

Peerless 2221

Chapter 2221: Wait for me to slap you in the face!

Compared with the giant's fist, his fingers are so small that they can be ignored.

But it was such a white and slender finger that actually withstood the huge fist like a mountain, causing the fist to freeze in the air, unable to advance.

The desert giant showed a look of anger on his face, screamed in anger, and urged his fists one after another.

But his fist was unable to advance a point.

Chen Feng looked at him with a smile and said softly, "It seems that I can kill your brother not by conspiracy!"

This desert giant was wild and violent, and felt that he lost face and face in front of everyone.

He let out a violent roar, and at this time, he also realized that he seemed to have hit a hard hand.

"This boy is definitely not easy to deal with! If you want to deal with him, it is absolutely impossible with my palm alone!"

So he took a step back, then raised the giant stick in his hand and slammed it down at Chen Feng.

The dark golden cudgel in his hand is about 10,000 meters long, like a giant pillar one after another, and its weight is unknown.

When this stick was smashed down, that power almost split the entire world.

Everyone is changed for it!

When this stick was shot, the world changed color, the wind and clouds stirred, and even dark clouds condensed in the sky.

The people around yelled in exclamation: "Even if this young man is strong, he will definitely not dare to take this stick!"

"That's right, the power contained in this stick may reach tens of millions of catties or even hundreds of millions of catties, how can this young man be able to catch it?"

Mr. Zhuang, who had spoken before, thought he had lost face. At this time, his eyes flickered and he said flatly: "Even if he is strong, he is a flesh and blood body, he will definitely be turned into meat sauce by this stick!"

"is it?"

Chen Feng suddenly looked at him and smiled coldly: "Wait for me to slap you in the face!"

The next moment, Chen Feng laughed loudly, and greeted the giant stick directly.

At the next moment, everyone shouted in shock!

It turned out that Chen Feng was surrounded by a strong dark golden light, his palms slapped fiercely on the dark golden giant stick.

With a bang, Chen Feng remained motionless in the air, while the huge desert giant screamed bitterly, his hands were directly shocked with blood, and the dark golden cudgel was directly shocked to fly. Going out and hitting the ground, it actually hit a small river above the ground!

Chen Feng laughed and said: "Refreshing, comfortable! Really refreshing!"

This desert giant is completely stupid: "How is it possible? My giant stick has a power of hundreds of millions of catties, how can you take it down?"

Chen Feng laughed loudly: "Now it's your turn to take my hand!"

His body flashed sharply and came to the desert giant, his palms shot out.

King Kong pushes the mountain!

The desert giant waved his palm to resist, and was immediately shattered with his arm, screamed screamingly, and retreated several steps.

Chen Feng was not forgiving, and moved forward again, King Kong played the pipa!

This time, the desert giant could no longer block this move.

Chen Feng swiftly blasted on his head.

Bang, bang, bang, the head of the desert giant shook one after another, and every time he shook, he vomited blood crazily.

The blood arrow shot out from his seven orifices like a river.

And when Chen Feng's diamond playing pipa popped for the last time, the desert giant let out a screaming cry like a beast on the verge of death: "Ah..."

The next moment, his body trembled, standing still, motionless.

And the next moment her body fell heavily to the ground, smashing the earth into a tremor!

He didn't have the slightest aura anymore, he was directly killed by Chen Feng!

It was quiet outside the city, and everyone was shocked watching this scene.

The next moment, a huge exclamation broke out: "This giant was actually killed by this young man? This young man is too strong!"

Those people who looked down on Chen Feng before were all dull!

Chen Feng looked at Mr. Zhuang, smiled and said, "Does your face hurt?"

Mr. Zhuang's face was hot, he didn't dare to stay for a moment, and walked away desperately.

Chen Feng looked at the corpse of the desert giant with a smile at the corner of his mouth, and said: "Next time you send a strong point to be my opponent, you are really not enough!"

Looking at the huge desert giant corpse lying on the ground, Chen Feng said softly to Uncle Dao: "Uncle, I have to bother you to disperse this miscellaneous people."

Uncle Dao understood, nodded, and said loudly: "It's all gone, all gone, don't watch the excitement here."

Many people were dispelled by him, and there were a few who didn't want to leave, and they were all high-fived by Uncle Dao, screaming and screaming.

Soon, only Chen Feng remained here.

Then, Chen Feng came to the corpse of the desert giant, took a deep breath, and slowly stretched out his palms, pressing on the body of the desert giant.

The next moment, in the deepest part of Chen Feng's body, in that hidden corner, a light suddenly appeared.

Then, Chen Feng's blood all lit up.

In his blood, there is a dense red gold color like cow hair, but these red gold colors have not truly integrated, and all his blood has not been turned red gold.

As Chen Feng's thoughts arrived, the giant blood of a giant like a golden gem in the deepest part of Chen Feng's body suddenly appeared in a vortex.

In the next moment, there were countless vortices in Chen Feng's blood, all of them spinning like crazy.

A huge suction force quietly poured out from Chen Feng's body, and in an instant, there was a reaction from the body of the desert giant.

Numerous golden light spots seeped out from the blood of the desert giant, and then these golden light spots turned into a golden torrent to surge towards Chen Feng.

This is the most original giant bloodline of the desert giant!

These golden light spots soon poured into Chen Feng's palm, and then penetrated into Chen Feng's body along his palm.

As a result, Chen Feng's body instantly shined brightly.

The golden color in his bloodline became more and more shining.

After Chen Feng is now at a high level, his absorption speed has also changed. It took about an hour to finally absorb the last trace of the giant's blood in the desert giant!

Then, Chen Feng stood with his palms in his hands, looking at the corpses of a desert giant in front of him that had become rotten, like a corpse laid for thousands of years, he sighed softly and whispered to himself:

"After I have absorbed the blood of this desert Juren, the level of the blood has not improved, and it remains the same as before."

Chapter 2222: 400 million catties of huge force!

"However, the concentration of blood is higher than before, stronger and stronger than before."

"Moreover, what I feel most deeply is..."

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, and a punch came out. It was just an ordinary punch, but it left a thunderstorm-like hum in the air!

Chen Feng clenched his fist, and there was a burst of creaking sound all over his bones.

Among his jade bones and golden muscles, a light gold color quietly flowed.

After that, the bones in Chen Feng's body were all pushed outwards, and the airtight gap between the bones was enlarged in an instant, and Chen Feng became more than three meters tall at this time, like a little giant. All the joints were a very rough and loud noise, which could even be heard around a hundred miles, which made Chen Feng feel very comfortable.

There was an extremely refreshing feeling in the body.

Chen Feng clenched his fists and said softly: "Now, my bloodline power has increased again, from 300 million catties to 400 million catties!"

"A full 100 million catties increase in strength is extremely powerful!"

Then, he was suddenly blessed, and naturally he put up a gesture of strong vajra palm.

Then, King Kong pushed the mountain, but this time, Chen Feng's King Kong pushed the mountain more powerfully than any time before.

It was another move of King Kong to break the tablet, and then King Kong played the pipa again.

Dali Vajra Palm was hit continuously, and soon, Chen Feng hit it again, then again, and then again for the third time.

After a full fifteen strokes of vigorous vajra palm, Chen Feng felt that the feeling of almost alive and swelling in his body finally disappeared.

Chen Feng's figure suddenly stood still, standing still for a long time.

Suddenly, the dazzling dark golden light on his body surface was released suddenly, and then it contracted sharply, and all returned to Chen Feng's body.

Then, he shouted, King Kong pushed the mountain, his palms shot out again!

There was a bang, as if there really was a King Kong who didn't know how tall it was, pushing it towards a mountain.

I saw that in the ground in front of Chen Feng, a huge crack appeared in an instant, reaching a depth of several kilometers.

In the next moment, the soil walls on both sides squeezed towards the middle, exploding an unprecedented sand wave of several kilometers high.

Chen Feng stood up with his palm, and laughed: "My strong vajra palm has now broken through to the realm of entering the hall!"

"Now, my strong vajra palm can exert ten percent of its power!"

"The next level is perfect!"

This time, all the blood of this desert giant was absorbed by Chen Feng, and it was already worthless. After losing his blood power, his corpse was like a mass of rotten wood.

Then, Chen Feng's bones shrank and returned to a normal state.

He turned his gaze and saw the big lake next to him that had been smashed out forcibly.

It was originally a barren area, but now it has been smashed into a large lake with a radius of 10,000 meters, and even the Tongtian River has quietly penetrated in.

And of course he also saw the dark golden giant stick in the big lake like a huge pillar from the sky.

Uncle Dao asked, "Little Master, what should we do with this thing? It would be a shame to lose it like this?"

Chen Feng nodded, walked forward, and tapped lightly on the material.

This material seems to be a fusion of gold and jade, the color of the whole body is dark gold, but when viewed inside, it is somewhat translucent, but it is not completely visible.

"Extremely hard, round and smooth jade, it is an excellent casting material at first glance." Chen Feng said: "This golden giant stick is very heavy, and the material is also very special. Of course, there are so many precious casting materials. Throw it away."

"But my golden dragon ring can't be placed inside!" He was a little embarrassed.

Uncle Dao shook his head, also somewhat unthinkable. The three of them looked at each other, and they all felt helpless.

And at this moment, watching them worry about it, the eyes of Blood Wind suddenly turned around a few times, and then he ran to Chen Feng with his mouth open, his tongue kept spitting out. He made a whistle, his eyes gleamed.

The buttocks swayed very cheerfully, like a puppy asking the owner for credit.

Chen Feng understood, touched his head and scratched his soft chin.

Bloodwind immediately became very enjoyable, squinting his eyes.

Chen Feng smiled: "Why, you little guy, is there any way?" NoVeLuS&.cOm

When Xuefeng heard this, he nodded desperately. Then, he bit Chen Feng's trousers and dragged him to the side of the lake, and then flashed out like a silver arrow.

I saw that his figure grew in the wind, and in a blink of an eye he changed from a silver little wolf about a foot in size to a huge demon wolf that was several kilometers long.

At this time, the lovely color on him was gone, replaced by domineering and hideous, but what has not changed is that he looks at Chen Feng and the others, still full of admiration.

Then, he came to the golden cudgel, and with a twitch, he directly carried the golden cudgel on his shoulders.

The next moment, with a sigh, disappeared directly, and flew in the direction of Sky Splitting Island!

His speed was extremely fast, Chen Feng and the others just waited for a stick of incense before the blood wind returned.

It's just that he didn't come back alone. A large swarm of monster beasts crushed behind him were killed, all of them were monsters in the Tongtian River.

All of them were full of shame and anger, yelling again and again, chasing the blood wind frantically, and before the blood wind was about to be overtaken by them, it fell dangerously and dangerously to the bank of the Tongtian River.

The big monsters in the Tongtianhe were full of anguish, so they had to curse a few words before they were on the wave, and they returned angrily.

The blood wind flew towards Chen Feng and the others, the huge body became smaller and smaller in the air, and soon turned back into the one-foot-sized cute little wolf, and then directly rushed into Chen Feng's arms.

He raised his face, his eyes were round, full of appeals for credit, and he said, "Come on and praise me!" Come and compliment my expression.

Chen Feng laughed, stretched out his hand and rubbed his body a few times, and said with a smile: "Bloodwind, you are awesome!"

With this kind of praise, Bloodwind seems to be satisfied!

Chen Feng and the three people soon arrived before the soldier's weapon shop.

Seeing Chen Feng's arrival, the deacon at the door already knew Chen Feng. He immediately greeted him with a smile on his face, and said with a smile: "Master Chen, are you here?"

Chen Feng looked at them and said lightly: "You get out of the way, I don't want to hurt you."

Chapter 2223: I'll spare you your life, and you will die!

"What?" Hearing this, these deacons suddenly changed their expressions, and they didn't understand what had happened.

But they were very scared, and they felt from Chen Feng's cold eyes that something must have happened this time!

With a little fear on their faces, they backed away.

At this time, Chen Feng took a deep breath, and suddenly walked forward, kicking heavily on the gate with the weapon line.

The gate of Soldier Weapon Shop is made of special metal, which is extremely heavy and strong, and ordinary attacks cannot damage it at all.

But Chen Feng kicked it out, fierce, and the power of the dragon descending arhat surged, and the dark golden light slammed against the gate.

So the next moment, a harsh metal distortion and cut-off sound suddenly sounded, and the two gates flew in directly, swaying the walls heavily.

The people on the surrounding streets were shocked to see this scene.

Many people gathered here to give pointers, and soon there was a large circle of people around.

Everyone whispered: "Who is this? Why is it so overbearing? Is this soldier's weaponry he can afford?"

"I know this person. His name is Chen Feng. He is a young master who has risen extremely fast."

Someone said with a puzzled face: "It's not right. This Chen Feng once bought a lot of weapons in the soldier weapon shop, and has a very good relationship with the soldier weapon shop. But today, why did he take pains when he came up to do so? There is no face for weapons!"

With this loud noise, everyone in the Soldiers and Weapon Shop was alarmed and came down.

Soon, the old steward came out with many stewards here.

The manager who knew Chen Feng with surprise, shock, and a hint of anger, shouted loudly, "Master Chen, what are you doing?"

Chen Feng judged from his expression that he should be unaware.

He smiled faintly and said, "You will know it later."

As he said, he turned his gaze to the old manager and said calmly: "Old manager, you have helped me a lot before, and I accept your love."

"But, about today's matter, you have to give me an explanation!"

The old steward saw Chen Feng's look, and then glanced at the blood-stained giant knife that Chen Feng was carrying on his back, and his heart was clear.

He was secretly horrified in his heart: "This Chen Feng, has already learned the secret of the blood-stained giant sword so soon?"

He was also frank, and said frankly: "Yes, that blood-stained giant knife is indeed a bit weird."

Chen Feng nodded and said: "Okay, very good, you just admit it!"

"Do you have anything else to say?"

With that said, Chen Feng rose up in a frantic manner and pressed down on the boss.

The aura on his body is extremely powerful, covering all the soldiers and weapons in an instant.

All the people in the soldier and weapon trade changed their colors and exclaimed: "This Chen Feng's strength has actually improved than last time?"

"It's only been a few days, this Chen Feng is too terrifying!"

"His strength has risen to the extreme, and it seems that there are no boundaries!"

Some people wanted to transport their strength to contend with, Chen Feng snorted coldly, and suddenly his aura was suppressed again.

As a result, those who wanted to contend all let out a painful cry and were directly crushed to their knees.

The guards around the Soldier Weapon Shop still wanted to do something, Chen Feng just glanced at them lightly, and snorted coldly in his nose: "Huh?"

With such a cold snort of 'um', the guards of those soldiers and weapons were struck by lightning, screaming, bleeding from the seven orifices, and falling to the ground.

This is already the mercy of Chen Feng's men. Otherwise, Chen Feng's cold snort of 'um' would be enough to shake them to death.

Chen Feng, after all, still nostalgia!

Then, Chen Feng stared at the chief steward and said again: "What else do you have to say?"

There was a tragic look on the boss's face, and he straightened his chest suddenly, shook his head and said, "I did all of this, nothing to do with others."

Chen Feng smiled coldly: "Okay, hard enough!"

As he said, his figure flickered forward quickly, slammed out with a palm, and blasted towards them.

The palm wind blows his face, extremely tyrannical.

At this moment, all soldiers and weapons professionals felt that death was approaching.

They are all pale, with a look of despair in their eyes, and they will die for the next moment.

Suddenly, at this time, Chen Feng's attack direction changed abruptly. With a bang, he slammed directly on the wall of the soldier's weapon shop behind them, knocking the pavilion to the ground, a large wall. Collapsed.

And they are safe and sound.

Chen Feng stood up, looking at the old steward, and said lightly: "I have come here to buy weapons many times, and I have some friendship with you. You have helped me. I am grateful for your kindness."

"So, today I will spare your life, but remember that from today onwards, this love will be offset!"

"From now on, En severance!"

With that said, Chen Feng roared and turned around to leave.

And at this moment, suddenly behind him, a cold voice came over: "Chen Feng, you have made such a big incident in my soldier and weapon trade, and you want to leave. Isn't it a bit too cheap?"

Chen Feng suddenly turned his head, and then saw that a dozen people were coming here quickly.

Each of them is riding an ice and snow lizard, all white, like a cold ice sculpture.

About tens of meters in length, they are not very big, but each of them has a ferocious look, giving people an extremely fierce feeling. Obviously, their strength is absolutely extraordinary.

On each ice lizard, there is a knight sitting.

And these knights are surrounded by a young man.

The young man's hair, beard, and eyebrows were all white, and his eyes were blue. He was staring at Chen Feng with a cold look in his eyes.

Chen Feng looked at him without speaking.

This young man came to the front and said loudly: "The owner of the Ice and Snow Weapon Shop is the Ice and Snow Family, and I am the eldest son of the Ice and Snow Family!"

Chen Feng looked at him and said lightly: "So what? What do you want?" novelusb.com

"What do I want?" The Bingxue family eldest young master sneered: "You have beaten up my soldier's weapon shop like this, just want to leave, dreaming?"

Chen Feng looked at him with a smile, and said lightly: "What do you want?"

"What do I want?" The Bingxue family elder master sneered and said, "Now I will capture you back into our Bingxue family."

Chapter 2224: What do you want to say?

A grinning smile appeared at the corner of his mouth: "To be honest, I'm not afraid to tell you that this blood-stained giant knife is my master, and now, since you have been corroded by the blood-stained giant knife, then just right, I will transfer you to the Ice and Snow family. Among them, see what this blood-stained giant sword will do to you!"

A sharp look flashed in Chen Feng's eyes, but he didn't expect it to be him who wanted to harm himself.

Chen Feng sneered and said: "Even if you don't come to me, I will find you to settle this grievance!"

"In this case, let's fight!"

He looked at Chen Feng disdainfully, and said with a mockery: "Chen Feng, let me tell you, don't think I don't know your details."

"You are now controlled by the magic knife, so you have to increase your strength!"

He paused, and his face showed a deep disdain, even a look of disgust: "Do you know that this magic knife has had ten owners in the past thousands of years."

"And every time, his master is like this. At first they will gain strength and feel comfortable all over, but later, they will feel more uncomfortable and they will be tortured."

"In the end, you will be directly controlled, involuntarily, and become a walking dead."

He looked at Chen Feng with an insightful gaze, full of compassion, and said: "You will soon enter that situation too. It's ridiculous! You are still complacent!"

Chen Feng said lightly: "You are the only one who is really ridiculous."

He really thought it was very interesting. Obviously he had already wiped out the demon head in the magic knife, and completely controlled the blood-stained giant knife, but he actually thought that he was controlled by the blood-stained giant knife. , This person is really ignorant.

The young master sneered coldly: "It seems that you are determined to come here to make trouble today."

Chen Feng said lightly: "I'm not making trouble, I just want to get justice back."

"Hahaha, where is there any justice? I am better than you! I mean justice!" The young master laughed wildly with disdain.

Chen Feng looked at him, rubbed his nose, and said, "It seems you think you are much stronger than me?"

"Of course!" Bing Wuchang took it for granted, looking at Chen Feng, his gaze was condescending, full of the meaning of looking down: "Chen Feng, Chen Feng, you are still rising too fast, and the time for rising is too short! "

"Yes, you have a bit of strength, but you have no background. For a big family like our soldier family, we don't know how many years of inheritance. We may not have a strong reputation outside, but in fact, our background makes you so strong. feel despair!"

"The more you know, the more afraid you will be, and the reason why you dare to come and challenge now is that the ignorant are fearless!"

Chen Feng chuckled, "Really? I want to give you this sentence."

As he said, he rubbed himself up, his palms were fierce, and patted it out.

Bing Wuchang still had a disdainful smile on his face at first, but when Chen Feng's palms were shot, his expression changed in amazement.

He glared at the manager, and shouted in surprise: "Didn't you talk about his strength before, but it was the early stage of the Nine-Star Martial King? How come it gives me the feeling of being the peak of the Nine Star Martial King?"

The big steward also changed in amazement, and said in shock: "Master, I don't know!"

"The last time I saw him, it was really only in the early days of King Nine Stars!"

When everyone heard this, they shouted in disbelief: "Could it be that Chen Feng's strength has progressed so quickly in just a few days?"

"This Chen Feng is simply a monster!"

"Yes, his speed of improvement is terrifying!"

Chen Feng laughed loudly: "Pick me this trick!"

The arrogance and disdain that originally existed on Bing Wuchang's face turned into horror and horror at this time.

He yelled in panic: "Impossible, impossible? How could you be so strong?"

A white light flashed on his body. This white light was not a bright white light like sunlight, but extremely cold, just like ice and snow. In a blink of an eye, a huge protective shield like ice and snow was formed directly in front of him. shield!

After ten meters of the huge shield, it was shining with extremely hard white light, and even the white was faintly bluish, just like that immortal glacier.

Then, he smashed the huge ice shield forward fiercely.

Above his body, the white light continued to flicker, so another white shield appeared before the white shield, and another shield...Nine huge white ice and snow shields appeared one after another!

They are all glowing with blue light, and they seem to know that they are extremely hard.

After putting down these nine shields, he was determined in his heart and let out a burst of laughter: "Hahahaha, Chen Feng, this is one of the strongest martial arts of our soldier family. Frost flees for nine consecutive times. It is extremely strong and powerful. !"

"You can't break it at all..."

Before the word 'open' was spoken, his eyes widened and he looked unbelievable.

Because Chen Feng already gave a cold drink, his palms slapped fiercely on the frost shield, and with a bang, the first shield was directly shattered.

Then Chen Feng's figure kept going, and he blasted on the second shield again.

The second shield was directly shattered again, and Chen Feng did not delay even the slightest time.

With nine explosions in succession, the nine ice and snow shields were shattered by Chen Feng.

And Chen Feng had already reached the front of Bingwuchang, smiling and said, "What do you want to say?"

Bing Wuchang's face changed wildly: "How could it be possible that Frost Nine Shields can't stop you?"

Chen Feng didn't talk nonsense with him at all, slapped him out, and killed him in the next moment.

Bing Wuchang gritted his teeth, and suddenly a white object resembling a lotus flower appeared in his hand, exuding a noble and powerful aura. Novelusb.com

He threw the object directly out, and in an instant, a white lotus flower was formed in front of him, like an ice sculpture.

But the impermanence of the soldiers hurriedly moved towards the center of this ice and snow lotus.

The center position is the flower bud, and the flower buds are surrounded by dozens of layers of petals. This is an extraordinary treasure of their family. As long as it falls into it, Chen Feng will face dozens of layers of protection. The space cannot be broken at all.

His face reappeared with pride, and he laughed: "Chen Feng, as long as this ice snow lotus can stop you for a while, the master of our family will come immediately."

"At that time, you will die or not!"

He now knew that he was not Chen Feng's opponent at all, and only hoped that he could stop Chen Feng for a while and wait for the rescue of others.

Chapter 2225: Who is ignorant and fearless?

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth: "Unfortunately, you can't do it."

As he said, he was in a fast-bodied mountainous area, with a palm of King Kong playing the pipa, banging on his body with incomparable force, and directly flew out the impermanence that was about to fall into the center of the lotus flower.

Countless powers fell on the body of the young master of the soldier family.

Every time he fell, he screamed sternly and spouted a mouthful of blood.

When Chen Feng Jingang finished playing the pipa, his body was already like a dead fish, falling heavily to the ground, convulsing constantly, his breath was dying, he was already seriously injured and dying.

At this time, beside it, that ice snow lotus bloomed quietly, extremely gorgeous.

Chen Feng smiled slightly, walked forward, but didn't even look at it, just grabbed the soldier's impermanence.

Chen Feng looked at him with a smile, and said lightly: "Now tell me, who is it, the ignorant is fearless?"

Bing Wuchang's face instantly turned blood red, swollen like pig liver, as if he had been slapped severely.

He now remembered what he said just now, only to realize how ridiculous what he said just now.

Chen Feng's strength is far better than himself.

One move, you can defeat yourself.

And he was still so arrogant in front of him.

The surrounding crowd also made a roar of laughter, and the well-informed person already shouted: "Just now, Chen Feng killed a giant of the Nine-Star Martial King's pinnacle outside the city, and now he defeated it with one move. The great young master who has become a soldier and weapon expert, this Chen Feng's reputation will surely spread in the Tianyuan Imperial City."

"Yes!" someone said with admiration: "This Chen Feng can almost be called one of the strongest of the younger generation!"

"Hahaha!" Someone laughed and said, "I am looking forward to the battle in a few days!"

"Chen Feng and the eldest son of the Lieyang family can be said to be the best among the younger generation of the Tianyuan dynasty. They originally thought that Chen Feng was not qualified to be compared with the eldest son, but now, this one looks good!"

"Then there is another fart?" Someone made a disdainful snort from his nose: "No matter how he is, he can't be Lieyang Wenrui's opponent!"

"That's true." The person who had spoken before also nodded in agreement, even if he looked down on the bad elements, thinking that he could not be the opponent of the Lieyang Family Grand Prince.

After all, the name of Lord Lieyang as a strong man has been circulating for so many years, deeply in everyone's hearts.

At this time, Chen Feng heard what they were saying clearly.

There was a sneer at the corner of his mouth: "I don't think I can be Lieyang Wenrui's opponent, right?"

"Okay, then, when the time comes, I will slap you in the face severely and make you ashamed of what you said today!"

Chen Feng looked at Bingwuchang and smiled and said, "How do we calculate our account?"

"How to calculate?" But at this time, Bing Wuchang's face was still arrogant.

He shouted wildly: "Chen Feng, you dare not kill me, you absolutely dare not kill me!"

"Our soldier family is extremely powerful. If you dare to kill me, the consequences will be extremely serious. You will definitely die horribly! Being chased by the soldier family to death!"

He looked at Chen Feng as if he was holding the winning ticket, and said proudly, "You dare not kill me!"

"Really?" Chen Feng's mouth suddenly showed a sneer: "Then, I will let you see, whether I dare or not!"

With that, Chen Feng roared and suddenly jumped into the air. While in the air, he had already pulled out the blood-stained giant knife behind his back, and slashed towards the young master with a single knife.

Bingwuchang's expression suddenly changed, and he could feel the incomparable killing intent from this knife.

He immediately realized that Chen Feng really dared to kill him, and he could definitely kill him.

In an instant, the domineering and arrogant color on his face disappeared, replaced by deep fear and despair.

He made a stern cry for mercy: "Chen Feng, don't kill me!"

However, it was too late.

Chen Feng sneered and said, "Don't you want to use this knife to calculate me? Then die by this knife, you can be considered dead right away!"

As he said, the sword fell fiercely.

With a bang, the screams of impermanence came to an abrupt end, and his body was directly slashed by the knife, and he died completely!

Chen Feng sneered and said, "Didn't you say that I am overpowering? Don't you say that the ignorant is fearless? Don't you think your family of soldiers is extremely powerful?"

"Okay, I will not only kill you, but also destroy the hard work of your soldier family!"

As he said, Chen Feng turned around and shouted sharply, vigorously with the vajra palm, his palms surged, vajra pushed the mountain, and burst out.

The power of the incomparable dragon descending Arhat surged wildly, and the dark golden light instantly hit the huge pavilion.

When Chen Feng hit it, a ray of light flickered on the pavilion, and the power of a formation suddenly appeared.

Obviously, this pavilion is protected by a seal carving method.

Chen Feng smiled coldly: "Do you dare to show your eyes in front of me with this little trick?"

The power of his dragon descending Arhat once again urged out, with a boom, the formation of light was released, the next moment, everyone heard a loud noise, the light of the formation instantly dimmed, it was actually He couldn't hold Chen Feng's power at all, and he broke directly!

The formation is broken, and the pavilion is no longer protected.

Chen Feng took a few palms, and everyone saw that this huge tower, hundreds of meters high, was completely collapsed in a loud noise. novelusb.com

In an instant, it became a ruin.

Soldiers and weapons were sold directly by Chen Feng!

Then, Chen Feng turned and left in the shock of everyone's eyes.

By beheading the impermanence of the soldier, it can be considered to have settled this grievance with the soldier's family, Chen Feng's heart is comfortable, and his thoughts are clear.

After he returned to think about the cliff, he suddenly felt something in his heart.

So Chen Feng knew that it was time for him to practice Vajra to not be bad!

Chen Feng immediately asked Uncle Dao to protect him.

He himself, sitting cross-legged, on the cliff, facing the turbulent Tianhe River, took a deep breath, quickly calmed down, and held his breath. The whole person fell into a kind of calmness without self and without him. status.

In the next instant, Chen Feng sank into the training space of the Dragon Dropping Arhat Scripture!

At this time, in the training space of Jianglong Arhat Scriptures, a wall was lit with writing on it, but Chen Feng had not practiced.

This is exactly what King Kong is not bad!

Chen Feng immediately looked there, and felt the profound meaning of the incorruptible vajra pouring into his heart, and in a flash, Chen Feng's heart had been realized.

Chapter 2226: Comprehend! King Kong is not bad for the first layer!

He has completely comprehended all the profound meanings of the first layer of the King Kong Immortal Body!

Chen Feng's practice of Vajra is not bad at this time. In fact, it is a matter of course, but it is only a momentary time to comprehend the mind.

However, comprehension to comprehension does not necessarily mean that you can cultivate to this state.

There was a slight smile at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth, the mentality flowed in his mind, and his body and heart moved at will, the power of the dragon descending arhat spurted out from the two dragon descending arhat bright beads, in his body According to that mentality, it flows quietly.

After a while, in his body, a brand new power quietly emerged.

This power is extremely magical, and it gives people the feeling that it is solid and non-solid, liquid and non-liquid, crystal clear, extremely clear, but it also reveals a thick golden light.

Just like that golden colored glaze!

Chen Feng immediately moved in his heart. He knew that his own diamond body had already cultivated the first ray of strength.

This is a good beginning.

And at this time, just as Chen Feng was about to cultivate, he suddenly felt a thick golden light not far from his body.

This golden light, shaped like a pillar, has a powerful attraction to Chen Feng.

Chen Feng immediately moved in his heart: "If I can practice in this golden light, I will definitely get twice the result with half the effort."

"I can feel that the impeccable diamond body that is about to be cultivated is closely related to this dark golden pillar!"

So Chen Feng immediately noticed the past there.

He discovered that this dark golden power actually originated from outside his body.

Chen Feng raised his brows, and suddenly thought of something, and immediately retreated from the training space of the Dragon Dropping Arhat Scripture.

Then, when he looked to the side, he saw that beside the cliff, there stood a huge pillar like the sky and the earth. It was the metal giant stick he had gotten from the desert giant before.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "It's you."

His figure flickered a few times, and he came directly to the top of the metal giant stick and sat cross-legged.

The metal giant rod is tens of meters in diameter, and there is more than enough room for cultivation.

Sure enough, after sitting cross-legged on this, Chen Feng felt that the power of the newly born diamond in his body suddenly became lively.

In the surroundings, there is even more power that is similar to the same origin, which is constantly roaming and turning around, and Chen Feng feels very comfortable.

He whispered to himself: "Now I am cultivating the first layer of the Diamond Immortal Body, the Immortal Guanghua Body!"

Chen Feng's Arhats in the Dragon-falling Arhat is still very powerful, and under such a powerful force of the Arhats, Chen Feng cultivates very quickly.

The strength of the diamond-like colored glaze, which belongs to the incorruptible body of the diamond, quietly emerged, and then kept turning in Chen Feng's body at a very fast speed.

Under the instillation of the power of the dragon descending Arhat, it is constantly growing.

Time passed by minute by minute, and soon, a day time passed.

In the evening, Chen Feng suddenly opened his eyes.

At this time, in his body, the golden glaze-like power is already very powerful!

But there was a look of distress on his face, and he whispered to himself: "Now this thing is difficult."

Chen Feng's current Vajra Indestructible Body's first layer is already close to completion, but if one travels a hundred miles and walks a hundred miles, the last ten miles may be more difficult than the previous ninety miles.

Chen Feng is in such a situation now. His first level of Vajra Indestructible Body has already cultivated 80%, but this last 20% is even more difficult than the previous 80%.

Because, at this time, Chen Feng's left and right sides were full of tyrannical golden glaze power, but there were dozens of joints between the two sides, and dozens of checkpoints could not be broken through!

This last step is as difficult as the sky!

It may take several months or even years for Chen Feng to break through, because these levels need to be cleared one by one!

It is even more because the previous breakthrough has consumed the energy of this golden colored glaze!

At this critical moment, suddenly, from Chen Feng's blood, there was a golden color like cow hair oozing out.

These golden hairs of them ooze from their blood, and they are directly poured into this golden glass-like power.

So, in an instant, the strength of this golden colored glaze was expanded ten times, ten times stronger than before.

In almost an instant, Chen Feng's body was overflowing.

This golden colored glaze power poured down like a big river, like a waterfall, crashing down.

With a bang, Chen Feng felt that there were dozens of levels in his body in his meridians, and he was rushed past without stagnation.

In a twinkling of an eye, the golden glaze power in Chen Feng's body was completely integrated, turning around Chen Feng's body at an extremely fast speed!

Chen Feng was extremely excited, and even more delighted!

A surprise flashed in his heart: "It turns out that at this most critical moment, it turned out that the power in my bloodline played a decisive role and helped me make a breakthrough in one fell swoop!"

Chen Feng then became clear: "It's no wonder that, after all, what I cultivate is the exercises of body training, and the most related to this body and body training is power."

"When the strength is strong, the body will naturally be tyrannical. Therefore, I have the strength of 400 million catties as support, which can make me practice extremely fast and help me break through the barriers!"

"In the future, the power of this bloodline will definitely play a great role in the cultivation process of the Vajra Incorruptible Body!"

Chen Feng looked up to the sky and laughed, happily, he raised his arms and laughed loudly: "The first layer of the Diamond Immortal Body, the Immortal Guanghua Body, I have completed my training! Hahahaha!"

Chen Feng calmed down and carefully experienced this powerful technique.

Suddenly, Chen Feng closed his eyes and raised his arms. Within him, the power of golden colored glaze emerged quietly, circulating at an extremely fast speed. In less than a hundredth of an instant, it was spinning quickly. In a circle.

Then the next moment, Chen Feng's body suddenly changed.

His body suddenly changed from a solid to a liquid, as if melted golden glaze constituted his body.

As a result, Chen Feng's body could perform many actions that could not have been done before.

Chen Feng's arm suddenly became extremely long, from a few feet long to two meters long, just like a rubber man.

And Chen Feng's heart moved again, and suddenly his body leaned to the left, and the entire right half of his body was squeezed into the left half, as if there was a big hole in the body!

Chapter 2227: Decisive battle at Sunset Peak!

The next moment, Chen Feng suddenly showed a narrow smile at the corner of his mouth, and his whole body was wrapped around his legs with his arms, so the next moment, his whole body was like a golden glass ball!

Chen Feng tried countless times, and he constantly deformed his arms, legs, body, and body!

Beside, seeing this scene, Uncle Dao and Han Yu'er were dumbfounded!

Han Yu'er has less combat experience, and hasn't felt anything yet, but Uncle Dao's face is already flushed and his expression is extremely excited.

He shouted loudly: "Little Master, Little Master, you are too powerful, your martial arts are too powerful."

Chen Feng let out a sigh of suffocation and stood up, his body returned to its normal state again.

He looked at Uncle Dao, haha smiled: "You can see it too?"

Uncle Dao nodded and said loudly: "Yes, you can freely change your body into various shapes, which means that your attack power and defense power have greatly increased."

"When the enemy attacks, you can directly move the part he attacked to another part and let him hit the empty space."

"When you attack, he thinks you can't hit it, but in fact you can make your arm longer and hit him directly."

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Yes, but this is only the most basic. In fact, there are various magical effects!"

Chen Feng was also very excited, and the first layer of the King Kong Indecent Body gave him a big surprise.

This immortal radiance body actually has an extremely magical effect, but it also has many limitations.

Chen Feng frowned for a moment, and then muttered to himself softly: "Now I have three biggest restrictions."

"First, it can only target one limb at a time. For example, if I lengthen my arms, I cannot flatten my body."

"Second, no matter how it changes, it must be within the contours of this body. For example, I can group my body into a ball, or temporarily move my right body to the left, but I cannot let my The whole person becomes a needle, a thread, or a piece of paper."

"The third restriction is,"

Chen Feng sighed lightly and patted his head: "There is still this life gate!"

"If the enemy hits the head, my head can't be changed, but, although these three restrictions exist, they are already strong enough."

Chen Feng was very excited.

He said: "This is the first layer. The first layer can change my body from solid to liquid, and the second layer will go back to the source and return to the solid state, but the third layer..."

He smiled slightly, did not say any more, but with an expression that Zhizhu was holding.

Two days later, the first day of November.

At this time, it was already in the autumn and winter, and there was already a thick chill in the world.

At a glance, those trees on the Sky-Cracking Island had become lonely and desolate.

Even on the connecting Tianhe, a thin layer of floating ice has been formed, and with the waves, it constantly ups and downs.

And on this day, it was precisely the day of the battle between Chen Feng and Lieyang Wenrui, the eldest son of the Lieyang family!

The place where the two of them fought was the Sunset Peak, three thousand miles away from the west of Tianyuan Imperial City.

Sunset Peak, 600,000 meters high, is the highest peak around Tianyuan Imperial City.

There is no scenery here, just a solitary stone mountain, standing proudly like a long sword, piercing the sky, although it is domineering, majestic, and fierce enough, but because the surrounding scenery is not special.

Therefore, it was not a particularly famous place in the past, and it was not very crowded.

Below this sunset peak, there is only a small town called Sunset Town.

Sunset Town has a population of only about one to two thousand people. They are all hunters in the mountains. They make a living from hunting in the mountains, which is not very prosperous.

Today, Sunset Town is suddenly ten times more prosperous than usual.

Tens of thousands of people poured into Sunset Town, and most of these people were armed fighters with powerful auras.

At this time, a young man in his twenties also hurriedly came to Sunset Town.

After he came here, he looked around, his face showed a panic and urgent look: "I won't be late, am I?"

He quickly ran towards the town.

When I came to the town, I saw that there were a few more idle men at the entrance of the town, but they were the people in this town. However, this time they were obviously not doing hunting jobs, but were hired by some people. Solicit guests here.

After seeing the teenager, one person greeted him with a smile and said, "This adult, do you want to participate in the gambling? There are no restrictions on our gambling!"

"Yeah, your gambling game is the darkest, who doesn't know!"

"My lord, come here to take a look. We are here to give Chen Feng a one-to-one odds, which is the highest odds here. Others are one to 20 and one to 30!"

After hearing this, the young man immediately relaxed, took a long breath, patted his chest, and smiled: "Fortunately, fortunately, it's not too late. It seems that this gambling battle has not yet begun."

"That is, it takes three quarters to noon to start, and there are still three full hours left." A man said.

The young man was not in a hurry, and smiled and said to them: "Come and tell me, each of you pays a few!"

A thin young man shouted: "Come to our house! Our family, Lieyang Wenrui, the eldest son of the Lieyang family, pays ten for one and Chen Feng thirty for one."

A black and thin old man next to him curled his lips and said disdainfully: "What are you? My Lieyang family eldest son pays one for one, and Chen Feng pays one for fifty!"

The thin young man snorted and said, "You are the bluff. What good is it for you to open Chen Feng's odds so high?"

"Don't say one loses fifty, even if one loses five thousand, how many people will buy it?"

"Everyone knows that this time it must be the Grand Prince of the Lieyang Family who will win this time, so he will definitely buy the Grand Prince of the Lieyang Family to win, so it doesn't matter how good Chen Feng's you say is. The key is to look at Lieyang. What are the odds for the eldest son of the family!"

He can speak eloquently, and he can tell this clearly in a few words.

Everyone nodded and agreed with him. Obviously, they all thought that Chen Feng would never win.

Lieyang Wenrui must have won.

The old man was also speechless, apparently what even he thought.

The young man asked, and finally, he chose one.

This family gave Lieyang Wenrui a compensation of ten. He pressed a hundred Xuan Huangshi on the body of the eldest son of the Lieyang family, of course, betting that he could win.

Chapter 2228: Chen Feng, just a stepping stone!

And then, many people came to this sunset town.

But in just one morning, nearly 100,000 warriors have poured into this place, and they all bet.

These people, they didn't even come to watch the game. They didn't even have any expectations for the battle. They didn't particularly want to see the battle between Chen Feng and Chen Feng. They just came here to participate in the game.

To put it bluntly, they regarded this time as an opportunity to make money.

Such warriors are generally low in strength, and in the Tianyuan Imperial City, those warriors with higher strength have already reached the sunset peak.

At the top of the sunset peak, there is a huge platform with a radius of 100,000 meters, and there are steep cliffs next to it. The drop is more than 100,000 meters high. The tip of the sunset peak is like a chopstick. Long, extremely high, extremely thin, extremely steep and smooth!

At this time, on this platform, there are already hundreds of thousands of people standing here, crowded.

On the north side of the platform, a huge color shed was built. Although the color shed was temporarily built, it was also inlaid with gold and jade. It was extremely gorgeous, and gorgeous brocades were flying everywhere.

In the color shed, the people who stood were basically all figures of the Tianyuan Dynasty, who came from the major clans of the Tianyuan Dynasty.

At the top of the crowd, there are ten top seats placed in a row.

Among the top ten, there are people who are not young anymore, old people with gray hair and beard, and middle-aged people with thick beards and hair, and majestic demeanor.

At a glance, you can see that each one is huge and distinguished.

These ten people are the patriarchs and heads of the ten powerful families in the city!

And surrounded by the crowd was an old man in a red robe.

This red-robed old man is Lie Yangguang Sheng, the head of the Lieyang Family.

One-star Emperor Wu, Patriarch of the Lieyang Family, Lieyang wins!

A thin old man smiled at Lie Yangsheng Sheng and said: "Patriarch Lieyang, this time, but my nephew Wenrui has shown his hands and feet, and made a powerful battle!"

He stroked his beard, and then smiled: "Nephew Wenrui, today you can easily kill that Chen Feng!"

The sun beats the rest with a smile, noncommittal.

At the side, another tall, middle-aged man made a sneer: "Old man, can you speak? What do you mean?"

"Wen Rui's nephew dealt with that Chen Feng, but he was able to catch it with no effort at all."

"He won Chen Feng as it should be. What does it mean to show off his hands and feet? So much power? He wanted to kill Chen Feng, so he squeezed it to death easily. Does it take so much effort?"

The one he called Gao Old Piff, is the head of the Gao family, a first-class family in the city, happy one.

Although this Gao family is a first-class family, their rise is entirely dependent on the Lieyang Family, which is the maiden family of the wife of the Lieyang Family Patriarch, so they have always favored the Lieyang Family.

This time, he was also the first to tout.

As a result, he didn't expect that he slapped him on the feet of the horse.

Seeing the unstoppable smile on everyone's faces, I knew that I had said the wrong thing this time when I was happy, and suddenly showed a trace of horror. Seeing that Lieyangguangsheng had no other expressions, I felt a little relieved.

The brawny man was named Ye Hanxue.

This Ye Hanxue was the Patriarch of the Ye Family and had conflicts with the Patriarch of the Gao Family, so at this time he deliberately embarrassed the Patriarch of the Gao Family.

Seeing that the Patriarch of the Gao family stopped talking, he laughed and was very proud. Then he clasped his fists to Lie Yangguang Sheng, and said: "Patriarch Lieyang, want me to say it, this time, it's my nephew Wenrui who has come back. A battle in the arena."

"Wen Rui's nephew has not left the mansion so much in the past ten years, so that some people have forgotten his horror."

"And now, Wen Rui's nephew wants everyone to realize its power again. This Chen Feng is just his first stepping stone!"

With these words, Lie Sunshine was very happy, twisted his beard, smiled and said, "Brother Ye, you are absurd!"

Behind him, everyone agreed and flattered.

All of a sudden, flattery flooded like a tide.

These thousands of people are basically standing on the side of Lie's family, but in the color shed opposite, there is no one.

The color shed was obviously prepared for the people on Chen Feng's side, but now there is no one inside.

A short and strong middle-aged man in brocade robe laughed and said, "Why is there no one there?"

"Does this still need to be said?" Ye Hanxue curled his lips, with a disdainful smile on his face, and said: "It must be because Chen Feng knew that he was going to lose today, so he didn't invite anyone at all!"

"Anyway, when someone is invited, it is also a shame to witness him!"

"Yes, Brother Ye made a point."

"Hahaha, Patriarch Ye's words are on the point, and Chen Feng is bound to lose face today."

At this moment, suddenly, a red cloud flew towards this side.

Soon everyone saw that there was a figure wrapped in the red clouds.

This figure wore a big red robe, and his hair, eyebrows and beard were all fiery red, and these red clouds seemed to seep out of his body, engulfing him and flying over.

When everyone saw it, they all exclaimed: "Master Lieyang is here!"

"Master Lieyang is really handsome with this move, and his power has been released, it can be like Yunxia!"

Someone murmured: "Such a means of controlling power, I'm afraid that it is difficult for the average half-step Martial Emperor Realm to do it, the Grand Master Lieyang is really powerful."

When he came to the sky above this mountain, the red clouds around Lieyang Wenrui had already condensed outside of his arms, like two huge red wings.

He arrived gracefully, extremely gorgeous and lightly on the platform, everyone cheered together.

At almost the same time, everyone heard a heavy footstep and looked down.

Then I saw, on the long mountain road, a figure in a white robe came slowly towards this side.

He step by step, without any hesitation or anxiety, looks extremely quiet.

Suddenly, someone who had seen him yelled: "Chen Feng, Chen Feng is here!"

Chen Feng's appearance like this was in sharp contrast with Lieyang Wenrui.

Everyone was quiet for a moment, and then burst into a tide of laughter:

"Haha, this Chen Feng can't even fly?"

"I think it is. After all, he is such a foreigner, and he hasn't learned any powerful martial arts after he first came to Tianyuan Imperial City for a few days."

Chapter 2229: Defeat you with one hand!

"The body style is also very ordinary, and the cultivation base is so low that you can't even fly, you can only step up step by step!"

"Oh, how can such a person be qualified to fight Lord Lieyang? It can be reduced to a laughing stock!"

"This Chen Feng is nothing short of a joke, and he came to make a fool of himself today!"

They ridiculed them one after another, pointing at Chen Feng, their faces were full of disdain.

When Chen Feng walked to the high platform, his eyes were calm, just sweeping across the faces of these people. NOVELuSb.com

Chen Feng's eyes stopped for a moment on their faces, their eyes were cold and clear, full of fierce chill and murder, but with the slightest disdain, it seemed that they did not put them in the eyes at all.

Such gaze caused these people to be shocked instantly, and a trace of fear was involuntarily raised in their hearts.

And the next moment, they became angry into anger: "How can I be afraid? How can I be afraid of Chen Feng? Afraid of such a pariah? Afraid of such a waste?"

As a result, their ridicule became even more unscrupulous.

Looking at Chen Feng, Lieyang Wenrui showed a cold look on his face, and said lightly: "Chen Feng, are you planning to die?"

Chen Feng smiled and looked at him: "This sentence actually I want to talk to you."

Lieyang Wenrui said coldly: "What? Do you think you might be my opponent?"

Chen Feng said: "It's not that I might be your opponent, but the one who won today, it must be me!"

After hearing this, Lieyang Wenrui was taken aback for a moment, and then he snorted, with a touch of disdain on his face, and said, "Chen Feng, are you crazy? You said such crazy things?"

"You can't even stop one of my tricks, you even said you could kill me?"

Behind him, there was a frantic ridicule: "Chen Feng, you untouchable, what are you? Don't take a * and take pictures of yourself!"

"Yes, just like you, it's unworthy to lift the shoes for Lord Lieyang, and you said you want to defeat Lord Lieyang, are you mad?"

Behind Chen Feng, there were only two people, Uncle Dao and Han Yu'er. Han Yu'er was still holding the blood wind in his arms.

They both sat in the color shed and saw this scene, and their faces were full of anger.

Chen Feng suddenly raised his head, looked at those who made mocking sounds, and sneered clearly: "Every word you say now will turn into a slap in the face and slap your face to make you face. Nothing!"

As soon as the voice fell, it was the sun's mid-day, and it officially arrived at three noon.

The time for the competition is approaching.

An old man walked slowly into the arena, and said lightly: "I am the one who came to host this time."

Grand Prince Lieyang showed a look of surprise on his face and said, "I didn't remember asking him."

The old man smiled slightly: "His Majesty the Emperor heard that you two young talents came here to compete, so I specially sent me."

At this time, some of the rich and powerful in the color shed recognized him and suddenly exclaimed: "This person turned out to be Yan Chengwen, one of the commanders of the imperial guard with a knife!"

"What? It turned out to be Yan Chengwen?"

"It is said that Yan Chengwen is the most powerful officer among the guards and sword officers, even stronger than the legendary orthodox leader!"

"That's right, the orthodox leader Shenlong saw the head but didn't see the end, and no one has seen him. The eight hundred imperial guards and sword officers are actually in charge of Yan Chengwen!"

"This person actually came to host, that is really worthy of this competition."

"Haha, this commander Yan must have come for the Lord Lieyang!"

Someone bowed their hands to Lieyangshengsheng, with a flattering expression on their faces, and said, "Patriarch Lieyang, I really want to congratulate you. Needless to say, this leader Yan must be here for the Lord Lieyang."

Ye Hanxue also said loudly: "Yes, he came here. It can be seen that the emperor has heard of the reputation of Lord Lieyang, and he is extremely valued. Congratulations, the future of Lord Lieyang will be limitless!"

Although Lie Yangguangsheng did not know that Yan Chengwen was back before, but in his opinion, Yan Chengwen must have come for his son"

He was also very proud, laughing.

But when Yan Chengwen heard what they said, there was a strange look on his face.

He looked at Chen Feng and said indifferently: "I will be the referee of this competition. You two have no opinion?"

Chen Feng and the two said together: "No opinion!"

"Good!" Yan Chengwen said loudly, "Let's talk about today's rules first."

He pressed his hands on the table, rumbling and rumbling, the top of the table, the topography changed instantly, and a table ten meters high and a hundred meters in radius rose.

He pointed to the table and said, "This is where you two compete."

"You two, if anyone is knocked down, it is considered a loss, and any one who voluntarily surrenders is considered a loss!"

Both Chen Feng nodded.

Yan Chengwen said: "Then, today's competition, I announce that it officially begins!"

When the words fell, everyone was excited, looking at the high platform with excited eyes, looking at Chen Feng and Lie Yang Wenrui, looking forward to the next scene.

Of course, in their view, Lieyang Wenrui must have easily killed Chen Feng.

Ye Hanxue shouted: "Nephew Wenrui, kill this untouchable!"

And Lie Sunshine Sheng said indifferently, "Wen Rui, hurry up and go back, for my father, there is something to do!"

Lieyang Wenrui turned around and smiled and said, "Father, Uncle Zhao, please wait a moment, I will explain to you to get rid of him."

His tone was an understatement, as if he had dealt with Chen Feng, just squeezing a bug to death. It was easy without any effort.

After speaking, he turned around, looked at Chen Feng, and suddenly made a move.

He pinned his left hand behind him, leaving only one right hand, then waved his right hand, looked at Chen Feng, smiled and said, "Chen Feng, I only use this hand, and I only use one move. You can easily kill you!"

Chen Feng stared at him and said nothing.

"Why? Don't you dare to talk back? You acquiesced, did you?" Lieyang Wenrui laughed.

Suddenly, his expression turned sullen and gloomy in an instant, staring at Chen Feng, and said viciously: "My third brother died under yours, and my most loyal and best servant Qi Yuanliang also died under yours. Do you know how much you have caused me to suffer?"

"Do you know how much humiliation you have caused the Lieyang Family?"

"Today, all of these, I will fall on you! I will use one hand to make a move to defeat you and make you faceless!"

Chen Feng looked at him, but said lightly: "Why is there so much nonsense? Hit if you want?"

Chapter 2230: Slap you in the face for the first time!

This sentence made Lieyang Wenrui angry instantly, and he sternly shouted: "Okay, then I will fulfill you!"

As he said, a thick red color escaped from the surface of his body, just like the sunset.

This sunset cloud condensed on his right hand, and he shot it out with a palm, so in an instant, countless red streamers were like red fire snakes toward Chen Feng, biting and biting.

This move was earth-shattering, even due to the sweeping force, the clouds in the sky were shattered, and countless deep gullies were cracked on the earth.

Moreover, these red fire flames have extremely high temperatures, and everyone behind him can feel the extreme scorching heat for thousands of meters.

Everyone exclaimed: "This trick has the strength of the Nine-Star Wuwang Peak!"

"That's right, the peak of the Nine-Star Martial King is enough to kill Chen Feng in one move!"

"Haha, even if he is not killed by the power of this trick, he will be directly burned to death by this extreme high temperature!"

Lieyang Wenrui laughed loudly: "Chen Feng, die! My move is enough to kill you!"

He was full of confidence in himself, thinking that Chen Feng would die under this trick.

As for Chen Feng, Chen Feng, who had always been indifferent before, suddenly raised his head. A fierce murderous intent flashed in his quiet eyes. There was a mocking smile at the corner of his mouth, and he suddenly sneered: "Really?"

"Then, open your dog's eyes and see clearly, who killed whom!"

With that said, Chen Feng let out a roar and patted his right palm. It was the third move of the vigorous vajra palm.

Hey, his right hand bounced on the red fire at an extremely fast speed.

Bang bang bang, those red fires were directly shattered.

Then the next moment, Chen Feng's figure flashed sharply, his right hand kept on, and he flicked directly towards Lieyang Wenrui.

That vast and incomparable palm fell fiercely in front of Lieyang Wenrui, and the dark golden light surged.

At that moment, Lieyang Wenrui felt the threat of death: "This trick can definitely bite my life!"

He yelled in disbelief: "How is it possible? You untouchable, how can your strength be so strong?"

He had no choice but to bombard out with his right hand, trying to block Chen Fengfeng's move, but how his right hand could block it, his right hand was hit directly, there was a bang, and his right hand was directly hit by the bone. The fracture made him let out a scream, and a mouthful of blood spurted out.

Seeing Chen Feng's offensive continue to fall, he had to scream and slap his left palm.

His right and left palms shot out dozens of palms one after another, and backed dozens of steps, before he stood firm with a mouthful of blood, and another mouthful of blood sprayed out. There were countless cracks on his arms, which were already broken. The bones.

In the end, Chen Feng barely blocked Chen Feng's move of King Kong playing the pipa.

Chen Feng did not chase forward. Instead, he stood there, looking at him with a joking smile at the corner of his mouth, and said, "Master Lieyang, tell me how many tricks did you use just now? How many hands did you use?"

"Come on, tell me!"

Lieyang Wenrui's face was pale and ugly.

He trembled all over, his face was green and red, and finally turned into a patch of color like pig liver, swollen and red, full of shame.

He knew that he was slapped severely by Chen Feng.

I just said that it can be solved within one move with the right hand, but now it is forced by his palms to go in and out and still fall into the wind, beating in embarrassment.

The scene was silent, and everyone looked at Chen Feng with surprise.

After a long time, someone sighed softly: "It seems. Chen Feng is not as weak as we thought!"

"Yes!" Someone nodded and said, "His strength, at least, has reached the peak of the Nine Star Martial King!"

Ye Hanxue coldly snorted disdainfully: "So what? He is definitely not an opponent of Wenrui's nephew! If Wenrui's nephew shows true strength, he can still be easily killed!"

He still feels that Lieyang Wenrui can easily kill Chen Feng.

Behind Chen Feng, Uncle Dao and Han Yu'er both shouted in excitement!

Chen Feng smiled and looked at Lieyang Wenrui, stretched out his right hand, slapped twice in the air, smiled and said, "This is the first time I hit you in the face in our competition today."

"But don't worry, this will never be the last time."

This sentence made Lieyang Wenrui furious in an instant, and screamed: "Little boy, do you think you are really my opponent? Do you think you can really defeat me? You think it was mine just now. Full strength?"

He roared: "I haven't really shown my true strength at all. If I show up, I will kill you. It's easy!"

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Then you are showing off, I'm still looking forward to it!"

Lieyang Wenrui's face was cold, staring at Chen Feng, and nodded: "Okay, okay, then I'll let you know!"

As he said, there was a tremor on his body, and his whole muscles began to swell and tremble.

In each of his pores, there seemed to be a red breath escaping.

In the next moment, his figure swelled rapidly, and in an instant, he swelled to a height of more than three meters.

And the surface of his body is also red, condensed into a color like red metal, as if his whole body at this time is no longer a flesh and blood body, but is cast from red fine gold, looking extremely mighty. , Extremely tyrannical.

He shook his neck and made a strong sound of metal rubbing, stabbing.

He stepped on the ground, and there was also a sound of metal rubbing against stone.

Everyone exclaimed: "This is the body of Lieyang Red Gold?"

Ye Hanxue laughed and said: "Yes, this is the body of Lieyang Red Gold, and it is the highest state among the Heavenly God Body of Lieyang Family. After transforming into Lieyang Red Gold Body, you can ignore any half-step martial arts. Attacks below the Emperor level."

"Furthermore, the user's strength and defense can be increased several times, and one punch is enough to mash the enemy into flesh!"

Someone exclaimed in disbelief: "This god-given divine body is really amazing! I'm afraid it can be ranked among all the god-given bodies of the Tianyuan Dynasty!"

"Yes, this is the foundation of Lieyang Family's life and life, but it is difficult to practice. It is said that even Lieyang Patriarch has not awakened, only Lieyang Wenrui has awakened." Someone whispered.

Everyone exclaimed one after another, and their gazes towards Lieyang Wenrui were full of shock.

Lie Yangsheng laughed loudly, and was very proud of his son's cultivation.
