

Permit Me 1381

Chapter 1381-killing the captain

Liancheng Yazhi's goal was very clear. He was going straight to the first floor to find the captain who had blasphemed him with those disgusting eyes and words on the deck today!

From the moment they boarded the ship, Liancheng Yazhi had wanted to kill Captain Wolford.

Now that the time had finally come, Liancheng Yazhi was still a little excited at the thought of being able to stab the knife into the captain's heart and cut his pulse!

Liancheng Yazhi's memory was outstanding, and the map that he had just seen was completely in his mind.

According to his memory, he bypassed the two firing points and went behind them.

the firing points were well hidden. two people in a team, one in charge of shooting, one in charge of observation.

The two of them complained as they lay there.

" it's useless for the boss to let us guard it. it's so late and we're at sea. what can happen? "

yeah, it's so late and we're the only ones here. The others are drinking, sleeping, and taking drugs. I heard that there are a few tender Asian flesh today. Now, the boss and the others must be playing them to death. When it's our turn, they'll probably be corpses.

Liancheng Yazhi narrowed his eyes, and the murderous intent in his eyes moved back and forth. His lips curled into an evil sneer. He aimed the gun in his hand at the back of one of the men's head and pulled the trigger.

The shot made a weak sound, and the bullet pierced through the man's head. He had not fallen, and before one of them could figure out what had happened, Liancheng Yazhi's second bullet had arrived. The bullet went through the head and he died on the spot without any signs of life.

To him, killing people like this was really boring!

Blood slowly seeped out from their gunshot wounds. Liancheng Yazhi kicked the two bodies away and found four grenades on them.

Liancheng Yazhi took the grenade and left quickly.

The route he had chosen only led him to the captain's cabin, so there were the most ambush points along the way. Some of them could not be seen from the surface. Fortunately, Liancheng Yazhi had looked at the map in advance. Otherwise, he would have been discovered halfway!

After taking care of four ambush points in a row, Liancheng Yazhi finally went down to the first floor through the stairs.

the entire first floor was filled with surveillance cameras, and on both sides of the first floor leading to the captain's cabin, there were many cabins for the crew. they were, of course, to protect wolford. if anything happened, they would be the closest to him, so they would be the fastest to appear and protect the captain.

Liancheng Yazhi stood at the entrance to the first floor and did not move. He was observing the surveillance cameras and thinking about how to avoid them.

However, there were many surveillance cameras. If one of them was broken, those people could still think that it was an accident. If all of them were destroyed, it would definitely arouse suspicion!

After thinking for a while, Liancheng Yazhi turned back and came to the ambush point that he had dealt with. He carried a white man who was about the same height as him, put a hat on him, and then found a wine bottle and stuffed it into his hand.

On the other hand, Liancheng Yazhi took off the other person's shirt and put it on himself. He dressed up as a crew member and helped a drunkard back to his room!

At night, the corridor on the first floor wasn't very bright. The two drunkards staggered back to their room, which wasn't strange to the people on the boat.

Liancheng Yazhi supported a dead man and directly entered the cabin closest to the captain. He pushed open the door, and the light instantly dimmed. Before Liancheng Yazhi raised his head, the gun in his hand was already aimed at the person sleeping on the bed on the left.

Chapter 1382-impatient

Liancheng Yazhi's blood had been modified by the Liancheng family for several generations, which would make the bodies of the Liancheng family's descendants stronger and their five senses more sensitive than ordinary people.

Even in the dark, Liancheng Yazhi's vision could see further than ordinary people.

The two crew members lying on the bed were still in a deep sleep. Neither of them had woken up.

Liancheng Yazhi aimed at the head of one of them, pulled the trigger, and shot. Then, he left the dead man on his shoulder and went to the other crew member's bed. He slowly took out his military knife and first covered the man's nose and mouth. He did not kill him immediately. Instead, he waited for the man to wake up with difficulty in breathing before he gave him a cruel smile. When the man was terrified and tried to struggle and shout, he cut his throat with the knife and instantly stopped his breathing!

Looking at the man bleeding in front of him, Liancheng Yazhi raised his eyebrows and felt a little murderous!

After dealing with the two people in the room, Liancheng Yazhi immediately took off the coat that he had just put on and kicked it in disgust.

liancheng yazhi did not go out immediately. he was thinking about the position of the surveillance camera that he had just turned on.

When the surveillance cameras were installed, those people probably only wanted to protect the captain's safety. They thought that the enemies were coming from the outside, so the surveillance cameras were all facing outward. Even if they could turn, they could only move 60 degrees. Now that he was in the innermost area, he would not be discovered!

Therefore, they could now directly enter the captain's room!

liancheng yazhi rubbed his chin excitedly!

He opened the door and walked out quietly.

The captain's door was locked from the inside, which made Liancheng Yazhi very annoyed. However, this did not stop him.

Wasn't it just a lock? It's no big deal!

Liancheng Yazhi took out his military knife and inserted the tip into the keyhole. After turning it for a while, the cabin door opened with a light click.

Liancheng Yazhi slowly pushed open the cabin door. However, just as he was about to step in, his body trembled and he stopped.

He could hear the sound of footsteps inside. It was very, very light, but he could hear it.

Liancheng Yazhi held his military saber tightly. It seemed that Wolford had woken up. But it made sense. If he was completely defenseless like the others, he would not be qualified to be their boss!

Liancheng Yazhi was not nervous at all. Instead, he was even more excited!

this was because only then would tao wu be worth a battle. only then would he be worthy of killing him personally!

worford's voice came from inside, " "Since the guests outside are already here, why don't they come in?"

The corners of Liancheng Yazhi's eyes twitched, and he said in his heart, " Honey, don't worry, I won't get hurt!

he lifted his feet and walked in. the moment his feet entered the cabin, a dazzling light instantly lit up, and the door behind him closed with a bang.

Liancheng Yazhi narrowed his eyes and only opened them after his eyes had adapted to the strong light.

then he saw wolfford's bare upper body, only wearing a pair of floral shorts, and the disgusting chest hair on his chest extended all the way to his abdomen. he looked like an uncivilized savage.

Walford held a submachine gun in his hand and the muzzle was pointed at Liancheng Yazhi. He looked at Liancheng Yazhi's indecent and lewd behavior and whistled at him."Hey Baby Yingying, why are you in such a hurry to come to my room? i was going to let you rest for the night, but it seems like you're even more eager than i am!"

Chapter 1383 The smell of blood liancheng yazhi was not flustered at all. his eyes were cold and emotionless, but there was a charming and elegant smile on his lips. in his eyes, the big man in front of him was already dead.

Liancheng Yazhi pinched his fingers and nodded. " yes, you're right. i'm more eager than you are! " on the other hand, wolford could not wait to press the lion on the anvil like a fish!

He couldn't wait to kill the red-faced Wolford.

However, this big foreign guy did not know that even if Liancheng Yazhi was a fish, he was also a big shark! It could swallow him in one bite.

Worford was not a fool. Liancheng Yazhi had come to his room so late at night, and he had not heard any alarm sounds along the way. He had either avoided everyone or killed everyone. Worford had already observed Liancheng Yazhi and did not find any blood on him.

Therefore, they guessed that he had avoided everyone.

Since that was the case, he would have fun with this Asian beauty. If they were in danger, he would sound the alarm. He had so many men and they were so close anyway.

What Worford did not know was that it was his moment of arrogance that had turned him into a corpse very quickly.

Worford approached Liancheng Yazhi with a submachine gun in his hand. His right index finger was on the trigger. With a lecherous look on his face, he said, " "Oh, little baby, little beauty, you're so beautiful. Yingying, you're so much prettier than Diber. I believe you're more interesting than him too, Yingying."

The Diber that Worford was talking about was a young white man who was lying in bed and trembling in fear. He was not very skinny, but he was very uncomfortable.

Liancheng Yazhi had noticed him the moment he came in. However, this Diber should not be lethal, so Liancheng Yazhi did not give him too much attention.

Liancheng Yazhi was still not angry. Just as he said, there was no need to be angry with a dead person. He smiled faintly and said, "you're right. i'm indeed more flavorful than yingluo. you'll find out soon enough."

Liancheng Yazhi's smell was the smell of killing intent. It was the smell of blood, so it was naturally the most intense.

worford had already arrived in front of liancheng yazhi, the muzzle of the submachine gun pointed at his heart. " oh, my baby, you really know how to talk. in that case, you should obediently throw away the weapon on you. this is very dangerous and doesn't suit you. you just need to take off your clothes and lie on the bed to wait for me. then, you can take a break. " liancheng yazhi nodded without hesitation."Alright, Yingluo."

He dropped the military knife first, then the pistol, and then the grenades by his feet!

He didn't need these things for the time being. There were many ways to kill people, and he didn't have to use these tools!

"No more!" Liancheng Yazhi spread his hands.

"You're such a good girl, Yingying. Now, you can take off your clothes!" Worford nodded in satisfaction. He was almost drooling. The fresh meat in front of him was more delicious than he had ever seen!

Liancheng Yazhi was still smiling. He slowly raised his hand to unzip his shirt and then slowly pulled it down. He took off his coat with the back of his hand and held one of the sleeves as if he was about to throw it down.

The players from Walford were already gulping. "Continue to tease"

Chapter 1384-just this alone is enough to deserve death!

Liancheng Yazhi smiled even more gently at him. Those who knew him knew that nothing good would come out of him smiling like that. He said calmly, "Don't be in such a hurry, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi's fingers that were holding the coat slowly loosened. Just as the coat was about to fall, Liancheng Yazhi's hand grabbed the coat again as fast as lightning. He turned his wrist and threw the coat up. The black coat seemed to come to life in Liancheng Yazhi's hands. He played with it like a whip and wrapped it around the submachine gun in Walford's hand. With a strong tug, it was instantly taken out of his hands.

With a bang, the assault rifle fell to the ground and slid to the wall.

Only then did Walford react, and the expression on his face was instantly covered with anger. He scolded the doctor, "Fuak....."

He reached out to grab Liancheng Yazhi, but he didn't have a gun, so how could Liancheng Yazhi still be afraid of him?

Big foreigners generally moved slowly. Liancheng Yazhi moved quickly, and the clothes in his hands were like a flexible whip. He had already slapped Walford's face a few times. His strength was very good. It did not hurt very much at first, but after a while, it would hurt more and more!

Walford covered his face, which was red from the slap, and was as angry as an angry gorilla.

He roared at Liancheng Yazhi, "You're dead, Yingluo!"

After saying that, he turned around and was about to press the alarm, but Liancheng Yazhi would never give him the chance.

Liancheng Yazhi quickly took two steps forward. Then, he exerted force on his feet and jumped with all his might onto Walford's back. Then, he grabbed the clothes that had been twisted into a rope with both hands and strangled Walford's neck.

He pulled hard with both hands, and Walford lost his balance and fell to the ground.

Liancheng Yazhi took a step and sat on Walford's back. He stepped hard on the joints of his arms and crushed them. The sound of two bones breaking was particularly harsh.

Liancheng Yazhi's hand that was holding onto his clothes was tightening bit by bit. The veins on the back of his hand were bulging. Walford's face turned from red to purple, and his eyes were bulging. He opened his mouth and breathed hard, but his neck was being strangled so tightly that he could not breathe.

He stomped his feet on the ground and tried to struggle, but as his brain lacked oxygen, his strength was quickly disappearing!

Finally, his legs stopped struggling. The blood vessels in his eyes had burst, and his tongue was sticking out. Everything was telling him that he was dead.

Liancheng Yazhi let go of his hand and shook his sore hand. He stood up and walked to the weapon he had just dropped. He grabbed the pistol, turned back, and shot Walford in the head again.

It was not that he hated Walford, but he wanted to make sure that he was dead!

After killing Walford, Liancheng Yazhi turned to look at Diber, who was lying on the bed.

Diber was already trembling in fear. He rolled down from the bed and knelt on the ground, begging for mercy."Don't kill me, don't kill me, I beg you, I'm only, I'm only, I'm just being caught by him. I don't know anything about the person who provided him with sexual pleasure. I really don't know anything, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi's eyes were cold and emotionless. At this moment, he was cold-blooded."You might not know anything, but you've seen me!"

Just this alone made him deserve to die!

Chapter 1385 Cold-blooded people live longer

"No, no, I won't tell anyone. I won't tell anyone, Yingluo. I beg you, let me go, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi's expression did not change as he raised his hand and raised the gun!

At this time, don't talk about mercy, don't talk about humanity.

This person might not have committed any crimes or done anything wrong, but their current actions could not bear any risks.

diber trembled in fear. "please, please, don't let qianqian and the others sell drugs. qianqian, i've never done human trafficking before. they used drugs to control me, qianqian. i was only a college student before, qianqian."

"as long as you let me go, i can tell you where all the money in walford is hidden,"

In the midst of his begging, Liancheng Yazhi still pulled the trigger.

The bullet hit Diber right in the middle of his forehead. His voice stopped abruptly, and his body fell to the ground.

Liancheng Yazhi bent down to pick up his weapon and put on the clothes he had used to strangle someone just now. Then, he picked up the Walford submachine gun.

Suddenly, Liancheng Yazhi inadvertently saw a tattoo on the back of Diber's neck, and Walford had the same tattoo in the same position, the pattern of an eagle's head.

Liancheng Yazhi narrowed his eyes when he saw this.

How could a plaything that provided sex to people have the same tattoo as their boss? Don't joke around.

Liancheng Yazhi was even more glad that he had made Diber stupid. Otherwise, who knew what would have happened to Qingqing?

Liancheng Yazhi saw that Diber seemed to be holding something in his right hand.

He walked over and pried open his hand. There was a skull ring in his palm. The eyes of the skull were embedded with rubies. They glowed under the light, looking very strange.

Liancheng Yazhi did not hold it with his hand. He picked it up with his military saber and update ring.

After studying it carefully, Liancheng Yazhi was sure that there was a small launcher in the skull ring, and there must be something like a poisonous needle in it.

If Liancheng Yazhi had not killed Diber just now or had been a step later, the poison needle in the ring might have hit him.

Liancheng Yazhi slowly stood up and the gun in his hand automatically fired two shots at Diber.

The man lying on Wolford's bed was not just a sex slave. His status on the ship was probably not low.

Liancheng Yazhi sneered. 'See, don't abuse your sympathy. Cold-blooded people often live longer!'

Liancheng Yazhi originally wanted to throw the ring away, but he kept it in the end. Who knew if he would need it in the future?

Liancheng Yazhi swept his eyes around the cabin in Wolford. What made him despise this man was that there seemed to be nothing else other than prostitution, gambling, and drugs. There were all kinds of drugs, all kinds of colorful CDs, and a lot of sex toys in the room!

nothing useful could be found.

Liancheng Yazhi was extremely disgusted. He could not find anything useful, so he left the cabin.

There were still many crew members in the cabins outside that had yet to be dealt with. Next, it was time to continue the massacre.

liancheng yazhi held a submachine gun in one hand and his own pistol in the other. he opened the door and swaggered out.

After killing Wolford, there was no need to worry about the other crew members. As for the surveillance cameras, it did not matter whether they could see it or not!

Chapter 1386 I just can't stand you

Liancheng Yazhi went out of the cabin in Wolford and pushed open the cabin rooms where the crew lived one after another. He pointed the Wolford submachine gun in his hand at the crew members who were still sleeping or had just woken up and fired a series of shots.

The crew members who did not even have a gun in their hands fell to the ground one by one without much effort.

This crazy slaughter lasted less than ten minutes!

Blood was slowly flowing out of the doors of all the rooms on the first floor, and the air was filled with the pungent smell of blood!

Then, an alarm sounded on the Xuanji ship. Liancheng Yazhi guessed that the people in the monitoring room had seen his actions and pressed the alarm.

However, pressing the button now would not do them any harm.

After such a long time, it had already been an hour, and everyone should have taken care of most of the enemies. Now that the alarm had sounded, it was the perfect time to lure the snake out of its hole, luring out those who had not been found yet.

Liancheng Yazhi slowly walked out of the first floor and walked back the way he had come.

After killing such a group of people, Liancheng Yazhi's depression that had been in his heart for many days finally dissipated a lot.

Returning to the second floor, Liancheng Yazhi met with a few sporadic resistance on the way, but they were not of much use and were quickly dealt with.

He returned to the room that the two of them had been in. The other people in the room had not returned yet, but gunshots could be heard around them. Liancheng Yazhi did not go out immediately. He replenished his ammunition and rested for a while before going out.

This time, Liancheng Yazhi went to the kitchen.

He hadn't had a proper meal for many days. Now that the people on the boat were almost done with their meal, Yueyue could finally eat without worry!

When they went around the deck, Liancheng Yazhi saw Jian'an fighting with a tall Latino man who was about 1.9 meters tall. The guns in their hands were gone, and both sides were fighting fiercely.

Although the tall man was big, he was also very flexible. Moreover, he was clearly a grappler master with rich experience and extremely brutal means. He was not much weaker than Jian Yi.

Liancheng Yazhi saw that Jian Jie's face already had some slight scratches, but the kind fighting spirit and crazy bloodthirsty red light in his eyes made others understand how excited he was now that he had finally met an opponent who was not too far away in strength!

Liancheng Yazhi stood at the side and watched for a while. He pursed his lips in disdain. Hmph, I just won't let you hit me to your heart's content.

He quickly raised his pistol and shot the big guy. The bullet flew out of the muzzle.

Although shooting in the dark was rather uncultured, Liancheng Yazhi didn't care. He didn't need any class!

As a result, the big guy, who was still alive and kicking just now, suddenly trembled and fell to the ground with a loud bang. Blood flew out from his head and splattered all over the simple man's face.

Jian Jie was stunned for a moment before he reacted. He turned around abruptly, wiped the blood off his face, and shouted at Liancheng Yazhi, "Liancheng Yazhi, what are you doing? Who told you to shoot?"

Liancheng Yazhi shrugged his shoulders innocently and raised the gun in his hand. "I'm saving you!"

Of course I won't say that I don't want to see you having so much fun!

Jian Jie gritted her teeth in anger. She finally found a dog to play with in the pile of sheep, but it was shot by Liancheng Yazhi. "Who asked you to save him? Didn't you see that I almost knocked him down?"

Chapter 1387 Kill his best friend

Liancheng Yazhi smiled at him. I didn't. See. It-

Liancheng Yazhi waved at the simplified version. there are still more than two hours before dawn. Zhenzhen, hurry up. Don't waste time here!

"Where are you going?" he asked simply.

Liancheng Yazhi, who had already walked far away, threw him two words from afar."The kitchen!"

Along the way, he easily dealt with a few fish that escaped the net as he rushed to the kitchen.

There was a lot of food in the kitchen. Although there weren't many vegetables, there was a lot of meat, mushrooms, flour, and other ingredients!

Most of these things needed to be processed again, but Liancheng Yazhi did not know how to process them. Fortunately, they were simple.

Liancheng Yazhi glanced at the simple package that had followed him in."Why did you follow me here?"

he simply walked past him and looked around the kitchen. he took out some potatoes and threw them to liancheng yazhi."of course it's to eat! Are you not hungry? Go, peel off the skin."

liancheng yazhi didn't say that he didn't want to do it because he knew that he only needed to peel the potato and the rest was simple, and he was waiting to eat.

He simply opened the large freezer and found a piece of beef and a chicken.

liancheng yazhi asked,"are you sure it's beef?" Can I eat it?"

Jian Jie rolled her eyes at him. you don't have to eat it after I'm done. Peel the potatoes and go wash the mushrooms.

Liancheng Yazhi sighed. He felt that it was a waste if he was not helping his wife wash the vegetables. After he went home, he had already made up for it. "if you make more, we can probably finish an entire cow by now."

Simply use hot water to melt the chicken and beef that had been frozen into bricks!

"Don't worry, it's enough."

liancheng yazhi threw the peeled potatoes into the basin. "can you guess how the three of them are now?"

Simple na was cracking an egg. it should be fine. You heard a lot of gunshots around us. It wasn't them. Also, after two shots, there was no sound. They were probably killed!

The two of them were leisurely chatting and cooking in the kitchen. They weren't the least bit worried about whether mu weibai and the other two were Dead or Alive. The gunshots outside didn't affect their mood.

Liancheng Yazhi was a little envious of the other three. the three of them are good. They don't need to cook. They can eat directly when they come back!

He remembered something and said to the person who had already put a small bowl of eggs in the pot and was frying eggs, " by the way, when I went to kill wolfford, I killed one of his friends. The man said that wolfford was involved in drug and human trafficking. Do you think there's anyone on this ship that they're selling? "

" then, yingluo is almost there. there must be some. " The simple spatula in his hand stopped. Aiyo, that's a problem. If there's really a large group of people, do we still have to feed them? " of course not. It's best not to be discovered with our current appearance. If this ship wants to hide people, there must be a lot of them. If we kill so many people, how many bullets would we waste? "

"are you that kind?" liancheng yazhi raised his eyebrows.

it's easy. After dinner, check the nearest sea route and pick the nearest Coast that can be disembarked. Before the ship touches land, we'll leave directly in a small motorboat. Before we leave, we'll send a distress signal on the ship. When the time comes, a search and rescue boat will naturally come and rescue them!

Chapter 1388 A rare moment of relaxation

Liancheng Yazhi had already estimated that they would adjust the sea route when they returned. The nearest shore that they could land on might not necessarily be a coastal port. They estimated that it would only take two or three days. In these few days, they would at most throw some bread and water to the place where those people were being held, and they would not care about anything else.

The five of them were not the Holy Father, it was enough to leave those people alive!

Jian Jie nodded and admired Liancheng Yazhi's method. yes, that's what we'll do. It's their business whether they can last until the rescue boat arrives. It has nothing to do with us!

After about half an hour, the gunshots stopped completely.

The aroma of the beef and chicken that had been simply stewed in two large pots had already spread.

Liancheng Yazhi had already started eating the eggs in his arms. He finally tasted normal food. Although the simple cooking skills were average, Liancheng Yazhi still ate a lot.

They simply washed their hands and ate the eggs with their hands. The kitchen was full of knives and forks, all of which had been used by others. Neither of them was willing to use them. They believed that their hands were clean.

the gunshots outside have stopped, " he asked simply. should we go and get them? "

Liancheng Yazhi shook his head. no need. We'll talk after you're done cooking.

After another ten minutes, mu weibai's group of three actually found the kitchen.

Smelling the fragrance, mu weibai threw the gun down. well, you two are hiding in the kitchen and eating secretly. That's not very nice of you.

Liancheng Yazhi laughed. isn't this enough? we'll make it for you guys.

He simply blocked mu weibai's outstretched hand, wait, go wash your hands with disinfectant first. By the way, how did you know we were in the kitchen? "

Chen Li took off his blood-stained jacket and placed the pistol on his waist. He washed his hands and let go of the gun.”after we went back, we saw that you weren’t there. we guessed that you must have come to the kitchen to find food.”

Finally, they had passed the life and death crisis and resolved all the dangers. The five of them could finally relax. For the five of them who had just swept through the entire ship, this was the only time they could relax.

it’s all settled. Liancheng Yazhi asked them. are there any survivors? ”

Mu weibai ate the egg in big mouthfuls. “There should be no survivors, but we still need to check again!”

“Let’s talk after dinner.”

Using a simple spoon to stir the chicken in the pot: “Eat your fill, there’s still physical labor later.”

The few of them were stunned, but they quickly understood what physical labor was all about.

So many people had died on the ship. It was too inauspicious. Now that they were out in the sea, it was very convenient to dispose of the bodies. After throwing the bodies back, there were sharks waiting to eat.

the meat that everyone had been looking forward to was finally ready. they had considered that there were no chopsticks before the meal, so the meat was cut into very large pieces. it was easier to eat it by pinching it with one’s hands.

just as they were enjoying the meal, chen li suddenly said, ” “we checked the warehouse marked on the today. can you guess what’s inside?”

Jian Jie and Liancheng Yazhi did not even raise their heads. They each held a chicken leg and gnawed on it. At the same time, they said, “People!”

“Ah, how did you know?”

“Tell me, how many people are there? did anyone see your faces?” he asked simply.

there were about 100 people with covers, most of whom were women and children. I don’t think ran ran saw our faces clearly, right? “Chen Li was not too sure either.

think carefully. If there is, even if there is a possibility of being seen, we must deal with it.

Chapter 1389 Chapter 1389-thrilling

Liancheng Yazhi threw away the chicken bone in his hand, picked up another chicken wing, and continued to eat. His expression did not change at all when he said what he had just said.

Chen Li hesitated. I’m not sure about that. The people outside might or might not have seen Yingluo. They’re all people who have been trafficked. They’re quite pitiful and they’re innocent people! I don’t think it’s a good idea to just kill him.”

“Do you think it’s worth it to put yourself in danger because of their innocence?”

Chen Li thought for a while and nodded, I know what to do.

Mu weibai said, " let's continue eating. We've finally eaten human food. We can live like normal people for the next two days.

It was impossible to count how much the five of them had eaten. In any case, the chicken bones had already filled a bowl of cicadas.

After the meal, they divided the work in an orderly manner. Two people in a group went to collect the corpses and then threw them into the sea.

As for the remaining Chen Li, he naturally had his own responsibilities!

they worked until noon before the last body was thrown into the sea. the shark that had been following them saw what was thrown down and jumped out of the sea. it opened its mouth, accurately caught the body, and then fell into the water!

Liancheng Yazhi let out a long sigh of relief as he welcomed the salty sea breeze."I'm finally done. Now I just want to take a hot bath and have a good sleep!"

It would be best if he had a dream with his wife and daughter in it!

looking at the boundless sea, he said, " although the ship is safe, we still have to set the route and arrange for people to keep watch. "

Liancheng Yazhi patted the simple shoulder. yes, you guys go ahead. I'm going to take a nap. I'll help you guys after I'm done sleeping.

" hey, you're so weak. " jian looked at lian Cheng yazhi, who was walking away, and shook his head weakly!

Every day at Liancheng Yazhi's side was full of ups and downs and extremely thrilling, while Rong Yan was quite calm at home. There were no assassinations or threats. The only thing Rong Yan was worried about was the increasing pressure on Secretary Zhou from the company.

he had seen secretary zhou a few times recently, and the fatigue on his face was getting worse. the dark shadows under his eyes were probably not covered up even if he put on thick powder.

Secretary Zhou had lost quite a bit of weight compared to when Liancheng Yazhi left, and his eyes were sunken.

Every time Rong Yan saw it, she felt sorry for Secretary Zhou.

It was February 10th of the lunar calendar, March 11th of the Gregorian calendar. At this time, Liancheng Yazhi had been away from home for a month and 10 days. There was still no news of him, and they still did not know when he would be able to return home.

Rong Yan was getting more and more anxious. MeowMeow had already made a fuss many times. Why wasn't her father back yet? Rong Yan had almost used up all the excuses she could think of. Moreover, her energy had been getting worse and worse recently, and she always felt tired easily.

On this day, after she had comforted

"Sister, are you alright?" Rong nuo quickly asked.

Rong Yan's face was a little pale. She bit her lip and thought for a while, then said to Rong nuo, go and tell Butler li to get Natsume here.

rong nuo nodded repeatedly. "oh, okay. sister, sit down first. i'll go hand in the summer eye. i'll be back soon."

Rong nuo quickly ran out, and Rong Yan sat on the sofa for a while. She clenched her hands for a while, then finally released them and slowly placed them on her lower abdomen.

Chapter 1390 The second pregnancy

Soon, Rong nuo ran back with Natsume. doctor Xia, please take a look at my sister. She almost fainted just now, Yingluo.

Natsume put down the first aid kit and asked, 'you almost fainted? You don't look too good. Have you been lacking in nutrition recently and eating too little?'

Rong Yan did not let Natsume show her immediately. "Natsume, come with me to the study. Rong nuo, you come too."

Natsume and Rong nuo were somewhat baffled. See a doctor? To the study room, huh?

"What's the matter?" Natsume asked Rong Yan when they arrived at the study.

Rong Yan sat down. what other reason could I have for looking for you? I just want you to give me a physical examination.

Natsume was suspicious. Why did he have to go to the study room for a physical examination? however, he did not ask much, as he was not the kind of person to talk too much. "What's wrong? Where do you feel uncomfortable?"

Rong Yan hesitated for a while before she slowly said, "It's not that I'm not feeling well. My period didn't come this month, so I suspect Yingluo."

She didn't finish her sentence, but everyone understood.

After Rong nuo heard this, she covered her mouth in surprise and did not even dare to make a sound, afraid of disturbing Rong Yan.

Natsume was also stunned for a while before he reacted, "Alright, Wanwan, let me take your pulse first."

Natsume was naturally proficient in traditional Chinese medicine. He was very skilled in things like taking a pulse.

Rong Yan reached out her hand, and Natsume quickly sat opposite her, his finger gently touching her wrist to check her pulse.

Natsume carefully felt it. After five minutes, he retracted his hand with a serious expression.

Rong Yan's heart tightened when she saw Natsume's serious expression. "How is it? Is it what I'm thinking?"

just to be on the safe side, " Natsume said after a moment, " come back to the lab with me. We'll do a scientific test.

Rong Yan swallowed her saliva and glanced at Rong nuo.

“Eldest sister, I’ll go with you.” Rong nuo quickly helped her up.

The three of them arrived at Natsume’s laboratory nervously. After that, Rong Yan went to the toilet.

Natsume then did a detailed urine test on Rong Yan’s urine sample.

Actually, the pregnancy urine test took a short time, but Natsume repeatedly checked it for more than half an hour in order to make sure it was accurate. He then stood up and said to the nervous and anxious program team, ” “Young Madam, you’re pregnant. You’re two months and ten days pregnant.”

Two months and ten days. This meant that when Liancheng Yazhi left, she had already been pregnant for a month!

Although Rong Yan had already guessed some of the results, she was still so shocked that she could not say anything for a long time when she heard Natsume say it personally.

On the other hand, Rong nuo was so excited that she jumped up and hugged Rong Yan, shouting happily, “Wow, big sister, you’re pregnant Yingluo, you have a baby. That’s great, that’s great Yingluo!”

“no wonder you’ve been in low spirits recently and always doze off. it’s all because of this little guy!”

“Yes, there’s finally one. Hanhan Yazhi and I have been looking forward to this for a long time. Hanhan is finally here.” Rong Yan came back to her senses and looked down at her flat stomach. She touched it gently with her hand, her eyes full of motherly love and gentleness that could change all things.

In the beginning, she felt that the clothes were a little tight and thought that she had gained weight. Later on, she was not in good spirits and always felt sleepy, but she didn’t take it seriously. It was only in the last ten days or so that Rong Yan suddenly remembered that her period didn’t seem to come. Then, she began to have doubts.

Hearing that the child was finally here, Rong Yan was really happy. She thought how great it would be if Liancheng Yazhi was here at this moment. He wanted a child so much, and now he finally had one.
