

Physician 2951

Chapter 2951

This is an extremely powerful unique skill.

It's a pity that its power is so powerful that it embodies the mysteries of the former sages. After practicing to the ultimate level, it's impossible to smash the Star River with one finger.

And ye nishang played five times in a row!

The terrifying energy shock turned the whole small world into a pool of water like water. The traces of the road were constantly forming water ripples, and the five regret fingers were bombarded one after another. The breath of palpitation swept all over the place.

Since the two fight each other, the array veins that protect this small world have never been extinguished.

Ye Chen with six sword sense to deal with, with the meaning of true martial arts, his perception of martial arts is stronger and stronger!

Even he added his own understanding in the wind blowing six sword!

Make the sword stronger!

The first sword broke one finger of Ye nishang, and the second sword broke another. Then, the third sword swept through the void and chopped up the remaining three fingers of regret in one breath. The sky and the earth were suddenly clear and bright.

When ye nishang saw this, she was surprised in the bottom of her heart. The secret she had learned was the best part of the Tiandao palace and the Ye family's inheritance. I'm afraid that if you were another opponent, you would not be able to catch a finger, let alone five fingers in a row.

You know, this is what she broke out at the peak of her state, not as before to suppress the attack of her own strength.

"The gods are angry!"

Ye nishang raised her hand and scratched the trace of the road, displaying another unique skill. A huge statue of God appeared behind her, with sword eyebrows and stars and angry eyes!

The giant statue of God raised his hand and pressed it down, and the handprint covered half of the small world, but ye Chen did not see the Dodge.

"Destroy Shinto! Open it

As soon as ye Chen's eyes congealed, a light column from bottom to top suddenly overturned the handprint. Then, ye Chen held the evil sword and turned into a black light. At that moment, he broke through the law of the small world and rose from the sky, breaking through half of Ye nishang's shoulder.

Poof!

Ye nishang murmured and flew out like a broken kite on the spot. Even though she controlled her figure at the last moment, she still vomited out a mouthful of blood. The scarlet liquid stained on the corner of her lips was enchanting and dazzling.

White face because of injury, it seems more white.

"No way! How can I be so powerful when I deal with this person with the strength of one layer of heaven in the heaven and God realm? It is obvious that he only has the cultivation of cutting the eight layers of heaven Ye nishang is extremely hard to accept.

All of a sudden, ye Ni Chang Mou son shrinks, looking at Ye Chen in horror!

He found that ye Chen broke through!

Now ye Chen is actually beheading the nine layers of heaven!

Just now, the boy broke through when she didn't pay attention!

The point is, why doesn't this guy break through?

Ye Chen's mouth outlined a smile: "I broke through to cut the nine layers of heaven, you seem very surprised?"

Ye Chen just fought with the two strong gods in the Ming Temple, plus the perception of Lingtian arrow God!

Let his true martial arts go to a higher level directly!

He didn't expect to see ye nishang and other people start to fight, he even broke through?

However, the thought of Lingtian arrow God is against the existence of demons!

What about the benefits of being attached to your body!

Ye nishang is just a layer of heaven. Now he has enough advantages!

The blade is bright. Every time it is waved, there will be a dull sound of breaking the sky. Even if you just listen to that sound, you will feel uneasy.

Even if there was no armor, ye nishang was still defeated.

Both sides wonderful skills together, many means are Ye Sheng and others have not seen. Within the battlefield, ye nishang's decline has appeared. With Ye Chen's endless secrets, the woman's heart has been somewhat cold.

She stepped into the heaven and God realm at the age of less than 1000 years old. Such strength, coupled with her time lurking in parents ye, gave her enough confidence, even conceit.

In the past, when I was at Ye's house, I watched the so-called geniuses fighting each other. In ye nishang's eyes, those means were just pediatrics.

She has always looked at those people with a look down attitude.

But today, she met her opponent.

"Hum!"

When he was in a state of mind, ye Chen turned his wrist, and the dark sword was full of blood light. His blood light flashed. He would burn the blood formula, break the sky power, and so on!

At last, a giant like Optimus Prime was formed, which hit ye nishang unstopably.

Click!

The powerful force makes ye nishang's golden armor crack, and the whole person rolls out uncontrollably.

"How could it be..."

Ye nishang's pretty face is snow-white. She coughs blood incessantly between tumbling. Before she adjusts, ye Chen's second strike also comes!

"Boom

Sha Jian touches ye nishang with the intention of killing the heaven."Poof!"

The gold armour on the woman's body is completely smashed, and most of her body is smashed. Ye Chen has already sent her hair first and raises her hand.

"Devil's eye, six swords return to one, open!"

Endless magic swept, as if to devour the whole world!

A scarlet eye appears!

Like from the nine hell!

Kill!

Bloodthirsty!

The whole small world died too many strong, the thick blood gas just displays the devil's eye!

If you add six swords to one! How about the heaven God realm!

Ye Chen wants to use his powerful sword in front of the devil!

"Not good!" Ye nishang's pupil shrinks sharply, and it doesn't matter if the body is destroyed. Those who are strong in the realm of God can easily regenerate.

But if she can't avoid this blow, there's absolutely no chance of her survival.

This is the sword of six!

In the evolution of samsara, the profound meaning of Tao is merged into it, and even there is a trace of magic.

Ye nishang tries her best to use the secret arts of divination and wants to regenerate her body in the shortest time. But at this time, how could ye Chen give her a chance.

"Chi!"

The sword spirit shuttles through the void, cuts open two black cracks, and instantly reaches ye nishang's head. At this moment, the woman's face is no longer half bloody.

Poof!

The six sword Qi broke through the eyebrows, which instantly scattered ye nishang's mind and soul. At the same time, the whole zhenshou completely turned into a blood mist, completely eliminated the fragrant jade meteor, and left no trace of hair!

The battle is over.

On the other side of the samsara star stone, Ye Sheng and others were still staring at it, and their ears were buzzing. After a long time, they suddenly came back to their senses.

Looking at Ye Chen again, Ye Sheng's eyes are extremely complicated.

An outsider, in terms of blood, is a genuine stranger, but at a critical time he saved the whole Ye family. However, there are only three of them who boast of their genius since childhood and want to revive the whole family.

I'm afraid that this evil genius, even the reincarnation master will admire.

If ye Sheng knew that the young man standing in front of him was the reincarnation master, I don't know what he would feel.

"Roar!"

All of a sudden, a roar came out, and the earth shook and scared Ye Sheng and them.

Turn a head to see, just discover it is ye Lingtian to send out originally.

"Master of the temple!"

Chapter 2952

Ye Lingtian, who finished the baptism of the avenue, rushed to Ye Chen for the first time and helped him.

After several times of fighting, together with the serious injury he had suffered before, ye Chen had reached the most weak point. Fortunately, ye Lingtian was out of the pass at this time.

"Lingchen, I'm happy to have a break again

Ancestor worship success, ye Lingtian has become the biggest beneficiary!

Key, ye Lingtian's body is full of mysterious energy!

I'm afraid if ye nishang is facing the peak state, she has the power to fight!

This is what ye Chen wants to see!

His right arm must be strong!

I don't know what happened to Yankun!

Yonglao personally takes Yankun to test, which shows how much yonglao values Yankun!

Ye Lingtian's whole body exudes the meaning of antiquity and says: "guarding the temple master is the mission of Lingtian's life! Lingtian will be more powerful! "

"If anyone wants to move the hall master, he will ask me whether ye Lingtian will answer me or not."

Thanks to the Enlightenment of Taoism left by the innumerable predecessors of Ye family on the reincarnation star stone, ye Lingtian leapt up and broke through several layers of heaven after the baptism of these principles!

Even reached the nine layers of chaos!

The speed of promotion is enough to darken all the talents.

It can be said that in this short period of time, ye Lingtian achieved the accomplishments that others need to complete for hundreds of years.

However, promotion is too fast, and sometimes it is not a good thing.

Now ye Lingtian belongs to Kong. He has a strong cultivation, but he does not have a solid foundation. If he encounters an enemy with extremely terrible cultivation and can't fight hard, he will probably have problems first.

"This time, you need to find a place to close down and consolidate your foundation. Ten thousand tall buildings rise from the ground, but the foundation under the ground is the most important. When ye Chen pan sits down to recuperate his body, he orders ye Lingtian so.

"Don't worry, master. I have a sense of propriety."

Now, there are only Ye Sheng and two disciples from ye Tanzhu. After the twists and turns of the battle just now, the relationship between Ye Chen and ye Lingtian no longer needs to be covered up.

"You go and collect the star stone. After I have healed my wounds, we will return to Linglong pagoda."

With that, ye Chen glanced at Ye Sheng, ye Chunzhi and ye Chunnong, and said with a smile: "what? Do not quickly heal, is ready to wait to drag the injured body through the black fog outside? Don't worry, I'm not ye nishang. I don't have such a big heart to kill you people

"You..."

Ye Sheng bit his teeth and looked at Ye Chen with a complex complexion. He also saw ye Lingtian, who had begun to look for array eyes and took the star stone away. After all, he asked, "who are you?"

No one will help others for no reason, especially like Ye Chen, who has spared no effort to help.

Ye Lingtian has now been recognized as the Lord of the blood spirit seal God bead, and just now, he gave the blood soul seal God bead to Ye Chen again. It is unnecessary to say much about the subordination relationship between the two people.

But that's the problem.

There is no doubt that ye Lingtian was the greatest contributor to the ancestral sacrifice, because he passed the examination of the inheritance ceremony, untied the seal of the reincarnation star stone, and was recognized as the owner of the blood spirit seal bead. In his hand, he mastered the weapon of the family's ancestor that year, the abyss judgment gun.

He also got the biggest gift from Ye's "ancestral stone". He was promoted by leaps. You know, it's chaos. It's not a low-level cultivation. How can you break through so casually!

After the battle, if there is no accident, the Ye family will probably regard ye Lingtian as the master of the family, raise the flag of the collateral Ye family again, and embark on the road to reproduce the glory of the Ye family at that time.

But such a man, however, presented the young man who had cut the nine layers of heaven in front of him as the Lord of the temple. It seemed that he was totally willing.

In this way, will it not be that the whole Ye family will be the master in the future?

This is even like the relationship between the Ye family and the reincarnation master.

Ye Sheng once thought that ye Chen would be the reincarnation master of this life, but it was soon eliminated.

In his understanding and ancient books, the Lord of reincarnation was taken by a woman, and the spirits were destroyed, so it was impossible to return to reincarnation.

It's impossible to appear in front of him.

"It doesn't really matter who I am. You just need to know that I have no malice towards you ye family."

Ye Chen, who closed his eyes to recuperate his breath, did not even look at Ye Sheng. "Do you think there is anything else worth my dying to plot in the Ye family now?"

Ye Sheng's face turned red. For every disciple of the Ye family, his words were nothing but contempt and humiliation.

But he can not refute, because ye Chen said is right.

Now, ye family, really can not talk about any plot, even if there is, it is not worth a young man with a bright future to gamble his life to fight and plot. But ye Chen did so.

Ye Sheng stubble neck, unwilling to give up: "there is no malice now, does not mean there will be no future."

"Who knows about the future?"

Ye Chen opened his eyes, and his eyes burst out with a light. He looked at the core disciple of the Ye family who was quite arrogant when he met for the first time. He asked, "even if I really have any idea about the Ye family, do you have the right to refuse?"

Ye Lingtian was brought by me. Without me, your ancestor worship will still fail.

If the ancestral sacrifice fails again, the whole Ye family will lose their morale. In the face of the comprehensive encirclement and suppression of Tiandao palace, it is impossible to wait for the arrival of the next millennium.

I'm the greatest contributor to your ancestral worship, because I helped you find the most powerful descendant of Ye's family, and I'm a young man with good talent.

Even if ye Lingtian is my subordinate, are you qualified to refuse?

Even if the ancestral sacrifice fails, what you should do is to unite all the forces that can be united and find all the people who can help you. Even if they have a request for the Ye family, they should accept it as long as it is not too much.

Not to mention that we helped the Ye family to complete the ancestral sacrifice and lift the seal of reincarnation star stone. "

"But..."

"But what?"

Ye Sheng wanted to say something more, but he was interrupted directly by Ye Chen and said, "if I were you, I would not consider my identity at this time. Instead, I would immediately take good care of my body, and then leave here as soon as possible to return to the Linglong tower.

Ye nishang's death doesn't mean that the hidden danger in Ye's family is gone. Her master is more powerful than she is in the heaven and God realm. In addition, the penetration of Tiandao palace into Ye's family in recent years, do you think that the success of ancestral worship is equal to everything?

The Ye family, however, is not out of the crisis. What's more, if those people in Tiandao palace knew that the ancestral sacrifice had been successful, they would have made greater efforts to encircle the Ye family.

But... "

Chapter 2953

Ye Chen's voice turned, the corner of his mouth raised a touch of ridicule, said: "this is not your fault, after all, you from small to big, are not all like this? Even if the family is on the verge of collapse, it has never stopped fighting with each other.

On the surface of the extreme exclusion of foreign forces, and even took out what blood detection, want to eliminate spies and undercover.

I don't need to say that you saw it, actually. So, at this time, your brain can't turn around, and you still keep your guard on me, thinking that I want to use the Ye family or have other plans. It's normal. "

Ye Chen's words made Ye Sheng blush with shame.

Yes, for a long time, although people from all branches of the Ye family have been calling for the revival of the Ye family and the rejuvenation of the Ye family's peak at that time, the competition and intrigue among the branches have never stopped.

The so-called blood test is just like a joke. Now when I think of Ye nishang, Ye Sheng feels ashamed and flustered.

Even ridicule and ridicule, with a series of facts, ye Chen snapped words, almost embarrassed Ye Sheng, ye Chunzhi and ye Chunnong, looking for a gap in the ground.

However, the result is also obvious, even if the former arrogance such as Ye Sheng, also no longer more words, obediently sit down to regulate the body.

No matter how much Ye Chen ridiculed them, at least one sentence is true: the Ye family, the success of ancestor worship does not mean that the Ye family is out of danger.

Then there may be more dangerous situations waiting for them. If they can't survive this test and the whole army is destroyed, what's the use of Zusi even if it succeeds?

.....

At the same time, the temple of the underworld.

Not long ago, the soul lamp of Mo Lang and Mo Han Dong was broken, which made him silent for a long time. His locked eyebrows showed his inner restlessness.

In the recent short time, Qu tan'er died, and now he has lost two good sons. Even in Mo Xueming's eyes, these people are dispensable chess pieces, and their death will not make him half sad.

But such a series of losses are still unacceptable to the temple of the underworld.

No matter how many pieces, there will be a day when they will be used up.

In particular, Mo Lang and Mo Han Dong died almost no interval, and so far, he did not even know how his three subordinates died.

Qu tan'er needless to say, Mo Lang and Mo Han Dong are both masters in the heaven God realm. Looking at the whole kingdom of God, there are not many people who can kill them one after another.

Thinking of that day's meeting with Ye Chen outside the temple of the underworld, and the familiar breath that he felt from that young man, Mo Xueming's heart was somewhat confused and excited.

Because in Ye Chen's body, he not only felt the ancient doctor, but also some traces of other "old friends".

Those are people from ancient times, and they have been proved dead.

The traces of these people appear on a young man. Others may not know why, but Mo Xueming, who has mastered a piece of reincarnation star stone alone, is very clear.

He knew a legend about the reincarnation star stone, and that legend, if it is true, means that the opportunity he has been waiting for for for a long time may be coming.

On Ye Chen's body, Mo Xueming sees the possibility that this legend is true.

This is why he deliberately explained that Mo Lang and Mo Han Dong should pay attention to Ye Chen. They can compete, but they can't kill Ye Chen.

However, judging from the current situation, his two adoptive sons, who have always been effective, have failed in their task of snatching the reincarnation star stone of the Ye family.

Not only did it fail, but there were no people.

This is a bit of a headache.

Before finding out the situation, Mo Xueming could not send other disciples of the temple to investigate the situation. Mo Xueming stood with his hands down, standing at the gate of the temple of the underworld. His eyes looked at the distant starry sky, deep and cold.

"Maybe I need to go there myself."

In the depth of the place where the leaves rise, the exquisite pagoda of Ye family.

Since ye Chen and their ancestors went to their ancestral land in the dark fog below, almost all the elite members of the Ye family gathered at the top of the pagoda, and several ancestors also sat here.

The ancestor worship once every ten thousand years is related to the future of the whole Ye family.

Before that, the Ye family had never interrupted the successive ancestor worship, but none of them was successful.

Every failure of ancestor worship means that ye's disciples will have to open up the road of escape for countless years. The whole world is enemies!

Failure again and again, for the whole Ye family, it's just like scraping bones and scraping meat again and again. Today's collateral Ye family is the Ye family that once guarded the reincarnation master! There are not many people left with the main pulse, but there are some people with other branches, but there are not many strong ones.

As for those affiliated forces, they have long since collapsed and scattered.

This time, there are three peaks of chaos, namely Ye Tan Zhu, Ye Sheng and ye nishang, who are less than 1000 years old. There are also two evil figures, ye Lingtian and ye Chen, who have the peak fighting power of chaos state. The whole Ye family has high expectations. And in a sense, this is probably the last time that the Ye family gathered together the only elite disciples of the whole family to make ancestral sacrifice. If this time fails again

Then maybe the Ye family will disappear completely and be annihilated in the long river of history.

At the time of departure, Ye's family had little confidence, but they still had hope. But as time went on, when the soul lights in Linglong tower were constantly extinguished, people's hope was also rapidly dissipated.

Now, among the 30 most outstanding young disciples of the Ye family, the soul lamp is almost broken, only five are left.

Even the soul lights of Ye Tan Zhu and ye nishang were broken, which means that two of the three core disciples most valued by the Ye family had already died in the process of ancestor worship.

It had to be a huge blow to everyone present.

It's even a nightmare.

This time, will it fail again?

In the first place, the faces of Ye Zigeng and ye Xueqing were very ugly, and they were mostly sad. Ye Ziming's face was also pretty, and he lost so much that he was afraid to fail again this time.

In the crowd below, the faces of many Ye's disciples were all sad.

The selected Ye's children are already the most outstanding talents among the young people of the Ye family, but now they are all damaged. Many of them are their close friends.

"Is there any hope?" A disciple of Ye's family whispered with his familiar companion.

"Who knows, in fact, we've already been mentally prepared, haven't we?"

.....

Chapter 2954

The same dialogue took place among Ye Ziming, ye Zigeng and ye Xueqing, the three giants of Ye family.

The continuous decline of the core disciples cast a shadow on the hearts of the three ancestors.

Ye Ziming knows that his disciple Ye Sheng is very good. Although the soul lamp is strong now, which indicates that Ye Sheng is in good condition, he does not think Ye Sheng can complete the ancestral sacrifice.

The remaining two disciples of Ye's family, ye Chunzhi and ye Chunnong, are brothers of a mother's compatriots, who came from the vein of Ye Zigeng.

He did not hope for his strength.

The rest is Ye Chen and ye Lingtian.

The two Ye's descendants, who had risen from the void of Kunlun, seemed to have encountered some difficult battles in this period of time after they entered their ancestral land. No matter Ye Chen or ye Lingtian, the soul lamp flickered for a while, flickering and dimming, which proved that their life state for a period of time was very unsatisfactory.

But now it's all back to normal.

In particular, ye Lingtian's soul lamp suddenly became bright a few minutes ago. It was in a state of extreme exuberance. No one knew what happened, and they did not think it was a sign of the success of ancestor worship.

The only thing you can do is wait.

And waiting is the most painful.

Waiting time is very painful, not to see the hope of waiting is even more torture.

I don't know when, all the Ye's children on the top of the pagoda have been quiet. All of them are learning from the posture of the three ancestors, sitting cross and practicing, trying to calm themselves and wait for the final "judgment."

Virtually, a sad and desolate atmosphere is permeated in the pagoda. The desperate future is depressing the mind of every Ye's children.

The only thing that can make these people feel at ease is to occasionally open their eyes and see that the remaining five soul lights are still bright without any fluctuation.

Maybe they will bring hope?

"Boom

All of a sudden, the whole Linglong tower was shaking, as if it had been hit hard by something. Everyone opened their eyes at the first time, and their faces were startled.

"Enemy attack!"

Ye Ziming, the old ancestor, got up quickly. As he was in charge of the exquisite pagoda, he soon learned about the situation outside. There were no less than ten experts from banbu Tianshen realm and tianshenjing state who had entered the place of Juye. The goal was self-evident.

"What shall we do if they are so aggressive?" Ye Zigeng's face was a little frightened. There were more than a dozen experts in the heaven God realm. Except for their three ancestors, almost no one in the Ye family could fight with the enemy.

"No, in the past, even if we wanted to encircle and exterminate us during the ancestral worship, we also laid a huge net outside the land of leaves, and never entered this place to attack."

Ye Xueqing has much hesitation in his eyes. Is it true that Tiandao palace is really cruel and intends to exterminate Ye family completely and finish his work in one battle?

But it is impossible for them not to know the particularity of the place of rising leaves?

In addition to the blood of the Ye family, other martial artists can't enter at all. Even those who are strong in the realm of gods and gods will be greatly suppressed here, and it is difficult to play their real strength.

"Maybe it is. After all, we are at our weakest point." Ye Ziming said with a bitter smile.

In those days, when the Ye family's ancestors had not been absorbed, there were at least a thousand masters in the heaven God realm at the peak of the Ye family!

There are even many higher realm of the strong!

But now, the whole Ye family, but only their three God realm.

If they had pure Ye's blood, they would not be afraid of the enemies besieged outside the Linglong tower, because in this land of rising leaves, the strength of those people would be suppressed a lot.

However, they were only the collateral branches of Ye's family. Even at the peak of that year, there was not much Ye's blood flowing on the children of these collateral branches. Up to now, they are extremely rare.

Ye Shengye Tanzhu, one of the core disciples with the phenomenon of blood vessel reversion, showed that the blood concentration in his body was only "green" and "green" in blood test, and even the concentration of "blue" level was not counted.

And ye Ziming, their ancestors, blood concentration is even worse.

Only when the blood concentration of Ye's blood reaches the level of "blue" or "purple", they will not be affected in this land of rising leaves, and can play their strength normally, which is impossible for other people.

Therefore, these people in Linglong tower have no chance to fight back even if they rush out of the pagoda. They can only do their best to inject their spiritual power into the pagoda, and urge the pagoda to hold up a powerful light curtain to resist the attacks from outsiders.

"We must hold on. We must hold on. The Ye's children in our ancestral land have not all died. We can't leave until they come out." Ye Ziming roared.

Unfortunately, these words are not enough to encourage the members of the Ye family in the pagoda, or even to speak of breath.

Many disciples know that Linglong tower can be isolated from the tracking of Qi engines, but this is not stealth. If you want to escape in front of other people's eyelids, it needs a bloody battle. In the land of rising leaves, they can hide in the pagoda and support the shield light curtain with all their strength. In addition to consuming spiritual power, there is no great crisis.

This is also the reason why the tiandaogong people did not enter this area to strangle the blood of Ye family.

Naturally, no one is willing to do things with twice the effort and half the result. What's more, as long as the place of rising leaves is blocked in all directions, it's very difficult for the Ye family's ancestors to leave if they want to leave without taking off a layer of skin.

Now they consume spiritual power so much, even if they hold on until Ye Sheng and others return from their ancestral home, what can they do?

The ancestor worship failed, and their spiritual power was consumed a lot. When they left the place of Juye, it was the time for countless Ye family disciples to wither.

Revenge for the reincarnation Lord, that is even more impossible!

Judging from the enemy's offensive this time, everyone knows that the Tiandao palace is determined to cut off Ye's lineage completely this time. The once-in-a-thousand-year purge may not exist from today.

The shadow of death shrouded in the hearts of all the children. Some clenched their teeth, their eyes twinkled with hatred and unwillingness, spared no effort to support the pagoda with their own spiritual strength to withstand the attack from outside.

Some people are confused and frightened. They want to live and save their strength. So they fish in troubled waters. When they want to stand out from the encirclement, they can have greater and more chances to live.

"Dong!"

"Boom..."

Attacks outside the Linglong tower come one after another. The whole pagoda will vibrate when each attack comes. The dull sound is like a heavy hammer hitting everyone's heart. No one knows when the next hammer will arrive and how long the protective light curtain of the pagoda can last.

Chapter 2955

The strong man in the heaven God realm raises his hand to destroy the mountains and rivers, and stomps his feet, and the earth trembles a little.

Such a series of characters, even if it is in the rise of the leaves of the ground was suppressed, it is absolutely able to send out a strong strength!

If ye Ziming, ye Zigeng and ye Xueqing are fierce and rush out to fight, they must be able to kill several people. But in this way, the most powerful fighting power of the Ye family will be consumed in advance.

This will have a great impact on the subsequent breakout, so whether it is Ye Ziming or ye Zigeng or Ye Xueqing, they have not yet made a move.

Good steel is always used at the most critical time.

With the passage of time, many of Ye's children's strength has been exhausted in Linglong tower. After one batch is replaced by another, the rhythm of the opponent's attack can be accelerated, so passive beating is always a loss.

"Poof!"

Finally, some disciples couldn't hold on. Cracks appeared in the light curtain. The residual waves from the cracks touched them. The weak children turned pale on the spot, and their throat was full of fishy sweetness.

"It seems that they are really going to kill them all. They can't wait any longer. We have to leave at once." Ye Zigeng got up and said in a slightly flustered way.

"No, Ye Sheng's soul lamp is in good condition, which indicates that the ancestral sacrifice may not have failed completely. We must wait for them to come out!" Ye Ziming rejected the proposal at the first time.

At this critical juncture, two of the three giants had different opinions, which undoubtedly made many Ye's children feel worse.

Ye Zigeng advocated to withdraw immediately and find a way to break out of the encirclement and preserve the last blood of the Ye family. Even if ye Ziming was included, they were only the collateral of the Ye family in the past.

"If you keep the green hills, you will not be afraid of no firewood. What's the use of carrying the dead here? Have you ever thought about it? This time, they directly sent so many experts in. How many people are waiting for us outside?"

"If we spend the remaining strength here, can we kill them even if ye Sheng comes back?"

Ye Zigeng was full of grief and disappointment: "you and I are not the first time to participate in such ancestor worship. In these years, which time did we not escape from death? Is it really necessary to cut off the whole Ye family?"

"Can't go!"

Ye Ziming on this sentence, although his face also has struggle and difficulty, but more is firm and serious.

"Those younger generations are fighting for the whole Ye family in their ancestral land, and they have not come back. If we abandon them and go away, then we will live and have a good conscience?"

"Must we all die before you will?" Ye Zigeng roared angrily.

"You can choose to preserve your strength. I will personally resist the attack of these people outside until Ye Sheng and ye Lingtian come out, or The soul lamp is out."

There is no doubt that ye Ziming is extremely stubborn on this point.

However, Linglong pagoda is under his control. Even if ye Zigeng is in a hurry, it will not help. It is impossible for ye Zigeng to attack Ye Ziming at this time.

"Ah! I'm angry, too Ye Zigeng slapped his palm on the table beside him, and the whole table turned into powder.

"Elder martial brother Zigeng, please be calm. Since elder martial brother Ziming has decided, we will support him. It is useless to argue and quarrel at this point. In my opinion, even if we leave now, the chance to escape is very small.

In this case, what is the difference between when and how to go? It's better to wait here and wait for the younger generation to come back. Even if we can't bring back good news, we can still have more company on our way to the Yellow River. "

Ye Xueqing sighed gently.

After all, she is hard to resist the force of the years. Before that, she was regarded as the most beautiful fairy in the world. Now that she is in such a desperate situation, there are more wrinkles between her eyebrows.

The heavy words depressed the atmosphere of the whole Linglong pagoda. Quietly, some emotional female students began to sob. The sound of sobbing was very sad and painful.

"Ye's remaining evils, put your hands to death. In the face of Ye's ancestors in the past, we can be merciful and save the life of the youngest baby in your family."

Outside, a bright drink came in, rumbling like thunder, shaking many of Ye's children's faces pale.

"Surrender? I Ye's ancestors, started from the strongest ancient people, the guardian of reincarnation! The whole kingdom of God used to belong to my Ye family! The Lord of samsara has led us to the expedition of heaven and earth. We have experienced numerous difficulties and dangers, and we have never lowered our head. When do we need you to pity us? "

Ye Ziming responded without any politeness. With a tough attitude, he directly rejected the opponent's intention to surrender.

"If you resist in a desperate situation, it will be a moth to the fire, and a fat may shake the tree!"

The speaker is majestic, but the cold voice can not afford to respect the heart of life.

"As the general trend of the times, Ye's family has been a gift from heaven. You can choose the youngest child to live. Don't mistake yourself"God, what kind of heaven are you! If this heaven is not a word, it will destroy all the creatures of the whole family, then what is the significance of such a heaven? Even if ye is weak, I will do that against the heaven, and see if the spokesperson of heaven chosen by the evil god has such a good mouth! "

Ye Ziming yelled at him. As soon as he said this, he immediately ushered in several curses:

"presumptuous!"

"The way of heaven should be punished if you speak like crazy!"

"In the end, it's a bloody barbarian who only deserves to live in the dark. If you don't respect the heaven, do not respect the way of heaven, and have no awe, you should destroy your family and your family

No need to ask. These people are all elders from Tiandao palace.

This time Xuanyuan ink evil sent is not the general elder!

Tiandao palace, which claims to be the spokesperson of the heavenly way, is naturally the most sensitive to this kind of "rebellious and immoral" words. After hearing this, immediately refuting has become their subconscious reaction.

To be an elder at the level of Tiandao palace, the cultivation is at least in the half step heaven God realm. This time, the Tiandao palace sent many people at one time, and it is uncertain how many outside the place of Juye is.

It's obviously a big deal.

Compared with the time when the Ye family was the most powerful, such a lineup could almost be ignored. However, the Ye family now has to face such an adversary as well as the covetous eyes of countless other forces in the kingdom of God.

"Boom

Ye Ziming's response to the "black" is to annoy these people after all. They have launched a more violent attack. Even though they will be suppressed in the place of rising leaves, these people are after all the strong in the heaven God realm.

Under repeated attacks, ye Ziming is also a bit overwhelmed.

Chapter 2956

"Dong!"

Another violent tremor came, and people in the pagoda shook violently. Many of the disciples who had consumed too much strength fell to the ground directly.

Ye Ziming murmured, and an abnormal flush appeared on his face.

The fishy sweetness of his throat was quietly swallowed down by him. As one of the backbone, ye Ziming knew that he had to carry as much as possible for a period of time, at least At least wait until ye Lingtian comes back!

In fact, ye Ziming still has some considerations in it.

It is not because of others, but because of Ye Chen and ye Lingtian, especially ye Lingtian, where ye Ziming sees the hope of the revival of the Ye family.

The weapon used by our ancestors, the weapon named abyssal sin breaking gun, has recognized the younger generation's younger brother as the main weapon. Ye Lingtian, a young man, has a strong cultivation.

Ye Lingtian is still alive now. As long as he comes back, with the help of the abyss crime breaking gun and chance, plus the blood concentration and potential, ye Lingtian can ignore the law in the place where ye rises.

It may even change the situation!

"Boom

Click

The light curtain of the Linglong pagoda has split into dense cracks like cobwebs. Bursts of cold breath enter the interior of the light curtain from those crevices. It not only makes Ye's children, who are struggling to urge the pagoda defense, keep bleeding, but also makes other disciples uneasy.

So shaky, the opponent's attack intensity has not dropped how much, so go on, how long can support?

Although Ye Ziming, the ancestor, still had a stern face, his eyes were still firm, but his look was not reassuring.

That pale face, every time the pagoda was attacked, all of which showed the old ancestor's physical condition.

He won't last long.

If the light curtain is broken, it is very difficult to hold on to the last by relying on the defense of the pagoda itself.

"Well, I want to see how long you can carry it!"

"After breaking the tortoise shell, we must kill a bloody river this time. Those who dare to disobey the way of heaven should be punished for all ages!"

After another, the sound of the loud voice of the road made countless disciples of the Ye family tremble. It was not that they were timid and afraid, but the strength of their opponents was too strong. This kind of coercion was completely frightening at the level of gods and spirits.

It's not under their control at all.

If it is not for the protection of Linglong tower, if facing such an enemy directly, the opponent will give a cold hum and a wisp of Qi, which will make countless low-level cultivation disciples paralyzed on the ground, and it is impossible to stand up.

"Dang!"

The sharp sound of metal collision is deafening. Ye Xueqing, who has been keeping calm in the Linglong tower, is also slightly changed. The opponent actually used this kind of weapon. Do they want to directly break the whole Linglong tower?

The Ye family has been hard to survive, and there are not many good things left in the family.

For so many years, Tiandao palace has not simply wanted to destroy the Ye family, but has come for the treasures of the Ye family.

The elimination of Ye's children is just a matter of their passing. After all, if you say something impolite, the Ye family can't affect the Tiandao palace even if they have to escape all the way.

As long as they want, they can limit the development of the Ye family at any time, just as they have been carrying out.

Without living space, they can only practice in the Linglong tower all day, and there are not enough cultivation resources. Even if the Ye family has natural talents, it is difficult for them to grow up quickly to provide shelter for the Ye family, let alone fight with Tiandao palace.

This is why the elders of Tiandao palace and other powerful forces did not use weapons to attack Linglong tower at the first time.

This pagoda, however, is worthy of its name. It can isolate the heaven's way of Qi and avoid being reckoned with. This is a rare good thing for any force.

At the critical time, it is possible to extend the lives of the children of the family like the Ye family.

"Boom!"

There was another violent collision, and the hard supported protective light curtain was finally broken and completely broken.

The person who started the operation was named daoyan. He was a senior of Tiandao palace. He was in the three layers of heaven.

In the whole heavenly way palace, the status is extremely noble!

The elders of Tiandao palace don't listen to Xuanyuan ink evil!

Only important things can be done!

And this time, it is extremely important for the heavenly way palace!

What he used was a long knife. After the sabre Qi split the light curtain, all the subsequent forces fell on the Linglong tower, and the diffused Dao Qi penetrated into the Linglong tower.

The ultimate meaning of true martial arts seems to break the limit of the whole place of rising leaves!

Terrible!

"Not good!"

Even though ye Xueqing and ye Zigeng reacted quickly and quickly opened the shield to protect the disciples around them as much as possible, there were still many people who exploded into a cloud of blood on the spot. As for ye Ziming, he flew out on the spot and hit the wall on the other side of the tower, coughing up blood with a big mouth. His spiritual power had been exhausted for a long time. Half of the attack of this knife fell on him.

"Sin blood remaining sin, I have already smelled the smell of your dirty blood!"

Daoyan licked the corners of his mouth. His broad face was covered with whiskers. He wore a white elder's robe on his body. He could not see that he was half refined. He was quite a bit like a monkey in the head.

"You old man, be careful and try not to destroy this secret treasure!" Daoyan side of the people remind way.

"Hum, if it is destroyed, it will be destroyed. This ancient pagoda has been under the control of Ye's remaining evils for so many years. Every corner of it is full of that dirty smell. I'm not willing to take it for this seat!"

Dao Yan snorted coldly, holding the long knife in both hands. This is a true artifact cast with the sky star God iron. With daoyan's campaign for many years, daoyan has been psychic for a long time.

Feeling the master's heart, the long knife is also gently shaking, a wisp after a ray of disturbing waves wash out.

"Hey, Taoist friends, don't you think it's strange? As a matter of fact, we should have fled for the rest of our crimes in such an offensive manner, but they have been sticking to this place and never moved half a cent. I'm afraid it's a bit fishy here. " A strong man from the ancestral level of other forces frowned.

"There's nothing to guess." Another elder of Tiandao palace didn't think so: "there are still little mice in the so-called ancestral land. These remaining evils don't want to leave those elites. It's good to do it like this. It's all in one and saves a lot of trouble. "

"This knife will send you back to the West!"

"Hum!"

The knife with Dao Yan's full strength finally fell down.

The bright light of the knife illuminated the land where the gods fell, and the vacuum was broken. More than ten strong men around him all held their hands and looked at the scene with their spare time to see how many people of the Ye family could be killed by this knife.

"Chi!"

"Dang!"

Suddenly, in the dark fog below, a more bright light rushed out, wrapped with a dazzling holy light, like a flying fairy outside the sky, suddenly blocked the terrible knife.

"Old bastard, it's you who should go back to the West!"

Accompanied by this roar, a proud figure appeared in the dark fog, with a few wisps of black mist around him, his hair flying, his sword eyebrow standing upside down, and his angry eyes staring at daoyan and others.

"The remaining evils of Ye family!" Dao Yan was surprised. He didn't expect his all-out attack. He was stopped by a young man.

Chapter 2957

"We are the remaining evils. What are you? You are the dogs of the heavenly way palace. "

The bearer raised his hand, the spear stirred the waves of the road, and returned to his hands with a burst of beeping sound.

It was this gun that blocked the blow of daoyan.

The spear has a very ancient smell!

It's the abyss gun!

Ye Lingtian's hand!

The opportunity of the ancestral land, together with the extremely terrifying abyss conviction gun, and the blood without any suppression, let ye Lingtian have the qualification of World War II!

After all this, ye Lingtian returned to Ye Chen's side and said in a low voice: "Lord, you protected Lingtian just now. Today Lingtian let you witness the extreme power of the ancient god vessel with the abyss sin breaking gun!"

Ye Chen Mou son tiny MI, he originally wanted to make a move, but considering many heavenly way palace elder, his identity still as far as possible secrecy is good.

In addition, he is also curious about the strength of Ye Lingtian!

Just with the help of these suppressed strong to assess the strength of Ye Lingtian now!

At the same time, in the Linglong tower, all ye's disciples stayed.

"It's ye Lingtian and ye Chen. They're back!"

After a short silence, everyone was boiling!

Ye Lingtian and ye Chen's safe return, what does that mean?

Countless times of ancestor worship experience tells them that once the ancestor worship fails, the disciples who enter the ancestral land will die, but this time, they return safely!!

The spirit spear cuts off the sabre Qi. The roar of the sky shakes the clouds of thousands of miles!

From the dark fog below, the figure rushed out with a terrible blood. The speed was as fast as it could be. The later one came first. It not only blocked daoyan's sword, but also stood between Linglong tower and daoyan with his real body.

At this moment, both the people in the land of Jueya and the strong people who peeped out with the gods on the outside were all frightened and had no other. The reason was that the comer was not only strong in cultivation, but also not suppressed by the law of the place where he was born, but also because he represented an amazing thing:

Ye family, Zusi succeeded.

In this place known as "the land of fallen gods", only the descendants of Ye family can be unaffected and play freely.

Ye Lingtian himself has the cultivation of the nine layers of chaos, plus the abyss sin breaking gun, such a divine object and the ancient spirit pulse! Compared with the elders in Tiandao palace, their comprehensive strength is not much weaker than those elders in Tiandao palace. However, these elders are subject to the suppression of the laws here, and they can not exert their normal strength at all. Under the ebb and flow, the situation here is immediately overturned.

Ye Lingtian didn't give daoyan these people much time to be surprised. With a long roar, his body was enlarged, and his vigorous blood was like a vast ocean, roaring and roaring.

An extreme sense of antiquity rose from the sky!

Even an old statue of God floated behind him!

That is ye Lingtian's ancestor!

The power of faith is released at this moment!

At the moment, what about the elders of Tiandao palace?

The meaning of endless pressure and terror falls directly! The chaotic nine layer Tianchang, who was locked by the gas engine, could not avoid it at all. The gun intention penetrated his body, and his soul was shattered on the spot.

Then, ye Lingtian leaned forward and rolled up a piece of amazing Qi and blood with his big hand, and patted daoyan, who had flaunted in front of Linglong tower.

Under the suppression of the rules, it can only exert the power of one layer of heaven!

Ye Lingtian, strong and not suppressed, is enough to fight!

The roaring sound was oppressed and daoyan's face changed slightly.

Ye Lingtian in the hands of the abyss conviction gun let him feel a trace of crisis!

As if the gun could judge itself!

Don't despise it!

"Dragon invites the moon!"

The elder roared, clasped the long knife in both hands, gathered his whole body's spiritual power to urge him to chop away at the fierce and incomparable gun intention.

A curved moon flies out and drags the dragon body straight into ye Lingtian.

"Boom

The energy light explodes, and powerful knife blocks ye Lingtian's shot. At the same time, a long gun on the flank has swept to the scene. The Ying Feng breathes the divine light, and the killing opportunity is suddenly locked in daoyan's body.

"What is the verdict! Words of ancestors! Anyone who threatens the Ye family is eligible for trial! "

"Today, sacrifice the dead Ye family with your blood!"

"This is Not good

Daoyan was frightened and frightened, but he also repressed a anger: "arrogant child, how dare you despise this seat? The strong God state is also what you say can be killed by seconds!"

In the face of the sweeping felony gun, daoyan makes a fierce turn of the long knife cast with Tianxing shentie in his hand, and stands up to block him. Meanwhile, he makes a virtual shadow of a long knife and cuts to ye Lingtian's head.

Ye Lingtian's breath here is too strong! And there is the blessing of ancestors' faith! The strength has soared too much! Must be killed as soon as possible!

Dang!

When the abyss crime breaking gun contacted with the long knife, it burst out a deafening sound, and the terrible power seemed to disperse a lot of the black fog in the dark fog below. After this attack, daoyan kept retreating, but the spear kept on chasing like the maggot of tarsal bones. Soon, the second attack came.

"Ye family guards the reincarnation master, although the reincarnation master falls! But the will of reincarnation is still there! "

"No ant is qualified to shake it!"

"Even the heavenly way palace!"

Ye Lingtian shouts with a close voice and bursts out endless Qi and blood!

This is the greatest feeling of him and the temple master during this period of time!

It's his fault that ye's family is in decline!

The fall of the reincarnation Lord is also his fault!

In this life, he will not allow the temple master to have another accident!

He has to be stronger!

He's going to blow all his anger out!

And Dao Yan will bear his burning anger!

"Boom

Dao Yan's face changed quickly, and his opponent's strength increased a lot this time. His hands holding the long knife were greatly impacted. The tiger's mouth was split and bleeding like a note.

"A long star is as bright as a thousand li!"

Daoyan drinks with his eyebrows shining, and unfolds his strongest secret skill, the realm of Tao.

This is a secret realm, realm, vision, field and so on.

Within the scope of coverage, daoyan's strength can be greatly increased, while opponents will be subject to very serious restrictions, which can be said to be a step-by-step crisis!

However, this kind of field secret arts may still be useful in the outside world, but this is the place where leaves rise.

It has a very strong law of suppression, such a field secret, the effect is also greatly reduced.

Before it could be launched, he was stabbed by Ye Lingtian, and the spread of gun ripples directly shattered the field rule.

Daoyan looks pale. The young man on the opposite side is just like a fish in the water in this area. He tries his best to resist and attack, but he only eases the opponent's attack rhythm and can not solve the fundamental problem.

"Diao Changlao, let's do it together!"

In panic, daoyan could not resist the attack again. He turned his head and wanted to run away, shouting for help to his companion.

Chapter 2958

"Boom

Unfortunately, he didn't have time to get a response. Ye Lingtian's strength was so strong that the abyss breaking gun directly cut off daoyan's long knife, and his body was cut into two parts.

The lower part of the body fell into the dark fog. After the upper body flew out, it was eroded into the body by the killing plane of the abyss crime breaking gun. Before it could be stabilized in the air, the body was exploded into a blood mist.

Only a wisp of spirit ran away in terror and ran away toward the place where the leaves were standing.

Ye Lingtian's breath keeps climbing at the moment! Once absorbed the power of faith are released at this moment!

He knew that after this blow, his foundation would be seriously damaged, but he did not regret it!

Because this is to defend the Ye family!

This is to protect the temple Lord around him!

He was so angry that he couldn't let it go.

He swept a piece of startling Qi and blood, step forward, mountains and rivers retrogression, half a breath to catch up with daoyan, Qingtian power burst! The atmosphere of endless antiquity fills the whole world! Relaxed will be the spirit of Dao Yan to grip in the hand.

"I am the elder of Tiandao palace. If you dare to kill me, Tiandao palace will never die with you!"

Daoyan was scared out of control. He even carried out the sign of Tiandao palace to protect his life.

The strong in the early days of the heaven and God realm, as long as the spirit does not die, can drop blood to regenerate the body, and the cultivation will not be damaged.

This is why he still wants to escape after his body is destroyed.

The name of Tiandao palace may be very useful in other places and in front of others, but this is the place where leaves rise, and it is ye Lingtian who catches daoyan.

Since both sides are enemies, why should they fear the idea of the heavenly way palace?

In the face of daoyan's fierce "threat", ye Lingtian's response is to clench his fist forcefully, and his eyes are filled with anger!

He looked at Ye Chen not far away, and saw Ye Chen nodding, his whole body's strength of desolation broke out directly!

"Ye family will guard the reincarnation master for thousands of years! The fall of the reincarnation Lord is related to the heavenly way palace

"Today, I, ye Lingtian, will lead the Ye family to declare war on Tiandao palace! Die

Full of blood! Ye Lingtian's bloodthirsty eyes break out!

At the moment weak road inflammation only a wisp of soul how to resist! Plus the rules of constant restrictions around!

His mind and soul were gradually worn away by this big hand like a millstone, and turned into a little light and rain. The elders of Tiandao palace and those who practiced in the early days of the heaven God realm did not leave anything in the end.

Not far away, when elder Diao, who also came from Tiandao palace, was frightened by Ye Lingtian's strength, he was more angry.

Incomparable anger!

Tiandao palace is superior to numerous forces in the kingdom of God. No matter where you go, you have a natural sense of superiority and the right to speak. Who dares to kill the elders of Tiandao palace in such a wicked way, except those who rebel against heaven!

Especially the Ye family.

Over the years, Ye's remaining evils have heard of the word Tiandao palace. Their first reaction is to escape. When is it their turn to kill the elders of Tiandao palace!

"Ye's remaining evils, you are speeding up the Ye family's extermination speed!"

With a roar, elder Diao raised his hand and split a mountain. He grabbed half of it and threw it out. This man followed closely, and his hands drew endless lines of Tao and Dharma, interwoven a large area of martial arts and Taoism between heaven and earth, like a huge spider web covering ye Lingtian.

Ye Lingtian hates the people in Tiandao palace. Even if ye family has a great fault, countless generations have passed. The whole Ye family only has these collateral branches, and the guilt should have gone.

What's more, the Ye family has no sin. Just because of the conflict between the upper classes, they have to wipe out the people of Ye family once every ten thousand years with the so-called heavenly law.

How vicious!

After ye Lingtian killed daoyan, he turned his head and took the initiative to meet elder Diao.

The whole body exuberant Qi and blood, such as blood dragon, rolling, rumbling.

In this land of rising leaves, he is the son of heaven!

From Kunlun Xu, to Lingwu continent, and then to Huaxia, he is so cowardly!

He dragged down the hall master countless times!

His countless days and nights of powerlessness, who can understand!

He even longed to return to the years of Jiangnan Province in China! At least at that time, the dark hall he owned could protect the young man!

After stepping into Kunlun Xu, he felt that he had lost the chance to support the temple master!

He watched the temple master more and more away from himself! He won't!

Now, under the power of faith and the rules of the land of rising leaves, he knows that this is his chance to turn over!

This is his chance to show himself in front of the temple master!

Although he was a minister, he also wanted to be the strongest minister around the temple master!

This is the faith of the family!

In the face of the law net interwoven by the overwhelming road marks, Ye Ling's killing intention condenses, and the true martial spirit soars to the sky! Wielding the abyss crime breaking gun, the war spirit is broad and sharp, and the whole person's spirit and spirit have reached the peak state, and instantly stabbed out. "Stab!"

The net is torn, and the infinite essence on the sky is scattered.

Ye Lingtian, a man and a gun, is like the ancient god of war who just got out of the abyss and hell. The terrifying Qi covers all sides and the killing intention is surging!

Ye Chen is standing in the crowd with his hands behind him. As far as he can see, it is ye Lingtian's way.

He was moved.

He would like to Tell ye Lingtian that he has never despised ye Lingtian's low strength, and he has no regret to be the master of Ye Lingtian's palace!

Even, he never regarded ye Lingtian as a servant, but as a brother!

Open up the territory together, the brothers who sprinkle blood together!

He vaguely remembered the meeting in Jiangcheng Yuhao club!

Ye Lingtian knelt down on one knee and called him the master of the hall!

He vaguely remembers how ye Lingtian took the dark hall to protect himself when he was in the most difficult time, when he was fighting with the president of Wudao Association of Jiangnan province!

He is grateful for ye Lingtian's protection!

Thanks for ye Lingtian's efforts!

Ye Chen is very clear about the cost of awakening the ancient spirit!

Others see ye Lingtian's powerful and envious, but all present don't know what ye Lingtian has paid!

Ye Chen clenched his fist at the moment, and his eyes were misty. He swore that as the reincarnation master, he must protect everyone around him!

Last life, I fell!

In this life, he will find out the person who restrained him, no matter whether he is a God or a ghost!

He'll pull him down at all costs!

He wants to tell the world that he will never fight alone!

He and his companions are the truly unattainable existence of the world!

"Bang!"

Rising leaves of the land, the sound of concussion continues to spread! Bring ye Chen back to reality!

The abyssal sin breaking spear from Ye's ancestors hit elder Diao heavily. He was wearing war clothes. When the spear attacked, there were dense runes in full bloom, trying to block the blow.

Chapter 2959

But it doesn't work!

Ye Lingtian, who has been baptized by the road and promoted to the nine layers of chaos, is the most powerful time. The power carried by the abyss crime breaking gun hits Diao Changlao with a roar, making endless waves of air rolling.

The runes are in full bloom, and the light illuminates half of the place where the leaves rise up, and the brilliance reaches the extreme, and soon

"Bang!"

The battle suit suddenly exploded and broke into countless pieces. Each piece of fragment carried a trail of light, like a meteor shower outside the sky. It dragged its long tail down to the dark fog below.

It's not that the uniform is not strong enough, but in this special place, it can't be supported by enough strength, and how can it fight the front of the abyss conviction gun.

"Ah

The elder of Tiandao palace roared and tried his best to fight against ye Lingtian's gun. His battle clothes were broken, which was beyond his expectation, but he did not give up.

As soon as Diao Mingde opened his mouth, a small tripod flew out. The bronze ancient tripod with three feet and two ears enlarged in front of him. In a blink of an eye, it became a huge tripod with a height of dozens of feet. It was suppressed by Ye Lingtian's spear.

"Dang!"

The tip of the gun hit the huge tripod, and the sparks burst out. The traces spread in all directions like water lines. With a slight shock, the huge tripod stirred and opened ye Lingtian's abyss crime breaking gun.

"Hum! I have been practicing for thousands of years. I have a lot of details. You think you can be unscrupulous if you occupy the land here! I know you strengthen yourself in a short time! This has a great price. I advise you to give up! "

See ye Lingtian's attack is temporarily blocked down, Diao Mingde that some white face is finally exposed a bit of sneer.

"This tripod is made by the top forging master of Tiandao palace. It has three feet and two ears, which is in accordance with the artistic conception of the road. It has the power to suppress the heaven and the earth. It's really a bit of a talent to use it to suppress such crimes as you.

However, no matter what, since you forced me to take out the wind tripod, even if you died here, you were worthy of your life! "

"Go away!"

Ye Lingtian spits at him fiercely, "don't say it's the magic weapon refined by the top forging master of Tiandao palace. Even if Xuanyuan moxie comes in person, I dare to fight with him for several rounds in our ancestral land of Ye family!"

"Presumptuous! What kind of a thing are you? The palace master adheres to the will of heaven and earth. He is the spokesman of heaven and earth road, and you can abuse it Diao Mingde angrily rebuked.

"The old man is your palace master, not mine." Ye Lingtian said coldly, "I will not only scold him, but also kill him myself if I have a chance in the future! Revenge for the Lord of samsara

"I don't know what the sky is like. The Lord of the palace is above nine days, overlooking hundreds of millions of creatures in the kingdom of God. Let alone the future, it is now. Do you think you can still go out alive?

In addition to me, there are also many strong gods from all over the kingdom of God. Outside the land of leaves, there are countless experts waiting to kill the Ye family.

Don't you think you can be invincible by killing daoyan and others? "

Diao Mingde said and laughed. His wrinkled face was full of sarcasm.

At this time, he looked at the top experts from other forces around him and said, "everyone, it's almost enough to watch the opera. You'd better do it as soon as possible and kill this mole ant with me!"

The five celestial beings from the other forces looked at each other and did not react much.

In fact, they were also surprised by Ye Lingtian's performance.

According to the situation of hunting Ye's children after ye Jiazhu's sacrifice, there has never been such a thing as today.

In the eyes of these old masters, ye Lingtian's chaotic state and the accomplishments of jiujiatian are nothing. In the endless years, the Ye family has never had such a master, but it has never been like today.

A man killed him, and was not suppressed by the special law of the land of leaves. He killed two elders of Tiandao palace in one breath.

What a means!

If you put it outside, it's a big thing for an elder like Tiandao palace to die at random.

But recently, two people died one after another here, and the third one was nothing more than a draw with the young man. How the result is still unknown.

In the past, almost all of Ye's masters were similar to those of outsiders. They could get around freely by relying on their own strong cultivation of the law of hard top and rising leaves, or relying on the protection of the exquisite pagoda.

Has there ever been such a situation?

Originally, these people came in to support the Tiandao palace. The main purpose of these people was to drive Linglong tower out of here. It was only outside that people could show their great power and hunt Ye's children at will.

The lesson from the past is in front of you. Which of these old masters is not a human spirit?

The hair is empty. You can see at a glance that ye Lingtian didn't spend much effort to kill the two elders. It's still a question mark whether ye Lingtian has done his best. In this situation, Diao Mingde, the only worshipping elder in Tiandao palace, asked them to go together. How could it be? In case of bad luck here, being killed, or simply dragged to death by this man, that would be the worst.

Do you expect Tiandao palace to compensate the clan after the event?

Over the years, the various forces in the seven kingdoms have long understood a truth: it is better to believe that sows can climb trees than to believe that the heavenly palace will compensate for the losses.

Diao Mingde's proposal was not responded to.

All the five masters in the heaven God realm have a tacit understanding and do not respond to each other. Therefore, the Dharma is not responsible for the public. No matter how powerful the Tiandao palace is, it is impossible to deal with all the other forces in the Kingdom at the same time.

In the face of these people's silence, Diao Mingde's face changed slightly, even though he was a little angry. "Several people, do you want to collude with Ye's remaining evils?"

"No!"

One of the old men, who was full of silver hair and was holding a faucet, shook his head and said solemnly, "Diao Changlao, I'd better quit first and make a new plan."

"Why?"

Diao Mingde's face was gloomy: "the Tiandao Palace's heavenly punishment has been sent down. All of you are invited to come here. This cleaning is to be done once and for all. If you look on the wall like this, it will be hard to do good if it reaches the ears of the Lord of Tiandao palace?"

"Lao Diao, it's us who do not want to contribute because we have no advantage."

Another immortal old man sighed and reminded, "don't forget, Mr. Diao, that ye family has at least a few experts in the heaven and God realm in the exquisite pagoda, even though it has no one in ten thousand years.

Now it is just the little demon who jumps out and easily kills the two great powers of Tiandao palace. If we really fight against them here, we will not win even if we try our best. "

Chapter 2960

How can we fight against the evil forces of the whole country when they are not able to fight against the evil forces in this place

"Unnecessary losses should be avoided." Another said coldly.

Listen to these people, you say me a word, put it clearly is just want to eat meat, don't want to have the appearance of loss, Diao Mingde angry face blue.

Since you all know these things, why didn't you remind them earlier?

Two sacrificial elders of Tiandao palace died here. Now they turn around and leave. What will the outside forces think!

If you don't think about it like this, Diao Mingde is more angry.

Because this matter, how to look at it, seems that our own people are too stupid.

However, when daoyan attacked the Linglong tower before Ming Dynasty, the people of the Ye family all cringe inside, without any counterattack. Such a weak state doesn't look like a force with strength to launch a counterattack.

Is it difficult to Has the Ye family been showing weakness?

If so, it would be unwise for him to call on people to join hands.

If ye's family used that young generation as bait and let them, the experts in the early days of the heaven God realm, swarm to offer them, and then beat them all in one net, it would be a big deal.

At that time, in case these forces can't find the Ye family, they will have to find the Tiandao palace to discuss.

Thinking of this, Diao Mingde is also dignified.

"Lao Diao, let's take shelter for a while. When we go outside, as long as we set up a net, the Ye family will not be able to turn over the sky." Another word of persuasion.

Diao Mingde's face was cloudy and clear. The tianshuxu wind tripod still maintained its huge body, and the magnificent pressure suppressed the four road traces in the land of rising leaves.

After a long silence, he nodded gently, put away the huge tripod with a bit of reluctance on his face, and then turned and retreated with the five old men.

Ye Lingtian saw this and did not go after him.

He just looked at Diao Mingde from a distance and said, "Heaven's way palace, pray. Today, it's just the beginning."

Ye Lingtian holds a gun for judging crimes in the abyss. With a strong wave, the front of the gun draws a crescent shaped divine light. In a moment, a palm urges it. This divine light suddenly crosses the sky of the place where the leaves stand, and attacks and kills Diao Mingde.

Just because he doesn't kill them doesn't mean he won't disgust these people.

One hit, ye Lingtian didn't even see the result, and turned directly into the Linglong pagoda.

When he came to the Linglong pagoda, he came to a corner at the first time. He could not control it any more. A mouthful of black blood vomited out!

How can his real strength shake those gods? It's just the overdraft of the power of faith!

It's also a great loss to him!

After his breakthrough, the foundation is still unstable!

So strong, naturally there is a price!

But ye Lingtian doesn't regret it.

At this time, a voice sounded in ye Lingtian's ear: "also strong support, take this pill."

Ye Lingtian saw the visitor and gave a bitter smile: "Lord, let you see."

Ye Chen shook his head: "today, you make me look at you with a new look! Maybe in the future, I will rely on you to break the heavenly way palace. "

Ye Lingtian Mou son a congealing, some excited: "do you really feel so?"

Ye Chen did not talk nonsense, directly put the pill into ye Lingtian's body: "I have never seen you small, you used to be the king of Nanjiang! Now, too! "

"This pill is refined by the ancient medical God. It is very effective for your recovery. I will give you a silver needle later, and your wound will be better."

"My brother, ye Chen, is not allowed to do anything."

Ye Lingtian heard the word brother, eyes a red!

He has always thought that he is a man of iron, but at this moment, it is a feeling of sour nose and hair.

This kind of affirmation is better than everything!

"Lord, I'm..."

Ye Chen patted ye Lingtian's shoulder: "give you acupuncture first, and go to the ninth floor together later."

"What's more, if the Ye family wants to choose you as the new head of the family, I can't refuse it. I don't want to be the head of the family. Besides, the reincarnation master was beyond the Ye family."

Ye Lingtian originally wanted to refuse, but after careful consideration, the hall master might have hidden it to the end. If he refused and instead recommended Ye Chen as the master of the house, the people of the Ye family would doubted it!

He no longer thought much, and nodded fiercely: "yes, temple master!"

.....

Half an hour later, on the ninth floor of the pagoda, ye Chen, Ye Sheng and two other Ye's disciples who came back from their ancestral home were all here.

According to the prepared words, the rest of the Ye family have already learned from them what happened in the ancestral land.

However, about the death of Ye Tan Zhu and ye nishang, it is only said that they died because they failed to pass the examination of the inheritance ceremony, and that the outsiders entering the ancestral land, internal strife, spies of Tiandao palace and so on were concealed by several people. The reason is very simple. The whole Ye family is paying close attention to the ancestor worship. If these things are publicized without sufficient preparation, it will cause a great storm within the Ye family.

In particular, ye Xueqing, ye nishang's master, is one of the most powerful people in the Ye family. However, she is a member of Tiandao palace. How can the Ye family live if she speaks in front of everyone?

Don't forget that this is a critical time for the Ye family to work together to break out of the encirclement.

Fortunately, ye Lingtian made a great impact outside the Linglong tower and killed two elders of Tiandao palace with his own strength, which greatly increased the momentum of Ye family's disciples. After ye Lingtian came back, people's attention was focused on ye Lingtian and asked about the reincarnation star stone. No one paid attention to those sacrificing disciples.

This makes Ye Chen relieved.

You can't help asking questions about such things as lying.

As long as you don't pay attention to how ye Tanzhu died, there will be no problem in this matter.

All the cleaning must wait until ye's house is out of danger.

"Good, good!"

Ye Ziming takes the reincarnation star stone from ye Lingtian's hand. The shining reincarnation star stone is densely engraved with the names of innumerable predecessors of the Ye family. Many of the people whose names represent are the ancestors of those present.

After shrinking, the whole star stone is crystal clear and translucent, and there are continuous road lines that can be seen by the naked eye. Many old people of the Ye family have red eyes when they look at this treasure.

over the years, successive generations of people have made sacrifices in this generation

"Ye jiadang Xing! Revenge for the reincarnation Lord finally saw a glimmer of hope

"The weapon of our ancestors is the abyss of sin breaking spear. Now the ancestral sacrifice is successful, and the family's treasure is unsealed. As long as we get rid of the pursuit of Tiandao palace, the Ye family will be able to stand firm in the first God kingdom within a thousand years, and it is not difficult to reproduce the glory of Ye's ancestors in 10000 years!"
