

Physician 3941

Chapter 3941

Qin Hongyue's delicate body was convulsed and her face was in pain. At the moment, her elixir field was filled with extremely pure destruction rhyme!

At this time, a man's voice sounded in his ear: "don't move, don't talk. As long as I think about it, this destructive force will instantly break your elixir field, even you have no chance to display it in the sky. Now, calm down and listen to me, I have no malice and will not hurt you..."

All this seems complicated, in fact, just happened in a flash!

To tell you the truth, ye Chen didn't want to rush into a woman's bath and threaten her in such a way. He just had to do this in order to survive

Qin Hongyue bit her teeth, tears from her eyes, looked down at the vague man's voice in the pool, and said in a sharp voice: "won't you hurt me?"

I don't know who you are, but what you have done now has formed a life and death feud with my Beihan chamber of Commerce!

Do you think Qin Hongyue is afraid of death? You want to blackmail me? If you want to break my elixir field, please smash it! Today, you don't want to get out of here alive! "

After that, she will call aunt Lin!

But at this time, a touch of moonlight suddenly appeared in the water!

Even if Qin Hongyue was angry and wanted to die at the moment, but the merchant's nature made her have to look at the moonlight!

I see, emitting moonlight is a drop of water!

It seems that there are not many special drops of water, but completely attracted Qin Hongyue's attention!

She breathed slowly, looked at the water drop in disbelief, and whispered, "this This is the spirit marrow of moon liquid

Ye Chen smiles, and the businessman is indeed a businessman. If Qin Hongyue is an ordinary warrior, now, he will fight against himself recklessly, right?

He said faintly: "yes, it's YUEYE spirit marrow. I still have many pith in my hand. This time, I'm here to cooperate with you. My life is not valuable. You can take it any time you want. But this month's liquid spirit pith is much more precious than my life. If you kill me, the northern Han merchant will get nothing.

However, before we cooperate, you have to help me get through the present stage... "

Qin Hongyue heard the speech, and her pretty face was blue and white. She knew that this month's liquid spirit marrow was a great opportunity for the northern Han chamber of Commerce, and an opportunity that could not be missed!

However, on the other hand, Qin Hongyue is not willing to let go of this prodigal son, let alone cooperation!

Is it that the body of her little master of the chamber of Commerce in northern Han Dynasty has been seen in vain?

Is it that Qin Hongyue, known as the first beauty in the North Sea, is going to be taken advantage of by others and eat tofu?

After a few breaths, Qin Hongyue was full of thoughts. Finally, she suppressed her unwillingness and resentment. The characteristics of a businessman calmed her down

Ye Chen can't help but feel lucky. Fortunately, he met Qin Hongyue, a descendant of a commercial family. If he had changed another woman, he would not have finished well this time

Qin Hongyue said coldly and expressionless: "what you say is best true, otherwise, I will make you worse than dead! And, when do you want to see, close your eyes! "

At the moment, not far from the bathroom, a man in black is walking towards this place. He stands in front of the door and asks the soldiers who are following him: "have you searched all of them?"

One of them returned and said, "tell your majesty, I have looked for all the places nearby, and there is no one here! The spy is probably hiding in this house! "

Lin Jianqing nodded and waved her hand. Then she faced the door in front of her and made a vigorous effort!

Ye Chen tiny smile, did not obey, he saw all see, just close eyes now, what difference does it have?

Well, although it was not intended to see Qin Hongyue's body, now let him close his eyes. To tell the truth, ye Chen doesn't think it's necessary

Qin Hongyue found that the disciple was not warning her at all. Her pretty face was full of anger. But at this time, she couldn't help taking Ye Chen!

"What do you mean, you want me to help you get through this

With Qin Hongyue's intelligence, we naturally know that, according to the meaning of Ye Chen's words, the reason why he rashly dived into the water of his own bath was because he was in trouble

Ye Chen is preparing to open his mouth, but suddenly, he looks motionless and silent.

At this time, the closed bathroom door, opened again!

At the door of the bathroom was a handsome man in black. It was Lin Jianqing!

Lin Jianqing and the frosty Qin Hongyue looked at each other. The law Lord of Xihai law enforcement hall, who had always been indifferent and proud, turned red for a moment, and even had no place to place his eyes!

When Qin Hongyue saw Lin Jianqing, she thought of what aunt Lin had said before and what ye Chen had done. In an instant, she wanted to understand the key!

Her body sank a little, only a pretty face was exposed above the pool. Her beautiful eyes looked at Lin Jianqing and said, "where are you from? How dare you break into Qin Hongyue's bathroom! The people of the West Sea really want to work with our Beihai chamber of Commerce. Will they never die? Get out of here! After Lin Jianqing's death, a group of martial artists heard the words, and their eyes were filled with excitement. As soon as they flashed, they would rush to the bathroom. Qin Hongyue, the first beauty in the North Sea, was not unfamiliar to them!

I'm sorry that I'm a man without looking at it!

Hey, we don't need to cooperate with you in the investigation

The rest of the martial arts, who were also chuckling obscenely, were about to rush into the room. But just at this moment, the fastest running warrior felt a fist in front of his eyes, and quickly enlarged it!

With a bang, the blow hit him mercilessly on his face. The warrior screamed, flew backward and fell to the ground. Although the injury was not too serious, a tooth had already been lost

The warrior looked at Lin Jianqing's back with tears in his eyes. He seemed to be crying to his beloved Dharma Master: "my Lord, what did I do wrong?"

And the rest of the group of Warriors also stopped. They looked at Lin Jianqing who was blocking the door with some fear. They didn't dare to go any closer

At the moment, Lin Jianqing suddenly lowered his head, and even felt a little cramped. He coughed twice, as if he was relieving his tension, and then he said:

"in the law enforcement Hall of Xiaohai, Lin Jianqing didn't know how offended Miss Qin was when she bathed here. Please forgive me However, I didn't mean to intrude into the girl's bathroom. I only wanted to search for a spy who had sneaked into the West Sea, so I was a bit abrupt... "

Chapter 3942

Qin Hongyue sneered: "your Xiaohai law enforcement hall is really very powerful. In order to track down the spies, can you find someone else's bathroom?"

Hearing this, Lin Jianqing said in a hurry: "Miss, I misunderstood you! I really didn't know the girl was bathing... "

Qin Hongyue said: "now, do you know? Have you found the spy you want in this bathroom

When Lin Jianqing heard this, she raised her head carefully. Her eyes swept into the room. She saw that the bathroom was empty everywhere. How could there be any figure?

Qin Hongyue said, "well, you have checked it. Now, can you go out?"

For a moment, Lin Jianqing's look was a little embarrassed. Her eyes were on the upstream of Qin Hongyue's bath. She seemed to want to say something, but she didn't dare to speak

"That There is another place where there is no inspection... "

Qin Hongyue heard the speech, and in her beautiful eyes, she saw a look of disgust and said, "are you Lin Jianqing in the west sea? I've heard of your name before, and I really appreciate it... "

When Lin Jianqing heard the speech, there was a look of joy in her cold eyes!

However, at the next moment, Qin Hongyue's voice suddenly became cold and said: "now it seems that the so-called west sea monster Lin Jianqing is just a despicable person!"

"Miss Qin!" Lin Jianqing's face changed and she gave a cry, as if to explain something.

But Qin Hongyue didn't give him the chance and interrupted, "Lin Jianqing, do you mean that someone is hiding in my bath?"

Do you want to check not only my bathroom, but also my bathroom? Is it true that if there is no one in the bath, I will let you check my body? Lin Jianqing, don't bully people too much, get out of here

Even if Mount Tai collapsed, Lin Jianqing could not change her face. After being scolded by Qin Hongyue, she turned pale and her eyes were shaking. He saluted Qin Hongyue and apologized, "I'm sorry, Miss Qin. I'm leaving now..."

After that, he turned around and left the door and closed the bathroom door.

All the martial artists outside the door looked at Lin Jianqing foolishly. They didn't expect that Lin Jianqing, who had always been selfless and iron, had even compromised!!!

"Let's go! The spy is not here. Search elsewhere

A warrior asked dully, "my Lord, are we going now?"

Lin Jianqing glanced at him coldly, and the warrior immediately shut his mouth.

At this time, an older warrior waved his hand, motioned for the crowd to follow, and yelled: "the Lord arranged this way, naturally his reason, let's go!"

Then, that year's warrior, close to Lin Jianqing's side, whispered: "the adult's mind, subordinates understand!"

Lin Jianqing looked at such an old warrior unexpectedly and said, "do you understand?"

The warrior said with a smile: "if the one in charge of this spirit ship is just the general person in charge of Beihai chamber of Commerce, it's OK to say that Qin Hongyue is the daughter of the president of Beihai chamber of Commerce. If she is to inherit the existence of Beihai chamber of Commerce in the future, the consequences will be too much for Xihai law enforcement hall to bear.

Even if she really harboured the spy, it will be difficult for us to continue to take charge of this matter. Therefore, the talents will stop here, but it is so? "

When Lin Jianqing heard the speech, he looked unnatural. He coughed twice and said, "yes, I think so."

The warrior laughed and thought that he was deeply in love with the Dharma Master. However, several young warriors behind him said with disdain: "what's the end of the matter? Is the adult such a person? I think the Lord is clearly in love..."

"That's right. Adults are attracted to Qin Hongyue, so they are afraid to make her hate..."

"I didn't expect that Mr. Lin, who has always been cold hearted, is also the seed of infatuation with women at first sight..."

When Lin Jianqing heard this, he suddenly fell to the ground. All the martial artists were surprised and helped him up and said, "what's the matter with you, my lord?"

Lin Jianqing stood up with a flushed face, looked up at the sky, and said in secret, "red moon, a beautiful name, really suits her..." There was a smile on his face.

Bathroom, ye Chen slowly from the bath out of the head, body movement, then from the bathroom away.

He looked at Qin Hongyue and said with a smile, "thank you very much, Miss Qin."

Qin Hongyue snorted coldly: "the law enforcement hall should have gone. Now, can you go out?"

Ye Chen nodded: "good."

Then he left the bathroom.

After ye Chen left, Qin Hongyue's pretty face was filled with red clouds in an instant. She gently reached out her hand and stroked her stomach, which was still painful and fiery. Her beautiful eyes flashed. I didn't know what she was thinking. A moment later, there was a whining in the bathroom.....

In the hall of the merchant ship, there was a man and two women. The man had a light smile on his face. He took a sip of the spirit tea in his hand and praised: "the tea is good."

This man is Ye Chen naturally.

In front of him, there are Qin Hongyue and aunt Lin. at the moment, Qin Hongyue has no expression, but aunt Lin is full of killing intention. The breath of heaven and earth is uncontrollably released!

After hearing about all the things that happened in the bathroom, aunt Lin would like to cut Ye Chen into pieces. If Qin Hongyue hadn't dissuaded her again and again, she would have been unable to control Ye Chen!

Qin Hongyue said coldly: "talk less nonsense. Let's talk about your cooperation."

Ye Chen said with a smile, "I'm not a man of the sinking moon sea. As for how to enter the sea, I think Miss Qin has already known it very well.

Although Miss Qin helped me escape the pursuit of the Xihai law enforcement hall, it was not a long-term plan. If you want to get the qualification to enter the Sunmoon sea, you must obtain the permission of the nine royal families. Therefore, I want miss Qin to arrange for me to trade with a Guanghan hall master in the nine Seas! "

Do you want to stay in the moon

If ye Chen's statement is true, he will have a large number of soul marrow of moon liquid in his hand, which is enough to change the pattern of the whole sunken moon sea. In front of him, this young man full of mysteries and mysteries may also step up to the top and become a figure beside a certain Temple master!

Ye Chen nodded and said, "there is something I need in the sinking moon sea. I need to stay here for a period of time. And free access to the outside world and the sunken moon sea! "

Qin Hongyue's slender jade finger gently taps the table top, stares at Ye Chen and says, "you asked Beihai chamber of Commerce to arrange a meeting with the master of Guanghan hall for you. Are you going to exchange the qualification of free access to the Sunmoon sea with the spirit marrow of moon liquid?

Chapter 3943

Ye Chen looked at Qin Hongyue and said, "you can get me."

Qin Hongyue's face sank: "you don't want to joke with me!"

Ye Chen said with a smile: "I'm not kidding. Although I intend to trade with the master of Guanghan hall, I will not hand over all of them at once, but turn over some of them every other time in order to guarantee my safety.

In every transaction, I will let the Beihan chamber of Commerce become the intermediary between me and the master of Guanghan palace. Miss Qin should know how much benefit this can bring? "

She knows that the most important thing in business is resources!

Sometimes, you don't need to have anything, you just need to know someone who has such things, which can bring you great benefits!

And if ye Chen can promise to let Beihai chamber of Commerce become the only bridge between him and Guanghan hall master, the chips will be too big!

Qin Hongyue even has the confidence, with this chip, for the North Han chamber of Commerce in exchange for many business in the inland sea!

One of the most important conditions for the chambers of Commerce in the nine major sea areas to develop business is to open up trade routes!

Some businesses that can't be done on the surface need the tacit approval of the master of Guanghan hall to open the sea

Now, if the Beihan chamber of commerce can become a bridge between Ye Chen and Guanghan palace master, then Qin Hongyue has enough confidence to make the chamber of Commerce of Beihan stand firm in the inland sea!

In the beautiful eyes of the red moon of Qin Dynasty, a touch of joy flashed through her eyes, as if she had seen the prosperous future of Beihan chamber of Commerce!

After a moment, she regained her cold look and said to Ye Chen, "we accept your terms, but I also have conditions."

Ye Chen said with a smile, "please say so."

He knew that Qin Hongyue was a wise man, so he would not have any foolish idea of extorting Ye Chen.

Although Ye Chen is not aunt Lin's rival, he has enough strength to let the Beihan chamber of Commerce get nothing before he dies

Qin Hongyue said: "it's very simple. The master of Guanghan Hall who deals with you must be selected by the chamber of Commerce of Beihan."

Ye Chen nodded his head and said, "yes."

In order to obtain the most benefit from the transaction of the North Star, the transaction object is expected to be the most important one.

Qin Hongyue stood up and said to Aunt Lin, "aunt Lin, after this trip, you don't need to go back to the North Sea, but drive directly to the inland sea!"

Ye Chen looks moved. It seems that the heart of Qin Hongyue is really not small. She wants to trade directly with the royal family in the inland sea?

At this time, the jade chamber of the nine moon palace can get into the sea area, but it can also help you to enter the sea area

Xuanhanyu said: "the reason why you want to enter the Sunmoon sea is that you can't make yourself strong enough to be in heaven with your destruction. However, the enemies you will face in the future are likely to exist in heaven and earth. If you don't have self-reliance, it will be too bad to fight.

Therefore, you should refine the secret realm of the moon god into a very special kind of self being in heaven, and if you want to refine this kind of self being in heaven, the treasure box of melting the moon is indispensable. "

When ye Chen hears the speech, a trace of excitement flashed in his eyes. It must be very difficult for ye Chen to become a man of his own accord?

He began to ask, "is it possible that this kind of self-reliance made by the moon treasure box can become the best in heaven even when I don't have enough understanding of Daoyun?"

Xuanhanyu sneered and said, "boy, what do you think? How can there be such a good thing in the world

Ye Chen slightly a Leng way: "that this kind of in the sky, is a few goods existence?"

Xuanhanyu said: "this kind of self-reliance is called burning the sky. When burning the sky, there is only one grade, that is, the lowest one!"

"What?" Ye Chen smelled the speech, and his face was a little ugly: "Yipin? We are in heaven for a product, risking our lives, diving into the sea of sinking moon? "

Is this what normal people do!

Xuanhanyu said coldly, "I haven't finished. It's very difficult to refine the burning sky. We need to melt the moon god's Secret realm first. This is why we need to melt the moon treasure box.

And burning the sky, after training, is just a product of self-reliance, it seems that it is extremely useless

However, burning the sky has an ability that other beings in heaven do not have, that is, evolution

Xuanhanyu said: "yes, this product of burning heaven will evolve with the improvement of your Taoist rhyme. Although the level of burning heaven will always remain at the same level, its real strength can even surpass the nine grades and even the best in heaven! Therefore, the upper limit of burning the sky is higher than the top level of self-reliance! "Ye Chen's eyes appear a thick joy, he originally pursued, is the ultimate, this burning heaven is in line with his heart!

The merchant ship of Beihan chamber of Commerce soon ended the voyage. As usual, they should return to the North Sea, but this time, to the surprise of all the sailors, Miss Lin actually changed her course and made them sail towards the inland sea!

The inner sea adjacent to the West Sea, known as the Red Sea, now takes a certain amount of time to arrive at full speed.

However, this is not the most important problem. Even if we enter the inland sea from the open sea, it is also full of danger even if we take the channel prescribed by foreign countries!

Because of the boundary between the sea areas, there are some grey areas which are not under the jurisdiction of the two sea areas. This kind of place is not only full of dangerous sea animals that have not been treated, but also the home of many pirates!

Every time the chamber of Commerce intends to enter the inland sea to do business, it will place at least two celestial beings on board to offer sacrifices at the later stage to ensure the safety of the ship. But this time, the young lady asked them to go directly to the inland sea?

Today, only aunt Lin is on the spiritual ship. Although it saves some time, it seems that she has taken some risks!

What these sailors don't know is that Qin Hongyue is also forced to

She knew that although Lin Jianqing left for a while, he would never give up if he could not find Ye Chen in the West Sea. Soon, he would find the head of Beihan chamber of commerce again. At that time, it was not so simple to force Lin Jianqing back

Chapter 3944

Even after discovering that the northern Han chamber of Commerce has done so much to protect Ye Chen, he may even involve the Guanghan Hall of Xihai and Beihai!

In that case, there will be no room for the northern Han chamber of Commerce to intervene in this matter.

Therefore, if she wants to maximize her interests, she can only take risks and race against time to enter the inland sea before Lin Jianqing thoroughly investigates the Western sea!

As a result, there was no time for her to return to the North Sea.

Sometimes, for the sake of profit, you have to take risks!

On the merchant ship, in an uninhabited corner, a sailor with an ordinary appearance and no characteristic looks on his face. With a strange smile on his face, he murmured: "I didn't expect that I've been waiting for such an opportunity. Qin Hongyue, although I don't know why you made such a decision, you should blame yourself for your carelessness..."

At the moment, Qin Hongyue and ye Chen are standing in the bow of the boat, looking into the distance. They can only see the sea level in front of them. There is a very strong evil spirit.

Ye Chen frowned and said, "Miss Qin, where is that place?"

Over the past few days, he and Qin Hongyue get along with each other, but the relationship between them has eased a lot. Qin Hongyue doesn't pay any attention to him as he did at the beginning.

Of course, there is still no good face.

At the moment, Qin Hongyue was also cold and said: "there is the sea area at the junction of the West Sea and the Red Sea. Because of the sovereignty issue, this sea area is not under the jurisdiction of both sides. It is called the fierce sea by the people who sink into the moon sea!

In the sunken moon sea, there were many fierce beasts, which were bound by the gravity of the Sunmoon sea. They were able to move freely in the water. Only because of the existence of Guanghan palace in the major sea areas and the regular extermination of these fierce beasts ensured the safety of ships in the sea area.

But in this fierce sea, there is no jurisdiction, and the evil spirit is the place where many fierce beasts come from. "

He frowned and said, "isn't even aunt Lin the opponent of these fierce beasts?"

If so, the risk of entering the inland sea will be too great!

Qin Hongyue said: "although the fierce beast is terrible, it is not against the heaven to this extent. Although the fierce beast in the heaven and earth is not without, it is also very rare. Moreover, it is basically impossible to have both of them at the same time. Even though the fierce beast has some advantages in the sea, aunt Lin can protect us with the help of this merchant ship."

Qin Hongyue's eyes, some gloomy said: "the reason why aunt Lin looks like this is that the danger in the fierce sea is not only the fierce beast, but also pirates!"

"Pirates?"

Ye Chen's look, some strange up, some of China's surrounding waters may have this thing, did not expect that there will be such a presence abroad.

"Who else can survive in this fierce sea?"

Qin Hongyue glanced at Ye Chen and said: "these people are all outlaws who are hunted by law enforcement courts in the major sea areas. They live by hunting and killing fierce animals and robbing merchant ships. If you don't meet me and you can't make a deal with the master of Guanghan hall, if you want to escape from the law enforcement hall, you can only hide in the fierce sea

Although the fierce sea is dangerous, it is not completely impossible to survive. These pirates have existed in the fierce sea for countless years, and have formed a powerful force hidden under the sea surface of the sinking moon sea. They have a set of survival rules to coexist with the fierce sea!

Even, it is said that after living in the fierce sea for a long time, some pirates have changed their bodies and are no longer human beings. They also have the ability to swim in the sunken moon sea like fierce beasts. "

Ye Chen's eyes flashed: "if we met pirates, what should we do?"

Qin Hongyue said: "these pirates are also divided into large and small organizations. For ordinary pirate organizations, aunt Lin is able to cope with It's just that if we encounter those big pirate groups, we often need two later existence of heaven and earth to escape. However, this probability is not too great.

After so many years of business in the northern Han chamber of Commerce, we have found out the distribution of the forces of various pirate groups in the fierce sea. We should be able to successfully avoid the sea areas under the control of the pirate groups that pose a threat to us. "

Ye Chen looks dignified: "this piece of sea area has never been able to control?"

To Ye Chen's surprise, Qin Hongyue suddenly looked at the sky at this time and said thoughtfully: "there is a legend in the sinking moon sea. When nine blood moons appear in the sky, it is the one who comes back."

"The one who controls the moon is the supreme existence of the moon god family. He is as mysterious as the stars, and his strength reaches the sky..."

Hearing these words, ye Chen's expression is even more strange!

This is clearly talking about senior Ren!

In ancient times, what happened?

What's more, I should be the same as Ren. Have you ever been here?It's a pity that the memory is blocked and completely unknown.

The sailors on the merchant ship, looking at the sea area full of evil spirit, showed a look of tension on their faces. The man, who was full of flesh and blood, said in a low voice:

"what are you afraid of! I have passed through the fierce sea for many times! The route to Chihai has been remembered for a long time! Cheer me up

Encouraged by the old sailor, the atmosphere on the merchant ship was relieved. The sailors said, "yes!"

The old sailor's eyes flashed. He knew that the more dangerous it was, the more unshakable their hearts would be. Otherwise, when something really happened, it would cause unimaginable consequences!

On the merchant ship of the northern Han chamber of Commerce, with a flash of light, they entered the fierce sea of evil spirit!

In the hall of the merchant ship, aunt Lin's expression moved and said to Qin Hongyue, "Miss, we have entered the fierce sea."

Qin Hongyue said: "in the next three days, there will be aunt Laolin."

It will take about three days to cross the fierce sea. In these three days, the merchant ship will inevitably be attacked by some powerful and fierce beasts. At this time, it is up to Aunt Lin to do it.

"Please don't worry, miss," said Lin

Having said that, she left the hall and headed for the bow of the boat. She should always pay attention to whether there are fierce beasts approaching, so as to avoid accidents.

On an island surrounded by rolling ash, there are many stone towers. Around the island, there are all kinds of strange shapes of animal bones. Through the gray air, we can see the shadow of people flickering near the stone tower.

Among the largest stone buildings, a middle-aged man with dark skin, dark blue eyes, scarred face and a strong body is sitting on a chair made of animal bones. The man is dressed up in a rough way, with a faint ferocity on his face. However, it is not these things that attract people's attention. It is the throat of this man that has special lines Road!

Chapter 3945

What's more, his teeth are so sharp that they can't be possessed by human beings. He also has a pair of fins on his elbow!

This person, astonished, is exactly what Qin Hongyue said, the kind of person who stayed in the fierce sea for too long and whose body has changed!

The dark man was eating with a piece of bloody animal meat. The clothes he was wearing were dyed red with blood. Not far from the man's body, there was a young man with a cold look on his knees.

The young man opened his mouth with great reverence: "reverence, the people of the northern Han chamber of Commerce have entered the fierce sea."

When the dark man heard the words, a strong hunger and thirst appeared in his blue eyes. On his ferocious face, he grinned with an evil smile and said:

"finally coming? Ha ha ha ha! Since seeing the first beauty in the North Sea, I can't see the woman in the fierce sea any more!

Qin Hongyue, this time I will never let you escape from the palm of your hand again. Ha ha, you will be my queen. In this fierce sea, please serve me obediently

Hearing the speech, the young man frowned and said, "Reverend, this Qin Hongyue is the daughter of the president of the Beihan chamber of Commerce. If she is captured, I'm afraid that the chamber of Commerce of Beihan will not give up."

Hearing this, the dark man glanced at the young man coldly, and the whole stone building was silent for a moment. He threw the animal meat away, walked up to the young man, looked down at him and said:

"won't you give up? In this fierce sea, how can Beihan chamber of Commerce take its own? If he is honest and honest in business, I can still look at the Queen's face, so as to ensure that he will not encounter any accident when he passes through the fierce sea of Xichi. I, Shi Fei, still have some face in this fierce sea. If he doesn't know what's good or bad... "

On Shi Fei's scarred face, a fierce look suddenly appeared and said: "I will let him come in. How many people are dead!"

When the young man heard the speech, his shoulder trembled slightly and said, "it's my subordinates who are worried about it..."

But at this time, the young man's shoulder, a sudden pain, scream, stone fly is actually raised a foot, severely trampled him on the ground!

Shi Fei grinds and moves his toes. The shoulder of the youth is covered with blood. With Shi Fei's movement, the sound of bone fragments rubbing sounds.

Looking down at the young man with cold sweat all over his body and bloodshot eyes, he said coldly:

"in the future, what I said is what you understand? Boy, is your name Li Shan? Don't think that if you have some abilities, you can open your mouth in front of me. There is no room for you to interrupt!

Not long after you entered the fierce sea, I'll let you go this time. Don't try again. Do you hear me clearly? "

The young man clenched his teeth, endured the pain, and nodded slightly: "I understand..."

Li Shan got up slowly and bowed his head and asked, "zunshang, when do you want to fight against Beihaan chamber of Commerce? My subordinates have arranged in advance..." "

The blue light flashed in Shi Fei's eyes, and he sneered: "it seems that even God is helping her and me. One day later, there will be a storm in the fierce sea. Ha ha, who knows the wind and rain better than us who live in the nine seas?

I wait for the brothers of Blackfin island to make this ticket by taking advantage of the wind and rain! "

Li Shan said yes, he pressed his shoulder and left the stone tower. At the moment of going out, Li Shan's face suddenly became gloomy. His eyes flashed with a very bitter light. He said in a dark way: "Shi Fei, I will make you pay the price one day!"

Ye Chen and aunt Lin stood together in the bow of the boat, looking up at the changeable wind and cloud. Ye Chen's eyes flashed slightly and said, "is this?"

Aunt Lin's face was ugly and said, "this is the precursor of a storm..."

"Storm?"

Aunt Lin said: "this sunken moon sea was originally a place of great ferocity. There are not only countless fierce beasts lurking, but also terrible storms. Even those who are involved in heaven and earth will have their lives in danger!

The reason why the nine seas have always been calm and peaceful is because of the existence of Guanghan palace!

The nine palaces of Guanghan suppressed the storms in the nine seas, but they did not take into account the area where the ominous sea was located. Therefore, the merchant ships entering the fierce sea need to face such natural disasters from time to time. Although this merchant ship can greatly reduce the impact of storms, this is not an ordinary storm, and the laws of heaven and earth will change accordingly In this storm, strength will be suppressed... "

When ye Chen heard the speech, he also frowned. He looked at the lightning in the clouds. He had a premonition that the journey through the fierce sea would not be peaceful.

A thunderclap of thunder sounded, and the whole world changed color. The originally calm sea surface fluctuated in an instant, and the huge waves surged. The wind swept with the rainstorm. On the spirit ship of Beihan chamber of Commerce, the spirit light flashed and resisted the wind and rain with terrorist power!

The whole merchant ship swayed and swayed with the waves, but this was not the most important problem. At the moment, most of the warriors on the merchant ship were livid. Under the wind and rain, their spiritual power could not maintain stability. It seemed that they were affected by the force of some law and kept on fluctuating! They bite their teeth one by one, trying to suppress the restless spiritual power in their bodies, while maintaining the shipping of merchant ships. The existence of heaven and earth can not help but show their efforts.

Only can calm as usual, also only Qin Hongyue, Lin aunt, and ye Chen three people.

Qin Hongyue wears a pale gold crescent necklace on her chest. Daoyun surging, she withstood the impact of the storm.

This crescent necklace is obviously a treasure, but it is no surprise that Qin Hongyue has such a treasure because of the wealth of the northern Han chamber of Commerce.

As for Aunt Lin, she is the most powerful. Although the storm has suppressed her strength, it is far from enough to affect her spiritual power!

However, at the moment, both of them are looking at Ye Chen with flashing eyes. Their faces are faintly shocked

This boy is clearly not the existence of heaven and earth, nor does he use any treasure. He can be calm in this storm?

What is his origin?

For a moment, Qin Hongyue and aunt Lin, looking at Ye Chen's eyes, can not help but produce some changes.

At this time, a sudden change!

On the merchant ship, an extremely dazzling aura broke out, with a loud bang. The merchant ship was shaken violently. However, the dark shadow was also hit by the merchant ship and flew backward!

Danger, it's coming!

Chapter 3946

A roar, like an elephant's moo, exploded in the ears of all the people. A group of frightened sailors looked at the shadow one after another. Under the light of the merchant ship's aura, a huge beast, almost as big as a sea lion, appeared in front of everyone!

The beast's whole body breath was extremely surging. A pair of tusks, which were spitting out, twinkled with cold light. There was a faint rhyme on the fangs. It was also able to move freely in the raging waves, as if it had not been affected by the storm at all!

This giant sea lion, of course, is that fierce beast!

The fierce beast has lived in the sunken moon sea for many years, and has been used to the special gravity in the sea water and the storms from time to time. In front of everyone, this fierce beast is a fierce beast with four layers of heaven and earth!

The giant sea lion couldn't make a hit, but it was more powerful. A pair of small eyes twinkled with bloodthirsty light. After a jump, it rushed towards the merchant ship. The animal's kiss was wide open, and the fangs in his mouth burst out a gray light. He would bite down the light curtain to protect the merchant ship!

When Aunt Lin saw this, she saw the opportunity in her eyes. She snorted coldly: "these animals are so used to it that they dare to be wild in front of me?"

As soon as the voice fell, a red silk was rolled backward and rose in the wind. The pupil of the fierce beast of the sea lion trembled suddenly. The huge body was frozen in the air. It was bound by a roll of red silk with strong flavor of the road!

At the next moment, the red Ling slowly tightens. The fierce beast's seemingly extremely strong body begins to twist and deform under the pressure of the red Ling. Feeling the terrible power that comes upon the body, the fierce beast's eyes finally show a look of fear. It struggles desperately, but it can't help!

After a breath, the fierce beast's mouth uttered a shrill cry, and its body broke into pieces under the pressure of the red silk. Countless flesh and blood viscera fell into the sea, and even its spirits were directly crushed by the red silk!

The sailors on the ship were stunned, and then a burst of cheers came out!

This fierce beast in the middle of heaven and earth, in this storm, can even have a war with the later period of heaven and earth?

Can, in the face of aunt Lin, is even a breath can not support, was killed by seconds?

All the people who were worried about this journey were in great spirits after seeing this scene!

Qin Hongyue also showed a satisfied look on her face, and said to Aunt Lin, "aunt Lin has worked hard."

Aunt Lin killed this fierce beast by means of thunder, which is of great help to boost morale!

Aunt Lin smiles and says nothing more.

Ye Chen looks at Aunt Lin, her eyes flash slightly, and Lin's face seems pale. Obviously, with that blow, she is not as relaxed as she seems on the surface.

The storm's suppression on her strength was even greater than she had imagined. Although she used the means of thunder, she also lost some spiritual power. However, ye Chen knew that it was necessary to do so!

In the next few hours, the fierce beasts in the sea seemed to be stimulated by the storm. Compared with usual, they became more and more violent and attacked the merchant ships frequently. However, they were suppressed by Aunt Lin, and the sailors were more and more relieved.

In the evening, although the wind and rain became more and more fierce, those fierce beasts seemed to stop some and let the people get a moment of peace.

Aunt Lin had to go back to her room and refine pills to make up for her consumption.

Ye Chen and Qin Hongyue are standing in the bow of the ship. His expression is deep and calm, and his eyes are swimming back and forth between the deep darkness that even the spirit of the merchant ship cannot disperse.

Seeing this, Qin Hongyue frowned and said, "what's the matter with you?"

Ye Chen smell speech, light way: "do you feel, the air around, as if to become sticky a lot?"

Since entering the fierce sea, ye Chen always feels uncomfortable, as if in the dark, there are a pair of eyes staring at them.

But now, this kind of feeling is more and more intense, as if something, is coming!

At this time, an inexplicable breath suddenly rises from the deep sea. Ye Chen's pupil shrinks crazily, and shouts: "back off!"!!! Back up now

When the sailors heard this, they were all puzzled. What was the boy talking about?

Why are they suddenly asked to step back?

Besides, who does he think he is? The young lady said that she was just a friend who boarded the boat temporarily

Even start to give orders?

Qin Hongyue also doesn't feel anything unusual, but aunt Lin is not here now

She looked at Ye Chen's look, and her beautiful eyes twinkled slightly. She had already made a decision between the two. Almost as soon as ye Chen's voice dropped, she said, "all the crew, listen! From now on, the whole ship is under the command of Mr. Ye! "

When the sailors heard this, they were all discontented. I really don't know what the young lady is interested in

However, since the young lady has ordered, although they are not happy in their hearts, they still immediately follow Ye Chen's instructions to steer the merchant ship and retreat back at full speed! Aunt Lin, who was recovering in her room, suddenly opened her eyes, and her face showed a touch of horror. She moved and disappeared from the room.

At the moment when the merchant ship retreated, several black spears suddenly burst from the bottom of the sea, and the void ran through it!

Silence

The whole merchant ship is dead!

The sailors, one by one, looked at the dark spears in front of them in disbelief, and looked frightened!

This long shot is exactly where the merchant ship was!

If they did not follow Ye Chen's instructions to retreat quickly, at this moment, these terrible "spears" have hit the merchant ship!

According to the momentum of the attack just now, if it really hits the merchant ship, it may even penetrate the defense of the merchant ship and directly hit the bottom of the ship!

In that case, there may even be casualties on board!

Cold sweat poured out from the back of the crowd, and they all secretly congratulated themselves. Fortunately, under the command of the young lady, they followed Ye Chen's arrangement. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable!

At the same time, also felt a burst of shame, ye Chen where is what small white face?

To be able to detect this extremely secret blow is enough to prove its strength!

And just now, they were still dissatisfied, even ridiculed?

This slap is too fast!

At the moment, everyone has changed their views on Ye Chen!

Even Qin Hongyue looks at Ye Chen's eyes with a touch of shock!

Even she didn't expect to see the scene in front of her!

Just, because ye Chen's various performances, let her feel that this indifferent man is not so simple on the surface!

At this time, aunt Lin also came to the deck, saluted Qin Hongyue and said, "sorry, miss, I was so careless that I didn't notice the existence of this evil animal..."

Chapter 3947

Qin Hongyue shook her head and said, "aunt Lin is just trying her best to refine the medicine, which is justifiable."

At the moment, those "spears" also showed their original shape in front of the public

The spear, however, is a few very strong tentacles!

At the same time, a huge figure also slowly emerged from the sea

People see this, are unable to help but the eyes tremble!

This fierce beast is a fierce beast in heaven and earth! Has reached the end of heaven and earth!

Aunt Lin's eyes, also dignified up, shouting: "listen to the orders of the whole ship, ready to attack!"

After that, her body moved, which was to fly towards the huge fierce beast. In a moment, she was surging out of her body. The scenery around her changed faintly. Several Hongqiao bridges appeared all over the body!

As soon as aunt Lin made a move, she showed herself without hesitation!

The fierce beast was not willing to be outdone. It was full of ferocity and turned into an alien world like a deep-sea hell, which collided with aunt Lin's self-reliance!

Aunt Lin murmured, and spiritual power broke out in her meridians. Countless Hongqiao bridges turned into competition and bombarded the fierce beast!

The practice of flying, but also formed a formation!

The fierce beast let out a sharp roar, the tentacles danced wildly, and with the Jingtian giant force, they practiced towards the colorful competition, just like a whip, with the piercing sound of breaking wind, and violently waved away!

The sound of roar is constant, the void is broken, and the law is distorted. The two fight each other in the later period of heaven and earth, and even makes the storm stop for a moment!

Then, there was a terrible shock, which broke out from the place where the two people fought!

Under the bombardment of colorful competition, the black tentacle was torn open dozens of large and small wounds, and the blood with putrid smell gushed out from the wound and fell on the sea surface, emitting wisps of green smoke, which seemed to have strong corrosive poison!

However, although the fierce beast was injured, aunt Lin's colorful competition was also broken under the other party's tentacles!

This attack is a close match!

The fierce beast's eating pain stimulated its ferocity even more. In a pair of red eyes, a fierce color appeared, and it was about to attack aunt Lin again. At this time, the merchant ship suddenly burst out with a dazzling aura.

In that aura, the power of countless laws surged, and a huge array composed of five colors and engraved with countless runes appeared above the merchant ship!

In the array, thunder is rolling. In the center, a rune with ancient flavor is surrounded by countless electric lights. At the next moment, the most terrible thunder breath overflows. A five color thunder light rises from the rune and bombards the fierce beast!

There was a huge bang, and the thunder light fell on the head of the fierce beast. It actually knocked its huge body upside down. The fierce beast gave out a painful cry, and there was a burnt black scar on its forehead!

The strength of this thunder light is not under the attack of the later existence of heaven and earth!

The sailors on the merchant ship were very pleased to see this!

Even the corner of aunt Lin's mouth can not help but smile, her body shape again, several Hongqiao around the body, again toward the fierce beast!

The fierce beast, the giant beast, danced its tentacles wildly, and fought with aunt Lin. but before long, another ray of thunder fell on its body!

Aunt Lin cooperated with this valuable merchant ship, but she completely suppressed the fierce beast!

After a hundred moves, the fierce beast has been cut off two tentacles, and his body is also full of scars!

Aunt Lin gasped, just now her essence did not fully recover, now this war, although relying on the strength of the merchant ship, occupied the upper hand, but now she is also a big consumption!

However, the most important thing is that although the attack of merchant ships is powerful, it is not endless!

Each blow consumes a lot of energy, which is why aunt Lin did it herself when she met the murderer in the later period of the heaven and earth.

Therefore, although she has gained the upper hand, this battle must not be delayed. Otherwise, even if she can defeat this fierce beast, the price will be too heavy!

Aunt Lin's eyes flashed a decisive color and ran the Dharma resolution silently. Her whole body breath suddenly rose, and a seven rainbow light surrounded her. Obviously, she was exerting some secret method of burning essence elements!

But at this time, all the people on board changed their faces one after another!

A trumpet sound, actually through the wind and rain, into people's ears!

With the sound of the trumpet, three warships came from the dark, surrounded by the merchant ships of Beihan chamber of Commerce!

A burly figure jumped up from the warship in front of him and stood on the top of the fierce beast. He laughed and said, "ha ha ha, woman, the strength of the big Wu King I raised is not bad?"

When they heard this, they all looked at the man standing on the top of the fierce beast with black body, blue eyes, sharp teeth and fins on his elbow! However, compared with his frightening appearance, what shocked the sailors was his words just now!

This fierce beast in the later period of heaven and earth was only the pet kept by this man?

Then this man is at least a later existence of heaven and earth!

Moreover, it belongs to the powerful one!

As for the identity of this man?

There is only one possibility that can appear in the fierce sea, except for the fierce beast

The sailor, however, was in despair Pirates! What's more, it's a big pirate with three warships! It's over. We're really finished this time! "

Even aunt Lin's face turned pale in an instant!

Always calm Qin Hongyue, beautiful eyes, also finally emerged the color of panic!

Shi Fei is not in a hurry at the moment. His eyes penetrate the spirit of the merchant ship and fall directly on Qin Hongyue's delicate body. On his face, there is an undiscovered hunger and obscene color.

He licked his lips and let out a wild animal like roar: "Qin Hongyue! Qin Hongyue! Dear woman, I finally see you again! You are still so beautiful. As soon as I see you, my whole blood seems to be ignited! I can't wait to pamper you Qin Hongyue's body suddenly trembled and her pretty face was white. Subconsciously, she stepped back several steps and murmured: "Shi Fei! Stone flying of the black fin group! He's not dead yet..." "

Ye Chen looks at Qin Hongyue and sees that this extremely shrewd girl has a look of extreme fear on her pretty face. It can be seen that this man named Shi Fei has left a great psychological shadow on her

Chapter 3948

The next moment, ye Chen's body flash, then block in front of Qin Hongyue, coldly and Shi Fei look at each other.

The crazy hissing and roaring came to an abrupt end. Shi Fei's face was cold in the moment. In his blue eyes, he was furious and said: "boy, get away from me!"

Ye Chen ponders and smiles, and suddenly reaches out his hand. He grabs Qin Hongyue's jade hand directly!

Seeing this, Qin Hongyue struggles subconsciously, but she doesn't refuse

I don't know why, when the man in front of her held his hand, her original chaotic mood was slowly calmed down. She looked at the figure in front of her body and felt a sense of peace of mind

When Shi Fei saw this scene, his eyes were covered with blood, his whole body was full of blue veins, and his endless anger was surging in his mind. His spirit was almost directly ignited!

"Kill! Kill me!!! Laozi, kill this little trash

He is in the fierce sea, but the black fin Wang Shifei who makes countless pirates fear!

Even if they are dissatisfied with their subordinates, they are all direct hands, and no one dares to disobey his meaning!

But now, there is a little trash who is not even in the later stage of heaven and earth. Dare to rob women with him?

How can Shi Fei bear this!

As soon as Shi Fei's voice fell, a strong breath of the later period of heaven and earth burst out of his body. The extremely fierce Taoist rhyme roared, and turned into a fierce island with many demons. It was going to suppress the people of the northern Han chamber of Commerce!

In fury, Shi Fei made a move, it is to display oneself in the sky!

The fierce beast in the later period of heaven and earth under him is also a moving body. He swims towards the merchant ship with his master. His remaining tentacles are dancing wildly. The stone flying standing on his body is full of black evil spirits. There is a force of terrible laws in his hands!

In the face of the joint attack of the two Heaven and earth, the people on the merchant ship are almost suffocating!

If this fierce beast and stone fly's attack really falls, then even if this merchant ship is strong, it can't resist it!

At this moment, people only feel that the end is coming!

At this time, aunt Lin yelled: "listen to all orders, attack me! We are warriors. Even if we die, we will die in battle! "

With a roar, five colors of flame burst out from Aunt Lin's body surface in an instant. Her breath was wildly expanding, and even her face was young!

The strong breath enveloped the whole merchant ship. The people who were in a state of mind almost collapsed in the face of the attack of stone flying and fierce animals were instantly calmed down. Hearing aunt Lin's loud drink, their eyes were filled with blood, and their eyes flashed with light of death. They roared and began to operate the merchant ship and launch a counterattack!

The huge array, and the thunder of fear came again!

Shi Fei, with a look of disdain, lashed at the merchant ship!

A lot of rhymes around the sky's palm prints, like the hands of the devil in hell, with the power of dumping the sky, facing the people!

Before the palm print had really fallen, the spirit of the merchant ship had already begun to be in a frenzy of turbulence, and even cracks appeared on the hull of the ship!

At the same time, the fierce beast's thick tentacles were like a giant stick!

Ye Chen looks at Aunt Lin's eyes flashing. He knows that the stronger the effect of this secret method to stimulate potential, the more serious the backbite will be. Aunt Lin is really fighting!

In the face of Shi Fei and fierce beast's attack, aunt Lin took a deep breath, flashed her body, and rushed towards the palm print. The whole body's flame became more and more dazzling. It turned into a flame to practice and shoot out. She ran towards the terrible palm print that seemed to cover the sky!

At the same time, the thunder in the array is also towards the tentacles of the fierce beast!

The next moment, a earth shaking bang, in this fierce sea, burst out!

The five colors of light and flame twined on the magic God's palm print, and two powerful and incomparable forces were crushing each other. The surrounding void was rapidly broken, and the laws of heaven and earth almost collapsed!

After an instant, the palm print and flame burst at the same time, and the terrible aftershock almost swept the whole sea of ferocity!

Those fierce beasts, sensing the afterwave of the moment, eyes are showing the color of fear, diving toward the deep sea!

Shi Fei's eyes flashed a trace of surprise, but soon, he recovered calm.

This figure, of course, is aunt Lin!

In the roar of thunder, the five colors of thunder also collided with the tentacles of the fierce beast. Although the thunder blackened the beast, the terrible force in the tentacles fell on the protective light screen of the merchant ship, smashing it almost to pieces!

Aunt Lin struggled to get up from the deck, spat out a big mouthful of blood and sighed.

I didn't expect that even if she burned her potential and broke out with a powerful blow, she was still not the opponent of that flying stone" Aunt Lin!"

Qin Hongyue is stunned at the smell of speech. The next moment, she is in front of her eyes and loses her consciousness.

At this time, there was a big bang. Under the command of Shi Fei, the three warships also launched an attack. Black beams of light burst out from the ship and burst under the protective light curtain of the merchant ship. The protective light curtain, which was almost broken, was even worse now. The whole merchant ship was shaking violently!

Aunt Lin stood up, threw a token to Ye Chen and said, "in the warehouse, there is a warship for escape. The crew and I will try our best to stop these pirates. The young lady will give it to you."

At present, she has no other choice but to believe in Ye Chen. Only this young man who can't see through her can create a miracle?

Ye Chen takes the token and takes a deep look at Aunt Lin, then silently picks up Qin Hongyue on the deck and turns to the warehouse.

After all, with both feet exerting force, the whole body Daoyun erupts, and the terrifying force condenses in the muscles, and it will rush directly to the merchant ship!

Aunt Lin watched Ye Chen's figure disappear in the dark. She turned her head slowly, her face flashed sharply, and her whole body became more and more powerful!

Shi Fei pushes hard on the top of the fierce beast, and the whole person seems to be incarnated as a black arrow, shooting at the merchant ship. The protective light curtain bursts in an instant!

Chapter 3949

But at this time, between heaven and earth suddenly appeared a flame giant, a five color fire around the huge fist, suddenly toward the flying stone!

Shi Fei's face changed and roared. His whole body was full of rhymes and roared out towards the flame giant!

But

This time, it was under the fire giant's fist that the palm print was instantly broken, and Shi Fei's body was blown upside down and fell into the sea water. The sound of bone breaking on his body could be heard!

The terrible pressure is surging from the flame giant's body. For a time, the pirates in the suppression area can't attack. They can only concentrate their efforts to open the curtain of defense to resist the pressure. Otherwise, most of the pirates on the ship will be directly reduced to blood mist and burst under the impact of this pressure!

At the moment, he was bloodstained and staring at the flame giant. He didn't expect that the woman who followed Qin Hongyue could still have such a powerful force?

Even if it was him, he would not be defeated, but it would also hurt the source!

The flame giant, standing between heaven and earth, did not continue to move.

Aunt Lin, who was in the giant's body, sighed. The reason why she didn't do it was that the flame giant was her last resort. She had only three opportunities to attack. It was the first time. It was almost impossible to kill Shi Fei with only three attacks

Therefore, she can only guard here, as long as possible to delay time!

Shi Fei's eyes flashed wildly in his blue eyes. Although he had guessed aunt Lin's plan, he didn't dare to fight again for a while after being hit just now!

The spirit power in his body whirled wildly, and his vitality gathered. While he was recovering from the injury, he was confronted with the flaming giant.

In the dark, the shadow of a flash, ye Chen holding Qin Hongyue, has come to the warehouse, a very beautiful construction of the blue warship, appeared in front of us.

He was about to use his token to urge the blue warship, but at this moment, ye Chen suddenly looked down, looked at the darkness behind the warship, and said coldly, "what are you doing here?"

After a moment's silence, a footstep sounds from the darkness. An ordinary looking young man with a faint smile on his face appears in front of Ye Chen, who is a sailor on the merchant ship!

The sailor said with a smile, "this childe, what do you want me to do? As a sailor of the northern Han chamber of Commerce, I can't let you take our young lady away like this. "

"Sailor?" Ye Chen disdained a smile and said, "you have been hiding in this warehouse since just now? Well, if there is a fight, this is the safest place. Is that what you do as a sailor?"

Is it because of you that the pirate regiment was able to determine the location of the merchant ship of Beihan chamber of Commerce? "

The sailor shrugged and said, "young master, this is your misunderstanding. I was ordered to guard here."

"Is it?"

A evil intention suddenly rises in Ye Chen's eyes. He says faintly: "do you need to hide your accomplishments to guard here? Heaven and earth? Do you think you can easily leave me with your own strength

On hearing this, the sailor's smile was stiff, and his face became gloomy in an instant, and there was no more randomness in the beginning.

Who is this boy? Even aunt Lin has not seen through his hidden cultivation. Why can this boy know?

For a time, the indifferent youth who he thought could easily crush him seemed to give him a very strange feeling!

"In heaven!" The sailor murmured, the turbulent Daoyun, instantly submerged the whole body, and the space changed. At the moment, ye Chen and he seemed to be in a deep mountain stream!

His combat experience was extremely rich, and he felt an inexplicable danger in an instant!

This sailor, named song Cheng, was a spy of the black fin Wang an who was planted in the Beihan chamber of Commerce many years ago. All along, he has been hiding his accomplishments, playing an ordinary sailor, waiting for such an opportunity!

If he did this vote successfully this time, he song Cheng would be a great hero of the black fin regiment! Although Shi Fei is cruel, he has clear rewards and punishments. He should be able to share a large part of the treasure on the merchant ship!

He could not save all these martial arts training resources as a sailor for ten thousand years. In the future, if he would leave the black fin regiment and live in the sinking moon sea, he would have no worries!

But, that was when Shi Fei was in a good mood

Song Cheng knows that Shi Fei may not really be able to see the treasure of the whole ship. For him, the most important thing is the first beauty of the North Sea on the merchant ship, Qin Hongyue!

If Qin Hongyue ran away, or ran with a man, let alone what treasure, Shi Fei was angry, and even killed himself directly!

Therefore, he must block Ye Chen here!

At least, we should hold on until stone fly or other members of the pirate regiment come! Ye Chen holds Qin Hongyue in one hand, and a dark sword appears in the other. At the next moment, a strange spirit and Hongmeng spirit burst out of Ye Chen's body. Even if he is in the heaven, the pupil of song city is still shrinking. The powerful evil spirit and the ancient method of Hongmeng even distort the power of law in the heaven and earth he controls!

But, this is just the beginning!

In that evil spirit, suddenly emerged a very evil breath!

Originally, the song city, whose expression is slightly relaxed after the display of himself, is now tensed up in an instant!

Looking at the master of Song Dynasty, it seems that he is not the master of the city!

Song Cheng knows that this is because the opponent's strength exceeds his own will appear ah!

How can a shoal contain a dragon?

Song Cheng's face was so white that he exclaimed, "how could this be so? Your cultivation is not..."

Ye Chen smiles coldly. Although he is wearing annihilation stone now, it is obvious that the song city is practicing some kind of secret skill similar to the Tongyuan method among the three methods of removing clouds. Therefore, he misjudged Ye Chen's strength.

Before the Song Dynasty, the reason why he faced Ye Chen so calmly was because he thought he had seen through Ye Chen?

Ye Chen didn't talk nonsense. He used the six exterminations real formula. His sword danced wildly, and he chopped toward the song city. Song city looked ugly and his wrist turned. He held a mountain axe. On the big axe, there was a strange wave, which resonated with the whole mountain stream, as if the mountain stream was chiseled by this axe!

Chapter 3950

With a strong wave of his hands, a shadow of an axe, he went towards the sword of Ye Chen!

There was a huge bang, and the whole free sky was shaking violently. The rocks cracked and the streams flowed backward. Even the cracks appeared in the space. The shadow of the axe was broken in an instant under the sword light of Ye Chen!

In Song Cheng's eyes, fear finally appeared: "heaven and earth How can you have the strength of heaven and earth I remember, it's you! The one who pretends to be Jidu God and sneaks into the West Sea is you

If he had known Ye Chen was the man who had sneaked into the West Sea, he would never have tried to stop him

Since ye Chen can defeat Jidu God, what's more, he has only one layer of heaven strength in heaven and earth?

Originally, in the eyes of song Cheng, ye Chen was just a little white face raised by Qin Hongyue. After all, he didn't even have the qualification to be a sailor because of his cultivation in the holy ancestral realm!

But who thought, where is this little white face?

But a demon in human skin!

Song Cheng's face changed wildly. He roared wildly and raised his axe to block the sword that had been cut towards him. There was another loud noise. His body flew upside down and spat out blood. However, with the blessing of the law, he barely blocked Ye Chen's attack. The next moment, his body flashed and he was about to flee directly!

Ye Chen's eyes are cold. Now, it is impossible for him to let song Cheng leave again. A red chain connects him with song city. He was ready to trap Ye Chen in the sky, but song Cheng, who was fleeing towards the position of the black fin pirates, suddenly tightened up and couldn't move forward!

He looked down at the red chain on his body, and his face was hard to see the extreme. He did not expect that he had been lurking for many years, and had been a servant of the northern Han chamber of Commerce for such a long time that he would come to such an end?

On the back of his back, the chill was wrinkled, and the breath of life and death came from behind. With a look of despair in Song Cheng's eyes, he turned around and looked at the rear. It was a long black sword to meet him!

At the next moment, ye Chen immediately started the blue warship with his token. With a flash of body, he boarded the bow of the ship and poured his spirit into the ship. The blue light of the warship flashed. The wall behind the warehouse opened slowly, forming an exit just enough for the warship to pass through.

The fierce wind and rain poured in from the opening, and the rolling sea surface seemed to indicate the ups and downs of their future.

Ye Chen's face is no fluctuation, without hesitation to drive the warship, into the storm!

A blue light separated from the merchant ship of the northern Han chamber of Commerce, broke through the encirclement of the three pirate ships in an instant, and headed for the distance at a high speed under the fierce waves.

The people on the pirate ship, though they wanted to chase them, could not move under the pressure of the flame giant.

On one of the pirate ships, a man with a shoulder injury suddenly looked and said something to the crew of the pirate ship.

When Aunt Lin saw this scene, she was glad to smile. She naturally felt the wave of Ye Chen's fight with song city. She knew Ye Chen had sneaked into the West Sea. Therefore, she was not surprised that ye Chen could defeat song city. However, what she didn't expect was that the battle was over so soon!

Shi Fei looked more and more gloomy and said, "this waste of song city!"

The beauty who got it, was taken away?

In Shi Fei's eyes, his anger becomes more and more intense, and finally he can't bear it. He doesn't care whether he will hurt the origin or not. He roars, and then he slaps again, towards the flame giant transformed by Aunt Lin!

Aunt Lin sighed a little, and her whole body was full of spiritual power. The flame giant, another punch, was pounding at the palm print!

There was a big bang, and the space was broken. Shi Fei spat blood again and stepped back several steps. But his eyes were bright!

It's getting weaker!

The power of the fire giant's strike has obviously decreased!

Although still let him hurt, but, but not to the source of injury ah!

At this time, the pressure of the three pirate ships suddenly eased, as if after the second strike, the flame giant could not even maintain the pressure

Seeing this, Shi Fei laughed wildly and said, "I'll give you this place, and others will chase me. Who can bring Qin Hongyue to see me? I'll reward you a lot!"

The pirates cheered, two of them, instantly disappeared the protective light curtain, will put all the power on the driving, chase Ye Chen's blue warship away!

Only one warship ignored Shi Fei's orders. Not only did he not mean to chase the blue warship, on the contrary, it protected the light curtain a bit more thick!

On the merchant ship, the fleshy sailor asked a slightly emaciated young man, "are you all ready?"

The young man nodded. They were not idle during the period when Aunt Lin dragged the pirate regiment.

The sailor, with his face full of flesh and blood, gently stroked a jade talisman. On top of it came a very childish girl's voice. She seemed to give someone a surprise cry: "it's daddy!" Then he said to Yufu, "Daddy! Are you going home? What kind of fun did dad bring to Xin'er this time? "

When the middle-aged sailor's face was full of flesh and blood, his eyes flashed the color of doting, but on the corner of his mouth, a lonely smile appeared. He said gently:

"Xin'er, my father will go far away this time, and I will go home later. Xin'er, when my father is away, you should listen to your mother's words, OK? When Dad comes home, he must It will bring Xin'er a lot of fun. "

The young girl seemed discontented to make a noise when she heard that her father would come back later.

The middle-aged sailor took a deep breath, squeezed the jade Fu into pieces, turned his head to the thin young man and said, "do it."

At the moment, Shi Fei's whole body was excited again, and he gave a slap at the flame giant. But this time, facing the attacking stone fly, the flame giant seemed to have not seen it. He rushed to the fierce beast, and thought of something. His pupil shrank and he yelled: "what are you going to do?"!? Stop for me

The fierce beast seemed to have sensed something, roared, and swept towards the flame giant!

Aunt Lin's eyes in the cold flash, with her strength now, can't kill Shi Fei, can kill this fierce beast, but has some assurance!

At the next moment, the flame giant ignored the palm print and tentacle that came towards him, and gave a hard blow to the head of the fierce beast!
