

Permit Me 1451

Chapter 1451 The Liancheng Group can't do without him after this reshuffling, I believe it will not bring turmoil to the company, but more stability. My husband, Liancheng Yazhi, has been sick recently, so he can't come to the company, but he has been paying attention to the company's Affairs, big and small. Although Secretary Zhou is the acting president he personally appointed, he still comes to my house to ask my husband for a lot of decisions.

secretary zhou stood behind rong yan and nodded at everyone. " that's right. I will make my own decisions for ordinary matters, but major matters require young master ya to make the decisions personally. Although young master ya is not in the company, his eyes are always watching.

Rong Yan waited for Secretary Zhou to finish before she said, " what I did today was also with his permission. Otherwise, how could I have such a great ability as a woman? I'm telling you all this because I want you to know that Liancheng Yazhi is always here. He will naturally return to the company after he recuperates.

When Rong Yan was telling these lies, her face was so sincere that she could even see how her husband had told her.

from now on, I hope that everyone can work together with sincerity and be United. For you, it doesn't matter who the president is. What's important is whether he can bring more benefits to the company and double your bonuses and salaries. Up until now, everyone has been paid a fair amount of salary and bonuses, right? but if Hu Mingde and his gang really succeed in usurping power, do you think you can still have your peaceful days? " after a pause, rong yan continued, "i don't know anything about company management, but i know that the company will only be stable if the top management is stable. when the company is stable, everyone's public funds will be stable, and they won't lose their jobs. yazhi told me that if everyone can complete the company's targets on time at the end of this quarter, they will be given two more months of bonus. he encouraged everyone."

After Rong Yan finished speaking, she bowed to everyone.

a moment later, thunderous applause came from the audience.

Rong Yan pushed everything she did today to Liancheng Yazhi, making everyone think that it was all Liancheng Yazhi's orders.

The main purpose was to intimidate the entire plane and make everyone more convinced.

If others thought that she was the one who did it, it was inevitable that they would overthink it. Not to mention that men would always look down on women, other people would also think that she wanted to take this opportunity to put Lian Cheng Jia into her hands and become 'Wu Zetian'.

In order to avoid this possibility, she had to push all the blame to Liancheng Yazhi.

Secretary Zhou quickly stood up to help. young Madam, you are right. I will continue to be the acting president for a period of time until young master ya fully recovers. However, I believe that this day will come very soon. I hope that everyone will be able to bear with it when they see me in the future. If it doesn't work, I can wear a mask or something.

In order to ease the atmosphere, Secretary Zhou made fun of himself.

The people in the audience all smiled after hearing Secretary Zhou's words.

In the end, after everyone's recommendation, an honest-looking senior executive sitting in the first row stood up. He was a little embarrassed, but in the end, he still said, "we are the employees of the Liancheng Group and will naturally serve the company with all our hearts. Madam, you don't have to worry. We will definitely work as one and bring the company to a higher level. Please go back and tell the president not to worry about the company and that he must recuperate well while we wait for His return. Here, on behalf of all the employees, I wish the president a speedy recovery. The Liancheng Group can not do without him.

Chapter 1452 I'll accompany her

Rong Yan finally heaved a sigh of relief. She smiled and said, "thank you for your blessings. I'll definitely bring it.

I've wasted too much of everyone's time today. I hope you don't mind. It's time for lunch. Let's go and have lunch.

When she saw that the crowd below had gradually dispersed, Rong Yan felt as if all the strength in her body had been sapped away in an instant. Her legs went soft and she almost fell into the chair. Fortunately, Rong nuo quickly held her arm from the side."Sister, what's wrong?"

Rong Yan sat down slowly and said weakly, "I'm fine. I'm just putting on an act for so long. It's finally over. I've lost all my energy.

Pregnant women were already mentally weak. In addition, her pregnancy reactions were so serious that they had not yet passed. Her physical strength was already very poor. Now, she had held on for so long because she had a strong will in her heart. She had to help her husband keep the company and not let it fall into the hands of others.

Now that the matter had been resolved, he no longer had the strength to continue.

Secretary Zhou wanted to say something, but he felt embarrassed.

He was a man, but he couldn't take care of the company and had to make the pregnant young Madam step in. He really didn't have the face to say anything.

rong nuo's face was full of worry. "sister, how are you now? can you walk? is the baby okay?"

Rong Yan shook her head. I'm fine. If I'm fine, I'll be fine after a rest, Zhenzhen.

sis, is there anything you want to eat? we're out and it's time to eat. We can't let you go hungry.

"I'm not hungry, it's fine, Yingluo."

After resting for nearly 20 minutes, Rong Yan managed to take a few sips. Secretary Zhou had someone send hot water over. When she recovered a little, she got up and left the auditorium.

After this event, Rong Yan's reputation had completely spread throughout the entire Corporation. From the hall to the parking lot, everyone she met bowed to her and shouted, "The president's wife, Wanwan."

Rong Yan was a little embarrassed.

When they finally got in the car, Rong Yan heaved a sigh of relief and completely collapsed.
drive faster, “Rong nuo said to the driver. let’s hurry home.

“sis, get natsume to check on you as soon as you get home. it’s been a long day, i’m tired just looking at you.”

Rong Yan nodded and said,”yes, we’ll talk about it when we get back, Yingluo.”

When they passed an intersection, the car stopped. Rong Yan looked out of the window and saw a few young girls in student uniforms. Each of them had a variety of snacks in their hands. They were eating while chatting as they crossed the road.

Even though she didn’t smell it at all, Rong Yan suddenly felt herself swallowing her saliva and feeling a little hungry.

rong yan licked her lips and said to rong nuo, “rong nuo, i, ran ran, suddenly thought of the food street in front of our high school. you guys can go and eat.”

Rong nuo immediately refused,”ah? No, no, it’s after school now, and there are too many people. Those children are all running very fast, what if they bump into you? no, you can’t.”

Rong Yan thought about it and agreed. She grabbed Rong nuo’s hand. “Then how about you go buy some for me? I really want to eat some Yingluo now.”

this is the first time I’ve heard you say you want to eat something, ” said Rong nuo happily. sure, I’ll go buy it. Sis, what do you want to eat? ”

Rong Yan thought for a while and said,”we used to eat those kinds of food, so you should buy some crickets.”

Tang Zong, who had been eavesdropping on their conversation, hurriedly said,”Then stop at the intersection ahead. I’ll go with her.”

Chapter 1453-adulterous affair exposed?

Rong Yan’s eyes darted back and forth between the two of them. Her sharp gaze made Tang Zong’s heart tremble.

Only then did Tang Zong feel that he had spoken a little too hastily. He hurriedly said, “that, sis, i’m just thinking that yingluo is a girl. what if she meets with some danger when she goes shopping? Besides, Yingluo, I can also help carry things for her, right?”

Rong nuo rolled his eyes. This guy usually looked quite smart, but why was he so stupid now? the more he tried to explain, the more he made things worse.

Even she felt that something was wrong when she heard it, let alone someone as smart as her eldest sister.

Rong nuo sighed silently in her heart. Forget it, forget it. This matter can’t be hidden for long. It will be exposed sooner or later.

Just as Tang Zong was feeling a little lost, Rong Yan said, “Alright, you two can go together.”

Rong Yan could now basically confirm that Tang Zong was interested in Rong nuo. However, she was not sure if Rong nuo was also interested in Tang Zong.

If they were both interested in each other, he would have to deal with them.

After Rong Yan's 'Amnesty order' was issued, Tang Zong finally heaved a sigh of relief. He smiled awkwardly at Rong Yan and only got out of the car with Rong nuo after the car stopped.

Rong nuo said,"sister, you go back first. After I buy the things, I will bring them back."

"alright! you two, hurry up."

Rong Yan watched the two of them leave together. She didn't ask the driver to start the car immediately. Instead, she watched for a while until the two of them disappeared around the corner before she said to the driver, " "let's go," he said.

originally, rong yan wanted to let the driver follow them secretly, but she thought that the two people were too familiar with the car she was in, so the plan to follow them was put on hold.

When they finally returned home, Rong Yan had no energy left.

She sat on the sofa and said to Butler li, " " butler, get me a glass of water. oh, and get natsume to come here. "

Caretaker Li's expression changed when he heard that. "Young Madam, are you feeling unwell?"

Rong Yan shook her head. no. I just feel very tired.

Butler li asked a maid to call Natsume while she went to the kitchen to make wild chrysanthemum and lemon tea for Rong Yan. The tea Rong Yan drank was made by her personally, and she was the best at controlling the proportion of wild chrysanthemum and lemon.

Natsume quickly ran over with the luggage. He heaved a sigh of relief after checking Rong Yan's condition.

the child will be fine, but it's a little unstable. However, there's no problem. Just take good care of it. But don't do this again for the time being. You haven't been able to keep up with your nutrition recently and you're weak. If you do this again, you'll really have problems.

Rong Yan nodded repeatedly. then, can Huahua get some more nutrient fluids? "

Natsume put away the stethoscope. nutrient solution is not rice. The best way to supplement the fetus 'nutrition is to eat.

Rong Yan nodded,"okay, I understand, Zhenzhen."

after natsume left, rong yan asked butler li, " "Where is Mr. Gu?"

As soon as he asked Wan, Gu Hesheng came down from upstairs with his glasses on. He was happy, " "You're back. Did things go smoothly?" he asked.

Rong Yan nodded. yes, thanks to you, everything went smoothly. Why are you so happy? is there something good? "

"It's good news. I thought of a name for

Chapter 1454-Liancheng Huang 'er

Rong Yan was instantly happy when she heard that, and even her spirit was much better."oh, really? That's great. Please tell me. The name you've chosen will definitely be good."

??????,????????,??????,????????????????,????????,????????????,????,????????,??????

“The child’s name must be something that your parents think sounds good,” Gu Hesheng smiled.

“Then please ask.” Rong Yan was looking forward to it.

what do you think of Huang ‘er? Huang’ er as in Phoenix, Liancheng Huang ‘er. I had thought of many names, but I suddenly felt that those complicated names were meaningless. On the other hand,’ Huang ‘er’ sounds good! Gu Hesheng looked at Rong Yan with anticipation after he finished speaking.

Ever since Rong Yan asked him to help give Miaomiao a name, Gu Hesheng was really happy and especially excited. Therefore, this matter became the biggest thing in his life. He didn’t even look at antiques. Every day, he would read all kinds of books and rack his brains to think of a name for Miaomiao.

Gu Hesheng had thought of no less than a hundred names for Huang ‘er, Huang’ er, Huang ‘er, Liancheng, Huang’ er, Huang ‘er, Huang’ er, Huang ‘er, Huang’ er, Huang ‘er, Huang’ er. Rong Yan repeated the name three times, and her eyes immediately lit up. The smile on her face instantly brightened. She was particularly satisfied with this name and said happily, ” Mr. Gu, this name is good, too good. My MeowMeow, isn’t that our Little Phoenix? ”

‘phoenix’ was a mythical beast that represented luck in ancient times. the phoenix was male and the phoenix was female, so this was just right.

The name was nice, simple, auspicious, and the meaning was clear. Anyone who heard it would know that this child must be a precious treasure at home. Otherwise, why would she marry such a name? most importantly, it was nice to hear.

The problem of her baby daughter’s name was finally solved. Rong Yan was so happy that she wanted to stand up. in the end, Mr. Gu, you’re so knowledgeable that you came up with such a name. Liancheng Yazhi and I have thought about it for so long, but we still can’t think of a name for our child. Thank you so much.

Seeing that Rong Yan liked it so much, Gu Hesheng also felt relieved. it’s good that you like this name. Do you want to wait for Liancheng Yazhi to come back and discuss this with him? ”

Rong Yan shook her head. there’s no need to discuss it. It’s this name. Whether he agrees or not, it can’t be changed. I like this name, I like it very much. When he comes back, I’ll let him quickly register the name MeowMeow in the household register.

Rong Yan really liked this name. No one but her daughter could bear this name.

Rong Yan said to Butler li,”Butler li, Butler li, quickly go find meowmeowmeow and bring her here.” &Nbsp; it’s Yingluo. Butler Li’s mood improved when he saw how happy Rong Yan was. Women couldn’t always think too much when they were pregnant. They had to maintain a good mood.

The smile on Rong Yan's face did not fade. She spoke to Gu Hesheng for a while and touched her stomach a little shyly and embarrassedly. Mr. Gu, I'm afraid I'll have to trouble you with the one in my stomach. Please don't think that I'm troublesome.

Chapter 1455 The little Phoenix of the Liancheng family

Rong Yan herself did not have any talent in naming things. As for her husband, this man seemed to be even more so. So, Rong Yan really wanted Gu Hesheng to take care of all the naming.

The man in front of him was not only a famous antique collector, but also a well-informed scholar. The number of people who wanted his name could form a line.

However, Rong Yan was able to get it easily. Rong Yan sighed in her heart again. She did not know how to thank Gu Hesheng.

Gu Hesheng did not refuse such a thing. He could not wait for Rong Yan to have a few more children so that he could name them.

"haha, that's good. now i have something to do. oh right, boy and girl, have you done the examination?"

Rong Yan shook her head. not yet. A few days ago, Natsume said that the child is too young and can't be checked out. Besides, I don't want to check on Huahua either. I think that when Liancheng Yazhi comes back, we can go together. We have to know the child's gender together.

Rong Yan didn't care whether the child was a boy or a girl. As long as it was her and Liancheng Yazhi's child, every one of them was a treasure bestowed by the heavens.

not long after, caretaker li came over with meowmeowmeowmeow.

Rong Yan carried

When Rong nuo and Tang Zong came back with food, MeowMeow happily threw herself into the food and forgot that she had a name.

Rong nuo said to Rong Yan,"sister, quickly try it. It's still hot. If you can eat it, I'll buy it for you every day." &Nbsp; okay, I'll try Yingying. after Rong Yan smelled the fragrance, she felt hungry. She picked up her chopsticks and quickly took a bite.

Under the gazes of many people around, Rong Yan ate a few mouthfuls in a row without feeling anything.

She touched her stomach and said to everyone,"looks like this is what this little guy wants to eat, Yingluo."

Of course, the food sold at the snack stall was not very delicious, but to Rong Yan, it had become rare because she had not eaten it for a long time.

caretaker li was a little worried. "young madam, i think it's better to have less. later, i'll get someone to make this. i'm afraid the food sold at the snack stalls outside won't be very clean."

Rong nuo nodded. I think so too. Tang Zong was watching him make it today. He should have learned a lot. I'll ask him to make it for you later.

Rong nuo's words were very natural, but in Rong Yan's ears, it did not sound like that.

Rong nuo naturally ordered Tang Zong around. This was a little confusing.

As Rong Yan ate, she looked at her and Tang Zong. Then, she lowered her head and snorted in her heart. These two little Rascals, playing pretend to not know each other in front of her. Just wait and see, I'll deal with you sooner or later.

Rong Yan finally had the most comfortable meal ever since she had the pregnancy reaction.

While Rong Yan was struggling at the dining table, on the other side of the ocean, Liancheng Yazhi was fighting for himself.

It was night time in the local office where Liancheng Yazhi was. He was hiding behind a low wall, and the bullet flew past his head. He was thinking about a lot of things at the moment.

Liancheng Yazhi was thinking about Rong Yan and MeowMeow. He needed to keep thinking about them to encourage himself and become the reason and motivation for him to work hard to live on.

Chapter 1456-life and death crisis

Liancheng Yazhi's body was particularly dirty. His hair was covered in mud and dust, and the original color of his clothes could no longer be distinguished. His entire body reeked of smoke and blood. His face was so grey that he could not see his face clearly.

Liancheng Yazhi smiled. If Rong Yan saw this, she would definitely criticize him. He definitely couldn't let her see him like this when he got home. It was too embarrassing.

Liancheng Yazhi silently prayed in his heart. baby, please bless your husband so that he can be safe this time. If he can leave this place alive, I can go home.

liancheng yazhi removed the magazine and checked. there were only five bullets left. this was the only weapon he had other than the military knife. he had used up all the grenades and was not in good condition.

there was a scratch on liancheng yazhi's arm. the wound was about four centimeters long and was bleeding. however, this was no longer important to him. in this situation, he could not even feel pain. he only felt numbness, as if his body was no longer his.

Jian Yi was lying next to him. The wound on his abdomen was bleeding. If he didn't receive treatment in time, he would die from blood loss.

Twenty meters away, mu weibai's group of three was there. Judging from their firepower, they should have a lot of bullets left. The enemy was obviously trying to trap them. If they couldn't break out, they would be in real danger.

Liancheng Yazhi calculated in his heart. He considered the current situation and the surrounding terrain. There was only one year in his mind. He must survive and return to see his wife and child.

Liancheng Yazhi gradually had an unformed thought in his heart.

He crawled two steps forward and came to Jian Jie's side, asking, "Simple. How about now? are you alright?"

Jian Jie slowly opened his eyes and smiled weakly, "I can't kill Yingluo, but you have to hurry up. Otherwise, I'm really going to die, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi grabbed the simple shoulder. "Don't worry, I'll definitely bring you home."

Jian Jie had injured him because of him. If Jian Jie had not pounced on him and blocked the bullet for him, he would have been dead with a hole in his head.

Jian Jie smiled. Although his face was covered in blood, it was the first time he showed such a gentle smile. He said, "Liancheng, there's a time bomb in my backpack."

Liancheng Yazhi was stunned for a moment. He quickly opened his backpack and found a simple time bomb. "Did you make this yourself?"

Jian Jie nodded slightly. yes, I did it myself. It was just a boring idea, but it should be of use now. Liancheng, tie the bomb to me, and then ...

Liancheng Yazhi's pupils suddenly contracted, and he interrupted sternly, "I know what you want to say. It's impossible. I was the one who called you over. I want to bring you back alive."

He coughed a few times, and the blood in his abdomen flowed even faster. "but if this drags on, none of us, yingluo, will be able to leave you. listen to me, it doesn't matter if yingluo dies or not if i'm alone, but yingluo still has her daughter and wife waiting at home. if something happens to you, what will they do?"

liancheng yazhi's eyes turned red and he roared in a low voice, "You don't have to f * cking remind me of this. I know it better than you, and I cherish my life more than you do."

Chapter 1457 playing dead in the rain of bullets

"From now on, you don't have to say anything. If I say I'll bring you back, I have my ways." Liancheng Yazhi took out the simplified time bomb. His feelings were particularly complicated now. He had never thought of giving up the simplified version, much less his life.

Jian Jie was injured in order to save him. If he let Jian Jie die in order to save his own life, how would he live in the future? Even if he were to die of old age, would he be at ease?

In the future, how could he tell his child that his father had sent his best brother to die for his own survival?

The current Liancheng Yazhi was very afraid of death, but he would never let his brother die for his own survival.

He was willing to risk his life to come to Kang Yu, so he would not give up on the easy way.

In his heart, even Kang Yu was his best brother.

Jian Jie grabbed Liancheng Yazhi's hand. Lian Qianqian, we don't have any other choice. We don't have any weapons. Qianqian, I can't move now. I'll be a burden if you bring me along. Kang kun hasn't woken up yet. There are four of you. How can you bring two people who can't fight? "

Liancheng Yazhi gritted his teeth. there's always a way. There's always a way. Wanwan, don't talk anymore. I've simply bandaged your wound. The blood is flowing slower than before. Save your strength and don't fall asleep.

"Liancheng Zhenzhen," he said simply.

lian Cheng yazhi pressed on his shoulders."Alright, don't say anything. Perhaps mu weibai's situation is better than ours, and he might have a surplus of ammunition."

Liancheng Yazhi leaned against the low wall and looked at the situation on the other side. The nearest group of enemies was about 50 meters away from them, which was the effective range of a pistol.

Lian Cheng Yazhi thought for a while, then suddenly stood up, exposing himself in front of the enemy, and quickly fired a shot.

He had only fired one shot, but the enemy in front of him seemed to have been injected with chicken blood and began to fire at him wildly.

Lian Cheng Yazhi immediately fell onto the wall after firing the shot, as if he was dead.

Jian Jie's eyes twitched in fear at the sight. He tried his best to move his body and reached out his hand, ignoring his wound. He grabbed Lian chengya's paddle and pulled it down, " "Lian Chengcheng, what are you doing? come down quickly."

Lian Cheng Yazhi didn't die. He glared at Jian Jie in frustration. why are you pulling me? I want to play dead to lure a few enemies over and get some ammunition from them.

He simply covered his wound. It was so painful that his whole body was trembling, but he did not make a sound. Because he had lost too much blood, he was beginning to feel dizzy. He tried his best to keep himself from fainting. that won't do. It's too dangerous. Have you ever thought about what you'll do if they don't come over and just shoot your 'corpse' from a distance? "

Lian Chengzhi smiled. no, I've always been lucky. They know you're injured. If I die, they'll definitely send a small team over!

Jian Jie was about to reprimand him when she suddenly saw a wet patch on Lian Chengzhi's left arm. your arm is injured? " Liancheng Yazhi glanced at it and said indifferently, "a bullet grazed me just now, but fortunately, it wasn't a penetrating wound. It was just a scratch.

Liancheng Yazhi's ears twitched,"shush, shush, shush, listen, I'm here, Yingluo."

Sure enough, light footsteps could be heard from the distance, slowly approaching them.

Sighing, he said,"you have to be careful, Yingluo."

Chapter 1458 Blood splattered on the spot, instant death

I know, you switch on your element. Take it, there are still four bullets inside. Liancheng Yazhi stuffed the gun into his hand.

Simple don't want: "no, I can't. I can't use it. I can't move it.

Liancheng Yazhi laughed, 'have you forgotten that I'm a dead man now? There's no need for that. Alright, don't talk. There are five people in total. When they get close, we'll attack together. I hope we can get rid of them in two seconds.'

He had no choice but to hide the gun in his sleeve.

The footsteps were getting closer and closer, and the two of them tensed up. Jian Jie tried hard to keep himself awake. At least for now, he couldn't fall unconscious!

Liancheng Yazhi's hand had been tightly holding onto the military saber. It was the only weapon he had to save his life. It was really a test of luck and strength to not get injured in the shortest time and kill those well-trained enemies as soon as possible.

The sky above them turned dark, and both of them knew that the enemy was already standing outside the low wall!

Then, Liancheng Yazhi heard the people outside quickly say something in English. Report: one of the enemies is dead, one is seriously injured, and both of them have lost their combat ability.

Upon hearing this, Liancheng Yazhi's hands tightened. They had already believed that he was and believed that the two of them had lost their combat power, so they would not shoot them.

Both of them were preparing, hoping that their many years of tacit understanding would allow them to know what the other was thinking, so that they could attack at the most appropriate time.

Soon, five enemies crossed the low wall, and they were still cursing and swearing.

They used the muzzles of their submachine guns to stab the two men. One of them directly used the barrel of the gun to stab the area around the wound in the abdomen. The pain made the man's body Twitch, but this was good. Under the stimulation of the intense pain, he became more awake.

One of them said, "take them all away and carry Qingqing's body."

Hence, other than the people from the law enforcement unit, the other four put away their guns. Two of them went to carry Liancheng Yazhi's body, and the other two went to carry the simple weapons.

Just as their hands were about to touch the two of them, their eyes simultaneously shot out a terrifying cold light.

He quickly fired his gun and killed the two enemies who were about to touch him in less than two seconds. The bullets hit their heads, and blood splattered everywhere. They died instantly.

at the same time, after the first simple gunshot, the military knife in Liancheng Yazhi's hand drew a beautiful arc in the air as fast as lightning. the sharp blade cut the enemy's throat, and blood spurted out like a fountain.

The two enemies who had their throats slit looked at Liancheng Yazhi in horror and surprise. They couldn't believe that they had died just like that!

Before the two bodies fell, Liancheng Yazhi immediately grabbed one of them and held it in front of his chest as a human shield.

four of the enemies had died, and there was only one left. after he projected it over, he immediately raised his submachine gun and fired wildly at the two of them. however, all the bullets hit the body of his dead companion.

lian Cheng yazhi took out a pistol from his human shield. when he heard that the gunshots were not so dense, he seized the opportunity and stuck his head out to see the position of the enemy. he aimed at the enemy's heart and fired a shot.

After this shot, the world seemed to have instantly quieted down. The sound of submachine guns firing stopped abruptly.

Chapter 1459 I won't be soft-hearted when I want your life

When you're not sure if you're dead or not, you have to quickly fire another shot, and you have to aim at the most fatal place.

Lian Cheng Yazhi took the opportunity to stick his head out and fired three shots at the man's head.

After making sure that all three shots had hit, Lian Cheng Yazhi pushed away the human shield in front of him and quickly collected all the weapons from the five dead enemies.

Each of the five people had a submachine gun, a pistol, some bullets, and a few grenades. Together, it was a considerable harvest, enough to deal with a group of people.

What surprised Lian Cheng Yazhi the most was that one of them actually had some gauze and disinfectant in his backpack. Lian Cheng Yazhi was overjoyed. Although these things were simple, they were indeed simple life-saving medicine now.

Lian Cheng Yazhi quickly took out the gauze.

He lifted up his shirt, revealing the terrifying hole in his abdomen. Blood was still flowing out, and his entire abdomen was covered in blood.

Lian Cheng Yazhi gritted his teeth. If it wasn't simple, he would have lost his life.

lian Cheng yazhi said,"just bear with it, zhenzhen."

"hurry up," jian jie smiled and urged,"what's this pain?"

Lian Cheng Yazhi rolled up the gauze into a roll as thick as a finger and wiped it on the wound with some disinfectant. He cleaned the blood around the wound. His body convulsed from the simple pain. He gritted his teeth and grabbed the rubble on the ground with both hands.

however, what worried lian Cheng yazhi was that although the surrounding bloodstains had been quickly cleaned up, the wound was still bleeding. after all, the disinfectant could not stop the bleeding.

Lian Cheng Yazhi suddenly thought of something. Natsume had said that the blood of the Lian Cheng family was different from that of ordinary people. They had strong self-healing and recovery abilities. He wondered if it could be used as a hemostatic at this time.

he quickly rolled up his sleeves. his left arm was grazed and was still bleeding. lian Cheng yazhi had dripped some blood on the gauze, but he did not dare to do too much. after all, ran ran and his brother had different blood types, and he did not know if there would be any side effects.

However, they couldn't care so much now. They didn't know when they would be able to successfully break out of the encirclement. Even if they did, would they have the time to find a doctor?

If he continued to drag this on, he would die!

Rather than that, he might as well take a risk.

Liancheng Yazhi put the gauze stained with his blood on the simple wound and treated it as medicine. He hoped that God would take care of him this time.

Jian Jie was puzzled by Liancheng Yazhi's actions."what are you doing yingluo? yingluo?"

Liancheng Yazhi said,"don't ask. I don't know if it'll work, ran ran."

after the wound was bandaged, liancheng yazhi reloaded the pistol and submachine gun.

He took out his walkie-talkie and said, " mu weibai, how are you going to raise it? can you transfer it over? I've seized some guns and ammunition. Come over and replenish them.

Mu weibai quickly replied,"that's great, I'll go over to take a look."

While waiting for mu weibai and the others to come over, Liancheng Yazhi leaned against the low wall and paid attention to the enemy's movements. Because he and Jian an had just taken care of five people, the enemy was very vigilant and did not dare to act rashly. They only pushed the position forward by another 20 meters, and now the distance between them was 30 meters!

After waiting for almost half an hour, mu weibai and the others finally carried Kang Yi over with great difficulty.

Other than the unconscious Kang Zhen, everyone else was in a sorry state. Each of them was injured to varying degrees.

Chapter 1460-won't die for now

Mu weibai sat on the ground, exhausted. There was no good spot on the back of his hands. His skin was worn out and covered in blood, but he didn't care at all. He panted, we're out of ammunition. How's the simple one? are you seriously injured? "

Liancheng Yazhi, who had been observing the simple wound, said, " "she won't die for now, but if qianqian doesn't get out soon, she might really die here."

Mu weibai looked at him apologetically. I'm sorry. Leave me a submachine gun. I'll cover the rear. You guys can leave with Kang Yu.

Liancheng Yazhi threw the remaining gauze to mu weibai. " cut the crap. you can bandage it yourself, yingluo. you'll stay here alone and ask the five of us to leave. you're dreaming. don't you see that two of us can't move and only three of us can fight? if we fight, two of us will be responsible for carrying people, and only one can fight. you're asking us to die together. "

Mu weibai's eyes lit up when he saw the gauze. "And gauze, where did you get it?"

"Spoils of war!"

After a while, Liancheng Yazhi realized that the blood from the simple wound did not seem to flow as fast as before. He did not know if it was his illusion.

Liancheng Yazhi was a little comforted. He did not expect his blood to be a miracle medicine that could quickly stop the bleeding. He only hoped that it could help delay the time for him to break out of the encirclement and find a doctor.

Mu weibai and the other two simply bandaged their wounds.

“What do we do now?”

Liancheng Yazhi looked at the situation on the other side. The enemy had stopped at a place thirty meters away. Chen Li, be on guard. The rest, clear the drugs and adjust the time.

after two months of cooperation, they were now very tacit and each had their own duties. they quickly changed to their posts.

After counting the ammunition, Liancheng Yazhi said, ” “Distribute the ammunition and gather the grenades together.”

“Liancheng, do you have any ideas?” mu weibai asked.

lian Cheng yazhi checked the grenades. there were 20 in total. he wondered if it was enough. ” i have an immature idea. we have to fight now. it’s impossible to break through by force. we can only use our brains. ”

“what idea? Go on. ”

Liancheng Yazhi pointed directly behind them.”Do you see that abandoned building behind us?”

Mu weibai nodded. I saw it. It’s about five hundred meters.

Liancheng Yazhi sighed. yes, five hundred meters is a little far, but there’s no other way. I was thinking if we could lead them there and then bury grenades in the corners. After they go in, we’ll detonate the grenades and blow up the houses, burying them inside. Then, we’ll have time to escape.

Mu weibai’s face turned grave,”that’s a good idea, but how can we lure them there?” And when we detonate the bomb, someone needs to be there, ahem!”

He opened his eyes weakly. I’ll take care of this Kasaya. With the current conditions, it’s still possible to make a simple self-explosive device for the Kasaya.

alright, “Liancheng Yazhi said. now, give all the water and food to Jian Yi so that he can have more strength.

“What are we going to do now?” mu weibai asked.

lian Cheng yazhi glanced at the gray sky. “We’ll wait, ah, we’ll wait until it’s dark.”
