

Pinnacle 1151

Chapter 1151

Iris chuckled upon hearing that. "That's not your daddy, Evie! It'd be great if he were, though!"

Zoey sighed. "Let's not joke about the God of War, Iris. He's no ordinary human. He's a god."

"Oh, wasn't Evie's first word 'daddy'? You really worked hard on that."

Iris remembered how Zoey had taught the child to say 'daddy' first instead of 'mommy'.

That was why Forlevia's very first word was 'daddy'.

Iris gazed at Zoey sternly. "Zoey, I know you still love Levi, but you have to accept how things are now. Even if he's still alive, he probably won't come back. Who knows, he might have even followed his dad's footsteps and found himself another wife. It's not impossible."

Thump.

Zoey's heart sank.

There was certainly a possibility.

This was what Tyrone did, after all.

if his son did the still young, so I suggest you find another man to walk the path with you this anymore, Iris. Besides, I have a don't care if you have Evie! Who would say no to you anyway, considering who you are right now?

You're not lacking

recalled how her godfather,

treated her and Forlevia so well that Zoey didn't know

be happy. The guy he's picked out will be here in North

out a sigh. "I guess

she had no other intention on

to

for Evie! Besides,

and she had

North Hampton's remote entrances. There was no traffic here; instead, it was an area with men stood in two straight lines, Percy paced back and the sound of engine rumbling began to surface

to make their way

flags that danced

Erudia, there were also flags with the

Chapter 1152

The god-like man was back.

Percy and his men had nothing but respect and admiration for him.

This man had done what no one else in the world could do—twice.

Moreover, Blood King Palace had become even more powerful the second time round.

Yet, Levi and his forces had created an absolute miracle.

But instead of heading to Oakland City to receive his accolade, Levi had chosen to return to North Hampton discreetly.

The true hero doesn't seek adulation, he fights for what is right simply because it's his nature. Percy couldn't help but think to himself.

On the same day, the man Dale had arranged to be Zoey's suitor arrived in North Hampton.

If Zoey were childless, Dale would have definitely chosen for her to marry someone within his own family.

However, the Lehmans were the third most prominent ancient family in Erudia. They still had to watch their reputation.

Still, the man Dale had chosen was an exceptional one.

He was Jerry Gott, the successor of an imperial family in Oakland City.

He ranked third on the Heir Leaderboard.

This man was no wastrel, and he certainly wasn't a philanderer.

single negative rumor about referred to him as

was

the Heir Leaderboard, but a great deal

willing to marry Zoey, and he accepted the fact that a woman who already had a child was a disgrace to

Zoey was Dale's

family had no choice but to Dale's eldest ferociousness akin to
was hot-tempered and extremely Oakland City
his
young heirs had coveted Zoey, only was why no one had dared cross Zoey for the other suitors fled with terror upon hearing that Edwin's only man he seemed to well, Jerry. You'll understand, Edwin," Jerry replied with a nod. "I'm very fond peculiar glint flashed in met at the other, Jerry seemed extremely pleased accepted the fact that the woman was once

Chapter 1153

2-2 minutes

---

Just as Jerry made his request, a loud voice boomed across the room like thunder.

Everyone was shocked.

Zoey and Iris were immediately stupefied upon hearing that familiar voice.

Could it be...

No. It can't be him...

The women trembled involuntarily as they exchanged glances.

With her big, innocent eyes, Forlevia gazed in the direction of the entrance.

At the very moment, a tall, mighty figure emerged.

It was Levi!

At present, the man looked rather worn-out. There was soot on his face, and his clothes were tattered as though he had just escaped the jaws of death.

Still, none of that diminished the murderous energy he now emitted. Everyone's scalp began to tingle as goosebumps formed on their skin.

Levi had just returned from the battlefield, so he had no time to tidy himself.

He had come over hastily right after enduring the hardships of a long journey.

Edwin and Jerry were stunned upon seeing Levi.

Who is he?

Is he some refugee?

Zoey," Levi

"Huh?"

Zoey was utterly dumbfounded.

countless times, even dreaming about now that Levi was actually standing right in

was reality

she could only

eyes were on the

stared right back

looked so similar to each

had his eyes

her

of familial love began

something he

This child was his!

the child

would usually cry if a stranger picked

not cry, but she even gazed at him

Daddy!" the

Boom!

hearing the sweet child's voice, Levi instantly froze and his experienced being a little girl in his arms was like the most precious gem he had ever owned—the most important “Daddy’s back! Daddy’s back!” had long remembered Levi’s face after frequently seeing Zoey looking photo was, but the “My little girl!”

Chapter 1154

2-3 minutes

---

No one had expected this from Levi.

Not even Levi himself.

The man gave his mouth a wipe as a look of disbelief formed on his face.

He could feel something different within his body.

He felt especially frail and was even beginning to have double vision.

Am I... injured?

That can't be.

We may have fought Blood King Palace for over a year, but no one has managed to hurt me.

Could it be...

Levi began to recall.

During the final battle with Blood King Palace, Levi had faced Bloodking and the Four Bloodmasters on his own.

Ultimately, he had the last laugh and all of them died in his hands.

But before Bloodking drew his last breath, he told Levi, “I’ll be waiting for you down below.”

Back then, Levi merely thought the man was just spewing nonsense and paid no attention to it.

But now that this was happening...

Realization quickly dawned on Levi.

I've been poisoned!

most terrifying force in the Western Dark World. They

of poisoning someone was nothing out could I not have known about this? I'm only

"Cough, cough..."

two more times, only to expel

This poison is insane.

aware of Levi's true abilities knew how powerful

had no effect on his years, he

time his body was having

have done it right before he died, just maybe... his true purpose was simply to kill poison really is something

"Are you okay?" asked Zoey and Iris after

Jerry jumped

light shove, yet the latter had suddenly

"How did you turn out this way?" Zoey

so miserable

a sheet, and blood trickled from his mouth. The man looked like he had just narrowly escaped

he run off to

to conclusions about

dealing with something

Levi smiled. "I'm fine."

his body and forced himself to suppress the toxins, his complexion quickly returned to

Forlevia yelped

hell are you? Give me back

Chapter 1155

2-2 minutes

---

They hadn't heard him when he mentioned who he was, but now that they knew, even Jerry stared at him in bewilderment.

So he's that scumbag?

The guy everyone in the country calls a cowardly disgrace?

Zoey immediately jumped to Levi's defense. "No, he never abandoned us. Isn't he here right now?"

"Hah! Where was he when you gave birth to Evie? Where was he when went to face the Garrisons head-on? Where was he when you and Emma Jones were ready to die for him, and what about the time you raise the child on your own?"

Zoey fell silent at Edwin's string of questions.

She couldn't deny the truth.

"The Garrisons have forgotten about him, the child has grown up, and you're now the Queen of the Corporate World. And now, he's finally shown up! This spineless man is here only because the danger's gone. Isn't it obvious? Are you really still going to believe him?" Edwin remarked.

"I..."

Zoey was tongue-tied.

at Levi

matter how urgent his matters may have been, he shouldn't should've at least told

a year and finally shows up now. What's the point more, he shows up at this time so it was very protect him, Zoey!" Edwin demanded. "You should be treating him like a stranger or even a dead man! He's gone. This isn't him!

in too. "That's right, Zoey. He doesn't deserve

Zoey. I've disappointed you for the second time. No amount of words can describe how sorry I feel. I promise there won't mistake I've made. So, can I kill someone and say I'm sorry?"

Even Iris was infuriated.

didn't do all this just to hear you

You're heartless, Levi.

promise never to leave you and the baby

Chapter 1156

2-2 minutes

---

Both Jerry and Edwin glanced at Levi contemptuously.

They were curious to find out what kind of nonsense he was about to make up.

"I..."

Levi began to hesitate.

"Go on! You're not going to say you were busy protecting the country, are you?"

"Well, that's possible. Someone like him could come up with anything!"

Levi gazed at Zoey. "Yes, I was indeed protecting the country. I really had no choice. It was a top-secret operation, so I couldn't tell you about it."

But right after he finished speaking, the few of them glared at him with fury.

"Did you hear that, Zoey? He's full of sh*t! To think he has the balls to say he was protecting the nation!"

Edwin was livid.

He had always been hot-tempered, and everyone in Oakland City feared his existence as though he was Hades.

Most importantly, he despised people like Levi most.

Zoey was skeptical with didn't ask you to manipulate me

hoarsely with tears

to hear his explanation. He has nothing to do with you and Evie

the hell do you mean by that? The child

to

Lopez, do you understand?" shouted Edwin. "Zoey's forgotten all about you. She thinks you're dead! Where were you while she was in labor?

you come back, Levi Garrison?

entrance. Both the Lopez and Black families to strike Levi with her walking

"No, Grandma!"

Zoey frantically stopped her.

no words for you, Levi Garrison. How and Caitlyn

Queen of the Corporate World. She's also the goddaughter of Mr. Dale daughter only now? How shameless yourself! You look like a refugee.

others proceeded to nothing

actions had indeed

everyone had

Chapter 1157

2-3 minutes

---

Levi's face was cold as he articulated each word clearly, "Don't force me!"

He exuded a murderous aura as he spoke.

The people around him felt as though there was a heavyweight pressed on their chests, making it difficult to breathe.

Meredith became furious upon seeing Levi acting like a wild beast. "What? Are you gonna hit me?"

Everyone could feel his intense desire to kill someone, and both Jerry and Edwin fell into a daze that instant.

The man standing before them gave off a vibe of a powerful master.

But that's not possible!

We knew everything about him. There's no way he could be a master.

A flash of killing intent flashed through Levi's eyes as he growled, "I'll kill whoever that changes my child's last name! Just know that I don't make frivolous remarks!"

"How dare you? I will change Evie's surname whether you like it or not. She'll be called Forlevia Gott from now on! There, I said it!" Edwin roared, obviously enraged by Levi's words.

"Mr. Lehman, you're Zoey's godbrother. You definitely have the right to change the child's surname!" Meredith and the others said in an unctuous manner.

he provoked as he gave

and the others were happy to see the situation

Edwin was hot-tempered, and he was capable of terrifying things, so death would be had gotten rid of him, Zoey “You’re asking for it!”
that moment, Levi’s fury was obvious, and whole year, so he would easily give in to his murderous it simply – Levi was just like a gunpowder keg outrageous! Who does he think he is – trying to change slowly advanced towards him and sneered, “Come on. Didn’t you say that you’re going to “Die!” the latter roared.
violent, domineering aura filled the space. How he moment, a pang
though he would actually be killed suddenly screamed at him a slap across his face. “You unfilial son! How dare you come back? What face darkened, but he put on a strong front
He didn’t blame anyone.

Chapter 1158

2-3 minutes

---

He couldn’t let the matter with the Garrison family from Oakland City off so easily. Besides, he wanted to give Zoey an explanation and clear his mother’s name too.

Three of these things could be resolved together.

However, everyone was shocked by his words.

Back to Oakland City?

To the Garrison family?

Is this fella crazy?

The Garrison family finally forgot about this, yet he seems so eager to get himself killed.

That’s Erudia’s most powerful ancient family!

Even Dale Lehman has to show them respect!

Zoey glanced at Levi with a puzzled look on her face. "You... Why would you want to go to the Garrison family? Weren't you supposed to give me an explanation? What does this have to do with them?"

"Zoey, please just give me another chance. If I can't give you a perfect explanation, I'll leave on my own," he said while looking at her in anticipation.

"Who do you think you are? Another chance? Are you even worthy of it?" People from the Lopez and Black families began grumbling upon hearing what he had said.

hasn't made any progress at all. It's always has the audacity to ask for another chance eyes as an idea popped into her head. She was afraid that Levi would act on impulse spoke up, "No! Zoey, you can't give him any more chances. What he did this actually being so insistent because she said while looking at Zoey, "Your father arranged this wedding, Zoey. If you give him a chance, your as she

"I, Jerry Gott, have always been a passive person. I acted impulsively earlier. However, I want to give my blessings. So why don't we just go to Oakland up when they heard what Jerry had

What a gentleman.

definitely picked the we'll do what you asked for. We'll head to Oakland City and with the arguments

us the explanation, you and the kid to the Lehman residence. No matter

Zoey and the others headed you doing? The Garrison family isn't pursuing the matter, yet you're going to anxious even her one that has to go. You have to as well! Did

"Uh..."

Chapter 1159

2-3 minutes

---

Zoey and the rest arrived at Oakland City first, and they stayed at the Lehman residence in the meantime.

They saw an authoritative old man sitting in there the moment they entered.

Though he was seated, his aura was so intimidating and heavy that everyone found it difficult to breathe.

It's Dale Lehman!

The head of the third ancient family in Erudia.

In the eyes of an ordinary person, he was just like a god.

"What? That b*stard is back?" Dale spat.

As a blunt and righteous person, he liked Zoey's personality. At the same time, he was disgusted by Levi for abandoning his wife and daughter.

"Yes! He even tried to ruin the engagement you planned and take his daughter away," Edwin said.

Dale glared at him and asked, "Where did that temper of yours go? Shouldn't you have broken his legs for doing so?"

The latter hung his head. "Father, I was going to cripple him, but Jerry said that we should see just what kind of explanation he would give Zoey. Jerry's a gentleman after all, and he wanted to give his blessings."

The excuses they give are just too much! Besides, so what if he'd given her an explanation?

young master of the Garrison clan, I will not accept him! He needs to show me that he's capable

she saw that her godfather's didn't have the guts to go against what virtue and prestige. Everything go to the Garrison residence?" Dale wants to go there to give Zoey an explanation. Although, I don't know what We'll wait and see just what exactly he'd do," Dale

his group arrived at Oakland

was his

had received awards countless am here, and I'm

Dragon seemed like a completely different person

his

I'm back!

back what belongs to

and Grandpa. Are you

are we heading to the Garrison

Dragon take care of his always like that, putting others

Chapter 1160

2-3 minutes

---

A lot of people found out that Levi had resurfaced and planned to head to Oakland City.

As for Tiffany, she was absolutely delighted when she found out.

Martin, on the other hand, was extremely excited upon hearing the news.

His reputation had been ruined in just a year, and his place on the Heir Leaderboard fell from second place to seventeenth place.

Everyone within Oakland City humiliated him for being unable to handle Levi.

Martin had suffered through all the insults and criticism the whole time.

Gradually, he became reticent and tended to shut himself off from the world.

Even the Preston family thought that he had gone insane.

With that, Martin scoffed and said, "Now that he's here, all of you would finally understand."

He looked forward to seeing Levi stir up chaos in Oakland City so that the arrogant and impudent people would finally understand that there was always someone stronger.

On the contrary, all the other prominent families were waiting for Levi to make a fool out of himself when they heard he was about to head to Oakland City.

was already the biggest

Levi Garrison had become an adjective to describe men

man was leading his group of people

cold and terrifying, each of them giving

was Asura and his three disciples

out with a

You

Winsor spoke only a few words, he was actually praising Levi's contribution to eliminating the my wife. I

it weren't for him, Zoey and the others

I can do is bow

at him before nodding. "Indeed, you do owe me a
of them

expected Winsor to froze for a moment before answering, "How should I return

my challenge!" Winsor

he had been displeased with the

I am. I should've had challenged the latter dozens of times, but the latter didn't care much for rankings and would reject him

if I were to hold a knife against his neck.