Chapter 431 The baby's heart has a problem

Seven's lips split open, and he gave a bright smile. Of course she's a little princess. When she's born, she'll definitely be the most beautiful little girl in the world, Yingluo.

Seven didn't want Rong Yan to stand there for too long, so he took the car keys from the Auntie and said, "Let's go. It's almost time. I'll take you to the hospital.

It's okay. It's still early. You just came back, so you should rest for a while.

"I'm not tired at all after seeing you and the baby. Let's go, Yingluo."

The smile on Rong Yan's face faded a little. In fact, Seven was really a good person. He took care of her in every possible way. However, why was it so hard for her to fall for such a good man?

Seven drove to the hospital with Rong Yan.

The doctor who would do Rong Yan's examination had been scheduled a long time ago. He was the best gynecologist in the hospital.

After a series of examinations, the doctor said to Rong Yan with a serious expression, "Miss Rong, I have bad news to tell you."

"What? Is there a problem with my child?" Rong Yan's heart immediately tightened.

After living here for a few months, Rong Yan learned the local language in her spare time. Now, she could basically understand it.

The doctor was also a woman. After a moment of silence, she said, "Miss Rong, don't be too nervous. It's just that Qianqian's fetus has some heart problems. It's because you took too many birth control pills before you got pregnant. It's already a miracle that you got pregnant, but it also has some effects on the fetus, especially in the early stages of pregnancy, especially the first five to eight weeks, which is the key period of the fetus' heart development. During this period, you said that you didn't seem to have a good rest, and there was an experience of almost leaving a message. Combined with the above reasons, That's why the fetus "heart is not fully developed."

The doctor was afraid that Rong Yan would think too much, so he quickly added, "Miss Rong, you don't have to worry too much. Medicine is developing so fast these days, and a small number of children with congenital heart disease have self-healing abilities before they reach five years old. The other children with mild symptoms don't have much of an impact. Even if their condition is serious, the chances of being cured by surgery are very high. Yingluo, what you need to do now is to take care of the baby and maintain a happy mood, Yingluo.”

Rong Yan did not know how she got out of the hospital. The doctor’s words kept floating in her mind.

The first five to eight weeks of her pregnancy was the critical period when he was busy running away from the border. It was a bumpy time, and it was already fortunate that the child was not miscarried in her womb.

All the regret in Rong Yan’s heart surged up in an instant. If she hadn’t been so bent on running, if she hadn’t jolted the child so that he couldn’t grow up the best in his mother’s body, if she could have stayed obediently and not gone anywhere, the child wouldn’t have been like this.

Seven looked at the tears in Rong Yan’s eyes and her pale face, and his heart ached for her. However, he didn’t know how to comfort her, so he could only say, ” “Rong Yan, don’t think too much. It’s not because of you. The child will be fine, Yingluo.”

Rong Yan shook her head. no, it’s because of me. I owe the child. She was not a good mother, not from the beginning.

When she took the birth control pill, she was also the one who wanted to run away.

But why did her child have to bear all the consequences? young master ya: don’t worry. The child will definitely be fine.

Chapter 432 My little princess

Rong Yan’s heart was very bitter and filled with unspeakable regret. If she had known that this would happen, she wouldn’t have stopped taking the medicine. Even if she couldn’t get pregnant for the rest of her life, she didn’t want her child to be unable to have a healthy body after she was born.

Seven was afraid that Rong Yan would take things too hard, so he patiently explained, ” don’t worry. The child is so obedient and she’s the closest person to you. She must understand you better. You’re also Hanhan’s protector to protect her life. Do you want her to die before or even after she’s born? ”

Seven hesitated for a moment, then opened his arms to protect his face. He whispered in her ear, ” Rong Yan, don’t worry. The child will be fine. This kind of illness is not rare in the fetus, and the chances of being cured are not small. Don’t forget that you are now a rich woman. You have more than enough to treat the child, find the best cardiologist, and use the best medicine for her. What are you afraid of? ”

Rong Yan didn't push Seven away. Right now, she was a fragile woman who felt guilty about her child. She needed a shoulder to lean on.

but he still has to suffer. You don't know how much I wish he was a healthy child, just like everyone else.

Rong Yan realized that when a woman became a real mother, she would know that she didn't expect her child to achieve much in the future. She only wanted him to grow up safely and happily. It was enough to wish him a healthy life.

But the heavens couldn't even satisfy her little wish.

Seven had never seen such a fragile face before. His heart ached, and he was sad. He smiled at Rong Yan and said, "Rong Yan, have you forgotten what you just said? You owe my goddaughter, so you have to pay your debt. The doctor told you to stay in a good mood, which is conducive to the growth of the child. Have you forgotten? You can't give her a healthy body anymore. Don't tell me that you want her to develop dysplasia in the next few months?"

Seven's words stunned Rong Yan, and she even forgot to cry.

He touched Rong Yan's forehead and placed his hand on her bulging stomach. "Are you stupid? it's because you owe the child that you want to make it up to her. You want to give her more love and care. You love her very, very much. Now that the baby has consciousness, do you want her to feel her mother's sadness every day? that way, you'll think that the child will be mentally sound after birth?"

Seven's words were like a bucket of water that had been poured on Rong Yan, and she instantly woke up from her dream. that's right, she could no longer give her child a healthy body, so she couldn't let her have a psychological defect, could she?

Rong Yan quickly wiped her tears away and smiled at Seven. "you're right, I have to be happy every day. That way, the kids will be happy as well. Thank you, Seven. If it wasn't for you, I would probably have ended up in a dead end.

"what are you thanking me for? i'm doing this for my goddaughter." Seven lowered his head and said softly to Rong Yan's stomach, "Isn't that so, my little princess Qianqian?"

go back and eat more tonics in the future. Keep exercising every day so that you're in a better mood. Talk more to the child, Yingying, "Seven said to Rong Yan over and over again like an old lady.

Not only did Rong Yan not think that he was long-winded, but she also listened very carefully.

She gently touched her lower abdomen and said in a low voice, " Baby, I won't let anything happen to you.

Chapter 433 The baby is born!

This time, Seven stayed at Rong Yan's house for half a month before leaving. Before he left, he repeatedly reminded Rong Yan to pay attention to her emotions and to get more nutrition. Because Rong Yan's stomach was getting bigger and bigger, it was getting more and more inconvenient for her to move around. So, before he left, he found an experienced Auntie to take care of Rong Yan with him.

After Seven left, Rong Yan's life wasn't much different from before. However, she would now read fairy tales to her child for two hours every night. She would listen to music during the day, and when she watered the flowers, she would tell the baby every kind of flower she had raised. Every day, she would have a gentle smile on her face.

It was said that pregnant women were the most beautiful, and so were their looks. Now, she had shed her hard shell and the sharp thorns on her body. She was as gentle as a spring, clean and clear under the sun.

The two aunties who took care of Rong Yan at home would always discuss in private that their mistress was as beautiful as an Angel.

Once, Rong Yan heard it and couldn't help but laugh. Who would have thought that she was once a demon who had crawled out of hell?

She was not an Angel. Her child was an Angel. The little guy's arrival had given her a new life.

Rong Yan felt that her state of mind had gradually changed after she had a child. She gradually realized that Yingying's current life was a real new life.

As the days went by, Rong Yan started to get a little worried. Ever since Seven left that day, he hadn't returned until her due date was approaching. He didn't even call her. Rong Yan was very worried that something had happened to him.

At the same time, she was also a little afraid. Her expected date of delivery was approaching, and she planned to be hospitalized early the next day. A woman's delivery was a hurdle, and she had no friends by her side. It was inevitable that she would be afraid.

The next day, she packed her things and went to the hospital. The local Chinese nanny that her family had hired, Auntie Zhang, could see that Rong Yan was uneasy and comforted her. Madam, don't worry. Hakeem and I will take good care of you. We've both given birth to several children, and we're best at taking care of pregnant women and children.

Hakeem was the other Auntie that Seven had hired for Rong Yan before he left. She was an honest and quiet person.

"Then I'll have to trouble you." Rong Yan nodded.

She had made an appointment with the hospital in advance, so the admission process went smoothly. Rong Yan wasn't short of money now, so she used the best and most expensive rooms and doctors in the hospital and enjoyed the service of a VIP.

After staying in the hospital for two days, the baby didn't move. After dinner, Rong Yan went to the park for a walk in order to give birth smoothly.

The two aunties hadn't eaten yet, and she didn't plan to go far, so she didn't let them follow her.

After walking one round and preparing to go back along the small path, Rong Yan suddenly saw a person walking towards her. She didn't care at first, but the other party's appearance was too eye-catching. After Rong Yan saw him, her heart skipped a beat and her legs went soft, almost falling down.

The man walked over with his long legs and grabbed Rong Yan's arm. He said with a smile, "Long time no see, miss Rong!"

He had a devilishly charming appearance, as gentle as a woman's, and his icy blue eyes could be seen clearly even in the night.

Hearing his voice, Rong Yan instantly felt a chill from head to toe. Her heart felt as if it was being squeezed by someone, and her lower abdomen quickly felt swollen. you, you, you, you, you, you, why are you here, you, you, you? "

Chapter 434 The child was born, but the Father was not around

The huge psychological shock brought a great shock to Rong Yan, and this shock made her feel that her stomach was starting to hurt more and more.

Not long after, a layer of cold sweat appeared on his forehead from the pain. His body gradually couldn't take it anymore, and painful moans came out of his throat.

Looking at Rong Yan's pained expression, a strange light flashed in the man's ice-blue eyes. After he realized what had happened, he was surprised. Aiya, you've activated it. You're about to give birth, right? I didn't expect that the little fellow in your womb couldn't wait to come out as soon as I came. It seems that we're really fated.

if Rong Yan still had the strength, she would definitely curse, "To hell with fate.

Seeing a pregnant woman give birth, even if it was someone they didn't know, they would still hurry to send the pregnant woman to the delivery room. But this bastard was good, he actually stood there in a daze and didn't know what was going on.

Rong Yan endured the pain and glared at the other party. Su Yue, I'm talking about you, Yueyue. How did you know that Yueyue knew I was here? "

That's right. The man who appeared out of nowhere in this foreign country's Hospital at night was Su Yu, whom Rong Yan had not seen for almost a year.

The man who had almost taken her away from Liancheng Yazhi.

He was also a man who had been injured by Rong Yan. He was sinister, cunning, extremely shrewd, and had all kinds of negative labels.

Rong Yan was not interested in Su Yu at all. She had a deep conflict with him at first sight.

Not counting her past with Liancheng Yazhi, just from a woman's point of view of a man, Rong Yan felt that although Su Yu was beautiful, she was more inclined to Liancheng Yazhi.

Of course, in terms of looks, Liancheng Yazhi wasn't inferior to Su Yue. However, in terms of personality, she really didn't like Su Yue's character, which would set her up at any time.

If she had to choose, she would rather choose Liancheng Yazhi.

Su Yu shrugged his shoulders and admired Rong Yan's pained expression. He boasted, the only person who knows that you're here is Seven, and he's not even sure if he's coming or not. He asked me to come. Aiya, I didn't expect the person he asked me to take care of to be you. What a huge surprise!

When Rong Yan heard this, she immediately scolded, "Bullsh * t! Yingluo is definitely Yingluo! No, that's impossible! Yingluo, how do you know him? Yingluo!

How did Seven get to know this bastard? She didn't believe it. She absolutely didn't believe it.

Seven was working for Xia Xuanmo, and Deputy Mayor Xia was working for Liancheng Yazhi. Su Yue was on their opposite side, so how would Seven know him?

Su 'er's devilish face revealed a Vixen-like smile."There are too many things in this world that you can't think of. You don't have time to think about anything else now. You'd better think about Wanwan's delivery. Talk less and save your energy to go into the delivery room."

After saying that, Su Yu sighed. tsk, tsk. I didn't expect you to become a mother-to-be in just a year. The child must be Liancheng Yazhi's, right? it's a pity that the father-to-be isn't around at such an important moment when the mother-to-be is giving birth. He doesn't even know about the child's existence. Do you think he's pitiful? Or are you the pitiful one?"

After Rong Yan's face was colored with pain, she looked a little ferocious. Her eyes revealed her determination as she said coldly, "I, Yingluo, am not pitiful. My Yingluo and my child are not pitiful either. Compared to you, Yingluo is luckier because she will grow up in front of her biological mother.

Chapter 435 All women are not cute like you liancheng yazhi had once unintentionally mentioned su yu's background to rong yan.

His biological mother was his father's most beloved woman. Unfortunately, he couldn't marry her because of her family background. After leaving su Yue, he died of excessive bleeding.

In order to hide his son's identity and to give him an open identity, su Yue's father brought his son to his wife and announced to the public that su Yue was their child.

This secret had always been known by very few people.

rong yan felt a little disappointed after hearing it because everyone had their own misfortunes. even if they were bright and beautiful in front of others, there would always be an unknown story behind them.

Rong Yan wasn't interested in other people's secrets, but Su Yu shouldn't have provoked her. Since he dared to say those words, she didn't mind exposing his scars.

As expected, su 'er's face darkened, and her beautiful face became even more sinister. A cold light flashed in her eyes."Those who know this secret usually don't live long."

"then, xuanji also has to judge people." a sharp pain suddenly attacked her, and rong yan could not be bothered to continue fighting with su yu. doctor, nurse

Zhenzhen, someone come here. Someone come here, Zhenzhen. Rong Yan tried to make others hear her by shouting, but her voice was not loud and could not attract anyone's attention at all.

Su Yu raised his eyebrows unhappily and said to Rong Yan, " "Why are you so stubborn? You'd rather call out to those who can't hear you than beg me?"

because of the pain, rong yan gritted her teeth tightly, making a creaking sound. she sneered and used the last of her strength to push him away. she stumbled forward and was about to fall when the man behind caught up with her and reached out to carry her. fine, Rong Yan, Oh Rong Yan, I really have to give in to you. You're already like this and you still refuse to bow down and admit defeat. If all women are like you, they're not cute at all. I hope the little guy in your stomach won't be like you.

In the blink of an eye, the gloominess on Su Yu's face disappeared. He carried Rong Yan and quickly entered the hospital building. Rong Yan's face was pale and she was crying out in pain. At that moment, he looked a little anxious.

as soon as they entered, su yu immediately said a bunch of local words to a nurse. the nurse immediately called for help. the exclusive delivery room arranged for rong yan had already been prepared and could be used at any time. the doctors in the gynecology and obstetrics department were also afraid that they would take action at any time because rong yan's due date was approaching, so none of them dared to leave the hospital.

As soon as the news that Rong Yan was about to give birth was announced, all the basic facilities that should be prepared by the doctors and nurses quickly came to work.

Before Rong Yan was pushed into the delivery room, she was afraid that something unpredictable would happen, so she repeatedly said, " "I don't want a C-section, I want Yingluo to give birth naturally, Yingluo."

earlier, rong yan had heard the aunties at home say that it was best for a woman to give birth naturally because c-sections could easily hurt the child.

After Rong Yan found out, she repeatedly told her doctor that she would never do a cesarean section. Even at this time, she still wanted to say Wanwan again.

Su Yu couldn't understand why Rong Yan was so determined to give birth naturally. Wasn't natural birth much more painful than a C-section?

" cut the crap, " he said to her. " save your energy when you cry out in pain later. "

Chapter 436 Liancheng Yazhi is the most pitiful father

Rong Yan was pushed into the delivery room. The doctor told Su Yu to wait outside before closing the door.

su yue didn't mind at first. he could just wait. he wasn't the one giving birth anyway, so he just had to make sure nothing happened to the child. he would then give Seven an explanation later.

she wasn't his woman anyway. although yingluo had almost become his woman, she was still very close.

A slight difference would result in a great loss. He was the one who gave up at that time. When he came back, she was already the mother of someone else's child.

Su Yu felt a little emotional. To be honest, he was really interested in Rong Yan back then. It was just that he was in Liancheng Yazhi's territory at that time and he couldn't beat that local tyrant.

Right now, although Rong Yan was still as beautiful as ever-no, she had an even more intoxicating charm now that she was a mother, he felt that he was really not interested in being a second-hand father to someone else's child, Yingluo.

Su Yue sat on the bench outside the ward and played with her phone.

He was looking through his phone's contact list, and there were a few people with special names.

One of them had the words 'Liancheng Yazhi' written on it.

The corners of su Yue's lips curled up into a devilish smile as her fingers slid back and forth on the phone. He even had a naughty thought. If he took a photo of the child and his mother after the child was born and sent it to Liancheng Yazhi, would it be fun?

Tsk, tsk. Liancheng Yazhi actually had a child. Unfortunately, he was completely unaware of it.

Su Yue felt that he was the most pitiful father she had ever had.

However, Su Yu's attention soon shifted to Rong Yan's screams from the delivery room. Her voice sounded so painful as if she could not bear the pain in her life. Her every cry was so heart-wrenching and made him nervous.

At first, he was sitting there without a care, but later, he stood up unconsciously and paced around the door of the delivery room.

Su Yu didn't look at the time. He didn't know how much time had passed, but he felt that the time Rong Yan gave birth was the longest wait he had ever waited in his life.

Rong Yan's pained cries gradually weakened, and Su Yu felt as if his heart was being squeezed.

Just as Su Yue couldn't wait any longer and wanted to rush into the delivery room, she heard the baby's cries.

The baby's voice was not particularly loud and powerful. It was like a kitten's soft cry, and then it stopped.

However, it was this not-so-loud cry that was like the first Thunder in spring, waking up all the sleeping creatures.

At the same time, Liancheng Yazhi, who had already fallen asleep at night, suddenly sat up in shock.

Lightning flashed outside the window, and Thunder rumbled. A cat meowed a few times over the window sill, and the sound was like a baby's cry.

Liancheng Yazhi clutched his heart. He didn't know why, but he felt a sharp pain in his heart.

He always felt that he was missing something in his life, but he still couldn't find Yingying.

He looked over and saw Little Bear lying quietly on the pillow.

In the hospital, Su Yue heard the baby's cries and was stunned for a moment before she realized that Yueyue had given birth. He chuckled. Although he didn't know what he was laughing about, he couldn't stop it.

Chapter 437 Where's the child? I want to see her

Not long after, the nurse came out of the delivery room with a baby in swaddle.

The nurse said a bunch of things in the local language to Su Yue, asking her to take a look at the newborn baby.

Su Yue was suddenly very nervous. He didn't know why, but he took a few deep breaths before walking over. He looked down at the nurse's arms. The newborn baby was small, with red skin and a little wrinkly like a little monkey. Her eyes were closed, and she was sleeping soundly.

Su Yue gulped and looked at him for a while before saying, "Good, ugly,"

The nurse glared at him and said in a low voice, "What do you know as a man? All newborn babies are like this. Look at them in a few days. The baby will become very beautiful. Come, don't just stand there. Carry the baby." He then handed the child to Su Yue.

no, no, Yueyue, I've never carried a child before. I don't know how to carry Yueyue. su Yue hurriedly backed away. She was like a bomb when the nurse handed her the baby. She quickly waved her hands. Carry a child? Oh my God, how could he? he could not hit such a small ball much with one slap. He did not know how much strength he should use to carry her.

The nurse placed the child in su Yue's arms. Aiya, what are you afraid of? everyone has their first time. You're just using your hands to hold her.

Su Yue's arms were like artificial limbs. She didn't dare to move or breathe too loudly. The baby was so soft and boneless. He felt an unprecedented emotion when he held him in his arms. It was as if he was touched.

After hugging for a while, su Yue couldn't take it anymore and quickly called for the nurse.

Su Yue suddenly had an idea as she watched the nurse leave with the baby.

Perhaps it wasn't a bad idea for ran ran to let Liancheng Yazhi's child call him dad.

however, he seemed to have forgotten to ask the nurse if the little darling was a boy or a girl.

A few moments later, a few nurses pushed Rong Yan out of the operating room. She had fallen into a deep sleep due to overexertion.

The doctor said to Su Yu, " take a look at the adults. Miss Rong is very strong. If it wasn't for her determination, both the child and the adults would be in danger!

"Thank you," Su Yue nodded at the doctor.

"You're welcome. Miss Rong will be transferred to the best Ward. The conditions there will be more beneficial for her post-natal recovery."

The doctor gave some more instructions for the pregnant woman before leaving.

Su Yue quickly followed the nurse to Rong Yan's new Ward.

A woman was at her weakest after giving birth. Her face was pale, and she didn't look like a living person. Her hair was completely wet with sweat.

Su Yue recalled her screams during labor and felt a lingering fear.

su yu stood by the bed and kept looking at rong yan. he didn't understand what kind of power could make such a selfish woman have the courage to go through so much pain and give birth to a child alone abroad. that man had no idea what she had suffered.

"Is it worth it?" su Yue asked softly.

After he finished speaking, Rong Yan's lips moved and she said two weak words, " "It's worth it!"

"You're awake?" su Yue asked in surprise.

Rong Yan was very weak and did not even have the strength to open her eyes."Where's the child? I want to see her. "

" you're weak now. you won't be able to take care of the baby even if it comes. the nurse put the little guy in an incubator and he's sleeping very well now. he's very healthy, but yingluo is a little ugly. "

Chapter 438 As ugly as a little monkey!

Su Yu was worried that Rong Yan would be unhappy if he said that. He quickly said, " " well, the nurse said that it's because all babies are the same when they're born. they'll look better when they grow up in a few days. " rong yan didn't speak anymore. she really had no strength left.

Although she really wanted Yueyue to chase su Yue away, she knew that this man was up to no good.

Rong Yan slept until the next morning. When she opened her eyes early in the morning, she ignored su Yue and immediately asked the helper to carry the child. Although her body was still in pain and she hadn't eaten anything for the whole night, and she even wanted to go to the toilet, she could bear with it. Ever since the child was born, she only had a vague look at the nurse before she fell asleep. She hadn't really seen her.

Su Yue had already changed her clothes and freshened up. She looked refreshed. He walked to the bed and asked,"How do you feel now?"

Rong Yan leaned against the bed weakly, her face still pale. "You're still not leaving? What do you want to do?"

Because she was weak, her voice wasn't loud and didn't sound imposing, but it was unusually cold.

Rong Yan didn't know what su Yue wanted to do, and she couldn't be bothered to care. However, as long as Yingluo did anything to harm her child, she would fight him to the death.

tsk, tsk. Look at you. Your body hasn't even recovered yet, and you're already throwing a tantrum. The doctor said that pregnant women need to be physically and mentally relaxed. If you get angry, Hanhan might go back to Hanhan and give her milk. By then, your baby would have to go hungry. So, Hanhan, you're already a mother, so you should control your temper.

Su Yue blushed in embarrassment when she mentioned the word 'milk'. He glanced at Rong Yan's chest. Although Xuxu was wearing a loose patient's gown, he could still tell that her chest had become plumper!

Rong Yan took a deep breath and gradually suppressed the anger in her heart. The child's health was not particularly good. He had just been born, so he must not suffer from milk loss.

what's your relationship with Seven? why did he ask you to come? " that guy is a thief and he likes ancient Chinese calligraphy and paintings. He has been to almost all the rich families. Five years ago, he went to my house and after a series of events, we met and became friends. This time, he couldn't come back because he was worried about you, so he asked me to take care of you for a few days.

Su Yu shrugged,"sigh, Rong Yan, I really don't have any ill intentions." &Nbsp; At least, not for now.

Rong Yan sneered. She would believe these words even if she died a hundred times.

Not long after, the Chinese Auntie came over with a small bundle of the little guy. Her face was full of smiles as she placed the child in front of Rong Yan and said, " Madam, she's a pretty little girl. She's very obedient. She should have been crying in the middle of the night, but she didn't cry at all.

Su Yue was watching from the side. He touched his nose and laughed."Yingying is obviously as ugly as a little monkey!"

rong yan quickly stood up and took it. "Quick, carry her over for me to see Yingluo."

Rong Yan's voice trembled a little. Perhaps it was the nature of every mother, but she was very skilled in carrying her child.

The redness on the baby's skin had faded a little, and it was pink and tender. It looked much better than last night. Its eyes were open, beautiful and clear like the most dazzling gems.

Chapter 439 You are my most beautiful little angel a newborn baby's eyes were transparent and black. they had not been contaminated by the world. the innocence in the eyes moved everyone who saw them. perhaps the child was born with an invisible dependence and trust in his mother.

as soon as she was in Rong Yan's arms, she let out an 'ah', her voice as weak as a kitten raising its paw to scratch your heart. She looked at Rong Yan fearlessly, her mother's face reflected in her small eyes.

As he looked at her face, the tears in his eyes flowed down instantly. Countless grievances, countless pain, all turned into tears of relief at this moment.

For her, it was worth it no matter how much pain he suffered.

With the child, her face was truly washed away and she returned to her true self. She loved this child. This was her fate.

Rong Yan lowered her head and devoutly kissed the child's small face, forehead, eyes, nose, and mouth. Baby, you're my most beautiful little angel, the most beautiful seven-colored sunlight in my life, lighting up my dark life and giving me hope to live again!

The morning sun shone through the window and landed on Rong Yan, giving her a golden glow. The scene of her kissing her daughter was fixed in Su Yu's eyes.

At this moment, she was so beautiful that she didn't look like a real person. Her gentle smile, gentle movements, and sincere and doting eyes made her look more like a goddess. She looked like the flower God in Western mythology who descended to the world with a little angel in her arms.

Looking at them seemed to be able to wash away all the sins in his heart and dispel all the haze.

Su 'er suddenly felt her heart beat faster, like a drum. Her face started to heat up.

"Mr. Su, please go out first. It's time for Madam to feed Miss. It's not convenient for you to stay here," Su Yu suddenly said.

Su 'er finally came back to her senses, and his face immediately turned red. For the first time, he stuttered, "I'll go out first Yingluo, Yingluo! If there's anything, call me Yingluo!"

Su Yue was thrown out of the ward as if she was trying to escape. When she was about to leave, her shoulder accidentally hit the door frame.

The auntie walked over and closed the door. She turned back and said to Rong Yan, "How could this teacher Su be so careless? I wonder if he's injured."

Rong Yan smiled, "I won't, Zhenzhen."

She pulled open her shirt and fed the child.

As it was her first time, she was not familiar with it at first and the little darling was not strong enough to suck in any milk.

the little guy probably thought that his mother was right in front of him and he could eat his fill, but why couldn't he drink anything?

She pouted her little mouth and opened her mouth to cry.

Not counting the baby's cries in the delivery room when it was just born, this was the first time Rong Yan had seen her child cry, and her heart ached for her.

"Auntie, what if baby can't drink milk?"

it's okay. It's your first time feeding a baby. You'll get used to it after a few tries.

with the auntie's help, the little darling finally had his fill in one go.

After she was full, she let out a delicate burp, moved her mouth a few times, and wanted to sleep.

Rong Yan's eyes looked straight at her, unwilling to even blink. Every little action of hers made her love her more and more.

The Auntie asked the little darling to accompany Rong Yan for a while. Madam, it's time to carry miss back to the incubator, Yingluo.

"Auntie, can you let me look at it a little longer?" Rong Yan refused to let go as she held the child in her arms.

Chapter 440 I only wish for peace and stability in the present world, for the years to be peaceful

The Auntie said, "Madam, this is your child. There will be plenty of opportunities to see her in the future. Miss has just been born and her health isn't very good. The air outside isn't as clean as the air in the thermos. It's better to put her in first. When the child is a little older and stronger, there's no need to put her in.

Under the auntie's persuasion, Rong Yan reluctantly let her take the child away.

After the helper left with the child, su Yue came in. As soon as he got close, Rong Yan covered her nose."You're smoking,"

In the past, Rong Yan would smoke occasionally, but after she found out that she was pregnant, she stopped smoking. Moreover, she especially hated the smell of smoke now.

"I took a long walk outside before I came in. You can still smell it?" Su Yu muttered.

just now, when he ran out of the ward and went to the park, he thought that he would be able to calm down after coming out. However, Rong Yan's appearance floated in front of his eyes, and his heart was beating very fast.

Su Yue hurriedly took out a cigarette and lit it, hoping to calm herself down.

Rong Yan didn't waste time talking nonsense with him and asked directly, "tell me, you said something happened to Seven. What happened to him? Why can't he come back?"

Although Su Yu's breathing was still a little unstable when he saw Rong Yan, he was much better now. He sat on the chair in front of the bed and said, "sigh, although he told me not to tell you again and again because he didn't want you to worry, I think you'll be more worried if I don't tell you. Seven got injured when he stole something this time, and he's also lying in bed like you.

Of course, Rong Yan was nervous when she heard that. She had been worried about him for the past few days, so she quickly asked, "Seven, is he injured? Where's your injury? Is it serious?"

"It was quite serious at the beginning, but he's safely passed the critical stage now. All that's left is to recuperate. Don't worry, he won't die. He said that cats have nine lives, while he has seven lives, so he's called Seven. He's an unkillable cockroach."

Rong Yan only felt at ease when she heard that.

Su Yue's expression turned serious as she said, "Rong Yan, is everything you've done really worth it?"

Rong Yan had just woken up and said, 'it's worth flirting with'.

At that time, Su Yue really wanted to ask her what was worth it?

For a woman to get pregnant before marriage, live her life in a foreign country, and give birth to a daughter on her own, not even able to return to her home country, no matter how one put it, it should be an extremely tragic thing. How could it be worth it?

Rong Yan also answered Su Yu's question seriously. Of course it's worth it. To have a daughter who's like an angel, to enjoy the warm sunlight every day and to enjoy a peaceful and healthy life. There's nothing in this world that's more beautiful than the peace and quiet of the present world.

Su Yu was very surprised. He never thought that Rong Yan would actually do something like this when she was in the process of giving birth. He had restrained his temper so well.

“You didn’t plan to let him know that you gave birth to a daughter?” su Yue asked.

Rong Yan’s expression became dark and terrifying. the child is mine alone. If anyone dares to snatch my daughter away, I’ll make him wish he was dead.

Right now, her focus was on the child. If anyone dared to take her daughter away, she would do anything.

Su Yue sighed. The word ‘mother’ could make a woman so strong!
