

Permit Me 361

Chapter 361 What will happen if I'm caught?

The man nodded and said, "good Yingluo."

He turned around and went into the bedroom to take out a backpack for hiking from the closet. this is the luggage I prepared for you. There are some necessities and a few pieces of clothes in it. It's not much, but it's enough.

Rong Yan raised her eyebrows. you're quite thoughtful. What about the money I exchanged for those things? "

"Oh, Yingluo, please wait a moment." the man quickly took out a card.

"this is the money you got after selling your things. the password of this card is 000000."

"Thank you," he said. Rong Yan took it happily and stuffed it into her Mountaineering Bag. She then placed the cards that she had carried with her in several places on her body.

Rong Yan smacked her forehead and quickly took out the dress she had worn the other day and a crocodile-skin handbag. Oh, I almost forgot. What about this bag and clothes? "

The man frowned and thought for a while. we can't take this Yingluo. The clothes are burnt. Let's see if Yingluo can cut it into pieces and wrap it in a few more layers. When we go out later, we'll throw it into the trash can.

a piece of clothing was burning in the room, causing thick smoke to burst out. rong yan wanted to open the window to let out some air, but she was afraid that others would find out. after the dress was burned out, the two of them quickly took their things and went out.

However, before he left, the man suddenly stopped and asked Rong Yan, "miss rong, young master ya's recording is not finished yet! Don't you want to hear what young master ya has to say after that?"

Rong Yan simply interrupted him. there's no need to listen to him, Zhenzhen. Let's go. We're burning things in the house. Even if we don't release smoke, we'll probably be discovered soon. Let's go.

After burning the things, Rong Yan suddenly felt that she was too stupid. Wasn't she just waiting for Liancheng Yazhi to find her? Moreover, it was her own initiative to send out the signal.

The man thought of his boss's instructions and said, "In order to prevent miss Rong from regretting it in the future, you'd better listen to the whole story."

rong yan shook her head. "then all the more i can't listen to it. i don't want to regret it."

Would he regret it?

Rong Yan didn't listen and didn't know. She only knew that she just wanted to leave and live a quiet and peaceful life.

For a period of time, without Liancheng Yazhi.

Perhaps she would miss him after she settled down. She would miss the days when he pampered her, but Hanhan was different now.

The man sighed. sigh, then forget it. If you want to leave, there's no point in saying anything. Let's go. Before we're discovered, let's hurry and leave.

Rong Yan finally stepped out of the door.

the cold air that suddenly blew in from outside made her shiver.

There was no elevator in the old-fashioned community. Rong Yan and the man walked in the quiet corridor at night.

It was almost 11 O'clock at night, only an hour away from midnight.

The two of them got into a very common car. After the car was on the road, the man said to Rong Yan, "miss Rong, you and I are a couple now. Because my father in the countryside suddenly fell seriously ill and is in a particularly dangerous situation, he may not make it through tonight, so I have to take my pregnant wife back.

"I understand." Rong Yan nodded.

The man handed Rong Yan a plastic bag. inside are our current identity cards and household registration books. Take a look, in case something goes wrong.

Rong Yan hesitated for a moment. She raised her head and asked, "there's a heavy security check at the intersection outside the city. Is the security really that tight?"

She recalled what Liancheng Yazhi had said on TV. What would happen if ran ran was really caught?

Chapter 362 wanted by the entire city

She recalled what Liancheng Yazhi had said on TV. What would happen if ran ran was really caught?

The man said as he drove, " it's not tight. It's very tight. You'll know when you see it. It's almost impossible for Yingying to get out now. I hope Buddha will bless her.

Rong Yan took out her identification card from the bag. Zheng Yan? Is that your real name?"

"Hehe, Yingluo, we just need to know about this."

"Then, is your current face Yingluo real?" Rong Yan looked at the face of the man named Zheng Yan carefully. He looked very normal and natural, without any abnormalities. However, this man had a pair of hands that could turn the magical into the rotten. Who could guarantee that his face was the best?

"Cough cough, Yingluo's face, as long as it can let us pass smoothly, it's fine, Yingluo"

The corner of Rong Yan's mouth moved. It seemed that this man's name was fake, and his face was also fake. She just didn't know if his gender was fake.

Rong Yan turned her head and looked at the streetlights flying past the window. She was now on her way to escape, and whether she could get there successfully would depend on tonight.

Rong Yan saw the huge Billboard that flashed past outside. There was no image inside, and it was probably playing Liancheng Yazhi's recording.

She thought helplessly, Liancheng Yazhi, when we signed the agreement, we already agreed to part on good terms. How can you, Wanwan, go back on your word?

They finally arrived at the toll station in the early morning, but the car could only stop far away. Because it was the new year, there were many people who drove home by themselves, but now every car had to go through a strict inspection, so there was a long queue.

Rong Yan saw such a long line through the car window and couldn't help but feel a little nervous.

"How long do I have to wait like this, Zhenzhen?"

Zheng Yan's fingers tapped on the steering wheel. it'll take at least an hour.

Rong Yan was waiting uneasily.

The situation on Liancheng Yazhi's side was also not optimistic.

Now, everyone in the imperial capital knew that the most powerful man in the imperial capital, Liancheng Yazhi, had gone crazy and wanted a woman named Rong Yan in the entire city. He would not stop until he turned the imperial capital upside down.

The entire city was filled with Liancheng Yazhi's voice. It was like a spell that trapped the city, and the reason for him to stop was that the woman named Rong Yan would not appear.

However, as Liancheng Yazhi's voice recording was played throughout the city ...

There was no news of Rong Yan's whereabouts, and she didn't appear. Instead, bad news began to come one after another!

After Secretary Zhou received the report, he was so shocked that he sat down on the chair. It took five minutes for him to come back to his senses.

He clutched his forehead and wailed, 'the heavens want me dead!'

It was impossible to hide such a major incident. Secretary Zhou could only bite the bullet and go up even though he knew that he would die.

he knocked on the door and said to Liancheng Yazhi, who was standing in front of the window, in a low voice, " "Young master ya, Yingluo has bad news?"

To Liancheng Yazhi, the lack of accurate news from Rong Yan at this time was the worst news.

Before Secretary Zhou could say anything, cold sweat was already dripping from his forehead. He swallowed a few times and said, block A of the Empire.

Qianqian, all of Miss Rong's things in your room have been moved out.

Liancheng Yazhi suddenly turned around, his red eyes filled with bloodthirsty murderous intent. " when did this happen? "

Chapter 363 I'll never let you go!

"It happened after you left yesterday." Secretary Zhou tried his best not to be such a coward, but he could still hear his own trembling voice.

If young master ya didn't fly into a rage after what happened in block A of the Empire, it would be like the sun rising from the West.

However, this kind of oversight was not deliberately made by everyone. It was because all the forces had been sent to find Rong Yan and some technical staff had been transferred from the Empire's block A. This directly caused the defense of block A to weaken.

In fact, the key was that no one dared to think that someone would dare to sneak into young master ya's room to steal things.

He also didn't expect that miss Rong Yan was still thinking about her clothes and jewelry while running away.

Liancheng Yazhi's face was very pale, the kind of pale that was unhealthy. He looked even more devilish than usual. His red eyes that stayed up all night were even more devilish, and Secretary Zhou felt that there was something sinister behind him.

The corners of Liancheng Yazhi's lips curled up, and his smile made people tremble from the bottom of their hearts. He said coldly, "you're only reporting about what happened yesterday? secretary zhou, you're doing better and better at your job! it seems that i'll have to raise your year-end bonus this year."

Secretary Zhou shivered and shivered violently.

Liancheng Yazhi's voice was not loud at all. He did not scold, roar, or yell. He smiled in a seemingly kind manner, so kind that Secretary Zhou thought that he would suck his blood and break his neck in the next second.

Secretary Zhou felt that his lips were unusually dry. He licked his lips. I don't want the year-end bonus. Young master ya, you've always been good to me!

Liancheng Yazhi slowly walked towards Secretary Zhou. how can I not want it? you've worked so hard. As your boss, I should give you a reward, ran ran.

liancheng yazhi was very confident, and his cold voice was like a needle that was specifically aimed at secretary zhou's bones.

Secretary Zhou's legs turned to jelly and he almost knelt down. He quickly said, "young master ya, it's my fault. I'm sorry. Qianqian just sent a message saying that the infrared alarm system didn't go off. The other party didn't activate the automatic alarm system at all. He's very familiar with the location of all the devices. Besides, he didn't use the door. He came down from the roof with the help of a rope and used Princess to make a hole about one meter in diameter in the glass. He then got in and moved the things out.

Secretary Zhou said everything in one breath. He was about to collapse. Young master ya was becoming more and more terrifying. He would rather be kicked to Africa.

As the suite on the top floor was Liancheng Yazhi's private space, there were no cameras installed in all the rooms. Only an automatic alarm system was installed.

moreover, the glass was bulletproof, which was harder than normal walls.

However, who knew what kind of prop the b * stard who came to steal had used to actually make a regular round door hole in the glass wall?

Secretary Zhou really wanted to drag out the thief immediately and cut him into pieces.

The smile on Liancheng Yazhi's face disappeared instantly. Rong Yan wouldn't want to take away the things that were stolen. She loves money so much, so she must want to exchange them for money. So many luxury goods can be converted into money, which is not a small sum. Pay close attention to the second-hand luxury goods market in the capital, and there are capital transactions of more than a million Yuan.

Liancheng Yazhi's eyes flashed with ruthlessness.

Rong Yan, I will never let you go.

Chapter 364 You're making me Crazy for You

Rong Yan, I will never let you go.

Why can't I sleep at night and I can't eat, while you're free and unfettered outside?

why do you want to go to a foreign land when you're confusing me?

You made me restless, you made me go Crazy for You for no reason, don't even think about staying out of it, this game is not over, if I Don't Say It's Over, we will never be over.

Secretary Zhou lowered his voice and said, " yes, young master ya. I'll get it done immediately.

He silently left the room. He sighed as soon as he stepped out of the door. Although young master ya had only scared him so much that he almost peed his pants, he didn't say how to deal with him. That was because his boss still needed him now. After this matter was over, he would settle the score with him.

Why are these days so hard?

Why was his life so bitter!

On this side, Liancheng Yazhi had already ordered people to start paying attention to the trend of the luxury second-hand market.

In order to prevent Rong Yan from selling things separately, he asked Secretary Zhou to pay attention to the transactions in the market that had a transaction amount of more than one million Yuan.

However, these mayflies didn't seem to be of any use.

Because on the other side, in Rong nuo's small white bungalow, boxes of things were placed on the floor in the living room. There were a total of ten to twenty boxes.

Rong nuo looked at the clothes with many brand names that had not been removed. Seeing the staggering numbers on them, she was a little confused. She pointed to the box and asked, "What is this?"

the man sitting on the sofa rubbed his nose, patted his leg, and motioned for rong nuo to sit.

Rong nuo hesitated for a moment, but still walked over and sat on his lap.

He hugged Rong nuo's waist, pointed to the things on the ground, and said, "These are all your good sister's things."

Rong nuo asked in surprise, "didn't you say that these things could be converted to money after selling them?" Why did you bring him here?"

He pinched Rong nuo's nose affectionately, silly girl, do you think it's so easy to sell these things now? these luxury goods are all limited in the world. As long as any one of them appears on the market, it will immediately attract Liancheng's attention. He just needs to follow the clues and find out that I helped your sister. By then, I'll be in big trouble, Yingluo.

Block A of the Empire had been stolen. Once Liancheng Yazhi knew about this, he would definitely pay attention to this batch of things.

At the heart of the storm, these luxury goods were explosives, hot potatoes that could attract Liancheng Yazhi the moment they appeared.

He wasn't that stupid!

When Rong nuo heard this, she directly ignored his last words and shifted her attention to the front. She said worriedly, "Yingluo doesn't have these things to exchange for money. Does my big sister have enough money? She's on the run, what if she doesn't have enough money?"

He immediately knocked Rong nuo's head, "you little heartless thing, have you learned the bad things from Rong Yan? think about it, after these things are sold, i'll be the one in trouble. if Liancheng finds out, will i still have a good ending? "

If Liancheng Yazhi found these things, it would be the same as finding him.

when he found out that it was her good friend who had been dragging him down and even sent his woman away, he would not be able to find her.

According to Liancheng Yazhi's current state of madness, killing him would be a light punishment.

In such a serious situation, this little girl didn't even think about whether Rong Yan had enough money to spend and whether she would suffer. She had doted on her for nothing!

Chapter 365 How many months has it been?

Rong nuo rubbed the place where she had been hit and whispered, "Yueyue, you're friends with young master ya, so he won't do anything to you. However, it's different for my sister. She's going on a long journey, and it'll be difficult for her to move without money. Moreover, she's a woman."

"forget about it. just take it as i owe you sisters. "

He sighed. don't worry. Without the money from selling these things, the assets she has now are enough for her to live a life without worry. Besides, all these things have been converted into money, and I've given her my bank card.

Who was Rong Yan? the money she got from Liancheng Yazhi was definitely enough to support several of her. Only Rong nuo was easy to bully and believed everything she said.

Rong nuo's eyes lit up. you mean, you've bought all these things? "

"What else?"

"You're so nice, Zhenzhen." Rong nuo raised her head and looked at him gratefully.

She was very happy that her eldest sister, Rong Yan, didn't have to worry about money.

He hugged Rong nuo and fell back. that's good. I've moved a bunch of time bombs home and they can be detonated at any time. Tell me, how should we deal with it? ”

Rong nuo frowned and thought for a while. I can't sell it. I can't wear a Kasaya. Burn it, right? ”

“Silly girl, clothes can be burned, but what about jewelry?” He closed his eyes, the thumb of his right hand caressing Rong nuo's smooth cheek. I have to think carefully about where to hide it, Yingluo.

after a while, he had a plan in his heart, and turned to ask rong nuo about another matter,”Baby, when you're taking the college entrance examination this year, apply for a University in D city in the South.”

“Why? I can't get into a school in the capital, right?”

“i'm planning to go out and hide for two years, so i have to bring you along!”

Rong nuo sighed.

At the same time, Rong Yan and Zheng Yan queued in front of the toll booth for a full one and a half hours before it was their turn to be checked.

Looking at the row of people in camouflage in front of her, each of them holding a gun, it was obvious that they were loaded with guns. They stood there in a row, like a bronze wall. Rong Yan's heart started to beat like a drum. It seemed that it would not be easy to leave this time. Liancheng Yazhi had directly used the Army.

the person who came to check was a man who looked like a military officer. he let rong yan and zheng yan get out of the car first, then compared the identity and household registration of the two people with their faces one by one. after confirming that they were the real people, he asked.

“it's the new year. where are you going with your pregnant wife in the middle of the night?”

Although the other party was from the military, he didn't sound overbearing when he spoke. It was like an ordinary road crossing.

Zheng Yan said anxiously, ” it's like this. My wife is pregnant this year and I was afraid that the road would be bumpy, so I didn't plan to go back to my hometown. However, I received a call from my hometown this morning saying that my father's condition isn't good and might not be able to last more than a few days.

That's why I'm so anxious, so I want to bring my wife back as soon as possible, in case Qianqian can't even make it to my father's last meeting.

Zheng Yan's expression and actions were all on point. That anxious and slightly afraid look was especially natural.

When he mentioned his father, his eyes turned red, and he looked extremely real.

Rong Yan pretended to be a weak and timid woman as she clutched Zheng Yan's clothes tightly, refusing to let go.

The young officer's line of sight caught Rong Yan and sized her up carefully, then asked, "How many months is your wife pregnant?"

Chapter 366 don't hurt my child

"It's been five months and elder Wanwan might not see his grandson being born, so Wanwan wanted to bring him back with her," Zheng Yan hurriedly said.

"It's been five months, Yingluo." The other party circled Rong Yan once, looking like a hunting dog circling around a disguised prey. For a moment, Rong Yan's mood was in her throat!

The way this man was looking at her was too scary. It was the kind of gaze that wanted to dissect her. He did not hide it at all.

After the young officer finished looking at it, he asked Zheng Yan, "You don't mind bringing her for an inspection, right?"

Rong Yan hurriedly hid behind Zheng Yan. Zheng Yan's expression was very bad. Check, check? "Why? You're not doctors, why do you have to check my wife? She didn't do anything wrong!"

The young officer smiled. Don't misunderstand. It's just a routine check. We have doctors here too, so don't think too much. Look, all the women who pass by here have to be checked, not just her.

Zheng Yan had a look of hesitation on his face. Really? Nothing will happen?"

"Absolutely not," the young officer promised. "It'll be done soon."

Zheng Yan turned around and winked at Rong Yan. "Yueyue, honey, Yueyue, do you want to go with him?"

Rong Yan pretended to look timid and glanced at the young officer. "Then I'll go. You must wait for me here, huahua."

Zheng Yan grabbed Rong Yan's hand tightly. don't worry. I'll definitely wait for you here.

Rong Yan felt something hard suddenly appear in her palm. Her body trembled and she slowly let go.

The young officer waved two soldiers over. let's go, get in the medical vehicle.

Rong Yan was walking very slowly because she was 'pregnant'. She pretended to rub her nose and brought her hand in front of her eyes. She happened to see the thing that Zheng Yan had secretly passed to her just now. It was a white pill.

When they got on the medical vehicle, most of the doctors and nurses were women.

There were also two women who were being examined. Their faces, ears, nose, throat, and other body parts were carefully examined and recorded.

Rong Yan was scared witless. Oh no, if these people treated her like that, the secret on her face would definitely be exposed.

A nurse walked over and looked at Rong Yan. ah, a pregnant woman. Tsk, tsk, tsk. This pregnant woman looks completely different from the person we're looking for. Why do we have to do a checkup? it's a waste of time.

don't talk nonsense and let the higher-ups hear you: " a woman who looked like: doctor reprimanded: do you still plan to continue being: nurse? "

"Then, what are we checking on this pregnant woman for?" the nurse was unconvinced. It's not her at first glance."

of course, it's to check her stomach, Yingluo. the doctor stood in front of Rong Yan after he finished speaking and asked, " "it's been five months, yingluo. there should be some fetal movement, right?"

Rong Yan nodded. yes, I do have Yingluo. However, I don't have many children in my family.

"Lift up your clothes and let me take a look at your stomach. I'll be done soon after a small examination." The doctor picked up his stethoscope and put it on.

Rong Yan immediately said in panic and fear, " "Lift it here? are you guys kidding me? you want me to lift my clothes in such a cold temperature? What are you guys trying to do?"

These people wanted to check if she was really pregnant or not. No, she must not let her stethoscope be on her stomach, or all her efforts would be in vain.

Rong Yan covered her stomach like an old hen protecting her chicks. "No, I will never let you touch my child."

Chapter 367 The most dangerous moment

The doctor and nurses were stunned. Although it was better inside the car than outside, it was still a cold day. The temperature was several degrees below zero. It was not good for a pregnant woman to take off her clothes and reveal her stomach. It was a little too inhumane.

the doctor put down his stethoscope and said to rong yan, " well, I'm sorry, we're just following orders. How about I use my hand to feel the baby's movement? "

Rong Yan quickly calculated in her heart. This doctor was a woman in her thirties. She did not wear a ring on her finger, so she was probably not married. She was not a gynecologist, so she definitely did not know much about the fetus. This way, she might be able to fool her.

Hence, Rong Yan nodded, "alright, Yingluo, alright, Yingluo."

The female doctor reached out a hand and placed it under Rong Yan's clothes, pressing it against her bulging lower abdomen.

Rong Yan was very nervous, but she was afraid that someone would see through her, so she tried her best to suppress the frequency of her heart beating so that it wouldn't beat too fast.

However, after ten minutes, there was still no movement from Rong Yan's stomach. The doctor was starting to get a little anxious, but Rong Yan was even more anxious. Her stomach was fake, so there naturally wouldn't be any fetal movement. However, Qianqian, Zheng Yan, said that it could be completely simulated, so Qianqian should be able to jump.

In order to prevent the doctor from suspecting her, Rong Yan quickly lowered her head and gently touched her stomach. Her face was filled with the love and warmth of a mother. She said gently, " "The child is playing hide and seek. The more you want her to kick you, the more he won't move!"

"Yeah, it's probably already so late. The baby should be asleep by now," the nurse said.

Hence, the doctor's first anxiety and suspicion was erased by a conversation between Rong Yan and the nurse.

after another five minutes, rong yan's fake stomach moved a little. the female doctor looked up. " it moved, yingluo. "

Rong Yan immediately heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. She once again put on the glory of a mother-to-be and said, "Yeah, Yingluo just likes to tease the adults."

The doctor pulled her hand away and took down notes in the notebook beside her. She asked casually, "Why are you running away with the child at night? It's not good to be on such a day."

Rong Yan hurriedly told the doctor and nurse what Zheng Yan had said. It was probably because people tended to have a good impression of children that the doctor and nurse's attitude became better after a short while.

In order to win their favor and sympathy, Rong Yan said, intentionally or unintentionally, "My husband and I only had this child two years after we were married. If he hadn't appeared in time, my mother-in-law would have forced us to get a divorce. This child is my little lucky star."

As soon as Rong Yan said this, the doctors and nurses who were examining her felt more sympathetic towards her. When they checked her face, they took a casual look and took a photo to save.

When she asked Rong Yan to leave, the nurse said, "Big sister, you have to be careful on the road. Now that Hanhan's boss is looking for a woman, Aiyo, it's such a big deal. We have to come here for the New Year's shift and can't reunite with our families. I really don't know what Hanhan is causing."

"It's been really hard on you," Rong Yan quickly said.

Sigh, the sorrow of a small character. Big sister, get out of the car slowly, Yingying.

"Okay, thank you, Yingluo."

When she got out of the car, the cold wind of the winter night blew over, making Rong Yan shiver a little. However, she did not dare to relax. She would feel uneasy if she did not leave the toll booth.

Chapter 368 Wife, are you alright?

When Zheng Yan saw Rong Yan coming down, he quickly went up to her and held her arm. "How's my wife?"

Rong Yan shook her head. I'm fine, Yingluo.

The two of them walked to their car, and Zheng Yan asked the young officer, "Comrade, look, my wife is fine. Can we leave?"

The man sized up Rong Yan for the last time and finally nodded.

Rong Yan and Zheng Yan heaved a sigh of relief at the same time. Just as the two of them were about to get into the car, the young military officer received a call.

Just as Zheng Yan got into the car and was about to close the door, a hatchet man pulled him from the outside and forcefully opened the door.

Zheng Yan raised his head and saw that it was the young officer. He was handsome and looked exceptionally charming in his military uniform. He smiled at Zheng Yan with a hint of ruffian on his face. "I'm afraid you can't do it now. Your Wanwan can't leave yet!"

Zheng Yan and Rong Yan's hearts skipped a beat at the same time. Why?

"Someone reported that your identity card was lost a few days ago! But now, it has appeared here. Why?"

Zheng Yan explained calmly, "We were the ones who reported it. At first, we thought that it was stolen. However, we later realized that it wasn't stolen. It was the wallet that was kicked under the sofa."

"Really?" the young officer asked. That's even more wrong, Yingluo."

"What's wrong?"

"It's not normal for you to be so calm."

Zheng Yan nearly spat out a mouthful of blood. Am I supposed to be nervous and guilty?"

He stretched out his hand and lifted Zheng Yan's left hand. Also, there are more calluses on your left hand than on your right. It's obvious that you're left-handed, but Qianqian doesn't seem to be.

Rong Yan's heart clenched and she cursed in her heart. Damn it, why was this small first lieutenant so difficult to deal with?

She glanced at Zheng Yan. He was rather calm.

The soldier behind the young officer interjected, "Brother Li, I don't think they are. His wife is a real pregnant woman, not the one we're looking for."

The young officer sneered and threw Zheng Yan's left hand away. there's something wrong with this man. Take him away!

Rong Yan gritted her teeth. Was she really going to be left behind like this?

Suddenly, from the corner of her eye, she noticed that Zheng Yan seemed to have the intention of stepping on the accelerator. She swallowed. F * ck, this guy couldn't be thinking of rushing out like this, right?

The two soldiers came over and wanted to pull Zheng Yan out of the car. However, before they could reach him, a gunshot was heard from a hundred meters behind them, followed by shrieking and crying.

Everyone immediately looked over. The young officer's expression changed and he immediately took out his gun. what's going on? go and take a look.

Thus, a group of soldiers rushed to the place where the accident happened.

zheng yan quickly closed the car door and said to rong yan, " "Sit tight,"

Before Rong Yan could figure out what was going on, the car started instantly and drove at full speed like a rocket, rushing out of the toll station in the blink of an eye!

It took less than a minute for the car to leave the toll booth.

Rong Yan regained her senses and immediately glanced at Zheng Yan. "Damn, we just rushed out like this?"

Zheng Yan's face was filled with excitement as he drove at a high speed. it's not that easy. Look behind!

Rong Yan looked back and saw that there were police cars chasing after them. there are police cars!

Zheng Yan curled his lips. it's okay, these are all small cases. If I want to escape, no one can catch me!

Chapter 369 Speed and escape

Zheng Yan's words were filled with confidence.

at this moment, he no longer had the righteous look on his face when they first met. instead, he looked a little unruly, like an 'adventurer' who was walking on the edge of danger, wandering between life and death, and creating miracles time and time again.

Looking at Zheng Yan like this, Rong Yan's mind suddenly cleared up and she suddenly asked, "you were the one who stole my clothes in block A, right? You're the thief he's looking for, right?"

Zheng Yan drove the modified Volkswagen like a rocket, and he could not see the surroundings on both sides of the road clearly.

Zheng Yan kept on increasing his speed, and when he reached a turn, he made a beautiful drift at top speed. His control of the angle was perfect.

All of this indicated that in the past, at least before today, Zheng Yan himself had experienced this scene many times.

At this moment, it was as if he had been possessed by the God of racing. Zheng Yan suddenly turned around the corner and said with a smile, "miss Rong, it doesn't seem appropriate to ask this at this time! We're on the run right now, and there's a pack of Wolf-like pursuers behind us. It's very likely that we'll be caught and brought back."

Rong Yan didn't know why the more Zheng Yan said this, the less uneasy she felt in her heart. In the end, she even felt a little excited.

It was the stimulation that was triggered when he was on the edge of danger.

She glanced at the police cars that were chasing after them. didn't you say that they're nothing? you thieves are all good at running away. Besides, you're a famous thief. If you were so easy to catch, then the police in the many countries you've visited wouldn't be so troubled.

zheng yan sighed. "miss rong, you're really smart. however, if it was me, i would be very confident in escaping. but if qianqian brings you along, i'm only 80% confident. " rong yan's body suddenly tilted and she grabbed the handle above her head. "it's okay. for the world's number one thief, 80% is enough, right? " the steering wheel in zheng yan's hand was spinning rapidly. rong yan's words made a smile flash across his eyes. alright, since miss Rong thinks so highly of me, I can't let you down, right? Qianqian, we're entering the countdown to freedom!

"I'll definitely bring you a sensory feast! Open up every single pore in your body and wait for the next stimulation!"

more than a dozen police cars and military vehicles were hot on their heels, and the honking of their horns on the road rose and fell, making people feel uneasy.

The young officer was driving the military jeep at the front.

The soldier beside him recovered from his shock and said, " "brother li, you're so wise! there's something wrong with that person! He actually rushed out of the toll station. He must be afraid of being caught."

the military cap on the young officer's head had been taken off, and his hair was slightly messy. his handsome face had a touch of seriousness and excitement, like the excitement of a hunter who saw his favorite prey.

"We have to take him down," he said."Do you see that ordinary-looking Volkswagen? it's been modified and has more horsepower than a military vehicle! This man is an expert."

Chapter 370 a small matter

the soldier beside him said,"that's right, i was wondering why we were still left behind even though we were driving so fast, aww."

The young officer remembered that there was still something very important that he had not done. hurry, hurry, hurry. Connect me to the headquarters.

Very quickly, the headset's channel 1 was switched on, and he immediately said, " Major General, the target might appear. Requesting helicopter support!

The major general that the young officer was referring to was naturally Kang Yu.

He had not even finished his long vacation when he was dragged out by Liancheng Yazhi during the new year.

Major General Kang was obviously in a bad mood. After hearing the report, his voice was cold and he said stiffly, " "report your exact location."

It was the new year, and he had something important to do, but now!

He didn't sleep in the middle of the night and found a woman. Wasn't she his woman?

After the other party finished speaking, he put down his leg that was propped on the table. okay, I got it. Keep an eye on it and don't lose it. The helicopter will be there soon.

"Yes, boss!" The young officer changed his title of Kang Xi.

After cutting off the connection, Kang Yu looked at the time and cursed in his heart.

He immediately gave Liancheng Yazhi a call. Liancheng, there was a man and a woman in a modified Volkswagen just now. The woman seems to be pregnant. The person you're looking for might be the one who drove out of the toll booth.

Liancheng Yazhi's anxious voice immediately reached Kang Yu's ears. where is it? the exact location!

I've arranged for a helicopter to go over, and I've also locked onto that car with radar. You can go now.

"Okay, thank you. If it's really her, I'll thank you properly later," Liancheng Yazhi said to Kang Yu.

"Thank me? Forget it, just don't bother me anymore. It's the new year, and you're the one who's having a hard time, and you're the one who's making others have a hard time, but you're not wicked!"

It was rare for the quiet Kang Xi to grumble for so long.

She didn't expect Liancheng Yazhi to really reply with a righteous tone. I'm not in the mood to argue with you now. If we can find Rong Yan, we can all have a good New Year. If we can't find Yingluo, none of you can think about having a good time.

After hanging up, Kang Yu threw his phone aside and cursed, "Death-seeking Qianqian."

Wasn't that courting death? He had gone through so much trouble to get so many of them, but in the end, it had turned out like this. No one in the entire imperial capital could live in peace.

After he finished the call, the security guard with a stoic face walked over hesitantly. "Major-General, there's a small matter."

Kang Yu sat back down. speak. Cut the crap.

"it's like this, " the guard said. " i just received the young madam's new year arrangements for the next few days. "

" read qianqian. " kang qianqian turned her head to look at him. those eyes that had always been filled with evil were now even more frightening.

"i just received the young madam's arrangements for the next few days." the guard's adam's apple bobbed.

“I went out at nine this morning and met a doctor with the surname Wen. The two of them will have lunch together and watch a movie together, Hanhan.”

ran ran’s meeting with a university teacher tomorrow. She’ll have dinner and watch a movie, ran ran.

“the day after tomorrow, same as above!”

After the stoic guard finished speaking, he looked uneasily at Major General Kang, whose expression was normal.

A gun suddenly appeared in Kang Yi’s hand. He didn’t know if there were any bullets in it, but what he was doing now was to load the gun and aim at the man. Who knew who he was going to shoot?

He suddenly turned to the side with the gun in his hand, and the muzzle was pointed at the guard.
