Chapter 3181: Above the West Sea

Chen Feng sighed softly and said, "Quiet, I don't want others to know this news."

Hua Lengshuang lowered her voice, looked at Chen Feng, just about to say something, but suddenly, she shook her head, looked at Chen Feng and said:

"Brother Chen Feng, I am full of confidence in you, there is nothing to say."

"You can go without worry!"

Chen Feng was stunned, then rubbed her little head, and said, "Then, I will go."

Then, Chen Feng turned and left.

Soon, he came to the place where he had entered Nei Zong.

There, it is the place where you must pass through the inner clan.

Chen Feng quickly left Nei Zong, and shortly after he left here, a figure appeared quietly.

It is Zhong Fenglin.

Zhong Fenglin looked at the direction Chen Feng was leaving, with a cold smile on his lips.

Here is an endless ocean.

It is Xihai!

The West Sea is boundless, with a radius of hundreds of millions of miles, which is much larger than the Dragon Vein Continent.

At first glance, no matter how good the eyes were, there was no sign of land.

It gives people a sense of vastness and boundlessness.

Only in this way, when you are in it, people feel that they are small and not worth mentioning, and there is a big shock in the heart!

Above the West Sea, the white waves are overwhelming.

Huge waves of tens of thousands of meters high appear from time to time, and some huge waves can even directly break up the clouds in the sky.

Above the sky, white clouds floated, and the blue sky was clear blue, far better than the Dragon Vein Continent, like a piece of blue silk spreading on the sky.

At this moment, above the clouds, a stream of light flashed across.

The streamer was green all over, but underneath it was a red gold color.

It is Chen Feng!

On Chen Feng's legs, his boots were condensed, and the Golden Crow footwork was launched day by day, flying across the sky at an extremely fast speed.

Chen Feng was not feeling well at this time.

Because his figure cut through the sky, the huge gust of wind rushing on his face made him unable to even open his eyes.

Because of his extremely fast speed, the wind was so great that even with his cultivation level, his shaved face was aching.

Chen Feng said in his heart: "The sea breeze above the ocean is really much larger than that on the land."

"When I returned to Nei Zong from the Southern Wilderness, I didn't feel that way!"

Chen Feng has been flying above the West Sea for more than half an hour.

The Sea of Death is at the junction of the West Sea and the North Sea. The West Sea is extremely large. If Chen Feng wants to traverse the entire West Sea, it may not be possible for several decades.

But fortunately, the original position of the Xuanyuan family's Inner Sect was in the extreme north of the West Sea, not far from the northernmost point of the West Sea, where the West Sea and the North Sea meet.

But this is not very far, it is relative to the whole West Sea.

Even at Chen Feng's speed, it would take at least five to seven days to get there.

There was a big wave under him, and another huge wave surged.

At this moment, Chen Feng suddenly felt that a huge danger was coming towards him.

The danger caused Chen Feng's cold hair to stand up, and the whole body was cold.

Chen Feng instinctively realized that the danger came from under him!

So, he hurriedly lowered his head and looked down. When he looked down, Chen Feng suddenly stood upright, his heart was pounding, his pupils contracted sharply, and his whole person was like an ice cellar.

It turned out that at this moment, in the huge wave that rolled up to a height of 100,000 meters below, Chen Feng actually saw two huge eyes!

What kind of eyes are they!

Each one is more than a thousand meters in diameter, and it can be imagined that his head is at least tens of thousands of meters in size.

Its entire body is as large as hundreds of thousands of meters.

And in those eyes, there is a raised pupil, in the pupil, there is a yellow pattern, which is full of evil, hideous, and killing!

Chen Feng felt that he would almost fall into it at a glance.

At this moment, he could see that the owner of that eye was full of greedy murderous intent on himself.

Do not! It should be the heart of devouring!

The opponent doesn't treat him as an opponent at all, but just treats him as food that can be eaten.

Chen Feng was almost instinctive, urging the daily Golden Crow footwork to the extreme.

With a quick brush, his body shape has risen tens of thousands of meters above the original foundation.

And almost at the same time that Chen Feng was uplifting, amidst the huge waves, one after another black shadows suddenly came out.

Chen Feng clearly saw the true face of the owner of those eyes.

It turned out that this was a huge sea snake!

This sea snake is different from the snakes Chen Feng saw on the land.

Those eyes turned out to be protruding beyond his head.

This sea snake is extremely huge, with a length of hundreds of thousands.

He was straight, biting towards Chen Feng.

The big mouth of blood was under Chen Feng.

However, Chen Feng had risen extremely fast and extremely high just now. The height of the sea snake had reached its limit. With a snap, his white teeth snapped together!

Just hundreds of meters below Chen Feng!

If Chen Feng had been slow for a moment, and then lowered a little, he would be swallowed directly.

His teeth closed, looking at Chen Feng, his eyes were full of unwillingness, and he let out a stern hiss, and with a bang, his figure plunged into the water.

At this time, Chen Feng's heart was beating wildly, and he hurriedly left frantically, very fast.

After leaving for a long time, he took a long breath.

At this moment, Chen Feng felt that his heartbeat slowed down, and his whole person's state just now was almost blind, and almost everything he did was instinct.

It's only now back to normal.

Chen Feng watched the body of the huge sea snake that fell into the sea splashing with a huge wave hundreds of miles and thousands of meters high. He couldn't help feeling lingering, and said inwardly:

"Fortunately, fortunately, I practiced the pace of the day-by-day Golden Crow. I don't know how many times faster than before, and the height of my soaring in the air is much higher than before."

"That's why I can communicate on this West Sea."

"If it's not the case, change to the me who was before, the height is low, and the speed is slow, just now, I would have been swallowed by the giant sea snake in one bite."

"And if he is dragged into the sea..."

Chen Feng shuddered after thinking about the consequences.

If this huge sea python drags itself into the sea to fight, it will never be spared.

Chen Feng felt that the strength of this sea python had reached the level of a one-star demon emperor at least!

Chen Feng moved forward, extremely fast, and he had already traveled hundreds of thousands of miles after an hour.

During these hundreds of thousands of miles, Chen Feng was pounced at least three times by the giant beast in the sea.

But fortunately, with this day-to-day Golden Crow pace, Chen Feng avoided it without any risk.

Chapter 3182: Chase

Looking at the sea full of turbulent waves below, Chen Feng couldn't help but shook his head slightly.

"It's no wonder that the real danger of Dragon Vein Continent, the real big powers, are all in this ocean!"

"I have been running on the West Sea for only three hours, and I have already met at least four one-star demon emperors, equivalent to two-star martial emperors."

"There are three or four half-step demon emperors equivalent to a one-star martial emperor... these big demon are really tyrannical!"

"On land, I may not be able to meet so many strong people even in a few months and a year!"

"Don't talk about the nine-star martial emperor peak like me, even ordinary martial emperor realm powerhouses, if you don't rely on Ruyizhou, I am afraid that they will not dare to fly freely above the West Sea."

"If not, it would be too easy to be dragged into the water, and only me, who has the daily Golden Crow footwork, can be so calm."

Chen Feng guessed well, he was really an odd number.

Chen Feng went all the way, and just after Chen Feng passed from here for a while, suddenly a light ray across the sky, and a figure appeared here.

He had just arrived here not far away, and suddenly there was a bang, and the huge wave was set off again, and a huge dragon turtle in the sea suddenly appeared and bit him directly.

The figure was obviously taken aback, shouted loudly, and quickly rose up.

However, his ascent speed was not fast enough, and he was quickly overtaken by the dragon turtle.

The huge head screamed and bit him frantically.

This person roared, and fists slammed out and hit the dragon tortoise.

There was a loud noise and the two collided together. Numerous cracks appeared on his arm, and he was already slightly injured, but with this attack, he flew up like a cannonball and went straight into the sky.

This time, the giant dragon tortoise could never catch him again.

The man sighed softly, with lingering fears on his face, frowned, looked down and said, "What the * is this * place!"

It turns out that this person is Zhong Fenglin.

After Chen Feng left Nei Zong, he chased Chen Feng all the way forward and came here.

He looked far away with a gloomy look in his eyes: "Chen Feng, that little bastard, I wanted to kill him as soon as possible."

"But, I didn't expect that he could be so fast!"

Chen Feng's speed is far beyond his imagination, even a few points faster than him.

He kept chasing Chen Feng, but he didn't catch up.

Moreover, it was not as fast as Chen Feng, and it was not as high as Chen Feng, so it was dangerous.

Chen Feng can fly above the clouds, but he can only shuttle between huge waves, which is very dangerous. This has weakened its speed and made him farther and farther away from Chen Feng.

Zhong Fenglin couldn't help being a little discouraged.

But after all, he was also a majestic posture, but he returned to normal in a moment, looking into the distance, his eyes were cold.

"This proves even more that my approach to hunt down Chen Feng personally was correct."

"The second son is so fast, so perceptive, and so talented!"

"In this month's time, maybe he will really do something to improve his strength!"

"At that time, the battle with Yu Taihong may really be variable!"

"And I, absolutely do not allow variables to happen, now is his death date!"

He smirked, and went straight forward, chasing Chen Feng again.

Soon, three hours passed, and Chen Feng had already traveled tens of millions of miles.

And his power of the Golden Crow footwork is almost exhausted.

Chen Feng suddenly heard a buzzing on his legs. He hurriedly looked down. He saw the golden boots in the fiery red. The light shook for a while, almost scattered.

Chen Feng felt clear and sighed softly.

The Sun-Raising Golden Crow Footwork has been running for nearly three hours, and three hours is almost its limit.

It can at most support one cup of tea time. NovELusb.com

"Next, I will find a place to restore my strength."

Chen Feng looked around and murmured: "This place can only be an island, because if my sun-driving golden crow footwork is exhausted, I cannot stay in the sky."

"And if I fall into the sea..."

Chen Feng shuddered after thinking about that.

The boundless deep blue sea, deep to the extreme, has no end at all.

He slowly sank in it, farther and farther away from the light.

It was getting darker and darker, changing from light blue to faint blue, then dark blue, and then pitch black, until the light above the sea was no longer visible.

And there are countless powerful monsters surrounding him, wanting to swallow him.

As Chen Feng thought about it, he shuddered.

"No, we have to quickly find an island."

Chen Feng immediately did not advance straight, but in a serpentine shape, trying to expand the area as much as possible, trying to find a trace of an island.

Soon, half a cup of tea passed, and Chen Feng had not found it yet.

And when his mood was almost anxious, Chen Feng suddenly saw a giant sword into the sky appeared in front of him.

Chen Feng suddenly exclaimed: "What is that?"

He flew forward. Although he saw it, the distance between the two was still very far.

Chen Feng flew forward again, and then his face showed a huge shock. After the shock, it was ecstasy.

"Hahaha, great, I found it!"

It turned out that after Chen Feng got closer, he found out, where is this giant sword, it turned out to be a mountain!

A huge stone mountain protruding above the sea!

This rocky mountain is extremely high and not very wide. It looks like a huge sword pierced into the sky!

The entire mountain is made up of huge black stones that seem to be extremely heavy and hard.

From a distance, isn't it just a giant sword into the sky?

The mountain is extremely high. Chen Feng estimated that he was shocked. The height of this mountain was at least about 2 million meters.

Unexpectedly, there is such a huge mountain in the West Sea.

Chen Feng quickly approached there.

At this time, the light of his boots began to fade, and it could not be supported for a while.

After getting closer, Chen Feng discovered that this mountain peak was actually a large island with a radius of thousands of miles. The whole body was made of huge stones, and there were rugged rocks everywhere, which looked extremely dangerous.

On this island, there is no dock.

They leaned against the sea with huge walls on all sides, and the island was actually the base of the mountain.

On this side of the sea, there is a huge cliff with a height of one million meters, which is difficult for birds to cross.

As for climbing, I don't even think about it. The cliffs are so smooth that I feel desperate when I look at them.

Chapter 3183: Persuaded?

The huge waves, which are tens of thousands of meters, hundreds of thousands of meters high, have nothing to do with this rock wall and this mountain.

Soon, when Chen Feng came close, his brows twitched.

It turned out that this was not a desert island, because at this time Chen Feng had already seen a large area of buildings on the mountain.

There are very prosperous cities with people coming and going, and it is very lively.

Moreover, Chen Feng also saw that from time to time there were warriors flying over to land on the island in the distance.

Even at this moment, Chen Feng saw a wishful boat fall on it.

The strength of these warriors is quite impressive, among them there are many of the Wudi realm powerhouses, and the half-step Wudi is the lowest.

Soon, Chen Feng landed.

At this time, he was on a wide road, and at the end of the road, a kilometer away, was a tall city.

Above the city, two characters were written: Yingzhou!

"Yingzhou?"

After reading these two characters, Chen Feng suddenly trembled: "It turns out that this is Yingzhou Island!"

"The legendary, overseas Yingzhou Island!"

Chen Feng had heard of Yingzhou's name before.

It is said that Yingzhou is a large island in the West China Sea. This island is huge and extremely prosperous. It can be regarded as a prosperous place within a radius of tens of millions of miles.

It is densely populated, and many overseas monks and warriors will choose to come here to trade.

Even, stay here.

You know, the warriors of this world are not only concentrated on the main continent of the Dragon Vein Continent, there are countless islands in the four seas of the east, west, south, and north.

There are countless warriors living on these islands, and even many warriors will come here to live here specially from the mainland.

Because they live on these islands, they can fight the waves nearby, fight the boundless ocean, fight the monsters in the sea.

The mortality rate is extremely high, but the strength has also grown extremely fast.

Over the city, no one flew Chen Feng. Seeing that all those who came on Yingzhou Island had fallen and slowly entered the city before the city, Chen Feng knew in his heart that most of it was the rules of Yingzhou Island.

Chen Feng walked forward and soon came to the city gate.

In front of him, several people entered the city, with dozens of guards in front of the city gate.

The aura of each of these guards is quite extraordinary, and the leader has a cultivation base close to Emperor Wu's realm.

There are more than a dozen people under him, and each of them is riding a monster that resembles a giant lizard under his crotch.

The length is not long, which is five or six meters, but the muscles on the surface of the body burst out, and the bones are thick.

Each tendon is full of explosive power, bouncing and jumping from time to time.

Every muscle is as strong as iron stone, and it looks like it is full of explosive power, extremely fast, and extremely powerful.

Chen Feng smiled and nodded: "This must be the monster beast special here!"

"Such a size, small but agile, it is very suitable for fighting here!"

Chen Feng entered in front of him, and was an old man wearing a green robe.

When the old man walked in, the guards of the city nodded respectfully and bowed.

The leader of the city guard also said something flatly, and the old man waved his hand lightly, and ignored them.

Then, they stood up straight and looked at Chen Feng.

When I saw Chen Feng, my face changed after brushing it. The flattering energy on his face just now disappeared without a trace, replaced by a trace of contempt and disdain.

Especially the leader of the city guard, raised his chin, looking at Chen Feng, full of meaning.

Chen Feng didn't bother to pay attention to them, walked to the city gate, and wanted to go in.

At this moment, suddenly a six-meter spear in the hands of a city guard pierced it horizontally in front of Chen Feng.

This sudden, and with great effort.

If it weren't for Chen Feng to be alert and stop in time, this one would at least pierce his weakness.

Not to mention piercing him, it is estimated that Chen Feng will also be slightly injured.

Obviously, this city guard was deliberate.

Chen Feng's eyes instantly became cold, and he turned to look at him.

Seeing that the city guard didn't stab Chen Feng, he couldn't help but stunned.

His original idea was that this shot directly pierced Chen Feng.

After seeing Chen Feng's eyes, the slight surprise in his heart suddenly turned into coldness.

He said fiercely: "Little bastard, what do you look at? Look again, believe it or not your uncle will pierce you again?"

Chen Feng looked at him with a cold face.

This city guard is just a half-step Wudi.

A martial artist of this level, Chen Feng can now crush him to death as soon as he reaches out his hand, but he still dares to be crazy with himself here?

"What? Boy, what to look at? Not convinced?"

"Look again, believe it or not, I killed you?"

The city guards said arrogantly with their chin up.

Chen Feng took a deep breath: "I came to Yingzhou Island, one is to rest and restore strength."

"The more important reason is to inquire about the news of the sea of death."

"After all, the dossier of the sea of death given by the family is a long time ago, and there has been no new content in these years. Who knows how the sea of death is now?"

"It's more reliable to come here to inquire."

"Chen Feng, don't make trouble!"

He secretly warned himself: "You still have business this time."

Thinking of this, Chen Feng took a deep breath, suppressed the anger in his heart, looked at him, and said lightly: "Let's talk, what do you want?"

Seeing Chen Feng say this, the city guard suddenly laughed, full of pride.

In his opinion, Chen Feng was subdued.

Not only him, but the other city guards also laughed out loud.

"This kid is really a trash!"

"Yeah, I looked pretty good just now, but now I am afraid!"

"Hahaha, dare he not dare? This kid, with a fresh face, looks like a foreigner, and his strength is so weak."

"If he dare not dare, we will kill him immediately!"

Others shouted to Chen Feng: "Little bastard, don't pretend if you have no strength."

"Looking at the look you just pretended, I thought you were so good! I don't know it is just a waste!"

Chen Feng endured these ridicules and abuses!

Chen Feng glanced at them and wanted to walk into the city.

At this moment, the spear of the city guard trembled and said, "Boy, what are you doing?"

Chen Feng said lightly: "Enter the city!"

"Enter the city? If you enter the city, you have to pay the cost of entering the city of one million dragon blood and amethyst!" The city guard looked at Chen Feng with a joking expression.

The few who entered the city before did not pay this fee.

Chapter 3184: I laugh at you, I don't know how to die!

Chen Feng said lightly: "Why don't they pay? And I have to pay?"

"Nonsense, they are strong and they are frequent visits here, of course, they don't need to pay."

"Your kid is a raw face,"

He paused, and laughed: "The most important thing is that the strength is so weak, so you can pay, what's the matter?"

Chen Feng nodded and said nothing.

He just took out the golden thread kit from his arms, and then counted a million dragon blood amethysts to them.

For Chen Feng, one million dragon blood amethyst is not a big number.

After giving out one million Dragon Blood Amethyst, Chen Feng stepped into the city gate.

And each of these city guards was stunned.

They originally wanted to make things difficult for Chen Feng, but they didn't expect that Chen Feng would actually give a million dragon blood amethysts.

And the city guard army commander suddenly showed a strong greedy color on his face, staring at the golden thread kit Chen Feng put in his arms, wishing to * the golden thread kit directly.

Just as Chen Feng was about to walk into the city gate, suddenly at this moment, the city guard commander instigated the huge lizard under his hips, and with a single stroke, he stood in front of Chen Feng.

Chen Feng frowned, staring at him word by word and said: "Your Excellency, what's the matter?"

The anger in Chen Feng's chest was burning, and he was about to endure to the extreme.

The captain of the city guard looked at Chen Feng and said without a smile, "What's the matter?"

"Tell you, boy, you just handed in too little!"

"Not one million dragon blood amethysts, but ten million dragon blood amethysts!"

"Didn't you just say one million dragon blood amethysts?" Chen Feng said lightly.

The captain of the city guard said arrogantly: "It has been changed."

"When was it changed?" Chen Feng said calmly.

"Just now! Right here! Lao Tzu changed it!"

The captain of the city guard poked his finger at the ground, stared at Chen Feng, and shouted impatiently: "Don't * bullshit!"

"Hurry up! Otherwise I will kill you!"

Chen Feng didn't say a word, only a smile was drawn at the corner of his mouth.

Then, this smile turned into a big laugh.

Chen Feng's laughter resounded at this city gate!

His eyes were full of anger, and murderous intent appeared on his face!

Chen Feng has already decided: "I can't bear it!"

His patience has reached its limit, and he does not intend to endure it anymore.

And hearing Chen Feng laugh like this, all those people were stunned.

The next moment, his face became gloomy.

Especially the captain of the city guard, he felt that his dignity was offended.

He stared at Chen Feng and said coldly: "Little boy, what are you smiling at?"

Chen Feng laughed. Suddenly, his laughter stopped, staring at these people with a cold voice:

"I laugh at you, I don't know whether to live or die!"

At this time, Chen Feng no longer concealed his murderous intentions, and the murderous intent burst out.

The city guard commander's heart jumped fiercely, but then he expelled his thoughts: "It's a trash that is not at the level of the Nine Star Martial Emperor!"

"What am I afraid of him? What am I afraid of him?"

Thinking of this, he no longer had any fear in his heart, staring at Chen Feng, and said fiercely: "Little boy, just laugh!"

"Hurry up and hand over 10 million Dragon Blood Amethyst!"

Chen Feng took out the golden thread kit from his arms, smiled and said, "Oh, you are just fond of this, right?"

Staring at the golden thread kit in Chen Feng's hand, the faces of the city guard army captain and others were full of greed, and they wished to * the golden thread kit.

Chen Feng looked at them, smiled and said, "Tell you, there are still many dragon blood amethysts in this golden thread kit."

"Right here, if you have the ability, come and grab it yourself!"

The captain of the city guard roared greedily and rushed directly at Chen Feng.

A blow out!

He has a cultivation base close to the Martial Emperor Realm, and he has already surpassed half a step Martial Emperor.

A punch, extremely powerful and fierce!

He sneered: "Boy, your grandfather's punch can not only grab the golden thread kit, but also break you into pieces!"

He said arrogantly: "Boy, don't blame your grandpa for being cruel."

"If you blame it, blame it, who told you not to honestly hand over this golden thread kit!"

As he said, there was a burst of triumphant laughter.

In his opinion, Chen Feng would not be spared if his punch fell, and he would be killed directly!

Not just him, all the other city guards laughed wildly, full of mockery of Chen Feng.

Some people even shouted loudly: "Boss, after you * this golden thread kit, the dragon blood amethyst in it will share a little with us?"

The captain of the city guard laughed and said, "Don't worry, boy, they all have it."

"Today, those who see you have a share!"

In this way, he seems to have already regarded the golden thread kit as his own, as if he had already obtained it.

At this time, Chen Feng smiled suddenly, looked at him, and said softly: "Really?"

The next moment, Chen Feng grabbed it with a palm.

He grabbed it with this palm, and it didn't seem to have any strength.

The captain of the city guard and others all sneered with disdain:

"Boy, are you a bitch?"

"Yeah, what strength does your palm have? It's soft? Are you trying to tickle me?"

They are even more disdainful.

A cold expression was outlined at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth.

The next moment, his palm slammed into the fist of the city guard chief.

Many city guards are looking forward to it.

In their opinion, after the two collided, the captain of the city guard could directly blast this kid into powder.

But the next moment, they were shocked and exclaimed: "What is going on?"

It turned out that they saw that the palm, which was very soft in their eyes, without a trace of strength, directly grabbed the fist that seemed extremely powerful.

But that fist was not able to advance and was firmly grasped.

The captain of the city guard also widened his eyes and let out an incredulous roar.

His fist was caught by Chen Feng, and it felt like he was welded in iron, but he couldn't escape.

He let out a roar: "How come?"

He struggled frantically, his face flushed, and tried his best, but he found that the opponent didn't move at all.

At this moment, he suddenly thought of something, and there was a touch of fear in his eyes.

And just when he was about to speak, Chen Feng suddenly smiled and shook his right hand.

Suddenly, a surge of power surged out, following his fist into his forearm, then into his big arm, and then into his torso!

Happiness!

Wherever it went, all the bones shattered and turned into powder.

The commander of the city guard screamed sternly, and was shocked by this powerful force, and he was thrown out and hit the ground heavily.

Chapter 3185: Kill you with money!

His right arm dropped softly, it was useless.

Not just his right arm, but his chest was also broken by the shock!

Chen Feng stepped on the body of the captain of the city guard.

Chen Feng didn't have much strength in this foot, but the city guard army commander had been severely injured by him, especially his chest, where his bones collapsed, muscles shattered, and internal organs were severely injured.

Therefore, Chen Feng's light kick directly caused him to squirt blood, let out a scream, and hurt him more seriously.

He looked at Chen Feng and screamed frantically: "You dare not kill me, you dare not kill me!"

"If you kill me, you will definitely be beheaded! You dare not kill me!"

Chen Feng smiled and said: "Oh? Really? I dare not kill you, am I?"

Chen Feng smiled, the strength on that foot heavier, and directly crushed all the other bones in his chest.

With a wow, he spouted another big mouthful of blood, and all the arrogance in his eyes just disappeared, and it was replaced by fear.

Because, just in that action, he judged that Chen Feng not only had the ability to kill him, but he really dared to kill him!

He roared in disbelief, "How dare you? Me, I am from Yingzhou Island!"

Chen Feng laughed loudly: "Sorry, I just dare!"

The captain of the city guard looked at him pleadingly, and said with a trembling, "Please, don't kill me, don't kill me!"

He has only been begging for mercy, and he is no longer arrogant.

Chen Feng suddenly took out the golden thread kit from his arms and shook it.

The city guards beside them were very scared, but seeing the golden thread kit and thinking of the tens of millions of dragon blood amethyst in it, they couldn't help swallowing for a while.

Chen Feng lowered his head, looked at the captain of the city guard, smiled and said, "Isn't it just about seeing the money?"

"No, do you see that there are a lot of dragon blood amethysts in my golden thread kit?"

"No, you want money?"

"Okay!"

He chuckles: "You want it, then I will give it to you!"

"Don't you want money? Then I will kill you with money!" NOVELUSB.COM

At the next moment, Chen Feng suddenly shook the golden thread kit.

Suddenly, countless dragon blood amethysts in the golden thread bag burst out, like a waterfall.

A big waterfall that can kill people!

Those dragon blood amethysts bitterly hit the city guard chief.

The captain of the city guard was still a little stunned just now. He didn't know what Chen Feng meant, but he understood immediately.

Although these dragon blood amethysts are not very heavy, there are almost seven or eight million dragon blood amethysts here, which can add up to tens of millions of catties.

All these weights fell on the captain of the city guard.

The captain of the city guard let out a stern scream: "No!"

But the screams soon fell down, it turned out that the dragon blood amethyst hit him, and then his already severely injured body hurt even more.

He kept spraying blood.

After a while, his screams were already low.

In the end, it stopped abruptly and disappeared directly!

He was actually beaten to death by these countless dragon blood amethysts, just like being crushed to death by countless boulders.

Seeing this scene, the other city guards couldn't help but swallow.

Chen Feng chuckled, "You want money, don't you? Then I will kill you with money!"

The other city guards all swallowed: "It's really smashed to death with money!"

Then, Chen Feng glanced at the city guards.

Suddenly, the faces of these city guards showed fear, and they all stepped back.

Chen Feng looked at them, suddenly fixed his eyes on one person, smiled and said:

"Just now, when I stopped me with a spear, it was very arrogant! Very domineering! Very arrogant!"

"You think I am a soft persimmon that you can handle, don't you?"

It turned out that the person Chen Feng was talking to at this time was the one who stopped Chen Feng with his spear at the beginning!

The city guard shivered with fright, and his face instantly turned pale.

He looked at Chen Feng, trembling all over, his lips trembled, as if he wanted to say something, but he couldn't say a word.

Chen Feng was right in front of him, and easily killed their captain, who was not much stronger than him.

Where would he dare to yell at Chen Feng again?

Chen Feng walked slowly towards him.

And every time he took a step forward, the city guard took a step back, his eyes full of fear.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Speak! Just now, didn't you talk a lot?"

"Just now, wasn't it arrogant?"

"Why? Stop talking now?"

Finally, the city guard said two words with trembling lips: "No, don't kill me!"

He has seen a strong killing intent in Chen Feng's eyes.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Now you know to beg for mercy, right?"

"Unfortunately, it's too late!"

The next moment, Chen Feng shot out with a punch.

The city guard let out a stern howl, instigating the huge lizard under the crotch to flee wildly.

But how can he escape?

In the next moment, Chen Feng chased directly behind him and blasted out a punch!

The screams screamed, then stopped abruptly.

His figure was smashed and flew out, hitting a mountain wall, spurting blood, and his breath was directly cut off.

He was already directly killed by Chen Feng!

Chen Feng glanced at them, smiled coldly, and with a wave of his hand, he took all the dragon blood amethysts on the ground back into the golden thread kit.

Then, he flipped over the captain of the city guard, and suddenly he flipped to a golden thread kit.

Chen Feng opened it, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

The dragon blood amethyst in this golden thread kit is almost 10 million or so. I want to come, it is all the wealth of this city guard.

But now it belongs to Chen Feng.

Then, Chen Feng looked at the remaining city guards, smiled and said, "Now, can I go in?"

These city guards nodded in a hurry, they were shocked by Chen Feng.

Chen Feng laughed and strode into this Yingzhou City!

In Yingzhou City, there are so many people, and at a glance, the streets are full of warriors.

There are various shops and restaurants on both sides of the street. Most of these pavilions are not high, and most of them are only three or four floors.

The colors are extremely gorgeous, either rhubarb or scarlet, and the appearance is completely different from what Chen Feng saw in the Longmai Continent. It is full of exotic customs, but it is extremely prosperous.

Among the pedestrians on the street, only about half are human warriors, while the other half are other strange races.

Most of them are water monsters.

There are big fish directly floating in the air, and there are long black monsters that wander around like a waterweed.

There is also a fish underneath, the upper half of the body is life, the whole body is bulging, and the extremely strong alien.

Chapter 3186: Buy news

There are so many people, but the people around are not surprised at all, obviously they are used to it.

This made Chen Feng realize that this place is different from other places in the Dragon Vessel Continent that he had visited before!

This is overseas, there are countless special races, countless strong people. NovelUsb.com

After Chen Feng came here, he also received a lot of attention.

Not because of other things, but because his realm is too low.

People walking here, half-step Wudi can be seen everywhere, and there are many strong people in the Wudi realm, but there are very few strong people like Chen Feng and the nine-star Wuhuang level.

After entering here, Chen Feng took a deep breath, feeling extremely uncomfortable.

There are powerful auras everywhere, and many of them can even suppress him.

Chen Feng sighed softly, looked into the distance, and said to himself: "Yingzhou City, there are really strong gatherings!"

"I'm here, but very inconspicuous."

In the eyes of everyone, his strength is too low.

But it was just a surprised look, and no one came to bother immediately.

After all, although Chen Feng's strength is not obvious now, being able to enter it is a recognition of his strength.

Many people are guessing that although this young man is not high-level, he might be a masterpiece.

Chen Feng didn't care about everyone's gaze, but just walked forward, listening carefully for the news as he walked.

About two hours later, a smile appeared on the corner of Chen Feng's mouth. He looked at the location in the center of the city and said, "It turns out that there is a special seller of news."

Chen Feng had heard a lot of news in these two hours, and soon he knew where to buy news.

The area of Yingzhou City is not very large, with a radius of only a few hundred miles.

The streets are not very wide, and there are three- and four-story buildings full of exotic styles everywhere.

All the streets were small alleys with twists and turns, and Chen Feng walked towards the city according to the news he heard.

Soon, after walking around for an hour, he came to an area.

This area is rather dilapidated, the buildings on both sides are not high, and they look very old.

In many places, the surface is already mottled.

The alleys here are exceptionally narrow and the roads are exceptionally dense. It's just normal to see no sign as you walk.

Those shops facing the street are also rarely opened. Occasionally, a few are opened, and there are a few idlers sitting at the door, staring at the occasional pedestrians with indifferent and cold eyes.

After Chen Feng came here, he took a deep breath.

He knew that this place was mostly the underground black market in Yingzhou City.

Presumably, not only news can be sold here, but many things can be sold.

After seeing Chen Feng's arrival, the emotions on these faces did not change.

Chen Feng took a deep breath and stepped into it.

After arriving here, Chen Feng felt that there seemed to be an eerie and strange power in the air, and the wind blowing here was extremely cold, causing Chen Feng to shiver.

Even Chen Feng could hear the whispering cry of ghosts in the air.

Chen Feng knew that there must have been countless killings before.

I don't know how many people died here, and I don't know how many sins were buried here, so this is the case.

Soon, Chen Feng passed through seven or eight alleys before arriving at a small courtyard.

In this small courtyard, the gate is open and you can see the situation inside.

The yard is not big, only a few tens of meters in radius. There is a lot of grass and three or four coffins on the ground.

These three or four coffins are also in tatters, and some of the coffin covers have fallen off, revealing the pale color inside.

At the end of the courtyard, there was something similar to a dilapidated ancestral hall, and only the ruined walls remained.

"This is it."

Chen Feng sighed slightly, he looked around and was sure.

Then, step directly into this courtyard.

This is where Chen Feng inquired about buying news in Yingzhou City. If the news here is incomplete, then no one dares to say it all.

After Chen Feng came here, there was no movement.

Chen Feng was not in a hurry either. He just came to the ancestral hall and took out three incense sticks to light it, but did not sprinkle the incense ash on the ground, but directly spread it in the palm of his hand.

After the incense was lit, Chen Feng scattered the incense ash with the wind.

Suddenly, the incense ash floated away.

And at the moment when the incense ash fell, suddenly, a person's voice in this courtyard suddenly rang: "Boy, you want me to buy news?"

In the next moment, one of the rotten coffins that had been spread among the wild grass suddenly flashed by a black figure.

Then, lightly fell in front of the ancestral hall, looking at Chen Feng.

This person is a middle-aged person in his forties.

Wearing a black suit, his figure was extremely short, and his eyes shone with a sly light.

He crouched on his waist and tiptoe, his legs were full of power, as if he was about to flee at any time.

While speaking, he looked around very vigilantly.

Chen Feng didn't react at all to his sudden appearance.

Because as soon as Chen Feng entered here, he sensed his breath and knew that he was hiding in the coffin.

Chen Feng just saved him a face, so he didn't directly expose it, but instead cooperated with him to pretend to be a ghost here.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Yes, I just want to buy news now."

This person glanced at Chen Feng, and after seeing Chen Feng's strength clearly, a look of contempt flashed in his eyes.

The expression on his face immediately became cold, and he said lazily: "What news to buy?"

When he saw Chen Feng's strength, he felt that Chen Feng should not be able to afford too expensive news.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "News from the Sea of Death."

"News from the Sea of Death?"

He looked at Chen Feng, curled his lips, with an expression of disbelief on his face, and said, "The news about the Sea of Death is very expensive."

Obviously, the implication of these words is to buy the news of the Sea of Death, I am afraid that Chen Feng will definitely not be able to spend the money.

He didn't believe that Chen Feng had such strong financial resources.

Chen Feng frowned, and a trace of displeasure flashed in his heart.

Chen Feng could already see the contempt of this person just now very clearly, but Chen Feng didn't want to tear his face with him, so he endured it.

This person nicknamed the seven-tailed scorpion. As for his real name, no one knew.

In the underground black market in Yingzhou City, he is a legend, who is responsible for selling news. Chen Feng is unwilling to quarrel with him.

Therefore, Chen Feng took a deep breath and endured it again.

Chapter 3187: kidding me?

He took out the gold thread kit, shook it, smiled and said, "Since I came to buy it, I am sure of course."

"It is good!"

After seeing the golden thread kit, Seven-tailed Scorpion flashed greed in his eyes, then stretched out his right hand and lazily said, "First hand in five million dragon blood amethysts."

"Five million dragon blood amethysts first?"

Chen Feng raised his eyebrows and said, "I have never heard of this rule."

"It's my rule here. These five million dragon blood amethysts are a deposit! How do I know that you won't run away immediately after buying the news?" Seven-tailed Scorpion said very domineeringly: "Why, do you have any questions? ?"

Chen Feng took a deep breath and held it down.

This is the third time he endured it.

Chen Feng took out five million dragon blood amethysts from the golden thread kit, threw it in front of him, and said, "Now, you can sell it to me, right?"

"Of course can!"

Seven-tailed Scorpion smiled slightly, took a scroll from his arms and threw it to Chen Feng.

Chen Feng opened the scroll.

Before opening, Chen Feng was full of expectations.

After opening it, his face suddenly changed.

It turned out that there was nothing on the scroll, but nothing.

Moreover, after Chen Feng perceived it carefully, he found that this scroll was an ordinary scroll without any special features.

Chen Feng changed several methods to urge him, but did not find any writing on it.

Obviously, this scroll is just a piece of white paper.

Chen Feng looked at the Seven-Tailed Scorpion. At this time, his heart was already flashing murderously, and he said coldly: "Your Excellency, what's going on?"

"What's the matter? Can't you tell? This is the news I sold you!"

He impatiently urged Daozi: "This news, a total of 30 million dragon blood amethysts, now quickly take out the remaining 25 million dragon blood amethysts."

At this moment, Chen Feng showed a smile at the corner of his mouth: "There seems to be no word on this scroll. Is this the news you sold me?"

Seven-tailed Scorpion laughed arrogantly: "Yes, there is no word, so what?"

"Lao Tzu said this is the news to sell to you, it is the news to sell to you! Hahahaha!"

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Fuck me?"

At this time, the smile on his face became stronger.

The killing intent in that eye is almost overflowing!

"Yes, I just fooled you!"

Seven-tailed Scorpion laughed loudly and looked at Chen Feng with a playful expression on his face:

"What? Boy, are you not convinced?"

"I'm just playing you, what's the matter?"

Obviously, he was playing with Chen Feng, and he also wanted to take it by force!

Chen Feng took a deep breath, smiled and nodded and said, "Okay, very good."

Chen Feng looked at the seven-tailed scorpion, he didn't plan to bear it anymore.

Since Seven-tailed Scorpion dared to do this, Chen Feng decided to teach her a profound lesson that she will never forget!

Chen Feng looked at him, stretched out three fingers, and said lightly: "I count three times. If you give me the correct message, I will spare your life."

"What? Give me my life?"

Seven-tailed Scorpion looked at Chen Feng and laughed loudly: "Boy, are you crazy? Huh? You spare my life?"

"Are you sure you spared my life, or I spared you?"

Chen Feng ignored it, but said coldly, "Three!"

The seven-tailed scorpion laughed loudly: "Boy, I give you a chance. You will dedicate all your wealth to me, and I will spare your life and let you go."

"Otherwise, today, I will kill you!"

Chen Feng coldly stretched out two fingers: "Two!"

Seven-tailed scorpion felt that he had been completely ignored, and became angry, and shouted: "Boy, you are looking for death!"

With that, he directly killed Chen Feng.

"Oh, if you don't hand over the news, you want to kill people?"

Chen Feng smiled coldly, and then he roared: "I will punch you out of your * today!"

At the next moment, Chen Feng's figure flashed, and he rushed directly at him, hitting him with a punch!

With Chen Feng's punch, Seven-Tailed Scorpion showed a thick expression of disdain, and did not pay attention to Chen Feng's offensive at all.

He curled his lips and said, "It's just a mere nine-star martial emperor's peak, yet dare to be rampant in front of me? I'm a strong man close to the Martial Emperor realm!"

As he said, he gave a yin smile and also punched out, looking at Chen Feng triumphantly.

In his opinion, after these two punches collided, he could directly destroy Chen Feng.

The two fists were getting closer, and at this moment, his expression suddenly changed.

It turned out that he felt that the breath from Chen Feng's fist was extremely powerful and overbearing.

Even, he can't resist it at all.

He exclaimed: "Such a tyrannical strength, you, did you hide your strength?"

He looked at Chen Feng in shock, and at the same time retreated quickly, not daring to fight Chen Feng hard.

But how can it be in time?

Chen Feng suddenly accelerated, with a bang, and his fist slammed on his fist.

Seven-tailed Scorpion let out a miserable scream, he felt severe pain in his right fist, his bones shattered, and his body fell heavily.

Chen Feng was so unreasonable, his figure flashed, and he came to him again, and then blasted out a punch.

The seven-tailed scorpion has no time to dodge, so he can only take it hard.

As a result, his left arm was also shattered by Chen Feng.

At the next moment, Chen Feng stretched out his left hand and grabbed his neck directly, with a sneer: "You are kidding me?"

As he said, he slapped his face with a big slap, swelling his face directly, and flying out with blood mixed with broken teeth.

Then, Chen Feng sneered again: "Give me a blank piece of paper, right?"

Another big ear photon fan on his face!

"You dare to ask for my dragon blood amethyst, right?"

Another big ear photon fan on his face!

Every time Chen Feng said, he slapped him, and every effort he exerted was immense.

The seven-tailed scorpion was blinded directly.

After a while, he came back to his senses. He stared at Chen Feng and screamed: "Boy, you dare to move..."

Before the word 'I' was spoken, he snapped a big slap on his face.

Chen Feng looked at him, smiled and said, "I moved you, what's wrong?"

"Boy, tell you, if you dare to move me, the consequences will be very..."

There is another big slap in the face!

At this moment, he almost broke his neck and slapped his head heavily to the side.

At this moment, the seven-tailed scorpion felt that his soul was about to be beaten out.

At this moment, he even felt the danger of death.

When this palm fell on his head, he really felt that he was going to be beaten to death alive!

Chen Feng smiled and said, "What are the consequences? Come and tell me, what are the consequences?"

Chapter 3188: Are you convinced?

Chen Feng's volume grew louder and louder, and finally, with a violent roar, he threw him to the ground, and slammed his foot on his belly.

At this moment, the seven-tailed scorpion directly let out a scream, blood spurting out frantically.

He bent down, like a prawn.

At the same time, he felt warm in his lower body.

With a soft thud, a fishy smell diffused.

He was actually stomped by Chen Feng's foot just now, and he ran out of urine.

Chen Feng laughed loudly: "Say your * will be punched out, you must be punched out!"

At this time, the seven-tailed scorpion looked at Chen Feng with fear.

At that moment, he realized that this young man really dared to kill himself.

Moreover, he really has this ability.

This made him no longer have the slightest arrogance, only fear is left!

"Can you afford the price of playing me?"

Chen Feng stared at him with a smile on the corner of his mouth.

He squatted on the ground, looked at the seven-tailed scorpion, and said softly: "Are you convinced?"

"I'm convinced! I'm convinced!" Seven-tailed Scorpion nodded eagerly.

He was really convinced by Chen Feng.

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Okay, what should I do now?"

Seven-tailed Scorpion quickly took out a scroll from his arms, held it with respectful hands, and gave it to Chen Feng, saying, "This is the real scroll of the Sea of Death, please take a look."

Chen Feng took the scroll, opened it, glanced roughly, and nodded.

He naturally distinguished whether it was true or false.

There is a very detailed introduction on the Sea of Death, much more detailed than what he got in Nei Zong.

Chen Feng put away the scroll, and then said lazily: "What else?"

Talking, stretched out a hand.

Seven-tailed Scorpion froze for a moment, and then immediately realized that he hurriedly handed the five million dragon blood amethysts that he had just taken back to Chen Feng, and said, "My son, these dragon blood amethysts, please take them back, old man I dare not ask for it."

Chen Feng nodded and put away these dragon blood amethysts.

Then, he stretched out his hand again, looked at him lazily and said, "What else?"

Chen Feng's present expression is very much like the seven-tailed scorpion just now. He is obviously imitating him to mock him.

The seven-tailed scorpion was stunned, and said in amazement: "Master, what else?"

"What else?" Chen Feng's face suddenly changed.

Snapped!

A big eared photon slapped his face again: "Take a moment to think about it, what else is there!"

Seven-tailed scorpion fanned this big eared photon on his back, and he didn't wake up for a long time.

Suddenly he woke up and knew what Chen Feng wanted.

There was a painful look on his face, and he was very reluctant to bear it, but when he saw Chen Feng's cold smile beside him, he shivered violently and cursed in his heart:

"Damn, when is it all, life is gone, why do you need money?"

Thinking of this, he tremblingly took out three golden thread kits from his arms, handed them to Chen Feng very reluctantly, and said: "My son, here, these three golden thread kits are all the little old man. His wealth."

"Is it all your wealth?"

Chen Feng opened the three gold thread kits, looked at them roughly, and roughly estimated them.

In these three golden thread kits, there are about 50 million dragon blood amethysts.

Chen Feng frowned and said, "That's your wealth?"

Seeing Chen Feng's displeasure, Seven-tailed Scorpion quickly explained: "Master, you have to be considerate!"

"The news about the little old man is not in vain. The little old man is actually a middleman among them. I bought the things you want with others!"

"This also costs a lot of money!"

"This is really all the little old man's savings!"

Chen Feng glanced at him, snorted coldly, and said, "Forgive you for not daring to lie."

He took these three golden thread kits into his arms, feeling very happy, and laughed: "This windfall comes, really fast!"

Chen Feng glanced at Seven-Tailed Scorpion and said lightly: "Today, because you gave me the real news, I won't kill you, spare your life."

"But, remember for me, I will come to you in the future, and I will come to you to buy news."

"If you dare to play tricks with me, I will kill you!"

Seven-tailed scorpion was frightened by Chen Feng's eyes, and nodded in a hurry.

Chen Feng turned around and left.

"Yes, wait a minute, son." Seven-tailed Scorpion suddenly called.

Chen Feng stopped, turned to look at him and said, "What else?"

Seven-tailed Scorpion was full of flattery, watching Chen Feng nodded and bowed and said: "If you have any gains from going to the Sea of Death, you can also get it back here."

"Get it back here? What do you mean?"

Seven-tailed Scorpion hurriedly said: "Yingzhou City is among all the islands within a radius of hundreds of millions of miles, with the most people and the most powerful."

"This is a trade center in the nearby sea area of hundreds of millions of miles. All people come here to do business, all people come here to buy things and sell things."

"In Yingzhou City, there are two auction houses. The first one is the auction house opened by the owner of Yingzhou City and his family."

"This auction site has a huge area. After you go inside, the price is guaranteed, and no one will embezzle your goods."

"Your things will be auctioned off, and Dragon Blood Amethyst will be accounted for immediately."

Chen Feng looked at him with a smile and said, "Since this auction house has so many benefits, how did the auction house that can be compared to him survive?"

Seven-tailed scorpion smiled strangely, looked at Chen Feng and said: "The son really understands."

"Don't tell me... the second auction house is here."

With that, he pointed to the ground under his feet.

Chen Feng understood that this slum-like location, as expected, is definitely not just selling news, but selling everything.

And it seems that there is still a huge underground auction site here.

Seven-tailed Scorpion said: "Of course the auction house opened by the City Lord's family is good, but if you are auctioning something invisible in it, it will be very troublesome."

"Moreover, the auction house opened by the city owner's family is leaking everywhere."

"For example, your son, you took a piece of goods to auction there, as long as the goods are more eye-catching and attract everyone's coveted."

"I dare to say that in less than an hour, someone will leak your news, and everyone will know that you brought this item."

"Moreover, some things, if you put them in that auction house, you won't be able to sell them within ten and a half days."

Chapter 3189: Close to destination

"But, here we are, first, keep the information of the owner absolutely confidential, no one knows that you brought it."

At this moment, his face was full of seriousness, and there was a trace of enthusiasm in his eyes, and he was not as scared as Chen Feng just now.

When talking about business, this guy is a very qualified businessman.

Even if Chen Feng beat him so miserably, even if he was extremely scared of Chen Feng, it did not prevent him from promoting this proud underground black market.

He went on to say: "Secondly, their auction house must have a certain amount of precious things in order to open an auction, but here, as long as you come here, we can hold an auction for you."

"Shoot on the spot, give Dragon Blood Amethyst on the spot, and leave on the spot. It's so fast."

Chen Feng nodded, smiled and said, "Okay, I understand."

After speaking, Chen Feng wanted to leave.

And he just took two steps, suddenly turned to look at the seven-tailed scorpion, and said: "I know, you must be very unconvinced today, and you must be thinking of revenge."

"It's okay, you can retaliate as much as you can. Even the next time I come to buy news from you, you can find a few people to lie here and kill me. It's not impossible."

"But remember!"

"If you do this, the consequences will be serious!"

Chen Feng smiled and said this, then turned and left.

The seven-tailed scorpion shivered violently.

Chen Feng's last smile fell in his eyes, no less than a devil's smile.

The strange thought that had just emerged in his mind also disappeared without a trace. There was only one thought in his mind: "This person is terrible!"

When Chen Feng left here, Zhong Fenglin also came to Yingzhou City.

He was much slower than Chen Feng.

After he came here, he looked around, his expression very anxious.

However, it is clear that he is not here for the first time, and he is quite familiar with it.

Those who turned seven and eight quickly disappeared from the crowd.

When he appeared again, it was already half an hour later.

With a smug smile on his face, a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth: "It turns out, Chen Feng, you really came here."

"Moreover, I'm still asking for news around here!"

"Okay! In this case, I understand. Then I don't need to stay here anymore. Anyway, you must leave here. If you want to go to the Sea of Death, there is a way to go, and I will be there. Just waiting for you."

He smiled slightly: "Just wait for the rabbit!"

After speaking, his figure flashed and he left Yingzhou City directly.

Chen Feng didn't stay in Yingzhou City much. After receiving the news, he soon left.

Outside Yingzhou City is a high mountain.

Chen Feng came to this mountain forest and found a towering cliff. The top of the cliff was a hidden stone crack, and at the end was a cave.

Chen Feng came to the stone cave, sat cross-legged, and sighed softly. After confirming that there was no one around, he took out the scroll.

Take it in your hand and look closely.

This scroll is extremely long, three meters long when unrolled, and two feet wide.

The front is a topographical map, but one after another, showing the terrain around the sea of death, and even the route needed to enter the sea of death.

Chen Feng watched it once, and remembered all these routes in his mind.

Then, he looked to the right again.

On the right is a large paragraph of text.

Chen Feng discovered that these words were not written by one person.

Look at the size of the handwriting and font, and even the tone of the statement, it is completely different.

Chen Feng roughly counted it, and found that the text, which had about 10,000 words, was written by a total of 16 people.

He read it again, and it was clear to his heart.

"It turns out that this text is a summary of these sixteen people's notes on the sea of death."

"They have all entered the sea of death, so the experience they have gained is extremely valuable."

Chen Feng emphatically read these words carefully several times, until the melon is overripe.

Then, Chen Feng closed his eyes, thought through the contents of the scroll, and made sure that there were no omissions. Only then did he lightly wipe with his right hand.

Suddenly, this scroll turned directly into powder.

Chen Feng got up. At this moment, he saw a stone crack at the end of the cave. Chen Feng walked forward along the stone crack.

All the way to twists and turns, for more than thirty miles, there is light in front of him.

A moist breath of the ocean penetrated straight into it, and Chen Feng walked to the end of the stone crevice.

In front of him, there is already that endless ocean.

It turned out that this rock gap led directly to the cliff.

A smile appeared on the corner of Chen Feng's mouth: "This is really suitable for me!"

He did not leave in a hurry, but sat cross-legged again, recovering here for an hour.

An hour later, Chen Feng's ninth round of the big day has become complete again, and he can start the Sun-Raising Golden Crow Footwork again.

Only then did Chen Feng leave.

However, when leaving this time, Chen Feng didn't go directly towards the direction of the sea of death as before.

Originally, if he were to go directly to the Sea of Death at his current location, he would have to go to the true north, but Chen Feng's direction at this time was a little bit west of the true north.

Only then did Chen Feng realize how hasty his preparations were.

I didn't even prepare the island map of the overseas islands before, so I came hastily.

You know, with his abilities, he can never fly on the sea for so long, and reach the sea of death.

There must be a place to rest in the middle.

If his day-by-day Golden Crow footwork reaches the time limit, there must be a place for him to rest and recover.

However, Chen Feng didn't even have an island map in his hands before, and it was actually difficult for him to find a place to recover.

Take the previous example, if he didn't come to Yingzhou Island by chance, I'm afraid the consequences would be really unthinkable.

Thinking of this, Chen Feng trembled in his heart, and secretly warned: "Chen Feng, you can't be so careless next time you do something."

Therefore, this time Chen Feng was on Yingzhou Island. In addition to the news that Seven-tailed Scorpion was coming to the Sea of Death, he also obtained a very detailed island map from him.

This extremely detailed island map is of course very precious, but it is much worse than the news of the Sea of Death.

The seven-tailed scorpion has to give if he wants, and he has to give if he doesn't want to.

Now Chen Feng has a clear idea of the islands on the route from Yingzhou Island to the Sea of Death.

At this time, the direction he was heading was an island 170 million miles away.

Chapter 3190: Chen Feng, I have been waiting for a long time!

Chen Feng estimated that after three hours, he should almost be there just in time, and he could just take a rest there and recover his strength.

With a clearer goal this time, Chen Feng was obviously more calm than when he flew just now.

Three hours later, he saw that there was a large lush island in front of him, which was even bigger than Yingzhou Island.

However, it is not as steep as Yingzhou Island.

At this time, Chen Feng's power of the Golden Crow Footwork had not been completely exhausted, and he could fly for about half an hour, but he still chose to land and chose a secluded corner to recover quietly.

Then, a few hours later, Chen Feng set off again.

In the next few days, Chen Feng was like this.

In the early morning of the sixth day, Chen Feng flew quickly over the ocean, passing a golden light.

At this moment, under him, in the waves, another giant sea monster suddenly jumped up and swallowed it fiercely towards Chen Feng.

This monster beast in the sea is a big fish, with a length of tens of thousands of meters, and his huge mouth occupies almost two-thirds of the whole body, which is extremely large.

The huge mouth opened, almost to the position of the tail, showing hundreds of huge tusks.

Each fang is the size of a hill and is extremely terrifying.

At a glance, it felt as if he was torn to pieces.

If Chen Feng first came to Xihai, he would inevitably panic, but at this time he was very calm.

With his leisurely control of the Golden Crow footwork, his body rose into the air, causing the huge sea fish monster beast to rush into the air.

Chen Feng looked down at him, then a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and said softly: "I came here this way, but I didn't see any more powerful monsters."

"The monster beasts that appear now are about the same level as the one I encountered on the first day. They are between the one-star monster emperor and the two-star monster emperor."

"This should have something to do with my route of travel."

Chen Feng's guess is correct. Although he has been outside for longer and longer, in fact, its route can be said to be close to the coastline.

His distance from the coastline has always been about 100 million li.

Taking the volume of the four seas in the south, east, north and west, a distance of about 100 million miles can be said to be close to the coastline. It is not an exaggeration to the deepest part of the ocean, the center position, I don't know how far it is!

Naturally, the closer to the ocean center, the higher the level of the monster.

In fact, the monsters on the periphery were inconspicuous relative to the entire sea.

Soon, the light of the boots on Chen Feng's feet gradually began to dim and sway, and it was almost exhausted.

At this time Chen Feng also saw it, and an island appeared at the end of his sight.

The island is not very big, but it is extremely high and very narrow, and the whole looks like a blade protruding above the sea.

"Blade's Edge Island, here it is!"

Chen Feng took a long sigh, his eyes full of expectation.

Blade's Edge Island was Chen Feng's penultimate stop, and the last stop was the Sea of Death.

This is the closest island to the Sea of Death, which means that after Chen Feng rests here, he will rush to the Sea of Death.

Chen Feng soon came to Blade's Edge Island, found a hidden cliff, looked at the sea, and began to rest and restore his strength.

An hour passed.

At this moment, Chen Feng's heart suddenly throbbed, and he felt like a thorn on his back, and an extremely dangerous feeling suddenly surged into his heart.

It was as if a very fast knife stabbed him in the back.

Chen Feng's heart was originally extremely calm, without self and without him, and entered the state of selflessness.

But at this moment, Chen Feng's heart was beating wildly, and his body was tightly stretched. With a brush, he stood up.

Suddenly turned around, extremely fast.

At the same time, the power is all over the body, and it is already ready to fight.

He looked at the jungle behind him and said coldly: "Who? Get out!"

In the jungle, a low laugh sounded.

Chen Feng heard this voice very familiar.

Then, a figure slowly walked out of the woods.

After seeing him, Chen Feng's pupils shrank instantly and coldly said, "It turned out to be you?"

Chen Feng was not surprised when he appeared here.

It turned out that the person who appeared at this time was actually Zhong Fenglin!

Zhong Fenglin looked at Chen Feng, smiled and said, "Chen Feng, I have been waiting for a long time!"

Chen Feng smiled silently.

"Little bastard, it seems that you were not surprised by my appearance?"

Chen Feng looked at him and said coldly: "I am not surprised whether you will come or not."

Seeing the calm expression on Chen Feng's face, Zhong Fenglin instantly felt as though he was completely seen through by Chen Feng.

And this feeling made him angry.

He stared at Chen Feng and said fiercely, "Boy, you look calm and calm!"

"I just don't know, when you will be killed by me, will you be so calm and calm."

Chen Feng smiled and said, "Mostly yes."

At this time, he faced Zhong Fenglin calmly.

But in fact, at this time, Chen Feng's mind was already running crazy, thinking about how to get out.

Because Chen Feng is very clear that he is definitely not Zhong Fenglin's opponent now!

Chen Feng's central thoughts changed: "Fortunately, I have recovered a part of my strength now. If my daily Golden Crow footwork is fully urged, the speed should be faster than Zhong Fenglin."

"Yes, there is absolutely no problem with this."

Chen Feng immediately wanted to understand: "If Zhong Fenglin was faster than me, he would have caught up to kill me long ago, and he has not caught up until now, obviously because he is not as fast as me, so he can only Wait here."

"Because he guessed my destination."

"In this case, I might still have some escape."

He thought in his heart, but there was no change in the mood on his face, and said calmly: "You are so sure, can you kill me?"

Zhong Fenglin looked at Chen Feng and sneered, "Chen Feng, I know that you are extremely talented and not weak."

"But unfortunately, my strength is stronger than you. You can kill Sang Zijin. Your strength is already comparable to that of entering the Martial Emperor Realm. But do you think I am weaker than you?"

"Chen Feng, you are still too shallow!"

He looked at Chen Feng, raised his chin, his face was full of arrogance, full of looking down, and said arrogantly:

"Chen Feng, now I will let you see my true strength!"

"Let you know, how terrifying the strength of a powerful disciple like me who has entered the Xuanyuan family's inner sect and has not known for many years!"
