Chapter 1771: The less you know, the safer you are

Liancheng Yazhi smiled kindly and gently. “What do you think we should talk about now?”

Tang Zong shuddered. brother-in-law, Zhenzhen, you, you, Zhenzhen, don’t smile like that. It’s quite scary.

Liancheng Yazhi was still smiling. tell us the truth. You’ve thought about how to explain it to us after one night, right? “he said.

“I’m confused, I’m confused.” Tang Zong went back and forth for a while, but still couldn’t say anything.

Rong Yan hugged the pillow and said, “Tang Zong, I kept thinking about something last night. What you did couldn’t have been more dangerous than simple, right? if that’s the case, wouldn’t I be throwing my sister into this fire Tang Zong’s expression changed and he quickly said, “big sister, you can’t go back on your word. Besides, although what I’m doing is dangerous, the danger level is definitely not high. It won’t be as simple as it seems. I will protect Rong nuo well.

Rong Yan sighed. whether I regret it or not will depend on what you tell us. It will depend on whether you can hide it from us.

Tang Zong struggled for a while before he said, “brother-in-law, big sister, nuo nuo, it’s not that I don’t want to tell you. It’s just that it’s for your own good that I don’t want to tell you about this matter. The less you know, the safer you will be. Furthermore, they are actually quite far away from us. It doesn’t matter if you know or not.

Rong Yan was surprised. it’s so mysterious. You can’t reveal anything at all? ” “Not at all.” Tang Zong shook his head.

Liancheng Yazhi was very curious about Tang Zong’s identity, but he knew that there were many things in this world that you would never imagine. Since Tang Zong was not willing to say a word, he would definitely not be able to get anything out of him.

Liancheng Yazhi changed the topic. alright. Then tell us why those people suddenly came to China. What’s their purpose? ” Was it a coincidence, or did you come here on purpose?”

tang zong nodded his head. “their identities are indeed very special. however, i’m not too sure about their purpose in coming here. perhaps, it’s partly because i haven’t returned yet. they’re suspecting that i’m going to quit.” “Then are you in danger?” Rong nuo quickly asked him.

Tang Zong grabbed her hand. it’s not a big problem. I’ll explain it to them tomorrow. Besides, they can’t touch me here.

“Then tell us, are they powerful?” Rong Yan asked him.

Tang Zong nodded his head very seriously. the great Suan ni is very big. It can be said that other than our country, the other countries have basically infiltrated their forces. The reason why they have not been able to develop their forces in our country is because there is no suitable soil for them to grow in. Therefore, we are very safe here.

The domestic environment was completely different from that of foreign countries, whether it was life or people's character. Although the Chinese were becoming more and more integrated with the international community, they had been deeply influenced by traditional culture for thousands of years and had never stopped. After so many years, some ancient cultural heritage had been passed down in the blood like the DNA of the Chinese and could not be changed.

Liancheng Yazhi suddenly asked, "why did they bring a child over?" do you want me to get to know that child?"

"Tang Zong didn't even think about it. No, I've never seen that child before. I know the other three and have worked with them in the past, but I don't know about that child.. I'm also very curious, why did they come to China with a child?"

Chapter 1772: See if they have any ill intentions although Liancheng Yazhi's face did not show it, there was a subtle feeling in his heart.

people always maintained a high degree of vigilance and rejection towards unknown things and people.

didn't you say you were going to see them today? " Liancheng Yazhi asked him. are you going now? "

"yes, I'll go and change my clothes." Tang Zong nodded.

"Then should I go with you?" Rong nuo asked.

Tang Zong shook his head. you don't have to go first. I'll go and find out the situation first. If I'm sure that they don't have any ill intentions, I'll bring you there.

"Alright, be careful then." Rong nuo was a little worried.

Tang Zong nodded. don't worry. I won't.

Tang Zong went upstairs and changed into a casual outfit, a white t-shirt and sweatpants. his refreshing outfit made him look like a freshman who had just entered university, not at all like a man who had just gotten engaged.

"Sister, brother-in-law, nuo nuo, I'll be leaving first. I'll try to come back for lunch." Tang Zong said to them before he left.

"Go!" Liancheng Yazhi nodded.

after Tang Zong left, Rong Yan rubbed her forehead. "Why do I always feel uneasy?"

Liancheng Yazhi comforted him. don't think too much about it. We're in the country, not abroad. Moreover, Tang Zong's status is not worse than those people. He can't be unprepared. Rong nuo , you should go back to your room and rest.

After helping Rong Yan into the room to rest, he said a few words to her and then went to the study with his phone.

Liancheng Yazhi gave Secretary Zhou a call.

“Tang han, how was it? how was the battle last night?”

Secretary Zhou said a lot. Tang han was shot in the abdomen, but his internal organs weren't injured. He just lost too much blood and his body is very weak. He needs to recuperate. Now, they are already discussing who to replace Tang han. There are two people with the highest possibility. One is Tang Han's deputy commander, who will directly take over Tang Han's work. After all, he is very familiar with this matter. The other person is a master's degree student who just returned from the National Defense University of Technology. His name is mo zhongkai, but it has not been decided yet. I'll let you know immediately if there's anything I want to know.” liancheng yazhi's expression did not look good. he said, “mo zhongkai, check this person's background information.

Secretary Zhou nodded. I'm already investigating. It'll be out soon.

“How are the foreign mercenaries who attacked us last night?” Liancheng Yazhi asked again.

it was said that the last few people took two hostages last night and demanded that they be released. However, it was later discovered that the two hostages were their own people in disguise. Then, the sniper killed them all. No, it seemed that one person was left alive, but they hid this news.

after secretary Zhou finished speaking, he paused for a moment and then said, young master ya, those foreign mercenaries who entered the country ...

Almost all of them are in this category. Even if there are a few fish that escaped the net, they won't be able to do much. They can't cause any waves.

“I know,”

Liancheng Yazhi knew that Secretary Zhou was reminding him that once those people were taken care of, the only thing left would be the game between Liancheng Yazhi and the military.

at that time, the situation would only be worse than it was now.

However, the waters in the imperial capital were very muddy, and it was hard to say whether the military would be the main opponent.

Liancheng Yazhi could not make a move easily. He had to wait and see the situation clearly first..

Chapter 1773: The young man's determined eyes

On the other side, Tang Zong drove alone to block A of the Empire Building. On the way, he had many thoughts in his mind. What should he say and what should not be said when they arrived? Tang Zong did not know for now. Who knew what the situation would be like when the time came?

However, he knew that he would always correct his attitude and understand what he had to do and what he should do. He had to know that he was a man with a family.

The car stopped at the entrance of block A of the Empire Building. The doorman helped to open the car. Tang Zong passed the car key to him and asked him to drive the car to the parking lot.

After entering the main hall, the manager had already recognized Tang Zong and knew that he was the boss's brother-in-law. He hurriedly came over to ask if there was anything he needed.

"Where are the four foreigners who stayed here yesterday?" Tang Zong asked him directly.

"the people you mentioned are in the hotel's gym. do you want me to take you there? "

"no need, i'll go find them myself." Tang Zong walked towards the elevator. However, after taking two steps, he turned back."Oh, right, I'm not familiar with these people. Remember to collect money."

"Yes, yes, I understand." The manager was stunned for a moment before replying.

Tang Zong took the elevator and arrived at the hotel's specially set up gym on the 11th floor. The entire floor was filled with indoor swimming pools, basketball courts, tennis courts, and all sorts of fitness equipment. There was even a Boxing Hall.

Tang Zong didn't loiter around any other place and went straight to the combat room.

sure enough, he saw the few of them inside. in addition to them, there were a few beautiful girls. they seemed to be the tenants here. although the language was not very fluent, they were talking and laughing.

However, the young man was hitting a sandbag. He was already sweating a lot, but he didn't stop. His speed didn't even change. His golden eyes were unusually determined.

after tang zong walked over, he sized them up and said with a hint of sarcasm, you're living quite a carefree life. You've already picked up a girl so quickly.

Those few girls probably weren't very thick-skinned people. After Tang Zong's casual words, they felt embarrassed and left after saying a few more words.

it was still that golden-haired man. he greeted tang zong first. " hi, tang, you took so long to arrive. ' tang zong found a place to sit down. " no matter how slow i am, i'm still here. i only said that i'm coming. i didn't say when i'm coming. '

He shrugged. the girls here are very friendly. They're not as old-fashioned as you say.

"Then go and ask them if they want to spend the night with you. See if they're willing to." Tang zonggou laughed. Those girls just now only talked to you because they thought you were pretty. If you were really shameless people, how could you leave just because of my words?"

"Well, it's really hard for the girls here. Didn't Dunn say that he would bring your beautiful fiancée? Why didn't you come?"

she's tired and needs to rest. Maybe next time. Tang Zong dismissed him with a single sentence and asked, "How are you going to play? are you sure you want to go out on such a hot day?"

"I don't really care about this, just ask them," he said after some thought.

He turned around and asked, "Hi, how are you guys?"

The other two expressed that it was indeed not a good time to go out and play.

Tang Zong was just in time. He went along with her and said, "If you're not afraid of the rain, it'll rain the day after tomorrow. By then, the weather won't be too hot, so it'll be a good time to go out and play.."

Chapter 1774: my dear friend

After Tang Zong asked, he turned around and asked the young man, "Tyr, what do you think?"

This name caused Tang Zong's eyelids to twitch. He was using the name of the God of War in Norse mythology. To dare use such a name, just how powerful must this young man's family be?

Now, not only did Liancheng Yazhi realize that the young man had the highest status among the four of them, even Tang Zong felt that it was a little interesting.

that guy just now passed by the two people behind him and asked the young man for his opinion. it was obvious that the young man had to decide whether they wanted to go out or not.

Tang Zong had initially thought that this young man was just here to have fun. But it seemed like that was not the case at all.

The young man who was hitting the sandbag stopped and turned to look at them. He didn't say anything and continued what he was doing.

tang zong raised his brows. oh, this kid is not giving me any face.

The golden-haired young man shrugged helplessly. forget it. I'd better not go out the day after tomorrow. It's very uncomfortable to get sticky from the rain.

tang zong's mind spun twice. he smiled and said, "Then you're making things difficult for me? by the way, my old man has a garden-style manor. it's very beautiful and comfortable, and it's a good place to avoid the summer heat. if you're willing, i can ask him and take you there."

This made the golden-haired young man's eyes light up. "That's a good idea, don't you think? tyr, let's take a break."

as soon as he finished speaking, the young man's punch suddenly increased in strength and smashed down. the sandbag was instantly broken, and the sand inside flowed out like water.

Then, as if he didn't see that he had destroyed something in the hotel, he picked up a towel and walked over to wipe the sweat on his neck. He sat aside, picked up a bottle of water, unscrewed the cap, and drank it himself.

He didn't agree or deny what he had just said.

Tang Zong smiled and said, "young man, you're so strong. But this doesn't seem too good. You'll have to compensate for the damage.

The young man raised his eyes and glanced at Tang Zong. Then, he continued to drink his water calmly.

Tang Zong's heart skipped a beat. He suddenly recalled what MeowMeow had said today. She had said that the man with the golden eyes was very scary.

Tang Zong finally understood. It was truly frightening. The look he gave you made one feel as if they were being forced to the edge of a cliff by a ferocious beast.

If he didn't stop his attack, he would fall down.

The impact of that glance made Tang Zong not dare to underestimate this young man anymore.

Even he was shocked, not to mention MeowMeow.

rang Long suppressed a sneeze as he glanced at his watch. "If you're not saying anything, does that mean you have no objections? It's getting late, so why don't you guys discuss it first? When there's a result, I'll take you there and go home to ask for my sister's opinion."

Didn't you say that the manor belonged to a Mr. Gu? How did she become your sister?"

Tang Zong explained, "My sister is Mr. Gu's daughter. The garden is now under her name. I'll take my leave first. Come and find me after you've discussed it."

Tang Zong prepared to leave. Although he didn't ask anything, it wasn't appropriate to ask now. Since they wanted to play, then they should play first.

Tang Zong bade them goodbye and was about to leave.

However, before he reached the door, a gust of wind suddenly came from behind him and wrapped around his shoulder. The wind whispered in his ear, "Dunn, my dear friend, we haven't seen each other for so long.. aren't we going to have lunch together?"

Chapter 1775: The little girl who looked like a Barbie doll

The person who spoke this time was the man who had moved to Rong nuo's side in a flash last night. He had short hair and looked very tough.

This was the one who was responsible for defense among the four people that Liancheng Yazhi had mentioned. He had the highest martial strength.

Tang Zong took a look at the hand on his shoulder. That hand seemed to be gently placed on his shoulder, but in fact, it was very strong, and he almost couldn't break free.

Since he couldn't break free, he simply stood there without moving. He smiled and said, "I want to keep you company too, but I have to go home to have lunch with my fiancée and family."

"Dunn," he said, "you've had many meals with them since you came back. One more time won't make a difference."

His words were a bit of a trap. He had been with them many times in the past, but he had never said that there would be many opportunities in the future.

Tang Zong did not seem to understand and said, my friends, I'm sorry that I can't have lunch with my family today, This is the first time I'm having lunch with my fiancée after we got engaged. You may not understand the meaning of our country's people's dining table and our treatment, but this meal is very important.

After Tang Zong finished speaking, the hand that was pressing on his shoulder suddenly increased in strength. It was as if he had suddenly gained a few hundred pounds of weight. He almost couldn't hold on and wanted to kneel down. He gritted his teeth and held on. Damn it, he must not lose face here.

"tang, you really can't accompany us for lunch?" he asked tang zong. Tang Zong forced a smile on his face and continued, "I'm sorry, but I can't today."

"That's a sad thing." "Why don't you take us to your house, Yingluo? I believe your family won't mind if your friend comes to visit, right?" he suddenly said.

Tang Zong cursed in his heart. Damn you, you actually want to follow me home. I don't know if it's a spur of the moment decision, or if they've already discussed it.

Tang Zong's legs were already trembling. He had to get out of here as soon as possible.

tang zong's face was still filled with regret and apology as he said, Oh, I'm really sorry. I'm still living in my brother-in-law and sister's house, so if I want to invite you back, I'll have to get their permission first. After all, I'm also a guest in my brother-in-law's house. But don't worry, I'll tell my brother-in-law when I go back this time. My brother-in-law is a very gentlemanly person. You saw him yesterday, so I'm sure he'll welcome you very much.

However, the other party still refused to let him go. "Since he's a very gentlemanly man, there shouldn't be a problem if we go over, right?"

"This Tao Wu ..." Tang Zong was truly speechless. The other party had refused to give in. No matter what he said, he could always find a reason to refute.

Fortunately, Tang Zong was quick-witted and remembered what MeowMeow had said. He put on a troubled look and said, "actually, it's not that I can't bring you guys, but Yueyue, our little princess is very scared after seeing the look in Tyr's eyes yesterday. She can't leave Tyr's side after she goes back. So, it's a little difficult to ask you guys to go.

Tang Zong silently said in his heart,"

Tang Zong's words caused the four of them to be stunned. The young man gave Tang Zong another look.

The person who was pressing on his shoulder said, "little princess?" Oh, it's that girl who's as pretty as a Barbie doll.."

Chapter 1776: Is there a need to continue being friends?

Actually, Tang Zong regretted it immediately after he said yes, that's the little girl. My brother-in-law's family loves her so much that they're afraid of her falling. It's just that she's a little timid and her health hasn't been good since she was young. So, if I want you guys to go over, I have to go home first and tell her not to be afraid of Tyr. Otherwise, if she's afraid of having a fever at night, my brother-in-law will definitely chase me out.

Since Tang Zong had already put it this way, they naturally couldn't say that they were going to follow him home.

However, that person's tone changed as he laughed, "if that's the case, then I don't dare to go. Why don't we not eat? there should be time for a drink. If you refuse even this, Tang Qianqian thinks we really need to reconsider whether we should continue to be friends.

Although he said this with a smile, Tang Zong clearly understood that he was threatening him.

In the past, Tang Zong would not have been so passive if he had to face one of them. However, there were four of them now. Regardless of whether it was in terms of numbers or individual combat strength, Tang Zong could not compare to them.

But to really stay?

Of course, this Tang Zong would not think about what he was afraid of now. They were insistent on keeping him here, and he wondered if they had any other motives.

And if he stayed, would he be able to return?

Tang Zong tried his best to come up with a new excuse. However, he realized that whatever he said now would not be convincing.

In the end, he gritted his teeth. Since he couldn't avoid it, he would accept it. He would give it his all and see what they wanted to do. As long as he didn't leave the hotel, it should be fine since it was still Liancheng Yazhi's territory.

Tang Zong smiled and said, "alright, let's go for a drink then. My brother-in-law said that this hotel has a special place for leisure. How about we go there?"

"sure," the man who was pressing on his shoulder said.

He turned around and asked the three people behind him, "Then let's go."

The other two didn't move, but when the young man put down the bottle, they smiled and agreed. "Sure, it'll be much more convenient this way."

Tang Zong heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, they didn't mention anything about going to other places.

"Then follow me. The bar is in the lounge area of No. 10." Tang Zong said to them.

And so, that person continued to walk forward with his arm around Tang Zong's shoulder. To outsiders, it looked like a beautiful picture of the two brothers, but in reality, only Tang Zong himself knew that his right shoulder was already hurting so much that he could barely feel anything. This bastard, his strength was really not ordinary.

Since they were on the 10th floor, they didn't need the elevator at all. They could reach the hotel very quickly by taking the stairs. Tang Zong sighed in his heart. Liancheng Yazhi had everything in this hotel. It was really a good thing.

The bar was very spacious, and the decoration style was simple and elegant. The blue walls and the lights were of a cold tone. Once you entered, you felt as if you had entered the underwater world.

Tang Zong had yet to drink anything when the waiter asked with a smile, his smile was very familiar. if someone who didn't know heard it, they would definitely think that tang zong often came here to drink.

Even Tang Zong himself was shocked when he heard this. Could it be that he had been here before? but Yueyue had never been here for a drink before..

Chapter 1777: Liancheng Yazhi I s good intentions

Tang Zong felt a little strange. Could it be that this waiter knew him?

no, even if they knew each other, he should have asked what they wanted to drink today. instead, he should have asked what they wanted to drink today. The former meant that it was his first time here, while the latter emphasized that he had been here before!

Tang Zong was a little puzzled, but he didn't have time to think about it. He said, “I'm driving today, so I can't drink. But Yingluo is with a friend, so of course I have to drink a glass of whiskey.” the waiter nodded and said, “okay, yingluo.”

“How many of you?” he asked the other four foreigners.

They each ordered the wine they wanted to drink, but the young man didn't ask for anything.

Farnhill, who had been holding Tang Zong down all the way here, raised his glass and said to Tang Zong, “ come on, tang. we haven't seen you for a long time, but you look better than before. we're surprised! ”

Tang Zong smiled and continued his sentence. He raised his glass and clinked it with his.”I'm doing well, isn't that good? If I'm a good-for-nothing in China, you guys would lose face if you come here to play.” when you came back, I made a bet with Leon that you would definitely come back in a week. I didn't expect you to stay for a year. If we didn't come to find you, how long did you plan to go back? ”

The smile on Tang Zong's face stiffened for a second, and his heart skipped a beat. This question was finally getting to the point.

Tang Zong quickly regained his composure. at that time, I didn't expect to meet the woman I liked after returning to China. You guys are all unmarried and don't have a real girlfriend. If you really have someone you like, you can understand my thoughts. When you like a woman, you will want to be with her. With her around, everything will be warm and blooming.

Although Tang Zong's words sounded like he was expressing how much he loved Rong nuo, in reality, he was telling everyone. I already have a woman I like, so I don't want to leave her.

Tang Zong was just short of brazenly saying that he wanted to stay in the country with his fiancée.

Farnhill patted Tang Zong's shoulder. “Aiyo, you've really become a saint of love, Yingluo.”

The place that he slapped happened to be the place where he had injured himself earlier. His hand was pinching Tang Zong's shoulder blade. "That means you're not planning to go back."

Tang Zong's face was pale from the pain, but he still endured it and said, "I don't know. I'll go wherever my fiancée is."

Tang Zong's body was on the verge of collapsing, and he was about to fall off his chair.

Suddenly, the manager of the hotel ran over in a panic. When he saw Tang Zong, he panted and said, young master Tang, you're here. Young master ya called to look for you, but you didn't tell him. He said that when you come back, remember to go to 6:30 and help the young miss buy her favorite Black Forest Cake. You must get it, or else the young miss will definitely not eat lunch today.

After the manager finished speaking, Tang Zong finally understood why that waitress seemed to know him.

It turned out that this was all Liancheng Yazhi's arrangement. He was afraid that Tang Zong would be bullied, so he quickly informed the hotel staff to keep watch. As long as Tang appeared, they had to act very familiar with him. This was a form of deterrence and threat.

Liancheng Yazhi told them not to act rashly here. This was his territory, and similarly, this was Tang Zong's territory. Before they did anything, it was best to figure out whether Tang Zong was someone they could deal with. For Tang Zong, Liancheng Yazhi had really put in a lot of effort this time..

Chapter 1778: It's a very happy thing to have a family

At this moment, Tang Zong really liked Liancheng Yazhi very much. He really wanted to go home and give Liancheng Yazhi a tight hug.

Indeed, after having a fiancée, he had so many more family members. If it was in the past, no one would care about his life or death.

Tang Zong smiled and nodded. alright, I'll remember it. Tell the others that I'll definitely go and buy it. Tell that serval to wait for me at home.

"Oh, that's right. Remember to arrange a driver for me. I'm drunk and it's not convenient for me to drive." Tang Zong suddenly thought of something.

The manager nodded. alright, I'll make the arrangements.

After he left, Tang Zong said to them, " i'm sorry for letting you see this. when my wife wants to eat something, she must eat it. otherwise, when she cries, the whole family will be heartbroken. " [meowmeowmeow: you're so annoying. I'll scratch you. I'm not that kind of person at all. I've never been greedy. Hmph!]

The golden-haired young man swirled his wine glass and smiled as he looked at Tang Zong. I suddenly realized that you're quite envious like this. You have everything. Sometimes, you're envious.

he didn't finish his sentence, which made people curious about what he wanted to say.

However, Tang Zong guessed that it was definitely not something good. Hence, he would not ask.

“You’ll understand when you find a fiancée. When I was young in the Tang family, I never knew that family could be like this. Now I know that it’s a very happy thing to have a family.”

Tang Zong was speaking from the bottom of his heart. These were his true feelings.

In the past, when he was in the Tang family, everyone was afraid and hated him. Whoever saw him would have to walk around him. He also couldn’t stand everyone in the Tang family. He didn’t want to kill them. He just wanted to torture them bit by bit to see them in pain, to see them curse at each other, to beat each other, to see them torture each other.

tang zong used to think that family was nothing more than two unrelated words in the textbook. now, he finally understood that family could be so warm.

Just like Liancheng Yazhi. No matter how he bullied Tang Zong, no matter how he used him, he would never hurt his roots. At the critical moment, he would not leave him and would not hesitate to reach out.

“Now that you’ve said that, I’m even more jealous,” the blonde young man chuckled.

Tang Zong’s heart clenched. He had just said that he was envious, but now, he was jealous.

This wasn’t something that was said unintentionally. Envy and jealousy were two antonyms.

This was a sign that their malice towards him had increased, and this was not a good sign.

Tang Zong was still smiling. there’s no need to be jealous of Qianqian. As long as you want it, anyone can get it. I used to think that this kind of thing was as difficult as the heavens. But now, I feel that it’s not that difficult to get it. As long as you’re sincere, it’ll be fine.

Faern Hill finished the wine in his glass in one gulp. ts, ts, Dunn, you’re not like the person you were before. You’re talking more and more like a priest in a church. You can try.

“That’s a good suggestion. In the future, if I lose my job, I’ll go to the church and try it out.” Tang Zong said as if he was joking.

After Tang Zong finished speaking, the rest of them stopped what they were doing.

Unemployed?

What did Tang Zong lose?

What he meant was that he had left their organization.

However, they all knew that it was easier said than done to escape.

Otherwise, what were the four of them here for?

Chapter 1779: We were originally evil people farnhill laughed. ” dunn, you really like to joke. come and have another drink.

Tang Zong took his own glass, his mouth facing down, blocking Farnhill's action of pouring wine. no, I can't drink anymore. We agreed to only drink one glass. It's getting late. If I don't go buy the cake now, I won't be able to explain it to my family.

the golden-haired young man walked over and stood on the left side of tang zong. " how can one glass be enough? we used to drink, but we've never drunk so little. this is not like you.

He placed all the bottles of wine on the counter in front of Tang Zong and told him with a bright smile,"We'll let you go as long as you finish this?"

tang zong's heart skipped a beat. it seemed like she really didn't intend to let him go.

"Tsk, that's not very good. If I drink it like this and go home, my fiancée won't let me off. Do you want us to fight as soon as we get engaged? Farnhill, what you're doing is very evil!"

farnhill grabbed tang zong's arm from the right. yeah, we're evil people. You know that. If you don't agree, we can do even more evil things!

The pain in Tang Zong's arm was getting more and more intense. That guy was so strong that it seemed like he was going to crush his bones.

Tang Zong gritted his teeth and held on. He couldn't drink it!

he endured the pain and smiled. " you can't drink. i want a child in the future.

you can't drink. "

Farnhill easily lifted Tang Zong's arm and grabbed his hand to get the bottle.

"But Yingluo, you have to drink it today."

Tang Zong was in so much pain that his back was covered in cold sweat.

However, he was still smiling. "Farnhill, it's not good to force people like this,"

"It's not good to force her, but Yingluo, I like it this way."

Just as Tang Zong felt that his bones were about to be crushed, the young man who had been silent all this while suddenly called out, "Farnhill!"

The young man's voice seemed to be in the middle of voice change. It was a little hoarse, but his words were clear. When you heard others speak a foreign language, you would think that they were speaking bird language and it was very unpleasant to hear. However, when it came from his mouth, it was very convincing.

Just after the young man called out, Farnhill let go of Tang Zong's arm, and his attitude suddenly changed. He actually said, alright, you can go back for dinner today. But you must remember that we're waiting for you here.

Tang Zong was extremely surprised. Could it be that the young man had called out Farnhill's name just now to ask him to let him go?

But why did he let him go?

Even though Tang Zong was very suspicious, he didn't have the time to think about it. Since he could leave now, he should hurry up. He wasn't a fool.

Tang Zong acted as if nothing had happened. He nodded and said, "don't worry, i'll take you out once you've finished your discussion."

The man who had been staying by the young man's side without speaking said, tomorrow. Nine in the morning tomorrow.

"So early?" Tang Zong was stunned for a moment and quickly asked. That's good too."

No matter what they said, he just had to deal with it for now.

Moreover, it was still too early to go home at nine O'clock tomorrow. He could still make it in time to ask his brother-in-law for help to decorate the manor.

I'll be leaving first. I wish you a happy stay here. If you have any questions, go to the manager.

Tang Zong threw out these words, turned around and left..

Chapter 1780: If it wasn't for you, I really wouldn't have come back today

As soon as he entered the elevator, Tang Zong immediately leaned back. The smile on his face was no longer there, and he was in so much pain that his whole body was burning.

He took a look at his arm. Damn it, there were already signs of subcutaneous bleeding. It would definitely be bruised tomorrow. How many days would it take to recover?

Those bastards were too infuriating.

Tang Zong wiped the sweat off his forehead.

Just as Tang Zong walked out of the bar, the waiter secretly informed the manager. The manager was already waiting at the electric elevator on the first floor. The moment Tang Zong came out, he hurriedly went to help him up. "Young Tang, the driver and car are ready for you. Please leave quickly."

"Alright. Thank you for today. I'll talk to my brother-in-law about it later." Tang Zong nodded his head at the manager.

"It's my duty," the manager was overjoyed and quickly said.

Before getting into the car, Tang Zong whispered to the manager, pay more attention to those four people. Note down where they went and what they did. The manager nodded. I understand. I understand that Wanwan is staying here.

As long as they go out, we'll have eyes everywhere.

"Good Zhenzhen will do that."

Tang Zong finally got into the car and drove all the way to the Liancheng family's old house.

it was 12:40 a. m. when tang zong returned home.

As soon as Tang Zong entered the room, MeowMeow was the first to shout,

“Little uncle-in-law is back.”

Tang Zong happily walked over to Bao Bao. “Al, baby, little uncle is back.” he had used Rong nuo immediately stood up. you’re finally back. Did anything happen? ah, what happened to your arm? ” on tang zong’s arm, there was a circle of purple, which looked very frightening. faern hill had used too much strength, and the bruises also appeared very quickly.

tang zong’s arm was still in pain, and he couldn’t speed up.

Tang Zong used his other arm to hug Rong nuo.”It’s fine. It’s fine, Yingluo.

Don’t worry.”

He came to Liancheng Yazhi. thank you, brother-in-law. If it wasn’t for you, I’m afraid I wouldn’t have come back today.

Liancheng Yazhi glanced at him and said, “it’s good that you’re back. Let’s eat.” &Nbsp;

“You guys haven’t eaten yet?” Tang Zong was surprised.

Rong nuo said, “of course, we’re all waiting for you.” &Nbsp;

“Hehe, I’ll definitely be back on time next time.”

While they were eating, the problem with Tang Zong’s arm started to arise. His right arm had been abused by Farnhill, so he couldn’t lift his arm at all, nor could he pick up his chopsticks.

However, she was very unfamiliar with using chopsticks with her left hand. In the end, Liancheng Yazhi said, ” “Go find Natsume and ask him to apply the medicine on your arm.”

“ah? But I’m still hungry, let’s eat first. Actually, this injury only looks a little scary, it doesn’t hurt at all.”

The whole family was waiting for him to come back for dinner. Tang Zong did not want to leave at the dinner table.

As he was speaking, he didn’t see a little radish head running over. She stretched out her little hand and poked his arm. Immediately, Tang Zong gasped in pain.

tang zong lowered his head and saw that

Looking at this little girl, Tang Zong could not find the words to blame her.

he endured the pain and grinned at meowmeow, ” “It doesn’t hurt, really.”

Rong Yan held back her laughter and asked Liancheng Yazhi to bring MeowMeow back.

In the end, Tang Zong did not leave in advance. After dinner, Liancheng Yazhi brought Tang Zong to Natsume’s laboratory.

While Natsume was bandaging, Liancheng Yazhi asked, ” “Tell me, what’s the situation? How did you end up like this?”
