a bright azure light flashing inside, so clean and gorgeous!

At this time, there were thousands of people beside this woman and baby girl.

These thousands of people are all warriors of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe. They are powerful, but when they look at the mother and daughter, they shrink and dare not move forward, and there is an unstoppable look of fear in their eyes. .

The thousands of corpses around were the reason for their fear. Many of their companions rushed up, without exception, their heads were shattered by the terrifying sound waves of fear!

Finally, without knowing who yelled, they snarled frantically and killed the mother and daughter.

At this time, the little girl seemed to want to make that terrifying scream, but when she was about to move, she felt a sharp pain.

There was a look of pain that could not be concealed on his face, but he was powerless to repeat it.

The leader of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe laughed loudly and exclaimed excitedly: "That little boy has no power. Go up and kill them!"

"Yes!" Everyone yelled frantically, and they were about to rush up and cut the mother and daughter into mud.

And at this time, suddenly, the old man with white hair and beard waved the snake stick in his hand and screamed: "Get all back!"

Following his roar, these people were directly bounced back tens of meters by the shock, staggering, but they were still uninjured.

The control of this strength is so wonderful that this person's strength is unfathomable.

Seeing his appearance, these Black Water Profound Snake Warriors were stunned, and then one after another exclaimed: "Elder Withered Wood, it is Elder Withered Wood!"

They knelt to the ground one after another, bowing their heads to the dead wood elder.

Obviously, Elder Witherwood has a very high status in the Blackwater Black Snake Tribe, while Elder Witherwood didn't even look at them, but before coming to the mother and daughter, his voice trembled and said, "You, where do you come from? ?"

After the woman saw him, she immediately realized that her opportunity had come.

This person is obviously a master in the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe, he speaks extremely fast, and talks about his own experience.

After the dead wood elder listened, he was silent, and then suddenly grabbed them directly and disappeared!

The Heishui Profound Snake Tribe is vast and boundless. This huge tribe occupies the most fertile valley in the depths of a continuous mountain range.

Their main hall is located on a huge mountain in the north of the valley.

On the peaks, densely densely packed, many palaces were built.

These palaces are not so gorgeous, but they are strong enough, thick and heavy.

Elder Witherwood's residence was in the hall closest to the main hall. He brought the two of them here and looked at them. At this time, the enthusiasm and excitement in his eyes had disappeared, and his eyes became extremely deep and long. There is still some calculation!

He looked at this woman and said lightly: "I won't hide it from you. The reason why I appeared just now is because I sensed that someone has a very powerful black water black snake bloodline."

"And this kind of black water mysterious snake bloodline is the supreme bloodline in our black water black snake tribe."

Yuechan said in surprise and excitement: "What do you mean?" noVɛluSb.com

"Yes, this daughter of yours has the magical blood of the Black Water Black Snake. If the test is successful, then the Queen of the Black Water Black Snake Tribe will be vacant for 70,000 years, and she can occupy it!"

"What?" Hearing this, Yuechan's breathing instantly became extremely heavy!

The position of the queen, if her daughter can really become a queen, then everything is not a problem, she definitely has the strength to avenge her murderous husband and enemy, her daughter's murderous father!

She has a clear mind, and she has suffered all the hardships in the world along the way, and she is no longer the little girl who has no knowledge of the world.

She immediately looked at Elder Witherwood and said sincerely: "Elder Witherwood, if you can help my daughter ascend to the throne, we will agree to any request you have!"

Elder Withered Wood looked at her, nodded in satisfaction, and said in his heart: "This woman is still knowledgeable and interesting."

Then, she smiled and said something, and the woman nodded repeatedly.

In the early morning of the second day, suddenly, the entire Heishui Profound Snake Tribe became agitated in an instant.

Because everyone heard the sound of war drums coming from the huge 10,000-meter-high sacred mountain in the center of the tribe.

The sound of the war drum, as if it had its own soul, shocked everyone's souls, causing the blood vessels in the deepest part of their bodies to agitate together.

Everyone's blood seemed to be burning, and that blood was almost gushing out.

Only by yelling can I calm my mood slightly.

Everyone looked at the sacred mountain in horror, and saw that the top of the sacred mountain, a huge war drum with a diameter of more than 100 meters, was constantly beating.

The drumsticks are made of two extremely thick thigh bones.

Above the battle drum, there is a huge phantom that is as high as 100,000 meters. It is suspended there. Everyone exclaimed: "The ancestral soul drum, this is the ancestor soul drum!"

Only when major events that can affect the entire tribe happen, can the drum of ancestor souls be sounded.

The ancestral soul drum has not been sounded for 700 years, and this time it has been sounded again. What happened?

Chapter 2213: Ascend to the throne

Everyone was shocked, but their movements did not stop. They were all wearing battle armor, riding their mounts, and marching toward the holy mountain.

Soon, they all came under this holy mountain.

There are tens of millions of people from the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe who have all come here. He can't see the edge at a glance, and there is a square halfway up the sacred mountain.

At this time, a whole number of high-level members among the hundreds of tribes gathered on the square, including the elders of the tribes, the generals of the soldiers, and so on!

Most of them are elders with gray hair and beard, and there are as many as a hundred people.

The Blackwater Black Snake Tribe hasn't had a queen for 70,000 years, but it hasn't stopped functioning, because the Blackwater Black Snake Tribe still has a presbytery.

The Presbyterian Church gathered the thirty-three elders with the highest prestige and strength among the Blackwater Black Snake Tribe to make decisions together.

At this moment, all of these elders looked at each other in amazement, not knowing what happened, and looked at each other.

Among them, the most prestigious elders and the most powerful elders are even more ugly.

Because they felt that someone had arbitrarily sounded the drum of the ancestral soul, which made them extremely unhappy!

Finally, with another loud drum beat, the three people walked out of the hall.

After seeing these three people, the ordinary Heishui tribesmen below all let out an exclamation, because they saw the Withered Wood Elder, who is extremely prestigious in the tribe.

At the same time, there was a person standing next to Elder Withered Wood, who had never seen him before.

This person was wearing extremely gorgeous clothes and looked quite noble, but she seemed to be holding a small baby in her arms.

After seeing the three of them, the tribal elders became even more impatient and surprised.

Some were grumpy and shouted: "Elder Witherwood, what the * are you doing? Why do you suddenly sound the ancestral soul drum? Can you afford the giant spirit that has disturbed the ancestor?"

If Elder Witherwood had been accused by others in this way, he would have been angry long ago.

At this time, he didn't panic, smiled and said, "Everyone, don't worry, I do this, there must be a reason to do this!"

In the Presbyterian Church, there were three other people with similar strength and status as Elder Wither, and the four of them were the four with the most authority.

At this time, one of the other four people had a good relationship with him, and the other two had a deep hatred with him. The two of them joined hands to contend with the two Elders!

The two elders who were hostile to Withered Wood flickered, and when they looked at each other, they saw a trace of anxiety in each other's eyes!

At this time, Withered Wood faced the crowd and shouted: "Everyone, do you still remember the glory of our ancestors?"

Everyone below was extremely quiet, saying nothing, waiting for him to speak.

"At the beginning, our Black Water Profound Snake Tribe was the overlord of the hundreds of races in southern Xinjiang, and all other races must submit to our Golden Snake Throne."

"Later, our empress was cut off. In 70,000 years, no empress was enthroned again, and belonged to the kingship of our Blackwater Profound Snake Tribe. That glory also disappeared."

"Not only our subordinates and vassals, but even the slaves, have escaped the rebellion one after another, and they even rode on our heads!"

"You said, am I right?"

The breathing of the people of the Black Water Profound Snake tribe below has become extremely heavy. Many of them have blood red eyes, undulating chests, accelerated blood flow, heart pounding, and extreme excitement and anger, almost to the point. I couldn't help but roared out and wielded weapons to fight the enemy.

Elder Witherbark was obviously satisfied with this effect.

He continued to roar loudly: "Who doesn't know in Southern Xinjiang now, although the Black Shui Xuan Snake Tribe is known as one of the three tribes, it is the weakest among the three tribes. Sometimes it depends on the faces of others!"

"You tell me, you were ridden on your head by these former subordinate slaves, are you willing? Are you willing?"

"Not reconciled! Reluctantly, kill them! Drive them into slavery! Kill their men, take their women captives, and make them our slaves again!"

Almost in an instant, the clansmen of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe broke out.

They waved their weapons and yelled in anger and brutality!

The two elders who were hostile to Withered Wood glanced at each other, and both made a disdainful sneer. Both of them relaxed at the same time and thought to themselves:

"I also said what tricks the old guy withered wood came up with, it turned out that he actually wanted to raise her status by starting a war and agitating the people."

"He is like this, but he is thinking about it."

"It was me who provoked the war and ultimately failed. At that time, let alone improve his status, he won't even be able to keep his life!"

Both of them were a little relieved, but the next moment, what Elder Withered Wood said changed their expressions drastically.

He faced everyone, raised his arms high, and shouted: "Now, there is an excellent opportunity in front of us that can help us restore our former glory!"

He suddenly lifted the little baby from the woman's hand, and then sternly shouted: "I have found the queen's seed! I have found the future hope of our Blackwater Black Snake Tribe!"

"What?" Everyone's expressions changed drastically.

And before everyone could react, Elder Withered Wood once again said something that shocked everyone: "Do you know that the little girl in my arms now has the blood of the black water mysterious snake? !"

"What?" Everyone immediately fried the pot.

In just an instant, the promised Blackwater Black Snake Tribe was as noisy as it turned into a vegetable market.

Everyone uttered their own shocked cries loudly, their faces full of disbelief.

Everyone's complexion has changed, but the difference is that the faces of the ordinary Blackwater Black Snake tribe are shocked and ecstatic.

And those elders, especially those with high status, all have extremely ugly faces!

Because, if what Elder Witherwood said is true, if the little girl really has the blood of the Black Water Black Snake, then it means she is qualified to become the new queen, and if she becomes the queen, these elders have the authority It is bound to be weakened.

Withered wood elders who supported the queen to ascend to the throne will be so powerful that the rest of them will be breathless.

As a result, the two elders immediately objected instinctively.

A person said loudly: "This is impossible, how rare is the Queen's bloodline?"

Chapter 2214: Chen Feng, he will definitely die!

The other person directly accused the Elder Witherwood and said: "Elder Witherwood, you are too reckless to do this. You just found a little girl and said that she has the blood of the Black Water Black Snake. You are blaspheming our ancestors. Desecrate the Queen!"

Both Amen and Amen have a group of party members in the Presbyterian Church, and they are also very powerful. When they heard their boss say this, their party members immediately clamored.

At this time, Elder Withered Wood showed a sly smile on his mouth, and said softly in his heart: "Just waiting for you to jump out!"

He suddenly yelled: "Shut up all of you!"

He was prestigious, and this roar shocked everyone and looked at him in shock.

With a muffled hum from the elder withered wood, a stream of blood spurted directly, spraying the little girl all over her face.

Then, he stepped on the seven stars, stepped out of a mysterious formation, and stepped on the ground.

As soon as this formation came out, he spouted another mouthful of blood, and shouted loudly: "The spirit of the ancestors, I am in my name! Please come here, with justice!"

As a result, the ancestor soul floating in the sky, as high as one hundred thousand meters, was instantly pressed down, and directly pressed down on the little baby girl, almost destroying the little girl, with no power. match.

However, this huge ancestral soul passed through the body of this little baby girl without causing any harm to him.

The next moment, on the body of the ancestor's soul, countless colorful ribbons suddenly burst out.

Then, the colorful ribbon was directly wrapped around the little baby girl.

Seeing this scene, everyone seemed to have realized what was going to happen next, and their faces were full of shock, but they all covered their mouths, not even daring to make any movement.

I'm afraid that little movement will desecrate what will happen next!

In the next moment, there were countless colorful light waves rippling from the body of the little baby girl.

Then, these countless colorful light waves gradually condensed behind her, and finally condensed into a black water mysterious snake pattern.

This black water mysterious snake seemed to be as long as the sky, and it was huge. At first, it had no gods, and it was very sluggish, like a dead thing.

And as the colorful light waves rippled out more and more and gradually merged into its body, its eyes suddenly became agile.

Suddenly, it flicked and opened its huge mouth, as if to tear the sky and swallow the sky.

A silent sound wave stunned, shocking all the people of the Black Water Profound Snake Tribe, from the elders to the ordinary people, their legs softened and they fell directly to the ground.

Then the next moment, they seemed to wake up from the huge shock, and they exclaimed: "The blood of the black water mysterious snake, the blood of the black water mysterious snake!"

"God, it turns out that the blood of the black water mysterious snake has come!"

There is already an old black water mysterious snake tribe, tears streaming down his face, open his arms, weeping with joy:

"God, after all, you are worthy of my Black Water Black Snake Tribe, and the rise of my Black Water Black Snake Tribe is expected!"

Everyone yelled like crazy.

In the end, all the shouts merged into a huge roar: "Enthroned, enthroned!"

Everyone is like crazy, and everyone thinks about one thing: now that the queen appears again, she will definitely be able to lead me to the top of the Blackwater Black Snake Tribe again.

With the existence of the queen, everything is possible!

And the two hostile elders, their faces pale, they dare not say a word.

Because, at this time, the little girl reflected in the blood of the Black Water Black Snake, the most supreme blood of the Black Water Black Snake Tribe.

In the face of this bloodline, everything is pale.

Elder Witherbark lifted the woman high and shouted: "Today, we will enthrone her as emperor!"

All the members of the Blackwater Black Snake Tribe waved their weapons and shouted loudly: "Enthroned! Enthroned!"

In an instant, the entire tribe was mobilized.

In less than an hour, a luxurious high platform was built, with a golden throne on top of it, which was extremely impressive.

Then, Yuechan walked up slowly in a costume.

She wore a black robe, embroidered with the black water black snake pattern with golden silk thread, and looked very noble.

As the queen's mother, her identity is also very wanting.

And she stepped on the steps holding the really little baby girl, came to the throne, and sat down quietly.

There was indescribable excitement in her heart, but her ah look was extremely calm. He had seen many people along the way and didn't know how many lives and deaths he had. He had already learned to control his emotions.

In a grand ceremony, all the elders came to see the queen.

Those who did not deal with the deadwood elders, although unwilling in their hearts, did not dare to go against the wishes of the entire tribe, and they had to bow their heads in the general trend.

Elder Wither Wood stood beside him, seeing this scene, his face showed an extremely happy smile.

Finally, the ceremony was over, and the curtain came to an end.

After everyone left, Yuechan slowly stood up and looked at Elder Withered Wood, and said softly: "You promised me, don't forget it!"

Elder Witherwood smiled and said, "Don't worry, what I promised you will be done."

"Then Chen Feng will definitely die!"

The whole night has finally passed.

When the sun quietly appeared the next morning from the end of that day, the fight lasted almost all night, and quietly stopped.

The water of the Tongtian River was glowing red and shimmering.

At this time, the Tongtian River was also abnormally calm, just flowing slowly, just like the big monsters who were wrapped in the boundless wind and thunder and set off the boundless wind and waves yesterday, never appeared before.

This is the river that has been dyed red from time to time in the Tongtian River, and the corpses of monsters and humans floating in it, it seems to be able to tell what happened yesterday.

Chen Feng took a breath and walked to the edge of the cliff.

At this time, there was a wind, and Chen Feng heard it, and the wind was clearly engulfed with painful moans.

There was also a cry with some sadness, and Chen Feng was inexplicably panicked.

And suddenly at this time, a violent bell rang.

The direction of the bell came from the Shishu Excalibur Fort, and at the same time, a large and steady voice sounded slowly: "All the disciples of the inner courtyard, come before the Shishu Excalibur Fort."

Chen Feng and Uncle Dao looked at each other, and both nodded.

Then, Han Yu'er hugged the blood wind in his arms, and the three of them swept towards the direction of Shishu Divine Sword Fort.

Chapter 2215: Yipin Ghost Pill, Jiuhua Dettol

Chen Feng is not afraid that the blood wind will appear before others. After all, the blood wind looks cute at this time, but it is about the size of a puppy and looks no different from the ordinary little snow wolf, and it will not cause anything. attention.

At this time, even Chen Feng did not notice.

Under the soft white long hairs of the blood wind, in his skin, there were even traces of golden light circling quietly, looking very mysterious.

Chen Feng and the others walked all the way, and as far as they could see, they saw battlefields everywhere on this cracked sky island.

Every area on Cracking Sky Island is guarded by a disciple, and the big monsters who attacked yesterday apparently didn't know how to find out the area guarded by each disciple, and even the specific location of their cave. It is directly killed.

Usually several big monsters besieged a disciple, and that disciple didn't even have the power to fight back, so he was killed directly.

As far as Chen Feng could see, he saw the destroyed cave houses everywhere, the defense that was beaten into ruins, and the corpse of the disciple lying in it.

But the farther forward Chen Feng found, the more corpses of the big demon, obviously, because the further forward the disciple guarded here, the stronger the strength, especially in the area guarded by the true disciple.

Chen Feng saw that often the body of a disciple was surrounded by the corpses of three or four big monsters with wounds all over his body, which looked terrible!

Chen Feng estimated that after this battle, there would be no more people left, even if the inner courtyard was badly injured.

Sure enough, when Chen Feng came to the front of the Shishu Shenjian Fort, there were hundreds of people in the inner courtyard in the past. At this time, there were fewer than 30 disciples here.

And there were fewer than thirty disciples, and most of them were injured.

However, their faces are extremely fortitude, and their eyes burst into extreme killing intent.

The expressions are surprisingly similar, their lips are pressed tightly, and their faces are full of perseverance.

Chen Feng suddenly felt that he saw an aura and a high spirit in them!

So he felt something.

As long as these people do not die, as long as they survive, then these dozens of them will be stronger than the original hundreds of people, and I am afraid that there will be many powerful people out of these dozens!

This is the tempering of blood and fire!

However, Chen Feng quickly noticed that someone was abnormal.

She was different from everyone else, she still had that cold and gentle smile on her face, her eyes were still clear, her expression was still warm, and she looked no different from before.

And Chen Feng also clearly saw that she had dozens of wounds on her body, and the blood had even covered her whole body. Even on her face, a wound was slid directly from the corner of her left eye to the corner of her right mouth, almost touching her The face is ruined.

The long sword on her body was directly beaten into two pieces. At this time, only a short sword remained.

Obviously, she also experienced a miserable battle yesterday.

But she was still able to maintain a normal heart.

This person is Que Qianqian.

Chen Feng couldn't help but glanced at him more and nodded inwardly.

This senior sister, her future achievements are absolutely extraordinary!

Soon, Yu Hongyuan appeared here, looking at everyone, his face showed a touch of fortitude.NOVELSUS.COM

The disciples pressed their lips and said nothing, just looking at him.

Yu Hongyuan said: "There are three hundred and seventy-four disciples in the inner courtyard. Only 26 of you are left alive. Most of the others died yesterday."

"But you, survived."

"Therefore, you are destined to achieve extraordinary results in the future. You are the pride of my Wudong Academy."

He took a deep breath, looked at the crowd, and said softly: "I martial arts academy and built the Sky Splitting Island here. An important reason is not to make you accept such tempering?"

"Speaking of humiliation, the twenty-odd people you have left are more valuable to the sect than the original 300-odd people."

"Therefore, today Zongmen specially awarded the * pill. After the * pill is consumed, all injuries will be eliminated, allowing you to return to the peak, and your strength will increase!"

With that said, he personally took out one jade box, walked in front of everyone, and put it in everyone's hands.

Without any hesitation, everyone opened the jade box directly, and saw that there was an emerald green pill inside the jade box, which was fragrant and full of spiritual energy.

Everyone took the jade-colored pill into their mouths, and the green pill melted in the mouth, turning into a icy airflow, and in a flash, it swam over the whole body.

Everyone was surprised to find that the wound on his body healed immediately.

The internal injuries in the body were quietly shattered, turned into blood clots and vomited out of the mouth. In a blink of an eye, the whole body was comfortable and refreshed, and there was no trace of any injuries on the body.

And even. Even those injuries that have been ruined and their faces can be recovered. The huge scars, after being scabbed, are gently wiped, and then they fall off, revealing the smooth and white skin again, without any change from before.

However, within half an hour, the strength of these people has returned to their peak.

And some people even strengthened a little.

Chen Feng didn't have any injuries, he just had to spend half a month to deal with the erosion of the power of hell.

And within this half a month, he will not be able to use any power, otherwise he will definitely suffer the backlash of the power of hell.

After Chen Feng swallowed this pill, he felt it. After the icy breath poured into his body, he turned around first, as if he felt his own abnormality, and then went straight to the direction of his right arm.

At this time, the black energy in Chen Feng's body was already approaching his right shoulder, and a little further forward could erode his internal organs and heart veins. At that time, Da Luo Jinxian could not save Chen Feng.

And after this cold air current entered this place, it actually forced the black air directly down four inches, causing him to retreat four inches so much.

Chen Feng suddenly felt happy, which made his time to resist the power of * changed from half a month to ten days. In ten days, he can use the ninth sword again!

"What kind of pill is this? It is so magical? It has the effect of dissolving hell?" Chen Feng muttered to himself:

"Oh, that's not right, it shouldn't be a simple pill to dissolve the power of hell. Its effect is a bit like it can eliminate all bad states and heal all bad states in the body."

"If I have more than one pill like this, then the power of * is not even a big deal to me."

Chen Feng thought with surprise: "If there are five, you can completely force him back!"

He immediately asked Yu Hongyuan: "Elder Yu, I don't know what the name of this pill is called?"

Yu Hongyuan said: "This pill is called Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu Pill."

He took a deep look at Chen Feng and smiled: "You kid don't use this pill idea."

"This pill is the supreme treasure of the sect. It has surpassed the scope of the nine-pin pill and reached the level of ghost pill.

"Ghost pill?" Chen Feng raised his eyebrows. It was the first time he heard these two words, so he quietly wrote down.

"It turns out that on the top of the nine-pin pill, it turned out to be the level of ghost pill."

Yu Hongyuan said: "Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu Pill is a first-grade ghost pill."

Chapter 2216: The Demon King is here!

"This kind of pill is extremely rare. There are only more than a hundred pills in the sect, and it hasn't increased for many years, it's just a simple consumption."

"This time, if it wasn't for the beast tide that you saw in a hundred years that made you so miserable, how could you come up with so many Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu pills?"

Seeing that everyone had recovered, Yu Hongyuan went on to say: "And, as your reward, half of the people you survived will be the elders..."

He paused, deliberately emphasized, and said: "It is the top twenty elders of Chongxiao, who has been accepted as a disciple and taught me carefully!"

Even these surviving disciples in the inner courtyard who have experienced the life and death, have become extremely hard and cruel hearts, hearing this, all of them couldn't help but be overjoyed.

There are a lot of Chongxiao elders in Wudong Academy, and their strengths are also uneven. In fact, generally speaking, the strength of the Nine Star Martial King or above can become Chongxiao elder, such as Lu Yuanju who was beheaded by Chen Feng.

However, some elders of Chongxiao are extremely powerful, and they have already stepped into the realm of Wuhuang, and even reached the realm of Wuhuang.

These elders in Yu Hongyuan's mouth are naturally these powerful, and they can be accepted as disciples. Not only do they have an extremely heavy backing, but they also have inestimable benefits for the road of martial arts!

How can this make them unhappy?

"Well, there is a life-and-death event coming soon!" Yu Hongyuan took a deep breath, looked at them, and said, "Today is the last day of the animal tide."

"What? The last day of the beast tide?" Everyone, including Chen Feng, changed their expressions.

After being so tragic yesterday, they thought that yesterday was the last day of the beast wave, and the beast wave had passed, but they did not expect that today would be the last day.

They looked at each other, and the horror and fear in their eyes gradually disappeared, turning into a touch of determination and sternness. They clenched the weapons in their hands, and their faces were full of fortitude.

Chen Feng suddenly shouted: "Come on then, but it's just a battle!"

"Okay! Haha! It's just a battle! This is really great!"

Suddenly, a long laugh came from a distance, with a little vicissitudes of life.

Then, more than ten human figures appeared, and all of them fell here.

Chen Feng saw these more than ten figures. Most of them were old men with white beards and hair, and among them Liu Chengyi and the old madman were among them.

Each of them is extremely powerful, and the old madman and Liu Chengyi are not the strongest here.

Chen Feng's heart suddenly stunned. Each of these more than ten people was one of the strongest among the elders.

Yu Hongyuan laughed and said: "Today, the last day of the beast tide is extremely tyrannical, you have finally survived, how can you let you die in vain?"

"This time the beast tide, ten elders will fight with you!"

Everyone was taken aback for a moment, and then they cheered.

Although he is determined to die, but can not die, who would really want to die?

Today, it is already the last attack that this beast tide will set off, and the Wudong Academy is also full of cards, and it has sent so many elders over here!

Then, everyone came to the far east of the island again.

In the distance, black clouds pressed against the city and huge waves roared in. The great demon's aura above made people feel hopeless.

There are eleven nine-star demon king peaks, that is, half-step martial emperor realm powerhouses equivalent to humans have arrived.

After they arrived, they didn't immediately attacked. Instead, they all knelt down on the waves, their faces were extremely respectful and humble, as if they were waiting for something.

Seeing this scene, there are already well-informed people who exclaimed: "There are more powerful people behind them! There are even more powerful people!"

"They actually greeted the strong man with such a posture? What level of strength did that strong man have? Could it be that he was a demon emperor?"

Above the Martial King Realm is the Martial Emperor Realm.

And above the Demon King is the Demon Emperor Realm!

"Demon King?" Everyone took a breath, guessing this possibility.

And soon, in the distance, an extremely huge shadow quietly fell towards this side.

After seeing the appearance of the shadow, everyone took a breath.

This is a huge dragon tortoise as big as an island, with curved dragon horns growing on his huge head, his body is huge like a mountain, and the waves are instantly suppressed.

The aura on him is even more shocking and fearful.

This is impressively the aura of the one-star Demon Emperor Realm! If this one-star demon emperor is placed in the human society, then it is a two-star martial emperor!

Many people have a sense of despair in their hearts, because they all know that this existence is far beyond their resistance, and they are not opponents at all.

And only Chen Feng, not only did not have any timidity in his heart at this time, but the fighting spirit was surging. He held the blood-stained giant knife in his hand, and the crazy fighting spirit radiated in his eyes, and he wished to go over and fight.

After Chen Feng saw the huge dragon tortoise, a familiar feeling also appeared in his heart, and then he immediately remembered that he had seen this dragon tortoise before.

He immediately remembered that when Feng Hongyun took him to the inner courtyard for the first time, this huge monster appeared quietly!

But this monster seems to be very reasonable and has some honest meanings. He felt that he was wrong, so he quietly disappeared again without continuing to struggle.

The dragon tortoise he saw at that time was nothing more than the huge head and a little neck, and he didn't see the whole body at all.

At that time, Chen Feng only felt that his figure was hidden under the water of the river, it was huge, and it was a shadow no smaller than the Sky Split Island. At this time, seeing his whole body, Chen Feng finally confirmed his original speculation. .

It turned out that this huge dragon tortoise monster is really a lap bigger than Sky Splitting Island, with a radius of hundreds of miles!

It is extremely huge, it can be said to be overwhelming, this is not a mountain, but a small mountain!

After he came here, the nine-star demon kings all said respectfully in unison: "See Lord Long."

It turned out that the surname of this dragon turtle turned out to be dragon.

And this huge dragon tortoise swept the nine-star demon king peak monsters, and then, there was a trace of humane unpleasantness on his face, and he seemed very reluctant to do what he was doing now.

He suddenly spoke, his voice buzzing like Hong Zhong, and there was another wave of majestic waves in the trembling Tongtian River.

His voice is very loud: "We set off a wave of beasts, and the crowds dominate the widows. Even if we win, we can't win."

Chapter 2217: Beast tide, over!

"My lord gave me an order, and I had to come, but my order gave me only to disperse the defenses here, but did not say that I would kill a few people."

"So, I will only break the defense here today!"

After these words were said, all the monster beasts were stupid. They were originally so arrogant and extremely arrogant, but at this time their coach said such a thing, and they were all discouraged immediately. To be listless.

The faces of the disciples of Wudong Academy on the * showed a very interesting expression: "The idea of this monster is really unique."

This huge dragon tortoise let out a muffled hum, and moved forward heavily, slamming it directly towards the dam.

Its size is extremely large, and it smashed over, giving people the feeling as if a mountain was pressed down!

This huge body like a mountain range smashed down fiercely, so powerful that everyone evaded.

In the next moment, this huge body smashed on the Sky Split Island, with a loud bang, and the entire Sky Split Island trembled violently, as if an earthquake had occurred, with countless cracks appearing on it.

Chen Feng and others were all shocked and fell directly from the air to the ground, shaking and unsteady standing one by one. They all looked at people and saw the huge body of the dragon turtle return. When he got into the water, the piece he had dropped just now disappeared.

Half of the Sky-Splitting Island disappeared directly, and was plunged into the river water by him.

The dragon tortoise seemed very proud to see his masterpiece and let out a humming laugh, then he turned around and wagged his tail, and left without looking back.

Those high-level demon kings could only watch the huge dragon turtle disappear into the boundless waves of the Tongtian River, all of them were dumbfounded: "Gone? Did they really leave like this?"

They came this time, expecting that huge dragon tortoise, as a demon king-level big demon, could take the lead and enable them to completely destroy the Sky-Cracking Island today.

As a result, he didn't expect that he would actually just run away like this!

But the morale of Wudong Academy was boosted, and then these elders rushed towards the nine-star demon king.

The weakest among these elders in the sky also had a half-step martial arts realm, which was equivalent to the pinnacle of the Nine Star Demon King, and with a dozen to eight, they also had a quantitative advantage.

Those big monsters are not stupid generations, seeing this scene, immediately know that today's affairs are mostly ten thousand.

So they shouted one after another, and then left without any hesitation.

Many disciples in the inner courtyard stared at each other, with a trace of stunned expression on their faces: "This huge tide of beasts is over?"

"The beast wave that happened once in a hundred years ended in this way?"

And the next moment, the whole person turned into ecstasy: "The animal tide is over! The animal tide is over!"

Everyone cheered.

At this time, no one knew it was. In a secret room in the deepest part of the Sky-Splitting Island, an old man with a strange appearance and a withered face, feeling that he was about to die, quietly retracted his hands.

At this moment, there was a bloodstain in his hands.

Although he has described it as haggard, his eyes are still very gentle and his voice is extremely peaceful, but he has a great momentum:

"You little guys, do you think that dragon turtle retreated so plainly?"

"If it weren't for me to take the shot secretly, I'm afraid that Sky Splitting Island is about to be razed to the ground, but the little dragon tortoise is also powerful enough. He completely relied on his physical instinct to make a counterattack and actually cut me."

"I even suspect that he didn't perceive my existence. He just perceives that there is a danger like me here, so he disappeared."

"It's worthy of being a natural psychic, and it contains ancient blood. It's really amazing!"

Yu Hongyuan laughed and said: "Now the animal tide is finally over, and the next thing to do is of course to reward it! Everyone has a Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu Pill and other rewards."

This is the treatment that everyone who survives will have, and some people will have the opportunity to become the disciples of the powerful elders.

However, this also depends on talent, not merit.

Obviously, if this is the case, it would be unfair for those who are not very talented and may not be selected, but who have made meritorious services in this beast tide.

Therefore, there must be rewards for meritorious deeds.

Many disciples are listed in the castle hall.

At this time, everyone looked at me and I looked at you, but there was a strong guard and a trace of hostility on their faces.

The previous same hatred, the previous fight side by side, have completely disappeared.

Because what they had to deal with before was the animal tide, but now, their competitors, or even enemies, have become their brothers and sisters!

In the road of martial arts, there is no other than me, it is to fight for the front line of life, since it is to fight, naturally it will not be so happy.

This matter was presided over by Yu Hongyuan.

Yu Hongyuan looked at Chen Feng, smiled and said, "Chen Feng, you are the first place here."

Chen Feng's face was calm, and he walked out slowly without saying a word, and there was no surprise on everyone's face.

If Chen Feng is not the first, that makes people unconvinced.

Chen Feng's performance these days has completely convinced them, and his strength is recognized as extremely tyrannical!

Yu Hongyuan said slowly: "Chen Feng, in this beast tide, beheaded two nine-star demon kings, eight-star demon king forty-nine, and killed the leading beast among the beast tide many times. Merit."

"So when it comes to rewards, he is the first. Can any of you disagree?"

No one spoke, everyone was convinced.

Yu Hongyuan looked at Chen Feng, his eyes softened, and asked softly, "Chen Feng, what reward do you want?" NOVELSb.COM

Chen Feng raised his brows and said, "What rewards are there?"

"There are nothing more than three, magic weapon, pill, and exercise method."

Chen Feng suddenly smiled, smiling very slyly: "Elder, the Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu Pills we swallowed just now, are there any more?"

Yu Hongyuan suddenly said in amazement: "You want this pill just now?"

Chen Feng nodded: "That's right."

Yu Hongyuan persuaded: "You have to know that this kind of pill only has healing effects, and it does not greatly promote your cultivation. You should have felt it just now."

Chen Feng nodded: "Yes, but I have decided that I want this kind of medicine."

Chapter 2218: On the day of the duel, there are three days left!

"Okay." Yu Hongyuan said in a deep voice: "You can get three Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu Pills with this credit in exchange for pills."

Chen Feng nodded: "That's it."

Yu Hongyuan took out three small jade boxes and threw them to Chen Feng, who took them and put them in his arms

"The most important reason is..." Chen Feng said softly to himself in his heart: "There are five days left to compete with Lieyang Wenrui."

"If I don't have Qingxin Jiuhua Dilu Pills, I can't return to my peak state at all, how can I win?"

Then, Chen Feng retreated, and Yu Hongyuan said: "This time the credit ranks second..."

Next, Yu Hongyuan shouted out the names one by one, and then everyone went forward to discuss the merits and rewards and receive their respective rewards.

Wudong Academy still considers the disciples very much, and does not compulsorily issue any rewards, but according to the needs of the disciples.

If there is a lack of exercises for the exercises, and those lacking weapons for the weapons, if the bottleneck of cultivation is reached and a breakthrough is urgently needed, then naturally there will be pill to be delivered.

In addition to Chen Feng, two people he knew also ranked among the top five for this time, namely Que Qianqian and Jing Nanfeng.

Although Que Qianqian seemed to be very gentle and peaceful on the surface, his temperament was fierce and fierce, extremely decisive.

Chen Feng felt that she was more courageous than herself, and sometimes she was even more desperate. She also killed many monsters, and it was really normal to be able to make such a contribution!

In the next few days, after the beast tide subsided, everything was fine, but the day of the battle between Chen Feng and the Lieyang family eldest son was getting closer and closer.

Many people who knew the inside story were either gloating or worrying about Chen Feng.

However, Chen Feng is leisurely, only sitting on the cliff, playing the piano and singing every day.

He didn't even practice cultivation, just facing the waves there and staying with his senior sister.

Sitting on Wangya, on a huge rock, Han Yu'er dressed in white, floating like a fairy.

On her knees, there is also a Jiaowei Qin, and the gurgling sound of the Qin is pouring out between her hands like Dingdong Creek, making people feel peaceful!

Chen Feng yelled and sang loudly. His voice was deep and desolate, just like those ancient ancestors, the most original, most derived from the scream of the soul.

There are even some heart-piercing meanings, but they point to the root of the great road.

Suddenly, a more vigorous but low-pitched voice rang, it was Uncle Dao.

He is holding a huge black iron knife, singing and dancing with the knife.

A smile appeared at the corner of Han Yu'er's mouth, and she shook her head slightly, and re-tuned the sound of the piano that had been messy because of his joining. It suddenly became louder, and there was no stagnation in the transition, which showed that the piano skill was excellent.

Dancing with Uncle Knife swinging the knife, with the sound of singing louder and louder, and with the sound of Fuqin becoming more and more intense.

Suddenly, on the Tongtian River not far away, countless monsters suddenly jumped up, fluctuating in the air with this rhythm.

Regardless of their original skin color, all of them turned red at this time, and the sound of the piano had almost ignited the blood in their bodies.

And at this moment, suddenly, a snow-white figure that looked like a puppy suddenly rushed over. It obviously didn't understand English very much. It just rolled over its plump body like a snowball, and suddenly came to Han Yuer's arms. , Rubbing back and forth in her arms, humming coquettishly.

Han Yu'er giggled, and the piano sound stopped abruptly.

And Chen Feng's high song came to an end, with only the last ending, which was curled and extinct.

Then, he flicked his fingers, watching the last trace of black air disappear from his fingertips, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"The power of * was finally eliminated by me!"

He suddenly stood up, screamed up to the sky, extremely happy, as if to express all the silt in his chest.

You know, before Chen Feng was troubled by the power of hell, let alone hands-on, he couldn't even cultivate.

Chen Feng had already been suffocated.

Uncle Dao looked at Chen Feng, smiled and said, "Little Master, now there are still three days before you and the Lieyang family eldest son of the Vietnam War."

Chen Feng nodded.

"Three days, right?" Chen Feng whispered softly, muttering to himself: "Three days is enough to do a lot of things."

"Although I haven't stayed in this realm for a long time, I have encountered repeated * battles these days. I have tempered my strength in this blood and fire. Now the foundation is extremely strong. It's time to break through!"

With that, Chen Feng looked at Uncle Dao: "Uncle Dao, please protect me."

Uncle Dao nodded and walked aside.

Han Yuer was very sensible, holding Blood Wind in her arms, and whispered in his ear: "Go, Blood Wind, let's go and play, don't quarrel with Junior Brother."

Chen Feng was on the edge of the cliff, looking at the endless Tongtian River, and took a deep breath.

Then, a total of thirty-two demon pills appeared in his palm.

These thirty-two demon pellets were all at the level of the Eight-Star Demon King. Originally, Chen Feng didn't have so many demon pellets in his hands, but someone changed some with him.

Use the monster pill of the monster beast in exchange for the corpses of the monster beast left after Chen Feng got the monster pill, because for them, although this demon pill is extremely powerful, it is extremely difficult for them to absorb it, and it is far better to absorb it. Xuan Huangshi is so fast.

Take an ordinary Nine-Star Martial King's early disciple as an example. It would take him at least several years to absorb an Eight-Star Demon King's Demon Pill.

For them, they can't afford to wait at this time, and it is better to exchange for the black yellow stone and even the powerful martial arts, exercises, and medicines with the corpse of the monster beast, which is more cost-effective.

A total of thirty-two demon pills were placed in front of Chen Feng.

The color of each demon pill is different, and the patterns inside are also different, reflecting everything this demon beast had in his lifetime, their will, their memory, and their attributes.

Each demon pill is like a world!

Chen Feng pressed it down with one hand, and the force of the arrogant dragon descending arhat burst out.

Suddenly, a world was directly shattered. Compared with the seven-star demon king's demon pill, the eight-star demon king's demon pill was thicker, the defense was also thicker, and it was more difficult to break.

Chen Feng's power of descending the dragon and Arhat slammed on it, and with a boom, the demon pill produced a violent tremor, but only a small crack appeared, and it was not broken.

Chen Feng pursed his lips and smiled: "It's really strong, but it's useless to me!"

Then, the power of the dragon descending Arhat bombarded again, wave after wave, like a wave, endless.

Finally, with a bang, this demon pill was directly broken by Chen Feng.

Chapter 2219: Seven thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine dragon power!

Suddenly, a powerful force that was extremely cold and fierce at the same time, as if breaking Chen Feng's meridians, penetrated into Chen Feng's palm, and then rushed into the Dantian.

This force was extremely domineering and extremely tyrannical. After rushing into the dantian, it turned into countless sword auras, seeming to want to crush Chen Feng's dantian alive.

However, it didn't have any effect. When the power of the dragon descending Arhat appeared, it instantly beat them into countless fragments, and then sucked into the dragon descending Arhat Bright Orb.

In an instant, he was assimilated.

A light smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, and he did not speak, but continued to increase his efforts to absorb.

After a long time, Chen Feng let out a sulky breath, opened his eyes, then a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and whispered to himself: "This Eight-Star Demon King's Demon Pill is really unusual, and it is ten stronger than the Seven-Star Demon King Demon Pill. Times more!"

"Just this demon pill just now has increased the power of my one hundred dragons!"

"Now, I have a total of 5,900 dragons!"

With the addition of a hundred dragons, Chen Feng not only did not feel the slightest sense of satisfaction, but the desire in his heart was stimulated. The three dragon descending Arhat Bright Orbs ran wildly, all exuding extreme desire, and he wished to be crazy. .

As a result, another Demon Pill of the Eight-Star Demon King was broken.

This time, it was a demon king's demon pill that had mixed toxicity and wood elements. The extremely powerful cyan cold poison instantly penetrated into Chen Feng's body.

But it still has no effect on him. Under the power of the dragon descending Arhat, nothing can resist. These toxins are also directly broken, and then absorbed into the dragon descending Arhat Bright Orb, and transformed into the Dragon descending Arhat. .

Chen Feng once again increased the power of a hundred dragons, and he already had the power of 6,000 dragons!

Next, Chen Feng kept breaking the demon pill and absorbing it, and the power of the dragon in his body increased wildly.

After a long time, as the power of the dragon descending Arhat inside his body exploded, the golden light was released.

Chen Fengfeng stood up and laughed loudly: "Now, the dragon power in my body has reached 7,999! The realm has reached the peak of the third heaven, only the fourth A thin line!"

at this time. He didn't even use Chen Feng to run his own power. Chen Feng even just stood up, and the power in his body was automatically circulating.

Chen Feng felt that the power of the dragon in his body was turning crazily, swelling crazily, as if to break out of his body.

His body was swollen and aching. At this moment, if Chen Feng didn't punch him, he felt that he was going to be alive to death.

Therefore, Chen Feng instinctively roared and blasted out with a fist.

There was a bang, and there was a hum on the ground.

The Tongtian River in the distance was like a pot exploded. From in front of Chen Feng to ten thousand meters away, every thousand meters, a huge water column with a height of several hundred meters in diameter was exploded.

I don't know how many monsters in Tongtianhe were directly shaken to death.

The water column collapsed instantly, and it turned into a heavy rain and fell.

The surface of the Tongtian River, which was originally without waves, was actually a stormy sea!

Chen Feng just made a random move, and he was so powerful.

After this punch, the feeling of almost exploding in Chen Feng's body finally subsided.

At this time, Chen Feng felt a move, and immediately said softly: "Now my diamond body is not bad, and I can practice!"

However, at this time Chen Feng did not practice immediately. Today, Chen Feng has made enough breakthroughs. If he practiced again, he was afraid that the speed and quality of the cultivation would be affected.

In fact, today Chen Feng could have broken through downwards, even breaking through the fourth heaven. The reason why he did not continue to break forward is not that Chen Feng could not, but that Chen Feng did not want to.

When Chen Feng broke through to the peak of the third heaven, he felt a little vain and his foundation was unstable.

Therefore, he himself pressed the breakthrough stone abruptly.

He knew that the speed of his breakthrough was too fast, almost in a short period of one or two months, he broke through to nearly 8,000 dragons, which would easily lead to unstable foundations.

This is what Chen Feng didn't want to see. His cultivation speed was already fast enough and he didn't need to pursue faster anymore. Instead, he is now more for stability, at least at this stage, it is better to be stable.

Therefore, Chen Feng kept his dragon power at 7999.

But even so, it has reached the pinnacle of the third heaven, with a powerful and incomparable power!

As for breaking into the fourth heaven, Chen Feng is not in a hurry.

Now she still has two here. The Golden Wolf King's Nine-Star Demon King's demon pills have not been absorbed. After these two demon pills are absorbed, she can definitely break through to the fourth heaven easily.

At the same time, suddenly above the sky, thunderclouds gathered.

A thundercloud storm suddenly took shape, and the boundless thunder and lightning fell and fell on Chen Feng fiercely.

Not only did Chen Feng feel no pain, but felt that his body was being tempered and felt extremely comfortable.

When the thundercloud storm completely disappeared, the martial arts Tianhe in Chen Feng's body was already shattering the void, and then consolidated in length, finally reaching a full 80,000 meters long!

Chen Feng has already broken through to the Eight-Star Martial King.

And his combat power is already comparable to half a step in the Martial Emperor Realm.

Then, Chen Feng took a deep breath, turned his gaze to the direction of the Tianyuan Imperial City, and whispered to himself: "Now the animal tide has ended, the matter of Wudong Academy is temporarily over."

"Soldiers and weapons, you are plotting my business, you should also take care of this account!"

If you still don't know that he has been calculated silently by the soldiers' weapons, then Chen Feng would be too stupid.

Then, Chen Feng, Han Yu'er, and Uncle Dao left the Sky Splitting Island and once again came to Tianyuan Imperial City.

Yu Hong is far from Feng Hongyun. He has no ability to directly send Chen Feng and others from the inner courtyard of Wudong Academy to the outer courtyard of Wudong Academy.

You know, the reason why he was able to leap over Tongtianhe was given to her by Wudong Academy, because he was the one who worked in the inner courtyard of Wudong Academy, so Wudong Academy supported him behind it and let Tong Tong The monster in Tianhe didn't dare to move him.

However, he did not have the qualification and ability to fly in the Tianyuan Imperial City.

So he could only put Chen Feng and others on the bank of Tongtian River.

And as soon as Chen Feng and his party left Split Sky Island, a figure sitting cross-legged in the mountains to the north of Tianyuan Imperial City suddenly opened his eyes.

Chapter 2220: Desert giant, revenge!

He then stood up.

He has been sitting here cross-legged for a long time, his body is covered with dust and even stones, and from a distance, it looks like a huge rock mountain.

At this moment, he stood up, taller than the mountain.

He took a big step and walked quickly towards the north gate of the Tianyuan Imperial City.

Taking a step forward is not knowing how far, and in a blink of an eye, he has already reached the gate of Tianyuan Imperial City.

At this time, the three of Chen Feng had just arrived here when they heard a huge sound of footsteps. Then they turned their heads, and they were shocked to see that a huge giant came towards this side.

This giant wears extremely simple, just wearing a simple half breastplate, holding a golden cudgel in his hand, which is more than 10,000 meters long!

However, he doesn't need any more mighty armor, his such a huge figure can already explain everything, and it can already shock everyone.

At this time, the merchants outside the city looked at him blankly, and the pedestrians stopped, opened their mouths and looked at Jean with shock and fear on their faces.

Even the tall city walls couldn't block his body from seeing, and many people in the city had seen him.

People exclaimed.

Someone suddenly said: "I saw him about a month ago!"

"Yes, when you said that, I seem to remember it, but Tianyuan Guan Huangcheng did not allow such a huge person to enter, so he disappeared. I didn't expect him to appear again this time."

Someone was dumbfounded, and said loudly, "What species is this? It is tens of thousands of meters high? Isn't this too huge?"

"In our hometown, I have seen giants, but it's only a few dozen meters or more than a hundred meters. How can he be as tall as a mountain?"

Suddenly, the luxuriously dressed merchant laughed loudly and said in a tone full of superiority: "You guys, you know at first glance that you are a foreigner and have no knowledge."

The middle-aged fat man who exclaimed hurriedly accompanied a smile and said, "I hope Xiongtai will help me solve my doubts."

The young man in Jinpao next to him said triumphantly: "Well, then I'll talk to you."

"Tell you, although these giants are huge and rare, they are not uncommon."

"Don't say anything else, in my Tianyuan Dynasty, there is a big family, Nanyang Tuoba's family, there are ten tall giants like him!"

"What? Ten?" The middle-aged fat man opened his mouth wide, and Harazi didn't know when he shed.

He was completely shocked.

"Yes, it is a total of ten." The luxurious young man stretched out his slap twice, doubled it, and then said with a smile: "These ten giants, do you think they are so tall?"

"Tell you, although their strength is strong, the Tuoba family of my Tianyuan Dynasty is the top family second only to the royal family, and it is also extremely powerful. These ten giants are the car slaves of the owner in the Tuoba family and are responsible for Patriarch waits on the wild behemoth that pulls the cart, ancient alien species!

"When the patriarch goes out, he holds a long whip, a giant axe, a big yue, a giant halberd, and opens the way ahead!"

The middle-aged fat man was already shocked and speechless.

He stared blankly, smashed his mouth, then said with a sigh: "You Tianyuan Imperial City, really..."

As for what it really is, I can't tell it anyway!

Although this giant was rare, they felt nothing after they were shocked for a while.

And more importantly, this giant obviously didn't mean to hurt others, he just strode towards a certain goal.

And everyone soon discovered that his target was unexpectedly a young man.

Chen Feng also saw him and immediately realized that the goal of this giant was definitely himself.

He raised his brows, and a smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth, like Han Yu'er said: "Senior Sister, do you still remember the desert giant we killed when we were in the desert when we slayed the tribe?"

Han Yuer nodded and said, "I remember."

Chen Feng pointed to the 10,000-meter-high giant, and said, "It's mostly his people who came to seek revenge!"

Sure enough, as expected by Chen Feng, the 10,000-meter-high giant stopped in front of Chen Feng, staring at Chen Feng, and made a thunder-like sound in his mouth. It shook the eardrums of people around him, and some people even had blood on the eardrums. Outflow.

"You, Chen Feng, right?"

"I can feel that your body smells like my brother's blood. Did you kill my brother?"

Chen Feng smiled and said, "I have killed a desert giant, but I don't know if he is your brother!"

"It really is you!" The desert giant was furious in an instant, and he yelled in anger: "You humble human, you killed my brother? I must avenge him today!"

Chen Feng looked at him like a madman, and said lightly: "Since I can kill your brother, unless your strength is much higher than your brother, I should have no problem killing you." novelusb.com

The desert giant let out a disdainful laugh, pointed at Chen Feng, and said with contempt: "Only you? Are you worthy?"

"I'm telling you, don't think about scaring me. You must have killed my brother with a conspiracy. If you do, how can you be my opponent of the desert giant?"

"You humble human! Die!"

Then, without saying anything, he blasted towards Chen Feng with a punch.

The people onlookers around evaded one after another, lest it cause the fish to suffer.

Most of their faces were gloating: "This young man, I don't know how to provoke such a powerful desert giant!"

"Yes, this desert giant is only afraid to have the cultivation base of the Nine-Star Martial King, this young boy is young, how powerful can he be?"

There was a middle-aged scholar who fanned the fan, pretending to be profound, and said: "Even the aristocratic families in the Tianyuan Dynasty, his age, but around twenty years old, the most outstanding disciple is at most the Eight-Star King Martial Artist. That's it."

"Those who can reach Jiuxing are already rare!"

He pointed at Chen Feng and said a few words like a sentence: "This son, he will die today!"

The people around nodded in agreement: "Mr. Zhuang is right!"

Faced with this giant's punch like a breakthrough, no one thought Chen Feng could have any chance of winning.

However, Chen Feng smiled slightly. The next moment, everyone shouted in exclamation, with a look of disbelief on their faces.

It turned out that they saw that Chen Feng just stretched out a finger in the face of this giant's extremely powerful punch.

Compared with this giant, Chen Feng is as inconspicuous as a grass under the mountain.
