Chapter 4641: Taishang Tiandi knife, three realms comprehend!

Chen Feng's voice suddenly rose, and he shouted sharply: "Everything you did just now is exhausting your vitality! Isn't it?"

"You don't have any hole cards for a long time, you come into this world with a drop of blood, how can you have any hole cards left!"

"What you consume is not devilish energy!"

"All this consumes your vitality!"

Chen Feng screamed: "Right?"

At this moment, Chen Feng clearly saw that the Great Demon of the Sun was panicked!

That's right, since entering this place, I have been full of confidence, facing the great flames of Chen Feng and others with a look down attitude!

At this moment, finally panic!

He shivered violently, and even the offensive stopped for a moment.

But the next moment, the panic on his face was forced down.

He stared at Chen Feng and said in a dark voice: "Yes, you are right."

"This is the last trick I can do!"

"But this trick is enough to destroy you!"

"That's enough!"

He roared wildly, and the big sword in his hand was severely cut down.

The big sword is thousands of meters away from Chen Feng, but Chen Feng knows that the offensive will be there soon!

And thousands of meters away, there is an incomparably violent wind blowing!

Blowed up Chen Feng's hair and swelled his clothes!

Chen Feng stood there, only feeling the tremendous pressure cut off!

As if the whole world, at this moment, all shattered!

"As long as you can hold this sword, as long as you can block this move!"

"Then, I won!"

It's just that this is a trick of the nine-star martial emperor's peak level!

This is a move made by a strong man who is more than three levels higher than Chen Feng!

Chen Feng, can you catch it?

At this moment, a scene that surprised everyone happened, and Chen Feng didn't even stop it.

Not only did it not block, it did not hide.

Even, he had heavy steps, slowly took the first three steps, opened his arms and closed his eyes!

Face this sword!

Chen Feng just stood there quietly!novelusb.COM

Pei Muyu hissed and shouted, "Big Brother, what are you doing?"

Hua Lengshuang's cold eyes also couldn't help but flashed, and there was a little worry in it.

Snake Seventeen gritted his teeth and grinned and said, "Chen Feng, are you crazy? Are you looking for death?"

"Okay, let's die together!"

Only the Great Knife Great is thoughtful!

Chen Feng closed his eyes.

Only in this way, he can feel the pressure, the murderous intent, and all that clearly!

He felt that the murderous intent was getting closer and closer, almost pressing over his head!

He felt that the pressure was suddenly suppressed, a moment of life and death!

However, at this moment of life and death, Chen Feng did not collapse, did not escape, on the contrary!

At this moment, all his strength, all consciousness, all spirit, on the contrary, are completely concentrated!

Unparalleled sensitive and sharp!

There was a flash of light in the eyes of the Great Crazy Blade, and he shouted in surprise:

"Chen Feng, are you actually going to use the tremendous pressure between life and death to integrate your strength and let yourself break through?"

"Is this your choice?"

That's right, this is Chen Feng's purpose!

Before Chen Feng, he had suppressed his desire to break through the sword of the Supreme Heavenly Emperor, but he was desperately persuading the turbulent sword intent.

For it is now!

Under this pressure, directly let yourself break through!

This is a rare opportunity!

This sword is getting closer and closer!

In an instant, it reached the top of the head!

Chen Feng felt that there seemed to be barriers in his heart, with layers of shackles!

It turned into a high wall and stood in front of him!

But now, Chen Feng's comprehension has reached the point where it is almost overflowing!

This endless comprehension turned into a huge wave, with a loud boom, it was photographed fiercely!

The high wall was shot to pieces!

Chen Feng was overjoyed in his heart: "The first realm of the Supreme Heavenly Sword, I understand it!"

But it's not over yet!

The turbulent comprehension is forward again!

Break the second high wall directly again!

Chen Feng also directly comprehended the second state of the Supreme Heavenly Sword!

Then, the turbulent sword intent and endless comprehension slammed into the third high wall!

Chen Feng, but to break through this third level, it is not so easy to take it!

Seeing, the progress of the epiphany, the comprehension of the sword intent, seemed to come to an abrupt end!

At this moment, Chen Feng let out a wild roar, and suddenly embraced his arms, as if to devour the world!

In an instant, all the killing intent and all the coercion of the Great Demon of the Sun were gathered in front of him and pressed on him!

At this moment, due to the sudden increase in pressure, the sword intent in Chen Feng's body also instantly surged!

Even stronger than before!

The sword's intent was surging, and the third high wall could no longer stop it, and it was directly shot to pieces!

In an instant, Chen Feng's heart was full of joy!

Can't help raising his arms and laughing wildly!

The three realms of the Taishang Tiandi Sword were all broken by him!

The Great Sword King next to him is silly!

"What kind of abnormality is Chen Feng?"

Even if he combines what he has learned throughout his life to create the Supreme Emperor's Sword, it took a hundred years from the beginning of cultivation to the complete integration!

And Chen Feng, at this instant, realized the three realms!

He had already regarded Chen Feng high enough, but even so, he just thought that Chen Feng could comprehend the first realm by 60 to 70%!

Unexpectedly, Chen Feng understood the three realms one after another!

So scary!

In Chen Fengshi's spiritual world, the sword intent had calmed down. In his opinion, in the next moment, he should be able to cut out the Supreme Emperor's sword.

Even Chen Feng had already figured out how to use the Supreme Emperor's Sword to deal with the Great Demon of Yanyang.

But beyond his expectations, the next moment, the golden spiritual world shook.

In the next moment, in the golden spiritual world, the phantom of three knives suddenly appeared!

The first knife is murderous, as if it can kill life!

The second knife, imaginary, seemed to communicate the two ends of a long river of time.

The third knife is full of domineering, it seems that even the world can be broken!

"Here, these three knives?"

Chen Feng's heart jumped fiercely.

Naturally, he knows better than anyone else that these three swords are exactly the three realms that symbolize the sword of the Supreme Heavenly Emperor.

The first realm: cut the road of life and death with one knife!

The second realm: slash the yellow spring with one blow!

The third realm: smash the world with one sword!

"Why do these three knives suddenly appear together? What does this mean?"

At the next moment, Chen Feng suddenly saw that the phantoms of the three knives had begun to merge together!

To approach together, slowly penetrate into each other.

Chen Feng was stunned.

The next moment, endless ecstasy surged in his heart!

"This, this, is it that the three realms of the Supreme Heavenly Sword have actually merged into one?"

"Then, what a powerful martial skill will be merged! And what kind of horrible knife move will it be!"

Chapter 4642: Three realms in one! Too on the Heavenly Swordsman Formation!

Chen Feng was full of expectations.

The Supreme Heavenly Emperor Sword is already so powerful, how powerful will it be after fusion?

The time outside was just a moment.

In Chen Feng's spiritual world, he didn't know how long it had passed.

Finally, with a loud bang, the phantom shadow of the three knives shattered directly!

An extremely terrifying coercion is coming!

A knife, a long knife with incomparable murderous aura, appeared in the spiritual world!

That's right, the biggest feature of this knife is that its murderous spirit is extremely heavy!

As if to kill all living beings!

It is not a general weight, but a weight far beyond this level!

Chen Feng had never seen such a murderous intent on Fairy Yuheng and Immortal Desire!

This murderous intent is almost equivalent to adding up the previous three knives and multiplying by ten!

This murderous aura was overwhelmingly suppressed, making Chen Feng a little breathless.

Chen Feng couldn't help being shocked!

"How can this knife's murderous intent be so heavy!"

At this moment, he seemed to realize something!

"This knife is a pure killing knife!"

After adapting to this murderous intent, Chen Feng had the intention to feel the other aspects of this long knife!

This long knife seemed to exist, and it seemed to be only in the illusion.

On both sides of it, one is full of life, while the other is lifeless.

It seemed to split life and death with a knife.

Its handle and tip seem to stand on both sides of a long river of time.

Gently fiddle with the law of space at that time, it seems that this long knife has disrupted time and space, and it's life and death!

Only in this way can it have extremely terrifying power.

Chen Feng's spirit sank into it, and he felt it carefully for a long time.

Then, finally opened his eyes, raised his head and sighed slightly: "That's it!"

The next moment, Chen Feng left from the golden spiritual world.

His body in reality suddenly opened his eyes!

The long time in the spiritual world, outside, but only a moment!

At this time, the Great Demon's Long Sword of Yan Yang was about to fall!

Chen Feng can clearly see his hideous face.

The flames opened its mouth with a bit of sarcasm: "Young Master, it's just a breakthrough now, isn't it a bit late?"

Chen Feng smiled slightly: "I think it's not too late!"

"Because I understand it!"

As soon as the voice fell, a towering sword intent appeared directly above his body!

Behind him, there appeared a phantom of a huge long knife that obscured the sky and the sun!

The long knife is like illusion, if there is nothing.

It seems that there is a long river flowing around it!

Sword intent rises from the sky! Shrouded in an instant!

Everyone looked at this scene in horror!

The Great Emperor Crazy Blade was so excited that he shouted: "Chen Feng, you understand it!"

"You really did it! Not only did you comprehend, but you also integrated the three realms into one!"

"What kind of sword intent are you? I feel terrible!"

The Great Demon Yan Yang was extremely horrified: "What is going on? What did he realize?"

"Is there anything too ridiculous about the Heavenly Emperor Sword? Was it used by the Crazy Sword Emperor just now?"

"But when the Great Emperor Crazy Sword was on display just now, why didn't I feel so strong? The realm of Great Sword Emperor is even stronger!"

He didn't know that Chen Feng was already blue and blue now!

Pei Muyu was ecstatic and jumped excitedly and shouted: "Big Brother, I know you are the best!"

An unpleasant color flashed in the eyes of the Great Demon Yan Yang, and he roared, "You, what kind of knife is this?"

"This knife is called!"

A smile was drawn at the corners of his mouth, and Chen Feng gently spit out six words: "Too great!"

This knife is called Taishang Zhutian Sword Formation!

That's right, it's just a trick, but not a single knife!

Rather, a sword formation!

A terrifying knife formation!

Chen Feng naturally knows his name!

"And the power of the Heavenly Swordsman Formation..."

The next moment, suddenly, behind Chen Feng, the huge sword intent that covered the sky and the sun burst into pieces, and then turned into a total of forty-nine black and white sword auras!

Forty-nine sword energy overflowed, turning into a huge sword formation!

Forty-nine sword auras, the murderous aura is so huge that it bursts directly, and madly sweeps around!

Everyone feels cold and trembling all over!

It seems to be torn to pieces directly by this arrogant murderous aura!

It seems that the whole world will be wiped out by this sword aura!

As strong as this!

Comprehend the three realms, three in one.

The Supreme Heavenly Sword, the three realms, not only involve the law of space, but also the law of time that is inexplicable and beyond speculation!

Therefore, the monstrous sword energy of black and white and two colors after the fusion even contains a trace of the law of time and space!

Incomparable profound, profound laws of time and space!

Not only has a strong murderous intent, but also has an incomparably huge power!

The moment when the sword formation is formed!

Chen Feng trembled all over, feeling like drinking alcohol, and instantly his spirit entered an extremely mysterious state.

The whole person shuddered slightly!

At this moment, Chen Feng felt that he was touching the edge of the law of time and space!

Too on the Heavenly Swordsman Formation!

The power is terrifying!

Even if it is the Great Demon of the Sun, as long as it is shrouded in the formation, forty-nine sword qi cuts down, it will be completely turned into powder!

Not only Chen Feng, but everyone felt the horror of this sword formation!

The Yanyang Demon felt that he was afraid, and his own survival instinct was afraid!

This sword formation can kill oneself!

He was not reconciled to the extreme!

"Why! Why can you have an epiphany now! Why can you still understand such a strong sword formation!"

"My chance to change my destiny is right here! But you have ruined it!"

"why!"

He roared wildly, his energy was not frozen, and his sword moves began to loosen up.

However, at this moment, Chen Feng discovered that those forty-nine sword auras suddenly trembled.

Began to become deficient, and his realm is a little unstable!

It seems that it may collapse at any time!

The Great Yanyang Demon also discovered this. He was in ecstasy in his heart and shouted loudly: "I see, your sword intent is extremely high, and this sword formation is also extremely powerful!"

"But unfortunately, your realm is too low and your strength is too low to use this sword formation!"

He laughed: "I was almost scared by you!"

Lava sword, cut down again!

Chen Feng's sword intent is now tyrannical, at this level, he is stronger than the Great Sword Emperor!

However, the sword formation, he still can't display it.

And Chen Feng was also very clear about this.

"Do you think I will be unprepared?"

Chen Feng laughed loudly, his arms raised suddenly!

On Chen Feng's back, all star veins suddenly appeared!

Like Tianhe hanging upside down, there seemed to be ups and downs of stars inside.

It has a magnificent light, the sun rises and the sunset, the stars are shining, and the most magnificent!

In Chen Feng's body, Guan Zi was in the Great Bodhisattva's Golden Sutra cultivation space, and the phantom of the ancient Buddha suddenly appeared.

Chapter 4643: breakthrough! Twenty-seven stars!

Above the sky, in the golden beam of light, a golden scripture fell.

In the past, when this golden scripture fell, the golden beam of light would disappear.

It takes Chen Feng to condense a star vein before the next golden scripture will appear.

But this time, not only did the golden beam of light not disappear, but it became more and more enlarged, far and deep, not knowing where to lead.

Among them, there are actually one after another golden verses, continuously falling down!

Moreover, this scene has not only appeared in the cultivation space of the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva of Vipassana!

Rather, it directly maps to reality!

Everyone was shocked to see that the phantom of the ancient Buddha behind Chen Feng was as large as the sky and sun!

The golden beam of light seemed to shone from the top of the sky, enveloping Chen Feng's body!

Seventeen snakes are dumbfounded!

The Great Emperor Crazy Sword nodded slowly.

Even the Great Demon Yan Yang showed a touch of emotion.

Only Hua Lengshuang's expression remained calm and cold.

Even, at this time, instead of entering the Valley of Falling Stars, the masters of the Spirit Seven Seas and Xuanming Seven Seas Realm who stayed outside suddenly looked up.

Then, they saw that above the golden sky, a huge golden beam of light that penetrated the sky and fell straight down!

The landing point is the depths of the Valley of Falling Stars!

And there are countless white clouds rising around the golden beam of light.

The golden scriptures floated down from it. Although they could neither understand nor understand it, they could feel the profound and profound.

Everyone was shocked and terrified.

Many people actually knelt on the ground and kowtowed their heads sincerely.

Seeing this scene, if you see a miracle!

Chen Feng suddenly raised his head, with a smile drawn at the corner of his mouth.

All this was actually expected by Chen Feng.

His desire to break through his own realm is extremely strong.

The body is extremely eager for spiritual plant essence. Since entering here, it has received countless spiritual plant essences. It could have been cultivated, but it has not been practiced.

Has been suppressing the desire to practice in his heart.

Now, this desire has accumulated to a peak, and finally burst out at this moment!

Behind him, dozens of spiritual essences suddenly appeared!

Lined up, very neat!

The next moment, following Chen Feng behind the ancient Buddha phantom, he waved gently.

An incomparable huge whirlpool appeared, and the Golden Sutra of the Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara was launched with a bang.

The golden verses fell one after another!

At the same moment, those dozens of 500,000-mile overlord-level spiritual plant essences were all shattered!

Endless, extremely high-quality, extremely pure aura, poured into the vortex!

The power of these auras is not inferior to the power of the stars!

These huge emerald greens, full of vitality, gush out from the whirlpool.

Above the sky, among the golden light beams, one after another golden scriptures fell and imprinted on it.

Every time a golden scripture was imprinted on it, Chen Feng's eyebrows shook, and a star vein opened!

The sixteenth star vein is on!

Article 17!

...

Article 20!

Almost in an instant, Chen Feng had already opened five new star veins!

The total number of his star veins has reached twenty!

And at this time, as Chen Feng was shocked, his realm also directly broke through to the Seven-Star Martial Emperor!

But this is not over yet!

The essence of Lingzhi continued to be crushed, the power continued to be absorbed frantically, and the golden scriptures continued to drop!

The twenty-first star vein opens!

Article 22!

...

Finally, when the power of the last trace of spiritual plant essence was absorbed, Chen Feng's number of star veins had reached a total of 27!

And his realm has already broken through to the peak of Seven-Star Martial Emperor!

Chen Feng felt that power surged in the stars.

With a punch by yourself, it seems to be able to crush a world!

At this time, Chen Feng's strength was already comparable to Jiuxing Wudi!

Even if he doesn't use the Taishang Zhutian Sword Formation, his strength is comparable to Nine Star Martial Emperor!

Chen Feng, who stopped breaking, raised his arms!

Behind him, there are 27 star veins, ups and downs, mysterious and huge!

The power is terrifying, overwhelmingly suppressed!

Chen Feng laughed loudly: "The Great Demon of the Sun, it's time for you to die!"

In the next instant, his arms were raised, and among the twenty-seven star veins, the stars moved and the sky revolved!

The power kept coming out, fiercely poured into the Taishang Zhutian Sword Formation!

In an instant, the breath rose to the sky!

Forty-nine black and white sword qi became extremely condensed.

Then, forty-nine black and white sword auras suddenly all pointed towards Yanyang Great Demon.

Then, tearing apart the void, the sword array instantly covered the Great Demon of Yan Yang!

Chen Feng felt that the power in the star veins behind him was being consumed at a terrifying speed!

The body bursts empty.

He even has a feeling that he will be sucked up by this trick!

Chen Feng gritted his teeth fiercely, abandoning distracting thoughts, and let out a wild roar: "Too bad, kill!"

The twenty-seven star pulses tremble, and all the power in them is poured into them instantly!

Forty-nine sword auras, murderous aura soaring!

Every sword aura instantly grew hundreds of times bigger, and went straight into the sky!

The air of black and white rose into the sky, and then spilt down, covering the entire Yanyang Devil Kingdom!

For a time, within a radius of thousands of miles, I saw two black and white auras!

The entire sword formation, forty-nine sword auras, slashed towards the Great Demon of Yan Yang!

It's terrifying!

At this time, the Great Yanyang Demon, the already almost desperate Great Demon, also screamed and smashed the lava giant sword!

Black and white sword aura, murderous, bursting extremely!

Cut fiercely in the lava giant sword!

With a crisp sound, the first black and white sword energy was directly smashed by the lava giant sword!

The second way is to resist the lava giant sword!

The third way, smash the lava giant sword!

Then the fourth, fifth...

When the seventh blade black-and-white blade qi fell fiercely, the lava giant sword, unable to bear it anymore, broke directly!

After that, the remaining forty-two black and white sword auras fell on Yan Yang Great Demon!

Like storms, endless!

Cut one after another, severely cut down!

Then in an instant, an extremely violent and dense impact sounded.

It shook people's eardrums, and the terrifying sound made the whole world tremble!

Of course, there was also the scream of the Great Demon of the Sun!

Just head-to-head!

Without fear, endless hacks!

Dozens of knives fall!

The Great Demon of Yanyang has been battered!

Weak vitality, dying breath,

Of course, the enemy is the Great Demon of the Sun, a monster of the ancient power level.

If he were to be replaced by a general Nine Star Martial Emperor peak powerhouse, Chen Feng, who was too ridiculously ridiculous, would easily turn his opponent into nothingness with his extremely sharp black and white sword aura!

Chapter 4644: The Great Demon of the Sun, died!

When the forty-ninth sword finally fell on Yan Yang Great Demon!

With a loud bang, the Great Demon of the Sun was smashed to pieces!

The shattered body suddenly scattered and fell to the ground!

The Taishang Zhutian Sword Formation was also directly broken, and all the black and white sword energy disappeared!

As the knife fell, Chen Feng clenched his arms and let out a roar!

"Great Demon Yanyang, and who is behind you!"

"I don't care who you are, I don't care what you have done!"

"I, Chen Feng, is definitely not a person who can let people insult at will!"

"I, Chen Feng, have to pay all the hatreds one by one!"

"All grievances, I will end it myself!"

Chen Feng looks up to the sky and screams!

I just feel the wind is clear in my heart, and I can't say it smoothly.

No more depression before half a minute!

Too on the Heavenly Swordsman Formation!

The first time it appeared, it was amazing!

Almost killed the Great Demon of Yan Yang at the peak of Nine Star Martial Emperor!

If it weren't for Chen Feng to stay alive and regain his strength, I'm afraid that the Great Demon of the Sun would be dead now!

After the excitement, seeing that the Great Demon of the Sun finally fell, Chen Feng was also extremely exhausted!

There was a moment of blackness in front of me, and suddenly my whole body trembled, vomiting blood!

The twenty-seven star veins behind Chen Feng are empty!

All power is completely exhausted by him.

The next moment, he suddenly suffered severe pain all over his body, and all his internal organs seemed to be twitching!

Can not help but spurt out a mouthful of blood.

The internal organs have been severely damaged.

Chen Feng observed himself and smiled bitterly.

At this time, not only his body was severely injured.

His golden spiritual world is even more unbearable, almost tottering.

There is only a trace of contact with him, and it may be disconnected at any time.

Obviously, this is too powerful for the Heavenly Swordsman Formation, but it is also extremely expensive!

Just now it was exhausted, not only his golden spiritual world was about to collapse, his body was also about to collapse!

Chen Feng shook heavily and fell directly to the ground.

He collapsed on the scorched earth and looked at the sky, a smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth.

The smile is rippling, getting more and more prosperous!

Finally, the roars turned into Chen Feng!

All the pressure since entering the Xuanming Seven Seas Realm seems to have been vented at this moment!

"Won, finally won!"

It has to be said that this Great Demon of the Sun was too difficult to deal with. Chen Feng used countless methods to use all his hole cards, even between life and death, a close deal, and only after breaking through, he won the victory!

But, after all, I won!

At this time, Chen Feng felt extremely weak.

The 27 star veins behind him have all quietly disappeared.

The energy of the star veins is exhausted and cannot be used again in a short time.

"but....."

Chen Feng sighed softly: "In a short time, there should be no need to deal with this kind of abnormality anymore!"

Pei Muyu quickly stepped forward to help Chen Feng up.

Chen Feng gasped thickly, but his strength recovered a bit, and he helped both Hua Lengshuang and Crazy Saber Great.

The strength of the two also recovered a little.

Speaking of which, the Great Yanyang Demon was the most injured, followed by Snake Seventeen.

Emperor Crazy Blade and Hua Lengshuang came next.

Chen Feng didn't greet them much, but took a deep look at Hua Lengshuang and patted her shoulder gently.

The eyes of the two turned, everything was silent.

In fact, after Chen Feng came to the inner valley of the Valley of Fallen Stars, he did not only see the Great Sword Emperor.

He also saw a second person!

That is Hua Lengshuang!

On that day, after leaving from Emperor Crazy Blade, Chen Feng came to look for Hua Lengshuang.

However, on that day, Chen Feng didn't have much hope for whether he could find Hua Lengshuang.

As a result, he didn't expect that after he took out an item left by Hua Lengshuang, Hua Lengshuang would actually find him.

The two met again and were overjoyed.

But Chen Feng also felt it, Hua Lengshuang was deeply intoxicated and cold and indifferent to everything.

Compared with before, his temperament has changed a lot.

The only thing that remains unchanged is to treat him as before.

No one knew what Chen Feng and Hua Lengshuang said, but when they met again!

It's now!

Hua Lengshuang a sword, completely reverse the battle!

Chen Feng walked to the head of the Great Demon Yan Yang.

The Great Yanyang Demon collapsed suddenly, and a head also flew out.

The bronze mask hung over his face.

Chen Feng knew that the Great Demon Yanyang was not dead yet, and he could feel the breath of the Great Demon Yanyang.

Although weak, it still exists.

At this time, Great Yanyang Demon's eyes were open, panting roughly there.

From the wound, countless black lava flows out hot.

Seeing Chen Feng coming over, his eyes widened suddenly: "Unexpectedly, Young Master, you are amazing! Really amazing!"

His face was full of resentment, and suddenly he looked up to the sky and let out a crazy roar: "I'm not reconciled!"

"The opportunity to reverse your destiny was shattered by you! I'm not reconciled!"

He roared again and again.

Chen Feng looked at him with complicated eyes.

"Yanyang Demon, now, what am I asking, what are you saying."

He couldn't wait to know the secret of his life experience.

The Yan Yang Demon suddenly laughed.

But at this time, the bitterness in his voice had disappeared. novelusb.com

The rest is just unclear meaning.

The laughter became more and more exciting, and the breath fluctuation became stronger and stronger.

Chen Feng's expression changed and he shouted sharply: "Dare you!"

Before the words were over, the remaining bodies of the Great Demon of the Sun burst into pieces!

The Great Demon of the Sun was blew himself up!

What exploded at this moment was not only his body, but also his soul, his consciousness, etc.!

Everything is broken!

Everything about Yanyang Great Demon disappeared instantly.

This ancient power, a terrifying demon **** with an extremely terrifying background, has finally died!

Just leave a sentence, which echoes:

"Young Master, Young Master will not let you go!"

"He must have passed me now, and he has sensed a trace of your whereabouts!"

"Master, I will definitely come to you!"

"He has great magical powers, if you want to die, you have to die!"

The voice is curled up, like a curse!

It dissipated after a long time.

Chen Feng stood there, silent!

In fact, he had expected this ending before.

The Yanyang Great Demon would never say something easily.

"In any case, I will definitely find here!"

"It doesn't matter whether you say it or not!"

As the Yanyang Great Demon exploded, everything about him was shattered and turned into countless black magic energy.

The black devilish energy was condensed into a ball, rolling in front of everyone, giving people an extremely evil, cold and sneaky feeling.

However, there is still a little golden light shining in it.

This little golden light seemed to be coming out of the demon **** in the deepest part of the Jiuyou Hell!

In that incomparable evil, but also intertwined with supreme majesty and nobility!

Chapter 4645: terror! The main body of Yanyang Demon!

It feels very strange and uncomfortable.

And as this group of black magic energy steamed up, suddenly the ground under everyone's feet shook.

The earthquake trembled, and numerous huge cracks and gullies appeared!

The space in front of me began to collapse!

The ground has begun to collapse.

Everything that can be seen in the distance, mountains, ruins, city walls, earth, hills, etc., are falling apart!

Those demons uttered a screaming and terrifying howl, turning into countless black qi and disappearing.

Chen Feng suddenly realized something: "The Yanyang Devil Kingdom is about to collapse!"

He lifted the Seventeen Snake in a hand, and flew in the air!

Sure enough, everything in front of me was collapsing in the next moment.

In almost an instant, the entire Yanyang Devil Kingdom collapsed.

It turned into countless black devil energy, and gathered towards the group of black devil energy left by the Great Demon of the Sun!

That group of black magic energy keeps growing!

In front of everyone, there was flying sand and rocks, the sky broke and the earth broke, and it was dark.

When all of this finally disappeared, everyone found that they had appeared at the place where they had entered the entrance of the Yanyang Devil Kingdom.

However, the wall that stretched to the end of the line of sight that had originally stood in front of them has disappeared.

The huge Flame Sun Demon Kingdom has also disappeared.

Everything is gone!

There is only a barren desert in front of you, a ruin!

In the center of the desert, there is that group of black magic energy!

However, the black air is no longer as before, only one or two meters in diameter.

It is as large as 10,000 meters in diameter!

It was rolling over there, growing sharply, and the breath was terrifying!

It turned out that the entire Yanyang Demon Kingdom was transformed by the Yanyang Demon.

Now that the Great Yanyang Demon is completely dead, the Yanyang Devil Kingdom also collapses.

Everything inside disintegrated and turned into a golden magical energy in the most original black.

The devilish energy is so bright and radiant, like a little bit of gold sprinkled in a black gem.

At this time, not only did he not see the slightest meaning of evil, but it gave people an extremely noble, cold and solemn feeling.

Chen Feng looked at Hua Lengshuang.

Hua Lengshuang understood what he meant, shook his head and said, "I and him are both demons."

"But the blood is different, not the same."

"This is his original devil energy, I can absorb it, but if it is absorbed, it may be taken over by him, which is harmful and useless."

Chen Feng nodded slowly.

Then, everyone saw that the black and gold magical energy was tumbling, expanding and changing.

In the end, a huge monster phantom was turned into the air.

It's just a ghost, and it doesn't have any power.

It's just that this huge magic shadow is not the previous Yanyang Demon.

It's an extremely majestic existence.

The body is slender, wearing a golden armor.

But with four heads and five arms, holding all kinds of treasures in his hands, it looks particularly majestic!

And more importantly, it is its size.

Its size is extremely large, it seems that Xuanming Seven Seas Realm is not worth mentioning under his feet.

His size seemed to surpass the entire Xuanming Seven Seas Realm.

The Xuanming Seven Seas Realm was at his waist, as inconspicuous as a small bead.

Chen Feng and others couldn't help holding their breath, and their hearts were filled with great shock!

"This, is this the main body of the Great Demon Yan Yang?"

"Its body, what exactly is it?"

So scary!

It feels like you can crush a world at will!

It turns out that this is the true face of the Great Demon of the Sun!

He is not the so-called Yanyang Demon at all!

This Yanyang Great Demon was just the incarnation of a demon clan that he turned into after only one ten thousandth of his strength left!

His body, his true identity, is many times stronger than the Great Demon of the Sun!

Chen Feng stared at the phantom of this great demon tightly, as if to imprint it in his soul! 1

In the next moment, this huge figure suddenly collapsed and turned into countless black golden light spots.

Chen Feng felt it a little, and he was immediately ecstatic.

It turned out that the black and gold inclusions, the light spots that shattered, turned out to be the purest source of spiritual power!

This is the original spiritual power of this terrifying and powerful existence, the Great Demon of the Sun!

It was also the last time he spilled power!

Chen Feng immediately sat cross-legged, the golden spiritual world suddenly opened, the golden spiritual power spilled out, madly absorbing these incomparable pure spiritual power.

The same is true for Emperor Crazy Blade and others.

Everyone knows what a precious opportunity this is.

Of course, only Snake Seventeen is an exception.

Before Chen Feng crossed his knees into concentration, he knocked him out. It was impossible for him to get any benefit from it.

It was like the spiritual power of golden light glowing in the black gemstone, sinking into Chen Feng's body.

In an instant, the connection between Chen Feng and the golden spiritual world was repaired at an extremely fast speed.

The connection between Chen Feng and the golden spiritual world had already been torn apart, almost immediately.

But now, it suddenly became extremely stable.

The golden spiritual world has also become stable.

At the next moment, Chen Feng's heart suddenly moved.

His day and earth repetitive reincarnation magic, without his driving, is directly condensed.

In front of Chen Feng, a huge erect blue pupil suddenly appeared.

And the lustrous spirit of black and gold, as if attracted by this thing.

At a crazy speed, he plunged directly into the huge blue erect pupils in front of Chen Feng.

Chen Feng only felt a shock in his mind!

The next moment, he appeared in the reincarnation space of heaven and earth's repeated reincarnation magic.

At this time, those incomparably lustrous black and gold mental powers also came here.

With the influx of these black and gold lustrous spiritual powers, Chen Feng's world of reincarnation magical space began to expand!

Although slow, but extremely firm.

The black and gold lustrous spiritual energy drenched into the huge erect pupil in front of Chen Feng.

Chen Feng only felt his mind sinking into it, unspeakably comfortable.

He had never had time to replenish the kind of extreme mental damage he had caused by continuously using Heaven and Earth's repeated reincarnation magic.

Now, with the input of this black and golden lustrous spirit, the painful feeling is healed and disappeared!

Lazily all over.

Chen Feng's mind sank all into it.

Finally, after not knowing how long it had passed, or how many black and gold lustrous spiritual powers had been absorbed, Chen Feng suddenly woke up!

At this time, he felt that his heaven and earth's repetitive reincarnation magical space had reached an extreme!

The next moment, there was a loud bang, and the heaven and the earth repeated the reincarnation magic space, and the whole collapsed!

However, it does not disappear!

Rather, rebirth!

Heaven and earth reincarnate in the magical space, condensing again!

When the light flashed in front of Chen Feng again, he found that the heaven and earth's reincarnation magic space had completely changed!

Chapter 4646: Heaven and earth reincarnation magic, breakthrough!

It is at least ten times larger than before.

It seems that you can't see the edge at a glance, just like the emptiness of the universe, ancient and desolate.

When it turned out, there was only one erect pupil in front of Chen Feng.

At this time, three erect pupils appeared.

From left to right, faint blue light and clear white light flashed respectively.

And, a trace of black magic light that sinks to the extreme!

The three erect pupils were shining with different rays of light, as if three stars were shining in this void!

Chen Feng stood there, startled at first.

Then, it was ecstasy.

Heaven and Earth's repeated reincarnation magic has actually broken through!

It broke through the second layer!

He had long wanted to improve Heaven and Earth's repetitive reincarnation magic, but there was no way.

But I did not expect that here, through such an accident, unexpectedly improved!

Heaven and Earth's repeated reincarnation was originally Chen Feng's extremely important method.

But before Chen Feng entered this place, there was already a great disadvantage.

Unless it is dealing with some soul bodies or deceived sword spirits, it is basically impossible to deal with normal, high-level warriors.

When facing the crazy tiger at that time, it was only able to make him daze.

If it were to deal with the Snake Seventeen at the peak of Emperor Wu Xing, it would not even be useful at all.

But now, after being promoted, he has become strong again!

Will surely become Chen Feng's powerful killer move!

Chen Feng wanted to know what kind of abilities had been added to the second stage of Heaven and Earth's repetitive reincarnation magic.

But now, it is not the time.

When he thought about it, he withdrew from the Heaven and Earth Reincarnation Magic Space, and suddenly opened his eyes.

At this time, in the valley of falling stars.

Chen Feng saw that the black and golden spirit power above the sky was still spilling.

Others are assimilated as poetry.

Chen Feng smiled slightly and began to continue to refine this spiritual power.

However, it is not supplementing the spirit, but supplementing the body.

He found that this mental power also has an excellent effect on repairing physical injuries.

Or to be more precise, it is not only mental power, but the complex power that radiates from all the essence in Yanyang Great Demon!

The Great Emperor Crazy Blade, Hua Lengshuang, and even Pei Muyu, all of them looked radiant and they were obviously rewarding.

The injuries of Emperor Crazy Blade and Hua Lengshuang were also healed.

But soon, they were absorbed to the limit.

Can't absorb anymore.

At this time, there was still a lot of black and gold devil energy left.

As a result, only Chen Feng remained, absorbing water like a giant whale!

For him, this is just the beginning!

When everyone saw this scene, they looked at each other with awe.

I don't know how long it took, that last trace of black and gold magic energy was also absorbed by Chen Feng!

He stood up suddenly, full of energy, unspeakably refreshing.

I just feel that my whole body is lively, extremely light and full of power!

Suddenly, the entire Valley of Fallen Stars also shook, as if there was a major earthquake.

The earth is cracked!

As far as I can see, the entire valley of falling stars is plunged into a crack of heaven and earth!

Obviously, the entire Valley of Fallen Stars is also about to collapse!

Everyone shook their heads and smiled bitterly.

Chen Feng had no choice but to mention the Seventeen Snake again and hurried towards the entrance of the Valley of Fallen Stars.

And this time, they haven't waited for them to reach the entrance.

This world collapsed suddenly

The next moment, Chen Feng raised his head fiercely, thoughtfully!

When he first came to the Valley of Fallen Stars, he saw the two huge holes in the sky, which seemed to be things like the sun.

It was only at this moment that he discovered that as the valley of falling stars collapsed, the sun above the sky was also shaking!

"These two suns are clearly not the same as the Valley of the Fallen Stars!"

"Why is it shaking at this time?"

Outside the Valley of Fallen Stars.

The mood of everyone these few days is extremely complicated.

They were all curious in their hearts, unwilling to leave, hoping to know what happened in the valley of the stars.

Although everyone was calculated by Chen Feng, they still hope that he can win.

After all, the indiscriminate killing of the dog Snake Seventeen really made everyone scared.

After waiting for a few days, without waiting for people to come out, I did find a golden beam of light above the sky and golden scriptures falling.

And everyone was hesitating and wondering.

Suddenly, I discovered that the valley of falling stars in front of me was shaking violently!

The mountains are breaking and the earth is shaking!

Everyone looked at each other.

"What happened?"

"Could it be that the valley of the fallen stars was shattered by them?" novelUSB.com

"Are these guys still human? Too strong!"

In shock, everyone withdrew back to the battleship.

Then, they saw that the Valley of the Fallen Stars began to crumble violently.

And with the collapse of the Valley of Fallen Stars, several figures flew out of it.

The Patriarch of the Qingyan Family's eyes twitched!

He had already noticed that among the few people who flew out of it, there were Great Sword Emperor, Chen Feng, and two more.

And then, he saw Snake Seventeen.

Suddenly, the corner of his eyes jumped wildly!

It turned out that the arrogant Snake Seventeen was carried by Chen Feng like a dog to death.

Obviously, the resistance has been lost!

Everyone was shocked: "What happened in the Valley of Fallen Stars?"

However, they soon did not care about this.

Instead, they raised their heads one after another, looking at the sky in exclamation.

It seems that something extraordinary has been discovered!

Chen Feng and the others escaped from the fallen valley of the broken stars rather embarrassingly.

They did not have time to return to the entrance of the Valley of Fallen Stars.

But after the entire valley of the stars fell apart, countless passages to the outside world appeared.

After Chen Feng escaped, he suddenly looked back if he felt something.

The next moment, his pupils contracted sharply, and he took a breath, and suddenly a bright light flashed in his heart:

"I know, I know!"

"It turns out that what I guessed before turned out to be true!"

It turned out that what appeared in front of Chen Feng and others at this time was an incredible result!

The body of the Valley of Falling Stars finally revealed!

Where is the Valley of Fallen Stars?

Where is this small world?

This turned out to be a huge skull!

That's right, it turned out to be a huge skull beyond the limit of imagination!

This skull is huge with a radius of hundreds of thousands of miles!

It can almost be said, like a continent!

Above the huge snow-white skull, two round black holes made people shudder.

Chen Feng suddenly remembered the two suns in the sky he saw in the Valley of the Fallen Stars!

Chapter 4647: A drop of... blood!

He couldn't help smiling wryly: "Where is the sun? These are the two eyeholes of the giant skeleton!"

At this time, everyone already knew the true truth of the Valley of Fallen Stars!

A skull connects the void outside the Xuanming Seven Seas and this sea of red clouds.

The lower end of the skull forms this ten thousand mountains.

The upper part of the skull is directly exposed in the void of the universe, outside the atmosphere of the Seven Seas Realm of Xuan Ming.

Therefore, after Chen Feng and others entered the Valley of Falling Stars, they could see the outer starry sky through these two holes.

This is the true face of the Valley of Fallen Stars!

It turns out that what constitutes the Valley of the Fall of the Stars, and the Valley of the Fall of the Stars, which is as huge as a world, turned out to be the extremely huge head of the Great Demon of the Sun.

And this skull, without a doubt, belongs to the Great Demon of the Sun.

His body was cut to pieces by Yan Qingyu's sword, and his head fell here.

He turned into this valley of fallen stars.

At this time, Chen Feng realized that before waiting for others, he still looked down upon the Great Demon of Yan Yang.

I still haven't discovered the strength of the real Yanyang Great Demon, nor has it discovered its truly terrifying aspects!

This huge head, like the huge head of a world, turned out to belong to the Great Demon of the Sun!

It can be imagined how huge the body of the Great Demon Yanyang is!

It can be imagined how tyrannical the original strength of the Great Demon of the Sun was!

Chen Feng and the others looked at each other, and they all shuddered.

There was an emotion called fluke in my heart.

But in Chen Feng's heart, there was a bit more heat and excitement in an instant.

"The Yanyang Demon has such a strength that he even chased down Master at the beginning, and it is not the main powerhouse who chased down Master."

"His horrible existence is related to my life experience!"

"So, what is my origin? What kind of secrets are hidden in me?"

Then, the huge head shook, and numerous cracks appeared.

Then, Kaka Kaka, turned into countless pieces, crazily collapsed inward.

It seems that all the essence comes down to one point.

In the next moment, the entire huge head was broken into countless gray bone powder, which was scattered all over the sky.

It seemed that there was a huge and desolate rain in the entire Xuanming Seven Seas Realm.

And in the endless gray sky and bone powder falling, there is a drop of black and gold color, slowly sinking, floating downward!

Under the gray sky, it looked extremely dazzling!

Everyone immediately looked there.

Then I saw that this black and gold object turned out to be a drop of blood!

It is the size of a fist, but there is an extremely noble gold in the black!

There seems to be more strands of red lingering in it, like a bright red lotus blooming!

The breath above the blood is extremely terrifying!

The essence and blood are falling slowly, giving people the feeling as if a world is falling down!

The skull of this ancient demon shattered instantly.

Only this drop of dazzling blood is left.

The nobility of essence and blood surpassed everything Chen Feng had seen before.

Even, when Chen Feng saw this drop of blood, he felt the same as when he first saw the golden sutra of the Great Bodhisattva Guanzi, and when he first saw the relic of the ancient Buddha in Qinglian Temple. The feeling is generally no different!

Chen Feng was horrified!

"Could it be that this drop of blood is actually a treasure of the same level as the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara and the relic of the ancient Buddha?"

Essence and blood are not uncommon.

But it is extremely rare to be able to be at the same level as the Golden Sutra of Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva!

Chen Feng's eyes narrowed: "Is this drop of blood, the blood of the ancient great demon?"

Other people are naturally knowledgeable.

Suddenly. When everyone saw this drop of blood, their breathing became heavy and hot.

The people of Xuanming Seven Seas are no strangers to this kind of blood.

Even more I know, if this essence and blood can be absorbed by oneself, what a huge benefit it will bring!

Chen Feng smiled faintly, his body flashed, and then grabbed the drop of blood.

This thing has a relationship with him, and Chen Feng does his part.

Everyone who saw this scene automatically curbed their greedy mind.

They dare not fight with Chen Feng.

Ling Qihai's eyes flashed and his figure moved slightly.

As soon as he was about to move, Chen Feng turned his head and glanced at him with a faint smile: "Why, are you going to grab me?"

Ling Qihai hurriedly shook his head: "How dare, how dare."

It was the greed in his eyes that exposed his true thoughts.

Ling Qihai is also a person who knows goods, how can you not know how precious this thing is?

He estimated that the sum of all the most precious treasures in the Xuanming Seven Seas realm, even if they were all of the seven heavenly overlords, were not as precious as this drop of essence and blood!

But now, Chen Feng is surrounded by the Great Sword Emperor,

Moreover, Chen Feng's strength has now become unpredictable.

He felt that he seemed to be a little unable to see Chen Feng's strength.

What's more, even the most mysterious powerhouse in the Seven Seas Realm in the legend, the most terrifying mysterious existence in the Valley of Fallen Stars, was killed by them and turned into this drop of blood!

How dare he offend Chen Feng?

I had no choice but to reluctantly give up.

Chen Feng smiled slightly, and in an instant he was before the drop of blood.

For some reason, he felt that this drop of blood, Nie Li, seemed to be close to him.

Chen Feng stretched out his hand.

That drop of brilliant blood automatically fell into his hands.

Chen Feng perceives carefully, can only feel the huge and powerful power inside, but can't perceive the others.

He shook his head, knowing that this drop of blood was far beyond his current strength.

It is to reincarnate in the jade card.

The Valley of Fallen Stars, at this point, completely collapsed!

Chen Feng looked up, feeling lost in his heart.

There are many memories of him here.

Chen Feng shook his head, put these things behind, and looked at Snake Seventeen in his hand: "Now, it's time to clean up you."

Snake Seventeen finally woke up leisurely.

He opened his eyes, but saw that he was on a battleship at this time, and the battleship was still moving forward quickly.

Snake Seventeen instantly jumped in his heart: "I'm not in the Valley of the Fallen Stars? I'm not in Chen Feng's hands?"

"Is it saved by someone?" NOVEL usb.com

The next moment, a chuckle broke his dream.

"Woke up?"

Snake Seventeen immediately recognized that this was Chen Feng's voice.

Without any muddle, Chen Feng walked to Snake Seventeen, looked at him, and said with a smile:

"Snake Seventeen, I don't have to say anything else."

"You are now in my hands."

"I am the sword, you are the fish."

"and so!"

He paused and knelt down to look at Snake Seventeen: "I have a few questions I want to ask you, I hope you can answer them honestly."

Chapter 4648: Three lives three worlds reincarnation world!

After Snake Seventeen heard this, the fierce hostility in his heart suddenly rose.

Turning his strange eyes, staring at Chen Feng, he sneered and said:

"Chen Feng, you are just a mere newcomer, reincarnation fairy."

"I have been on the top of the sky for so long, and I have been able to rise to this day after a series of **** battles. It is by no means a fluke!"

"Do you think I was scared?"

Chen Feng smiled and said, "So you don't want to say so?"

Snake Seventeen laughed: "If you have the ability, kill me!"

"At this point, I recognize it!"

"Want me to say? That is a dream!"

He is not here to force it.

Snake Seventeen is a very vicious and vicious person. He is cruel to others, and cruel to himself.

The exercises he cultivates have always been to destroy the limbs and destroy the spirit.

Along the way, I don't know how much I have suffered.

Therefore, I do not believe that Chen Feng can do anything to himself.

Kill yourself, Thaksin.

Want to force yourself to ask what to say? That is dreaming!

Chen Feng smiled slightly, flicked his fingers, and said leisurely, "Isn't you willing to say it? That's fine!"

"That!"

The corners of his mouth became cold, and a round of pupils suddenly appeared beside him.

Heaven and Earth's repetitive reincarnation has already started.

The original pupil was about one foot high, but now it is more than three feet high.

It was almost as tall as most of Chen Feng, and it was no longer just shimmering with a light blue light.

It's the blue, black, white, and three-color lights that switch back and forth, constantly changing, looking magnificent and strange.

A wave of spiritual power permeates from it.

Snake Seventeen saw it, and immediately felt his soul trembled, almost eager to fly out of his body.

It's like being sucked in by this huge pupil!

Snake Seventeen's heart jumped, and he said in surprise, "What are you?"

Chen Feng flicked his fingers: "It's nothing, it's just taking your soul into it and suffering a little bit."

Snake Seventeen was also a well-informed person, and at this time quickly recovered his calm.

He sneered again and again: "We Cthulhu Valley are best at playing with spirit and controlling consciousness."

"On the entire top of the sky, they are all small and somewhat famous, so you dare to make an axe?"

He didn't care about Chen Feng's methods at all.

Although he was not majoring in the spiritual line, he had also practiced the supernatural powers of the blood sea and hell, and gained a bit of fur.

I know a lot about controlling my own spirit and things in the spiritual realm.

I don't think Chen Feng can deal with him at all.

Chen Feng didn't talk nonsense with him.

In the tricolor pupils, light flashed by.

The soul of Snake Seventeen was directly sucked into it.

In the heaven and earth's repetitive reincarnation magic space, three huge pupils stood side by side.

Scenes flashed in the dark blue pupil in the middle, it was the life of Snake Seventeen.

Heaven and earth reincarnation magic arts, after breaking through to the second level, the first level's ability is naturally retained.

However, at this time, Chen Feng did not care about the life of Snake Seventeen.

He closed his eyes, his mind spread, and he felt carefully.

Chen Feng was comprehending the second level of the repetitive reincarnation of heaven and earth, what is the mystery.

After a long time, Chen Feng suddenly opened his eyes, his eyes flashing with uncontrollable excitement.

"That's it, that's it, I know!"

"The second level of the repetitive reincarnation of heaven and earth is actually like this!"

Chen Feng already knows now, what magical effect the heaven and earth reincarnation magic arts have after entering the second level.

It turned out that Heaven and Earth's repetitive reincarnation magic arts can only peek into the memory of the other party in this life.

And after Heaven and Earth's repetitive reincarnation magic arts reach the second level, three pupils will appear.

These three pupils are three reincarnation worlds!

And what these three reincarnation worlds look like depends entirely on Chen Feng!

In other words, Chen Feng can construct three reincarnation worlds.

Then, sink the opponent's mind into these three reincarnation worlds.

Let them endure the sufferings of three whole reincarnation worlds and three whole lives!

What is in the three reincarnation worlds depends entirely on Chen Feng.

Chen Feng can construct it into an adult wonderland, so that those who sink into it will be happy and peaceful for life.

It can also be constructed into a blood and fire hell, which is as miserable and terrifying as a demon domain, allowing the other party's mind to be in the cycle of reincarnation from the moment it enters, and endure endless suffering.

Make the other party unable to bear it at all!

If the spirit is weak, even if one of the three reincarnation worlds can't be completed, they will suffer a mental breakdown and die!

Even those who are extremely tenacious will suffer mental breakdown in the continuous mental torture and blows!

Say what you ask!

Of course, the structure of the world depends on Chen Feng's strength and mental strength.

Now he can only build a very small, very simple, even rudimentary world of reincarnation.

However, in the future, there are endless possibilities!

Even Chen Feng could build a whole world in the future!

Completely dominated by him, the world!

Chen Feng was ecstatic and extremely excited!

"This second level of repetitive reincarnation in this world can definitely produce infinite magical effects!"

"It seems that the improvement is not big, but it can make my strength soar!"

However, Chen Feng still has a doubt in his mind.

"What if you run into an opponent with too strong mental power?"

But then, he knew the answer.

If the opponent's strength is too strong, and the mental strength is too strong, Heaven and Earth will repeat the second layer of reincarnation magic art, unable to pull it into these three reincarnation worlds.

However, it can be turned into an unparalleled strong spiritual impact!

This strong mental shock, as long as the opponent can't reach the half-step Martial God Realm, then this mental shock is effective!

As for the mental shock, how much mental damage it will bring to the other party, this still needs Chen Feng to try it himself.

Chen Feng slapped his hands fiercely, his eyes sparkling again and again!

"The second layer of Heaven and Earth Repetitive Reincarnation Divine Art is many times stronger than the first layer."

He had thought of many magical uses derived from it in an instant.

A smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth: "Now, Snake Seventeen, I'll take you!"

"Try it for the first time today, so let's make a simple one!"

Chen Feng carefully read the memories of Snake Seventeen, and after a long time, he sighed softly.

"Sure enough, as I expected, there are so many key points in his memory that I can't get a glimpse at all."

"I think it's because of the dominance of Heaven, or their special means of Evil God Valley to protect it."

It turned out that when Chen Feng went to read the memories of Snake Seventeen.

However, he discovered that there were many key points in the memory of Snake Seventeen, which he could not see at all, and it was foggy.

Moreover, the power contained in it is quite terrifying.

Chen Feng felt that if he touched it, he would be in great danger.

Obviously his memory was protected by the Lord of Heaven in certain places.

Chapter 4649: Desperate Snake Seventeen

Moreover, Chen Feng also discovered that if he rashly sneaked into his memories, he might encounter some unpredictable dangers.

If Heaven and Earth did not break through the reincarnation magic technique, Chen Feng really had nothing to do with Snake Seventeen!

"It seems that you have to fall on the second layer of this world of repetitive reincarnation magic!"

"Since you can't enter your memory, since you can't find the answer by yourself, then..."

Chen Feng smiled slightly at the corner of his mouth: "I will let you speak out yourself!"

Chen Feng couldn't sink into the memories of Snake Seventeen, but he was able to see many weaknesses of Snake Seventeen from the side.

After a little thought, it was based on the weakness of Snake Seventeen and started to weave the world of reincarnation.

Chen Feng only intends to knit a simple one first.

Chen Feng closed his eyes and sat cross-legged.

Taking a deep breath, the mental power diffused out and entered into the three huge pupils.

The three lives and three worlds of reincarnation, quietly launch!

The spirit of Snake Seventeen was directly drawn into the first pupil that exuded white light.

Snake Seventeen felt his body wake up quietly.

He was a little confused and confused, as if he was thinking of the past, but he couldn't remember anything.

I just feel that I feel pain everywhere.nOveluSB.cOm

I only felt that the bones and flesh of the whole body seemed to be torn apart, and the soul pained to the extreme.

A question emerged in his heart: "Where am I? What's wrong with me?"

Suddenly, an old low voice sounded.

"You little beast, dare you next time?"

Suddenly, Snake Seventeen shivered violently, and the whole person twitched, almost immediately jumping up!

The fear buried deep in my heart is awakened!

He originally thought that this memory and the accompanying fear had already faded away.

But at this time he found that this memory had never faded away.

But I was too scared to think of it, so I sealed it deeply!

But now, I was awakened again!

He screamed: "Master, it turned out to be you? Master!"

Snake Seventeen opened his eyes fiercely and immediately awoke.

At this moment, he was on a cliff, and the sunlight stung his eyes.

He found himself being hung on a cliff, surrounded by nothingness and nothingness.

And a few iron chains penetrated his bones all over his body, making him hang in the air.

An old man in front of him was looking at him.

The old man was short and fat, with a greasy face, messy hair, and staring at him with small, vicious eyes.

An iron whip in his hand was stained with blood.

Snake Seventeen twitched all over, and said sharply: "Master! Is it you? Master?"

The whole body trembled involuntarily.

The sky is not afraid of the sky, even if facing the Snake Seventeen, who is not too afraid of the Immortal Dementor, he shivered directly!

It turns out that what he fears most is his master.

He was an orphan since he was a child and was adopted by his master.

His master raised him, taught him martial arts, and trained him to become a master.

But it was not good for him.

In his eyes, his master is like a devil!

I was beating him all the time, reprimanding him, torturing him every minute and every second!

Pull out his nails and cut off his fingers at all times, and beat him all over!

He even dug out his bones, blinded his eyes, and then used supreme medical techniques to heal these injuries!

He hates his master very much, but he is also very afraid of his master!

Snake Seventeen's heart was chaotic: "What's wrong? Why am I here? What happened?"

However, his mind was chaotic, like a paste, it seemed that even his thoughts were frozen.

Can't remember anything, it's blurred.

The chunky old man didn't talk much, just a roar: "Little bastard, dare you next time?"

A whip hit him, causing great pain!

Snake Seventeen screamed bitterly, struggling frantically, begging for mercy.

The short and fat old man was not moved at all, just tortured him crazy!

His hand is very steady, and his whip is hit again and again. The pain that Snake Seventeen brings every time is huge, fresh, and unbearable!

Snake Seventeen only felt the long pain, and tortured him crazily, making him unable to bear it at all!

Immerse yourself in this tremendous pain, without thinking about anything else!

However, he clenched his teeth and persisted.

Because he knew that every time Master tortured himself, the longest was only seven days and seven nights!

In seven days, gritted teeth and endured it was over!

Sun rises and sunsets, day by day.

Soon, the seventh day has arrived.

Snake Seventeen was full of hope: "Can you let me go? Can you stop?"

Then, he saw that the iron whip in the hands of the stocky old man dropped.

He seemed to put Snake Seventeen down.

Snake Seventeen's heart was suddenly full of hope.

But the next moment, the humpty old man suddenly smiled grinningly, looked at him, and said hesitantly: "Little bastard, do you think I want to let you down?"

"Think too much! I'm just tired of playing, write for a while!"

After all, the iron whip was handed to his left hand, and another whip was drew down fiercely.

The scream of Snake Seventeen suddenly increased tenfold!

Because he found that the needle-like power pierced his body, causing his pain to increase countless times!

And physical pain is secondary!

The biggest is the mental blow!

At this moment, Snake Seventeen's spirit collapsed!

The reason why he clenched his teeth as before was that after seven days, Master was not torturing himself.

But now, this hope is directly dashed!

He howled frantically: "Don't fight, don't fight!"

The short and fat old man lashed a few more leisurely, then his expression suddenly changed.

It turned into Chen Feng directly!

Looking at Snake Seventeen, he smiled and said, "Snake Seventeen, do you want to talk now?"

Snake Seventeen was taken aback for a moment, and then a bright light flashed in his heart, thinking of everything at once.

He immediately understood what was going on, stared at Chen Feng, and screamed: "It's you? It's you!"

Chen Feng smiled: "Yes, it's me!"

Snake Seventeen roared ferociously: "Dreaming!"

"Tell you, even if you beat me to death, don't want me to say it!"

"Okay!"

Chen Feng laughed, his figure disappeared, and the short and fat old man roared grimly: "Little bastard, then I will take you!"

It was another whip.

The screams screamed again.

In the real experience of Snake Seventeen, he killed his master.

After being killed, his mentality was nirvana, and he became a top player.

After that, everything went wrong.

But now that he is in this world, he has discovered that he can't kill Master no matter what.

In any case, the master is torturing himself desperately.

Because this is the world of reincarnation constructed by Chen Feng!

Chapter 4650: why?

Naturally, Chen Feng would not let him kill his master!

Chen Feng doesn't even play the kind of plot where he kills the master and then catches him back to continue torturing.

Chen Feng would not give him any hope.

It will only be endless despair!

The kind that can never stand up!

Extreme depression, no respite,

Because as long as there is a chance to breathe, Snake Seventeen will slow down!

Even Snake Seventeen tried suicide.

However, it was not successful once.

And every time he tried to commit suicide, he would incur even more violent torture from his master!

Day after day, month after month, year after year, there is no pause.

Snake Seventeen was whipped every day.

The pain made him want to die directly!

And this pain lasted for thirty years.

This is a whole, thirty years of purgatory!

This past experience was a nightmare existence for Snake Seventeen.

He didn't even want to think about it, and now he has been tortured by this despair for thirty years!

How can he bear it?

In fact, since the end of the first month, Snake Seventeen could not bear it.

He screamed frantically, "Chen Feng, I said, I said, I said everything!"

"You spare me!"

However, no one paid any attention to him.

Chen Feng never appeared again.

Then until now, thirty years have passed.

Snake Seventeen even wondered whether Chen Feng had forgotten himself, did he really want to be tortured here forever?

His voice became weak, looked towards the sky, and cried out miserably: "Chen Feng, come out soon!"

"Let me go out, I say everything, don't torture me anymore!"

At this time, the voice of Chen Feng that he had dreamed of finally rang from the sky.

"Then I am as you wish!"

In the next moment, everything in front of me suddenly disappeared.

"what....."

With a shrill cry, Snake Seventeen opened his eyes fiercely.

His body, which was severely injured and weak, actually sat up straight!

Then, it was shot again on the ground.

Snake Seventeen opened his eyes suddenly, and he found that he was still on the big ship.

Around, there is still a chaotic sky.

The time outside seemed to have only passed for a moment.

The pain in his body reminded him of his current physical condition.

The pain made him laugh instead, and he found that he finally broke free from that terrifying world and from the endless torture!

He was panting heavily, with the rejoicing in his eyes.

He knew that everything just now was not false, it was really the torment that his soul was going through.

And all of this comes from...

He glanced at him and saw Chen Feng next to him, looking at him with a smile.

It's just that, in his eyes, Chen Feng's smile was as terrible as a demon.

His voice was hoarse: "Chen Feng, you are terrible!"

"How can you have such a means?"

Chen Feng flicked his fingers: "There are other methods, do you want to try it?"

Snake Seventeen shook his head repeatedly: "No, no."

"You ask, I will tell you everything."

Chen Feng laughed, and suddenly looked solemn, staring at him, saying every word:

"I want to know how the dementor sent you in and how to track me in?"

Snake Seventeen sighed softly: "He used two methods."

"First, the Dementor Immortal paid a huge price and grabbed a trace of your breath."

Chen Feng said: "Is this difficult?"

"Difficult! Very difficult!"

Snake Seventeen said: "Today, each of the immortals on the top of the sky will be protected by the Lord of Heaven. How difficult is it to capture the breath?"

"Even, he couldn't do it with the strength of the Destroyer Immortal. He paid a huge price and asked a great power for help.

Chen Feng nodded: "That's it."

Snake Seventeen continued: "But, doing this is not enough to chase you in."

"The Lord of Heaven is very strict against this one."

"The second method is to rely on a task to track your world."

Chen Feng raised his eyebrows: "What task?"

Snake Seventeen took out the palace lantern from his reincarnation jade plate.

"Just rely on this thing."

He explained: "This palace lantern is an exotic treasure that can open a series of tasks."

"We got it by accident. This thing is an inspiration for a series of tasks."

"It can open the first ring, then the second ring, the third ring..."

"We have reached the eleventh ring."

"This task was unremarkable at first, but it will be rewarding later."

He sighed slightly: "We can have the present in Cthulhu Valley thanks to this palace lantern."

"Originally, we were an ordinary and unknown team, even much weaker than the current Beidou team."

"Relying on this mission, and relying on the gains in this eleventh ring mission, let us rise to two levels in a row."

A look of regret appeared in his eyes: "Our palace lantern mission, there are still many rings left."

"As far as I know, with our abilities, it is not a problem to do at least the fifth to the sixth ring mission."

"However, this series of tasks can be ended at any time."

"This is what makes this mission special!"

"The last task that ended is actually very simple, that is, go to any world with a grave, and then bury this palace lantern in the coffin, even if it is finished."

Chen Feng said in a slow voice, "However, no one will be so stupid. We will end this task now."

"And you, in order to hunt me down, choose to end this mission now!"

"Then you can go to any world with a grave."

Chen Feng sneered and said, "Of course there will be a grave in the world I go to."

"So, you chose to end the mission ahead of schedule, and then trace it here based on my breath, right?"

Snake Seventeen nodded: "You are all right."

Chen Feng let out a sigh of relief, his expression calming down.

The reason why he asked this question was because the Dementor's move was really terrifying.

If he always uses this method in the future, wouldn't he have no peace on the top of the sky?

But now, hearing Snake Seventeen said that it would cost such a big price, not only did he turn to an ancient power, but also cut off a very valuable serial mission clue.

Chen Feng was relieved.

Obviously, this method cannot be used frequently, and the cost is very high.

This situation should not happen a second time.

After the doubts in my mind were gone, another thought came up.

Chen Feng was silent for more than half an hour, and suddenly said suddenly, "Why?"

"what why?"

The snake seventeen instinctively answered.
