

Peerless 4701

Chapter 4701: Absorb Xiahou Jiuyuan's luck!

As Chen Feng is most familiar with, her appearance.

"I feel that as my soul dissipates, my hatred is also dissipated."

"Chen Feng, I am very happy to die like this."

Chen Feng felt sore in his heart and lost his voice: "Sister Yellow Bird..."

Huang Niao did not answer, but looked back at Chen Feng, with unspeakable tenderness, gratitude, and reluctance in his eyes.

She whispered softly: "Chen Feng, thank you very much."

Chen Feng's heart trembled fiercely, and he rushed forward, but it was too late.

The yellow bird gave a soft drink and stretched its arms, like an ancient phoenix, after hundreds of thousands of years of silence, it made a crisp call.

The voice was clear and leisurely, spreading far away, but it seemed to be calling for something.

The sound seemed to penetrate a distance of tens of thousands of miles, crossing most of the Dragon Vein Continent, and even the sound directly turned into a tangible yellow spot.

Just like the sun's rays, penetrating the fragmented leaves, there are little spots of light left.

It is like a little yellow bird, flapping its wings and flying away.

But in an instant, Chen Feng saw that there was a yellow light and shadow in the distance, coming here quickly.

Soon it was near.

This yellow light and shadow turned out to be another yellow bird.

And obviously, this yellow bird, Chen Feng felt more familiar and close.

Obviously, this was the yellow bird sister he had been in contact with before.

Chen Feng couldn't help but lose his voice: "Sister Huangniao, are you here?"

The yellow bird smiled slightly: "Long time no see."

His eyes were full of gentle smiles.

Then, she turned around and looked at the yellow bird's body with complicated eyes.

The yellow bird's body smiled, and did not speak.

She looked into the distance, the sky, the fertile fields, and the mountains and mountains.

Whispered softly: "I'm so sad!"

At this moment, countless yellow rays of light suddenly appeared above her body.

Like a little magpie flying with its wings spread, it instantly flew into the body of the yellow bird.

Chen Feng was stunned for an instant.

It turned out that at this moment.

Chen Feng felt that the Yellow Bird's body suddenly began to decline extremely, its breath was extremely reduced, and its strength became extremely weak.

Flickering like a candle in the wind.

It seems that it may dissipate at any time!

On the contrary, it was the yellow bird clone who had just returned from self-built wood and inherited one-tenth of the strength of the yellow bird, that is, Chen Feng's true sister of the yellow bird.

Instead, her breath rose sharply and her strength rose sharply.

Chen Feng's heart trembled and suddenly realized something.

Then, he saw that the Yellow Bird's body started to dissipate and fade.

It turned out that she was instilling her power into the yellow bird clone.

To put it simply, the Yellow Bird itself committed suicide, and took the initiative to annihilate his consciousness and his soul.

But it left a majestic and powerful force instilled into the body of the yellow bird.

The yellow bird turned around and walked slowly before the yellow bird clone.

She had never spoken to the yellow bird clone before, and she didn't even touch her eyes.

It seems that both of them are a little uncomfortable, do not want to face each other, and do not know how to face each other.

But at this time, she was standing in front of the yellow bird clone, looking straight at her.

Word by word: "When Chen Feng enters the world of Xuanhuang Zhongqian, he will avenge my Yuxu fairy gate."

"You must tell me."

The yellow bird avatar nodded lightly without speaking.

But this promise weighs more than a thousand catties!

The yellow bird smiled, and smiled particularly happily.

She suddenly stretched out her arms and hugged the yellow bird clone into her arms.

The two hugged tightly.

At this moment, the body of the yellow bird suddenly began to collapse, turning into a light yellow light.

Every bit of light yellow light, like a little yellow ling, scattered into the body of the yellow bird clone.

Soon, there was only a ghost in the yellow bird's body.

It's just that, on the face of the ghost, there is still a gentle and comforting smile, as if he died well.

She glanced at Chen Feng deeply, without speaking.

But Chen Feng understood what she wanted to say.

Just whispered softly: "Don't worry, I will not forget your request!"

The corner of the yellow bird's mouth was hooked, and the phantom shadow disappeared.

This time, the yellow bird body disappeared completely.

No matter the body or the soul.

However, she is still alive, because the yellow bird clone is still alive.

Suddenly, on the high cliff, Chen Feng and Huang Bird were silent.

Neither of them knew what to say.

The yellow bird came to the big rock on the edge of the cliff, hugged his knees, and looked far away.

Chen Feng sat down gently beside her.

After a long time, Huang Bird suddenly stretched out his hand, hugged Chen Feng's arm tightly, and leaned his head on Chen Feng's shoulder.

A soft voice sounded: "Chen Feng, let me lean on for a while."

Chen Feng nodded slightly, the two had not spoken for a long time.

Soon, an hour passed.

Huang Niao just turned his head, looked at Chen Feng, smiled and said, "Chen Feng, thank you very much."

Chen Feng knew that she thanked herself for saving the yellow bird body.

"Between the two of us, what can I thank you for?"

"If you didn't have Sister Yellow Bird, there would be no me today."

Chen Feng looked at the yellow bird with seriousness: "The deceased is dead, and now we always have to do the unfinished things."

The yellow bird solemnly nodded his head, the depression on his face disappeared.

"correct....."

She took out the sapphire gourd on her waist and flicked it lightly: "This thing should be useful to you."

With her this shot. In the next moment, a figure overflowed from the sapphire gourd.

It was Xiahou Jiuyuan.

The time flow rate in the sapphire gourd is obviously different from the time flow rate of Longmai Continent.

Although it only passed for a while outside, inside Xiahou Jiuyuan no longer knew how long he had been tossed.

Almost the moment it was released from the blue jade gourd, the body collapsed and disappeared.

Xiahou Jiuyuan, die! noVELuSB.COM

Before he died, the yellow bird threw him in the blue jade gourd and tossed him for so long, which was considered a relief of his hatred.

Xiahou Jiuyuan's figure disappeared, but there was a light yellow with golden red in it, which was extremely vast and noble.

Linger, cohesive.

The breath coiled in the air, with a radius of tens of meters, like a golden red phoenix, circling and dancing.

As for this breath, Chen Feng felt his brows.

It turned out that he was very familiar with this breath.

At the beginning, after Chu Shaoyang was beheaded by him, he also left such a breath.

In the next moment, the breath seemed to sense something, and it directly rushed towards Chen Feng, and instantly merged into his body.

Chen Feng sighed softly: "This is the power of luck in the Longmai Continent!"

It is normal to think about it. Xiahou Jiuyuan is known as the number one master of the nine forces. He has been in the Dragon Vein Continent for so many years, and naturally there is a considerable amount of Dragon Vein Continent's Qi Yun power in his body.

Even more than that of Chu Shaoyang, almost dozens of times that of Chu Shaoyang!

Chapter 4702: Twenty-five stars!

Chen Feng immediately sat cross-legged and began to refine.

Chen Feng looked at himself inwardly, the golden light and jade light mixed in his body.

Just like a huge giant with its feet on the ground and the sky above its head, it is huge.

The muscles are bright golden, and the bones are like white jade.

One of them is as big as a sky hanging upside down, and like a keel, it is full of jade and white.

It is Chen Feng's huge spine that runs from the head to the waist.

This big bone of his spine is like a dragon vein on a continent.

And on the huge spine of Chen Feng, there are six huge golden * of light shining brightly.

Every ball of light is like a huge star.

In addition to these six huge stars on the spine, there are seven big stars in other positions of the body.

This is a total of 13 big stars.

It was the 13 big stars formed by the condensed power of the thirteen channels before Chen Feng.

Every force of Qi Luck means one ten thousandth of the Luck of the Dragon Vein Continent!

Power like a golden-red phoenix lingered around the huge white and jade-like spine, turning up and down.

It was the luck of the Dragon Vein Continent from Xiahou Jiuyuan.

With Chen Feng's thoughts moving, the golden red phoenix was directly broken, turning into a little bit of the original force of air transport, which penetrated into the huge spine.

After a while, a big star lit up instantly.

The fourteenth star is finished!

Then there is the fifteenth big star, the sixteenth...

An hour later, Chen Feng suddenly opened his eyes and his arms shook.

On the huge jade-like spine in the body, a full eighteen stars shone!

The incomparable strength is constantly circulating!

And now Chen Feng has gathered a full twenty-five stars inside!

Chen Feng also couldn't help sighing: "Xiahou Jiuyuan actually has a total of twelve channels of Qi Luck power, just one less than mine!"

"It deserves to be a strong man who has dominated the Dragon Vessel Continent for so many years!"

Chen Feng has occupied 25/10,000 of the power of luck in the Dragon Vein Continent!

And here, there is the Heaven Stealing God Pill that has not been completely refined.

Chen Feng's eyes were even more thoughtful: "After my Heaven Stealing God Pill is completely refined, how much energy can I have?"

"And if you are waiting for the six hidden sects to obtain the treasure related to the dragon vein continent's air luck, and then I * it, I don't know how much luck I can occupy in the dragon vein continent?"

That's right, Chen Feng had already regarded that treasure related to the luck of Longmai Continent as something in his pocket.

As for how to get it from the Six Great Hidden Sects, he had already thought about it.

"It's not too late."

Chen Feng stood up slowly and straightened up: "I will now go to the top of the nine days of wind, looking for the night watchman!"

The yellow bird nodded gently: "Then I will go to Jianmu top and wait for your good news."

She looked at Chen Feng with tears in her eyes but full of expectation.

"Chen Feng, elder sister is waiting for you, the day when I will be taken back from the Dragon Vessel Continent in an open manner!"

"Even though the Yuxu Immortal Mountain has turned into ruins, even though that Daze has become an abyss."

"But I still want to take another look, to see what my Yuxu fairy gate once looked like!"

"Go too, elder sister, grandfather, uncles and uncles, go to teach real people, take a look at the tombs of everyone in my Yuxu Immortal Gate! Goodbye!"

"Say in front of their grave, the soul is back!"

Chen Feng had long thought about how to break through the Dragon Vein Continent and go outside the Dragon Vein Continent.

Chen Feng turned around and entered the God of War Palace.

An hour later, a black iron figure suddenly rose from the God of War Palace.

This iron black figure turned out to be a huge wishful boat.

But it is different from the Ruyizhou Xiahou Jiuyuan and Xiahou Yinghao used to deal with Chen Feng.

This Wishful Boat is extremely small, with a length of only about ten meters, and above it is just a two-story pavilion.

And the shape is quite exaggerated, not like a normal wishful boat, but rather like a date carved from a jujube kernel, which is almost round.

After this wishful boat rose up, it went all the way to the nine heavens, straight up.

Standing on the edge, Chen Feng looked far away.

Great rivers and mountains became smaller and smaller under his feet.

Chen Feng sighed lightly, his indescribable greed, as if to engrave all these scenery in his heart!

He knew that this time he went there was actually extremely dangerous.

It is very possible to live outside of those nine days of wind, without knowing the life or whereabouts.

"But this trip, I must go!"

"It is necessary to find a way out for me, Chen Feng, and for the entire Longmai Continent!"

Chen Feng erased some of the emotions in his heart, and again, he was heroic!

Haha smiled and patted the ship's side hard.

Suddenly, Ruyizhou soared toward the sky and sank into the clouds.

This wishful boat, and the previous Xiahou Jiuyuan's car, were built together.

However, due to its small size and too few people, it is inconvenient to travel.

Therefore, it is rarely used by God of War Palace, so its reputation is not obvious.

But in fact, its defensive power is better than Xiahou Jiuyuan's car.

Chen Feng was going to go above those nine days of wind, those powerful, sharp and unmatched winds that can easily cut the top warriors into pieces, naturally the greatest danger.

So, I went to the God of War Mansion and took this thing.

Ruyizhou went straight up all the way, and soon sank into the clouds.

Then continue on.

Soon, Chen Feng was shocked.

He felt an extremely fierce wind rushing here.

When Chen Feng looked very closely, he saw that in the distance, on the sky above the sky, countless gusts of wind seemed to be visible and innocent, coming here quickly.

It feels so fierce!

It seems that wherever you go, all vitality will be chopped into powder!

Chen Feng patted the side of the ship lightly, and the power in his hand poured out, already directly opening the formation.

The next moment, with a brush, a thick black mask appeared directly outside the Ruyizhou.

Then there is another layer, another layer...

Eighteen layers of black masks appeared, and the defenses were extremely heavy!

It is several times thicker than the previous Xiahou Jiuyuan car.

In fact, this Wishful Boat is no different from Xiahou Jiuyuan's car in terms of formation and material.

However, its body size is many times smaller, so the protective mask is many times thicker.

This situation is perfect for Chen Feng now.

An invisible wind swept past, and the surrounding space was wailing in pain.

The invisible Gangfeng hit on the black body shield behind Ruyizhou, and it suddenly revealed its deeds.

Chen Feng suddenly heard hoarse and unpleasant sounds.

It's like holding a small knife that isn't too sharp to carve on a crystal.

Chapter 4703: Break through the nine days of wind!

It made people listen to it for a while.

Suddenly, small nicks appeared on the black mask!

However, it has no effect!

Obviously, this protective light shield is enough to block the wind in front of you.

Upon seeing this, Chen Feng nodded slowly.

When Xiahou Jiuyuan led a group of powerful men to meet him in the Soul Destruction Hall, he took the group of people to sit in that Xiahou Jiuyuan's car, hiding on the Jiutian Gangfeng.

Xiahou Jiuyuan's car can be above the Jiutian Gangfeng for a long time.

Not to mention this in front of me.

"just....."

Chen Feng's face showed a pensive look: "I don't know where Xiahou Jiuyuan and others were in the Gangfeng layer?"

Chen Feng already knows that there are nine layers of this gang wind, which is the so-called nine-day gang wind!

And now, I just reached the first floor!

Ruyizhou continued to go all the way up.

About half an hour later, Chen Feng suddenly felt the hull tremble violently.

It turned out that it had already broken through the first layer of the Gangfeng layer and came to the second layer.

The outermost layer of the 18-layer protective mask is already covered with dense nicks.

However, these nicks are not so deep.

Even the outermost mask has no effect.

After reaching the second layer of the Gangfeng layer, the Gangfeng suddenly became much stronger.

If the number of the first layer of Gangfeng is one, it is now a hundred times larger at once, reaching a whole hundred!

Moreover, the intensity of that gang wind has reached hundreds of times!

Fortunately, from a rusty hatchet, it suddenly became a sharp sword.

Suddenly, the densely packed scars on the outermost black mask increased countless times.

And it has become a lot deeper.

It felt like a broken egg shell, with cracks all over the body.

But it can still barely support.

When Chen Feng saw it, he knew it.

Finally, when it reached the peak of the second layer of Gangfeng layer, about to break into the third layer!

With another gust of wind passing by, there was a crisp bang, and the outermost black mask directly shattered!

After reaching the third floor, the number of Gang Feng increased a hundred times, reaching tens of thousands of times that of the first floor.

The sharpness of that Gangfeng has also been improved a lot, and it is no longer invisible and colorless, but with a little blue light.

If the Gangfeng on the first layer is a blunt knife, the second layer is a sharp sword, and on the third layer, it becomes a magic weapon!

Boom boom boom...

When the third layer is extremely dense, the number is extremely large, and at the same time, after the sharp wind cut on the black mask!

The black mask suddenly couldn't support it.

The second layer of mask didn't even last for a cup of tea, and it was crushed to pieces!

Then there is the third layer, the fourth layer...

These masks were broken one after another.

When it reached the top of the third layer of the Gangfeng layer, with a bang, even the innermost layer of the mask was directly chopped into countless pieces!

However, at the same time, Ruyizhou has also entered the fourth layer of Gangfeng layer.

After reaching the fourth floor, the color of this gang wind was already ice blue.

Inside, there is an extreme coldness and coldness.

Originally, above these nine days of wind, it was extremely cold, and the temperature was extremely low, much lower than that of the northern ice ocean.

If it is an ordinary warrior, it will be frozen into an ice sculpture if it is not scraped to death.

But now, the icy cold in this gang wind is the kind of pure to the extreme cold.

Extremely low temperature!

It seems that even the air has been frozen to pieces, and the space has been frozen into cracks!

As a blast of icy blue wind swept past, suddenly, a layer of shallow ice edge was placed on the hull of Ruyizhou.

Even, its surface was already quack, with a light noise, cracking very thin lines.

However, the hull was originally made of the top materials of the Dragon Vein Mainland.

Therefore, it can be blocked.

Chen Feng was in it, but he was not affected.

Although the light shield of the hull had been shattered, at this moment, the light of the formation flowed on the Ruyi boat, and the formation was still unbroken.

Chen Feng will not be affected in any way until the formation is broken!

Soon, he stepped into the fifth layer of the Gangfeng layer!

The fifth floor is still extremely cold and pure!

The gong wind here is already extremely dense and its intensity is also great.

It's not like the wind blowing in the nine heavens, like huge blue waves.

Every blue monstrous wave hits it, like an extreme cold wave.

At this time, the hull outside the Ruyi Boat was already covered by a thick layer of ice.

The whole is like a hockey puck.

The cold is still coming, and the cracks above are getting bigger and bigger!

When it reached the sixth floor, the cold reached its extreme.

Suddenly, with a soft bang, a crack appeared on the Wishful Boat, from the bow to the stern, almost forcibly splitting the hull.

Then, Kakaka, there were a few more cracks.

These fissures almost broke the Ruyi Boat into several pieces.

But at this time, on the Wishful Boat, the array of light flashed by.

Forcibly maintained the hull of this wishful boat, and did not collapse!

Then, Ruyizhou reluctantly reached the seventh floor!

After reaching the seventh floor, it immediately changed again!

The color of Gangfeng is no longer ice blue, but a red flame gold!

It suddenly changed from extreme cold to extreme heat!

Chen Feng glanced at it, feeling like he was in the middle of the cloud when the sunset was setting.

There was a bright and hot red all around.

This kind of red is really hot to the extreme, like the power in the sun splashing.

Chen Feng saw that when the golden-red flames and wind swept in like the scorching sun, the air was burnt to create numerous huge spatial cracks.

The air in front of him was twisted, and huge black holes appeared.

A flaming wind blew past, and he felt as if he was thrown directly into the core of the sun in an instant.

The extreme heat, with a bang, directly evaporated the thick ice layer outside the Ruyi Boat into nothingness!

Chen Feng felt very hot all over his body!

It seems that every pore can emit fire!

It was the extreme cold before, but now it is the extreme heat!

Under the heat and cold, the hull of the Ruyizhou finally couldn't support it.

First, it shrank inward abruptly, and then expanded outward.

The hull of the Ruyizhou ship is twisting and melting.

Obviously, even if it was cast from almost the most precious material on the entire Dragon Vein Continent, it could not be supported now.

Chen Feng's heart moved, and suddenly he let out a low growl.

The palm slapped fiercely on the core of the Ruyizhou formation, and the power surged wildly!

Chapter 4704: no way no money?

So in an instant, the formation that was already shaky and on the verge of shattering suddenly shone brightly!

The entire Ruyizhou, all the final strength, was also excited in an instant.

The speed soared dozens of times in an instant, and went crazy upward!

Chen Feng's purpose is to stimulate the last bit of Ruyizhou's strength and let it go as high as possible before it collapses!

Finally, when he was about to reach the top of the seventh floor, Ruyizhou trembled violently again.

Then, there was a loud bang.

Chen Feng felt a shock in his feet.

In the next moment, the Ruyi Boat Line broke directly into countless pieces.

After the Ruyi Boat collapsed, the endless scorching wind rushed towards Chen Feng.

The extreme heat almost burned Chen Feng.

However, Chen Feng had already prepared, and with a wild roar, the second layer of the Donkey Kong Arhat Immortal Body suddenly started!

The whole body is instantly turned into the color of bronze!

Like a demon made of bronze!

In an instant, the hot wind was shielded from the outside.

With the strength of Ruyizhou's collapse, he slammed his feet and shot out like a sharp arrow.

With a bang, it penetrated the top of the seventh floor and came directly to the eighth floor!

Chen Feng let out a sigh of breath.

"Now, I'll walk through these last two floors!"

Donkey Kong Arhat's immortal body, supporting Chen Feng abruptly broke from the seventh to the eighth floor of the Gangfeng layer!

But the role of Donkey Kong Arhat's immortal body ends here.

It can only support Chen Feng from the seventh floor to the eighth floor.

After Chen Feng came to the eighth floor, he found that it was not just the wind that turned golden red.

It's like entering the inside of the sun.

The place where you enter the eye is full of endless red clouds.

Void and vague, it seems that there is no real thing, but it happens to be hot to the extreme.

Almost for an instant, Chen Feng felt that the scorching heat hit him fiercely from everywhere.

In the endless scorching heat, Chen Feng saw that the bronze color on the surface of his body began to become disorganized and then softened.

Then, like water flowing, it actually started to melt.

Chen Feng even felt endless pain gushing from the surface of his body.

Not only the skin, but even the muscles and bones, seem to be starting to melt!

Even the internal organs are burning!

Between each breath, there is a fire burning.

Chen Feng was shocked: "The eighth layer of wind, even my jade bones and golden muscles are enlarged and the King Kong Arhat immortal body can't be stopped at all?"

A crash across the board!

After Chen Feng's body entered this eighth layer, it was almost on the verge of collapse!

Chen Feng sighed softly: "Donkey Kong Arhat is immortal. Until now, the level is too low."

"It can't match my strength at all."

"It seems that after going to the Xuanhuang Middle Thousand World, one thing to do is to find another strong enough bodybuilding exercise!"

Of course, that's a story.

The most important thing for him now is how to deal with this situation.

But Chen Feng did not panic, he had already thought of this possibility.

And, for this purpose, reserved for the future.

The next moment, Chen Feng let out a low growl and raised his arms.

Suddenly, behind him, star veins suddenly appeared.

However, this time Chen Feng did not use thirty stars.

Instead, only one star vein was used.

That star vein, like an entrenched dragon, protected Chen Feng.

In the star veins, there are the rising and falling of the sun and the rising and falling of stars.

Unspeakable magnificence!

With star veins circling around the body, the incomparable flame wind hit, and it was immediately blocked by the star veins.

Can't penetrate into Chen Feng's body.

The extreme heat on Chen Feng's body surface was also slowly dissipating.

Chen Feng sighed softly: "Sure enough, it is feasible to use star veins to resist this gang wind."

It turned out that this was Chen Feng's hole card.

Star veins are formed by the power of stars, with extremely high levels, enough to resist the wind.

However, this star vein is constantly being consumed.

Strength is declining.

Chen Feng estimated that this star pulse could only withstand a quarter of an hour.

After a quarter of an hour, all of a sudden, the star veins that had become faint and invisible disappeared with a snap!

Of course, it was not that the star veins disappeared, but the power in it was exhausted.

A look of regret appeared on Chen Feng's face.

"If the power of my thirty star veins is exhausted here, then I don't know how long it will take to replenish it!"

Then, another star vein appeared, and Chen Feng continued to move upward.

Because of the eighth layer of Nine Heavens Wind, it is extremely powerful and huge, and it is everywhere.

Chen Feng was always in that huge wind, and the strong wind made Chen Feng a little unstable.

The rate of ascent has also become slower and slower.

Finally, Chen Feng successfully broke into the ninth floor.

At this time, his star veins have been exhausted.

And Chen Feng just reached the ninth floor.

There is still a whole layer of Nine Heavens Winds that he needs to face.

As soon as Chen Feng entered the ninth floor, he immediately felt something was wrong.

If we say that from the first floor to the eighth floor, the intensity of the wind on each layer has risen ten times ten times.

Now, it is a hundred times stronger.

The extreme heat made Chen Feng feel that his blood was about to burn in an instant!

It was like being thrown into the inner core of the sun all at once.

It seemed that even his sight was burnt clean.

He managed to open his eyes, only to see a red ocean like a huge wave rushing in the distance.

It is an extremely huge flame wind!

At this time, Chen Feng had no star veins available.

Chen Feng seems to run out of cards!

And it can be concluded that this ninth layer of Nine Heavens Wind is something he cannot bear at all!

If it weren't for the Star Vessel Bodyguard, he wouldn't even be able to finish the eighth floor!

It seems that Chen Feng has reached the end of his life, and will even be directly destroyed on the ninth floor by these nine days of wind!

But even so, Chen Feng still did not panic.

Facing the boundless waves of red flames that hit, Chen Feng's mind became extremely clear.

In an instant, a number flashed in his mind!

"three!"

That's right, three breaths.

"I have three breathing time to prepare."

"After three breaths, this monstrous wind drowned me."

"This temperature is not weaker than the temperature inside Da Ri, and it instantly burns me into nothingness."

"Not even the dead body will be left."

"I only have three breathing time!"

In Chen Feng's mind, it was like electric light spinning.

In an instant, all his treasures and hole cards flashed past.

At the same time, in his hands, various treasures constantly appeared in rotation.

The sapphire bodhi branch flicked across without any response.

The Heavenly Emperor's evergreen light flashed across, but there was no response...

Chapter 4705: Refining Flame Gangfeng

Nothing happens.

No treasure can play a role at this time!

"Do I have to use the last hole card?"

Chen Feng whispered in his heart.

It turned out that even in such a desperate situation, even if all his hole cards and treasures were lost.

Chen Feng actually has a hole card to comeback!

This hole card can let him escape this predicament calmly, and there is no longer any danger!

However, Chen Feng looked around and looked unwilling.

"I finally got here, am I going back to the original point again?"

"Besides, these nine days of wind, I cannot break through today, can I break through again later?"

"It's still impossible to break through!"

"And if the night watchman cannot be found, how long will it take me to get rid of the Dragon Vein Continent?"

"This line, is it to be cut off abruptly?"

There is still another breath, those flames and winds will be present!

Chen Feng knew that he had to make a decision!

He suddenly moved in his heart: "These flames of wind, these nine days of wind, possess such a powerful force."

"Well then, they themselves are also a very high-level power?"

"In that case..."

Chen Feng's heart was beating wildly, with unspeakable excitement in his heart.

"My Buddhism Golden Sutra, can it be refined?"

Chen Feng felt that this nine-day wind is a more powerful force than the power of the stars.

Moreover, it is extremely pure!

Almost the source of strength!

Chen Feng did not hesitate to do as he thought.

In an instant, the Golden Sutra of Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva was launched.

Behind him, the huge golden scriptures of the Bodhisattva Vipassana suddenly appeared.

Then, slowly opened.

An ancient Buddha phantom is also shrouded in front of Chen Feng.

After the Golden Sutra of the Great Buddha of Buddhism was opened, it seemed to have sensed the flame wind not far ahead.

Suddenly, Chen Feng sensed a trace of excitement from it.

Chen Feng immediately felt happy: "Keeping Zi is in the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva, showing such an emotion!"

"That, does it mean that the flames of wind can be swallowed?"

Sure enough, the next moment, the ancient Buddha phantom suddenly lifted his finger and faced the flame wind.

But the flame Gangfeng was not afraid of it.

On the contrary, there was an extremely greedy and ferocious aura, showing from him.

Wild and rough, some are just instinctive greed!

In an instant, the flaming wind changed its body and turned into a huge fierce beast.

This huge fierce beast is shaped like a leopard, but it has two huge wings.

Moreover, that head is also a huge tiger head.

It looks weird, but it is extremely horrible, with a strong and terrifying aura.

Its body is entirely made of golden red flames and wind, which is a hundred miles huge.

Those flames and wind hovered and wound on the surface of his body, forming an extremely sharp carving knife.

The next moment, it opened its huge mouth and screamed at the ancient Buddha phantom!

The countless giant knives slashed forward at the same time.

It seems that this ancient Buddha phantom will be broken into pieces!

Compared with the huge beast that stretched for hundreds of miles, the ancient Buddha phantom seemed extremely small.

But it cannot be ignored at all.

The next moment, he let out a low growl, pointed his finger, slowly opened his mouth, and made a loud voice: "Naughty animal!"

This is the first time Chen Feng heard him make a sound.

Sure enough, its power is also extraordinary.

As this voice fell, at his fingertips, suddenly a little golden light flashed quietly.

This little golden light, without any hindrance, was thrown into the body of the flame giant.

At the next moment, this golden light suddenly bloomed.

It was like the big sun exploded in the body of the flame giant.

In an instant, endless golden light was spilled out, thrown into every place of the flame giant.

Wherever the golden light went, the body of the giant flame leopard directly broke apart!

Like ice and snow seeing the sun, it melts directly!

The flame giant screamed terribly, trying to stop all of this.

But it's useless at all!

The next moment, the bright golden light swept over his whole body.

The flame giant was directly blown to pieces and turned into the most original star power.

But among them, there are vaguely other things.

In the next moment, Chen Feng came to the practice space of the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva.

These forces have already been absorbed into it and began to refine.

This refining took a full three hours!

Chen Feng has never seen the power of the stars that takes so long to refine the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara!

Three hours later, Chen Feng suddenly shocked all over.

He suddenly opened his eyes!

And as a low roar appeared, a star vein suddenly appeared behind him.

A very special star vein!

The other star veins are just one star vein, although there are rising and falling stars, there are ups and downs of stars.

But the appearance is basically the same.

Nothing is special.

However, the appearance of the star vein in front of him is like a giant flame leopard!

It's no different from the flame giant just now.

The wings are flying, the surrounding flames are lingering, the clouds are flying, and the gods are incomparable.

Keep running in the air!

In his body, there are also rising and falling, and stars bullying.

But the inside of the star veins are all immersed in a piece of red flame that is most radiant!

It's like a universe swallowed by lava!

But when Chen Feng closed his eyes, he could feel that this special star vein was closely related to himself.

It seems to have something to do with the power of luck in one's body.

Chen Feng also knew what was going on.

It is because the other star veins are all refined by the power of stars.

The power of these stars is certainly very powerful, but they are all obtained from the top of the sky. It can be said that all the characteristics have been erased by the top of the sky.

Only the most original power is left.

Therefore, they are the power of the stars, yes, they are just the power of the stars.

There are no other characteristics.

But the flame wind that he refined was different.

Flame Gangfeng is located at the outermost periphery of the Dragon Vein Continent, and is also the essence of the Dragon Vein Continent.

It is not only the power of the stars, but also brings the unique characteristics of the world of the dragon vein continent

And the phantom of the ancient Buddha has become invisible.

The breath is also very weak.

Obviously, all that just now was extremely wasteful to him.

Even the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara is directly closed, and it disappears with one swipe.

Obviously, being able to conquer this flame and wind has already exhausted the current power of the Golden Sutra of the Great Bodhisattva Avalokitesvara.

Chen Feng sighed softly, feeling awe-inspiring.

"With the strength and level of the Golden Sutra of the Great Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva, you can only tame this flame wind!"

Chapter 4706: Step out!

However, this flame giant leopard star vein seemed to be unconvinced with Chen Feng.

After appearing, he immediately let out a stern roar.

With a fierce look, he looked at Chen Feng, as if he was about to swallow Chen Feng.

This star vein gave Chen Feng an extremely dangerous feeling.

Although this power has been refined into the star veins, it can't be used for oneself.

Moreover, when Chen Feng had all the star veins together, the star veins turned into by the flames and wind, always wanted to swallow other star veins.

A wry smile appeared at the corner of Chen Feng's mouth.

Although this guy has been refined into a star vein, he has not yet been tamed, and the power inside cannot be used.

"only....."

Chen Feng's eyes flashed: "It is not useless."

He only left this special star vein around his body, and then used all his mind power.

Controlling and suppressing him stubbornly made him dare not make any mistakes and could only hover around him.

But even so, this giant flame leopard is constantly roaring fiercely, seeming to swallow it at any time.

Chen Feng stopped paying attention, just closed his eyes, his thoughts were condensed, and his mind was controlled.

And his body floated slowly towards the top.

So, there was a strange scene.

Chen Feng's figure kept floating upwards, but he just did it instinctively.

All his mind is used to control the flame giant leopard star vein.

And this special star vein wanted to swallow Chen Feng at any time, but couldn't.

So I had to go up with him!

With this special star vein here, the other flames seemed to be afraid of coming over.

Therefore, along the way, Chen Feng was safe.

Soon he reached the top of the ninth layer of Gangfeng.

At the same moment when Chen Feng reached the top of this ninth layer of Gangfeng!

Suddenly he opened his eyes violently, and with a brush, he was sweating profusely, his face was pale, and he was breathing heavily.

It turned out that Chen Feng tried his best to control this flame giant star vein.

It's exhausted!

At this moment, Chen Feng finally exhausted his energy.

The flame giant leopard star vein immediately swallowed Chen Feng.

Chen Feng smiled coldly: "You bastard..."

When my heart moved, I put it away.

When the flame giant star vein was outside, Chen Feng had to exert great efforts to control it.

Once you put it away, then there is no threat to Chen Feng!

Chen Feng felt that his mental energy was exhausted to the extreme, and he had a headache.

There was a big tendon in his head bouncing around!

However, after all the hardships, Chen Feng finally came to the highest point of these nine days of wind.

There is no trace of Gangfeng around.

Under the feet is the scorching wind like clouds, as if stepping on the surface of the sun.

And there are only patches of faint white clouds around, very peaceful and quiet.

It seems that the waves just now are weird and perilous, all just a dream.

Chen Feng looked up, and there was a blue sky above his head.

Chen Feng sighed softly, "Here is the end of the sky!"

The cyan sky dome, azure blue like washing, I don't know what material it is.

It seems that countless clouds are twisted together, but they look flawless.

Chen Feng came to the vicinity and observed carefully.

He looked at it for a while, and felt a little in his heart.

I want to break it open.

However, suddenly Chen Feng felt a bit and looked aside.

The next moment, his pupils shrank, and his heart jumped fiercely.

It turned out that Chen Feng saw a crack.

A crack appeared above the blue sky!

This crack is only about one meter long and only allows one person to pass through it.

And this hole is extremely irregular.

The surrounding area was densely covered with countless huge sword marks and knife marks, even the marks of being smashed by fists.

Random, shocking.

Chen Feng raised his eyebrows and was surprised.

"How did these sword marks and even fist marks come from?"

Chen Feng suddenly jumped fiercely in his heart and suddenly thought of a possibility.

"Could it be that I am not the first to break through these nine days of wind and go beyond the Dragon Vein Continent? Is there anyone else before me?"

Chen Feng quickly confirmed that his guess was correct.

The Jiutian Gangfeng is extremely harsh, and the strength is extremely strong, it is extremely difficult to break open, but once it breaks, the scars are difficult to recover.

These scars in front of him must be those left by the predecessors.

Chen Feng's heart suddenly jumped: "If it is as I guessed, then where are they going now? What is the situation?"

Chen Feng had some expectations in his heart.

At this moment, he suddenly felt that he was not walking alone in this endless darkness.

It's that someone is accompanying him.

Someone has already moved forward.

Chen Feng looked around carefully.

Sure enough, I saw that there were quite a few cracks on the surrounding blue sky.

In some places, a large hole with a radius of several hundred meters was broken.

Quite irregular.

Chen Feng was taken aback for a moment: "Who is so idle and doing nothing to break such a big hole?"

"Enough to hold him out, can't it?"

But suddenly, he moved back in his heart.

When Chen Feng saw this big hole just now, he felt that the shape seemed a little special.

At this moment, he withdrew back, and immediately understood.

The shape of this big hole is like a giant tortoise!

There seemed to be a scene before Chen Feng:

A giant Xuanwu appeared above the sky, facing the blue sky, and hit it fiercely.

Click and click!

The carapace splashed and dripped with blood, but he never retreated!

Finally knocked out a gap in this cyan sky, and went away!

Looking at the pitch-black crack in front of me, and the piece of nothingness outside the crack, it was pure to the extreme darkness.

Chen Feng's heart jumped wildly!

"There is the void of the universe!"

Chen Feng knows how terrifying the pure universe is!

And he has experienced such a situation before!

At the beginning, when he went to the deserted ancient ruins, he was severely attacked by that sudden huge demon claw.

Space is broken.

At that time, Chen Feng and others were directly swept into the void.

In the void of the universe, there is no aura, no air, and no vitality.

There is no power that can be absorbed!

Moreover, there are countless turbulences in the universe, which is extremely dangerous!

When he was about to step outside of these nine days of wind, Chen Feng took a deep breath.

The previous ones in Jiutian Gangfeng were just a small prelude and warm-up.

Now, the challenge has just begun!

He took a deep breath: "Everyone, Chen Feng, here comes!"

He did not hesitate and stepped out directly.

Step out and leave the Dragon Vessel Continent directly!

In a blink of an eye, he was immersed in the endless darkness.

Chapter 4707: Those... corpses!

Then, Chen Feng was black.

Not the dizzy black, but the ultimate and pure darkness in front of me.

There seems to be no light at all!

At the same time, Chen Feng felt more suffocating.

It was as if someone had caught his throat and couldn't breathe.

It seems to be suffocated to death!

At the same time, the sense of emptiness that he couldn't keep his feet on the ground made him feel that he couldn't take advantage of his strength, and he seemed to have to float and wander here.

Chen Feng did not panic: "Sure enough, it is no different from what I guessed."

"In the void, there is no aura, even no air, no food."

"I can't get any supplies inside, and I might even starve to death, suffocate, and die from exhaustion!"

However, Chen Feng was prepared.

The situation here is like a barren ancient ruin.

With a snap, the right hand crushed something.

In an instant, a green light shrouded him.

It's like a bubble.

It is the gem of life.

The gem of life obtained by Chen Feng from the ancient ruins.

As soon as the gem of life appeared, Chen Feng could breathe freely.

Moreover, the thick spiritual energy in the bubble was constantly surging, making Chen Feng uncomfortable.

This kind of physical security, as if returning to the familiar environment of the Dragon Vein Continent, also made Chen Feng calm down quickly.

Everything around, even the end of the line of sight, was completely dark.

A piece of pure, endless, endless black.

Not only that, but Chen Feng couldn't hear any sound, and his surroundings were extremely silent.

It is not silence, it is pure nothingness, silence without the slightest sound!

Suddenly, Chen Feng could hear the beating of his heart clearly.

The beating of the heart, bang, bang, like a star beating.

The sound of blood flowing violently was like a big river surging.

This voice is getting louder and clearer!

In the end, almost flooded the whole world.

Because of the extreme silence around him, his own voice was amplified countless times.

Chen Feng looked very hard, as if there was only one person in the world.

This is the ultimate loneliness.

This kind of extreme quietness and extreme blackness can almost make people crazy!

Chen Feng felt that if he stayed in this environment for a while, he might be driven mad!

Chen Feng moved immediately.

After his thoughts shifted, he quickly adapted to this place.

In fact, it is not difficult for him to adapt here.

This place is much safer than the real cosmic time and space where time and space are turbulent and perilous.

Chen Feng controlled his body and floated forward.

In this void, the speed is also extremely fast.

Time flies, where time and space seem to have lost its meaning, and time seems to be static.

I don't know how long it has passed, it seems like a moment, and it seems like a few years.

This feeling made him very uncomfortable.

Suddenly, Chen Feng's eyes jumped.

He saw from a distance, something appeared in front of him.

That turned out to be...

Chen Feng got closer, and he could see more clearly.

In an instant, his heart seemed to beat fiercely.

It turned out to be a corpse!

He is an old man with white beard and hair and a thin look.

There was no injury on the surface of his body, just so quietly suspended in the void.

However, his face is extremely hideous.

Full of fear and despair!

It seems to have experienced the great fear of life before dying!

Chen Feng's figure slowly approached him.

Although this is just a corpse, the body's breath is still huge and powerful.

Not even weaker than Chen Feng now!

This also means that his strength during his lifetime is only afraid to reach the nine-star Wudi.

It was only one step away from stepping into the Star Soul Martial God Realm!

Chen Feng was suddenly silent.

Because he suddenly realized how this person died.

"Presumably, when he broke through the nine-day wind and came to the void of the universe, he should be full of expectations and joy!"

"He knows he is about to step into a new world, and he is full of hope for the future."

"But soon, he discovered that there is no bounds here!"

"He can't see, and he doesn't know where the end is."

"There is no aura, no food, no water, not even air."

"Although his strength is very strong, but it only consumes, and cannot get any supplement!"

"So, his strength is getting weaker and weaker!"

"His breath is getting lower and lower!"

"He can no longer move forward!"

"He can only maintain a minimum consumption and let himself float here... but he doesn't know where he is floating."

"In the end, in extreme despair, fear, unwillingness, and hatred, he exhausted the last trace of strength!"

"It turned into a corpse!"

"Thousands of years have passed, but he is still floating here."

Thinking of this mighty power not inferior to his own, it was so miserable before he died.

Chen Feng felt that chill was born all over!

He paused in the sad heart of the rabbit and fox: "Will I, and the same?"

Chen Feng was silent for a moment, then he cleared up his mood and moved on.

And for an unknown period of time, he continued to encounter various corpses.

Some are middle-aged men wearing heavy armor, some are wearing long robes floating like a fairy, and some are wearing grass skirts made of leaves and bark, and their faces are full of beards, like beast gods walking out of the wild!

What's more, it is a monster that is huge, powerful and terrifying!

Obviously, in the past millions of years, the monsters on the Dragon Vein Continent are like human warriors, in order to explore the way to a stronger martial art!

After breaking through the nine days of wind, smashing the blue sky, came outside!

And now without exception, they have all become a corpse.

Seeing them, Chen Feng felt a little grateful in his heart: "Fortunately, I have seen a yellow bird. Fortunately, I have been to the top of the sky. Fortunately, I have visited the deserted ancient ruins several times."

"Fortunately, with all of this...If it weren't, I'm afraid I will suffer the same bad luck as them!"

Fortunately, Chen Feng also had a sense of anger in his heart! Hate! resentment! Surge fiercely!

He looked at the endless void in the distance.

As if to be able to see, amidst this ancient cold, desolate, and deadly silence, one after another corpses floating here!

These are the geniuses on the Dragon Vein Continent, they are all top talents!

Full of infinite hope, break through the dragon vein continent and come here!

Then, he died...

These people were killed by the God of War Palace.

Since the Yellow Bird's body was imprisoned by the God of War Palace, although the Yellow Bird clone was still at the top of Jianmu.

However, he has long been discouraged by human warriors.

Neither would he show up, nor would he give advice to human warriors.

Therefore, from the time the Yellow Bird was imprisoned to the present, in the period of more than 500,000 years, those human talents have emerged.

Chapter 4708: Chen Feng today! Make three big ambitions!

Those who have the ability to break through this world and go to other worlds.

In the end, they all embarked on the old road that broke through the nine-day wind and came to the outside world, and ended up being consumed by life and death here.

Because they don't know the truth!

Being able to do this step is really exhausting my limit!

After all, Xiaoqian was born in the world and had so much knowledge and strength.

It is commendable to be able to do this step, exhausting manpower!

Looking at them, Chen Feng couldn't help but feel an indescribable sadness in his heart!

Suddenly, his pupils shrank.

It turned out that Chen Feng actually saw a familiar figure from it.

Feather clothes high crown, Eguan Bo belt.

He is tall and thin, with a solemn face.

A long sword hung from his waist.

"This, this turned out to be..."

Chen Feng's voice trembled, whispered softly, and uttered four words: "Emperor Dongyang!"

This is, Emperor Dongyang!

Even though I have never met with myself as a teacher and friend, but the Emperor of Dongyang who has had a spiritual friendship!

Emperor Dongyang, told Chen Feng the big secret about the Longmai Continent.

The gift of Chen Feng's treasure, it can be said, indirectly saved Chen Feng's life!

After he left countless legends in the Dragon Vessel Continent, he was missing.

But now, Chen Feng saw that he was dead here!

Before death, full of doubts, incomprehension, unwillingness and anger!

Perhaps, he already knew some truth before he died!

Only in this way, is it even more sad and angry!

At this time, the grief and resentment in Chen Feng's heart suddenly reached a limit!

The resentment broke out suddenly and rose to the sky!

Chen Feng's arms tightened, Yang Tian let out a silent roar!

He hates it!

He hates God of War Palace!

But even more hate those sects of Xuanhuang Zhongqian World!

Even the Yuxu fairy gate is full of hatred!

"If others grab your things, if you don't let others get it, you will seal my Dragon Vein Continent for a million years?"

"Have you ever wondered whether the people in my Dragon Vessel Continent are willing?"

"Have you ever thought, how much will my Dragon Vein Continent lose by this seal for a million years?"

"How long will I sink into the Dragon Vein Continent?"

"These! Have you ever thought about it?"

"Or, in your eyes, my Dragon Vein Continent is just your private property!"

"We people from Xiaoqian World, our people from Longmai Continent, are not their mothers, are they?"

Chen Feng knows exactly what they think!

After all, in their eyes, people from the Dragon Vein Continent are nothing but ants!

Why should you care about the idea of ants?

People in the middle thousand worlds don't take their own people in the small thousand worlds seriously, and directly treat your new world as their private property!

I can't get it, right? I won't let you take it away either!

Directly lock this little world into a million years!

Even if Chen Feng promised the yellow bird, he would avenge the Yuxu fairy gate.

But it definitely does not mean that he thinks that the practice of Yuxu Immortal Gate is right!

"After all, being weak is the original sin!"

Chen Feng's resentment was soaring, and his blood spurted!

His voice, and the roar in his heart suddenly mingled!

Suddenly, Chen Feng's voice rang out in the void!

Originally, there is no sound transmission in this space.

But at this time, Chen Feng's voice broke through the rules and reverberated in this space!

His whole body was full of blood, all oozing out.

Around him, a red cloud formed.

And as every word of Chen Feng sounded, in front of him, a line of blood red characters appeared!

Like an alliance of blood!

"I, Chen Feng, today made three great aspirations!"

"The first great aspiration is the one of me, Chen Feng!"

"I, Chen Feng, will definitely succeed in one fell swoop and step into the world of Xuan Huang Zhong Qian!"

"The second big ambition!"

"I, Chen Feng, stepped into the Xuanhuang Zhongqian World to avenge the Yuxu Immortal Gate. I will coerce many sects and reopen the connection between the Dragon Vein Continent and the Xuanhuang Zhongqian World!"

"The meeting will master the cultivation techniques above the Martial Emperor realm, and wait until the Dragon Vessel Continent, so that everyone in the Dragon Vessel Continent can practice for it!"

"For all the warriors in the Longmai Continent, open a road to heaven, the road to longevity!"

"Lifespan will never be locked again, and the upper level limit will never be locked again!"

In front of Chen Feng, the big characters transformed into blood and qi, dragons and phoenix dance, just like a dragon and a snake!

Later, the color of blood becomes heavier.

The more energy and blood is consumed!

It's simple, because Chen Feng's second ambition is much bigger than the first one!

The first ambition only involved him.

The second ambition involves the entire Longmai Continent.

Speaking such things and issuing such ambitions are obviously very expensive!

Chen Feng was already pale and trembling all over!

He felt that he was almost reaching the limit!

The price to bear for making a ambition is extremely terrifying!

However, he still clenched his teeth!

"The third ambition!"

When Chen Feng said this, his voice became extremely solemn and solemn, and it rang out loudly throughout the space!

The sound hit the barrier in the extreme distance and echoed out again.

The entire void universe seemed to be filled with Chen Feng's vast and solemn voice!

"Predecessors, you died here in vain, your souls will never die!"

"You are all dying for my Dragon Vein Continent. You should be offering sacrifices, and the incense is endless!"

"I, Chen Feng, made my third big wish today, and when I succeed, I will set it on the Dragon Vein Continent, build a temple for you, and supply incense forever!"

"To pay tribute to your sacrifice yesterday and your contribution today!"

Having said that, everything is normal.

The reaction is not great.

But the words below Chen Feng made the entire void tremble.

It seems that this whole piece of void is in fear!

"I will even build a temple for you at the highest point in the Xuanhuang Zhongqian world!"

"I will let all the people in the Xuanhuang Zhongqian World who do this thing, come to the temple and kowtow, apologize!"

"For everything they did that day, for everything they were sorry for my Dragon Vein Continent, and to pay the price!"

Chen Feng's eyes were filled with unparalleled determination and confidence.

"And I, Chen Feng, will also let the people in the world know about it!"

"I'm waiting for the dragon vein mainland warrior! Don't be humiliated!"

At this time, Chen Feng had almost reached his limit!

He was trembling all over, his face pale as paper!

But suddenly, Chen Feng gritted his teeth fiercely and shouted wildly!

A bright bite of blood, spurted out wildly!

In the air, turned into this third big ambition!

Bloody, shocking, yet extremely confident and bragging!

With the three great aspirations issued, Chen Feng suddenly vomited blood again and again, and his figure dropped rapidly.

The whole person is already extremely weak.

For these three ambitions, he paid a heavy price.

But Chen Feng showed a smile at the corner of his mouth.

The whole person is relieved and extremely relaxed!

There is even more faith that solidifies and stands in his heart.

Chapter 4709: Night watchman!

Let him face the road ahead, without fear!

The three great aspirations, the big blood-red characters are condensed in the air!

Of course, Chen Feng knew what he was going to do next.

Find the night watchman and use the power of the Yuxu Immortal Gate to enter the Xuanhuang Middle Thousand World to improve your strength.

Make yourself stronger!

Chen Feng clearly distinguished which was lighter and heavier.

Will not give up this opportunity because of dissatisfaction with Yuxu Fairy Gate!

"My purpose is not to avenge the Yuxu Immortal Gate."

"In other words, to avenge the Yuxu fairy gate, just to understand this period of cause and effect."

"What I really want is to use these things to gain a foothold in the Xuanhuang Zhongqian World, and then realize the ambition in my heart!"

And just when Chen Feng's voice fell.

In the void of the universe that didn't know how far away, there was a faint, faint voice, as if the smoke was lightly dispersed: "Young man, I really am very ambitious."

When the voice heard, Chen Feng's body was shocked, and his heart even missed a beat.

Emotions surged in my heart, setting off stormy waves.

The whole person is caught in an inexplicable emotion.

Who can be who can be here, here, and who can speak?

At this moment, an inexplicable complex feeling surged in his heart.

There is excitement, sorrow and anger, as if relieved, and suddenly enlightened.

"Did you find it? Did I finally find it?"

"I finally found my own hope, the hope of Longmai Continent?"

However, Chen Feng was Chen Feng after all, took a deep breath, and soon calmed down.

He slowly turned around and looked back.

Not far behind Chen Feng, a beam of light was floating.

Yes, it is a beam of light.

The whole body is a long red color.

The light is misty and looming.

And this beam of light originated from a pillar, a scarlet bead the size of an egg.

The bead was just suspended there quietly, without knowing what material it was, but the surface was red.

That voice came from the little red bead.

Chen Feng's eyes just fell to the ground.

Suddenly, the surface was as smooth as jade, and countless lines suddenly appeared on the extremely smooth beads.

These lines are extremely complicated and small, such as the fineness of hair, which is not enough to describe its smallness.

The lines continue to appear, undulating, like countless ravine mountains appearing on the surface of a planet.

When Chen Feng glanced at it, he felt dazzled.

There are at least hundreds of thousands, millions or even tens of millions of lines on the beads!

And these countless patterns and hooks linked together, but formed an extremely complicated circle.

Chen Feng's heart shook: "This level of magic circle, the level of high, I have never seen it before!"

"How powerful is such a magic circle? How high is its level? What is its purpose?"

This formation has subverted Chen Feng's cognition.

This is a magic circle that completely surpasses the strength of the Dragon Vein Continent!

The next moment, above the magic circle, a shallow light lit up.

Then, a long and faint shadow floated out of it.

Vaguely human, there is no entity, incomplete, like a remnant soul.

However, this remnant soul alone brought witty oppression and immense pressure to Chen Feng.

At the moment this remnant soul appeared, Chen Feng felt that a world suddenly appeared in front of him.

There is a huge terrifying, extremely powerful planet rising up in front of him!

The suppression is so great that this!

Chen Feng's heart jumped fiercely: "How strong is this person? This is a terrifying strength I have never seen before!"

Just this remnant soul, the oppressive feeling brought to Chen Feng, has surpassed all the strong men he had seen before.

Whether it is Fairy Yuheng or Venerable Soul Master!

"This also means..."

Chen Feng made a nightmare voice in his heart: "This person's current strength absolutely exceeds the Star Soul Martial God Realm."

And this is just his remnant soul, just a small part of his soul!

It's hard to imagine how strong he will be when he wins, while he is alive!

"Is he the night watchman of Yuxu Fairy Gate?"

At this time, Chen Feng finally had a fairly intuitive understanding of the strength of the Yuxu fairy gate powerhouse.

"Too strong, too terrifying!"

"It's worthy of being in the Xuanhuang Zhongqianqianjie who also has a name and a surname!"

However, it is strange to say.

When Chen Feng turned his head and stopped looking at this bead, there was no remnant soul in his sight.

That kind of extreme oppression, but disappeared without a trace.

It's as if it never existed.

Moreover, where the remnant soul was, Chen Feng couldn't sense the existence of anything!

It's like an empty nothing.

However, when Chen Feng turned his eyes, he could see that he really existed there.

As if he knew what Chen Feng was thinking, the remnant soul spoke again.

The voice is thin, lingering:

"Don't think about it, I was already dead, only a ray of remnant soul escaped."

"Use the soul-locking beads to guard this remnant soul."

"It's something that shouldn't exist. You can't sense it. It's normal."

As he spoke, on the red beads, the afterimage slowly stood up.

Chen Feng saw that his body was mutilated, just like a skeleton.

The whole body is burning with flames.

The flame is light and light, and it doesn't look heavy.

But there is a terrifying power in it.

"With the Soul Locking Orb, as long as you don't see me with your own eyes, you will definitely not be able to sense me."

"Otherwise, how could Xuanhuang Zhongqian World, those old guys with magical power, let me go?"

The Red Flame Remnant Soul made a low and hoarse sound.

Suddenly he looked at Chen Feng and made a 'laugh' gesture with a grin.

"I think it's old and confused, I haven't told you yet, I am!"

He slowly uttered three words: "Night watchman!"

Night watchman!

These three words came into Chen Feng's ears, and Chen Feng's mood was uncomfortable.

But in the end, it became extremely calm.

His calmness made him feel a little different.

The night watchman looked in his eyes, and his eyes flashed!

He quietly stood up from the endless blood flame.

Two steps forward.

Then, amidst the * flames, a tattered cloth robe flew out and covered him.

Chen Feng saw that the material of the cloth robe looked like an ordinary Taoist robe.

It was just extremely tattered, with mottled blood stains stuck to it.

Chen Feng's heart moved.

The material of this cloth robe is exactly the same as the blood-stained cloth that Yellow Bird gave him.

His mind just moved, but he has not spoken yet.

Suddenly, the piece of cloth in his arms flew directly out and fell into the palm of the night watchman.

Above that flame, circling around, but not burning.

Chapter 4710: Once in a million years!

The night watchman looked at the piece of cloth with a dazed expression, as if thinking of a long silent past.

After a long time, looking at Chen Feng, he sighed and said, "That little girl, Huang Bird, how is it?"

Chen Feng sighed slightly: "It's okay, it's not good."

He was not surprised, the night watchman knew the existence of the yellow bird.

Just as the yellow bird can sense him, he can also sense the yellow bird.

Chen Feng told the night watchman what he knew about the Yellow Bird.

The night watchman sighed even more when he heard it.

"Yellow Bird, although she hasn't seen me, I have seen her."

"Even, she called me grandpa."

A smile was drawn at the corner of his mouth, and for the first time he showed such tenderness on his flame-burning face that enveloped the skull.

"That was the first time in my life, someone called me grandpa."

He looked into the distance, his eyes leisurely.

"This kind of thing shouldn't be her responsibility, she is just a child."

He gritted his teeth: "If I am not too strong, even if only a trace of remnant soul exists in the world."

"But if you forcibly enter the Dragon Vein Continent, it will also make the Dragon Vein Continent unable to bear it, and it will collapse directly!"

"Otherwise, how can I let the yellow bird bear these?"

"Furthermore, if I enter the Dragon Vein Continent with my cultivation base, knowledge and strength, I am afraid that in these years, I will be able to cultivate countless talents!"

"Why wait for a million years!"

"However, it is not in vain!"

He looked at Chen Feng: "After all, I have waited for you, you are the person I am looking for!"

"It's also my hope of revenge from the Yuxu Fairy Gate!"

Chen Feng smiled faintly: "In the great aspiration I made just now, I said that the Yuxu fairy gate should pay the price."

"Are you not angry?"

"Why should I be angry?"

The night watchman laughed, with a bitter hatred in his eyes:

"All I want is revenge!"

"It's just that those who destroy the Yuxu fairy gate will all pay the heaviest price!"

"As for the rest, I don't care!"

"what I want!"

He gritted his teeth: "It's just revenge!"

Chen Feng nodded slowly.

He knew who the night watchman was.

He doesn't pursue any face, and he doesn't care about what's going on behind him. He is just a person who will pay for it!

But, unfortunately, only these talents can become true night watchmen.

This class of people can truly avenge the sect!

For his own goals, he will do whatever it takes to do anything!

Even if Chen Feng would let the Yuxu Immortal Gate kowtow for these people from the Dragon Vein Continent in the future, he would not care!

As long as Chen Feng can avenge Yuxu Immortal Gate's revenge before that.

"Let's go."

The night watchman turned away.

Chen Feng raised his eyebrows: "Why, do you think that I am the person you are looking for?"

The night watch said: "Of course."

Chen Feng smiled and said: "Don't look at it again? Don't think about it?"

The night watchman shook his head and said, "No need."

"I look at you and I know if you are the one I want."

He turned around and stared at Chen Feng, with an extremely serious look in his eyes: "From the first glance I saw you, I was shocked in my heart."

"A person has so many causal connections."

"Moreover, at the end of cause and effect, there are so many terrifying existences."

"You have so much air luck in your body, and every air luck is different."

"But every qi luck points to the indescribable depths of the universe. The horror of the characters behind makes me feel terrified!"

The night watchman said: "I have practiced in the world of Xuanhuang for hundreds of years. For people like you, I have never seen it in the world of Xuanhuang!"

He looked at Chen Feng and smiled playfully.

"This shows that you have countless secrets."

"People like you, either died early, and once they can grow up, they will rise extremely terribly!"

Chen Feng touched his nose and smiled slightly: "At present, I seem to be the latter."

He knew what the night watchman was talking about.

He also knows the secret of himself.

Chen Feng was not surprised that the night watchman could see that characters like him were not to be underestimated even in Xuan Huang Zhong Qian World.

How can you not see these?

And Chen Feng is also full of confidence in himself.

He doesn't think about it as a second person!

Feeling the confidence of Chen Feng, the night watchman laughed even more.

Looking at Chen Feng, there was a sense of relief in his eyes.

"What I want is that you are so ambitious, ambitious, and confident to the extreme!"

Chen Feng said lightly: "If you ask for it, you can get it."

"If you ask for it, you get the bottom."

"I, Chen Feng, not only ask for it, but also want it!"

The night watchman nodded and said, "Otherwise, you won't be able to issue those three great aspirations."

"What's more, it's time now!"

He stared at Chen Feng, and for an instant, the flames around his body were lingering to the extreme, and it seemed to show how excited he was now.

"The key node once in a million years is coming soon!"

"At this time, it's too late to choose someone else."

"Whether you can do it or not, you must do it!"

Chen Feng asked: "What is the key point in these millions of years? Why do you and Huangniao care so much?"

The night watchman said Shen Shen, "Because, this large formation that seals the Dragon Vessel Continent will loosen only once every million years!"

Chen Feng's heart jumped: "That's how it is."

"Think about it, this loose once in a million years is the best opportunity to open this big formation!"

"Yes."

The night watchman looked at Chen Feng and said meaningfully: "If you miss this opportunity, you will have to wait another million years."

"Can you wait?"

"Can we wait?"

"My Yuxu fairy gate, can you wait?"

"and so!"

There was a burst of light in his eyes, almost crazy!

This is the first time Chen Feng has seen his emotional changes so drastically!

Obviously, this is his lifelong pursuit and his belief in living!

He looked at Chen Feng and screamed frantically: "Chen Feng, you must do it this time, you must succeed this time!"

"I will do my best to help you, you must enter there, you must break through the big formation smoothly, and you must enter the mysterious yellow world!"

"As long as you successfully enter, you will get endless benefits!"

The words of the night watch suddenly changed.

His voice was full of incomparable temptation, like a devil whispering in his ears.

"So, all the treasures left by my Yuxu Immortal Gate, all the weapon techniques, all everything, all are yours!"

"With these things, coupled with your talent, you will definitely be able to rise rapidly in the world of Xuanhuang!"

"You will be a bright star in the Xuanhuang world, no one can ignore!"
