Chapter 2001: work hard to do better

“Thank you,” Liancheng Yazhi took it.

The boss had just seen Liancheng Yazhi looking at a pot of cacti. Sir, you are the first customer to spend in the store today. The store will give you a pot of cacti for free. You can choose one.

Liancheng Yazhi did not decline. He glanced at the cacti with different appearances and finally chose the smallest pot, which looked the most likable. He thanked the boss and drove away.

As soon as Liancheng Yazhi left, the flower shop was about to explode. The shop assistants were all girls. They leaned against the door frame and looked outside.

oh my, lady boss, that man just now was so handsome. How can he be so handsome? I felt like I couldn't breathe when he came in, ” one of them said with a fangirl expression.

The other held his face and looked at the cactus that Liancheng Yazhi had paid attention to just now and said, ” ” being handsome is secondary. the main thing is that yingluo is so handsome, but he still dotes on his wife so much. a man who knows how to buy flowers for his wife must be especially good to her. such a good man is too exquisite. why didn't i meet him? ”

The only man in the shop said, ” “Stop dreaming, you won't meet him. Look at his clothes, do you still have shoes? They're all hand-made and high-end custom-made, but the watch on your wrist is worth hundreds of thousands. And that car at the entrance, f * ck, he's a super rich man. It's hard to even meet such a rich man, so don't think about anything else and just sell flowers.” After he said this, the girls immediately became excited.

However, after the uproar, they could only say with envy and jealousy, ” “I really don't know which woman saved the Galaxy in her past life to be able to marry such a man!” the boss looked at them and shook his head with a smile. the little girls were indeed full of energy.

On the way back, Liancheng Yazhi kept looking at the flowers beside him. The roses were very fresh, with dew on them, and their fragrance assailed his nose. Liancheng Yazhi was nervous. He didn't know if Rong Yan would like it.

seeing that liancheng yazhi was in a good mood, the driver mustered up his courage and said, ” “Young master ya, the young Madam will definitely like it.” Liancheng Yazhi curled his lips. If Rong Yan liked it, he would buy it for her more often in the future.

He had always felt that he treated Rong Yan well, but after thinking about it carefully, he still did a lot of things wrong.

he still needed to work hard and work hard to do better.

He wasn't going to be like Kang Zhen, regretting only after his wife ran away.

The car stopped when they passed a road next to the subway.

The driver told Liancheng Yazhi. young master ya, we're in the rush hour. We'll probably be stuck here for a while.

Liancheng Yazhi glanced out of the window. Indeed, there were many cars moving forward at a snail's speed.

Liancheng Yazhi's hand gently caressed the soft petals of the Rose.

After ten minutes, the car had only traveled less than a hundred meters.

Liancheng Yazhi frowned. why is the traffic so bad? ”

The driver said, “I'm not sure. If there's a traffic jam at work, it seems to be a little worse today. Did something happen in front?” Why don't I go down and ask?”

As they were talking, Liancheng Yazhi's phone rang.

He picked it up and saw that it was his family's number.

Liancheng Yazhi's finger pressed on the screen and slid to the answer button. Hello, ran ran.

The call was from Butler li. She was very anxious. young master ya, the Army's vehicles and people are here. They've already blocked our door.. What should we do? “

Chapter 2002: Nothing will happen to her before you return liancheng yazhi's expression turned ugly when he heard that. his face was gloomy and his eyes were sharp. he almost immediately understood why the road was particularly congested today.

It seemed like they were taking advantage of his absence to get Kang Zhen away with lightning speed. They were planning to block him halfway and not let him go back at all.

They knew that Liancheng Yazhi was the most difficult person to deal with in the Lian family. Things would definitely not go smoothly with him around, so his absence was the best opportunity.

however, to even use such a method, it was really powerful. this was much more useful than an ambush on the way.

They did not intend to hurt Liancheng Yazhi and knew that it was impossible to arrest him because they had no evidence.

However, no one could be blamed for the traffic jam.

Liancheng Yazhi did not panic immediately. He asked the Butler in a gloomy voice, ” “Has Tang Zong left?” “Not yet,” caretaker li quickly replied. “call him over,”

“Alright, please wait a moment, Yingluo.”

Butler li quickly called Tang Zong over.

“brother-in-law, is there anything you need me to do?” tang zong picked up the phone.

‘ how many people came? ” liancheng yazhi asked him. ” did they get guns? ‘ tang zong thought for a second and said, ” there are quite a number of people here. i think there are at least a hundred of them. some of them are equipped with guns, while some of them are not. they are all pistols and no heavy weapons. there aren't even any large guns. '

Liancheng Yazhi's heart relaxed a little. In that case, at least it meant that they only wanted to take her away by force and had no intention of hurting her.

lian Cheng yazhi turned to tang zong. " block them for me. before i get home, don't let them take a single step into the lian Cheng family. '

Tang Zong instantly felt the heavy responsibility on his shoulders. He had to protect an entire family. He nodded."Alright, I'll definitely work hard."

Liancheng Yazhi said sternly, " it's not hard work. It must be done. Also, get a few more people to protect Rong Yan. Don't let her be frightened in any way.

"Yes, don't worry. I'll definitely protect her well." Tang Zong nodded his head repeatedly.

"Take your phone and look for Kang kun. I have something to say to him," said Liancheng Yazhi.

"Oh, alright." Tang Zong put down the phone, took out his mobile phone, and dialed Liancheng Yazhi's number. Then, he quickly ran to Natsume's laboratory.

At this moment, Kang Yu and Natsume were still unaware of the situation outside.

after tang zong entered, he quickly explained the situation and handed the phone to kang zhen.

"My brother-in-law has something to say to you, Yingluo!"

Kang Yu was still lying there, unable to move. He said, "Liancheng Xuanji"

"you already know about the situation outside. i'm stuck on the road and can't go back in a short time. if tang zong can't hold on before i go back, you have to help him. no matter what, you have to hold on until i get back."

Liancheng Yazhi spoke very quickly, but his words were clear.

He told Kang Zhen that he would throw him out when the troops came to take him away. But now that the troops were here, he didn't mention a word about throwing Kang Zhen out.

Kang Yu nodded. okay, I understand. It's not that serious. You don't have to worry too much.

how could lian Cheng yazhi not be worried? He wasn't worried about Kang Zhen but Rong Yan. She was about to give birth. If she was frightened and went into premature labor, it would be very dangerous.

lian Cheng yazhi said to kang yu in a serious tone, " "Kang Zhen, don't let anything happen to my wife."

"I promise you that nothing will happen to her before you come back," Kang Zhen replied..

Chapter 2003 using all sorts of methods

he had wanted to call Rong Yan to comfort him, but he was afraid that the more he comforted her, the more nervous she would be.

After thinking for a while, Liancheng Yazhi still hung up the phone.

The only way to make Rong Yan feel at ease was to return as soon as possible. With him protecting her, Rong Yan would only feel safe.

The driver was already sweating profusely.

He asked, "young master ya, what should we do now? it looks like we'll be stuck in a traffic jam for at least another half an hour. There's basically a long line of cars in front and behind us. We can't get out now, nor can we retreat.

Liancheng Yazhi did not say anything. He looked around.

Then, he took off his watch and said to the driver, "Take off your clothes and give them to me."

The driver quickly took off his coat and gave it to Liancheng Yazhi.

After he put it on, he reached out to soften his hair. you can wait here slowly. When the traffic is over, don't go home directly.

"Then where are you going?" the chauffeur quickly asked.

liancheng yazhi had already pushed open the door and got out of the car, not answering his question.

The driver saw Liancheng Yazhi cross the road with slow traffic and head straight to the other side. There was a sign on the side of the road with a subway sign.

the driver was wondering if young master ya and yueyue were going to take the subway.

But it didn't seem possible. Would someone like young master ya take the subway?

It should be because Yingying had never done it before?

Of course, Liancheng Yazhi took the subway. When he went to school with Kang Yu and Xia Xuanmo, he had taken the subway before.

However, it had been a long time since he had last taken the subway.

Chapter 2004: My brother-in-law is the one who raised me

Tang Zong looked like he had just woken up. His hair was fluffy and his eyes were dazed. He was wearing a set of pajamas. The pajamas were crumpled and there was a childish picture of a puppy on it.

At this moment, he looked like a bad student who did not go to class early in the morning and slept in at home.

A young officer with a height of 1.9 meters and the rank of second lieutenant on his shoulder stood straighter than the pine trees by the side of the road, looking straight ahead. He opened his mouth and said in a loud voice, we've been ordered to search, so we won't be eating breakfast. Please don't stop us from carrying out our duty.

Tang Zong chuckled and said, "performing official duties?" Of course, I wouldn't dare to stop you. Besides, Yingluo, I can't stop you like this."

Tang Zong spread out his hands and said innocently. He was the only one standing at the door. Compared to the row of soldiers standing tall and straight like saplings, he was like a withered grass.

Tang Zong smiled and continued, but, Wanwan, you said you're searching my house. Can you give me a reason? my family is an honest old family. We've never done anything against the law. We actively pay taxes every day and are quite cooperative in supporting the Army. You're searching my house for no reason. If you don't give a reason or show evidence that there's something illegal in my house, I don't dare to let you go over. My brother-in-law, Liancheng Yazhi, has a bit of reputation in the capital. If we do a back-to-back search of their lair, we'll definitely be laughed at when we do business in the future. In the worst case scenario, it'll definitely affect our business in the future."

Tang Zong grinned as he said all that without even panting. This made the soldiers who had been training and learning about National Defense a little dizzy.

we're following orders from our superior, " the young second lieutenant said. if you have any questions, you can report them to our superior after we've searched the area. Please step aside.

As he spoke, he took a step forward, and the hundreds of people behind him followed suit.

It was as if an Army had arrived at the foot of the city and was rolling over like a wheel.

However, Tang Zong did not even take half a step back.

Today, those higher- ups didn't seem to appear. Only some junior soldiers were sent. They probably felt that the younger the soldiers, the more they would follow the orders of their superiors and not have many scruples. Moreover, most of these people were recruited from outside the city and didn't have a deep understanding of the Liancheng family. Therefore, they were allowed to carry out the mission independently.

If they didn't listen to what Tang Zong said and insisted on entering, Tang Zong wouldn't be able to stop them.

Tang Zong felt bitter in his heart. 'Damn it, do you have to do this?'

He was praying in his heart, brother-in -law, please come back quickly. I'm not as capable as you. I don't have a good way to stop these people.

Tang Zong thought for a moment. Forget it, since things have already come to this, he might as well go all out.

He just leaned against the door and said lazily, "Don't say that I'm obstructing official duties. You can search, but you have to wait for my brother-in-law to come back. After all, this is the Lian family's house. If the owner doesn't come, and you can't give a reason or a search warrant, I don't dare to. What if my brother-in-law comes back and says I'm incompetent? I have no money, no house, and no savings. I have to rely on my brother-in-law to support me. ' tang zong made himself sound especially useless. he didn't care at all about the strange gazes from the other side when he said these words..

Chapter 2005: You guys broke my arm

Tang Zong's words had probably caused the second lieutenant to look down on him. "Sorry, this is not our business. If you don't move away, we'll just have to get someone to pull you away."

Tang Zong immediately grabbed the door behind him, his face filled with fear."Hey, hey, don't be like this. If I don't have a place to stay in the future, will you take me in if I go to your place?"

his expression and actions were completely saying, " Don't grab me, I won't let go even if I die.

The second lieutenant,"hehe."

He didn't remember his superiors telling him to finish the search, take the man away, and retreat successfully before Liancheng Yazhi returned.

Therefore, he didn't have much time. He had to hurry.

The second lieutenant said to the two soldiers behind him, " take him away. Get the others to go in and search immediately. Be careful not to destroy anything. Find him and retreat.

They were very clear about the orders from their superiors. They were not to go against this family, but to find the person in the photo and take her away. It was best not to have a direct conflict with this family.

Hence, two black-faced soldiers stepped forward and stretched out their hands to grab Tang Zong's arms. In the end, the moment the two of them touched,

Tang Zong suddenly let out a blood -curdling scream. "Aiyo!"

Tang Zong's voice was very abrupt and very real, as if he was really in pain.

With a pained expression, he trembled and said, " oh no, my arm is broken. Aiyo, you guys are too strong. You've broken my arm.

Tang Zong's sudden shout left the two soldiers dumbfounded. They hadn't even used their strength yet, and they had just touched him?

But this person's pained appearance didn't seem fake?

The two of them looked at the second lieutenant helplessly. The second lieutenant had never dealt with such a situation before. They trained every day and had very little time to interact with outsiders.

When had she ever met such a rascal like Tang Zong? for a moment, she didn't know what to say.

Although they knew that Tang Zong was just putting on an act, if they continued to pull him away, he would definitely continue to shout. If others were to find out, they would definitely say that they were using their power to bully others. What should they do?

Tang Zong cried out in pain as he said, "If your ran ran wants to go in, then go in. Why did you have to be so heavy-handed? hurry up and call an ambulance.

Ran ran is really in so much pain, ran ran."

Tang Zong was very clear that he couldn't go head to head with these people. Because in the country, no matter what, he couldn't go head to head with the police or the Army. Although this was a little embarrassing, it was enough as long as it worked.

In any case, Tang Zong did not care about being embarrassed at all. He did not care about his reputation at all.

The second lieutenant was so angry that his face darkened, "you're so cowardly!"

tang zong glared at him. " what you? hurry up and call the ambulance! yueyue, my arm is in too much pain. you can't just leave me alone after hitting me, right? if i can't have my arm anymore in the future, i'll sue you, yueyue! " the second lieutenant, "hehe."

Tang Zong was leaning against the door. The way he was screaming in pain and saying that he had been injured by someone really made one angry.

However, even though one was angry, one could not do anything to him.

However, the orders from the higher-ups were to take her away at all costs.

Orders from above were very important, as they were all given by the chief. The second lieutenant thought for a moment and said, " "Continue, carry him away."

The soldier didn't know what to do and asked the second lieutenant, " "But he's

"Continue, carry out the order," the second lieutenant ordered sternly..

Chapter 2006: Let's see who dares to enter

"Yes." the two soldiers extended their hands toward tang zong.

They had just bumped into Tang Zong when they heard him shouting, let me tell you something, Yueyue. You guys injured me, didn't have a search warrant, and even tried to break into my house. When my brother-in-law comes back, he'll definitely Sue you. Just you wait, my brother-in-law will seek justice for me.

Tang Zong's act of a Fox borrowing the power of a Tiger was vividly and thoroughly portrayed. No matter how one looked at it, he was a useless person who had no ability and relied on Liancheng Yazhi completely. He had used his shameless skills to the point of perfection.

The two soldiers had no choice but to let go again, “second lieutenant, this bi an “Continue,” the second lieutenant said through gritted teeth.

Tang Zong cursed in his heart. This little soldier was really stubborn. Did he really have to shout “murder”?

However, he could have shouted it out. He could have done anything anyway.

Wasn’t it just making a scene?

He was very good at it.

“Pull him to the side and keep an eye on him. Don’t let him move,” the second lieutenant ordered.

Tang Zong immediately replied, “alright, you guys are forcing me to my death. Anyway, if I’m chased out of my brother-in-law’s house, I won’t be able to live anymore. Since that’s the case, I might as well just die Here today.

Second lieutenant Chi Chi although they knew that tang zong was just making a scene, they did not dare to really touch him. if he really wanted to knock into them, wouldn’t that be equivalent to saying that they had forced him to his death?

He didn’t expect that there would be such a difficult guy in this family. He was simply a Rascal.

“What should we do?” the soldiers looked at each other.

The second lieutenant gritted his teeth. This was difficult.

However, time could not pass like this. If they waited for Liancheng Yazhi to return, their mission would fail.

The second lieutenant’s mind whirled. He stood in front of Tang Zong, “Then let’s have a good discussion. We’re doing official business, and you’re obstructing Wanwan like this.”

Tang Zong immediately said, “I’m not obstructing you. I didn’t forbid you from entering.” It’s your fault for not doing things properly, Yingluo.”

Second lieutenant Chi Chi

Forget it, he won’t say anymore. Let’s just make a move.

The second lieutenant suddenly stretched out his hand and grabbed Tang Zong. He said,”Sorry to offend you, but we’re just following orders.”

Then, he pulled Tang Zong to the side. He was very strong, and Tang Zong did not expect him to suddenly make a move. He was a little caught off guard. The second lieutenant said, “go in and search for the Kasaya.”

When Tang Zong saw that a group of people were about to enter, he immediately twisted his body and deftly broke free from the second lieutenant’s grasp. He rushed forward like an arrow and opened his arms to block the door. He said,”i’ll see who dares to enter!”

The second lieutenant didn't expect Tang Zong to be able to break free. He didn't manage to catch Tang Zong at all just now, and he was like a mudfish.

He had thought that Tang Zong was a fellow without much ability. He had never expected that Tang Zong would actually have such a hand.

"Didn't you hurt your arm?" the second lieutenant asked.

Tang Zong lifted his chin. that's right. I'm injured. But for the sake of my own life, I have to stop you.

The second lieutenant laughed coldly. This guy was really good at acting. since that's the case, we'll be sorry for the offense. Let's go in.

Tang Zong's heart tightened. Oh no, they were going to force their way in. He couldn't stop them.

A group of people rushed in front of Tang Zong and were about to break in.

Suddenly, he heard the sound of an emergency brake behind him. It seemed like there were many cars. The second lieutenant could hear the sound of the car engine. It seemed to be a military vehicle. He immediately turned his head to look.

A few more trucks were parked behind their vehicles. A group of soldiers carrying automatic rifles jumped out of the trucks and rolled over like a gust of wind..

Chapter 2007: Brother-in-law, I can't take it anymore!

This group of soldiers moved quickly, each of them armed with guns and bullets. Their eyes were sharp, and their movements were filled with a terrifying killing intent.

Unlike the other troops, they did not get into formation after getting out of the vehicles. Instead, they were like a pack of wolves that had rushed out of the fence and swarmed over.

The second lieutenant was shocked when he saw them, but from their car, their clothes, and the guns in their hands, he could be sure that these soldiers were real, just like them.

But why didn't they have a military rank on their shoulders?

The second lieutenant was puzzled. Could it be that the head chief was afraid that they would not be able to complete the mission well, so he sent another team that was even more powerful?

The second lieutenant looked at Tang Zong's Rascal-like appearance and thought to himself, "that might be the case."

The second lieutenant wasn't nervous when the ferocious soldiers rushed to him. Instead, he was a little relaxed. It would be better if they were sent from above.

he was relaxed, but tang zong was unable to relax.

Holy sh * t, another group came.

And it seemed that this group was very difficult to deal with.

At the sight of him, Zhang tie knew that this second lieutenant was just an ordinary soldier who only participated in local disaster relief efforts. He had never been on the battlefield.

However, the group that had just opened was different. From their actions, it seemed that this group had really killed people.

Soldiers who had never killed anyone and soldiers who had been on the battlefield could not be easily seen.

At the very least, Tang Zong could tell at a glance. It was too obvious.

These soldiers who had just arrived all had the look of a ferocious Wolf in their eyes. They were very fierce, and their steps were fast and light. Their physical fitness should be very good.

Tang Zong sighed in his heart. It's over, it's over. Brother-in-law, I can't hold on any longer. I definitely can't stop these people!

"Which division are you guys from?" the second lieutenant asked.

In the end, just as he asked, those soldiers suddenly rushed to the front door and pointed their guns at Tang Zong.

Tang Zong's heart skipped a beat.

However, in the next second, he quickly pretended to be very scared, pointed at them, and shouted, "Hey, don't mess around. This is my house. There are surveillance cameras all around. If you dare to hit me, I'll take the video and Sue you. My brother-in-law is Liancheng Yazhi. He won't let you off. Just you wait and see, Hanhan."

The second lieutenant looked at Tang Zong's frightened expression. The corners of his lips moved, and a smile finally appeared on his face.

Although he didn't know which division this group of soldiers was from, at least they could restrain this Rascal.

However, his happiness did not last long.

The group of soldiers suddenly moved, turned their guns, and pointed them at them. They completely surrounded them.

The rapid change in this scene caused Tang Zong, the second lieutenant, and his other illnesses to be dumbfounded.

This ... Doesn't seem to be the right rhythm? Why did it suddenly become like this?

Tang Zong secretly pinched himself. Aiyo, it hurts. What's going on with Yueyue?

The second lieutenant was shocked. what are you doing? I don't know which division you're from, but we're brothers. How can you point your guns at your own people?"

The group of soldiers holding automatic rifles didn't have any change in expression. The only thing they didn't say was, That's right, it's aimed at your own people.

the second lieutenant was furious.. what was wrong with these people? were their brains fried? How could he point his gun at them?

Chapter 2008: Don 't blame me for being merciless

The second lieutenant said coldly, "which division are you from? let me tell you, we're under orders from the higher-ups to go in and search. If you delay our official duties, you'll be court-martialed.

in the end, one of them, who was probably the highest-ranking soldier among the soldiers without a rank or epaulet, said arrogantly, "i'm sorry, but we're also following orders from our superiors. today, no one is allowed to take even half a step into this door. otherwise, i won't be able to see the muzzle of your gun.

the second lieutenant was even more surprised. "you guys ... impossible. the higher-ups clearly ordered us to search the place at all costs. are you guys even real soldiers?"

nonsense, of course we are. I even suspect that Yingluo and you guys are imposters.

The second lieutenant felt a lump in his throat. Tang Zong's shamelessness earlier had already infuriated him. He didn't expect that these people would make him even more furious.

"I don't believe that you'd dare to kill your own comrades," the second lieutenant said sternly.

"all of you, charge in with me."

However, just as he shouted the last word, a gunshot was heard. Sparks appeared on the ground in front of his left foot. The bullet had hit the side of his foot and was only a centimeter away from landing on his foot.

Even the second lieutenant could feel the ground beneath his feet shaking slightly when the shot hit the ground.

the soldier who fired the shot still had his finger on the trigger. he said indifferently, "I only follow orders from above. This shot is a warning. If you dare to come forward again, don't blame me for not showing you any mercy as my 'comrade'."

The second lieutenant's face turned red with anger, "you!!! You!!!" they really dared to shoot, and they were all holding automatic rifles. what about them? Only a few of them had handguns, the rest did not.

If they really met force with force, how would they be able to win?

These soldiers who had appeared out of nowhere were simply causing them trouble.

however, they also said that it was an order from their superior. did the order from above change again?

The second lieutenant felt that it would be safer to call his superior first.

He glared at the man, turned around, and got into the car. He took out the phone that he had brought with him for this mission and called the headquarters.

"hello, chief. it's me, yingluo."

"Have you completed the mission?"

"I'm sorry, chief, I haven't."

“Why isn’t it here yet? It’s been almost half an hour, right?”

“I’m sorry, Sir. There’s a sudden change in the situation.”

“What change?”

“Just as we were about to go in, a group of soldiers suddenly came. We don’t know which division they came from, but there were about 20 to 30 of them. They all had automatic rifles in their hands, and all of them were loaded with live ammunition. They have us surrounded now and don’t allow us to go in. They even said that Qianqian and the others were ordered by their superiors to not let anyone enter the Lian family’s Gate. Whoever dares to enter, I will not show any mercy. ”

“What? How did this happen? can’t you figure out which part it is?”

they didn’t say anything. Also, they don’t have any rank epaulets on their shoulders.

okay, I understand. You stay there and stabilize the situation. I’ll rush over now.

The second lieutenant hung up the phone and heaved a sigh of relief. Whether he could complete the mission or not, this had nothing to do with him, right?

this situation was too sudden.

Anyway, the Bureau chief was coming. By then, it would have nothing to do with him..

Chapter 2009: don I t be too arrogant

After the second lieutenant finished his call, he jumped out of the car.

he said to the murderous soldiers, ” “Our chief will be here in a while. He’ll talk to you directly.”

it’s useless no matter who comes, ” one of them said. today, with us here, don’t even think about going in.

The second lieutenant was infuriated by their attitude. don’t be too arrogant. I don’t care whose soldiers you are, but if you disobey the orders of the higher-ups, you will all be punished.

why do you care if we’re punished? even if we’re punished, it’s something that will happen after today. No one can escape from our guns today.

Tang Zong really wanted to give him a round of applause when he heard this. This kid’s words were to his liking.

but where did all these come from?

Why did he suddenly appear and help them?

“Brother, where did Yueyue come from?” Tang Zong leaned over and asked.

That person sized Tang Zong up and said, you don't have to worry about that. Go back and eat when it's time. You don't have to worry about this. Tang Zong was overjoyed. you really don't need ran ran anymore? ”

“Of course not,” the man nodded.

“Then I'll go in, Yueyue.”

Tang Zong was elated. This was great. He didn't have to worry about anyone rushing in.

He quickly went back to tell his sister not to make her anxious.

Before he entered, he asked, 'do you want some water? Have you had breakfast?' the man's mouth twitched and he waved his hand. ” “No need,”

Tang Zong joyfully entered the house. However, after he entered, he still ordered his men to lock the door. Although those people seemed to be helping him, what if an accident happened?

After comforting Rong Yan, Tang Zong felt that he had to come out and take a look.

Rong nuo accompanied Rong Yan as they sat in the living room. What surprised Tang Zong was that Rong Yan was extremely calm, even calmer than Rong nuo.

He drank his tea calmly and played Go with Gu Hesheng. Even Tang Zong was a little impressed by his calmness.

“What's the situation outside?” Rong Yan asked him.

Tang Zong hurriedly said, “Oh, the situation outside is simply full of twists and turns. It's like a twist of fate. I was dumbfounded when I saw it.”

Rong Yan smiled and asked, “what do you mean?” seeing you like this, everything should be getting better.”

Tang Zong quickly recounted what had happened outside the door. “Big sis, you're amazing. Those people were going to force their way in and I was about to give up. I didn't expect another group of people to suddenly come in, all of them carrying automatic rifles. I thought they were helpers, but I didn't expect those people to turn their guns on the people who were going to force their way in. They even said that they were following orders from their superiors. As long as they were here, no one was allowed to take a single step into the lab.”

Rong Yan was very surprised. That's a little strange.”

“Did the second batch of people say whose orders they were under?”

tang zong shook his head, “no, they didn't say anything. however, those people should have a strong background. i think they are trump cards or something. their uniforms don't have any epaulets on them, and there's no sign of which military unit they belong to. furthermore, from their tone, they all sound very arrogant. it seems like qianqian has killed before.”

Rong Yan smiled. Oh, I see. Yingluo, that's not bad. With them around, at least nothing will happen at home before Liancheng returns.

Tang Zong patted his chest. that's right. I think so too. Big sister, you don't have to be afraid. I will definitely be able to protect the family..

Chapter 2010: You don't have to worry with us around “yes, we all believe in you.” rong yan's smile deepened.

Tang Zong was a little embarrassed by Rong Yan's words. His performance outside just now was really embarrassing.

“I'll go out and take a look then. Brother-in-law will be back soon.” Tang Zong scratched his head.

“you'd better pack up before you go out.” rong nuo called out to him.

Tang Zong looked at the pajamas he was wearing and the slippers he was wearing. He chuckled and said, “alright, I'll go and pack now.

Tang Zong took a shower and changed his clothes. He tidied himself up before going downstairs.

He said to Rong Yan and her sister and ran out of the door.

The two sides were still in a confrontation outside the door.

However, it was clear that the second lieutenant and his men had lost in terms of momentum.

After looking for a while, he walked to the man who had spoken to him when he had entered the door and said, ” “Want a cigarette?”

That person glanced at the cigarette in Tang Zong's hand. There was a hint of hesitation in his eyes. It seemed like he was a fan of smoking.

tang zong intended to pass the cigarette to him, but before the other party could take it, two cars drove in from the back. the two cars stopped behind the military truck, one on the left and the other on the right.

Tang Zong didn't look at the car on the right, but he recognized the car on the left. It was his brother-in-law, Liancheng Yazhi's car.

The most important thing was that Secretary Zhou was the one driving.

tang zong was so happy that his face bloomed like a flower. he kept the cigarette he had handed out and quickly ran over.

Secretary Zhou got out of the car and opened the door for Liancheng Yazhi.

Tang Zong ran in front of him and said excitedly, brother-in-law, you're finally back. Don't you think that the traffic in front of our house is worse than the one you have on the road? ”

Liancheng Yazhi's lips curled up as he looked at the fleet of cars in front of him. His car could not get in and could only Park at the back.

He nodded and smiled, “he's quite powerful.”

He glanced at the car that was parked on the right. The person in the car opposite did not get out, and Liancheng Yazhi did not walk over either. Instead, he brought Secretary Zhou and Tang Zong with him and strolled to the door of his house.

lian Cheng yazhi looked at the two sides, who were at daggers drawn, and smiled. ” “it seems like yingying is a lot more lively than i thought?”

“That’s right, brother-in-law. It’s so lively. You don’t know how exciting it is. It’s even more exciting than the big movies.” Tang Zong chimed in.

Lian Cheng Yazhi glanced at the soldiers who did not wear epaulets and had a vague idea of what to do. is that so? tell me later how exciting it will be.

Tang Zong leaned closer to Lian Cheng Yazhi and told him everything in a low voice.

Lian Cheng Yazhi politely said to the soldiers who were not wearing epaulets, ” although I don’t know whose orders you’re following, I’m still quite grateful to you. I wasn’t at home today, and I didn’t expect this to happen. If it were you, something big might have happened.

A person from the other side stood out and said very respectfully to Lian Cheng Yazhi, ” Mr. Lian, you’re too kind. We should be the ones thanking you. With us around, you don’t have to worry about today’s matter.

At the side, Tang Zong’s mouth was wide open in shock. His brother-in-law was indeed the best.

these people spoke arrogantly to everyone, but they were so respectful to their brother-in-law.

Lian Cheng Yazhi nodded slightly. there are some things that I have to do. There’s no need to thank me.

The second lieutenant looked at Lian Cheng Yazhi and was a little surprised. No wonder the higher-ups said that they had to complete the mission before this person returned. Otherwise, they would be out of luck..
