Chapter 9801

Cai Yi said: "It's a herb called Qibao Jingxinlian. This kind of medicinal material is born from ordinary Jingxinlian."

"The meditation lotus is a rare medicinal material with Buddha's light aura. It is extremely precious in itself. Under extremely rare circumstances, this kind of medicinal material may give birth to the grand atmosphere of the Seven Treasures Buddha."

"The meditation lotus with this grand atmosphere is the legendary Qibao meditation lotus. It can be said to be the most precious of the rare, and the rare of the rare. It was first cultivated by Qin Emperor Tianzun to help Huazu."

"Qin Emperor Tianzun nourished the medicinal herbs planted by Huazu with the supreme music, which caused the meditation lotus to undergo a mutation, and gave birth to the Qibao Pagoda."

"As far as I know, after the end of the Dharma-ending Era, the meditation lotus in the world has been extinct, and there is the last seven-treasure meditation lotus planted by Hua Zu as a treasure in his fairy grass garden. It is impossible for outsiders to get their hands on it."

Ye Chen frowned and said, "Seven Treasures Meditation Lotus, is it in Huazu's hands?"

Cai Yi said: "Yes, unless you kill Hua Zu, it's impossible to get the Seven Treasures Meditation Lotus."

"In fact, at the beginning of the Dharma-ending Era, the Sword Demon hadn't died yet. He was just tired of the world and was sitting there waiting to die. Emperor Qin Tianzun wanted to invite him out of the mountain, so he asked Huazu to take the Seven Treasure Meditation Lotus, hoping to help the Sword Demon suppress his hostility, so that He came out of the mountain, holding the sky in his arms."

"It's a pity that Hua Zu regards the Seven Treasures Meditation Lotus as his lifeblood, and he refuses to give it to Qin Emperor Tianzun. In the end, Qin Emperor Tianzun can only watch the sword demon sit and die."

Ye Chen said: "Is there still this past?"

The fate of heaven is really mysterious.

The sword demon in the previous life actually had the opportunity to come into contact with the Seven Treasure Meditation Lotus, but Hua Zu refused to give it to him, so he could only sit and die in the end.

Han Yan in this life also needs the Seven Treasures Meditation Lotus to stabilize his Dao heart and suppress the devil energy.

"Lord of Reincarnation, our territory is almost here."

Cai Yi pointed to the front with a look of relief on his face.

Ye Chen followed where he was looking, and saw a territory opened up in the void in front of him. The area was not too big, just like a village.

And in that village, there lived many people, all of whom were of Cai Yi's clan, who were once the subjects of Emperor Qin.

It is extremely difficult to carve out a piece of land in a place like Wandaoyuan, which can be called a dead place.

Ye Chen could imagine that Cai Yi and the others must have gone through endless hardships to find a place to live.

Above the village, an orange-red sun is suspended.

Look carefully, it is not the sun, but a leg.

A huge, crimson leg with surging energy and exploding Heavenly Emperor Qi!

That's Emperor Yantian's right leg!

On this right leg, the aura of heavenly fire gushes out, and the energy roars.

The violent breath of sky fire formed a mass of sun-like things.

And that right leg is like an ancient totem branded in the sun, surrounded by many thick iron chains, binding this right leg and fixing it in the void.

Those iron chains should have been arranged by Cai Yi's tribe to fix Yantian Emperor's right leg and prevent it from falling.

The iron chains intertwined and shuttled in the void, which further set off the surging power of Emperor Yantian's right leg. It seemed that as soon as the iron chains were loosened, this right leg would burst out with terrifying energy that would destroy the universe and starry sky, crushing everything.

Ye Chen was shocked in his heart, the strength of that right leg was more ferocious than the two Heavenly Emperor's arms he got before.

It's easy to understand, the strength of the thigh is definitely stronger than the arm.

"It's really... spectacular."

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes slightly, and couldn't look directly at that right leg at all.

The heavenly fire aura emanating from Yantiandi's right leg has formed a round sun, blazing, brilliant and glaring, making it impossible to look directly at.

"People from the village came out to pick us up."

Cai Yi laughed, and saw more than a dozen mighty warriors wearing animal skin clothes flying out of the village.

The dozen or so soldiers flew over quickly, but Ye Chen faintly felt something was wrong.

Because he saw that the faces of those soldiers seemed as cold as zombies, and there was a faint dark breath surrounding their skin.

Those dark auras, full of filthy and sinful waves, are the energy aura of the Heavenly Demon Star Sea!

"It's weird!"

Ye Chen let out a loud cry.

The dozen or so warriors flew over, suddenly pulled out the swords worn around their waists, and launched a surprise attack on Ye Chen, Cai Yi and his party.

This unexpected turn of events shocked the audience.

"You are crazy, don't you recognize me?"

"This is the Lord of Reincarnation!"

"Bold, you dare to attack the Lord of Reincarnation, believe it or not, I will drive you out of this place!"

Cai Yi was startled and shouted angrily. He is the leader of the village, and everyone usually obeys his orders.

But now, the dozen or so warriors attacked him like crazy, and the magic light burst out from the sword, extremely fierce.

Ye Chen carried Han Yan on his back, supported him with one hand, pulled out the Samsara Heavenly Sword with the other hand, swung the sword to meet the mad warrior, and said:

"They have been controlled by the goddess."

He has insight into the sky, and has vaguely glimpsed the mystery behind it.

The celestial girl came to the village one step ahead of him, and controlled the warriors in the village with a trace of energy from the Heavenly Demon Star Sea.

This ray of energy from the Omen Star Sea is very weak. If it is used on Ye Chen, it may not even pollute Ye Chen's skin.

After all, the Heavenly Maiden did not control the Demon Star Sea that day, and even if she wanted to use it at ordinary times, she needed complex chanting of mantras and resonance communication.

Chapter 9802

Without any chants to communicate, the energy she can mobilize from the Heavenly Demon Star Sea is actually very shallow, and it can't even be used for fighting.

However, members of Cai Yi's tribe were once polluted by the Heavenly Demon Star Sea and degenerated into demon gods.

Therefore, Tiannv can control them with just a little bit of energy from the Heavenly Demon Star Sea, and even have a chance to make them fall again.

"Goddess? It's her!"

Cai Yi turned pale with horror, seeing the demonic energy lingering on many soldiers, he was very anxious, and shouted:

"Lord of reincarnation, quickly use Emperor Qin's music to wake them up!"

Emperor Qin created ten famous songs in the past, and "New Rain in the Empty Mountain" is one of them. It can wash away evil spirits and eliminate sins, and the effect is excellent.

Ye Chen nodded, knowing that the situation was serious, he cut off several soldiers who attacked him with his sword, then sacrificed a guqin, played the piano with one hand, and wanted to play "New Rain in the Empty Mountain".

Boom——

However, when Ye Chen's fingers touched the strings, the strings broke strangely.

Boom—boom—

When he touched the remaining strings with his fingers, all the strings broke one by one, making a dull sound.

"It's the law of cause and effect!"

As soon as Ye Chen's face changed, he knew that the goddess was secretly laying down the law of cause and effect. As long as he wanted to play the piano, the strings would definitely break.

The heavenly girl was very scheming, she came to the village first, but she didn't immediately take away Yantian Emperor's right leg.

Because she knew that as long as Ye Chen didn't fall down, she couldn't take this opportunity away.

Only by defeating Ye Chen first, can she take away Yan Tiandi's right leg without any worries.

Swipe, swipe, swipe!

In the village, another figure flew out. The whole village was controlled by the goddess, including the old and the weak, women and children.

Everyone attacked Ye Chen like crazy.

Ye Chen's expression sank. With his method, it would not be a problem to slaughter the audience.

But, these people are all followers of Emperor Qin, how could he have the heart to kill them?

"Damn Goddess, want to mess with my Dao heart?"

Ye Chen raised his eyebrows and narrowed his eyes. He had already seen through the plot of the goddess, which was to force him to kill and disturb his Taoism.

As long as his Dao mind is disturbed, he will no longer be able to fight against the goddess.

At that time, Tiannv can defeat him, snatch Yantian Emperor's right leg, and even bring him back to the Death God Cult as a bait to lure Sun Yi out, get the concept of Forest Book, and get everything.

"Lord of reincarnation, the goddess wants to plot against you!"

"You go, leave this to me!"

"I will never let her plan succeed!"

Cai Yi roared loudly, and he also got a glimpse of the celestial girl's plan. Seeing many former clansmen attacking like crazy, his heart was pierced, and he knocked down a few people with his sword, and he couldn't bear to do it again.

Ye Chen felt sad and angry at the same time, and shouted at the village: "Nv Ren, get out!"

He has captured the breath of the goddess, and it is in the village.

In the village, there was indeed a crisp and pleasant voice, saying:

"If you kill all these people, I will come out naturally."

It was the voice of the goddess.

Ye Chen was furious, fantasized about creation, and made another piano, wanting to play it.

But this time, there was no exception.

As long as he touches the strings, the strings will break immediately, and there is a law of cause and effect in the dark, restricting everything.

If his instrument is strong enough, it may be able to break through the blockade of the law of causality.

However, the qin instrument he created at will is naturally impossible to fight against the law of cause and effect of the goddess.

In the real world there are real world rules.

In non-space-time there are rules of non-space-time.

And in Wuwu time and space, the law of causality is one of the most powerful means!

"This Ren Tiannv is really cruel."

When Emperor Qin saw the former believers, they were all demonized, and there was a glimmer of gloom in his eyes.

"Tomb owner, I will pass on another piece of music to you, but it's not a qin piece, but a flute piece. It's called "Pozhenzi", which is much simpler than "New Rain in the Empty Mountains", and it also has the effect of breaking demon barriers."

"If you play this song, you will definitely break the game."

Emperor Qin flicked his fingers, and a flash of spiritual light poured into Ye Chen's mind.

boom!

All of a sudden, in Ye Chen's mind, all kinds of notes shuttled and intertwined, pouring into a flute.

This xiao song is called "Pozhenzi", which is domineering, majestic, mighty, magnificent, and has the spirit of breaking and killing soldiers.

In terms of the rhythm of the music, this piece is too domineering, not as graceful and ethereal as "Empty Mountain New Rain", and the sense of hierarchy is much worse.

However, as long as it is played, it will also have the effect of breaking demon barriers, and it can awaken the demonized villagers present.

The rhythmic difficulty of "Broken" is much lower than that of "New Rain in the Empty Mountains", so Emperor Qin doesn't need to play it himself, but directly passes the score to Ye Chen, and Ye Chen can comprehend it.

In an instant, Ye Chen grasped all the essence of "Broken" by virtue of his outstanding talent.

brush!

Ye Chen transformed into a jade flute in his hand.

He brought the jade flute to his lips, and immediately began to play "Broken Time".

Suddenly, a majestic and clear flute sound came from Ye Chen's mouth.

The sound of the flute was fierce, as if a towering beacon erupted, behind Ye Chen, there was a grand atmosphere of thousands of troops charging and millions of heroes roaring.

Rumble!

The sound of horseshoes was like thunder, shaking heaven and earth, breaking through time and space.

Thousands of troops and horses, the rolling army, the torrent of steel, rushed out.

The many demonized villagers were attacked by thousands of troops. They vomited blood on the spot, were seriously injured, and fell to the ground convulsively.

However, although they were seriously injured, their eyes were clear and clear, and they were freed from the demonized state.

Chapter 9803

The effect of "Breaking the Formation" is manifested at this moment, with thousands of troops and horses rushing to kill, ten thousand demons and evils, and the domineering spirit is extraordinary.

But this song was too domineering. Although the demonized villagers were rescued, they were seriously injured and needed to be recuperated for a period of time before they could recover.

If they used "New Rain in the Kongshan Mountain", they would definitely not be harmed in the slightest.

But there is no way to do this, the goddess has already established the law of cause and effect, and Ye Chen can only use Xiaoqu to fight against it.

"What!"

In the village, there was a horrified cry from the goddess.

She never expected that Ye Chen would break her arrangement with a song "Broken Time" and bring all the villagers back to their senses.

This flute song of "Broken Array" is so majestic and majestic. When the goddess listens to it, she also feels that the iron horse and glacier are falling into a dream, and thousands of troops are roaring and rushing to kill, and her breath is suffocated.

Cai Yi was ecstatic when he saw his clansmen come to their senses, and shouted: "Master of Reincarnation, you are really powerful. Could it be that you have mastered all the ten famous songs of Emperor Qin Tianzun?"

Emperor Qin Tianzun has ten famous songs, including Qin, Xiao, Pipa, Zheng, flute, and Erhu.

Chapter 9804

Cai Yi said: "The lord of reincarnation is too risky. If he dives so deep, he may encounter something more terrifying than a demon god!"

Han Yan's eyes narrowed, as if he had made up his mind, and said, "I'm going to help my elder brother!"

He wanted to raise his sword to follow Ye Chen, but his head was weak and his body was weak, but the lingering sound of "Broken Array" dissipated, and his blood cooled down a lot. The consumption of the previous battle swept like a mountain roar and a tsunami, and he was already weak. He almost fell asleep again, unable to follow Ye Chen at all.

Alone, Ye Chen dived deep into the Myriad Swords Abyss.

In the boundless darkness, he vaguely saw an orange-red flame, which was naturally the light emanating from Emperor Yantian's right leg.

Emperor Yantian's right leg was not far from Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was overjoyed, so he quickly flew away, but at this time he gradually dived deep into the bottom of the Thousand Dao Sword Abyss, and he felt the biting cold air from ancient times.

This cold air is actually the killing sword air, which stimulates the pores of the skin and penetrates deep into the bone marrow, making people feel cold all over the body.

Ye Chen felt sharp pains coming from the depths of the bone marrow all over his body, and he knew that the surrounding sword energy had quietly invaded his body.

What's even more frightening is that the law of the void here carries an ancient coercion, which isolates Ye Chen from the cemetery of reincarnation.

"Reincarnation source body, open!"

Ye Chen yelled violently, and regardless of the consequences, he suddenly opened the source body of reincarnation.

The surrounding sword qi kills are pervasive. If he doesn't activate the reincarnation source body to fight, he will only end up being torn into pieces.

As soon as the reincarnation source body was opened, the wind totem erupted, and a violent hurricane rolled up. The Wings of Freedom behind Ye Chen became even brighter and more brilliant, and many sword qi were crushed away by the storm around him.

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly, but he saw figures appearing around him.

These figures are all Han Yan!

No, to be precise, it was Han Yan's previous life, the will of the Sword Demon!

These figures are the remnant will of the sword demon, condensed and evolved, each with expressionless faces, covered in darkness, with cold murderous aura in their eyes, like the dead souls of the sword.

Countless pairs of sharp and murderous eyes focused on Ye Chen, almost breaking Ye Chen's body. If he hadn't activated the source body of reincarnation early, he might have died.

"It's so strong and murderous in the way of the sword!"

Ye Chen was taken aback. There were many sword demon figures around him, all of which had fierce sword killing intent. Just one shadow was already very difficult to deal with.

But what Ye Chen has to face is thousands of ways, which seems to be a mortal situation.

brush!

Thousands of figures around him came out at the same time with sacrificial swords, and thousands of sword qi billowed and roared, cutting straight at Ye Chen, trying to strangle him to pieces.

Ye Chen took a deep breath, in such a mortal situation, he didn't keep anything, and directly unleashed the strongest sword.

"Zhishui Kendo, break it for me!"

Ye Chen shouted wildly, and a dark, deep, sky-defying, domineering sword force erupted from his sword.

This sword force is so overbearing that it can reverse everything, even reverse the logic of cause and effect.

This is the hegemony unique to Zhishui Kendo!

Everything in the world is based on causal logic. For example, the strong can crush the weak, the sun can crush stardust, and the gods can crush ants.

But Zhishui swordsmanship is so domineering enough to reverse the logic, that he slashed against the gods in the body of an ant.

Theoretically speaking, this sword can kill any enemy regardless of all realm gaps.

Of course, in reality, Ye Chen still can't do this, because his cultivation of Zhishui swordsmanship is far from enough.

However, it is enough to kill the many sword demon figures in front of him.

I saw the tens of thousands of sword demon sword qi roaring towards Ye Chen, but they were all broken by Ye Chen Zhishui's sword.

This is incredible.

Because Ye Chen's cultivation is only the eighth-level heaven of the immeasurable realm, logically speaking, it is impossible for him to fight against the siege of many sword demon figures.

But Zhishui Yijian is unreasonable, illogical, and ignores all causal restrictions.

As soon as this sword is released, it will kill all invincibles against the sky.

When Ye Chen used this sword, he not only destroyed all the sword demon's sword energy, but even the thousands of sword demon figures around him were instantly annihilated and turned into nothingness under the sweep of his sword energy.

Such unreasonable and unreasonable unreasonable overbearing fluctuations of the sword energy were transmitted to the top, completely shocking Cai Yi, Han Yan and many Qin Emperor disciples.

"Ah, this is Zhishui's sword! Brother Zhishui's kendo has reached this point?"

Han Yan was amazed. He knew that Ye Chen had mastered the Zhishui swordsmanship, but he didn't expect his cultivation to be so ferocious.

"As expected of the Lord of Reincarnation!"

Cai Yi also praised repeatedly, seeing Ye Chen's fierce appearance, no matter what danger there is, he can be killed with a single sword.

At this time, Ye Chen used the sword of Zhishui, which didn't consume much spiritual energy, but he felt that the dantian had a severe colic, and the foundation of Taoism had been damaged.

Zhishui Kendo is so overbearing, naturally there is a price, that is, it will damage the original foundation.

This is unreasonable, illogical, and the price of killing against the sky.

This price, if it is not a last resort, Ye Chen would never want to bear it.

"Huh... the original foundation is damaged, but it is not so easy to recover, I must get the right leg of Emperor Yantian!"

Ye Chen breathed out a turbid breath, looked down, and saw Emperor Yantian's right leg, quietly suspended in the void below, and the blazing and brilliant scorching breath rushed toward his face like magma.

With such scorching energy fluctuations, if an ordinary person dared to touch Yan Tiandi's right leg, he would be burnt to ashes directly by the intense heat.

"The power of the fire seed, start!"

With a slight movement of Ye Chen's mind, he immediately activated the energy of the fire source, and his palm was covered with a layer of flame.

The fire seed in the real world has already fallen into his hands. The energy of the fire seed comes from the fire star, which is connected with the right leg of Emperor Yantian.

Moreover, Ye Chen has the arm of Emperor Yantian himself, and then borrows the energy of the fire source to collect the right leg of Emperor Yantian, so naturally he will not be hurt.

He had just performed the water-stopping kendo, and the original foundation was damaged. Only by fusing the right leg of Emperor Yantian can the foundation be repaired.

This time, Ye Chen didn't encounter any accidents, and smoothly dived into the void below, bringing up Yantian Emperor's right leg.

The right leg of Yantian Emperor has extremely powerful energy, and even Ye Chen is difficult to refine and fuse it now.

"It is not an easy task to refine and fuse this right leg, and it will inevitably cost a huge price."

Ye Chen muttered in his heart, and first received Emperor Yantian's right leg into the space of Tianhuo Mingxing.

Chapter 9805

The Tianhuo Mingxing hadn't been lit yet, and the space was gray and dark. With the entry of Emperor Yantian's right leg, the dark space also became a little brighter.

If Ye Chen can completely refine and fuse Yantiandi's right leg, there may be a chance to stimulate the Tianhuo Mingxing and light it up.

The biggest question now is how the people of Cai Yi's tribe should survive after Ye Chen took away Yantian Emperor's right leg.

They are all believers of Emperor Qin Tianzun, Ye Chen naturally can't watch them degenerate and die.

Ye Chen spread out his wings of freedom, rushed into the air, and quickly returned to the outside of the village.

Cai Yi, Han Yan and others were overjoyed to see Ye Chen come back.

Cai Yi faintly felt the breath of Emperor Yantian's right leg in Ye Chen's body, and he was happy and worried, and said: "Master of Reincarnation, you have got the right leg of Emperor Yantian, have you refined it?"

Ye Chen said: "I got it, but I haven't refined it yet."

Han Yan interjected: "Brother, if you take away Emperor Yantian's right leg, people in the village may suffer."

He also saw that everyone in Cai Yi's tribe relied on Emperor Yan's right leg to survive. Once they lost it, they would not have enough protection, and they would be swallowed by the darkness of Wan Dao Jianyuan in a short time.

Ye Chen frowned, feeling troubled.

The dark evil spirit of Wan Dao Jianyuan is so fierce, even if he uses part of the energy of Lie Sun Ming Xing, it is difficult to suppress it.

Unless, he stripped off the entire scorching sun star to protect Cai Yi's tribe, but this is no different from suicide.

Cai Yi pondered for a while, and said: "Lord of Reincarnation, don't you master "New Rain on the Empty Mountains"? You play this song, and create a world of new rain on the empty mountains. Maybe you can provide us with a piece of pure land and survive."

Cai Yi and his tribe's life energy has been integrated with the ground vein of Wan Dao Jianyuan, and they cannot leave.

If they forcibly leave this place, they may not be able to withstand the laws of the outside world and die on the spot.

Therefore, they can only continue to live in this abyss world. He wants Ye Chen to help him build a pure land and settle down.

Ye Chen's eyes lit up, but then dimmed, and said: "My cultivation base is low, even if I create any world, I'm afraid it won't be able to stop the darkness of Wan Dao Jianyuan from swallowing."

If he plays "New Rain in the Empty Mountain", he can indeed create a world of pure land with new rain in the empty mountain, but even if the creation is successful, the world may be very fragile and cannot stop the darkness of Wan Dao Jianyuan.

Cai Yi thought for a while, then called the people on the left and right, and said, "Come here! Go and get the piano of the Great Sage's legacy!"

The followers on the left and right were shocked, and the people in the whole village were also surprised when they heard this.

"go!"

Cai Yi urged again.

"yes."

The left and right attendants took orders, hurriedly turned and entered the village, and after a while, they came out holding a long wooden box.

Ye Chen asked suspiciously, "What is this?"

Cai Yi took the wooden box carefully, opened it slowly, and said, "This is one of the musical instruments left by Qin Emperor Tianzun. It is called the Great Sage's Obscure Musical Instrument. Lord of Reincarnation, please take a look."

Ye Chen stared at it, and saw that inside the box was a guqin, made of paulownia wood, painted with antler sand gray, dark purple in color, gold emblem and jade hub, dragon-shaped broken patterns on the body, halo, purple Surrounded by air, engraved with the words "Great Sage's legacy".

"The legacy of the Great Sage?"

Ye Chen was taken aback, and felt that this guqin had an extraordinary temperament, as if it contained the spirit of ancient power, and it was hard to calm down when people took a look at it.

Cai Yi said: "Yes, Moyuan Mantuo, the flower ancestor, destroyed all the musical instruments of Qin Emperor Tianzun, but there are two guqins, because the beauty of Zhong Tiandi contains the monstrous law of the road, even the flower ancestor It cannot be completely destroyed."

"Those two guqins, one named Jiuxiaohuan Peiqin, are the

Chapter 9806

Could it be that this God of Poisonous Hands and Medicine is actually related to the cemetery of reincarnation?

Cai Yi said: "The god of poisonous hands and medicine is a very mysterious main god. I don't know his legend, but I only know that he is very powerful in poisoning skills. He was the one who was entrusted by Hua Zu to pollute the Great Sage's Yinqin. "

Ye Chen frowned and said, "How can I play this piano, since the strings have been contaminated with poison?"

Cai Yi said: "Lord of Reincarnation, you have a special bloodline. Others can't resist the poison laid down by the God of Poisonous Hands and Medicine, and you will die if you touch it, but I think you should be able to resist."

He is very confident in Ye Chen's reincarnation bloodline. As long as Ye Chen can use the Great Sage's legacy piano to play "New Rain in the Empty Mountain", he will surely create a sufficiently stable pure land world.

"Senior, you really think highly of me."

Ye Chen smiled wryly, and looked at the Great Sage's Oblivion Qin. The faint blue light flashing on the strings really made people shudder.

Even Ye Chen didn't dare to say that he could resist the poison on the strings.

"Lord of Reincarnation, I believe in you."

Cai Yi bowed and cupped his hands with a humble look, only asking Ye Chen to make a move immediately.

Ye Chen was hesitating, when suddenly, Han Yan cut his palm with a horizontal sword, put his palm on the strings, and drops of blood flowed out, dyeing the strings red.

"Brother Han, what are you doing?"

Ye Chen was taken aback, and saw that Han Yan's face was already pale. The blood he just released contained the energy of the essence of life, and he had spent a lot of money.

Han Yan grinned and said, "Brother, with my blood essence, I should be able to temporarily suppress the poison on the strings, and you can play now."

He has awakened the memory of the sword demon in his previous life, and his bloodline has also transformed and evolved a lot. The energy of essence and blood is very strong. Although it is not as good as Ye Chen's reincarnation bloodline, it is not difficult to suppress the poison on the strings for a short time.

However, his way of doing this consumes a huge amount of his own blood.

Seeing this, the members of Cai Yi's family were shocked and grateful.

Seeing the poisonous air on the strings, Ye Chen was indeed suppressed a lot, sighed, and said, "Brother Han, thank you very much."

At the moment, Ye Chen didn't talk nonsense, sat cross-legged on the void, and put the piano of the great saint's legacy in front of his knees.

The strings were still stained with Han Yan's blood, which was shocking.

To be cautious, Ye Chen opened the Ancient Poison Vein in the Samsara Vein, and the energy of the scorching sun and life star in his body was also ready to go.

If it is really contaminated with some kind of toxin, Ye Chen can

Chapter 9808

The celestial girl who left Wan Dao Jianyuan will definitely not go back to the Death God Cult empty-handed, and she will definitely stare at the ownerless Dao Order!

Ye Chen was only worried that the heavenly girl had already snatched away the Dao Token, so it would be troublesome.

Chu Qingsong said: "That's not true, but the competition for Dao Ling is fierce."

"This unowned Dao Order, the weather spread, attracted the attention of many young geniuses, many strong people rushed here, even the Shinto list

Chapter 9809

That Cai Ruzhen seems to be right ahead!

Moreover, Cai Ruzhen's aura seemed very strange, intertwined with life and death. Before he actually saw her, Ye Chen didn't dare to confirm whether she was alive or dead.

"Strange, really weird."

"Unexpectedly, this Cai Ruzhen is here, and I can't deduce her life or death."

Ye Chen murmured to himself, only feeling that behind Cai Ruzhen, threads of fate were intertwined, and there was a very complicated cause and effect behind it.

These threads of fate include Huazu's, Qindi's, Jianzi Xianchen's, Chu Bingyu's, and even Sun Yi's!

"Sun Yi?"

Ye Chen was stunned, this is weird, back then, Cai Ruzhen risked to leave Wan Dao Jian Yuan in spite of her father's objection, and went to Dao Zong to seek revenge from Hua Zu, how did she get involved with Sun Yi?

Ye Chen only felt that things had become complicated and confusing. He wanted to figure out the cause and effect behind it, but the thread of fate behind Cai Ruzhen was very complicated and could not be unraveled at all.

Unless, seeing her in person, there is a possibility of cracking it.

Walking all the way, soon, Ye Chen and others came to the place where the golden beam of light was emitted.

It was inside the Shenyun Mountain Range, scattered among the mountains, a huge lake.

The Shenyun Mountain Range is vast and stretches for tens of thousands of miles. The lake in front of Ye Chen also has a radius of thousands of miles, which is very vast.

The lake is full of water vapor, and the lake water is clear and clear, but there is no dark atmosphere, it looks fresh and bright, like a piece of bright mirror and beautiful jade.

At this time, on the lake, there were two groups of people standing on the water, facing each other with swords drawn.

Among them is a group of people, headed by Ren Tiannv, all dressed in white, with a murderous look, they are all members of the Reaper's Cult, and they are subordinates trained by Tiannv herself, there are about a hundred people.

The other group of people are all in black, and there are more than a hundred people.

The leader was also a stern-looking young man dressed in black. He was obviously the leader of the Yemeng League, a bronze-medal assassin who used to be in the Deep Underworld, Ye Fengxing.

People and horses on both sides, one black and one white, confront each other on the lake, and the picture is very spectacular.

And in the middle of the two groups of people, there is a giant beast, a huge white toad, with a body like a mountain, with six eyes, and wisps of cold mist emanating from its body, making the nearby lake water , All formed ice flowers.

This is the six-eyed ice toad, a powerful ferocious beast in Wuwu time and space. It is a famous existence on the list of divine beasts. It is born with blood of ice and snow and has extremely high medicinal value. It was hunted endlessly and almost became extinct in the end.

Ye Chen did not expect that there was a six-eyed ice toad that was almost extinct in the Shenyun Mountain Range.

The Six-Eyed Ice Toad's body was covered with scars, dripping with blood, the flesh and blood were exposed, the pupils of the eyes were white, and he was seriously injured. Half of his body was soaked in the lake water, dying.

But above the head of the six-eyed ice toad, there is a token floating, and the token is printed with the word "Tao", surrounded by golden light, and the weather is soaring, it is the Order of the Great Way without a Master.

When Ye Chen saw the scene in front of him, he knew that the Wuzhu Dao Token was originally inside the six-eyed ice toad.

But the six-eyed ice toad had already been severely injured by Tiannv and Ye Fengxing, and it was soaked in the water dying, and the Dao Ling in its body was beaten out.

The heavenly girl looked coldly, looked at the Dao Ling, then at the Six-Eyed Ice Toad, and said to Ye Fengxing:

"Ye Fengxing, I can give you this order, but this six-eyed ice toad must belong to me!"

Tiannv already has the Dao Token, and she wants to fight for the Dao Token because she doesn't want Ye Chen to get it.

Now that Ye Fengxing also wants to fight for it, it doesn't matter if she hands it off.

But, the Six-eyed Ice Toad, she couldn't miss it.

This six-eyed ice toad is a near-extinct mythical beast with extremely high medicinal value. If she got it and used it as medicine to practice kung fu, it would be a great opportunity.

Ye Fengxing laughed loudly, and said, "Ren Tiannv, what are you, are you worthy of bargaining with me?"

"You are just defeated by the Lord of Reincarnation. Dao ordered me to take it, and I want the Six-eyed Ice Toad. Get out of here immediately. I can spare your life for the sake of the Reaper's Cult."

Hearing Ye Fengxing's sharp and arrogant words, Tiannv's eyes suddenly showed a murderous look, and she said:

"Shameless, do you really think I'm easy to bully?"

"Reaper, answer me!"

She uttered a chant, which resonated with the former God of Death, Sea King Demon Venerable. Suddenly, a hideous and strange image of God of Death appeared behind her, with a layer of black air like mist covering the ice-white skin.

The next moment, the celestial girl swung her sword, and the sword pierced Ye Fengxing's heart with the murderous aura of death.

On the tip of her sword, the majesty of the god of death is full, which is enough to disturb people's Taoism.

Ye Fengxing's face changed slightly, and he felt a tingle in his spirit, his heart shook, he snorted, and said, "It's interesting, but you are not my opponent yet!"

He took a deep breath, stabilized his spirit, and suddenly sacrificed a blood-colored flying sword, which was as bright as a rainbow, and slashed at the goddess.

The celestial girl was unmoved, and still stabbed with her sword.

This sword carried the coercion of death, and she had never used it in front of Ye Chen.

Because she knew that Ye Chen's Taoism was strong, and the coercion of the death sword could not affect Ye Chen in the slightest.

However, Ye Fengxing is not Ye Chen.

His Dao heart cannot be compared with Ye Chen.

Although Ye Fengxing tried his best to stabilize his mind, he still felt a bit of instinctive panic when the celestial girl's sword came to kill him, and the pressure of the god of death shrouded him. The trajectory of the bloody flying sword he sacrificed suddenly deviated.

Tiannu didn't defend, she stabbed with her sword, still pointing at Ye Fengxing's heart.

Ye Fengxing was shocked, and hurried to avoid it, but he was still a little slow. He was stabbed in the shoulder by Tiannu's sword, and blood shot out immediately, his bones were pierced, and the pain was severe. He groaned, looking very embarrassed.

The goddess withdrew her sword and retreated, her figure was very chic, she said with a disdainful smile:

"Why, weren't you very arrogant just now?"

"Are you still arrogant now?"

"Alliance leader!"

Seeing that he was injured, many warriors behind Ye Fengxing were shocked and angry. They drew their swords and looked at the heavenly women with murderous intent.

The warriors behind Tiannu also drew out their swords brazenly, without any fear, and the battle between the two sides was imminent.

Ye Fengxing waved his hand to signal his subordinates not to be impulsive. He sneered and said, "Goddess, it seems that you still have a lot of hole cards hidden. I underestimated you."

"Forget it, the six-eyed ice toad can be yours, I just need the Dao Order."

The goddess smiled and said, "Very well, then we will see you at the Taoist Grand Competition."

Ye Fengxing nodded, and wanted to collect opportunities with the goddess.

This might be the best outcome right now

"Hey, you two lifeless guys are sharing opportunities here, do you really think my elder brother doesn't exist anymore?"

Chapter 9810

At this moment, a clear voice sounded, and a tall and straight young man rushed into the lake with his sword in hand.

Ye Fengxing was about to receive the Dao Order, but was forced back by this young man with a sword.

"who?"

Ye Fengxing was furious, looked at the young man, his face trembled, and said:

"The eldest son of the Tiandao family?"

This young man is none other than Han Yan.

Tiannv's eyes moved slightly, she looked to one side, and saw Ye Chen, surrounded by many elites of the Chu family, striding forward.

"Brother, just let me be enchanted and kill them all, and you can play the piano again to help me regain my sobriety!"

Han Yan yelled at Ye Chen, wanting to enter the demon and kill everything.

Ye Chen waved his hand and said in a deep voice, "Don't be impulsive."

Although Han Yan killed everything invincible after he became enchanted, but if he became enchanted frequently, it would definitely cause irreparable damage to his body.

As a last resort, Ye Chen didn't want Han Yan to be possessed.

"Ye Chen, you have already got the right leg of Emperor Yantian, and you are still so greedy, wanting to seize the opportunity of the Great Order?"

The goddess stared at Ye Chen with a rather cold voice.

Ye Chen said with a smile: "Fortunately, the more the better, this way makes me want it, you go, don't force me to do it."

While speaking, Ye Chen secretly calculated that Cai Ruzhen's whereabouts.

He was sure that Cai Ruzhen was nearby, but after careful calculation, he couldn't find the exact location, which was very strange.

When the heavenly girl heard that Ye Chen wanted the Dao Order, she sneered and said, "Ye Chen, you are really as greedy as usual, and you want to take this six-eyed ice toad too?"

Ye Chen looked at the dying six-eyed ice toad, and said, "Naturally."

The six-eyed ice toad has extremely high medicinal value. If it is used to refine medicine and then taken, Ye Chen is confident that he will break through to the immeasurable nine-level heaven, the realm of the immortal emperor.

Naturally, he would not miss such an opportunity.

Hearing Ye Chen's words, Tiannv and Ye Fengxing both laughed.

Ye Fengxing said: "Goddess, let's join forces first and kill the Lord of Reincarnation!"

He knows that Ye Chen is powerful, even though he is a member of the Shinto list
