

PEERLESS DIVINE DOCTOR

Chapter 5 Acupuncture Technique of the Eight Trigrams_1

Ye Luo had somehow already returned to his seat and was seated properly, his eyes slightly closed, seemingly resting.

Those last two needles had been his limit.

The Eight Trigrams acupuncture technique was divided into three phases: the first phase was Acquired Eight Trigrams, the second phase was Middling Eight Trigrams, and the third phase was Innate Eight Trigrams!

As for whether there were any phases after that, Ye Luo didn't know.

Because he had only learned the two needles of the first phase so far.

And you should know...

There are eight needles in each phase!

"Divine Doctor!"

"You're so awesome!"

"Divine Doctor, can you take a look at me? My legs have been numb recently."

Ye Luo glanced over and simply said, "You have diabetes, eat less sugar."

"It's true, I just got diagnosed today!" The person exclaimed in surprise.

"Divine Doctor, I... I want to ask how to extend the time between husband and wife?" A balding middle-aged man asked cautiously.

You could see many men perking up their ears to listen.

"Do you want the easy way or the hard way?" Ye Luo asked.

"The easy way!"

"Just in time, I have a few pills here, that can prevent all sorts of illnesses after taking them, and can also rejuvenate the complexion, each pill... um, let's say 500 yuan." Ye Luo naturally didn't forget to push his business.

But he didn't dare to ask for too much, fearing that if it was too expensive, no one would want to buy it.

When Liu Xiner saw the pills that Ye Luo brought out, her face immediately turned red!

Because the thing Ye Luo had just given her to eat was this very thing!!!

"Divine Doctor, I'll buy 10 pills!"

"I'll buy 365 pills, one for each day!"

"I want them, I'd pay even 1000 yuan for them!"

Having witnessed the scene Ye Luo had just demonstrated, everyone believed in the pills he was selling without a doubt!

Seeing the crowd's reaction, Ye Luo kind of regretted not setting a higher price, but then he turned his eyes and coughed lightly, saying to the crowd: "My son, come here, don't you see how busy your father is? Why don't you come and help?"

The crowd parted.

Then they saw a familiar figure trying to sneak away quietly.

This figure was Xu Le, who had always been mocking Ye Luo!

Realizing he had been spotted, Xu Le turned around, his face full of anger and defiance: "You must have just been lucky, I could do it too!"

Ye Luo curled his lips and said, "Why don't you say it was magic?"

Xu Le's eyes lit up immediately, repeating: "Right, it must be magic! You three must have colluded to deceive everyone into buying your pills!"

"What are you talking about?!" Liu Xiner couldn't hold back first.

Liu Shiyun also frowned slightly.

Ye Luo stood up from his seat, then walked up to Xu Le, and said, "Speaking of magic, I really know some. Wanna give it a try?"

"Let's try it, I'll definitely expose your trickery!" Xu Le was feeling quite insecure inside.

In fact, anyone who wasn't blind could see that Liu Xiner's earlier pain couldn't have been faked.

That meant Ye Luo had actually saved someone with his genuine skills!

Now Xu Le was just looking for a way to save face, which is why he spoke like that...

"Watch closely!" Suddenly, Ye Luo raised his hand and waved it in front of Xu Le, "I can make you forget something that happened earlier!"

Xu Le was stunned for a moment, then burst into laughter: "You say you can do magic, and now you really think you're a god?!"

Ye Luo ignored him, then withdrew his palm and said, "You've already forgotten one thing."

"Oh? Tell me, what have I forgotten?" Xu Le showed a look of disdain.

"Didn't you just say you were an idiot?" Ye Luo asked.

"I didn't say..."

"See, you forgot about it, didn't you?"

Ye Luo shrugged his shoulders.

Everyone was stunned for a moment, then burst into laughter together.

Even the always serious Liu Shiyun rarely showed a smile as splendid as blooming flowers, and with her stunning beauty, she looked like a fairy descending from the heavens!

Xu Le's face turned red. He had his pride, and faced with everyone's laughter, he immediately wanted to leave.

But then he was caught by Ye Luo: "You haven't called me 'Dad' yet."

Xu Le's eyes twitched and his face darkened as he said in a low voice, "Dad! Are you satisfied now?"

"Mm, good son. Remember this lesson and don't forget you're an idiot today, and then forget you have a 'Dad' tomorrow." After nodding, Ye Luo returned to his seat and sat down.

Xu Le, however, had already left quickly with a dark face.

He had no face to stay any longer!

The train still had a distance to reach its final stop.

All along the way, Liu Xiner's chatter never stopped, having been tormented by illness for so long, she was truly experiencing what it felt like to be completely at ease!

Watching the happy Liu Xiner, Ye Luo hesitated for a moment before saying, "Actually, your illness isn't cured yet."

Liu Shiyun was the first to freeze.

However, Xin'er said cheerfully, "I know, because I can feel that thing inside my body hasn't left yet."

"Thing?" Liu Shiyun looked at her sister curiously.

She just thought her sister was referring to the illness inside her body as "thing."

But Ye Luo knew what Xin'er was referring to as "thing" and didn't elaborate, simply pinching his fingers and pretending to console, "I calculated your fortune and I'm sure your body will recover!"

Ye Luo had only learned two of the Eight Trigrams acupuncture techniques so far. If he learned two more, curing Xin'er's illness would be a cinch!

So, his words were not just a mere consolation.

"You can tell fortunes too?" Xin'er said with disbelief.

"Of course, there's nothing I can't do," Ye Luo boasted unabashedly.

"I don't believe you," Xin'er said, tilting her cute nose.

"Don't believe me, huh?" Ye Luo started to calculate with his fingers again and soon said, "I can figure out what you're thinking in your head."

"Brother, you..." Liu Shiyun's cheeks flushed slightly, looking at Ye Luo speechlessly.

What on earth was this all about!

However, before she could say more, her sister Xin'er suddenly puffed out her chest and huffed, "Then calculate for me, what am I thinking right now."

"You're thinking about me," Ye Luo said straightforwardly.

Xin'er's face turned bright red with embarrassment as she realized she'd been played.

"You silly girl, anyone with a bit of psychology knowledge can pull off this trick, and yet you fell for it," Liu Shiyun was nearly at a loss for words with the two of them.

But the next moment, she was the one who was stunned.

Ye Luo suddenly continued, "Not only are you thinking about me, but you're also wondering whether I can truly cure your disease, and if I do, whether I can become your brother-in-law."

"Let me tell you this: yes, to all!" He laughed heartily.

Liu Shiyun, furious, reached out to twist his arm, "You dare to tease me too?!"

Xin'er, however, gaped and tugged at her sister, "Sis, that's exactly what I was just thinking! Isn't that amazing?"

"You really can tell fortunes?!" The two sisters exclaimed in unison.

Now it was Ye Luo's turn to feel awkward.

He had only meant to lighten the mood, but they had actually believed him!

The reason he knew so well was because...
