

Permit Me 1871

Chapter 1871: want to become famous

After Feng nongtang heard this, he immediately felt that the atmosphere had changed. He quickly asked, "What's wrong? It's that serious?" yes, " Liancheng yazhi replied. " it's very serious.

"how did mo zhongkai offend you?" feng nongtang asked, puzzled. i've been in contact with him a few times. he's a steady person and he does things well. he doesn't seem like someone who would offend anyone."

Liancheng Yazhi ridiculed, "what?" Do you think I'm picking a fight with him on purpose?"

Feng nongtang quickly laughed. of course not. Even if you're free, you wouldn't look for trouble with him. He's not worth it. I'm just curious, Yingluo, how did The Grudge between you two start?

Liancheng Yazhi did not tell him, "when he finds you, you can ask him yourself."

"Don't, tell me, tell me about it."

"i don't have the time to talk nonsense with you. you just need to remember everything i just said."

I'll remember it, of course I'll remember it. How could I dare to disobey your orders? "

Liancheng Yazhi finally said, " I'm serious this time. No matter who it is between you and your wife, don't come to me or Rong Yan to plead for them. It's useless even if you say it.

Feng nongtang swallowed his saliva. Based on his understanding of Liancheng Yazhi for so many years, it must be a great thing to be able to remind him twice.

It seemed that mo zhongkai had really offended this master.

Although the mo family and ye nuanyang's family had a close relationship, between mo zhongkai and Liancheng Yazhi, Feng nongtang would definitely choose Liancheng Yazhi first.

Not to mention their friendship since young, even a fool could see that mo zhongkai was hitting a stone with an egg by going against Liancheng Yazhi.

okay, don't worry, "Feng nongtang said. I'll talk to nuanyang. We won't bother you even if the mo family comes to find us.

that's good. That's all. I'm hanging up.

Liancheng Yazhi hung up after he finished speaking.

feng nongtang said hello to the phone for a long time, and when he heard the busy tone, he sighed, " "This guy, what has he been busy with recently? why is he so mysterious?

However,

When Liancheng Yazhi told him about this, it would give him a special opportunity to talk to ye nuanyang.

Feng nongtang clenched his phone tightly. This time, he had to grasp it.

whether she and ye nuanyang could return to their old days would all depend on this.

Liancheng Yazhi and MO zhongkai were sitting in private, both wanting to win the lawsuit in one fell swoop when the court session started.

However, there was a problem with mo zhongkai's request for a lawyer. He didn't have much money left, but the city's top lawyers were either too expensive or urged the other party to directly say that they wouldn't do it no matter how much money they were offered.

MO zhongkai had no choice but to spend a lot of effort to invite the boss of an unknown small law company.

The lawyer wanted to become famous overnight, and he was indeed talented. After they met, they hit it off.

The lawyer with the surname Qian said to mo zhongkai, "Mr. Mo, it's not too difficult to win this lawsuit. None of the judges have seen the real work. Even if they can provide some special evidence of the real work, who knows what it is? Were they telling the truth? For things like calligraphy and painting, the painter has been dead for hundreds of years. Even if it's an expert or scholar, they can make mistakes."

All the girls, Happy Mid-Autumn Festival. I really want to take a break for the big holiday, Yingluo..

Chapter 1872: The more you torment yourself, the more you lose

"Only what?" mo zhongkai asked.

Lawyer Qian smiled. "If they can find evidence to prove the authenticity, then so can you, Qianqian. As long as the evidence you find can refute and prove that their evidence is fake, then everything Qianqian and the others said will be invalid."

"If they got it, it would be a fake from the start, and it wouldn't matter if they exchanged it or not, don't you think so?"

MO zhongkai looked at lawyer Qian with a faint smile. He was calculating in his heart. He had spent money to hire this lawyer. To be honest, Qianqian had profited from this. This person did have a brain.

However, mo zhongkai said, "Are you asking me to create false evidence?"

Lawyer Qian shook his head. Mr. MO, you must be joking. This is not perjury. This is a way to win the lawsuit. Besides, what is considered perjury? Even if it's exposed, it can only prove that the information that someone else gave me is fake and can't be considered as false evidence."

"As long as it's an old object, there will be many legends passed down. But Yingluo, which one do you choose to believe? Just because you believe in this and not that, you can say that it's false testimony? It's just that Yingluo's source of information is different."

MO zhongkai nodded. He was very satisfied with lawyer Qian now, " lawyer Qian, you're really well-versed in everything. I believe that if we work together, we can definitely win this case.

Lawyer Qian nodded. I also believe that we can win.

the two of them stood up and shook hands. they looked at each other and smiled.

It wasn't easy for mo zhongkai to create some evidence out of thin air to prove that the paintings given by the antique store were fake. First of all, even if it was just for show, he had to really look for it.

This search would definitely be known by the people who had been monitoring him.

When Secretary Zhou called Liancheng Yazhi to report, he said, young master ya, that kid found a lawyer. The two of them got together and it's really disgusting. They actually tried to create fake evidence.

Liancheng Yazhi raised his eyebrows. This mo zhongkai gave him another surprise. He originally thought that it was ridiculous enough to go to an antique shop in the middle of the night to destroy the evidence.

He didn't expect there to be something even darker.

liancheng yazhi asked secretary zhou. " who's that lawyer? who's his family?

investigate him. "

Secretary Zhou said, " I've already sent someone to investigate. I think the one who gave mo zhongkai this bad idea is this lawyer.

Liancheng Yazhi said, " let them be. They're going to lose anyway. The more they struggle, the more they'll lose. Go and urge them to bring forward the court date.

"Okay, I'll call and ask Yingluo."

Just after Secretary Zhou called to ask, the court sent a message two days later, hoping to settle the dispute before the court session.

However, Liancheng Yazhi directly refused. He didn't need to settle this in court. What he wanted was to destroy mo zhongkai's reputation in court.

When the court sent news that they hoped to reconcile the two parties before the court session, mo zhongkai's heart moved. He knew that it would be difficult to win this lawsuit with Liancheng Yazhi. In fact, the safest way was to settle it privately.

He had already thought about what to say when they reconciled, but when he heard that Liancheng Yazhi had rejected him directly, he suddenly felt angry. Liancheng Yazhi clearly wanted to fall out with him to the end. He even refused to mediate in the court.

MO zhongkai gritted his teeth in anger. Alright, since he wanted to file a lawsuit, he would accompany him to the end..

Chapter 1873: We don't have a way out that acquaintance had once been a subordinate of mo zhongkai's grandfather, but because of this, he could not reject mo zhongkai.

MO zhongkai found an acquaintance in the court and asked about the situation.

After the meeting, mo zhongkai first presented a gift, but the other party refused, "I don't dare to accept gifts now. Zhongkai, if you have anything to say, just ask. I don't dare to accept these gifts.

MO zhongkai saw that the other party was indeed terrified and had no intention of accepting it. He knew that it would be useless to say anything more, so he did not continue to push it.

great-uncle, "he asked hesitantly," what does Zhenzhen think of this case? "

The other party looked around and said in a low voice, "you're the defendant in this case. I don't want to say anything. You can't win this case.

MO zhongkai's eyes flashed with ferocity, " "Why? Could it be that he, Liancheng Yazhi, can even control the court?"

The other party glared at him. of course not. What are you saying? what kind of mace CIO you tmnK the court no matter now powerrul Llancneng yazm IS, ne can't control the entire court.

He continued in a low voice, "let me tell you, the court is a place where evidence is important. You are obviously going to lose this case. What you can do now is to quickly get your father to return the real painting to him. Otherwise, you will ruin yourself when the time comes.

MO zhongkai smiled. thank you, great uncle. As long as the court is not controlled by Liancheng Yazhi, he has evidence. I have evidence too. "Okay, since that's the case, I have nothing more to say. You can use your evidence to speak in court. Goodbye, Qianqian."

The other party picked up his briefcase and left after saying this.

MO zhongkai sat there and didn't leave immediately. He was thinking about what the man had said just now.

Evidence, evidence,

What was the evidence that Liancheng Yazhi had submitted? How could the court Judge that everything he gave was true after seeing it?

MO zhongkai decided that no matter what, he had to find out what the other party's evidence was.

However, before he could find the evidence against Liancheng Yazhi, the court summons had arrived and the court date was set.

when mo ding's father saw the summons, he was so scared that his face turned pale."How could he be so fast?"

MO zhongkai raised his head and looked at his father, " dad, I've already prepared what I need to. You have to think about it carefully. We don't have a way out now. When we go to court, you have to tell the judge what you said to me as the truth. You have to get rid of your nervousness and fear. Otherwise, when you open your mouth, your eyes will flash, your actions will be flustered, and you won't be able to speak clearly. Even a fool can tell that you're lying.

MO Huiling's father trembled in fear. I ... I didn't ... I didn't lie ... I didn't MO zhongkai really understood what it meant to be resentful. Since he had the guts to swallow the authentic work, why didn't he have the guts to lie?

MO zhongkai took a deep breath and said, "if you say you're not lying, will the judge believe you?" The judge's eyes are all sharp. If you want your reputation to be destroyed, and the mo family to be destroyed, then so be it. ' Mother mo looked at father mo and cried. old MO, even I can tell that you're lying when you're like this. You can't go to court.

MO ding's father was so afraid that he could barely sit still. The moment he saw the court summons, he realized that everything was real. They were really going to Sue him. If he lost, he would really go to jail. He would go to jail..

Chapter 1874: It's too late to regret mo ding's father was timid to begin with. at this moment, he was shrouded in fear and felt as if his neck was being strangled. "Then what about ran ran? I'm even more afraid of ran ran when I see the judge. How about ... How about ran ran ran me? I'll go find Liancheng Yazhi and I'll run the real thing."

MO zhongkai interrupted him with a cold face and roared, "Dad, no matter what you do now, it's all too late. It's too late, you know? If you had understood the severity of the situation earlier, we wouldn't have ended up like this!"

If mo ding's father had revealed the authentic work earlier, things would not have gotten to this point.

MO zhongkai's words scared father mo so much that he didn't dare to speak anymore. He was already regretting it, extremely regretful.

MO zhongkai stood in front of his father and said, "Dad, what you can do now is to train your courage before the court session. Take a lie as the truth and hypnotize yourself. if you don't, then i'll teach you. as long as you listen to me, i promise that when we go to court, no one will be able to tell that you're lying, including you, yingluo."

MO zhongkai was very good at what he did.

Training a person was not the simplest thing.

In the blink of an eye, the day of the court hearing arrived.

Liancheng Yazhi did not attend. He directly asked Secretary Zhou to bring a huge team of lawyers to go in his place.

before the court session, secretary Zhou gave liancheng yazhi a call. "Young master ya, there will be a live broadcast on the TV station today. The court has already agreed to it. Now, many reporters from the TV stations and various media outlets are already in place. You can watch the live broadcast on TV at home."

Liancheng Yazhi nodded. okay, I got it. Remember, ran ran, what I want is to win.

Secretary Zhou chuckled. don't worry, I won't win. I won't go back to see you. Once the trial is over, the draft we've asked the media to prepare will all be released. By then, just as you said, the entire capital will be drowned by this news.

rong yan waited until liancheng yazhi and secretary Zhou were done talking on the phone before she asked him, ” “How is it?”

Liancheng Yazhi kissed Rong Yan’s cheek. everything is ready. Let’s just wait to watch the live broadcast on TV.

“Father, do you want to watch it together?” Rong Yan turned to ask Gu Hesheng.

Gu Hesheng took a sip from his purple clay teapot, “I can take a look. I’m quite interested in this lawsuit.”

When mo zhongkai arrived, he found out that there would be a live broadcast on the TV station today. He had a bad feeling at that time.

As soon as he got out of the car, he was surrounded by reporters. Facing the reporters ‘cameras and all kinds of sharp questions, he took a long time to rush out.

mo zhongkai tidied up his clothes and gritted his teeth in hatred.

He really didn’t expect Liancheng Yazhi to do this. He actually got the media reporters here and even wanted to do a live broadcast so that everyone in the capital could see it at the same time. Once he lost, Huahua would quickly become notorious.

“Of course I’m nervous, but I’m more excited.’

With the live broadcast on the TV station, his name would be known in the capital for a while, regardless of whether he won or lost the lawsuit today. In this way, he had already achieved his original goal.

MO zhongkai was actually most worried about his father. Facing so many cameras, he was very worried that his father’s mental endurance would be forced to collapse..

Chapter 1875: aura of war mo zhongkai came in front of his father and said, ” father, you don’t have to be afraid. It’s better this way. After we win, the mo family’s reputation will be known throughout the entire Imperial City. At that time, our family will take a big step forward.

MO ding’s father’s expression was very bad. The flashes of the cameras made him very afraid.”But what if I lose?”

MO zhongkai looked into his eyes and said, ” “You must remember, our Yingluo will not lose. We will definitely win.”

MO Huiling’s father gradually calmed down and repeated, ” “Our Yingluo will definitely win. ”

“Right, we will definitely win.”

It was finally time for the court session to begin. MO zhongkai then realized that Liancheng Yazhi was not there at all and had only sent his Secretary.

MO zhongkai walked in front of Secretary Zhou and asked, ” “why didn’t liancheng yazhi come?”

Secretary Zhou smiled gently. my boss said that you don't have the right to make him come out personally. But to show his respect for you, he invited so many media reporters to use their cameras to record your wonderful moments.

MO zhongkai's face turned black and red in anger. Liancheng Yazhi was clearly looking down on him.

Good, very good. In that case, he would see if Liancheng Yazhi, who had lost the lawsuit, could still smile.

MO zhongkai snorted coldly and turned to leave.

Secretary Zhou said to the huge team of lawyers behind him, " everyone, please use your full firepower in a moment. Don't show any mercy.

"Secretary Zhou, don't worry. With so much evidence, if we don't win, we won't have the face to continue in the capital."

"Today, our old master Gu's reputation has been won back by all of you," Secretary Zhou smiled.

After the court session officially started, the atmosphere in the court was very heavy. The reporters turned on their camera equipment and turned into air, not daring to make a sound.

The debate between the two parties was not intense at the start of the court session. After presenting the case, Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer first asked mo ding's father some questions.

Although mo ding's father did not look good, he was very calm when he answered. His narration was organized and his words were clear. There were no traces of lying.

Secretary Zhou sneered. This mo zhongkai was really impressive. He had really managed to turn father mo into such a state in such a short time. Even a lie detector would not be able to tell the truth from his words.

However, it didn't matter. He had prepared enough materials.

There was still a long way to go before the court hearing.

After a short period of mild debate, lawyer Qian, who was hired by mo zhongkai, took the lead to launch an attack. He first presented some " so-called evidence that mo zhongkai had found.

They wanted to prove that the paintings given by Liancheng Yazhi and the others were fake and that there was no so-called exchange.

After he finished speaking, Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer then said unhurriedly, " "Before the defendant's lawyer States their evidence, I think we need to explain the past and present life of this mangchuan autumn wind painting. "What the other party is saying is just a legend, a fantasy, or someone else's oral account. Even if he can provide some evidence, it's very far-fetched and there's no truth to it. I think the plaintiff's lawyer is just trying to blur the public's focus and confuse them. However, what we want to say is the truth. However, this statement is a little long, I hope the presiding judge can agree."

the presiding judge thought for a while and nodded in agreement to Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer's request. Mo Zhongkai's heart was beating like a drum. He could already feel the aura of war spreading rapidly..

Chapter 1876: Gritting her teeth in hatred

Mo Zhongkai knew that the lawyers hired by Liancheng Yazhi were definitely not a bunch of good-for-nothings. These people just sat there calmly, as if everything was under their control. It was really annoying.

However, it seemed that they had also begun to attack.

Mo Zhongkai glanced at lawyer Qian. After a brief exchange of glances, they could see the worry in each other's eyes.

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer first used the projector to play a short clip, which showed the authentic calligraphy and painting that Mo Ding's father had changed.

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer stood up and slowly said in a magnetic voice, "This famous painting was made by the famous master painter Huang Shi in his later years a thousand years ago. As for how good this painting is and how high its artistic value is, I won't say it. Anyone who has a little understanding of it knows that it can only be described in two words-priceless.

This painting was excavated five years ago in a 700-year-old noble tomb, and it was one of the funerary objects of the tomb owner at that time.

Because the painting was precious and for better protection, it had not been announced to the public. They planned to announce it only after the excavation work was over.

However, less than two days after the painting was unearthed, one of the people in charge of the ancient tomb excavation colluded with the staff who were in charge of the painting and sold it abroad.

After Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer said so much, he was about to get to the point when lawyer Qian suddenly stood up and said, "Objection, the plaintiff's lawyer only stated the origin of the original work, there is no direct evidence. The original work in the client's hands was the original work. What he stated has nothing to do with the case. I hope the presiding judge does not let him waste everyone's time."

Lawyer Qian knew that it was time to reveal some real supporting evidence. If the presiding judge didn't stop the interrogation, then it was very likely that Qianqian would be at a disadvantage.

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer smiled. Please don't be anxious. This matter needs to be straightened out bit by bit. If we don't talk about the cause in the beginning, Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer thanked him and nodded at lawyer Qian. "This painting was later bought by an entrepreneur from our country at an auction house abroad. He then exchanged this painting with Gu Hesheng for a piece of porcelain. And so, this painting ended up in Gu Hesheng's hands.

I have to make it clear here that my client, Mr. Liancheng Yazhi, is Mr. Gu Hesheng's son-in-law. Old Gu has given the antique shop under his name to his only daughter to manage, and he has also given this painting. '

The moment he said that, the jury, the audience, and the reporters were all enticed. They didn't expect to hear such a relationship.

This was breaking news. No wonder a daughter she had never heard of could become Liancheng Yazhi's wife. It turned out that she had such an impressive father.

Rong Yan and Gu Hesheng's relationship had never been made public, and Liancheng Yazhi had also taken this opportunity to tell everyone.

The cameras in the reporters' hands began to snap, and the piercing flashes made Mo Huiling's father's expression even worse. His hands began to tremble.

Mo Zhongkai saw that his father's condition was starting to get worse and he gritted his teeth in hatred..

Chapter 1877: Tell the truth

Suddenly announcing the relationship between Rong and Gu in court was not a coincidence. Liancheng Yazhi had arranged it well.

Even an ordinary person would be nervous at the sight of the flashing lights, let alone the accused and the witness. This was undoubtedly a huge psychological test.

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer took out some things. This is the appraisal report given by the ranking at that time. The impact information, the appraisal information, and the video testimonies of some experts from all over the world who were in charge of the appraisal by the auction house at that time are all here. If the presiding judge feels that this evidence is not enough to prove the authenticity of this painting, we can bring these people over.

Mo Zhongkai clenched his hands. Liancheng Yazhi had done so well that he could even invite the people from the auction house. In this way, all the fake evidence that he had made to prove that the other party's painting was fake would be in vain.

At this moment, Mo Zhongkai realized that he had overlooked a very important thing, which was where did the other party's words come from?

This was great, it was instantly turned over by others.

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer continued. "The entrepreneur who exchanged the painting with Mr. Gu's porcelain was also present. He can testify in court that the painting was indeed given to Mr. Gu.

"The witness," the presiding judge nodded.

The entrepreneur was brought to the witness stand and presented the evidence that he and Gu Hesheng had exchanged paintings for porcelain.

He also took out the information on the painting that he had bought back then, which was magnified in all aspects, so that he could directly see the difference between the real painting and the fake.

Lawyer Qian stood up and said, "May I ask the plaintiff's lawyer, even if the original painting was indeed given to Mr. Gu, how can you prove that the painting was this?"

Lawyer Qian turned to the presiding judge and said, “presiding judge, I’ll call for my witness. I have enough evidence to prove that what they gave us was a fake. As for the authentic ones, my client has never seen them before.

“Summon the accused witness,” the presiding judge said.

The accused witness was the shop assistant, old Yang, who had lent the painting to father mo.

Lawyer Qian pointed at father mo and asked old Yang, “Mr. Yang, do you know this person?

Old Yang nodded, “I know Yingluo.”

“Who is he?”

“Mr. MO, I used to go to the shop often, so ran ran knows him.”

Lawyer Qian asked, “ alright then. Let me ask you something. Half a month ago, on August 2nd, he went to the shop and took 200000 Yuan as collateral to borrow an autumn landscape of mang mountain. Ran ran, are you sure that what you gave him was the authentic work? ”

Old Yang’s expression was evasive, “I was stunned, I was stunned” you only need to answer me yes or no, ” lawyer Qian said sternly. you don’t need to say anything else.

Old Yang didn’t dare to hit him, “I’m Yingluo, I don’t know Yingluo.”

Lawyer Qian quickly asked, “why don’t you know?” what are you guilty about? what are you feeling guilty about? “Look at the old man standing in the defendant’s stand. He has a clear conscience all his life. He educated people and was respected by others. But now, he has to stand there and be tried. In the end, he might even be sentenced. Look at him. Do you have the courage to tell the truth you know?”

Lawyer Qian’s aggressive questioning seemed to break down old Yang’s psychological defense. Old Yang’s expression was struggling. He struggled very violently. In the end, he seemed to have broken down..”It’s not”

Chapter 1878: war of words

Old Yang lowered his head and said with a trembling voice, “the one I gave him wasn’t the real one. The one I gave him was a fake one.”

old yang’s testimony caused an uproar among the people present, even the presiding judge was surprised.

If what old Yang said was true, then all the evidence that Liancheng Yazhi had provided would be useless.

The presiding judge said “silence” twice in a row before the scene quieted down.

When the court quieted down again, lawyer Qian continued to ask, “ since you gave old Mr. MO the fake one back then, why are you telling the truth now? and where did the original Kasaya go? ‘ Old Yang kept his head lowered. To others, he looked ashamed and ashamed. “because that painting was very valuable, and its market value was also very high. i was greedy for it, so i secretly sold the original. but ever since then, i couldn’t feel at ease, so i ... so i ...

“I’m sorry that I pocketed the authentic work and slandered Mr. Mo.”

The sudden 180-degree turn made everyone at the scene sigh. This case that didn’t seem too bizarre had actually taken such a turn.

Lawyer Qian looked at the reactions around him and felt a little proud. This case isn’t that difficult, is it? Didn’t he still reverse the situation in court?

However, while lawyer Qian was pleased with himself, Mo Zhongkai was not so at ease. He kept looking at Secretary Zhou and his team of lawyers. They looked relaxed, very relaxed, as if they had discussed it.

Even when old Yang said those words, Secretary Zhou and the others were not surprised at all. It was as if they already knew.

Mo Zhongkai felt more and more uneasy. He was afraid that this temporary dominance would only result in a huge failure.

Lawyer Qian asked old Yang a few more questions, then said, “your honor, I’m done with my questions. The truth is right in front of you. I hope that you and the jury can give my client a fair and just judgment.

After lawyer Qian sat down, Liancheng Yazhi’s lawyer stood up unhurriedly.”presiding judge, i have some questions for the accused witness.”

“I agree, Yingluo.”

Liancheng Yazhi’s lawyer stood up from his seat and slowly walked to old Yang. He asked, “How long have you been working in Mr. Gu’s shop?”

“Fifteen years,” old Yang answered.

“How did Mr. Gu treat you?”

very good. Mr. Gu trusts me a lot. After the shop was handed over to Mrs. Liancheng, she also trusts me a lot and lets me take care of everything in the shop.

“Are you in charge of the entire store?”

“you can say that.”

“Then, among all the antiques you’ve seen, is this autumn landscape of mang mountain the most valuable?”

Liancheng Yazhi’s lawyer smiled. that means you’ve had many opportunities like this over the years. Why did you choose this time? if it’s a moment of greed, why didn’t you take something more valuable? ”

Lawyer Qian gradually felt that something was wrong and quickly stood up. “Objection, the plaintiff’s lawyer is misleading my witness.”

the objection is valid. The plaintiff’s counsel should not ask such imaginary questions.

lian Cheng Yazhi's lawyer did not mind that he was stopped from asking the question just now. Instead, he asked, " " as far as I know, your monthly salary is 9000 yuan. including the year-end bonus, it's not even 200000 yuan. so, ran ran, can you explain why there's suddenly 2.5 million yuan in your account? "

Chapter 1879: closing in

Although the presiding judge had stopped the question just now, it was enough because the suspicious point had been pointed out, which was enough to have some impact on the people who heard it. Therefore, he chose to ask the next question so decisively.

Money was a very sensitive issue, which would make people think of a lot of things.

Lawyer Qian realized that once he asked this question, it would definitely cause a chain reaction. He immediately stood up and said, " "I object, Yingluo." But before he could say anything, the presiding judge said, " "Your objection is overruled."

Lian Cheng Yazhi's lawyer took out a list that showed the financial transactions under old Yang's account from the bank. this is the cash flow in old Yang's account that we found out a week ago. Ten days ago, there was an extra 2.5 million in his account. It's not a small amount. An employee with a monthly salary of 9000 Yuan, even if he saved up all his salary of 15 yuan, it's impossible to save so much money, right, Wanwan? can I ask where you got this money from? "

Lian Cheng Yazhi's lawyer glanced at Mo Zhongkai, whose expression was extremely ugly.

Old Yang stammered, "I'm f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking me, I'm f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking f * cking me!

the lawyer smiled and did not press further. in any case, everyone already had a conclusion in their hearts, and the presiding judge also had an idea.

in addition, " he continued, " we've also pulled out some information from the surveillance video of all the banks in the city. Please take a look at this video.

this is the scene of Mr. Mo Zhongkai entering the bank to transfer money twelve days ago. The money he transferred happened to be 2.5 million Yuan. Then, it was divided into ten portions and transferred to different people. These ten portions of money were transferred twice in the middle. Although the process was complicated, there were traces to be traced if we wanted to investigate. We spent a lot of effort to trace the whereabouts of these funds. In the end, all the money flowed to the same person, that is ... Old Yang!

Mo Zhongkai quickly gave lawyer Qian a look. Lawyer Qian was already sweating profusely from anxiety. The situation was getting worse and was almost out of control. He quickly stood up, " "I object."

"Overruled, plaintiff's counsel, please continue," the presiding judge said.

Lian Cheng Yazhi's lawyer turned around and asked old Yang, " "I'd like to ask, old Yang, since you're apologizing to old Mr. Mo, why did Wanwan accept their money? if you're feeling uneasy, you shouldn't have accepted the money. can i make a bold guess that there's some kind of improper transaction between the two of you? if he gave you the money, you could testify in court. ”

Old Yang's face turned ashen, “I'm not scamming! I'm not scamming!”

Lawyer Qian quickly said, ” my client's family did give the witness money. However, they only hoped that he would tell the truth in court. There was no perfection.

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer immediately retorted, “can the money you're giving me be compared to the price of the original? Reselling and stealing antiques, framing others, how could old Yang not know the result of these two crimes? He's not stupid enough to give up the priceless authentic work for 2.5 million Yuan. The price would be going to jail, right?”

Lawyer Qian's face turned red and he suddenly did not know what to say. Liancheng Yazhi changed the topic and asked, ” okay, then I'll change my question. Since you said that you sold the original, then who did you sell it to, and where is the original now? ” old yang followed the routine he had planned and trembled nervously..”I,

Hanhan, I don't know, Hanhan, I don't know, I, Hanhan”

Chapter 1880: Completely turning the situation around

Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer looked at old Yang and said word by word, ” you need to be clear about one thing. Is it worth it for you to put yourself in the ruin prison for two million? ”

Lawyer Qian quickly said, “objection! The plaintiff's lawyer is misleading and threatening the witness.” &Nbsp;

The presiding judge glanced at Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer and only reminded him, ” “The plaintiff's counsel, please mind your words.”

The lawyer nodded at the presiding judge and continued, ” alright, since you're not going to say anything, then I'd like to request for my new evidence, judge. 'l'ne presiding judge discussed with the people on both sides and said, ” agree, Wanwan.

Everyone present was very excited at this moment. They all wanted to know what the new evidence was and whether it would turn the case around once again.

the cameras on the reporters 'cell phones had already pointed their lenses at liancheng yazhi's lawyer.

They were all guessing how many rounds this simple case would be rotated. It was much more exciting than watching an eight o 'clock show.

He didn't have much hope when he first came, but as he looked around, he felt that it was all worth it. This case was the focus of the news everywhere, and there were too many things that could be dug out.

At this moment, Mo Zhongkai already felt that his side was powerless. If the evidence that the other party brought out could really turn the situation around completely, then the case of Wufu would almost be settled. Mo Zhongkai was also waiting to see what the new evidence was.

this time, the evidence provided by Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer was a voice recording, a very clear voice recording.

The conversation between the two men rang out in the court. No one dared to speak or make any other noise. Everyone was listening attentively.

"As long as you agree to say in court that you sold the real painting and gave my father a fake one, this five million is all yours."

"No, I can't say that. You want me to go to jail for your father for just five million? don't even think about it."

"Your son hit someone a few days ago, right? as long as you help me with this, I'll help you settle the matter of your son hitting someone."

After he finished speaking, he fell into silence.

After a while, the conversation continued.

I can't do that, either. I can't betray Mr. Gu. Besides, what I gave your father was the real thing.

how can this be considered betrayal? just say that this was your own doing and that it had nothing to do with him. Ran ran, it was you who was greedy.

"But I, Yingluo, will go to jail, Yingluo!"

you've been with senior Gu for so many years. When the time comes, you should go and beg him. After all, people are soft-hearted when they get old. He'll see that you've been with him for so many years. If he drops the lawsuit, you'll be fine, Wanwan.

This time, it fell into silence again. After a while, the sound of the atmosphere could be heard.

you're trying to gain something without paying anything. You're using five million Yuan to exchange for clothes and priceless authentic works, and you're even asking me to take the blame for your father. You're really sinister."

"So you've agreed to Yingluo?" yes, I agree. are you satisfied this time, Mr. Mo? "

"I hope we can work well together."

At this point, the recording came to an end, and Liancheng Yazhi's lawyer pressed the stop button.

He glanced at everyone's reaction and the corners of his lips curled up. everyone was so shocked that the reporters forgot to press the camera in their hands. the presiding judge looked very serious and was probably already thinking about the judgment of the case.

However, among these people, the Mo family father and son's reactions were the most anticipated, and also the most pleasing to the eye..
