

Permit Me 1471

Chapter 1471 Saved his life

This was because Natsume's eyes were so bright that it was frightening, as if he was possessed by a ghost when the scalpel was in his hand.

This was similar to Natsume's bright and scary gaze when he encountered a research project that interested him.

However, this person clearly had some skills. Otherwise, how would he dare to perform the operation in front of Liancheng Yazhi under such circumstances?

The man's surgery had already begun. He used a pair of scissors to cut open his simple clothes, then untied the gauze on his body.

He looked at the simple wound curiously and muttered to himself, " Oh, the bleeding has stopped. That's strange. No medicine is working, but the gunshot wound in the abdomen has stopped bleeding. This doesn't make sense. Hey, are you sure you didn't give him any hemostatic? "

As a medical student, no matter who it was, they would be very concerned when they encountered this kind of problem. They all wanted to know what was going on.

Just now, he had casually thrown the gauze on the ground. The gauze was stained with blood. Whether it was a simple one or Liancheng Yazhi's, there was no difference at all. Liancheng Yazhi was very assured. Besides, no one would remember that he had used his own blood to stop Jian Yi's bleeding.

Liancheng Yazhi replied very seriously, " "I'm sure I didn't use any hemostatic. I only used some disinfectant books to quickly wipe the wound. We didn't do anything else. Besides, in our situation, it's already God's blessing to be able to bandage it. Where can we get hemostatic drugs?"

the problem with liancheng yazhi's blood must not be known to anyone else. otherwise, it would be a disaster. these doctors loved to research unsolved problems.

Mu weibai also chimed in,"yeah, where can we get a hemostatic?" Even the gauze and disinfectant were taken from them after they were killed."

The man stopped his operation and stood there, mumbling to himself, " "Could it be that the disinfectant was mixed with ingredients that can stop bleeding? Do you still have the disinfectant you used?"

Liancheng Yazhi was unhappy. hey, do you know how to perform the operation? if you don't, then don't waste time. Don't make it simple either. Quickly bandage him up again with gauze.

He cleared his throat and realized that he had gone off topic. alright, let's take out the bullet first.

A normal surgery didn't last long at all. His movements were very fast. Liancheng Yazhi and mu weibai, who were watching from the side, were dazzled. Their eyes couldn't keep up with the speed of their hands.

It took him half an hour to take the bullet out. He then threw the bullet into the tray next to him with a tweezer, making a crisp sound.

Then, he began to sew up the wound!

His sewing movements were even faster. It was as if he didn't need to think at all to know how to insert the needle into the skin. This scene made Liancheng Yazhi's mouth Twitch as if the needles had already pierced his body and he felt a little pain.

However, Liancheng Yazhi was completely relieved. Since the bullets were easy to take out, they did not have to worry too much. All that was left was to recuperate and rest. When they were on the road, the pressure would also be a lot more.

After the wound was stitched up, she applied some of his medicine on the wound. He said, "you guys are lucky to have met me. I'm the only one who can perform the surgery and save her life in this situation.

Chapter 1472 Let him remarry his ex-wife

Liancheng Yazhi and mu weibai looked at each other, speechless at this person.

Was it really abnormal to remove a bullet and suture the wound on an unstable plane?

however, his skills were really very good. no matter how bumpy the plane was, his hands never messed up. when he sutured, the needle passed through the skin quickly and accurately. the flying needle's trajectory was very frightening.

"did you give him anesthesia?" liancheng yazhi asked.

the other party took off his gloves and nodded. "yes, we did. there wasn't enough anesthetic, so we could only administer local anesthesia. however, from what i can see, the kid will be able to survive even without anesthesia."

Liancheng Yazhi rolled his eyes. it's easy, but it's not like the conditions are too difficult. There's no need to suffer.

Liancheng Yazhi had just finished speaking when the pilot's voice floated over. alright, you've arrived. Get ready to go down.

Liancheng Yazhi and mu weibai looked out of the window at the same time. As the plane landed, they indeed saw buildings and some lights below.

Liancheng Yazhi said to the people in front of him. thank you. Please tell Kang Xin's ex-wife that you're grateful to her!

The person on the other side was disdainful. you don't have to thank her. She was only willing to save you because you're from the same country. Also, she was his wife for a few days. You can't just leave her in the lurch!

liancheng yazhi smiled and continued,"We'll ask Qianqian about that after he wakes up. Hopefully, we can convince him to marry her again!"

"Get him to agree to remarry? Don't joke around. I don't need you to tell me. He has always wanted to remarry, but his ex-wife doesn't want to. I think you guys are in trouble too since you don't know anything. Alright, let him go and get off the stage."

Liancheng Yazhi raised his eyebrows and looked at Kang Yu thoughtfully. This brat had waited for him to wake up before sleeping well. He had actually hidden so much from him.

In the past, he and Rong Yan had asked Kang Yu to take his wife out for dinner, but he had rejected every time. It turned out that his ex-wife didn't want to bother him anymore, Huahua.

After the plane stabilized, the cabin door opened.

lian Cheng yazhi and mu weibai were about to carry the two of them down, but the person opposite them also helped.

After they carried the man down, they were ready to board the plane and leave. we're leaving. Good luck to you.

Mu weibai stopped them. wait a minute. We're acquaintances, aren't we? do you have money? " If the four of us don't have any money, it'll be hard for us to move around."

Lian Cheng Yazhi also thought of something. wait, I have something to do too. Give me some medicine, gauze, and disinfectant for his gunshot wound. It's not good to go to the hospital to change the medicine for his injury. After all, you've done surgery for him, and you don't want him to be found out, right? "

In the end, Lian Cheng Yazhi got the medicine, while mu weibai only got two steel vases.

The two of them looked at each other.

"What do we do now?" mu weibai asked.

Now, they were completely in the dark and had no idea where they were. And which country's territory did it belong to?

" think of a way to find a place to stay first, " lian Cheng yazhi said. " no, first change into normal clothes. "

They were dirty and covered in blood. Anyone who saw them would probably call the police first.

lian Cheng yazhi looked around. " let's find a place to hide first. i'll get the clothes and money. you look after her and wait for me to come back. " the plane was parked outside the town, and there were a few abandoned fishing boats not far away. it seemed to be the seaside if they looked further ahead. there was also the salty smell of the sea breeze in the air. this was a seaside town.

Chapter 1473 Plundering

Lian Cheng Yazhi and mu weibai moved the two unconscious people into an abandoned fishing boat and hid them.

Lian Cheng Yazhi said to mu weibai, "I'll be back soon."

"Be careful," mu weibai said.

Lian Cheng Yazhi nodded. He jumped off the fishing boat and his tall figure quickly ran into the night.

It had been an entire day. He had not eaten anything other than a piece of unpalatable chocolate and was basically exhausted by now. However, every time Lian Cheng Yazhi thought that they were on their way home, he would feel a steady stream of energy.

Liancheng Yazhi ran for ten minutes and finally saw a house. It was built by the sea and was a wooden house. It was very old and shabby. The lights were on in the house, and there were a few clothes hanging on the drying rope at the door.

Liancheng Yazhi hesitated for a while, but in the end, he still pulled off a coat and a pair of pants.

Stealing clothes?

this was the first time in his life, and it did not feel good. he would never tell his wife or child about this experience.

however, he had no choice. if he entered the town without changing his clothes and was discovered, he would probably be taken to the police station.

After changing his clothes, Liancheng Yazhi put the hat on his coat on his head to prevent others from seeing his appearance.

He had a standard Asian face. If such a face appeared in a remote town in a foreign country, it would definitely attract attention. The possibility of being exposed was too high. He could only think of ways to hide his appearance.

When Liancheng Yazhi entered the town, it was almost 11 O'clock at night. There were very few people on the streets at this time. Occasionally, there would be a few drunkards and young men and women walking by with their arms around each other.

When they passed by some dark alleys, they could hear some strange sounds. Foreigners were more open-minded. They would drink some wine, smoke a few mouthfuls of marijuana, and then find a corner of the street to play.

Liancheng Yazhi left in a hurry and he didn't have time to see those people. He wanted to quickly figure out where he was, get money and food, and then find a place where no one would find him to rest for two days.

However, Liancheng Yazhi's luck was not very good. When he turned a corner, he bumped into a few drunkards.

The wine bottles in the drunkards' hands fell to the ground and shattered. They shouted and did not let Liancheng Yazhi leave. They even touched him, wanting to teach him a lesson.

You should never talk to or reason with a drunk person. It's useless.

In the end, Liancheng Yazhi led them to a small alley and knocked them out in a few moves. He then stripped them of their clothes, found their wallets, and took all their money. Fortunately, he saw one of their identification cards, which allowed him to quickly know where he was.

He wanted to buy some food with the money, but he thought that if he went to buy food and the boss saw him, wouldn't he be exposed? so he thought that since he had not only stolen but also robbed, what was the point of insisting?

Hence, Liancheng Yazhi found a bakery, sneaked into the backstage, and came out with a bag of bread. He also took down a map that was stuck on the wall of the shop.

Chapter 1474 We are fugitives now

Liancheng Yazhi sighed in his heart. He could not let a second person know what he had done today until his death.

Rong Yan, hubby, I'm doing this so that I can go back and reunite with you as soon as possible. Please don't be angry with me.

With clothes, money, and food, Liancheng Yazhi had originally planned to go back, but when he passed by a bar, he saw an old car.

Liancheng Yazhi stopped. He did not know if those people had other intentions by leaving them in this town. If they were to harm them, they would have to wait for death here.

If they wanted to take the initiative, they had to leave as soon as possible. The more people there were in a bustling city, the easier it would be for them to hide.

Hence, Liancheng Yazhi looked down on himself again. He smashed the glass on the car window, put his hand in, opened the car door, and cut off two wires. After some effort, he lit the car and drove out of town.

Liancheng Yazhi drove the car to a spot not far from the abandoned fishing boat where Mu weibai was hiding.

Mu weibai heard the sound of a car and secretly stuck his head out. When he saw that it was Liancheng Yazhi who got out of the car, his eyes widened in surprise. "you've got a car,"

"To be exact, I stole a car," Liancheng Yazhi's expression was very ugly.

don't worry about it. At this time, everything is fine. mu weibai wanted to comfort Liancheng Yazhi, but he felt that it was really embarrassing.

Liancheng Yazhi looked at mu weibai with cold eyes. "Mu weibai, I'm Doing This for Your Sake!"

Mu weibai quickly replied, "ah?" Don't worry, I won't tell anyone about this."

"Very good. Now, carry them into the car. We'll leave immediately."

"Why?" mu weibai was puzzled and asked, "don't you want to stay for a night?"

Liancheng Yazhi pointed at the house in the distance. this is such a small town, and there aren't many people. Everyone will know about it even if there's a little commotion. I stole a car today and even robbed someone. I'll definitely be wanted by the entire town tomorrow morning. Can we leave even if we want to? Also, those people left us here. They know our whereabouts, so if they want to attack us, it'll be easy."

"That's right, that's right. If we're discovered, it'll be very troublesome!" Mu weibai repeatedly nodded.

The two quickly carried Kang Xi into the car and drove out of the town.

according to the map that liancheng yazhi had taken off from the bakery's wall, they followed the road and headed straight to the city hundreds of kilometers away!

Liancheng Yazhi was exhausted today, so mu weibai was the driver.

Mu weibai sighed and said, "we haven't had enough food and clothing all the way, and I don't know when we'll get there." &Nbsp;

Liancheng Yazhi did not answer the question. He said, "change to another car after you run out of gas. We can't keep driving this one, or we'll be discovered very soon."

Liancheng Yazhi was not so upset. Although there was nothing now, at least the situation was much better than before. Everything they were doing now and every step they took was a step closer to their home. At this time, Liancheng Yazhi's heart was full of hope.

Mu weibai nodded, "en, we're basically a fugitive now." &Nbsp;

Soon, Liancheng Yazhi said, "next time, you can get Qingqing for the car."

Mu weibai, "Yingluo."

Chapter 1475 I want to go home

Liancheng Yazhi finally had a taste of what it was like to escape. Although it was better than the dangerous situation where he was constantly on the line between life and death a few days ago, he still needed to be vigilant at all times.

Along the way, they kept repeating the same process. Each car could not be driven for three days. When they reached a town, they had to replace the car. To put it bluntly, they were going to steal the second car and then replace the car at the next place.

the speed at which they changed cars was always faster than the police's investigation by a day, making the police officers who were chasing after them very busy ...||| ||.

Who asked them to only steal cars and not commit any robbery, murder, or even more brutal acts? in foreign countries, this was not a big deal. In most of the dark corners of their country, especially in the slums, drug trafficking and drugs were so rampant that it made people's hair stand on end. People died every day, and all kinds of more tragic crimes happened every day.

In comparison, Liancheng Yazhi's crime of stealing, throwing, and stealing cars could be considered benevolent.

Hence, after 11 days of pursuit, the police no longer cared. They turned their attention to the other criminals.

On the twelfth day of their escape, Liancheng Yazhi looked at the road sign that flashed by the side of the road and said, " " you'll be able to contact my forces here in the capital of country G. at that time, they'll send us back directly. "

Liancheng Yazhi had been following the map that he had stolen. Their target was the biggest city in the country.

The Liancheng family's company had already begun plans to expand its business globally many years ago. Although country G was still a slightly poor country, the raw materials in such a country were cheaper. Therefore, Liancheng Yazhi had sent people here a few years ago and had already built up a considerable scale in the local area. However, he had always told his subordinates who came here to set up a branch company to keep a low profile abroad, or they would be easily beaten up by others. Therefore, the company's name was not very well-known here.

Mu weibai was a little worried. Jian Jie was almost fully recovered now, but for some reason, Kang Zhen still showed no signs of waking up. However, even though he hadn't been given a bottle of nutrient fluid for so many days and only had a few sips of water occasionally, his skin still looked very healthy, and his heartbeat and breathing were normal, he still didn't wake up. This made mu weibai very worried.

Their mission this time was very confidential, and he didn't want anyone else to know.

Thus, he hesitated and said, "our operation this time is very confidential. It wasn't easy to save her. Let's not look for anyone else. What if something goes wrong?"

Liancheng Yazhi interrupted him impatiently. there are no 'what if's. I've had enough of this kind of life. I want to go home, back to my wife and daughter.

He simply leaned against the back seat to recuperate. His injuries had indeed recovered a lot, but a gunshot wound was not that easy to heal. In addition, he had lost a lot of blood. These days, the journey had been bumpy and he had not rested much. Therefore, his body was a little weak. He opened his eyes and said,"Mu weibai, don't be too naive. Everything went smoothly when we came here, but we're going back with an unconscious person. Do you think we can go back through the normal channels? Even if you want to find some smuggling companies, do you have that much money on hand now? Can they be more reliable than Liancheng's men?"

Chapter 1476-unconscious

After he finished speaking, the car fell into silence. No one spoke again, and the atmosphere was a little awkward.

after a while, the simple voice broke the silence."I don't know what happened to Kang Yu. Why is he not waking up?"

Liancheng Yazhi frowned. there's no other way now. I can only go back and let Natsume take a look.

He was also worried, but there was nothing he could do. They were not doctors and no one knew what was going on.

Mu weibai hesitated for a moment. what kind of drug was injected into him by Qianqian's people? "

"What medicine?"

I'm not too sure either. Maybe Hanhan is a drug that can change the human genes and cause genetic recombination. Maybe I'm overthinking Hanhan, or maybe Hanhan is just fine. It's useless to say anything now. We can only confirm Hanhan after Natsume sees it when we go back.

Among the three of them, mu weibai was the most worried. Liancheng Yazhi and Jian an didn't know much about the people who had captured Kang Yu, but mu weibai knew more than them. Therefore, he knew more inside information and was naturally more worried.

Two days later, Liancheng Yazhi finally drove to the capital of country G. Liancheng Yazhi drove an old car and brought three people into the country's most prosperous city.

Afraid that his driving license would be checked, Liancheng Yazhi parked the car on a quiet and remote path and got out.

He said to the two of them, "you guys wait in the car, I'll go make a call. If you run into the police, just say that you're waiting for the tour guide, Yingluo."

Jian Jie nodded. alright. Go ahead. Be careful.

Liancheng Yazhi nodded and turned to leave. He was wearing a cap that slightly covered his face.

Moreover, there were some foreigners in this city, so an Asian face like Liancheng Yazhi's would not attract too much attention on the streets. In addition, he was wearing a hat, so his overly handsome face was not completely exposed.

Liancheng Yazhi first went to a convenience store to buy two bottles of soda and exchanged them for some coins. Then, he went out and found a public phone booth.

Liancheng Yazhi dialed a phone number. The person who was sent to set up the new company a few years ago was one of the backbones under him. He and the other party had a communication number that only they knew. Usually, when he called him personally, he would call this number.

After a while, the call went through, and a hesitant male voice sounded. "Hello, Yingluo."

liancheng yazhi looked around and said in chinese, " "Ling Luo, it's me."

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a thud on the other side of the phone. Then the other party lowered his voice and exclaimed, " "Young master ya, did I see this number wrong? is this a local number?"

Liancheng Yazhi quickly said, " you're not wrong. It's good that we're local. I'm in the capital of country G now. Don't care why I'm here. Pick me up first and arrange for me to return to China as soon as possible. Remember, be careful and cautious. You only need to know that I'm here. Don't let anyone know.

Okay, okay, I'll drive to Yingluo myself. Where are you? "

When Liancheng Yazhi was leaving, he found the road sign for the parking lot and reported it. He added, " "just remember to drive a plop-off car, don't be too eye-catching."

understood, " Ling Luo quickly said. please wait for me there. I'll be there soon.

Liancheng Yazhi hung up the phone and left the phone booth. He pressed his hat down a little and turned to walk back.

Chapter 1477 How do I tell you how I miss you?

Liancheng Yazhi walked back very quickly. His footsteps were light, and his mood was much better. This time, he finally had the feeling that he was really going home.

He counted with his fingers. He had been away for 72 days, two months and two days. He didn't know how things were at home. Had meowmeowmeow grown taller or lost weight? two months was neither long nor short for many people, but Liancheng Yazhi felt that he had been away from home for many years. These long days felt like years to him, and he didn't want to stay outside for even one day.

However, there was finally some hope now!

Liancheng Yazhi returned to the car and simply asked him, "How is it?"

yes, he's coming to pick us up. He bought two bottles of water for you two. Liancheng Yazhi threw two bottles of drinks to Jian an and mu weibai. "Did anyone come to check the car when I left?"

Mu weibai shook his head. no, I didn't. But a few passersby saw the dirty car and laughed at it.

"then it's fine, ran ran. as long as you're not a police officer, you'll be fine."

However, about ten minutes after Liancheng Yazhi said this, a few guys who had eaten their fill walked over from afar in their local police uniforms. When Liancheng Yazhi saw them, his heart tightened, and his hands on the steering wheel tightened. The two traffic police seemed to be targeting their car, which made them very nervous.

If the traffic police wanted to check their driver's license, they wouldn't be able to produce it. They wouldn't be able to produce their passports and ID cards either. They could only wait to be arrested.

When the traffic police were still 20 meters away from them, Liancheng Yazhi had already quietly taken out his gun and installed a silencer on the muzzle.

If there was really no other way, he could only kill them.

No one could stop him from going home. At this time, he would not hesitate to get rid of anyone who stood in her way.

Suddenly, an accident happened. A car rushed out from behind the two traffic police officers and was about to hit them. The driver immediately braked. The sound of the wheels rubbing against the ground was so loud that it hurt people's eardrums.

in the end, the car stopped about half a meter away from the two traffic police officers, which scared them so much that they knelt on the ground.

Soon, the driver got out. The driver was a young Asian man in his early thirties. He was about 1.7 or 1.8 meters tall and had a handsome face. Although he did not look particularly handsome, he had a charm that made people take a second look at him.

After Liancheng Yazhi saw him, he heaved a sigh of relief and silently put away the gun. "it's alright, that's ling lu." "

Then, they saw Ling Luo negotiating with the two traffic police officers for about ten minutes. After he stuffed a thick stack of money into the hands of the two traffic police officers, the matter was finally resolved.

The traffic police left immediately after getting the money. They had completely forgotten about the broken-down car that they had originally wanted to check.

ling lu waited until the traffic police had gone far before she quickly got into the car and drove to liancheng yazhi and the others.

Ling Luo got out of the car and opened the car door for Liancheng Yazhi. "Young master ya, get in the car."

When he saw that there were three other people in the car, he was stunned for a moment. But he quickly reacted and didn't ask any questions. He helped Kang Zhen get into the car.

Liancheng Yazhi was the last to get into the car. Before he left, he took off the license plate from the old car.

After he got into the car, the first thing he said to Ling Luo was, " get someone to destroy this car later. It's best if we don't even take it to the waste collection station.

Chapter 1478 It's everyone's responsibility to protect the Boss

"Alright, I'll get someone to do it." Ling Luo nodded.

I've arranged a place for you to stay. I'll Take You There now. You can stay there for now. I'll think of a way to send you away immediately.

When Ling Luo received Liancheng Yazhi's call today, she knew that something big must have happened to her boss. The moment she saw Liancheng Yazhi, she saw that he had lost a lot of weight and his skin had darkened. Although he was still majestic and noble, there was a world of difference compared to the elegant and Noble salary he had before.

Ling Luo didn't dare to ask any more questions. It was best not to ask a single word about the matters of her boss that she didn't want him to know. If her boss wanted to let her know, she would tell him even if she didn't ask.

Therefore, Ling Luo was very tactful and did not ask any questions about why Liancheng Yazhi was here.

"How are you going to send me back?" Liancheng Yazhi asked him.

Ling Luo smiled bitterly. young master ya, you definitely can't go through the proper channels like this. However, there will always be a way to Qianqian. I will definitely find a way to send you back to your country safely.

Liancheng Yazhi urged her. okay, but you have to be quick. I want to return to China as soon as possible.

"Don't worry, I'll definitely make the necessary arrangements," Ling Luo quickly said.

The car drove around the city for a full 40 minutes before they arrived at an independent villa.

From the outside, the villa looked a little old, but it wasn't particularly outstanding.

Ling Luo got out of the car and opened the car door for Liancheng Yazhi. "young master ya, we've arrived. this is the place i've prepared for myself when i'm running for my life. the food and water inside are enough for you to last for five days. i'll definitely send you away before the food runs out."

liancheng yazhi got out of the car and looked around."very good, yingluo."

Ling Luo introduced a house to Liancheng Yazhi. young master ya, there are many traps here. Don't be fooled by the mottled walls. The interior is actually made of steel plates that bullets can't penetrate. Moreover, there are many automatic alarms in the garden. Strangers who have never been here can easily trigger the automatic alarms, and the traps underground will be activated.

after he finished speaking, he demonstrated once again. after the alarm sounded, many dense sharp blades suddenly appeared from the flat lawn, all of which could penetrate a person's feet.

If anyone accidentally climbed up, they would be poked into a hornet's nest, but they would definitely lose their lives.

When they entered the room, Ling Luo explained the mechanisms in various places to Liancheng Yazhi.

After looking around the house, Liancheng Yazhi finally had the chance to sit down and take a sip of hot tea."Alright, I know. Thank you for your trouble."

Ling Luo said, "you're too kind. This is what I should do for you. Then, you can rest first. I'll go back first. I'll make some arrangements and find a way to return to China as soon as possible.

Ling Luo left the back seat, got into the car, and drove away from the villa. He wiped the sweat off his forehead.

He deeply felt the weight of the responsibility on his shoulders. He held a breath in his heart and did not dare to breathe out.

Although he used to call and email Liancheng Yazhi occasionally to report on the company's situation, it had been many years since he had met Liancheng Yazhi face to face.

The worst thing was that young master ya had suddenly appeared in the capital of country G without any warning. This was his territory, and he had to protect young master ya's territory even if he had to risk his life.

Otherwise, if something happened to young master ya here, Secretary Zhou would not let him off even if he died.

Ling Luo sighed again.

However, young master ya's matter wasn't easy to handle!

Chapter 1479 Don't doubt the person you use, don't use the person you doubt when ling Luo saw liancheng yazhi's appearance today, she immediately smelled the heavy smell of blood on his body. in fact, it was not only liancheng yazhi, but the other three people also felt the same. although there was no blood on his clothes, hands, or hair, the smell of blood that came from his skin and bones was very clear.

He must have killed too many people recently to have this smell.

Ling Luo was actually quite curious about what Liancheng Yazhi had done. Why did he kill so many people?

However, Ling Luo didn't dare to ask, not even a little bit of probing.

Right now, he could only worry about how to transport the four of them away, and it was a method that could not be done through normal channels.

If young master ya was alone, it would be easy to deal with. However, there were four of them, and one of them was unconscious. This would be difficult.

Ling Luo sighed once again. She finally understood what was written in those novels and on television. Once the Emperor wanted to travel incognito, the ones who would suffer would definitely be the officials of that day.

In the villa, Liancheng Yazhi finally took a hot bath and rubbed his body from head to toe carefully. After taking a shower and changing into the clothes that Ling Luo had prepared, Liancheng Yazhi finally felt like a human.

Liancheng Yazhi looked at himself in the mirror, whose skin had become a lot darker. He frowned. He had to take care of himself when he got home and not be despised by Rong Yan. She had always said that she liked his very handsome appearance. In order to maintain his position in his wife's heart, Liancheng Yazhi had always been very concerned about his face.

When he came out of the house and went downstairs, he saw Jian Yi asking mu weibai to serve the dishes.

Jian Jie walked very slowly. come down and eat. I made some noodles. I haven't had a decent hot meal in days. I almost forgot that I'm actually a living person who needs to eat cooked food.

"Your injury is fine now." Liancheng Yazhi came down while wiping his hair.

Jian Jie nodded. I'm fine. My injuries are almost healed.

His injuries were too common, and he didn't take the shot in the abdomen seriously at all.

Jian Jie had always said that he had a long life.

As Jian Jie ate, he said, "your subordinate's house will be pretty good. I just looked around. Anything here can be used as a weapon. He also has a small Arsenal of the latest weapons. This place is more than just for survival. Machine-made paper is the same."

Liancheng Yazhi rolled his eyes. the safer this place is, the better it is for us. Stop talking nonsense and eat quickly. We'll rest after eating.

Liancheng Yazhi had always treated his subordinates with the attitude of never doubting the person he used, and never using the person he doubted.

Since he had already believed in Ling Luo, what he needed to do now was to rest. After resting, he would set off on the road home full of energy.

Rong Yan didn't like his dispirited look, so he had to make himself feel refreshed and not look dispirited.

Ever since Ling Luo left, two days had passed with a blank expression on his face, and he had not made any more movements.

While Liancheng Yazhi was waiting anxiously, Ling Luo finally came again after staying in the room for two days.

there's a cargo ship from our country departing from the port. Its destination is the dock of S city in our country. I'm quite familiar with the captain, so I'll give him a heads up. However, when the time comes, you and the three of you will have to live in one of the containers on the ship. I've already told the captain that you can go out at night, but it's best not to do it during the day.

Chapter 1480-disguise game

Ling Luo had been busy with this matter for the past two days. She had thought of many ways, but she felt that none of them were reliable. Only this one could be considered reliable.

The captain of the ship knew him, and most of the crew members were also his own compatriots. They were basically all Asian, so even if there were surprise inspections by the coast police of other countries at sea, it would not be too conspicuous.

Liancheng Yazhi asked, 'cargo ship? how long will it take to reach s city's pier? When do we set sail?'

"The voyage will take ten to fifteen days. We'll set off tomorrow." Ling Luo was afraid that Liancheng Yazhi felt that it was too long, so she quickly explained, "young master ya, this is the safest way. there are too few private planes in this city. once they take off, the radar will definitely know immediately. if we are asked to stop for inspection before we fly out of the country, we will be finished. if we don't stop, their ground missiles will directly hit us. the plane is too dangerous."

Liancheng Yazhi nodded. He naturally knew this.

Although the freighter had been around for a long time, there were many freighters departing from the port every day, so it was not that eye-catching.

However, there was one more thing that Liancheng Yazhi did not think he could do.

"Ling Luo, we've been on the ship for so many days. We can't stay in the container all the time. Even if we can move around at night, there are so many couriers on the ship. They'll find us sooner or later."

Ling Luo hesitated for a moment. This was something that he had overlooked at that time."Then, what do you think we should do about this?"

Liancheng Yazhi pointed at Kang kun. you can arrange for the three of us to be his crew. You can put him in the container alone.

Ling Luo had a difficult expression on her face,"but the three of you don't look like crew members at all." We'll be discovered easily."

No matter if it was Liancheng Yazhi, Jian Jie, or mu weibai, these three people were all Dragons and phoenixes among men with an imposing appearance. With their looks and temperament, no one could tell that they were crew members. Just standing there would expose them.

Mu weibai said, "it doesn't matter. I've learned how to disguise myself before. Help me find some tools. I'll just dress the three of us up as sailors.

Mu weibai used to be an Ace in the Special Forces. When he was on a mission, he had to track, hide, go undercover, and do many other things. For example, in order to escape from the enemy's pursuit, he often needed to use makeup, so he had learned it before. Although his skills were not top-notch, he still knew some simple skills.

Ling Luo nodded her head repeatedly. that's good. Just tell me what you need. I'll get it done immediately.

In less than two hours, Ling Luo found all the tools that mu weibai wanted.

Under mu weibai's tussling, the three people quickly changed their appearance, and when they put on some dirty cheap clothes, they immediately gave people a feeling that the world had been turned upside down.

Mu weibai shaved off some of their overly heroic beauty and lowered the tips of their brows. In this way, they immediately looked very low in spirit. Their skin was a little darker, their hair was a little messy, and their eyes were covered. There were also some dark spots on their faces that had been exposed to the sun. At first glance, they really looked like ordinary people.

"Is this okay?"

Ling Luo's face was filled with surprise. sure, sure. This way, you won't be able to tell Yingluo. It's just that you guys are a little tall. When you're on the ship, you'll look even better if Yingluo bows a little. Tonight, you guys will follow me to see the ship. Tomorrow morning, it will be 70% done. By tonight, all the goods must be packed into boxes, and the personnel must be in place. Basically, you guys can just put on your clothes and rest at night.
