Chapter 7171

The day ends soon. Ye Chen needs to go back to Beimang ancestral land to meet Ren extraordinary. Moreover, according to the causal order, he speculates that the heavenly spirit of the demon ancestor is about to leave the body of the Zhetian demon emperor. At that time, the Zhetian demon emperor can return safely.

The heavenly spirit of the demon ancestor can't take the demon emperor to return to the old alliance. It can only rely on the loss of the soul species to complete the replacement of the container.

So he can't pose a fatal threat to the demon emperor.

"Remember, be careful."

Ye Chen told me.

He knew that ye Luo'er's life was still in the hands of the supreme goddess, so he had to go back and restore his life.

But at the same time, his heart was a little heavy. He was destined to break with the supreme daughter in the future.

What about ye Luo'er then?

So ye Chen began to layout from now on to help ye Luo'er get out of the control of the supreme daughter.

Ye Luo'er and ye Chen were reluctant to part with each other. Then they turned and fell into the void and disappeared into the space channel leading to the supreme world.

And ye Chen also turned around and returned to beimangzu.

Ren Feifan feels the breath of Ye Chen and has already stepped out of the cave to meet him. Xiao Huang and Ji Siqing are also waiting anxiously.

They were relieved to see ye Chen safe and sound.

"Ye Chen, what happened?"

Ren extraordinary asked immediately.

He made some effort to merge a trace of the power of the giant whale into the void, just to lead Ye Chen out and prevent them from getting lost.

But the day before, he lost contact with the power of the giant whale. He couldn't feel what had happened in the desolate place where there was no way of heaven.

No one knows what happened, but it will never be a good thing!

Ren Feifan is going to forcibly tear open the boundary wall of the void and enter it to rescue Ye Chen. At that time, ye Chen was just dragged out of the quagmire by Ye Luoer and returned to the real world.

Feel Ye Chen's breath of Ren extraordinary, this just relieved.

Ye Chen's message to him is: don't worry.

So Ren Feifan waited for his return in beimangzu.

Ye Chen told all the things he had experienced. When they heard that the spirit of the devil ancestor Wu Tian was attached to the devil emperor covering the sky and attacked Ye Chen, they couldn't help but pinch a cold sweat.

That's the spirit of the devil!

Even if only a trace emerges, it is absolutely irresistible to Ye Chen at this stage.

Later, ye Chen mentioned ye lu'er.

It was her timely action that saved his life.

Hearing the name, Ji Siqing looked a little strange, but he immediately returned to normal.

"It's all right!"

"Master, if you go out next time, take me with you! My fighting power is very strong now."

Xiao Huang swore and showed his teeth.

It's just not scary at all, but very cute.

So there was a burst of laughter.

Xiao Huang was a little depressed. He felt that as a divine beast, his majesty seemed to be unable to stop these people.

Ye Chen also smiled and then entered the cave to rest.

The next thing he has to do is wait for the return of the demon emperor.

At this moment, in the dark sea far away from beimangzu, a figure came to the unfathomable dark seabed.

There is silence here, only the faint sound of the rolling waves, which can hardly stimulate any spray.

The sea animals hidden in the deep sea will not roar. When they devour the enemy, they often attack suddenly, succeed instantly and silently.

However, the usually ferocious and violent sea animals are extremely quiet at this time.

Because there is a terrible presence at the bottom of the sea, they dare not provoke it at all.

A great figure came slowly and stayed above the trench.

At the deep sea, I don't know how many layers of broken void are mixed and gathered. It is very huge. Even if you are not careful, you may be trapped in the quagmire of Haiti and can't get out, so ordinary people rarely come here.

Now the man is the devil emperor who is controlled by the devil ancestor Wutian. A faint light wave appears all over his body.

This layer of light aperture is composed of the power of the soul. Everywhere, the space is squeezed into deformity.

Although those sea animals don't like sunshine and their brains are not fully developed, it doesn't mean they have no instinct.

They are very sensitive to unknown risks.

The law of the jungle, bullying the soft and fearing the hard, this is the instinct of any race!

At this time, if someone is in the deep sea, he can see such a strange scene.

A person walks naturally in Haiti without any sea animals coming to attack.

The spirit in the demon emperor covering the sky has gradually calmed down and allowed the demon ancestor Wutian to take him to the deep sea.

"Do you know what's on the bottom of the sea?"

The devil Zu Wutian suddenly asked, and he knew that the devil emperor would hear it.

The demon emperor was silent as if he had not heard.

"Tens of thousands of years ago, I built an array here, extracted the material of xuansha from the chaos of the deep sea and made a sword. At that time, I obtained the fire in the center of the earth, so I quenched it with the fire in the center of the earth, and the flame condensed into a solid form and became a guard array."

Mo Zu Wutian seemed to be talking to himself and said.

He manipulated the body of the demon emperor to come here today to take out such treasures.

For a long time, the voice of the demon emperor came out, cold and without any emotion.

"What treasure do you want to take, and what does it have to do with me?"

The evil ancestor smiled.

Chapter 7172

His next sentence made the spirit of the devil emperor stagnate.

"Because this treasure has something to do with you, or I made it for you ten thousand years ago. For my container, just take it out today."

The spirit of the devil emperor was squeezed into a dark corner, and the voice of the devil ancestor could still be clearly heard from the outside world.

He was locked in a barrier. Before, he used all his strength to attack the blockade, which helped Ye Chen delay some time.

Now he has no strength and can only stay in claustrophobic space.

Only when the magic ancestor's control time is over can he return to the noumenon.

At this time, he couldn't help being surprised to hear the words of demon Zu Wutian.

It is ridiculous that he should say that this treasure is made for himself!

Wutian knew he didn't believe it, so he waved his hand, and the sea waves rolled and changed suddenly.

It's like brilliant flowers growing in the swamp soil, and blood colored vines growing one after another on the huge seabed.

Or, it's a giant vine! Compared with the monsters in the deep sea, it is also strong and terrible.

There are hundreds of giant vines, like waving wild snakes, gushing out one after another.

The sea monsters within 100000 miles nearby smelled this smell. No matter how powerful overlord monsters were, they all ran away with their tails.

They have no courage to compete with such a terrible creature!

"It's so powerful!" even if the spirit was imprisoned, the demon emperor still felt the blood.

For a moment, my heart and hair trembled.

That was repression from the depths of the soul, which is enough to prove how powerful the taboo array laid here is.

"Hehe, do you feel the powerful power contained in it? I call the array here eternal soul eating array."

The so-called eternal is that after tens of thousands of years of vicissitudes, we continue to absorb the taboo power in the dark sea and turn it into our own use.

It can be said that once this eternal soul eating array comes out, the whole dark sea will produce a sharp vibration, which has a far-reaching impact on this domain.

Soul devouring represents the terrible degree of its integration with magic Qi.

Countless shuras, evil spirits and evil spirits gather here. For tens of thousands of years, the ferocious Qi carried by them has long become the original power of this eternal soul eating array!

Evil, darkness, terror.

It can be said that it brought together all the dark sides of the world to promote this array.

In front of the demon emperor, a picture slowly appeared. It was those huge bloody vines!

They are like tentacles, waving and spreading, but each tentacle is as high as tens of thousands of feet, not to mention thousands of miles wide.

Such a terrible scene, Rao shizha Tianmo emperor was well-informed and could not help but be shocked by it.

The demon emperor found that many ancient words and languages were printed and engraved on these bloody vines, which seemed to form a kind of Taoism. It was extremely huge and complex, and ordinary people couldn't understand it at all.

If you want to understand the composition of the array, you must understand what these runes mean!

"Let's see what is the purest method of darkness in the world. Compared with this, what is the so-called thirty-three days supreme skill? And the Hongmeng method, which is called the founding of the world, can't compete with it!"

Devil Zu wudian's temperament has always been calm and deep. Even so, there is still an uncontrollable excitement in his eyes at the moment.

Because this thing is about to be born!

The blood colored vines almost run through the whole dark sea area, like cast by the blood colored frenzy, hanging in the sea tide, incomparably bright.

The words of the great road contained therein are glittering and become more and more mysterious, as if they were born from the source.

Some sea animals with higher intelligence could see the characters on the bloody vines from a distance. They couldn't resist the temptation and began to describe them.

Those sea animals seemed to be aware of the Tao contained in it. It was very mysterious and mysterious. Suddenly, their hearts trembled and filled with incomparable desire.

At this time, a shrimp general hurriedly ran into the undersea palace and reported loudly: "Your Majesty, your majesty is bad! There is an abnormal situation on the undersea! It has spread to the vicinity of the palace. I'm afraid some sea animals have died."

At this time, Zhang tingling is staying in the sea spirit array to absorb the pure power of the seabed!

"Go out and have a look!"

Zhang tingling also noticed the concussion, and even the dark array guarding the undersea palace became shaking.

Otherwise, I'm afraid this place will be razed to the ground!

Zhang tingling took several of his generals to the edge of the dark forbidden array and observed the situation at the bottom of the sea from a distance.

The blood gas surged up and spread, and almost dyed the whole sea red.

"What the hell is that?"

Even in the distance, Zhang tingling still felt a faint death threat.

However, this breath temporarily appears in the uninhabited trench, which is still a long distance from the undersea palace.

In the distance, there are more sea fish, sea animals and sea monsters gathering there, like crazy.

With eager eyes, they stare at the ancient fonts and mysterious runes on those bloody vines. They want to understand, but the more they stare, the more mysterious they feel!

Chapter 7173

All kinds of creatures in the sea want to understand the mysterious words and symbols, but the facts are often unsatisfactory.

Every word has a kind of metaphysics, and contains an extremely terrible killing opportunity.

If the enlightenment cannot be broken within a limited period of time, the enlightened person will explode and die, and both form and spirit will be destroyed.

Many sea animals have been killed on the spot, with blood splashing and thick bloody gas filling the sea area.

But even so, it still can't stop these crazy creatures!

Some of them understood such words, had a clear understanding, and burst into a fiery golden light, and their strength went to a higher level.

The unicorn, whose skin is covered with dark red scales, has transformed into a golden color!

And itself, it has also transformed from an ordinary sea animal into a high-level creature. Its body has been enlarged and cast a large shadow. When it falls to the bottom of the sea again, it is like a volcano to suppress here, which makes countless monster animals both fear and envy.

However, more creatures were rushed to pieces by the powerful blood force, spitting blood and retreating.

Seeing this scene, the demon emperor of the sky was more sure of his mind!

This dark Dharma array comes from the immortal era! Or it may be born in a more ancient era.

The bloody vines rose into the sky and could hardly see the end.

At this time, the demon emperor finally saw the huge blood array, where there was a huge ancient sword.

"Look, when you absorb enough life power, this ancient sword will come out of its sheath, and it will belong to you and conclude a life contract with you!"

The devil Zu wudian opened his arms and endless blood rushed towards him, forming a huge barrier between heaven and earth.

The vines, rooted in the sea, lead to the void. Thousands of threads are dropped towards the demon ancestor Wutian, condensing into an unparalleled regular God chain, as if to pour all their strength into him.

The spirit of the demon ancestor Wu Tian floated out from the seven orifices of the demon emperor covering the sky!

It was the purest dark force, which fused with blood and gas and rushed out of the spirit cover of the demon emperor.

This time, it was like lighting a torch in the dark. The ancient sword in the center of the eternal soul eating array also made a buzzing vibration.

The ancient sword is dark all over. Even if it is kept deep in the array, it is still cold and shining. There are ridges in the sword body, and the blade is slightly curved and covered with black diamond dark patterns.

Like a Dark Dragon King sleeping here, he covered up all his edges.

If born, it will shock everywhere!

The sword seemed to resonate with the immortal spirit of the demon ancestor, and it was even separated from that array automatically.

Through the winding of vines, he cut through the void and came to the hand of the devil ancestor Wutian.

The dark eyes of Mo Zu wudian stared at the sword. They were reflected in the blue glass inlaid on the side of the sword, which seemed very mysterious and profound.

"The shining ancient sword finally fell into my hands. But after thinking about it, it seems that I haven't named you yet. It's called... Cutting the dragon to worship the heaven!"

Hearing the name, the demon emperor suddenly changed his face.

The devil Zu wudian said meaningfully: "in the future, you will use this sword to cut off the sky dragon soul and blood dragon controlled by the Lord of reincarnation, and send this sword into his heart pulse to avoid reincarnation in the next life."

"Don't think about it!" the demon emperor almost blurted out.

Mo Zu wudian was not in a hurry for a while, but smiled.

"That day will come. Why should you deceive yourself? Become my container! I will find a new body for you, follow around me and dominate the world. Even if you can't find the final Dharma in the world, it will be enough for you to live hundreds of thousands of years, below one person and above ten thousand people. Don't you want such a respected position?"

His words are so tempting that others will be moved when they hear them.

Because it was not others who made this promise, but one of the top powers in the world, the devil ancestor Wutian.

His followers have every reason to believe that the demon ancestor can climb to the top of the world!

The devil emperor was unmoved. He simply closed his eyes and didn't smell the things outside the window.

No matter how the demon ancestor persuaded him, he stood still.

"Since you don't want advice, I won't force it for the time being. Do something for me! I can tell you a secret."

"What?"

The demon emperor of the sky raised his eyes slightly.

The devil Zu wudian said a few words gently, but the devil emperor did not agree.

"Want me to do this for you? No way! Your spirit has been exhausted. In two hours, you can't continue to dominate my body."

The devil's attitude is very tough. He will never work for the devil's ancestors.

Mo Zu wudian seemed to have expected such a result, smiled faintly and closed his eyes.

His spirit is dissipating and is about to return to the noumenon.

With such spirits scattered together, there is the eternal soul eating array.

After the array eyes were pulled away, there was no need for the ancient array to continue its power. Countless bloody vines gradually calmed down and fell into a deep sleep, waiting for the arrival of the next array hub.

The endless sea was calm again, as if nothing had happened.

.....

Beimangzu land, in the void near it, ye Chen is practicing.

He got half of the formula of the mother sword of all things and distributed a part of the crown of thorns.

Even if the crown of thorns is a nine heaven divine skill, its power will be greatly reduced after it becomes incomplete.

He had tried to combine the offensive of the three heavenly swords into one and turn it into a powerful attack force.

Now, you can also try to integrate two nine heavenly divinities.

Since the power of the Heavenly Sword can be integrated and promoted each other, there must be some connection between the nine heavenly divinities.

At first, he used a thousand towers palm. The vast palm power was printed in the void and exuded the majestic power to frighten the heart and soul.

At the same time, he took out the crown of thorns and tried to integrate the two hegemonic forces.

Of course, the final result was failure and almost detonated.

This also proves that not all nine heavenly divinities can be integrated. Otherwise, since ancient times, so many top powers, why not try such fusion spells.

Ye Chen seems to understand.

As soon as his eyes coagulated, he summoned the crown of thorns again. The thick blood filled between heaven and earth, almost condensed into a substantive blood light, full of oppression.

Then ye Chen closed her eyes and felt the power contained in it.

After about two hours, he summoned the formula of the mother sword of all things, and the continuous chaotic breath quietly overflowed and dispersed into thousands of rays of light.

At this point, ye Chen was suddenly surprised.

Chapter 7174

The crown of thorns and the formula of mother sword of all things have reached a delicate balance at the moment.

One Yang, one Yin, one hardness, one softness, one advance and one retreat.

There is an incomparable tacit understanding between the two. The powerful forces dominated by each other have a tendency to gather slowly.

Ye Chen quickly seized this opportunity and controlled the two nine heavenly divinities here!

He snapped, waved his palm, with a hazy glow, and cut the void in half.

The invisible ties were immediately concluded, shrouded, and produced unprecedented changes.

Two nine heavenly divinity skills, one side of the sword Qi soars into the air, thunder bursts, like a long river of emptiness, come vertically and horizontally, and smash and fall fiercely!

As soon as the formula of the mother sword of all things changed from normal, it became extremely fierce and domineering.

The thunder sea exploded, deafening, and the whole void shook violently, as if some terrible beast was coming.

In contrast, the crown of thorns, the stars that originally appeared around it, became dim, and the rotating sun, moon and stars shrank to the size of the palm.

This static movement, the two poles reversed, so that ye Chen was also a little stunned.

But soon he seemed to understand, and there was a surprise in his eyes.

"I see! The nine heavenly divinities can also be integrated with each other!"

Ye Chen's body burst out shining, and his eyes were bright, completely seeing everything through!

I see. He understands!

The nine heavenly divinities can also fuse and change their power at any time.

The mother sword formula of all things and the crown of thorns, these two nine heavenly divinities, have existed in the dark sea for a long time and are ownerless things. There has long been an illusory connection between the dark and the dark.

In addition, these two nine heavenly divinities have weakened some of their strength and become better controlled.

With this movement, the two nine heavenly divinities slowly approached, just like the flow of stars.

Boom!

The sky is shrouded and thunder and lightning roar. The integration of these two nine heavenly divinities can be said to be extremely useful, earth shaking and frightening.

Endless light, as if there were thousands of rolling clouds, completely submerged here.

Like the complete eruption of one volcano after another, even the nightmare people in beimangzu felt such a shock.

The elders of the nightmare Protoss went out one after another. They thought there was a powerful enemy coming.

Ren Feifan and others also walked out of the cave and looked at the red flame looming in the void.

"Where's the enemy... I'll tear it up today, but... The smell seems a little familiar?"

Xiao Huang, who changed into a combat form, was originally motivated by war, but finally became confused.

Qiang!

There was a flaming rosefinch behind him and patted him on the head.

"Why did you hit me?"

Xiao Huang asked strangely.

"There is no enemy attack, but your master is understanding the magic, which makes such a movement."

Ji Siqing, with a pair of eyes, had already seen through the mystery here and couldn't help but say.

"Master?" Xiao Huang was stunned.

Even the ancestors of the nightmare family are afraid of such visions of heaven and earth. Is it really caused by the master?

Ji Siqing looked at the far sky and fell into meditation.

"Ye Chen, ye Chen, how much effort do I have to make to catch up with you..."

"When you were in Kunlun, you looked up to me. How weak you were at that time."

"When I first saw you, you couldn't even practice. Who would have thought you would become the Lord of reincarnation shaking the world."

"However, fate is really amazing. Although I haven't awakened my memory, I always feel that I know you. We've met many times. I also know that you will let me look up, and I just want to stay by your side."

"This is life, reincarnation and destiny. These two words are really too mysterious."

"At that time, in Kunlun virtual, I often dreamed of a psychedelic shadow. She told me that because of you, I could dominate my destiny and my own destiny. Now staying with you may be my real destiny..."

"That's nice."

In the void crack of beimangzu land, Ren extraordinary is floating in white. Although many cracks burst here, he can't disturb his appearance of dust.

"How dare you want to integrate two nine heavenly divinities? Good guy, how dare you be so bold. Looking at this trend, it seems that you are going to succeed?"

Ren Feifan showed a pleased smile on his handsome face.

Since ancient times, no matter which era, some people want to combine the two top divine arts into one to see whether they can play a greater power.

But the final results are negative to positive, not only did not get a more powerful move, but he suffered a counterattack.

The great Qi luck of the Lord of reincarnation also appears at this moment. Since ancient times, who can obtain two kinds of nine heavenly divinities at the same time?

And who can combine the two when both sides are weakened?

Hongjun's ancestor didn't do it, and the feather Emperor didn't succeed.

On his own, he finally gave up such ideas.

It takes courage, courage and wisdom, in addition to luck and opportunity, to take this path to the extreme.

Perhaps the future of the new world depends on Ye Chen.

In the short moment when Ren was particularly absent-minded, a strange arc fell from the sky. Unexpectedly, it broke through the void and came to the top of Ye Chen's head.

At the moment, ye Chen was holding the thorny sword with the intersection of red and white, watching it carefully.

Chapter 7175

It is the product of the integration of the crown of thorns and the mother sword formula of all things.

In an instant, the sword bloomed endlessly, helping Ye Chen resist the arc.

Ye Chen raised her eyes and showed her evil spirit.

There are strange visitors, and the strength is not weak.

Ren Feifan's reaction was faster. He offered two divine swords at that moment. The immortal Qi was flowing, and he was going to break the blockade of this void thunder arc.

"Hehe, don't be nervous. I just came to talk to this little guy."

Hearing this sound, Ren extraordinary's footsteps stopped immediately.

He put away the two magic swords.

"Oh, are you even shocked? I remember you tried this method of integration at the beginning, but then failed."

Ren Feifan smiled and said faintly.

It's the Empress Dowager!

Hearing Ren Feifan's words, the Empress Dowager was not angry.

"Yes, it's reasonable that I can't finish what even old ancestor Hongjun didn't do, but it was achieved by this little guy. I'm more and more satisfied with him."

The voice of the heavenly daughter was full of laughter.

The stronger Ye Chen becomes, the more magical powers she understands, and the more it proves that her "pig raising" plan is correct.

"I'll give you a incense stick." Ren Feifan said.

"Don't worry, I don't want to go to war with you for the time being."

The voice of the heavenly daughter gradually disappeared into the void.

Of course, ye Chen also noticed the smell of the supreme goddess, but what came here at this time was a puppet.

This is also a friar who has reached the half step heavenly king. Unfortunately, now he is occupied by the will of the supreme daughter and can only be reduced to a puppet.

"Heavenly daughter, why did you come here?"

Ye Chen looked up and down at the puppet and asked.

The heavenly daughter smiled.

"You almost abducted my own disciple and asked me why I came here?"

Ye Chen was immediately embarrassed.

After all, she's telling the truth.

The voice of the heavenly daughter was only cold for a moment, and soon she became smiling again.

"But then again, you are so talented and savvy that even I am greedy. I am reluctant to kill you. What's more, you are still the love of Luo'er. She would rather be sent to the devil killing secret place by me than hurt you. Tut Tut, great emotion."

Hearing the words of the supreme daughter, Ye Chen immediately understood why she was secretive and hesitant when he asked Ye Luoer about this period of time.

She survived such a dangerous experience alone!

The demon slaying secret place is a famous dark forbidden area. Most of the people who are involved in it are disciples of the supreme world family who have made great mistakes.

Most of the people who enter them have no return.

How desperate should Ye Luoer be in the dark?

Thinking of this, Ye Chen couldn't help squeezing her fist.

"Don't be angry. I threw her into the devil killing secret place, but without my secret assistance, do you think she can get out? I gave her another chance, but this girl really doesn't know what's good or bad."

"This time, she helped you escape. Maybe she knows that I won't do it until you die."

What the supreme lady said is naturally the order she gave to yeluo'er.

Let Ye Luoer send Ye Chen on the road with the flower of dawn!

This is obviously the opposite.

After all, in this world, the supreme daughter can be said to be one of the people who don't want Ye Chen to die early.

Ye Chen didn't answer. The heavenly daughter suddenly came here. I'm afraid it's not just chatting with him.

"If you have anything, just say it." Ye Chen came straight to the point.

"You know me best. Hehe, I just want to tell you that I can not kill Ye Luoer or investigate what she has done in the past."

"But you have to promise me one condition."

Ye Chen quickly answered, "you say."

"You can't investigate the matter of tianhunzi. Can you promise?"

When ye Chen heard this, his eyes narrowed slightly.

The words of the supreme daughter of heaven almost confirmed that the division of the spirit of tianhunzi was related to it.

What kind of secret is hidden in this? Let the heavenly daughter not hesitate to come forward in person to stop Ye Chen's exploration.

And ye chenpin has another taste in the words of the heavenly daughter: ye Luo'er's life and death are in her hands.

If ye Chen wants ye Luo'er to live, he must listen to her and stop meddling in the matter of tianhunzi.

"OK, I promise you."

Ye Chen hesitated for a long time and finally nodded.

The question just asked by the supreme daughter of heaven implicitly contains the power of heaven.

If ye Chen promised, he would comply with the way of heaven and promise reincarnation.

But at this time, he had no choice.

For the secret of tianhunzi's soul, his attention only stays at the level of interest, which can not be compared with Ye Luo'er's life.

On the contrary, after the Empress Dowager said this, ye Chen breathed a sigh of relief.

The promises of heaven are mutual.

The words said by the Empress Dowager mean that she has an agreement with Ye Chen in the future. As long as ye Chen doesn't break the agreement, she can't take ye Luo'er's life.

"Well, that's obedient!"

The supreme daughter was very satisfied.

"If there's nothing wrong, you can go first. I have to continue to practice." Ye Chen directly ordered to leave.

"Oh? I also brought a secret to tell you. Since you don't want to hear it, I'll go first."

“.....”

"Hehe, if I don't tease you, I'll tell you the truth. Your little confidant who died in the xuanhai has a chance to save her life."

As soon as this word came out, ye Chen's pupils immediately shook.

But he soon returned to normal.

We can know what happened in xuanhai by a little deduction of cause and effect. It is not difficult to know with the skill of the supreme goddess.

Ye Chen is surprised that the supreme daughter has the secret of sun Yerong's resurrection.

"How did you know?"

Ye Chen rubbed his chin and thought deeply.

"You don't have to worry about it. I can only tell you that there is a place in the xuanhai sea called the tear pool. Few people know that the key to resurrecting your little lover is in this tear pool."

Something floated out of the puppet's sleeve robe and slowly landed in front of Ye Chen.

Ye Chen fixed her eyes and saw that it was a blue lotus seed hanging in the void, shrouded in a light blue cyclone, forming several eddies in the hub of the lotus seed.

Even if it is only a small lotus seed, ye Chen can feel extremely strong power from it.

"When you get to xuanhai, this lotus seed will guide you and find the location of the tear pool. Few people in the world have heard of the tear pool, but it is the secret treasure left by Hongjun's ancestor and Jianjia fairy."

Hearing this, ye Chen looked moved.

Chapter 7176

When he stayed in the xuanhai, he really didn't hear anyone mention the so-called tear pool.

Even the virtual shadow left by Hongjun's ancestor has not been mentioned, or that virtual shadow doesn't know!

But why did the supreme daughter sell him?

Without waiting for ye Chen to think carefully, the power of heaven on the puppet slowly dissipated and returned to the supreme world again.

Finally, the words left by the Empress Dowager floated over.

"I have to remind you that you may get an unexpected surprise with the little girl Ji Siqing."

"Some pieces are not just the fate of the pieces."

Chess piece, destiny?

The chess piece in the mouth of the heavenly woman refers to Ji Siqing?

What does Ji Siqing's fate have to do with xuanhai?

Ye Chen couldn't understand it.

Ye Chen still wants to continue to ask, but at this time, the consciousness of the heavenly daughter has returned to the world.

Come and go in a hurry, like fog and shadow like wind.

"This damn woman!"

Ye Chen couldn't help scolding.

The Empress Dowager is thoughtful, resourceful and moody. No one can guess what she is thinking at the bottom of her heart.

But one thing ye Chen can confirm.

The heavenly daughter can't talk nonsense! I won't lie to him.

Or, she doesn't have to come here to Tell ye Chen a lie!

If she says something, it must have deep meaning.

After the power of the goddess dissipated, Ren extraordinary came through the void.

"Are you okay?"

Ren extraordinary immediately asked.

Ye Chen shook her head and immediately told Ren Feifan what the lady of heaven had just said!

Ren Feifan was silent for a moment and said, "then listen to her. Maybe you can go to xuanhai again."

"OK! But we have to make some preparations."

Ye Chen returned to the ancestral land of Beimang and came to the broken space to discuss the mystery of thorn Blood Sword with Ren extraordinary.

Ye Chen was also surprised by such integration.

He could feel that after the fusion of the two supernatural powers that had originally ranked at the end of the nine heavenly divinities, their divine power was equal to that of his qianchonglou palm.

Ye Chen devotes herself to cultivation. After a few days, he has mastered the mystery of this divine skill and can merge, split and transform it freely at any time.

He came to Ji Siqing's cave. After discussing with him, Ji Siqing promised to enter the xuanhai with him.

"Elder Ren, although I can enter xuanhai at will now, the Jianjia sword sect may have some action on the space entrance last time. In case, I'm afraid you need to guard the space barrier for us this time."

Ren Feifan didn't refuse.

With his strength, it's nothing to open up a channel at the intersection of xuanhai and the world of heaven.

Just before they were ready to enter the xuanhai sea, they unexpectedly appeared and the emperor of the devil came back!

Not only was he not injured, but he also had a powerful weapon in his hand.

The long sword carved with dark patterns is like the original life of the incarnation of the eternal demon God. The demon gas emitted faintly is frightening.

Ye Chen hurried to meet him and confirmed that it was after the devil emperor came back.

Although he knew that the devil would not worry about his life, he would still worry.

Over the past few days, Yuchi Yao, who has been depressed, finally showed a smile.

"Just come back!"

Yuchi Yao smiled.

"Now that you're back, have a good rest here!"

Ye Chen wants the demon emperor to practice in beimangzu and solidify the art of vertical heaven.

But the demon emperor flatly refused.

"You need help now! The sword in my hand may help!"

Ye Chen dissuades him, but the demon emperor has decided to follow him into the xuanhai.

The devil Zu wudian exhausted his power to seize the soul this time. As long as he covered the sky, the devil emperor would not allow him to come to him again for at least three years.

Of course, if it is allowed, it is another case.

The demon emperor wanted to help Ye Chen while he was still strong!

After all, he owes Ye Chen too much.

Especially not long ago, with his help, the devil Zu Wutian secretly shot Ye Chen, which made the devil emperor feel infinite guilt.

Only by helping Ye Chen can we weaken this guilt.

Ye Chen had no choice but to let him accompany him. Immediately, the three entered the road to xuanhai.

Ye Chen hid his breath, and no one would know that the devil emperor and Ji Siqing had been here in the future.

This time, they came to the vast grassland.

When ye Chen first entered xuanhai, he came here. At that time, he was saved by the girls of the grassland tribe.

At this time, it is a return to the hometown.

However, without going far, ye Chen noticed the abnormality. The huge city standing in the grassland was covered with black clouds, which almost drowned the whole city!

"There is something wrong here. Let's go and have a look!"

The three immediately urged the art of space. In just two or three seconds, they came to the 10000 meter range of the huge city. They saw that there were black clouds in the sky, which came like a tornado, and all the troubled times were destroyed, and the vision was terrible.

The array shrouded in the grassland has been broken and several gaps have been opened.

The monsters with three heads and six arms and strange shapes are launching a crazy attack on the giant city on the grassland. Their hands, mouths, eyes and nose are scattered all over their body, distorted and strange in shape.

The scene in front of us was that they were marching in a ferocious attack.

Chapter 7177

The grassland man in the huge city is struggling to resist.

Most of the monks on the grassland focus on physical cultivation and can't manipulate the magic method.

Therefore, countless hand to hand battles broke out inside and outside the city.

Those men burst into bright light, waved huge fists, one by one, and smashed these monsters into meat sauce.

But the monsters seem endless and tireless. As long as they seize a few opportunities, they will expose their hands, feet and fangs, bite their opponents, not only tear the flesh, but also hurt the gods and souls.

Where have the men who cultivate the body quenched the spirit? They knew nothing about this method, so when their souls were damaged, they lost their fighting power, screamed and fell to the ground.

"Come on! Let's get together quickly. Don't let these monsters find a chance to besiege us. In that case, they will die!"

The leader of the grassland tribe is like a golden arhat, surrounded by white light, forming a powerful force that shocks all directions.

Thousands of monsters gathered together, under such a huge and glorious explosion, turned into ashes and almost disappeared in an instant.

The leader bit his teeth and two thunders broke out in his eyes, penetrating the whole defense array.

The thunder swept away the monsters within tens of miles and formed an open area.

Seeing this, those grassland men who were struggling to support rushed over immediately and were blocked by many monsters all the way. They staggered and suffered many wounds.

"Want to gather people for defense? It's not that easy!"

These monsters also have powerful existence, and immediately stretch out eight arms.

His body was full of magic Qi, like a towering cloud. There was a white eye in the palm of each arm.

Those pale eyes, bursts of beams of light, almost roared and ran, enough to penetrate the wasteland and tear the sky.

This beam of light swept across, and everywhere they went, those grassland men were smashed into powder!

The leader of the prairie wanted to split his eyes. He was distressed, but there was nothing he could do.

Those are his carefully trained men! Loyal and close as brothers.

Now they die one by one in front of him. How can he accept it.

Among the vast crowd, there is a beautiful red skirt, which is also planning to escape into his field.

That's his daughter!

But it's too late!

He could only watch his daughter die and fall into the yellow spring.

In the palm of the eight armed monster, the eyeball trembled and made a strange laugh.

Dong!

At this time, the eight armed demon's laser seemed to encounter an invisible wall. The sky high offensive suddenly stopped and was crushed into dust almost in an instant.

And the wall is like a Kunpeng spreading its wings, straight up to the sky, one white and one red spread rapidly, and turned into a rainbow like sky sword. The left side is shining and holy, and the right side is as bloody as magic.

The two breath contains the Taoist rules of the transformation of yin and Yang. It is simple and spiritual. It is born by embracing Yin and Yang, as if it came from ancient time and space.

The sword Qi between the two poles makes many demons and ghosts unbearable. It contains the most essential energy of the world. It is terrible and released, shaking them into wisps of black light.

The eight armed monster, aware of the dangerous momentum, quickly jumped into the air and narrowly avoided the sword.

Just a sigh of relief, eight eyes turned down and suddenly became angry.

Because almost all the troops it brought were killed in the light of that sword.

In a short moment, it became the lightpole commander.

"I..."

The eight armed monster was angry and scolded, but no human could understand the language it spoke.

Many imprisoned soldiers also found this scene, and their eyes showed hope one after another.

Reinforcements are here! They're saved.

When the radiance of the divine sword gradually dissipated, three figures slowly appeared. The leader was a young man in black robe. His face was beautiful and his eyes were calm.

Although he didn't release much powerful Reiki energy, the seeming momentum made people look majestic and magnificent.

On its left is another evil man standing with his hands on his back. There is a dark golden streamer on his arm.

Those streamers turned into thin needles, shuttled out, dense, and pierced the heads of many demons.

On the far right is a woman in a red dress. She seems to be the goddess of war who fell from the sky. She is burning the fire of rosefinch. She is valiant, beautiful and frightening.

The appearance of these three people was extremely high-profile and attracted the attention of almost everyone in the battlefield. Even the two sides in the fierce battle stopped at the same time.

Led by Ye Chen, he slowly landed and came to the grassland girl.

"Are you all right?" he asked.

After the grassland girl was surprised, she was pleasantly surprised.

"It's you! Haven't you left xuanhai yet?"

Of course she remembered that ye Chen was the young man she had saved.

At that time, she saw that the young man was strong.

After a while, when we met again, his strength seemed to be stronger than before.

"You look so energetic. I think it's all right."

Ye Chen said with a smile.

The girl's face turned red. I don't know why. When ye Chen came, her hanging heart was put down.

But ye Chen is still so young! The two people around him look young. Can they deal with so many demon armies?

Several people were laughing and talking below, which made the eight armed monster lose face.

"Bold! Who allowed you to do it at will!"

The eight eyes of the eight armed monster rotate together and show their ferocity, which is extremely frightening.

The boy killed so many of his men by magic.

Who can bear it.

And there are so many people watching! The other party turned a blind eye to him and looked down on him too much!

The body of the eight armed monster has changed dramatically. Behind it, there is a boundless black tide and violent turbulence, just like the devil's gas. I don't know how many miles it has traversed.

The huge and boundless black waves came like night.

The whole city was submerged in the dark as ink!

The eight armed monster is very powerful. It is also the commander of the Allied forces and leads the team to attack the grassland city.

Ye Chen looked at these monsters and remembered the day when he first came to xuanhai and saw their invasion!

These guys do not seem to belong to the world of heaven, but come from another world.

Led by the eight armed demon God, his strength has vaguely stepped into the level of half a step Tianjun. No wonder the array of this huge city can't resist.

Such a strong person really needs to look up to the existence of grassland tribes in marginal areas.

Chapter 7178

But ye Chen didn't take it in his eyes.

"Blood dragon, this guy is yours. Hurry up."

Ye Chen didn't even have an interest in playing with him. He directly asked the blood dragon to solve it.

"Yes, master!"

The blood dragon turned out from the Longyuan Heavenly Sword, and its tail caught the sword, lifted up in the air, and the blood light flowed, smashing the black fog like a hurricane.

Boom!

Only a loud noise was heard.

The boundary formed by the fog emitted by countless monsters was smashed. Suddenly, those monsters fell like birds, vomited black blood, and their breath was listless.

The power of blood dragon will show in a moment!

The strengthened blood dragon has no difference in blood power from the top dragon family.

Even in the aspect of evil spirit, it is more ferocious than the so-called nobles such as the purple gold dragon.

For the black wave summoned by the eight armed monster, the blood dragon snorted coldly, soared up, and the blood turned into a long river, rising one by one, from emptiness to reality.

In an instant, thousands of blood shadows, like rough waves, broke and rolled out, penetrated into the black wave, destroyed the withered and decadent, and made no progress.

The eight armed monster who controlled the black tide was immediately hit hard, spit out a big mouthful of black blood, and his eyes were filled with horror.

"You... Who are you? You're not from xuanhai! People from xuanhai can't have such divine power!"

Ye Chen disdained to curl his lips and didn't bother to talk to him.

The blood dragon's fighting spirit is high. A pair of dragon eyes are filled with blood, and the breath is more and more amazing.

It is not easy to encounter a devourable opponent. Where will it miss such opportunities.

"You... Don't come here!"

The blood gas of the blood dragon seems to have a natural suppression on the eight armed monster. It is born from the phase and is brilliant.

Not only the men on the grassland, but also the magic army under the eight armed monster was stunned. They just looked at their leader being chased and killed by a blood dragon.

The situation was reversed in an instant!

Ye Chen and others went directly back to the palace to have a rest, and didn't take the fruits of the war to heart at all.

Seeing the trend of fighting like this, many grassland men were aroused again.

"Kill!!! kill those who destroy our homes!"

"Ha ha, God helps me Xile tribe!"

"Tianma Wuti, open!"

The soldiers of the Xile tribe set off a frenzy of counterattack.

Although they were few, their momentum was like a rainbow. They were out of control. Almost at the same moment, the infinite force of emptiness gathered and formed a mighty offensive.

It turned out that ye Chen waved a despotic spirit to help them crush the past and rush the dense demon army into scattered places, while the arrogant demon army fled in a hurry.

"Siler will win!"

"Siler will win!"

“.....”

In the huge city on the grassland, tens of thousands of men roared in unison, and with the momentum rolling in, they condensed a violent fist.

This fist opened the mountains, Pingjiang River, the sun and moon were reversed, and the stars were willing to fall.

The wind is howling, the wind is strong and the grass is strong.

Driven by Ye Chen's hegemonic power, they launched a fierce blow and completely broke the magic gas hurricane above their heads.

At this time, the blood dragon also beat the eight armed monster to death, and it was about to completely devour it, but who knew that the body of the eight armed monster turned into a streamer and ran towards the entrance of the alien world!

Left a body in place.

It actually used the method of golden cicada shelling!

This method can only be used when running away in a hurry. Generally, some powerful people disdain to use it.

The blood dragon snorted coldly, and it was too lazy to chase after it. With a pat on its tail, it smashed the residual body, and then divided a round of blood light to devour it all.

This remnant left 70% of the power of the eight armed monster, and the remaining 30% turned into a spirit to escape.

But that's enough for the blood dragon.

The soldiers were not defeated. The general fled first. Suddenly the tree fell and Hu sun scattered. Those magic armies also gave up their attack and fled to the entrance of the foreign world.

The men of the Xile tribe waved their fists and cheered.

They won the battle of defense!

But all the credit comes down to one person!

Thinking of this, many grassland men looked up and looked at the top of the palace.

Even the grassland leader was excited.

He had seen Ye Chen's strength before. At that time, he only thought Ye Chen had excellent talent, but he didn't expect Ye Chen's cultivation to reach such a terrible state!

"Several adults! Please come this way!"

The grassland leader sent someone to repair the array, and he returned to the palace with Ye Chen.

"Chief, where do these strange groups come from?"

Ye Chen couldn't help asking.

Because he thought of the strange demon family in the sword meteorite space. At that time, he destroyed it. He also said that my Protoss would come.

Ye Chen guessed that the guy must have something to do with the foreign demon clan!

Then ye Chen talked to the grassland leader, during which he asked about the recent trend in xuanhai.

According to the grassland leader, xuanhai seems to have lost some kind of prohibition. Recently, many people have entered it and claim to be looking for the nine heavenly gods.

They can also feel that the prohibition of xuanhai has weakened.

More importantly, there seems to be some unrest within the Jianjia sword school, which directly led to the weakening of the dominance of Jianjia sword school in xuanhai.

Chapter 7179

Accompanied by the chaotic times like wild grass.

Xuanhai leizong and dari Zong, two ambitious sects, are ready to move.

Other small and medium-sized sects have also opened a new round of reshuffle, competing for territory and resources. The means they use are very bloody.

The whole xuanhai is in such turmoil. Who else will take care of their small grassland tribe?

After xuanhai's prohibition became weaker, the demon clan outside the territory made a comeback and broke the prohibition array of the grassland city.

If ye Chen hadn't come to save them in time, I'm afraid they would have become the dead souls of those monsters.

"In the first month, we stayed here and even sent a distress signal to Jianjia sword sect, but no one came in the end..."

The grassland leader looked gloomy.

They can survive for more than a month, all by themselves.

Hearing this, ye Chen vaguely felt that something was wrong.

Even if the interior of xuanhai is chaotic again, won't we consider the safety of the border?

Those monsters may make a comeback at any time. Depending on their scale, only one of them attacked the grassland city just now.

I don't know how many monsters are watching!

"The strength of those guys is very strange. I'm afraid it's hard to deal with those coming back! You'd better leave quickly!"

Ji Siqing toured around and expressed his judgment.

She always speaks straight, and it's also for the sake of the siler tribe.

However, the grassland leader smiled, shook his head and refused.

"I won't go. This is the territory that has raised the Xile family for thousands of years, and our soldiers in Xile have ancestral blood flowing in their bodies. They exist against these demons!"

They have lived here for generations and take it as an honor to defend their homeland.

If they leave, what about the ordinary people in the city? And what about the residents behind the city!

They don't like such ungrateful and inhuman sects as Jianjia sword sect, and they can't give up their feelings for the grassland.

Ye Chen looked around and saw a strong look in the eyes of the grassland men of the Xile family.

Ye Chen knows that he can't change these people's beliefs.

So my heart was filled with respect!

In this era of great changes in the world of the heavens, there are bustling people, all for the sake of profit. Few people can adhere to their inner beliefs.

The soldiers of Xile, although their strength is not strong, their spirit is far more than that!

After discussing with Ji Siqing, the demon emperor covering the sky, ye Chen decided to help them.

Ye Chen used the power of Brahma's divine skill: array formula.

The array formula is not only used to kill trees, but also used to build fortifications.

As long as it is integrated with the basic array structure, an unbreakable divine array can be born!

It happened that the ancient array of this huge grassland city was left by the ancestors of siler.

In those years, their ancestors arrived at an ancient relic and accidentally got a mysterious array. Therefore, they brought it back and improved it into a city guarding array.

Although the array was smashed by those ghosts, the basic structure is still there.

Ye Chen's divine consciousness was released and reached every corner of the city.

He has memorized the pattern of the array and formed a shadow in his mind.

The array word formula is like a shadow, quickly filling the incomplete part of the structure.

Soon, the huge array guarding the city was set up again and was stronger than ever before.

In addition to the unbreakable defense, there are also columns of troops sitting on the array, as if they were ready to fight at any time.

Ye Chen integrated the power of the word formula into it, and the power of Brahman's divine skill initially appeared. Those soldiers seemed to live and formed a powerful defense array around the huge city on the grassland.

And under the roar of the same voice, a strong airflow was formed, which went straight to the high altitude and evolved the vision of wild ancient animals. Several wild giants at the imperial level can almost resist the whole force of the magic army!

"The array... Was repaired, and it was so complete..."

Some soldiers of Xile tribe marveled at it, and many people stood under the newly established array and felt the roaring power coming from their faces, which immediately shocked their hearts.

They had never seen such power before, and they couldn't help feeling excited.

"With this array, we can keep the Xile family worry free for ten years."

Ye Chen said.

The grassland leader was very grateful. He was ready to die, but since Ye Chen shot, they would be saved.

After helping them repel the demon army, ye Chen and others will also leave. The xuanhai is now in chaos. It flows quietly in the light, but there is a virtual flow in the dark.

He had a clear understanding of the situation in xuanhai and made an analysis.

"The chaotic situation may be more favorable for us!"

Soon they left the huge grassland city and went to the center of xuanhai.

"The mysterious sea seems more suitable for cultivation than the outside world." Ji Siqing felt the aura in the air and said in surprise.

The cultivation of martial arts is also directly related to the cultivation field.

If the place where you are is a treasure land of geomantic omen, there will be a steady flow of aura, and your accomplishments will also advance by leaps and bounds and grow rapidly.

However, if the place where you are is thin and the laws of heaven and earth are missing, the cultivator cannot get his own understanding from it.

The demon emperor also felt the abnormality. He inhaled a light aura into his body and swam away in the meridians. That light white aura turned into a thick black fog.

Ye Chen and Ji Siqing were slightly surprised at this.

They haven't practiced the evil way. They don't know that the aura here can be directly absorbed by the evil way.

"Logically, this should not happen."

Ji Siqing was surprised.

She has seen many strange places in the world of heaven, but it is the first time for her to see such aura that can be absorbed directly without transformation.

"That's the truth." the emperor turned his palm and saw a black fog surging in the muscles and veins on his arm.

Then it gathered in the palm of your hand and became a charming blooming black rose.

He didn't even need to use his magic heart. He could use such magic means only by instinct.

It can be seen that the aura is no different from the normal modification for demon cultivation.

Thinking of this, the three seemed to understand why the demon clan outside the territory was persistent in attacking xuanhai and wanted to capture the tribes and cities on the grassland.

After all, this place is so attractive!

"Let's go. Don't worry about this problem. How is Reiki formed? What changes have taken place in it? I'm afraid only heaven knows!"

"We have something important to come to xuanhai."

Chapter 7180

Ye Chen took out the blue lotus seed from his arms and let it be held up by an inexplicable force and suspended quietly in the air.

This lotus seed was left by Hongjun's ancestor. According to the supreme daughter, it can sense the location of the tear pool.

The blue lotus seed seems to have come back to life. It rotates gently, as if it was conscious, floating in one direction.

Ye Chen silently watched the green lotus seed and observed its movement, but sooner or later, the green lotus seed seemed to be a flying shuttle, which immediately crossed tens of thousands of miles and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

"This thing is too cunning!"

Ye Chen hurried to catch up with the blue lotus seed, which would leave a faint trace everywhere, so they wouldn't lose it. In this way, they stopped after crossing millions of miles along the edge of the void.

The lotus seed stopped above a sea area and pointed to something, as if telling Ye Chen that the destination was here.

Ye Chen released the idea of reincarnation and explored the sea area here, but he didn't find anything unusual.

The sea is calm and calm without wind and waves.

The blue lotus seed seemed to lose its support and fell down into the endless sea.

At the next moment, it was like a fire that ignited the whole oil pan. Countless sea water boiled and roared, and made an incomparably loud roar.

The waves swept high into the sky, and countless sea spirit beasts were also disturbed and jumped out of the water one after another.

Soon after, a wide channel appeared in the center of the sea area. The sea water was stretched on both sides, as if it had been forcibly separated by two invisible hands, forming two groups of wave water walls tens of thousands of meters high.

In the middle of the two water walls, there is a wide and straight avenue leading to the deep seabed.

"Let's go! This is probably the location of the tear pool."

Ye Chen took the lead in stepping in and disappeared under the sea level. Emperor Zhetian and Ji Siqing immediately followed.

After they entered, the overturned waves slowly returned to their original state.

Soon, the bodies of sea animals floated up and stretched across the sea.

They were broken by the earthquake.

.....

Ye Chen experienced the darkness in front of him, which suddenly opened up.

The scenery in front of us was rather bleak and bleak. Several withered trees stood on the Bank of the river. A row of crows stopped on the branches and kept making a harsh rattle.

Above the bridge deck, there is a broken small bridge.

Ye Chen swept around and didn't find the existence of tear pool.

"Didn't you say there would be a pool here?"

Ji Siqing was also very confused.

The world on the sea is magnificent, but there are only broken bridges, dead trees and crows under the sea.

However, these scenes seem to exist between reality and illusion. They are hazy. You can see them from a distance, but you can't see them from a close look.

Ye Chen vaguely felt something was wrong. He thought about it, and then took out the blue lotus seed.

The green lotus seed, which had been dormant, burst out in an instant, automatically separated from ye Chen's hand and entered the small stream.

Under its reflection, the scene in front of him began to change. Dead trees spring in the twinkling of an eye, and the desolate land has regained its vitality.

Those crows flew up in the air, and suddenly the fire flashed, and turned into a phoenix of nirvana.

When ye Chen saw this scene, he was a little stunned.

After these changes, the wasteland also became very mysterious, shook violently, and even opened a golden shield.

The bottom of the sea is a new world, and it emits a powerful field. For a time, the heavy pressure falls vertically, which immediately changes people's look.

But since Ye Chen came, he wouldn't flinch.

He took a step forward, and the true meaning of the six ways circulated on the fist surface, splitting a golden ancient road.

The breath from the field trembled twice and immediately broke open, and there was a door in front of him on the road.

"He's really getting stronger and stronger."

Ji Siqing stared at Ye Chen's figure and said softly.

The demon emperor was silent and obviously recognized her statement.

He can be said to have watched Ye Chen grow up all the way, and naturally understood his evil.

At this time, the foremost Ye Chen came to a mysterious light door.

There was a mysterious power of the road, shining and holy. Ruixia surged wildly, almost in a short moment, making him feel warm and comfortable.

He noticed the residual breath of Hongjun and continued to go inside.

Ji Siqing and Zhetian demon emperor crossed over without hindrance. They seem to have seen a pool of clear spring through this void.

Is that what the heavenly daughter called the tear pool?

However, the clear spring only appeared for a moment and soon disappeared.

However, before they could go far, in the dense fog space, a small dark beast rushed out, roared up to the sky, and the rolling sound wave vibration came.

The sound wave hit Ye Chen's spirit violently.

And ye Chen was also a little surprised. He immediately put on a posture and took out the Longyuan Heavenly Sword.

In an instant, the wind and cloud was still static, and the little beast, which was dark and had two horns on its head, slowly retracted.

"What is this?"

Not only Ye Chen, but also Ji Siqing and Zha Tianmo emperor feel strange.

They went on and entered the chaotic fog, thick white fog, so that they could not see the whole picture.

But soon they saw a medicine field, in which there were all kinds of herbs. The circulation of Qi was very fresh and tender. At first glance, it was not ordinary.

"Is this magic grass?"

The demon emperor recognized one of the broad leaf grass beads with black lines, and immediately exclaimed.

Ye Chen and Ji Siqing have never heard of such grass plants. They look at each other and have some doubts.

The demon emperor explained: "you don't know that this demon spirit grass is a divine medicine spread in the legend of demon cultivation. It's said that the person who takes this grass can plant the seeds of Taoist rhyme! When you cultivate to a certain level, it will be transmitted to the supreme demon world."

Demon world?

They have heard of this place. It seems to exist in legends. No one has really found it.

They were outside the fenced field, counting the rare herbs in it, when the dilapidated wooden house opened.

A slim figure came out of it. Her dress was very simple, her green silk was pulled up, and her face was gentle and soft, which made people look like a spring breeze.

When they saw her, they were immediately shocked.

But the woman in blue was very indifferent. She smiled and said, "all opportunities are up to you. Whether you can take them away depends on your ability."
