

Permit Me 1041

Chapter 1041 Can death make up for past hurt?

Although Rong shenghai had been scolded badly that day, he had been used to Yang Yan's scolding. He had long forgotten how to resist, so he still tried to comfort her.

After going back, Rong shenghai began to worry that Yang Yan would really take it too hard and commit suicide.

Two days later, he thought he would be fine, but the prison and the hospital suddenly called him to inform him that Yang Yan had broken the plastic cup she used to brush her teeth in prison and committed suicide by cutting her wrist.

At that time, Rong shenghai was so scared that he almost fainted. It was a plastic cup used for brushing teeth, not a blade. How could it cut his wrist when it was so blunt?

however, yang yan's wound was successful, and it was a very deep cut. she was in the hospital for emergency treatment, but her condition was very critical. it was unknown if she could survive.

Therefore, this incident proved the truth. When a person wanted to commit suicide, there was no creativity!

After listening to Rong shenghai, Liancheng Yazhi's eyelids did not even move, as if he was listening to an insignificant matter. After Rong shenghai finished, he said, "Rong Yan won't go, and I won't let him go either. Please don't disturb her about your family's matters. That woman's life and death have nothing to do with her. Threatening her is useless.

Rong shenghai said with a trembling voice, "But Yingluo is her mother, her biological mother. Even if there's a great enmity between them, Yingluo is going to die! Can't it be eliminated even with this?"

"No!" Liancheng Yazhi firmly said.

"You don't have to call!"

After that, Liancheng Yazhi hung up the phone. He had wanted to tell Rong shenghai that if he called again, he would teach him a lesson.

But he thought about it and didn't say it. After all, there weren't many good people like Rong shenghai in the world. You could hate him, but you couldn't deny that he didn't have bad intentions towards anyone. Not everyone had a soft heart.

However, Liancheng Yazhi didn't know how Rong shenghai had lived to such an old age and still had such a naive heart.

Could death make up for past harm?

Obviously, that was impossible. Even if a person died, the damage he left to others would not disappear.

Would blood relations allow a mother to harm her daughter without restraint?

Obviously, he couldn't do this either!

In Liancheng Yazhi's opinion, Rong Yan was right not to forgive Yang Yan. Some people could not be forgiven. In this world, the relationship between humans was not maintained by blood at all, but by mutual respect and love.

"I'm done." Rong Yan glanced at Liancheng Yazhi.

"Yeah, it's over. They probably won't fight anymore." To be honest, Liancheng Yazhi was not sure. After all, Rong shenghai was a very stubborn person.

Liancheng Yazhi sat next to Rong Yan and put his arm around her shoulder. "Aren't you going to ask what it is?"

rong yan shrugged. "there's nothing to ask. it's just that ran ran asked me to go and see yang yan. or, ran ran really committed suicide and is now in the hospital. "

liancheng yazhi tapped rong yan's nose. "You're right."

"The former or the latter?" Rong Yan asked him.

"I thought you didn't want to know?"

"Can't I just ask casually?"

"Both," Liancheng Yazhi replied with a smile.

The corner of Rong Yan's mouth moved. She didn't expect Yang Yan to really have the courage to commit suicide.

Regardless of whether Rong Yan would go to see Yang Yan or not, she would not be happy to know about this. Besides, there would be other things that would come with it.

Chapter 1042 I'll accompany you

Half an hour after Rong shenghai's phone call, another call came. It was the landline number of Rong shenghai's current home. Rong Yan thought it was still Rong shenghai, so she didn't answer it. However, the ringtone kept ringing, and she was extremely annoyed. She simply grabbed the phone and answered it, shouting, "i've said it before, don't come to me if she's dead or alive. if you say one more word, i'll kill her now before she dies. "

As a result, the nanny who was taking care of Rong shenghai's life cried on the phone. She cried and said, "Miss Rong, it's not good. Mr. Rong has fainted. What should we do, Zhenzhen?"

After Liancheng Yazhi hung up the phone, Rong shenghai was anxious and helpless. When he thought of Yang Yan, who was still in the hospital's intensive care unit, he was even more worried. In this case, his blood pressure rose rapidly, and then Xuxu fainted.

Rong Yan was stunned for a moment. She rubbed her forehead with a headache and said impatiently, "What's the use of calling me? call 120 for an ambulance."

"I did, but Yueyue, I'm scared. What if, what if something happened to Yueyue?"

send her to the hospital first. Tell me the address, I'll go over to Yingluo later.

Throwing down the phone, Rong Yan lay on Liancheng Yazhi and wailed.

she always wanted to live a peaceful life. why did all the annoying things come one after another? one by one, she didn't even have time to rest.

"Rong shenghai fainted and is in the hospital. I still have to go there," Rong Yan complained.

Of course, she really didn't want to go, but after all, she had promised Rong nuo that she would help her take care of Rong shenghai. If something really happened to him this time, how could she explain it to Rong nuo?

She had to go to the hospital to make sure that Rong shenghai was fine!

"I'll go with you," Liancheng Yazhi said.

Rong Yan shook her head. no, it's already 10 O'clock at night. It's very late. I don't know if I can come back quickly after I get there. You should stay at home and look after MeowMeow. When she's taking the medicinal bath, one of us has to stay at home.

Liancheng Yazhi took Rong Yan's hand. then you stay at home. I'll go and see him.

"I'll go, Yingluo."

"It's already so late, I can't let you go out alone. Either I go by myself or we go together. You choose." This time, Liancheng Yazhi had no room for negotiation. It was very late, and he couldn't let Rong Yan go out by herself. He couldn't bear the slightest accident.

Rong Yan sighed and opened her arms to hug Liancheng Yazhi. " alright then, go and take a look. call me if you have any problems. "

"Be good, wait for me at home." Liancheng Yazhi kissed Rong Yan's forehead.

"Bring a few bodyguards with you when you go."

liancheng yazhi smiled. " i'm worried that your husband will get into an accident. don't worry, even if something happens, i can solve it. "

"Don't say such things, just bring a few more, just in case."

"Alright, I'll listen to you!"

when liancheng yazhi arrived at the hospital with four bodyguards, rong shenghai had already been pushed into the emergency room.

The nanny stood anxiously outside the emergency room. When she saw Liancheng Yazhi, she suddenly found her backbone. Mr. Liancheng, please ...

"How is it?" Liancheng Yazhi asked.

doctor, they're still trying to save Yingluo. the nanny trembled when she saw the four bodyguards in black behind Liancheng Yazhi. She couldn't take the sudden appearance of these people who she had only seen on TV.

Chapter 1043-ambush

after about half an hour, the light of the emergency room went out, and the doctors and nurses came out.

“Doctor, how’s the patient?” the nanny was the first to rush up and ask.

The doctor took off his mask and said, ” he’s been rescued. His life is not in danger for the time being. However, he still needs to be observed for two days before making a judgment. Do you know the patient’s family members? please go through the hospitalization procedures first.

“When will she wake up?” Liancheng Yazhi asked.

The doctor was stunned when he saw Liancheng Yazhi. It was a little shocking to see such an outstanding person. The doctor said, ” in order to let him rest well and prevent his emotions from fluctuating again, I gave him a shot of sedatives. He will probably wake up tomorrow morning.

“thank you, doctor.”

you’re welcome. Go through the admission procedures as soon as possible.

lian Cheng yazhi said to the four bodyguards behind him, one of you will stay behind to help with the admission procedures. You can leave when he wakes up tomorrow morning.

“Yes, young master ya.” one of them was pushed out.

Since Rong shenghai’s life was no longer in danger, Liancheng Yazhi naturally would not stop for long. He left with the other three bodyguards.

After they left, the nanny secretly asked the bodyguards who stayed behind, ” that Qianqian, you guys, do you guys carry a gun with you like the ones on TV? ”

The bodyguard glanced at her and did not say anything.

The nanny swallowed her saliva,”just pretend I didn’t ask Yingluo.”

In order to get home as soon as possible, Liancheng Yazhi asked the driver to take a shortcut.

After passing through the streets of the city, they passed by a construction area. The old houses on both sides of the road had been demolished and new residential buildings were being built, so there were no people living on both sides of the road.

Although the road was closed during the day, the construction had stopped at night, so it did not affect the passage!

The construction area was about two hundred meters long. The driver slowed down as he passed by to be safe. When there were only a few dozen meters left, the street lights on both sides suddenly went out. Before the driver could react, the wheels slipped and the friction on the ground made a harsh sound. The steering wheel lost control and slipped.

The driver had also been with Liancheng Yazhi for a long time. At a glance, he knew that this situation was not a coincidence. He must have been ambushed.

The driver shouted, “not good, young master ya! There are nails on the ground! The tires have been punctured!!!!

Liancheng Yazhi did not even move a strand of hair. He took out the small box that had not been used for a long time from his pocket and simply said, "what are you panicking for? hold the steering wheel!"

Liancheng Yazhi's fingers moved quickly in the dim light of the car. A few seconds later, before the car could even come to a stop, a gun suddenly appeared in his hand.

liancheng yazhi was already prepared to sit in the front passenger seat. the bodyguard who was fighting said, "inform the people in the car behind and ask them to rush over to protect the car."

this car's tires were broken. although there were spare tires in the trunk, it was impossible to change the tires in such a situation. if the situation got worse, the car behind them would be their only hope of escape.

At this moment, Liancheng Yazhi was glad that he didn't let Rong Yan come.

it's Yingluo, young master ya! the bodyguard quickly said a few words into his headset. As soon as he finished speaking, a dazzling car light suddenly appeared from the corner in front!

Liancheng Yazhi sneered. Today was really not an ordinary night!

As the sound of the car's engine got closer and closer, the dazzling lights of the cars shone directly on them.

Chapter 1044-pincer attack, life and death on the line

Liancheng Yazhi counted the sounds of the engines. A total of four cars from the front and back came at the same time.

The glaring headlights in front of them made it hard for them to open their eyes. They were driving at an extremely fast speed and were coming towards them. It looked like they were going to crash their car into a discus.

The situation was extremely critical at the moment. If they got out of the car, they might be targeted by the killers in the other two cars.

If they didn't get out of the car, they would still be dead. The two cars in front and behind were rushing up at full speed. When the front and back collided, even the most powerful car would be smashed into a metal plate. At that time, the door would be deformed, and they wouldn't be able to get out even if they wanted to. Even if they weren't killed, they would be caught like a turtle in a jar.

"Young master ya, what should we do now?" the driver was trembling in fear.

Liancheng Yazhi rolled up his sleeves and said, "open the car door a crack and listen to my orders. When I say we're getting off, we'll jump off together."

With Liancheng Yazhi's order and his calmness, the driver and bodyguard were more confident and said in unison, "It's Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi closed his eyes and listened to the sound of the engine approaching. Just as the two cars in front and behind were about to hit the front and back of the car, Liancheng Yazhi suddenly opened his eyes and shouted, "Dance!"

In that split second, they were fighting for survival against death. The door was pushed open and Liancheng Yazhi quickly jumped out of the car. The moment they jumped, before their bodies could land, two loud bangs were heard. The two cars that were coming at them at high speed had already hit the front and back of the car.

The huge impact and inertia caused the car that Liancheng Yazhi was sitting in to be instantly deformed!

Liancheng Yazhi's body quickly rolled twice on the ground and dodged the bullets from the car behind.

The bullets created sparks on the asphalt road, as if the Grim Reaper was calling for them!

they were surrounded by a flat and open road, so it was basically impossible to find a cover to fight back. the nearest construction building was also ten meters away, and they would have been shot by the time they ran over.

After Liancheng Yazhi stopped, he half-stood up with the support of his palm and faced his prey head-on like a cheetah chasing after its prey.

The gun in his hand followed his will and aimed at the car that was coming from behind without aiming at the time. He fired four bullets in a second, three of which hit the target. The killer in the driver's seat was shot accurately in the head by Liancheng Yazhi through the car window and died on the spot. As for the killer in the front seat and the back seat, one died and one was injured.

The driver and bodyguard who got out of the car with Liancheng Yazhi were all injured by the killer in the car that had hit the front of the car. Liancheng Yazhi did not expect them to be of much use. He only hoped that they could hold back a few guns and give him a chance to catch his breath.

Not to mention that he didn't care about human lives, he hired those people to protect him, and they also knew that Liancheng Yazhi had so much money, and they had to exchange their lives at the critical moment.

liancheng yazhi stood up from the ground and aimed his gun at the two remaining survivors in the car. before the other party's bullets could leave the gun barrel, his bullets had already gone through their heads.

Liancheng Yazhi's marksmanship was extremely accurate. Although he was different from the simplified version of Kang Zhen and did not have to constantly shuttle through the rain of bullets on the battlefield, as long as he was given a second to catch his breath, his body would instinctively aim at the target and shoot.

During this period, Liancheng Yazhi did not need to think at all. This was the muscle memory formed after years of training.

At this moment, the bodyguards in the other car finally broke through the blockade line in an almost impossible situation. However, they were already very far away from Liancheng Yazhi, and there were fatal bullets flying all over their heads. They would be shot if they were not careful, so it was almost impossible to run over on foot.

One of the bodyguards in the car was left behind to drive the car, and the remaining two people ran out. Because of their participation, it gave Liancheng Yazhi some relief.

A bodyguard covered his injured shoulder and ran over. He pointed at the car that Liancheng Yazhi had just taken care of. young master ya, we'll cover the back. Hurry up and get in the car.

Even if he didn't say it, Liancheng Yazhi also planned to get into that car and rush out. This situation was very disadvantageous to them. They didn't know if there were more ambushes around them, so the most important thing now was to escape quickly.

Of course, Liancheng Yazhi would not be polite with them. His life was very precious now and he could not afford to lose at all. Otherwise, what would happen to his wife and daughter? his future son had not even been born yet, so of course, nothing could happen to him!

you guys be careful, Yingluo, " Liancheng Yazhi said to them.

He crouched to avoid the bullets above his head. Under the cover of the bodyguards, he opened the door of the driver's seat, dragged the killer he had killed out of the driver's seat, and threw him on the ground. He got into the car, reversed nimbly, and turned left. Then, he aimed at the remaining two cars that were still shooting at them at full speed and slammed into them.

with a loud bang, one of the enemy's cars was hit by liancheng yazhi and slid back a few meters. the car door had a big dent. before their car could stabilize, liancheng yazhi rolled down the window and held the steering wheel with one hand and a gun with the other. he first shot the tire of the enemy's left front wheel, causing the car to lose balance and spin 180 degrees.

The friction between the wheels and the ground was so sharp that it hurt one's eardrums. The gunshots did not stop, and it sounded like ghosts were urging for their lives!

When the car on Liancheng Yazhi's side that had survived saw Liancheng Yazhi, it immediately imitated his actions, turned around, and rushed to another enemy car. On the road that was less than 100 meters away, a life and death limit was performed.

Liancheng Yazhi drove in circles in the middle of the road, the gun in his hand never ceasing firing. He shouted to the bodyguards outside, " "Don't fight, those who are still alive, get in the car and leave Qingqing."

Liancheng Yazhi pressed the switch in the car, and the back door opened automatically. He drove the car in the middle of the road and knocked it away. A bodyguard covered his injured abdomen and stumbled over. His body fell forward and fell into the car door.

He stuttered,"young master ya, let's go, they're all dead, Zhenzhen."

Liancheng Yazhi gestured to the bodyguards in the other car to retreat!

The two cars finally broke out of the encirclement, one after the other. This intense gunfight had actually only lasted less than eight minutes, but in such a short time, human lives were fragile.

After the car drove onto a safe road, Liancheng Yazhi felt a sharp pain in his arm. He looked down and realized that he had been shot in the arm. The sticky and Scarlet blood had soaked his sleeves and stained his palm red.

Liancheng Yazhi frowned unhappily. This time, he was going to make Rong Yan worry!

Chapter 1046 You're my lucky goddess

In this short battle, they had lost a bodyguard and a driver. Including Liancheng Yazhi, only three people were still alive, and all of them were injured.

Liancheng Yazhi was fine as the injury on his arm was not serious, but the situation of the other two was not so good!

the bodyguard who was still lying on the dead man in the back seat was shot in the abdomen, which might have injured his internal organs.

There was only one bodyguard in the car behind Liancheng Yazhi. He was already driving unsteadily and seemed to be seriously injured.

Liancheng Yazhi endured the pain and took out his phone from his pocket with his hand. He dialed Secretary Zhou's phone with difficulty.

secretary zhou was awoken from his sleep by liancheng yazhi's phone call. he picked up the phone with a little complaint."Young master ya, what can I do for you?"

Liancheng Yazhi's voice, which had just been connected, was unstable."I was ambushed just now. I'm at the construction section of XX road."

the word 'ambush' instantly jabbed at secretary zhou's brain nerves, causing him to wake up immediately. he was no longer sleepy and jumped out of bed.

Liancheng Yazhi panted and continued, " "A bodyguard and a driver died, and a car was left at the scene. The TV station and the police will definitely be there in a while. You have to go quickly and find a way to dispose of the driver and bodyguard's bodies. Also, destroy that car. Don't let them find out that it was our people. Also, Yueyue, you must find out who did it."

Even through the phone, Secretary Zhou could feel a bone-piercing murderous aura from Liancheng Yazhi's voice. It made him feel like there was a knife at the back of his neck.

"It's young master ya. I'll definitely complete your orders," Secretary Zhou replied loudly.

"Young master ya, are you alright?" he asked carefully.

Liancheng Yazhi glanced at the wound that was still bleeding and said, " "I'm slightly injured."

Secretary Zhou was about to cry. Countless mythical beasts ran through his heart and cursed the person who ambushed him a thousand times. How could you f * cking hurt young master ya? if you hurt boss, he won't come to work even more. If he doesn't come, I'm the one who's in trouble!

secretary zhou's heart was filled with vulgarities. he had to find the murderer who ambushed them and cut them into pieces.

when liancheng yazhi finally returned home, he immediately asked the servants to carry the two bodyguards away for treatment.

He couldn't wait to rush into the hall and go upstairs to look for Rong Yan. Only after experiencing the death god passing by could a person truly understand how happy they were now.

It was already close to midnight. Rong Yan sat by the bed and watched MeowMeow sleep.

Rong Yan heard the door open. Before she could turn around, she was hugged tightly from behind by a strong arm. That familiar breath, familiar body temperature, and familiar embrace made Rong Yan relax. She leaned against the chest behind her and said, "you're back. How's uncle Rong?"

"It's pretty good, Yingluo." Liancheng Yazhi lowered his head and buried it in Rong Yan's shoulder. He rubbed his face against her neck and kissed her gently. "Baby, you're my lucky goddess Yingluo."

if it wasn't for Rong Yan forcing him to bring a few bodyguards with him, he probably wouldn't be able to escape unscathed today!

"What happened to you?" Rong Yan suddenly felt that something was wrong. She sniffed hard a few times, and her expression suddenly changed. She shouted in a low voice, "no, why is there such a strong smell of blood? did something happen?"

Chapter 1047 Let me hug you a little longer

Rong Yan wanted to turn around, but Liancheng Yazhi refused to let go of his hand that was holding her. "We ran into a little trouble on the way, but your husband's good. He's solved it?"

Rong Yan's heart suddenly beat violently after hearing that. Liancheng Yazhi had said it so lightly, but she could imagine how shocking it was. She had once experienced a gun battle with Liancheng Yazhi, and that was unforgettable.

Rong Yan said anxiously, "no wonder my right eyelid twitched so badly just now. Are you injured? Let me see."

Not long ago, Rong Yan's right eyelid had suddenly twitched a few times without any warning. Her heart was also a little flustered, as if she was a little out of breath. However, at that time, she didn't think much of it and thought that it was because she had been sleeping late for a long time recently, so her body might not be able to take it.

Liancheng Yazhi did not want to let go and said, "Let me hug you a little longer."

"there'll be plenty of time to hug you in the future. let me see Yingluo first." under Rong Yan's strong struggle, Liancheng Yazhi finally let go of her, but he put his injured arm behind his back.

Rong Yan looked up and saw Liancheng Yazhi's pale face. Even his lips were a little pale. She was so scared that her heart twitched violently, and her voice started to tremble. "You don't look so good. Are you injured?"

Rong Yan's hand quickly checked Liancheng Yazhi's body. He smiled and said, "It's okay, baby, you can't touch it anymore. If you keep touching it, something will really happen, Yingluo."

"You're still talking nonsense at a time like this!" Rong Yan hit his arm in anger, and Liancheng Yazhi gasped in pain.

It was only then that Rong Yan realized that it was his arm that was injured. When she saw Liancheng Yazhi's palm, which was almost completely dyed red by the snow, and his half-soaked sleeve, Rong Yan suddenly felt as if her heart was being squeezed by someone. She was so uncomfortable that she couldn't breathe. Her body trembled a little, and in a trembling voice, she roared, " "Don't you have a brain? why didn't you say that your arm was injured? Why do you have to wait until the blood is clean?"

Rong Yan shook off Liancheng Yazhi and ran outside to shout at the servant downstairs, " "Someone, quickly call Natsume over, hurry, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi walked over and held Rong Yan with his uninjured hand. baby, don't worry. It's fine. I didn't hurt any bones. It's just a penetrating wound and a little scratch. It's not important.

Rong Yan raised her head and glared at him fiercely. shut up!

Liancheng Yazhi's eyelids twitched a few times and he didn't dare to say anything. He knew it. Rong Yan would definitely be angry. He really wanted to be careful the next time he encountered such a thing.

Natsume was quickly called over. He was not surprised to see Liancheng Yazhi's arm. In the past, he used to follow simple things and treated small injuries like three meals a day. He had long been used to it.

Natsume first used a pair of scissors to cut off half of Liancheng Yazhi's sleeve. Then, he used saline solution to clean the blood on his arm before using alcohol to disinfect it.

There was a bloody bullet hole on his arm, and it looked particularly terrifying. Natsume held a pair of tweezers in his hand, which held a disinfectant cotton that had been soaked in alcohol. It was as if he was wiping the table, and it did not look like he was treating a wound at all. Even Rong Yan felt very painful when she looked at it.

However, Liancheng Yazhi was still talking and laughing. Other than his face being a little pale and his forehead being covered in cold sweat, he did not seem to be in pain at all. On the contrary, Rong Yan's face was pale and her other hand that was holding Liancheng Yazhi was trembling.

Chapter 1048 It doesn't hurt at all!

liancheng yazhi even comforted her. " it's alright. it doesn't hurt at all. don't worry. "

"It really doesn't hurt?" Natsume looked up and asked with a smile.

Rong Yan and Liancheng Yazhi scolded at the same time, " "That's enough!"

Natsume shrugged. seriously, don't be so nervous. It's just a small injury. When I cleaned up his simple gunshot wounds in the past, there were a few times when I didn't have any anesthetic and directly used a knife to take out the bullets from his stomach. He didn't even make a sound. You two are making a big fuss out of nothing!

Rong Yan said angrily, "stop talking nonsense. It's simple, but my husband is my husband. It's his own problem that he can't find a wife and is worried about him. Liancheng Yazhi is different from him.

Liancheng Yazhi smiled. that's right. I'm a married man. How can I be the same as him? " Natsume mumbled in a low voice, "fine, fine, fine. I won't say anymore. Sigh, really. Married people are so pampered.

Liancheng Yazhi kicked Natsume. Nonsense, are married people the same as single people?

A single man had to eat his fill and not starve his family. If he died, he would have nothing to worry about. A married man had a family behind him. If something happened to him, he would not be the only one affected.

Natsume bandaged Liancheng Yazhi's wound and instructed, "From today on, don't touch water to avoid infection. Don't do vigorous exercise on his arm for the time being to prevent the wound from splitting open. In order for the wound to heal faster, it's best not to eat spicy and stimulating food. Change the medicine for him the day after tomorrow."

Rong Yan pricked up her ears to listen. is there anything else I need to pay attention to? " okay, I got it, Yingluo. Rong Yan nodded. She wanted to quickly go online to find what was good for blood nourishment so that she could stew it for Liancheng Yazhi every day from tomorrow onwards.

Natsume thought for a moment. I don't think there's any left. Oh, Yingluo, you can make him some blood-enriching soup. Remember to take anti-inflammatory medicine too.

After Natsume left, Rong Yan said to Liancheng Yazhi, " " hurry up and get some rest. don't go to work tomorrow. wait until you've recovered. i'll take meowmeow to take a bath. "

"But I want to take a bath. I've been rolling around on the floor today and I've sweated a lot. My clothes are still wet." Liancheng Yazhi looked at Rong Yan aggrievedly. He had to get some benefits for himself.

Rong Yan wiped away the cold sweat on Liancheng Yazhi's forehead, her heart aching."Then wait for me for a while. I'll arrange for MeowMeow to come over and help you bathe, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi stood up. I'll go with you. My arm is injured, but my body isn't that weak.

Finally, after giving However, when she returned to the bedroom, there was still an injured person waiting for her.

Rong Yan took Liancheng Yazhi's hand and went into the bedroom to turn on the water to help him take off his clothes.

Of course, Liancheng Yazhi could not take a shower in his current condition. It was safer to take a bath.

however, no matter what, the undressing of a man and a woman always had an obvious hidden meaning. the value of ambiguity was rising rapidly, even faster than the blood pressure of those with high blood pressure.

Especially for men, when that gentle little hand touched your body, if you didn't feel anything, it meant that you were sick and needed to take medicine.

Of course, Liancheng Yazhi would not admit that he was sick. He was in good health, so he became restless. Although he could not move one hand, he still had another good hand.

Chapter 1049 she loved this man

However, the moment her hand touched Rong Yan's waist, he slapped it away.

Rong Yan didn't feel embarrassed at all. She stripped Liancheng Yazhi clean from head to toe. Even if she saw something she shouldn't have seen, she was calm as usual and didn't even blink.

Rong Yan touched Liancheng Yazhi's chest and looked at him expressionlessly. father, don't think too much about it in your current situation. It's useless to think about it.

"I only injured my arm." The other parts of his body were healthy and undamaged.

Rong Yan pulled him and made him sit in the water. but you've lost a lot of blood now, so you're very weak. Also, don't forget what Natsume said just now. Don't do any strenuous exercise.

Liancheng Yazhi immediately sighed and lowered his head. He had suffered a blow and did not want to say anything.

Rong Yan quickly applied shower gel and washed it to Liancheng Yazhi's liking. She also washed her head in passing. It took less than 15 minutes in total. This was all the experience she had accumulated from bathing MeowMeow.

alright, you're out. You're so tired. Go to sleep. Rong Yan was so tired today that her whole body was sore and she wanted to quickly lie in bed and sleep.

After coming out of the bathroom, the two of them finally lay on the bed and heaved a long sigh of relief.

Liancheng Yazhi hugged Rong Yan and lowered his head to kiss her between her eyebrows."Honey, you've worked hard."

Rong Yan shook her head. I'm fine. But you ... In the future, when you go out every day, you must bring more bodyguards with you. Don't let this kind of thing happen again. I'm very worried and afraid. Nothing can happen to you.

Although Rong Yan wasn't at the scene when Liancheng Yazhi had an accident today, every time she thought about it, she would feel frightened and terrified.

A few years ago, when she left, she could bear the fact that she didn't have Liancheng Yazhi by her side, but now, she couldn't.

She loved this man. She loved the Father of her child!

Liancheng Yazhi nodded with a smile. okay, I'll listen to you. You're my lucky goddess. Fortunately, you asked me to take a few more people with me when I left today.

Rong Yan leaned sideways on Liancheng Yazhi's chest and wrapped her arms around his waist. With such intimate contact and feeling each other's body temperature and breath, the fear in Rong Yan's heart lessened a little. who would be so ruthless? we're in the city. How dare they be so bold?

Although that area was under construction, it was about a kilometer's walk to a residential area. If anyone discovered it and called the police, the police would arrive in less than ten minutes. Those people dared to attack. They were really bold. It was a completely suicidal attack. They didn't care about their lives.

Moreover, the imperial capital had always been the place where Liancheng Yazhi operated. If they dared to assassinate him and the location of the ambush was so precise, they either knew Liancheng Yazhi's route in advance, or there was a traitor in Wanwan?

Rong Yan asked Liancheng Yazhi, "how did they know that you would pass by that street?" do you have a traitor by your side?"

Liancheng Yazhi's hand gently rubbed Rong Yan's shoulder. I don't think so. I decided on the route on my way back at the last minute. I think Yingying knows me well and guessed that I can't wait to go home. She guessed that I would take a shortcut, so she ambushed me there.

Rong Yan still didn't quite understand, 'but even if we take a shortcut, there's more than one road? How could they be so sure that you would take that path?"

Chapter 1050-if you want to die, grant them their wish

Liancheng Yazhi smiled and pinched Rong Yan's chin. idiot, maybe they've set up an ambush on every route I can take!

Rong Yan's mouth opened wide in surprise, "so bold!" You really don't want to live anymore."

How many people would be needed to set up an ambush point on every road? and with such a big commotion, did they really think the police in the capital were dead? Did they really think that they could come and go as they pleased in a place that Liancheng Yazhi had managed for so many years?

Liancheng Yazhi sneered. there is no shortage of people who are not afraid of death in this world. But it's okay. If they dare to come, I dare to take their attacks. It's easy to seek death. I'll fulfill their wishes.

"Ah, Yingluo, wait. I just remembered something." Rong Yan quickly sat up, turned over, and took the tablet from the coffee table at the head of the bed.

"What's wrong?"

Rong Yan turned on her tablet and quickly typed a few words. "I'll check what blood-restoring Kasaya is."

two black lines appeared on Liancheng Yazhi's forehead. he really didn't want to drink tonic soup.

He took the tablet from Rong Yan and said, " don't check this yet. Let's look at the news first. I think the reporters from the TV station are already there. The press release should have been released by now.

Sure enough, she soon found the news on the current affairs Hot List. The hot tab was very long, and it was written like this: #intense gunfight at 11 p.m. In the city, the scene was like movie stunts #

There was also a short news video. In the video, a male reporter was at the scene. Behind him was a police cordon, and many were collecting evidence on the spot.

The male reporter stood outside the cordon and reported, " "Just half an hour ago, there was a very bad gunfight here. Right now, the place behind me is the scene of the gunfight. There are eight bodies and four cars at the scene. The cars were all destroyed beyond recognition. There were many bullet shells on the ground, as well as bloodstains. Regarding the gunfight that happened in the city center, this station will continue to report on it for you.”

Because it was dark, Rong Yan couldn’t see clearly. She could only see a few deformed cars. She looked at the cars and still felt a lingering fear.”This is the scene?”

After Liancheng Yazhi carefully identified the car, he smiled.”Yes, it should have been dealt with.”

“Who did it?” Rong Yan was curious.

“Secretary Zhou.”

“He’s so fast?” Rong Yan widened her eyes.

The video reported that it was half an hour ago. How did Secretary Zhou manage to arrive so quickly and settle it? [Secretary Zhou (proudly): yes, yes, I’m just that amazing!]

Liancheng Yazhi threw the tablet at him. I called him on my way back. The driver and bodyguard died there, and my car. If the police arrive, they’ll be able to find me very quickly. Naturally, I have to deal with it quickly.

Just as he finished speaking, Secretary Zhou called. young master ya, the people and the car have been taken care of. I guarantee that they won’t be able to find any clues!

Liancheng Yazhi was very satisfied with Secretary Zhou’s speed. okay, Wanwan, go to the company earlier tomorrow. I have something for you to do.

Secretary Zhou was ecstatic. What? Young master ya will be going to the company tomorrow. Oh, young master ya, you’re really a beautiful boss!

After hanging up the phone, Rong Yan was angry. you’re not allowed to go tomorrow. We’ll talk again after you’ve recovered.
