

Permit Me 1461

Chapter 1461-intense confrontation

Liancheng Yazhi smiled. by the way, let's pray to God. The enemy will not attack us before dark.

However, they all knew that the enemy also knew that it was best to finish them off before dark. Otherwise, it would not be easy to capture them after dark.

they had rested for less than an hour when the other party started shooting.

Furthermore, there were two teams working together at the same time. One team was covering from behind and firing machine guns, while the other team was approaching them.

the vigilant chen li asked,"what do we do now?" Do you want to fight?"

Liancheng Yazhi loaded the gun in his hand, released the safety, and was ready to fight at any time. He said, we'll definitely fight, but not now. Don't move first and find the most advantageous position. We'll fight when they get close. Don't be disheartened. Just treat it as them delivering gunpowder.

Liancheng Yazhi's words eased everyone's nervous mood a little.

however, " he continued, " when they get close, don't save your bullets. We have to make them think that we have enough ammunition. We have to scare them all in one go, so that they don't dare to attack rashly again.

Mu weibai and the others nodded,"understood, Yingluo."

Jian Yi and the unconscious Kang Xi were leaning against each other. He dragged his weak body and in this dangerous and bad situation, he gathered the grenades together and calmly made an automatic explosion.

Bullets flew past his ears from time to time. There were countless bullet marks on the wall on his head, and bullet shells often fell and hit his shoulder.

"Kang Zhen, you're enjoying your life now, but it's been hard on us. When you wake up, you have to thank our Qianqian."

Not far away, Liancheng Yazhi raised his power. The enemy was less than ten meters away from them, but they were still holding back, waiting for the enemy to come closer, closer.

When Liancheng Yazhi counted that the enemies were less than three meters away from them, he made a 'signal' to mu weibai.

Liancheng Yazhi, mu weibai, Chen Li, and Qian Feiyue fired at the same time. It was as if they had already assigned their enemies. Each of them had their own target, and there was no repetition.

Sometimes, a battle of life and death relied on speed. If one could seize the time, it was equivalent to seizing one's life.

fortunately, their speed was extremely fast, and they planned to fire their bullets in a few seconds. on average, each enemy shot less than one before they all fell.

Hearing the continuous thuds of people falling to the ground, Liancheng Yazhi said, " don't rush out. Make sure they're all dead. If you're not sure, shoot them in the head.

after a while, he confirmed that the nine enemies had all died. " hurry up and bring over all their ammunition and backpacks. " wait! Chen Li immediately jumped over the low wall. you guys cover me.

"Use their bodies to block the front," Liancheng Yazhi roared.

Under the intense gunfire of the other party, Chen Li took ten minutes to retrieve all the ammunition bags on the nine people.

After this short confrontation, the other party seemed to be really afraid and did not move.

chen li said happily, " we've gained a lot of loot this time. we have enough ammunition now. it's been an hour. why aren't they attacking anymore? "

"They're waiting too." Liancheng Yazhi closed his eyes and rested.

"What are we waiting for?"

"We'll wait for the sky to turn dark, while they'll be resentfully waiting for reinforcements!"

Chapter 1462 Warm him up and make him feel at ease

After Liancheng Yazhi finished speaking, everyone quieted down. Just dealing with the enemy on the other side was already very difficult. If reinforcements came, it would be even more dangerous for Qianqian to escape.

Liancheng Yazhi glanced at the watch on his wrist and said, " "Now, we'll have to test our luck and see if the sky turns dark earlier or if their reinforcements arrive faster."

Everyone was silent. At this time, no matter what came, they had to accept it.

Now that he could buy some time, he should rest and recover his strength as soon as possible.

Mu weibai handed over the chocolate and compressed biscuits that he had just found in the backpacks of the Grim Reapers to Liancheng Yazhi. "Eat something, or else how can you survive the rest, Yingluo?"

Liancheng Yazhi opened his eyes and looked at the chocolate with foreign words written on it. "Thanks, Yingluo."

He only took a piece of chocolate and did not want the compressed biscuits.

Liancheng Yazhi didn't like sweet food, or rather, he hated it.

He was only willing to eat a piece of chocolate now because he remembered that his little darling seemed to like it.

Liancheng Yazhi tore open the package and thought as he ate, 'second baby, stay at home with your mother and wait for daddy to come home. Don't be naughty and make mommy angry. Otherwise, daddy will teach you a lesson when he gets home.'

After finishing a piece of chocolate, Liancheng Yazhi couldn't stand the taste in his mouth. He reached out for a bottle of water from mu weibai and took two sips to suppress the taste. He smiled and said, " "This taste is more suitable for little girls."

Liancheng Yazhi was disgusted as he put the chocolate's packaging back into his pocket.

No one understood what was going on with his actions. Only he knew that when he put his daughter's favorite chocolate in a wrapper, he felt as if he was with his daughter. It warmed him, made him feel at ease, and also encouraged him to work harder to live on.

Mu weibai nodded,"yes, all little girls like it. When I was very young, my sister was also Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi was a little surprised. This was the first time he had heard mu weibai mention his sister. He remembered that he was the only one in mu weibai's family, so why did he have a sister?

"You have a younger sister?" Liancheng Yazhi asked casually.

mu weibai's expression was a little unsightly, and his eyes were filled with sadness. " yes, there's a Yingluo, but my memory of him is only from before he was five years old.

"Why?"

Mu weibai seemed to have sunk into his memories, his expression extremely pained. because Yingluo disappeared after that. I've been looking for her for many years, but I couldn't find her. Forget it, why would I think of this? "

Liancheng Yazhi didn't ask again. He didn't even say anything about his condolences. It would be too fake to say these words. He just patted his shoulder.

take a rest. Don't think too much. There's still a tough battle to fight!

As time passed, the sky darkened, but the other party did not make any moves. The reinforcements they were waiting for had not arrived.

Liancheng Yazhi opened his eyes and looked at the setting sun on the horizon. He suddenly said, " "Wake up, it's time to set off!"

"Didn't we have to Wait Until Dark?" mu weibai and the others opened their eyes.

Liancheng Yazhi quickly picked up his backpack, slung his submachine gun over his shoulder, and checked his pistol. I also want to wait until it gets dark, but Wanwan thinks that the other party won't give me time. Hurry up, hurry up and leave first. The rest of you will cover the rear. Our target is that abandoned building. Don't dawdle.

Chapter 1463 Let Rong Yan find you a wife

Mu weibai and the others quickly packed up their things, but they didn't understand. The sky wasn't dark, and the other side's reinforcements hadn't arrived yet. The visibility wasn't particularly low, so it was still very dangerous to go over at this time.

Mu weibai couldn't help but ask,"what's going on with Liancheng? is there a problem?"

Liancheng Yazhi walked to the front of the makeshift camp to check on his wound. He quickly said, " "i've been neglecting a problem. we thought we could hide better at night, but what if they have thermal imaging night vision devices? By then, our vital signs will be completely under their surveillance. After entering the unfinished building, is it possible to lure them in after we want to leave?"

Mu weibai and the others stared blankly for a moment before quickly recovering.

Mu weibai increased the speed of his hands and asked, 'thermal imaging night vision? That's right, we're used to fighting the poor outside these days, and we'll forget about those high-tech things. Hurry up and pack up, we have to get rid of them before dark.'

"How do you feel?" Liancheng Yazhi asked simply.

He opened his eyes, and his lips were as white as paper. He nodded and said, "much better. Look, the bleeding has stopped.

Liancheng Yazhi smiled, revealing a set of especially kind white teeth on his dark face. He could hold on for a while after the simple wound stopped bleeding. He would be fine as long as he found the doctor before his wound became inflamed.

Liancheng Yazhi said, "come, I'll carry you for a walk."

Jian Jie shook her head. no need. You can just support me. You don't have to carry me. I've recovered some strength and can walk a few steps. If you carry me, it will make us walk slower and it's not good for the wound.

Liancheng Yazhi thought for a moment and nodded. alright then. Ran ran, you can take this gun. The magazine is full.

He simply took the pistol and said, "good!"

Although he was weak now, as long as he had a gun in his hand, as long as he could still raise a gun, he was still a sharp sword that could kill!

Everyone who underestimated him would regret it.

Liancheng Yazhi set up the makeshift chair and said to mu weibai, "That's enough, let's go,"

Mu weibai nodded and said, "you guys go first. Chen Li and I will cover Qianqian."

Liancheng Yazhi bent his back and tried his best to lower his body as low as possible to avoid being hit by blind bullets.

However, a simple abdominal injury was not only strenuous but also painful to bend over. Most importantly, it was likely to cause the wound to bleed again.

Seeing that this was not going to work, Liancheng Yazhi finally stopped the bleeding. He said in a low voice, "Wait, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi turned back and carried a dead body. you'll be more tired. Let him lie on your back and you drag him along. That way, you won't be afraid of bullets, Yingluo.

jian yi's forehead was covered in a layer of sweat after walking a few steps. he struggled to carry the body.

although it was very slow and tiring to walk like this, at least he could walk upright and not tear his wounds.

At the side, Liancheng Yazhi said, “bear with it. The destination is just ahead. It’s only 500 meters. Easy. If you can’t even walk past this, I’ll look down on you.

He gritted his teeth and walked with difficulty with his injured leg that seemed to be filled with lead. He replied, ” “Don’t worry, I’m sure Qianqian will leave faster than you, Qianqian.”

liancheng yazhi smiled. “that’s good. let’s see if ran ran can’t beat me. when we get back, i’ll ask rong yan to find you a wife.”

Chapter 1464 Half-dead

What Liancheng Yazhi did not expect was that this time, Jian Jie actually agreed and said, ” “Alright, Yingluo, not gentle, not virtuous, not pretty, Yingluo, I don’t want Yingluo.”

Liancheng Yazhi wiped the sweat off his forehead. “Fine, isn’t she just gentle, virtuous, and beautiful? I’ll find you a bunch of Pixiu for this kind of woman!”

the two of them spoke intermittently as they walked. the body on the simple back had been shot countless times. if those shots had been aimed at him, he would have died many times over.

Liancheng Yazhi turned back to look at the dense artillery fire in the distance. The enemy had already begun to push forward.

behind them, chen li and qian feiyue were carrying the unconscious kang zhen. only mu weibai was taking on the task of blocking them. it was very difficult for him, but he had no choice. he could only endure.

Liancheng Yazhi saw that the simple legs were trembling and seemed to be unable to support themselves very soon. He encouraged, ” let’s put in more effort. There are still 200 meters to go. Yingluo, didn’t you say you were faster than me? don’t embarrass yourself by falling down.

He laughed in a very difficult manner. don’t worry. Even if my legs are broken, I’ll still be faster than you.

The simple voice began to tremble. His legs were so heavy that he couldn’t move, and his physical strength was completely exhausted. The reason he could still persist was entirely because of his abnormal willpower.

Jian Jie was very clear that if he fell down at this time, Liancheng Yazhi would definitely not leave him alone.

At that time, they might end up in the hands of the enemy.

It didn’t matter if he simplified himself. For someone like him who spent all Four Seasons in a gunfight, he was already half a dead man. He had long seen life and death very lightly. He had never been afraid of death.

However, Liancheng Yazhi was different from him. If he died, their family would collapse.

Fortunately, the abandoned building in front of them was getting closer and closer, and the enemies behind were blocked by mu weibai at a distance of thirty to twenty meters.

“Is the automatic explosion device ready?” Liancheng Yazhi asked simply.

Jian Jie nodded. it’s all done. However, once this simple device is activated, it can only last for a very short time, only fifteen seconds. In this short time, we have to lure them in and escape. Do you think Jian Jia is enough? ”

Liancheng Yazhi was not sure. Fifteen seconds was really short, too short. I don’t know, but Yingluo has to try, right? if she doesn’t try, who knows if Yingluo will succeed? ”

It took them nearly an hour to cover a short distance of 500 meters!

liancheng yazhi looked at the abandoned building in front of him and said happily, ” “Look, we’re at Chengcheng.”

The Jian was so tired that he couldn’t speak at all. When he finally entered the door, Liancheng Yazhi quickly pulled the body off his back and caught the Jian that had fallen.

at this time, the simple had already fallen into a semi-coma. liancheng yazhi checked his pulse and found that he was very weak. he needed to get timely rest and treatment.

Liancheng Yazhi took out some water and put it to his mouth. “Simple. Come, have some water.”

Jian Jie could no longer hear what he was saying. His eyes were closed, and Liancheng Yazhi had no choice but to force some water into his mouth!

Very quickly, Chen Li and Qian Feiyue carried Kang Xi in. Both of them were injured along the way, especially Qian Feiyue. His left leg was shot, but even so, he still managed to carry Kang Xi over.

Chapter 1465 Fifteen seconds to save her life

Mu weibai was the last to enter, and Liancheng Yazhi hurriedly said, ” everyone’s here. Let’s start burying the mines. Remember, when you’re burying the mines, you have to find the main supporting points of the house. After the explosion, it can cause the house to collapse quickly.

Everyone replied in a low voice,”understood, sob sob.”

Liancheng Yazhi reminded them. however, you have to be careful. To put it simply, these simple self-detonating devices only have fifteen seconds to activate. That means that we have to lure all of them in within these fifteen seconds, complete the retreat, and successfully detonate them. If we don’t do it well, we may be buried here ourselves. You have to be mentally prepared.

After Liancheng Yazhi finished speaking, everyone fell silent.

Mu weibai asked Chen Li and Qian Feiyue to be on guard, and he said, ” 15 seconds. It’s a little short, but we still have at least 15 seconds. It’s better than not having a second to escape.

Oh, there’s also a time bomb that I made earlier. It can be activated at a fixed time, but it’s not enough with just one bomb.

that’s more than enough. We’re lucky to still have this much ammunition.

Other than Kang Yu and Jian Yi, who had lost their ability to fight, there were four people left who could move. So, they split up into two groups, two in charge of guarding, and two in charge of burying explosives.

Liancheng yazhi used a fish line to connect all the explosion points together, and the fish line just so happened to pass through the self-destruct devices that were recommended to be made. at that time, he could stand in the distance and pull the fish line, and he could activate all the self-destruct devices at the explosion points. they would explode at the same time after 15 seconds.

Liancheng Yazhi wiped his face haphazardly. He was sweating so much that his eyes were blurred. it's buried. We can move the wounded out first.

"But they already have a small team behind them. They have outflanked us," Chen Li said.

Liancheng Yazhi thought for a moment. it's already dark outside, and their reinforcements haven't arrived yet, so they won't dare to move out easily. I'll go and deal with those people behind first. I'll send you a signal when the time comes, and you can quickly take the two of them out.

Mu weibai held Liancheng Yazhi back. no, you stay here. I'll go. Don't say anything. I'll go.

after saying that, mu weibai didn't give liancheng yazhi any time to speak. he directly went up the concrete stairs without guardrails to the second floor, then jumped down from the window on the second floor and ran straight into the night.

Liancheng Yazhi sighed. He knew that mu weibai was feeling guilty.

If mu weibai hadn't gone to find Liancheng Yazhi, he would still be at home with his wife and daughter. How could he have left home for more than two months, wandering between life and death every day, and not even sent a letter to his family?

Mu weibai also hoped that he would do his best to ensure Liancheng Yazhi's life and safety so that he could go home and reunite with his family.

Liancheng Yazhi smiled faintly. Actually, he didn't blame mu weibai for Wanwan. He didn't regret coming to save Kang Yu!

Time passed by bit by bit, and everyone's hearts were tense. The longer they dragged on, the less beneficial it was for them. If the other party's reinforcements arrived, they would just wait to be caught like turtles in a jar.

but fortunately, their luck didn't seem to be too bad.

twenty minutes later, mu weibai came back covered in blood, as if he had just taken a bath in blood. The smell of blood was very strong.

Chapter 1466 Use my life to exchange for your chance of survival

Everyone was shocked, and Liancheng Yazhi quickly asked, "You're injured?"

Mu weibai gasped for breath and waved his hand,"It's just a small injury. The blood isn't mine, it's the blood of the dead. Alright, everyone, hurry up and carry Kang kun out. I've scouted the road behind. After we get out, run Southwest. There's a road less than a kilometer away. If you go east, about five miles, you'll reach a small town. As long as we enter the town and extract the bullets, we'll immediately leave."

lian Cheng yazhi was overjoyed. he was most afraid that this generation would not be able to find her. although five miles was not close, it was not too far. then what are we still talking about? let's act quickly.

by the way, old mu, drag the corpse outside in and change his clothes. You're too scary.

Mu weibai laughed out loud. hehe, that's good. By the way, how could we lure them in? it's too dark now. They can only be sure that we're still here, but they don't dare to come in.

Qian Feiyue said, "leave this to me. You guys go first. I'll lead those people in. I have a way, Yingluo.

"But your leg is still injured." Mu weibai was startled.

Qian Feiyue patted his injured leg. I'm fine. It's nothing. I'm just tickling you. Do you guys have any cigarettes left? I have some use for them.

Lian Cheng Yazhi didn't smoke, but he didn't. He remembered that Jian an liked to carry cigarettes with her, so he took a pack from her and handed it to Qian Feiyue. alright, ran ran, be careful. We'll wait for you on the road.

They didn't have much time to decline now. If they could fight for some time, it would be a chance for everyone to survive.

Mu weibai patted his shoulder and said, "yes, Zhenzhen, okay!" You guys take care."

"You also insisted on coming."

Qian Feiyue saluted mu Wei and Bai xingge, "Yes, I promise to complete the task."

Lian Cheng Yazhi carried the luggage while mu weibai and Chen Li carried Kang kun. They jumped down from the window on the second floor and ran towards the southwest without even looking at the road under their feet in the dark.

In the abandoned house, Qian Feiyue lit five cigarettes. He was smoking alone in silence.

He was standing at the door, so the enemies in the distance could not see his figure, but they could see the extinguished cigarette butt. Thus, the sound of gunfire rang out. Qian Feiyue took out his gun and fired two shots before moving to another place. He moved quickly, making it seem like the enemies were still in the house.

The gunshots continued for a long time, until Qian Feiyue really used up all the bullets on his body!

The gunshots on his side were no longer loud, and the enemies on the other side guessed that he had used up all his bullets. Thus, the enemies surrounded him and pushed forward again. When the enemies were getting closer and closer to the small building, Qian Feiyue grabbed the fishing line in his hand.

The enemies surrounding the house were afraid that something like what Lian Cheng Yazhi did last time would happen again, so they fired at the enemy before entering.

the lights in their hands lit up, illuminating the inside of the house.

Then, he saw Qian Feiyue sitting in the corner. His leg was bleeding, and he was holding a gun in his left hand. His right shoulder had been shot.

Qian Feiyue smiled at them. His smile was very flattering. He threw away the gun in his hand and raised his hands to make a gesture of surrender.

the enemy walked in cautiously, holding a gun and approaching step by step.

Chapter 1467-perish together with the enemy

After they came in, Qian Feiyue laughed even harder. He was counting in his mouth.

From 1 to 15 seconds, 15 seconds was an extremely short moment for everyone. However, sometimes, 15 seconds was very long.

The enemies in front of him were mumbling, but Qian Feiyue could only understand them. They were asking him, where are the others?

After Qian Feiyue finished counting, he looked in the southwest direction and smiled. "Goodbye, Yingluo can't go back with you. Take care."

As the last word fell, a series of deafening explosions shook the ground within a kilometer.

Exclamations filled the air. The reinforced concrete wall collapsed at this moment. At this moment, guns were no longer useful. Those who couldn't escape in time were crushed under the wall or crushed to death!

Qian Feiyue raised his head and looked at the large pieces of cement wall falling from above. He closed his eyes and lay on the cold land of the foreign country.

He had been shot in the leg, and the bullet had hit his knee. Now, his kneecaps were probably shattered. He held on because he didn't want to be discovered by his companions. He didn't want to drag them down. He didn't want to cause everyone to be unable to escape because of him. There were already two people in the team who needed to be taken care of, so he could barely afford it. There couldn't be one more, or they would really die together. How could he lure those people into the house without a bait?

Since someone had to do it, he would do it. As a soldier, if he couldn't stand up again and couldn't fight on the battlefield with his comrades, it was no different from killing him. Instead of spending the rest of his life in a wheelchair, he would rather die with his enemy!

At this moment, Liancheng Yazhi and the others, who were about to run to the side of the road, heard the explosion and turned back immediately. They only saw the abandoned house burning and the explosion ringing in their ears.

Everyone's hearts trembled. The explosions were still going on, and none of them knew what was going on over there.

mu weibai took two steps forward and anxiously said, "Has Qian Fei come out yet?"

Chen Li immediately said, "Feiyue's leg is injured. He definitely can't walk fast. You guys go ahead and wait. I'll go and get him.

mu weibai nodded,"okay, go quickly and come back quickly."

as soon as chen li left, liancheng yazhi could vaguely hear the sound of the helicopter's propeller turning. his expression changed drastically. oh no, I heard the sound of an airplane. Are their reinforcements here? let's find a place to hide.

Liancheng Yazhi and mu weibai each carried one. They found a place with lush wild grass and lay down. They were not confident now and only hoped that the helicopter above them was just passing by and not reinforcements. Otherwise, all their hard work to get here would be in vain!

However, the heavens did not hear their prayers. The helicopter slowly landed on the grass 20 meters away from them. The propeller spun and produced a huge wind. The wind blew the surrounding grass to the ground. It stopped there, and in the night, it looked like a man-eating behemoth.

Liancheng Yazhi and the others also felt the strong wind blowing on their faces. The uneasiness made their hearts tremble, and the two of them silently took out their guns and prepared for battle.

if god really didn't leave them a way out, then yingying had no choice!

Chapter 1468 Just because I'm his ex-wife

Although it was up to one's efforts, after one's efforts, the rest would depend on whether the heavens were willing to help.

Liancheng Yazhi's hand slowly reached into his pocket, where the chocolate wrapping paper he had put in earlier was. His lips slowly curled up as he silently said in his heart, "

[illegible]

The door of the helicopter opened, and a figure jumped out. It was too dark, and Liancheng Yazhi could not see his face clearly. He could only vaguely make out that the person was not tall and very thin, and it seemed to be a woman.

Very quickly, the person spoke and confirmed Liancheng Yazhi's guess.

She took a few steps in the direction where Liancheng Yazhi was hiding, and the two of them immediately raised their guns. Liancheng Yazhi thought to himself that if he took another step, he would shoot.

However, the other party stopped and said, " I have night vision, I know you are there. Come out, I am not your enemy, I am here to help you!

The moment the other party opened her mouth, the two of them were shocked because she was speaking Chinese. Moreover, it was a woman with a clear and pleasant voice!

If it was a normal day, one would want to see if her voice was as beautiful as her looks.

This wasn't the most important thing. The most important thing was that she said Yingluo was here to help them!

The two of them looked at each other in confusion, but neither of them moved.

At this time, no one who appeared here could be trusted easily, especially this woman who appeared too suddenly and too strange. Why did she help them and how did she know they were here?

The woman continued, "I'll find Qian Feiyue and Chen Li and bring them back to China. You guys leave now!" Their reinforcements will be here in five minutes. By the time they arrive, you won't be able to leave even if you want to."

Liancheng Yazhi was even more surprised. This woman seemed to know very well. She even knew that Qian Feiyue and Chen Li were not here at this time. Liancheng Yazhi hesitated for a moment and wanted to stand up, but he was held down by mu weibai. don't just stand up. Who knows if she's telling the truth? "

Liancheng Yazhi nodded. He laid on the grass and asked, " "Who are you?"

The other party quickly said, " you don't have to worry about it. You just need to know that I'm here to help you. Stop talking nonsense and get on the plane quickly. There's no time.

"Why should we believe you?" mu weibai shouted.

Liancheng Yazhi said, " you suddenly appeared and asked us to go with you. You have to give us a reason to believe you. Since you know who we are, you should also understand how difficult it was for us to get to this point. We won't trust anyone easily.

The other party was silent. After a while, she said in exasperation, " "fine, i'll sue you. on what grounds? on the grounds that i'm kang yu's ex-wife, hanhan?"

"ex-wife?" liancheng yazhi asked.

"Ex-wife?" mu weibai asked.

The two of them cried out at the same time. Their eyes widened in disbelief and they subconsciously looked at the unconscious Kang Yu. [ Kang Yu: don't look at me, I've never admitted it ]

Liancheng Yazhi blinked. How could she be his ex-wife? he wasn't yingluo.

Hearing such explosive news in such a dangerous situation, Liancheng Yazhi really felt that this location was too bad.

Liancheng Yazhi subconsciously asked, 'how did it become the early stage? why didn't he mention his divorce? You're his first wife, right?"

Chapter 1469 He married someone else other than me?

liancheng yazhi subconsciously asked, 'how did it become the early stage? Why didn't he mention his divorce? You're his first wife, right?"

"Other than me, did he marry anyone else?" Kang Xin's ex-wife asked coldly.

Liancheng Yazhi and mu weibai slowly stood up. well, it should only be you. So far, we only know that he married a wife a few years ago, but we don't even know her name. We haven't even seen her before, let alone know that he's divorced. He's kept it a secret.

"can you guys stop talking nonsense?" kang zhen's ex-wife interrupted. I already said that we don't have enough time. If their reinforcements come, even if I bring a bomber, it won't be enough. You guys hurry up."

“Are you leaving?” mu weibai asked Liancheng Yazhi.

Liancheng Yazhi lowered his head to look at Kang Yu and Jian Jie. He touched Jian Jie’s forehead and it was starting to heat up.

Liancheng Yazhi made a decision. let’s go. Now that things have come to this, there’s a 90% chance that we’ll be caught by the enemy if we stay. If we follow her, there’s at least a 50% chance. Why don’t we take a gamble? ” liancheng yazhi and mu weibai picked up kang zhen. “we’ll go with you, but my brothers, yingluo ...”

“Alright, we’ll do as you say.”

Kang Yi’s ex-wife turned around and gestured to the pilot. A few people quickly got off the plane and helped to carry the man up.

Standing in front of the cabin door, Liancheng Yazhi heard the other party say, ” “You guys get on the plane first, I’ll bring some people to pick them up, ran ran.”

Liancheng Yazhi frowned,”didn’t you say that the enemy would be here soon?”

“They’ll be here soon, but my car is already parked on the road. I can retreat immediately once I find them.”

In the dark, she couldn’t see her face clearly and could only tell that she had a slim figure. Liancheng Yazhi asked, ” “You’re really Kang Yu’s ex-wife.”

In the end, she gritted her teeth and said,”I really don’t think so. Otherwise, I wouldn’t be bothered with him.” &Nbsp;

After saying that, she brought the two of them and rushed in the direction of the explosion.

“Now?” mu weibai was also a little worried.

let’s go, ” Liancheng Yazhi said. since we’re already here!

He didn’t want to continue living like this. He was more and more anxious to go home. He couldn’t wait to grow wings and fly home immediately. He had been away from home for so long. He really missed Rong Yan, MeowMeow, and their home.

the door of the helicopter was closed, and the propellers accelerated. soon, the helicopter took off slowly.

In the cabin, other than Liancheng Yazhi and the other three, there were five other people. Two of them were pilots, and the remaining three were sitting opposite Liancheng Yazhi, looking at them with provocative eyes.

liancheng yazhi and mu weibai seemed to be quite relaxed, but their minds were always tense. once the other party made any strange moves, they would immediately enter the battle.

But fortunately, their gazes were only a little unfriendly, and they didn’t do anything out of line.

However, after a moment, the foreigner opposite him emphasized in a strange tone in stiff Chinese, " we'll send you to a small town 200 miles away. When you get there, it's your business how you get back. We don't care.

Liancheng Yazhi nodded and said,"yes, I can."

He couldn't wait for them to ignore it. Liancheng Yazhi really didn't want to spend too much time with this group of people before he figured out who they were.

Who knew if they had any other intentions? at this time, he had to be on high alert at all times.

Chapter 1470 Surgery on the plane?

After the two of them finished talking, the plane quickly fell into silence. After a while, mu weibai felt that it was too stuffy, so he asked, " "How long has it been since that woman and Kang Yu divorced?"

Liancheng Yazhi glanced at Kang Yu, who had his eyes tightly closed, and said indifferently, " "If he could hear you now, he would definitely get up and give you a punch."

When they got married, Kang Zhen told each of them that he wouldn't let his bride see anyone. She never wore a wedding ring on her finger, and she wouldn't tell anyone that he was married.

After the divorce, she didn't even tell them.

however, liancheng yazhi remembered that kang yu did not look annoyed when he talked about his wife.

Actually, it was not a big deal to get a divorce. Why did he tell his brothers?

The foreigner on the other side said rudely, " "it's not our place to question her private life. don't ask such useless questions. if you ask any more questions, i'll throw you off the plane."

Liancheng Yazhi pulled on mu weibai's sleeve to stop him from asking further and changed the topic. "You have a first aid kit on your plane?"

Liancheng Yazhi wanted to change Kang Yu's gauze and medicine. His body temperature had been rising, and this made Liancheng Yazhi a little worried.

After Liancheng Yazhi finished asking, there was at most a small foreigner opposite him. He looked at the Jian with bright eyes as if he was looking at a piece of meat. Liancheng Yazhi could almost hear him swallowing his saliva. "Gunshot wound? We still have to fly for more than an hour. It should be enough to take out a bullet, right?"

Liancheng Yazhi immediately refused,'you want to do the surgery on the plane? No, there's no anesthetic here, and there's not enough medicine. Also, we can't give a simple blood transfusion. What if the bullet isn't taken out and the wound worsens?"

liancheng yazhi's simple life must be preserved.

Although it was better to remove the bullet as soon as possible, it was not like doing it on the plane without any preparation.

In the end, the other party was very angry. It was a great humiliation for Liancheng Yazhi to look down on him for operating on Kang Xi. She stood up and said angrily, "Surgery? You're underestimating my skills. Can this be considered a surgery? At most, it's a thorn."

Liancheng Yazhi immediately shook his head. that won't do either. He's my brother. I can't simply experiment on him.

The other party snorted,"you don't understand, do you?" This is not an experiment, not an experiment, I really want to take out the bullet in his stomach. I promise you that if the bullet is not taken out in two hours, you can shoot me with your gun. Hurry up and get my suitcase, I want to make it before the plane lands. If you hit me with your gun, I'll pay you with my life if anything happens to him."

He did not care if Liancheng Yazhi agreed or not and opened his suitcase. Inside was a dazzling array of medical equipment, some of which he had never seen before.

The other party was wearing a mask and plastic gloves, and his serious look was completely different from before. Liancheng Yazhi placed the knife in his hand. When he picked up the scalpel, he suddenly realized that this person exuded a special aura from his voice. It was a little similar to Hanhan'S. He remembered it now, it was a little like Hanhan Natsume.

"okay, i'll let you take out the bullet for him, but if something really happens, i won't let it go."
