Chapter 1641: It's convenient to connect feelings

The number of people that Tang han caught was similar to what Liancheng Yazhi had estimated. He was quite satisfied with this result.

At least, Tang han didn't let him down.

However, this also made Liancheng Yazhi raise his vigilance against Tang han.

To be able to organize so many people in such a short period of time, quickly carry out a search, capture so many top foreign mercenaries, and even very rationally separate them into separate cells, this could only mean that Tang Han's actions and brains were very powerful.

In the future, if the negotiations went wrong and they were on opposing sides, Tang han would be a difficult enemy.

Liancheng Yazhi's fingers were tapping on the table. His fingers were as elegant and perfect as if he was playing the piano.

It seemed that he had to find a way to deal with Tang Zhen in advance. It was not enough to call Tang Zong back alone. He had to suppress Tang Zhen and have a few more bargaining chips.

Secretary Zhou's voice interrupted Liancheng Yazhi's thoughts."Young master ya, what should we do if some of them run away and cause trouble again tonight? If the firecrackers ring again tonight, you can't possibly tell young Madam that it's firecrackers again, right?" When Secretary Zhou said this, he sounded a little awkward.

zaixi yazhi raised her eyebrows. "no, zhenzhen, they probably won't tonight. they've suffered a heavy defeat, lost so many people, and lost a lot of weapons. they must be in a panic now and want to find a safe place to hide temporarily. moreover, they have too few people. they won't take the risk when faced with such a high-pressure search by the military and police. it's not easy for them to enter the capital, but it's too embarrassing to be wiped out before they even complete their mission."

After he finished speaking, Liancheng Yazhi suddenly frowned. He thought of another possibility. no, no, it's hard to say. Maybe they think that we must be certain that they don't have the ability to organize an attack in such a short time, so they want to take advantage of our relaxation to catch us off guard. Strengthen the security tonight and don't let your guard down.

Secretary Zhou hurriedly said, "yes, young master ya, Yingluo." the more liancheng yazhi thought about it, the more he felt that it might not be safe tonight. he picked up his phone and called tang han.

Tang han was still outside directing the operation. He had a phone on him and it rang. He looked at it and saw that it was an unknown number.

Tang Zhen was very puzzled. This was his personal phone number. The number of people in his contact list could be counted with one's fingers, and there were very few people who knew about this number. Who was calling?

Tang han picked up the phone suspiciously. Hello, Yingluo.

Then, Tang han heard a voice that he hated very much, Colonel Tang, we just met this morning, so I won't say hello to you. I hope you can arrange for the people around my house to wake up at night. They are likely to launch an attack tonight. The safety of my house is in your hands.

Tang han heard Liancheng Yazhi's voice and was shocked and angry.

"Liancheng Yazhi, it's you again. How do you know my phone number?"

In contrast to Tang Han's anger, Liancheng Yazhi said calmly, " Oh, it's like this. My subordinate said that since they found your office number, they also found your mobile number. In the future, it'll be easier to contact you. You see, it's quite convenient now. In the future, we might need to communicate more.

Tang han was so angry that he almost cursed. 'Convenient? convenient your ass!'

His phone number was rarely disclosed to the outside world, but Liancheng Yazhi had actually managed to find it.

Tang Zhen suddenly had a feeling that he didn't close the toilet door and let others look at him..

Chapter 1642: It's not that I'm not strong, but the enemy is too shameless

"liancheng yazhi, how much did you find out about me?" tang han asked coldly.

liancheng yazhi rubbed his forehead and said, " actually, I don't know much. I just want to know some basic information. After all, we might be relatives in the future. But don't worry, I don't know anything about your team's confidential information and I'm not willing to know either. I only know what I'm interested in and it's not illegal to do so.

If Tang han had a bone in his mouth right now, he would be able to break it in an instant.

Liancheng Yazhi had once again refreshed the bottom line of his shamelessness towards humans. Tang han was really starting to doubt if he and Liancheng Yazhi were to really stand on the opposite side in the near future. Would he be able to win against such a shameless opponent, who he always liked to be open and aboveboard?

This was the first time in Tang Han's life that he began to doubt whether he could defeat his opponent before they had even officially fought.

His current thoughts were,"it's not that I'm not strong enough, but the enemy is too shameless!"

Tang han took a deep breath. don't worry. As the People's Army, we will not let the lives and property of the people be threatened. Although I am very unwilling to protect you, I know my duty.

Liancheng Yazhi smiled. that's good. I agree with Colonel Tang's work attitude of being clear about gratitude and grudges. If there's a chance in the future, I'll treat you to tea.

"I won't drink tea with you if I don't have the chance." Tang han swore that he would never sit at the same table as Liancheng Yazhi again.

Liancheng Yazhi said in a relaxed manner, "that's hard to say. In the future, maybe we'll sit at the same table one day. Not only will we drink tea, but we'll also have to drink some wine. It's the wedding wine!"

Tang han frowned as he realized that something was wrong. "What do you mean? explain yourself." in the end, liancheng yazhi ignored his roar and said lightly, "Goodbye."

The phone was filled with the busy tone. Tang han was so angry that he slammed the table. "liancheng yazhi, don't you fall into my hands."

The people around saw that Tang han was so angry and didn't dare to get close. Someone carefully asked, "Commander Tang, who called you to make you so angry?"

Tang Zhen gritted his teeth and said, "a sinister, cunning, and shameless bastard, bi an."

Everyone sighed, "ah Yingluo."

Tang Zhen ignored them and quickly found his Adjutant. transfer some more people to the surroundings of Liancheng Yazhi's house and strengthen the encirclement. Increase the security tonight. Everyone, release the safety of your guns.

The Adjutant didn't understand. regimental commander, why are you sending more people? we've already wiped out so many people. Can these foreigners still organize an attack at night? "

"how do you know that they won't take advantage of your thoughts and catch you off guard?" tang han asked. Hurry up and do it, don't talk nonsense." Tang han had his own plans. Since Liancheng Yazhi asked him to strengthen the security, then he would deploy more people over. These foreign mercenaries were not a problem. After they were dealt with, the people he sent over would have Liancheng Yazhi wrapped in dumplings.

After Liancheng Yazhi angered Tang han, he felt much better. He went downstairs and gathered the bodyguards at home. Then, he reminded them not to be careless tonight.

Once night fell, anyone who approached the old residence without warning could be fired first.

After that, when Liancheng Yazhi learned that Tang han had mobilized many people, he only smiled slightly..

Chapter 1643: If sleep dares to come, I'll make sure he won 't come back

How could he not understand Tang Han's meaning? he only felt that after dealing with those mercenaries, it would save him the time to mobilize people to besiege him.

However, Liancheng Yazhi wasn't worried about this. He only needed to grasp Tang Han's weakness and release him when necessary.

In the country, Liancheng Yazhi would try his best to use his brain to solve problems and avoid using bloody means as much as possible.

In the evening, Liancheng Yazhi accompanied Rong Yan for dinner as usual and then took her for a walk in the courtyard.

Rong Yan's stomach was already very big now. Every time she walked alone, Liancheng Yazhi would be shocked when he watched her from the side. So, he tried his best to be by Rong Yan's side all the time. Even when he was not around, he would make arrangements so that Rong Yan would not be alone.

rong yan shamelessly hugged liancheng yazhi's arm and didn't want to move forward."Hubby, I'm tired, I don't want to go, Yingluo."

her body was getting heavier and heavier, and she was particularly tired after walking for a while. rong yan felt that she was so lazy that she was almost like an animal in hibernation. she didn't want to move a single step.

Liancheng Yazhi shook his head ruthlessly. no, don't be lazy. Hold on for a little while more and we'll go back to sleep. Be good, Yingluo.

Rong Yan pouted. son, look at how cruel your father is. He doesn't even know how to feel sorry for me.

Liancheng Yazhi pinched Rong Yan's nose in amusement and advised her nicely, "it's useless to act pitiful. The doctor said that it's better for you to move around more. It's almost six months now. Bear with it for a while longer and our son will be out soon. Can you deal with me after the little guy is out? "

"hmph!" rong yan pretended to be angry and turned her head to avoid looking at him.

Liancheng Yazhi leaned over and kissed Rong Yan's face."You're so petty. If you want to be angry, you can talk about it after we're done."

rong yan pouted and glared at him. resigned to her fate, she dragged his arm and walked slowly.

when they were finally done wandering around, liancheng yazhi discussed with rong yan, "baby, i've consulted the doctor. it seems that the pain of cesarean section is less than natural birth. let's do a cesarean section. you don't have to worry about the scar. when the wound grows, we can just remove the scar."

Rong Yan immediately shook her head. no, I read on the internet that C-section is not conducive to the relationship between the mother and the child. I'm afraid that C-section is not safe, so I'd better give birth naturally. MeowMeow is a natural birth, I'm not afraid of pain. It's okay.

liancheng yazhi hugged rong yan tightly, his heart aching. "When this little guy comes out, let's not have a child anymore, okay? We just want the two children.

Although Liancheng Yazhi liked the child between him and Rong Yan, he was even more unwilling to see Rong Yan suffer.

Rong Yan nodded. sure, I'll take the two of them.

at around ten o'clock in the evening, rong yan began to doze off. before she fell asleep, she suddenly asked liancheng yazhi, "will there be anyone setting off firecrackers tonight?"

Liancheng Yazhi was shocked. Rong Yan had always been sharp and he was really worried that she would find out.

He quickly shook his head. no, definitely no more. If anyone dares to set off firecrackers, I'll chase them away. If they dare to disturb my wife's sleep, they must have a death wish .

Oh, that's good, Yingluo. Rong Yan snuggled into Liancheng Yazhi's arms and fell asleep not long after she closed her eyes.

Liancheng Yazhi gently exhaled. He had been acting the same as usual recently, hoping that Rong Yan would not notice anything. If anyone dared to cause trouble tonight, he would be really angry.

If anyone dared to come, they would not be able to return..

Chapter 1644: A night that's too peaceful hides an even greater danger the first half of the night was as peaceful as the previous night. there was not even the sound of insects outside the window. after three in the morning, liancheng yazhi's mind seemed to have set an alarm clock and he woke up instantly.

That night, Liancheng Yazhi remained vigilant and did not dare to be careless.

When he woke up, Liancheng Yazhi glanced at the watch he had taken off at the head of the bed. It was three in the morning, and there was still no movement outside.

However, this did not mean that the night would be peaceful.

At this time, Rong Yan was sleeping soundly. Liancheng Yazhi gently pulled his other arm out from under Rong Yan's head and covered her with the blanket. Then, he took out earplugs and gently plugged Rong Yan's ears. He had Secretary Zhou spend a lot of effort to find these two earplugs, and after putting them on, the sound insulation effect was very good.

As long as it wasn't a missile or a bomb explosion, he wouldn't be able to hear the sound of gunshots.

Liancheng Yazhi had already closed all the windows in the room tightly before he went to bed. This could at least block out some sounds from the outside.

If there were really more gunshots tonight, then it wouldn't be long before Rong Yan would not be woken up.

After Liancheng Yazhi got up, he stood in front of the window and did not go out. He was listening.

Time passed very slowly. When he woke up, it was three O'clock sharp.

Standing in front of the window, he felt that a long time had passed, but when he looked at the time, only twenty minutes had passed.

as long as there were no more people seeking death tonight, he could stand here for the whole night.

An hour passed, and it was already four in the morning.

Just as Liancheng Yazhi was thinking that perhaps nothing would happen tonight, he suddenly heard a gunshot. After the first shot, the gunshots gradually became more frequent, but it was much sparser than last night. Liancheng Yazhi quickly glanced at Rong Yan. She was sleeping well and had not been woken up.

Liancheng Yazhi then hurriedly went out. He called kui mu, who was in charge of guarding the courtyard. send someone to check on Yingluo.

“young master ya, i’ve already sent someone over,” kui mu replied.

“Young master ya, there was something wrong with the gunshots tonight.”

Liancheng Yazhi narrowed his eyes. that’s wrong. It’s too little.

There were too few gunshots and people.

If they really wanted to launch an attack by surprise, they should use all their strength, all their men, and all their weapons to launch a large-scale attack as much as possible. They should not send a few people over to fire a few shots, which was obviously a suicide!

Since they knew that they wouldn’t be able to pass through, why did they send them over? They had suffered heavy losses during the day, so they shouldn’t have lost any more men.

“Young master ya, I suspect that they still have a backup plan,” kui mu said.

Liancheng Yazhi nodded. It was not that he was suspicious, but he definitely had a backup plan. No one was a fool, and no one would do a losing business.

He said coldly, “inform the people to increase security. Check all the surveillance cameras to see if there are any omissions. Turn on the radar and don’t leave anyone at all times. Report immediately if there is a situation.

Kui mu nodded, “it’s bi an.”

Liancheng Yazhi did not go upstairs again. He brought kui mu to the basement and took out all the weapons stored there.

After the weapons were distributed, the entire courtyard fell into an unprecedented tension.

The person that kui mu had sent out to investigate had returned. He reported, young master ya, I saw it very clearly just now. There were less than ten people who came here tonight, and their purpose didn’t seem to be to rush in. Instead, they wanted to delay the soldiers. After fighting for a while, they quickly retreated. After a while, they reappeared again. They seemed to be attracting the firepower..

Chapter 1645: I’ll protect my own family

Liancheng Yazhi nodded. I understand. You can go now. Be careful.

After the bodyguard left, Liancheng Yazhi’s face instantly turned cold. If that was the case, it meant that they had a backup plan.

liancheng yazhi was sitting in the living room with no one around. a few days ago, he had told the servants at home without rong yan knowing that they were not allowed to take a step out of the room after going to bed. if anyone came out, they would be picked up and left.

Therefore, Liancheng Yazhi was not worried that the servants would run around after something happened.

Right now, he was only worried about what the other party's backup plan was, and how they would appear.

since they had sent ten people to attract the firepower of tang han's men, it meant that their real method of attack was not to come in from the outside.

Liancheng Yazhi raised his hand and pinched the space between his eyebrows. If it wasn't an attack from the outside, would there be internal strife in his family?

Among the servants and bodyguards, were there their people?

No matter what, he could not take the risk. Liancheng Yazhi stood up and quickly went to Natsume's laboratory.

He knocked on Natsume's door.

"What's up in the middle of the night?" Natsume asked, scratching his head.

Liancheng Yazhi did not waste time with him and said directly, "no matter what happens later, don't come out. go into the secret room and put down the second door. if i don't inform you by dawn, don't come out by yourself." "what?" natsume woke up immediately. "did something urgent happen?"

' it's fine. go in quickly. remember to close the second door. i'll be leaving first.

" wait! " natsume called out to liancheng yazhi. " if it's really dangerous, send meowmeow and rong yan in. '

Liancheng Yazhi smiled. no need. You can't put all your eggs in one basket. I'll protect the two of them myself.

After saying that, Liancheng Yazhi left. On the way back to the house, a leaf suddenly fell on his shoulder. His hurried footsteps paused for a moment, then slowed down.

Liancheng Yazhi pinched the leaf on his shoulder and looked up at the sky. Suddenly, an idea flashed through his mind and he thought of a very serious oversight that he had previously missed.

Those people knew very well that it was impossible for them to pass through the line of defense set up by Tang han. If they were to meet force with force, they might not be able to come over even if all of them were injured.

In that case, they would have to think of other ideas.

Since they couldn't attack from the ground, what if they flew over the encirclement that Tang han had set up in the sky? what if they landed from the Sky?

Liancheng Yazhi's brows were tightly knitted. How could he have overlooked this before?

He called kui mu over again. quickly distribute all the sniper rifles and night vision devices. Pay attention to the sky. If you see an unknown object approaching the village from the sky, shoot immediately. Remember, before you shoot, you must install a silencer.

“Young master ya, you’re saying they’ll come down from the sky?” kui mu was surprised. I don’t think it’s possible for him to take a plane. The helicopter is too noisy.”

Liancheng Yazhi shook his head. I’m not sure, but it’s very likely. Don’t forget that helicopters are not the only way to come down from the sky. Don’t talk about it anymore. Do it quickly and ask our brothers who are good at shooting to go to a higher place to find a sniping position.

He wasn’t sure if those people would come down from the sky, but this was his loophole. If the other party really came down from the sky and he wasn’t prepared at all, he would definitely be caught unprepared..

Chapter 1646: Who’s whose prey?

Liancheng Yazhi felt a little uneasy.

Kui mu stood in front of him and raised his head, young master ya, we’ll definitely protect you, young Madam, and eldest young sister well.

“If I believe you, then you guys can go ahead.”

After kui mu left, Liancheng Yazhi looked at the dark sky. It was already 4:30 in the morning. He was destined to have a hard time sleeping tonight.

Liancheng Yazhi was sitting in the living room with a glass of water in front of him.

He didn’t move and looked at the rising smoke. The water hadn’t even cooled down yet, and the smoke was still rising. Then, he heard footsteps from the door.

One of the house’s bodyguards ran in nervously. “Young master ya, young master ya, Yingluo!”

“What is it?” Liancheng Yazhi asked sternly. Don’t be anxious, speak.”

Seeing that person come in, Liancheng Yazhi knew that something must have happened, so he walked out as he spoke.

The bodyguard quickly turned around and followed behind Liancheng Yazhi.

“Young master ya, you’re right. Those people are really coming down from the sky. Just now, the captain saw through the telescope that there seemed to be a white thing approaching from the sky. After a while, he realized that the thing was getting closer and closer. When he used the night vision device to look, he saw that the person was using a glider to fly!”

He spoke very quickly, but very clearly.

Oh, it’s the glider. after the man finished speaking, Liancheng Yazhi had already walked out of the house. He looked up and saw that in the dark night, several people on white gliders glanced over their heads. At this moment, they looked like huge birds with their wings spread, hovering in the sky, ready to dive down at any time to bite the prey on the ground.

Liancheng Yazhi's face was so dark that water could drip out of it. There was no warmth in his eyes. He reached out his hand, and the bodyguard immediately kui mu, inform all the snipers to keep an eye on them and shoot them down. Remember, don't let them find a place to land. We have to get rid of them before they land.

These mercenaries that flew through Tang Han's encirclement were definitely the most powerful people that were selected by those people. They couldn't shoot in the sky and their movements were inconvenient, but once their feet were on land, they were like fish in the sea. It would be extremely difficult to kill them.

Besides, even if the old mansion was big, it couldn't be bigger than the entire imperial capital, right?

Once they escaped his sight and caught Rong Yan, Liancheng Yazhi didn't dare to think about the consequences.

Moreover, this was his home, his and rongyan's home. Liancheng Yazhi didn't want anyone to invade his home and he didn't want them to destroy a single blade of grass in the house.

Kui MU's calm voice sounded, "yes, young master ya. Don't worry. All the snipers are already aiming and looking for the best time to shoot.

"Alright, I'll leave it to you."

Kui mu spoke to everyone through his earpiece, "Prepare for battle. We can't let them land."

Liancheng Yazhi stared at the gliders that were flying up and down. He suddenly turned back to the living room, picked up the sniper rifle he had prepared earlier, and walked out.

The bodyguard quickly said, "young master ya, young master ya, please don't take the risk." The captain will definitely be able to deal with those people."

Liancheng Yazhi walked out of the house. we're already in danger. Rather than waiting for them to attack, it's more dangerous. Why don't we take a risk now?

His voice was unusually calm, like a knife that could cut a mark on the stone with every sound.

Liancheng Yazhi climbed up to the roof with night vision goggles and binoculars in his hands..

Chapter 1647: Chapter 1647 -quenching thirst with poison

He chose a position that was more advantageous to him, and his sharp eyes looked at the gliders that were looking for landing points.

The sky was very dark, and he couldn't see clearly. It was easier said than done to hit the people in the sky. He could only see the hang glider, but not the person.

However, once the hang glider was knocked down, the person would be fine on the ground and it would instead backfire. Therefore, this shot had to be careful and could not be reckless.

At this moment, some of the people hiding around had already started shooting. The bullets from the muzzles were like shooting stars, cutting through the night.

However, it was too difficult to hit them. Some of them only hit the wings of the gliders, making it difficult for them to maintain their balance in the air.

After observing for a while, Liancheng Yazhi realized that their only chance might be the moment those people landed, when their feet touched the ground. Only then could they use the light in the courtyard to hit them.

However, he only had one chance. If he didn't kill them, but let them sneak into the yard, it would be hard to deal with.

Liancheng Yazhi said to kui mu through the walkie-talkie, " go down at the same time and find the right time to shoot. Remember, even if you can't kill them in one shot, you must make sure they can't move for a while. Then, you can fire another shot.

"understood," kui mu replied immediately.

After a while, he asked Liancheng Yazhi, " young master ya, they might just be the vanguard. They are here to Scout the situation first. There should be more behind. If there are too many people, we might not be able to hold on. Should we inform Tang Han's men to come and support us? "

Liancheng Yazhi flatly refused. no, we can't let Tang Han's people get involved in this matter. We have to solve it ourselves. I have already informed Secretary Zhou to bring people to reinforce us. I told everyone that they must survive tonight. It's almost dawn, and they don't have much time.

If they didn't succeed at dawn, they would have to retreat quickly. The military would arrive soon, and they would be dead.

However, to Liancheng Yazhi, they did not have much time either. They had to defeat the enemy before dawn.

Otherwise, if the police were to come, they would be in trouble.

Liancheng Yazhi was not afraid of being looked down on and said that he did not even have the ability to solve problems.

What he was worried about was that once Tang Han's men entered the courtyard, they would know about the situation here. In the future, it would be troublesome when he confronted Tang han.

letting tang han's men come at this time was undoubtedly equivalent to drinking poison to quench their thirst.

Kui mu didn't say anything else. yes, young master ya. I will definitely complete your orders.

As time passed, the gliders of those people couldn't fly in the sky for too long, so they began to land forcefully.

The first person landed in a Bush in the backyard.

he thought that there might be some shrubs there to hide him from the attack, so it would be difficult to hit him.

However, what he didn't expect was that the moment his feet touched the ground, although the bullets hadn't come yet, the ground under his feet began to shake.

Soon, there was a shrill scream in the courtyard. The foreigner cursed and held his feet in pain. He didn't dare to move because his feet were very unlucky and had been put in animal traps in the bushes.

Liancheng Yazhi had placed the cruelest animal trap there. The more it struggled, the tighter it became. The Sawtooth-like mouth pierced into the skin and could break bones.

Even if he was a powerful mercenary, he couldn't open the bear trap with his bare hands..

Chapter 1648: You must be cruel to your enemies

If he still wanted his legs, the best way was to lie there and not move. Otherwise, the more he struggled, the tighter the trap would be, and his legs would be broken.

Liancheng Yazhi had previously secretly ordered everyone to place beast traps or car stopping nails in all hidden corners of their homes. He did not expect that it would really come in handy today.

In the face of such a man who had lost his ability to fight, the bodyguard who stayed on the ground quickly rushed over and dragged him out of the bushes. Then, he tied him up with a rope, knocked him out, and threw him into the basement.

Liancheng Yazhi planned to leave this person to Tang han tomorrow morning. as for the bear trap on his feet, no one would have the time to take it off.

The first person to land had successfully lost his wing, so the higher-ups were even more cautious.

Since they couldn't land in the hidden bushes, they should be able to find a flat and open land, right?

two people in a group, one in front and one behind, landed at the same time.

The person who landed first protected the person who landed second.

Even if they killed the first one, at least the one behind was still alive.

But what they didn't expect was that just as the first man's feet touched the ground and he couldn't stand still, a bullet came out of nowhere and instantly shot through his knees. Then, he lost his balance and fell to the ground. He didn't have time to struggle and the second bullet hit him in the heart.

As a result, the second person who landed lost his cover and, like the person before him, was shot before he could even stand still. He lost his combat ability after one shot. After he died, bullets shot out from all directions and hit him like they were free.

the simplicity and ruthlessness of it was beyond human imagination.

after confirming that the two were dead, the bodyguards who were left on the ground to clean up the 'garbage' rushed out and dragged their bodies and the glider into the basement. then, they quickly and effectively wiped the blood off the ground.

Three people had landed, and all of them had died. The person hovering in the sky brought great pressure and fear.

It was because those three people's fate was too miserable. They either died or were permanently disabled. They didn't want either of these two things.

however, there wasn't much time left, so he had to give it a try.

Liancheng Yazhi counted. There were still six people on top. He estimated that they would either come down together or split into groups of three to try to land.

After five minutes, the six people hovering in the sky swooped down. They were not in a straight line, but a distorted path to avoid being aimed at. The six of them landed at different places at different speeds. Some landed on the grass, some landed in the flowers, and some landed on the roof.

Those who landed on the grass were the fastest to be dealt with. The target was too big, and the sniper closest to them killed them as quickly as possible.

Those who fell into the flowers were even worse off. There were many nails planted in the ground in the flowers, and they were all pointing up. As long as one stepped on them, they would definitely be stabbed.

Two foreign mercenaries who had fallen into the grass screamed and jumped out of the bushes. Before they could pull out the nails under their feet, the bodyguards who were lying in ambush around them swarmed up and covered them with a large net. Then, they hit them in the face with sticks.

It was only after they were beaten black and blue and had passed out and determined that they would not wake up for a while that they were tied up as mummies and thrown into the basement..

Chapter 1649: chapter 1649-merciless

The entire process was clean and crisp. They were fierce and well-trained, no longer inferior to regular troops.

After throwing the man into the basement, he still had time to pick up the flower that had been stepped on by the foreigner.

Seeing that the mercenaries in front of him were getting more and more unlucky, the fourth mercenary learned his lesson and landed on a tree fork in the backyard.

The book was about twice the size of a normal bowl and wasn't very thick, so it wasn't easy to hide someone here.

He thought to himself, "there can't be anyone hiding here, right?" but he was hugging a tree trunk. Just as he removed the strap on his body and pushed the hang glider away, the tree in front of him suddenly split apart, and heads appeared one after another. He was shocked and immediately reached for the gun, but the other party had already raised it. He didn't know what the other party had thrown out, but it seemed to be a dust-like thing. When his hand touched the gun handle, he felt his entire face burning, especially his eyes. It was as if they were burned. He couldn't open his eyes at all. He covered his eyes and screamed, falling from the tree with a bang.

under the tree was a cobblestone path. he fell straight down, and the huge inertia made the protruding cobblestones, which were not sharp, suddenly feel like needles, stabbing his whole body in pain. he fell so hard that he felt like all the bones in his body were about to break.

the foreign man, who was about 1.9 meters tall, was covering his eyes on the cobblestone path and wailing in pain. he felt like he was lying on a steel plate covered with sharp knives. his whole body was in pain. he took out a pistol with one hand and shot everywhere like a headless fly.

On the tree, two people were conversing.

one of them asked, "what kind of hidden weapon did you use just now?" It's so effective, is it poison?"

The other one said,"poison your ass, it's Chili noodles. Hurry up, go down and tie him up."

"F * ck, why do you carry chili noodles with you?"

what's wrong with bringing some chili noodles with me? I love spicy food. The food I eat every day either doesn't have any chili or just a little bit. It's not enough for me. Go down and catch him quickly. He's too tall. My legs go soft just looking at him.

The next second, a person jumped down from the tree. He did not slide down the trunk but jumped straight down.

He landed on the foreigner's body with his butt, and the foreigner's body straightened. His bones made a cracking sound, and the gun in his hand fell out of his hand. He opened his mouth and coughed out a pool of blood.

He didn't dare to be careless. He used both hands to hit the mercenary's head until he stopped moving. Then, he rubbed his hands and stood up.

hurry up and get down, " he said to the man on the tree. I can't drag it by myself.

but unexpectedly, the person on the tree said, " "You can do it. You drag him away, I'll wipe the blood he vomited clean, Huahua." damn you! Why didn't you shoot when you had a gun? '

"I was so nervous that I almost forgot. I haven't killed anyone yet, so I'm a little scared! Don't tell young master ya, we've already caught him."

"It depends on my mood."

He snorted and dragged the brawny man who looked like a dead body to the basement with difficulty.

out of the six people who descended from the sky, some were dead, and five were captured, leaving only one.

He landed on the roof, and Liancheng Yazhi happened to be on that roof.

From the moment he started to prepare to land, Liancheng Yazhi had been staring at him. Through the scope on the sniper rifle, the muzzle was pointed at him..

Chapter 1650: I welcome you to come here to die!

Liancheng Yazhi was just waiting for him to land and shoot. He counted in his heart.

His eyes were like a Falcon's, staring at his prey and not letting it escape.

The hang glider hovered two rounds above the roof. He did not notice the well-hidden Liancheng Yazhi, who then swooped down and landed on the roof.

In order to avoid the tragedy of the people in front of him, he grabbed the pistol in one hand before he landed. When he was two meters from the roof, he suddenly turned around in the air with his back facing down. Then, he began to untie the strap in the air and prepared to separate from the glider.

When he was less than a meter away from the roof, he was completely separated from the glider. The glider fell first, and he followed closely behind. There was not a second difference between them. This saved him the time to remove the strap after landing, and he would not be killed before he could even pull out his gun.

He thought that he was already sitting very well, at least he was not like the others who were killed before they could even stand still.

After landing, he quickly rolled around on the roof and found a suitable hiding place. Then, he immediately observed his surroundings. When he did not find any enemies, he decided to go downstairs.

However, he didn't expect that as soon as he turned around, his head, legs, and back knees would be shot. The Silent Bullet only made a slight sound in the air and went into his knee with a whoosh.

The intense pain made his legs go soft and he almost fell to the ground. While he was shocked, he quickly turned around and raised the gun in his hand.

Although he could not see the enemy, he had roughly determined Liancheng Yazhi's position based on the direction of the bullet.

However, his finger had just touched the trigger and was just a little bit away from pulling it. However, Liancheng Yazhi's bullet was much faster than his. Another bullet flew through the night and hit his arm. He felt a sharp pain and the gun in his hand fell.

He groaned and fell to the ground. Before he could cry out in pain, he used his other hand to grab the other gun on his body. As a result, Youyou was shot in the other hand.

It was as if they were toying with him. Every time he moved, a bullet would be shot at him, and every bullet would hit a part of his body.

In just a short while, he had been shot six or seven times, and the blood on his body flowed down and gathered into a stream.

Zhengliancheng Yazhi did not kill him immediately, but tortured him bit by bit.

When he could no longer move, he walked out with his gun.

Liancheng Yazhi didn't care if he could understand him and said in Mandarin, ‘ ‘As long as you tell me what the rest of you plan to do, I'll spare your life.’’ he didn't expect the man to understand him and even replied in stiff chinese, even if ran ran fails this time, we won't lose. Ran ran 090 must be our ran ran.

Liancheng Yazhi raised his eyebrows?

It seemed like this number was referring to Kang Zhen. Kang Zhen was one of their test subjects, number 090. He might also be the only test subject that had a chance of success. That was why they were so persistent in taking him away. Even if they had to chase him all the way to the imperial capital, they still wanted to bring him back.

Liancheng Yazhi sneered. He raised his foot and stepped on the bullet hole in the man's arm. Then, he crushed it hard, and the man could no longer hold it in and wailed.

Liancheng Yazhi bent down with a warm smile on his face and said to him, "when it comes to me, all of you will end up the same. Since I can save my brother from your hands. I can protect him. As for you, if you want to die, I welcome you..
