

Permit Me 411

Chapter 411 Do you want a miscarriage?

Jian Jie's expression darkened. you can't keep him? ”

The young doctor pushed up his glasses and gave Jian Yi a little hope.

“Although I don't know how to take care of a woman's pregnancy, does Yingluo have someone who does?”

Jian Jie's eyes lit up. who is it? ”

Rong Yan didn't know how long she had been unconscious. When she opened her eyes, the sky outside had already darkened.

When she first woke up, her mind was still a little muddled and she couldn't figure out where she was. After a while, a faint pain in her lower abdomen woke her up abruptly.

She recalled what happened before she fainted, and her eyes widened. She subconsciously reached out to touch her lower abdomen.

The small amount was very flat and she couldn't feel anything at all. Rong Yan was feeling very uneasy now and wanted to confirm something immediately.

she propped herself up on the bed with both hands and slowly tried to sit up.

However, it was extremely difficult to move. His hands had regained consciousness, but he could feel the pain. His wrists were in great pain, but the wounds had been bandaged.

Rong Yan moved a little but couldn't move. Her body was extremely weak. At the same time, the bedroom door was pushed open and an old woman walked in. When she saw that Rong Yan was about to sit up, she quickly ran over and put the bowl by the bed. She mumbled a bunch of words to Rong Yan that she couldn't understand at all and helped her sit up a little.

However, Rong Yan could roughly guess that she was saying that her body was weak, so she shouldn't move for the time being and should lie down and rest.

The old woman was a local. Her skin was dark, she was short, very thin, and there were too many wrinkles on her face. She said something that Rong Yan did not understand and brought the bowl of medicine that she had just brought in to Rong Yan.

It was a bowl of black soup that had a strange smell. Rong Yan felt nauseated when she smelled it and wanted to vomit. She covered her nose and reached out to push it away.

However, the old woman was very persistent and insisted that she drink it.

Rong Yan refused. It was too terrifying to drink this kind of thing.

The two sides were in a stalemate, and they simply walked in.

He took the bowl of medicine from the old woman's hands and said something to her. She quickly stood up and left. Before she left, she even said something to Rong Yan.

He simply sat by the bed and handed the bowl of medicine over. He said to Rong Yan, "drink it. It's medicine to prevent pregnancy. If you want the little beansprout in your stomach to go away, then don't drink it.

Rong Yan's body trembled violently. Her heart felt as if it had been grabbed by a hand and squeezed tightly.

Baby-safe darling

Baby-safe darling

She wondered if she was really pregnant.

Although he had already guessed this possibility, hearing the simple words still gave her an indescribable shock.

That kind of shock was when Rong Yan was still in shock and couldn't extricate herself. Simply thinking that Rong Yan didn't want to keep the child, she said to her, "but I have to remind you that we don't have a gynecologist here, and the medical equipment is very simple. You should be able to imagine the danger of having a miscarriage here.

Rong Yan glared at Jian Yi fiercely.

She snatched the bowl of medicine from his hand, pinched her nose, and gulped it down in one go.

The bitterness stuck to her tongue and reached her heart. Coupled with the strange taste, Rong Yan felt a sharp discomfort the moment she drank it. She covered her mouth and wanted to vomit.

he simply gave her a cup of thick honey at the right time."you'd better not vomit unless you really want a miscarriage."

Chapter 412 I don't know

The military doctor didn't know how to take care of a fetus, but he knew that the mother-in-law who was in charge of washing and cooking for the mercenaries here knew the local folk remedy. The residents here were all poor and didn't have the means to see a doctor. When they had children when they were young, they would drink this kind of folk remedy to protect the fetus. It was said that it was very effective.

Therefore, Jian Jie had listened to the military doctor and went to find her mother-in-law who washed and cooked for her. That was how the bowl of medicinal soup with a strange smell was made.

Rong Yan was so bitter that her tears were about to flow out. She snatched the glass of water and gulped it down.

After drinking a large glass of water, he finally suppressed the strange taste, but the bitterness on his tongue did not go away.

but fortunately, the nauseating feeling was finally suppressed.

"You know you're pregnant?" Jian Jie asked Rong Yan with a frown.

He was very vexed now. Rong Yan was a hot potato. He was anxious to throw her away, but he was also afraid that something would happen to her if he threw her away immediately.

Jian Jie felt that Rong Yan was a scourge and couldn't be left here.

However, she was not in a good condition now and he couldn't send her away immediately, so it was very troublesome for Wanwan.

Rong Yan leaned against the head of the bed. After all this, she had lost a lot of strength. She didn't want to move, so she narrowed her eyes slightly and said weakly, "I don't know,"

Before this, she was just suspicious. No, she had always denied it. She did not believe that she would actually win such a big prize with such a low probability.

She was pregnant! She had a child! This kind of thing that seemed to have nothing to do with her actually happened.

Rong Yan now suspected that they had seen it wrong.

"You're 100% sure that I'm pregnant? Who's the Doctor Who's treating me? I want to see him."

he simply looked at Rong Yan for a while and felt that she was very strange. She didn't have any reaction at all after knowing the news. If it were any other woman, they would definitely be very happy and use the child to threaten Liancheng, but she didn't seem to have this intention at all.

In the end, Jian Jie still called the military doctor over.

"Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere else?" the doctor asked Rong Yan.

Rong Yan opened her eyes and looked at him, "are you sure I'm pregnant? It can't be a misdiagnosis?"

"Miss Rong, you have to believe in my medical skills. I'm very sure that you're pregnant. It's been about a month."

Rong Yan still couldn't accept it. But the Liancheng family's family doctor said that I've taken too many birth control pills. It's hard for me to get pregnant now.

The doctor smiled. "It's very difficult. It's not absolute. You have to know that nothing in this world can be absolutely certain."

Rong Yan's last hope was shattered. She held her forehead and felt very depressed.

Was she really pregnant?

What should he do?

On the other hand, Liancheng Yazhi's progress was not very smooth. As soon as he took the plane out of the imperial capital, he encountered a change in weather. It was a violent storm. Because of the weather, because the temperature was very low, the rain directly turned into frozen rain when it reached the ground. This kind of weather was not suitable for flying at all. It was difficult to even get up by car at the current speed.

Liancheng Yazhi looked at the pitter-patter of the rain outside the window, feeling extremely frustrated.

He was especially worried about Rong Yan. That simple phone call that day was too strange. The more Liancheng Yazhi thought about it, the more he felt that Secretary Zhou wanted to comfort him and said, "young master ya, the rain is going to stop soon, aww."

Liancheng Yazhi suddenly turned around and said coldly, " " I can't wait any longer. I'll take off now. "

Chapter 413 Liancheng Yazhi is coming, you should leave immediately

Secretary Zhou was so scared that his face changed. He quickly ran to the door and stopped Liancheng Yazhi. young master ya, if you take off forcefully now, there will only be one outcome. The plane will crash and both of you will die. I can't, you can't go.

Liancheng Yazhi's voice was even colder than the freezing rain outside."Get out of the way, Yingluo."

Secretary Zhou shivered and refused to give in. "Young master ya, miss Rong will be fine. Young master Jian is your good friend. If miss Rong is really in danger and he finds out, he won't dare to leave her be for your sake. Young master, the rain will stop tomorrow."

"Besides, no matter how anxious young master Wanwan is, if you go now, not only will you not be able to see miss Rong, but you will also lose your life. Young master ya, Wanwan, you don't want to never see miss Rong again, do you?"

Secretary Zhou was very smart. He accurately grasped lianchengya's desire to see Rong Yan and made a breakthrough, clearly letting him know that if he went tonight, he would never see her again.

So, he succeeded.

It was because Liancheng Yazhi really couldn't accept the fact that he would never see Rong Yan again.

The next day, Rong Yan got out of bed. The medicinal soup that made her feel like she was committing suicide every time she drank it was really effective. After drinking it twice, Rong Yan felt that the pain in her lower abdomen was no longer there. Her strength gradually recovered and she was in good spirits.

She stood in the corridor of the small building and looked outside. The mercenaries looked no different from ordinary soldiers when they were not killing people.

Rong Yan came down from upstairs and walked around the village. Finally, she came to the shooting range. Everyone was gathered around because it was simple to compete with someone in the shooting range.

His simple marksmanship was extremely good, and the speed of his gun was unbelievably fast. His accuracy was practically zero. Every time he pulled the trigger, the sound of the gunshot seemed to hit a person's heart. The huge killing intent brought a huge impact.

looking at his simple back, there was no doubt that he was the lion of the king in this vast rainforest. he was not suitable for the bustling city. he was suitable for this kind of battlefield that was filled with bullets.

It was a baptism of iron and blood, a battle of life and death.

It was the heaven he desired.

Suddenly, a mercenary ran over and said something to Jian Jie. Jian Jie immediately turned to look at Rong Yan. Her gaze was as sharp as a blade, and Rong Yan was confused.

Jian Jie had just received the news from Liancheng Yazhi and he knew that things were not good.

she didn't expect liancheng yazhi to be so fast, and he hadn't moved rong yan away yet.

"how long will it take for his plane to arrive?" he asked simply.

"At most, it'll be half an hour."

"Prepare the car and people immediately and send Rong Yan away," Jian Jie immediately said. After a pause, he added,"bring the boiled herbs to the bottles for her."

after he finished speaking, he quickly walked toward rong yan, grabbed her arm, and took her away from the shooting range.

When he returned to the small building, he simply returned Rong Yan's luggage to her. Liancheng Yazhi will be here soon. You can't stay here any longer. I'll send someone to send you to Thailand now. Once you're there, you can go wherever you want. Since you've decided to leave him, then you should leave him completely.

Chapter 414 Young master ya is the child's father

When she heard that Liancheng Yazhi was about to arrive, Rong Yan's heart skipped a beat and she immediately felt a lump in her throat. Many emotions wanted to come out, but she suppressed them one by one.

Liancheng Yazhi had chased her all the way here for her. When Rong Yan heard this at this moment and thought of the little life in her womb that had just been born for more than a month, she suddenly felt an unprecedented panic in her heart.

She was very lost now.

If it were her, she would have left without hesitation upon hearing the news.

But Hanhan was different now. She had a child, and Hanhan was the biggest problem in front of her.

The child was Liancheng Yazhi's, and he was the child's father. No matter what, he should know.

However, Rong Yan did not know how Liancheng Yazhi would react and what decision he would make after hearing the news.

Rong Yan struggled for a while. Looking at the simple design, she asked, "Are you really going to let me go?"

Simply put, he was Liancheng Yazhi's brother, but he still wanted to send her away even though he knew that she had already ruined Liancheng Yazhi's child. This made Rong Yan suspicious.

Jian Jie said bluntly, "you will only ruin Liancheng if you stay by his side. I can't watch him become a man who lives for women because of you.

Rong Yan sneered. It was ridiculous that she would ruin Liancheng Yazhi and push all the blame to a woman like her. Since ancient times, the bad nature of Chinese men had never changed.

Rong Yan was angry and said sarcastically, "you people are really self-righteous, but I'm a little suspicious now." You're thinking too much about him. Do you like Liancheng Yazhi?"

Jian Jie's expression changed, and she glared at Rong Yan. "don't talk nonsense. Liancheng and I have been friends since we were young. If you dare to speak without thinking again, do you believe that I will kill you right now? "

Rong Yan said disdainfully and pointed at the space between her eyebrows. "you're always shouting to kill and beat me up. kill one for me to see. it's best if you kill me in front of Liancheng Yazhi. "

"I don't have time to chat with you now. Leave immediately." Jian Jie was so angry that he wanted to kill someone. If Rong Yan wasn't a woman, he would have beaten him up until his nose and face were swollen.

However, Rong Yan took a step back this time and said, "What if I say that I'm not leaving this time? I'm pregnant, so I have to ask the child's father, Hanhan, if he wants him."

The word 'child' was a variable that changed Rong Yan's heart to escape. From suspecting that she was pregnant to confirming it yesterday, Rong Yan realized that she had never had the thought of aborting the child.

rong yan thought about her life since she was young. she had no father, no complete family, and not even a kind and kind mother. she had never felt the warmth of a family.

Therefore, Rong Yan didn't want her child to experience a fatherless childhood like her after he was born.

The most important thing for a child was to give him a complete family.

This was why Rong Yan had the idea of not continuing to run away. She wanted to ask Liancheng Yazhi if he was willing to have this child.

If he wanted it, she would go back with him to take a walk.

if she didn't want it, then yingying would just find another way to escape.

jian jie was stunned. he couldn't believe what he had just heard. they had escaped from the capital to the golden triangle, and rong yan actually said that she wanted to see liancheng yazhi at this time?

Chapter 415 the liancheng family will never allow an illegitimate child to exist

Jian Yi, do you want to open Rong Yan's brain and see if water has entered her brain? he actually wanted to stay.

he simply grabbed rong yan's shoulder. " "What? stay to see Liancheng? Are you crazy?"

The simple grip was very strong, and Rong Yan's shoulder hurt a lot. Her expression didn't change as she slowly touched her lower abdomen and said seriously, " "I'm not crazy. I know what I'm saying. I've changed my mind. I want to see him."

jian jie was so anxious that she was pacing back and forth on the spot. " is it because you're pregnant? What do you think will change if you have a child? What's the Liancheng family's background? what's your family? Do you think he would marry you for a child?"

It was a simple way to nail the first thorn in Rong Yan's heart.

Yes, Rong Yan cared a lot about this. If Liancheng Yazhi didn't marry her, then the child would be an illegitimate child and would be one grade lower than others.

However, the gap between her and Liancheng Yazhi's identity seemed to be really insurmountable.

This was a fact that Rong Yan didn't want to accept, but she had to.

Jian Jie continued, " even if Liancheng is willing to marry you, the old master of the Liancheng family will agree. That old master hasn't shown himself in the fight between you and Liancheng, but that doesn't mean that he will let it go. He has remained silent until now because he feels that it's not the time for him to show himself. However, I can guarantee that as long as you dare to bring this child back, even if Liancheng Yazhi is willing to protect you, that old master will definitely not tolerate you because the Liancheng family will never allow an illegitimate child to appear!

I know that Liancheng is very capable, but his old man is not easy to deal with either. You know that the older the ginger, the spicier it gets. Liancheng can't protect you 24 hours a day without any negligence. He will always give the old man a chance to make a move.

it's not like there haven't been illegitimate children in the past few generations, but no matter whether they were in the mother's body or had already been born, none of them survived. There can only be one heir to the Liancheng family, and it must be the eldest son. The situation is more serious than you think. You have to think about it carefully.

This was the second nail that was simply hammered into Rong Yan's heart. It was even more painful than the first one, and it was even more intimidating.

Rong Yan knew that Jian Jie wasn't exaggerating to lie to her. What he said was true. Rong Yan knew that the Liancheng family didn't allow illegitimate children to exist.

This was because Huahua had always been in Liancheng Yazhi's area. The Liancheng family had only one son in each generation, and even brothers from the same mother were not allowed to have one. This was to prevent brothers from killing each other and fighting for the family power.

As for illegitimate children, he had never heard of them.

To put it simply, no matter if they were in their mothers' mothers' mothers' or if they were already born, none of them had survived. This sentence made Rong Yan's heart tremble even now.

No one could survive, no one could survive. The words, Yingluo, were like a curse ringing in Rong Yan's ears, getting louder and louder.

Rong Yan's hand protected her stomach. This was her child. It had not yet taken shape and was still a small bean sprout. However, Yingluo was already a life, a life that was connected to her flesh and blood. Rong Yan could not give up on him.

Jian Yi saw that Rong Yan had been persuaded a little, and his voice slowly softened. If you leave, you might still be able to save your life and your child's. If you go back with Liancheng, you and the little bean sprout in your stomach that hasn't even formed will be in endless danger.

Chapter 416 Baby, mommy won't leave you you should decide for yourself whether finding a father for your child is more important or protecting your and your child's lives. If you're really thinking about your child, then do as you see fit. If you really decide to stay, then I won't send you away.

At this point, Jian Jie had said everything that he needed to say. This was the most he had said in his twenty years of life, the most earnest and well-meaning advice.

At this moment, he couldn't tell why he wanted Rong Yan to leave.

Was it for Liancheng Yazhi, or did Huahua sympathize with Rong Yan?

Jian Jie glanced at the watch on his wrist and said, there's still 15 minutes before Liancheng's plane lands. You should consider it as soon as possible.

Rong Yan's eyes were very sore now, and she couldn't help but want to cry. She didn't know if it was because she was pregnant, but she had been feeling very sentimental recently.

She took a deep breath and looked up at the blue sky.

The sky here was beautiful, the sun was colorful and warm, the sky was blue, and the air was fresh. It was a good place to live in seclusion, but she was not destined to stay for long.

"Okay, I agree to leave." After saying this, Rong Yan felt that her throat was so dry that she couldn't say a word.

Rong Yan agreed to his simple words.

It was important to find a father for the child.

However, the child's life was more important!

She didn't want her child to be in any danger. Rong Yan had lived two lives, and for the first time, she felt that it was wonderful to have a child. This might be the only person in the world who would completely belong to her. It was her child. Even if she had to give up everything, she would protect him and ensure that he was born safely and grow up happily.

Since Rong Yan agreed to leave, the happiest thing was, of course, simplicity. He quickly arranged a car and people for Rong Yan. In less than three minutes, two Jeeps left the mercenary village.

The car was a little bumpy. After driving for about ten minutes, Rong Yan looked up at the sky and saw a helicopter flying over from the North in the distance.

Rong Yan closed her eyes and covered her lower abdomen with her palm.

Baby, mommy won't leave you. I'll give you double the love.

Just as Rong Yan's car was driving towards country T, Liancheng Yazhi's plane landed on a simple site only 13 minutes later.

As soon as the plane landed, Liancheng Yazhi jumped out of the cabin. Although he looked in good spirits, his hair was messy, his clothes were wrinkled, and he was covered in dust. It was obvious that he had rushed all the way here.

As soon as he stood still, a group of mercenaries surrounded him with guns.

when jian jie saw liancheng yazhi, she deliberately pretended to be surprised. "liancheng, why did you come so suddenly? why didn't you call before you came?" "Didn't you say that you really didn't like this damn place and that you would never come here? Why did you think of coming here?"

Jian Jie was glad that Rong Yan had left quickly enough. Otherwise, if Yingying had really run into her, she really didn't know what kind of scene it would be.

liancheng yazhi's eyes scanned the surroundings quickly like a searchlight and he replied, "I have something urgent to attend to, so I don't have time to call you."

He simply waved his hand and dismissed all the mercenaries. what's wrong? just because of a phone call the other day, you came here on your own. you're really something. a woman has made you this miserable."

Liancheng Yazhi was very anxious now and said in a bad mood, "I don't have time to talk nonsense with you. Where's Rong Yan? Tell me everything you've been hiding from me. "

Chapter 417 I suspect you're hiding Rong Yan

Jian Jie sighed secretly. Even if she sent Rong Yan away, it would not be easy to send Liancheng Yazhi away. This guy was very difficult to deal with. They did not even have time to clean up the stronghold. She hoped that there would not be any traces of Rong Yan's existence.

Jian Jie was feeling a little nervous and uneasy at the moment. He put on a relaxed expression and said, "Rong Yan? I don't know now. Maybe, she's in Thailand, or maybe she's already left. She's not my woman, so I didn't send anyone to follow her 24/7."

Liancheng Yazhi's eyes, which had dark circles under them, looked straight at Jian Jie. For the first time, Jian Jie felt guilty.

I don't want to hear that. I just want her whereabouts. Liancheng Yazhi took a step forward, his body leaning against the simplicity. The absolute pressure made the simplicity feel a little strained.

"You're making things difficult for me," he simply rubbed his hair.

Liancheng Yazhi sneered. when you made that call, you should have known. You asked for it.

he turned around and said to secretary zhou and his entourage, "Let's search the area."

Jian Jie was shocked. Liancheng, what are you searching for? "

Liancheng Yazhi's lips curled up. That evil smile, coupled with his slightly decadent temperament, looked particularly devilish. He said word by word, "I suspect that you've hidden your face."

Jian Jie was so choked that he couldn't say anything. F * ck, you're really too difficult to deal with.

However, he quickly recalled that Rong Yan had only stayed in the village for less than two days, and she had fainted not long after she arrived. She had spent most of her time in bed, so she did not leave any particularly obvious traces.

He felt at ease with this thought, so he let Liancheng Yazhi do as he pleased.

He gave Liancheng Yazhi a simple push. let's go. Let's go for a drink. They'll be searching for a while.

Liancheng Yazhi did not say anything and walked away.

Watching him walk straight to the simple wooden building, Jian Jie's heart skipped a beat. He didn't want Liancheng Yazhi to enter his room because Rong Yan had stayed there last night, but he didn't expect him to walk over directly.

Jian Jie wanted to call out to Liancheng Yazhi, but she was afraid that this would make him suspicious, so she could only follow him in.

From the moment he entered the house, Jian Jie had started to worry, but it seemed that Liancheng Yazhi had not noticed anything.

Rong Yan's luggage had all been taken away, and she had only stayed for one night, so she didn't leave any particularly obvious traces.

Thus, the simplicity slowly became more at ease.

After Liancheng Yazhi entered the house, he sat on the sofa with his eyes closed and did not say a word. Seeing him like this, Jian Yi did not say anything either. The silence between the two was strange.

after waiting for less than half an hour, secretary zhou came up to report, "young master ya, we didn't find anything, yingluo!"

Liancheng Yazhi's eyes suddenly opened, and a light that made one tremble flashed in his eyes. He stood up abruptly, turned to look at the door of the simple bedroom, and walked over.

Jian Jie shouted in her heart, "liancheng, where are you going? this is my bedroom."

get out of the way, Zhenzhen. Liancheng Yazhi's voice had an irrefutable deterrent.

Jian Jie refused to compromise. you know that I never allow anyone to enter my bedroom.

No one could stop Liancheng Yazhi from entering."What if I insist on going in?"

"I really don't have anything in my room," Jian Jie said with a headache.

then we'll talk about it after I see it, ran ran. Liancheng Yazhi pushed the simple door open, opened the bedroom door, and walked in.

Chapter 418 i'll give you one last chance, where's rong yan?

liancheng yazhi's eyes scanned every corner of the room. the simple bedroom was very simple and there was nothing extra. he could see all the furnishings at a glance, just like him.

"I already said there's nothing," he simply leaned against the door frame and said.

Liancheng Yazhi didn't say anything. He slowly walked to the bed and lifted the bed that wasn't folded properly. Looking at his actions, his simple heart instantly rose.

Rong Yan had been lying on that bed before. She had been up for so long, and even if she was still breathing, it should have dissipated by now.

She hoped that Liancheng Yazhi would not notice anything.

However, a simple prayer was useless because Liancheng Yazhi pulled out a strand of hair from under the pillow. It was black, very long, of good quality, and exuded a faint luster. It was a woman's hair.

There was no expression on Liancheng Yazhi's face. He slowly turned to look at Jian Jie and asked in a normal tone, "Simple, tell me, What is this?"

Her simple heart trembled. She didn't expect Liancheng Yazhi to find out about Wanwan.

However, Jian Jie quickly calmed down. Liancheng couldn't be sure that it was Rong Yan's hair just by looking at it. He said calmly, "This Yingluo is just like what you saw. It's a woman's hair. Can't I find a woman occasionally?"

Liancheng Yazhi pinched the long hair and walked to the front of Jian Jie step by step. He was very calm, without any anger or emotion. Nonsense. You never allow outsiders to enter your room, let alone women. There's Rong Yan's aura here. This hair is hers.

In the face of such a calm Liancheng Yazhi, Jian Jie did not know how to face him and did not know what to say.

It was because no one could understand what Liancheng Yazhi was thinking at the moment. His calmness was terrifying, like the calm before the storm. No one knew when it would flare up.

Jian Jie felt that his throat was a little dry, and he said with some difficulty, "Liancheng Zhenzhen, you've smelled wrong. There's no face."

Liancheng Yazhi approached Jian Jie and said lightly, "Jian Jie, I'll give you one last chance. Why is Rong Yan in your room? What did you do to her?"

Rong Yan had been with Liancheng Yazhi for so long. She had been away for more than a month, and he could only sleep by smelling her every night.

So, as long as it was a place where Rong Yan had been, he could immediately distinguish her aura.

Rong Yan had slept here before. The impact on Liancheng Yazhi's heart could be imagined. He didn't even know what words to use to describe his feelings at this moment.

Liancheng Yazhi's calmness, coldness, and excessive calmness made Jian Jie feel an unspeakable worry.

If he was angry, if he took out a gun or beat him up, it would be fine. But seeing the way he was acting, he really couldn't figure out what he wanted to do.

Most importantly, Liancheng Yazhi was 100% sure that Rong Yan had stayed in his bedroom before. If he didn't make it clear, he would definitely suspect that there was something between him and Rong Yan that couldn't be seen.

He couldn't afford to take the blame, and he definitely couldn't take the blame.

He definitely could not touch his friend's wife.

Liancheng Yazhi took one last look at Jian Jie. Then, he turned around and left. His voice was like a bone-piercing wind. Jian Jie, once we leave this door, we will no longer be brothers.

Chapter 419 I apologize to you

Just as Liancheng Yazhi was about to walk out, Jian Jie slammed the door hard and made his final decision. Liancheng, wait for Wanwan.

At the last moment, he had no choice but to make a decision.

simply put, in this world, ji fu was an enemy and had pitifully few friends.

Therefore, he didn't want to lose a friend like Liancheng Yazhi. In this world, people without friends were pitiful.

Jian Jie said to Liancheng Yazhi's back, Liancheng, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have kept this from you. I'm sorry about this. When Rong Yan was passing through the forest, she was caught by a hunting team of mine. It was a coincidence. After I saw her, I called you. Rong Yan did stay here for a night, but there's nothing between Rong Yan and I. I might kill her, but I'll never lay a finger on her. Please believe me on this. We've known each other for so many years. You know me well, my hobby is to fight, and I have no interest in women. I swear, I have never touched her. ”

That’s right. Liancheng Yazhi believed that Jian Jie was a natural warmonger. For him, a battle that was enough to ignite all his passion and blood was far more exciting than a hundred beautiful women.

However-

Liancheng Yazhi was extremely concerned that although his woman did not sleep with a man, she was sleeping in another man’s room, and that man was his friend.

He had always regarded Rong Yan as his private possession and hated it the most when she was tainted with any other man’s scent.

Therefore, his anger and killing intent did not reduce because of the simple confession. Instead, it became even more exuberant.

Holding back the urge to hit him, Liancheng Yazhi did not move. With his back facing Jian Yi, he asked, ” “Why didn’t you tell me that Rong Yan was in your hands when you called me?”

He let out a simple sigh. He, who had never been afraid of anyone or anything, once again felt guilty in front of Liancheng Yazhi.

Liancheng, I have to apologize to you for this. I didn’t want her to meet you because I felt that Rong Yan would be a burden to you if she was with you. So, I didn’t want her to return to your side. Liancheng Yazhi is the number one young master Quan in the imperial capital. He shouldn’t be so crazy for a woman. You’re about to lose yourself, and I don’t want to see you sink into oblivion.

Since he had already decided to be honest, he might as well be straightforward and tell her everything without hiding anything.

Hearing such an answer, Liancheng Yazhi was so angry that he wanted to laugh out loud. He suddenly turned around and strode in front of the simple-looking man. With lightning speed, he threw a punch at the man’s face and scolded, ” “Who the f * ck wants you to meddle in other people’s business? I’ve gone crazy for a woman, I’ve fallen for her, that’s my business, it has nothing to do with you. Jehovah? Don’t you think you have the right to save me? if it wasn’t for our many years of friendship, i’d have simply cleaned you up, including your village, and turned it into ashes today!”

in order to vent the anger in his heart, Liancheng Yazhi used almost all his strength in that punch. If he had hit a person who had no skills and had not received many years of hard training, this punch would have broken the bones.

The simple-built man staggered a few steps back before he stopped. His head was a little dizzy, and his face hurt badly. However, the pain did make him finally relax.

Chapter 420 Simple, I really want to kill you

The simple-built man staggered a few steps back before he stopped. His head was a little dizzy, and his face hurt badly. However, the pain did make him finally relax.

Liancheng Yazhi was willing to punch him personally. This proved that at least they would not end their friendship.

Jian Jie waited until her head was not so dizzy before saying, "Rong Yan is right. I'm presumptuous and shouldn't have interfered in other people's Affairs. Liancheng, I'm sorry.

Today was the first time in Jian Jie's life that she had ever apologized to someone. At that moment, she felt a little relieved, but at the same time, she was worried.

Lian Cheng snorted coldly. "Where is Rong Yan? Where are you now?"

Although he would not break off relations with Jian Jie, it was not so easy to make Liancheng Yazhi forgive Jian Jie completely this time.

Jian Jie rubbed the spot on her face that hurt from the slap and thought to herself. She didn't know if she would be punched again if she said the next sentence.

Jian Yi said, "Rong Yan left about an hour ago!" I heard that you were coming, so I asked someone to send her away."

Although he really wanted to say that Rong Yan left on her own, his dignity made him unable to do that.

If he pushed all the blame to a woman just to shirk responsibility, he would look down on himself for the rest of his life.

Anyway, Liancheng was already so angry that he couldn't be any angrier. He didn't care about another one.

as soon as he finished speaking, a strong murderous aura hit him in the face, and the next second, his simple face was punched by Liancheng Yazhi again. He gritted his teeth, his face fierce and murderous. "I really want to kill you now."

Liancheng Yazhi really wanted to kill someone and cut Jian Yi into eight pieces. He had been looking for Rong Yan for so long, but the first person who had not dragged him down was his friend.

Although he wanted to kill someone, Liancheng Yazhi didn't have time now. He had to quickly chase after her.

He had only left for an hour, and the jungle was difficult to walk through, so he should be able to catch up.

After Liancheng Yazhi was done with the fight, he quickly left.

He simply got up from the ground and rushed out, shouting at Rong Yan, "Liancheng, I still have things to say, Yingluo."

Liancheng Yazhi's speed was very fast. He was focused on Rong Yan, so he pretended not to hear the simple words.

Liancheng Yazhi couldn't wait to see her. A woman actually dared to cross the tropical rainforest. Thinking of this, Liancheng Yazhi was worried that she would not be well, eat well, and rest well.

Jian Jie really wanted to tell Liancheng Yazhi that Rong Yan was pregnant, but he left without giving him the time to speak.

He watched as Liancheng Yazhi commandeered his car and his people left quickly. He muttered to himself, "I should be able to find out after I get Rong Yan."

One of the mercenaries came to life and asked Jian Jie with a smile, "Boss, what happened to your face?"

He simply kicked him, "get lost!"

After leaving the simple mercenary's stronghold, Rong Yan's mood gradually calmed down. She was not in the mood to think about anything else now. She was trying her best to make herself not so bumpy, and it was very likely that she would bring a comfortable life to the little guy in her stomach that had not yet formed.

Rong Yan was sitting in an open-top Jeep. She could see the blue sky when she looked up, and she could feel the warmth, humidity, and fresh air in front of her. The air and the wind were free, but for the first time, she felt that her heart was not free.
